

Chapter 196

ARCS

And those words drove me over the edge. I bring her head down to mine and kiss her while I hold her hip with the other hand, guiding her to roll her hips. She was so tight that my cock felt there was no room anymore to stretch which was all the more amazing.

So wet, so hot and so tight, this was heaven. My own personal heaven. I growled, sucking her bottom lip and drawing out a grunt from her. She pulls away, breathing heavily while whispering my name. Our eyes connected and I held my breath. So beautiful.

"You are so beautiful Rue." I murmur, cupping her cheek and brushing my thumb over her smooth skin. If it were not night and the moon was brighter I would certainly see the blush I was sure she was spotting.

"And you're big." She lets out before gasping, eyes widening in shock. Shock that she no doubt let out something she had intended to keep to herself. I chuckle brushing my thumb over her bottom lip.

"Am I hurting you?" I asked, rocking my hips slowly to let her adjust to the size of me. She pant nails scraping against my chest. I could feel her get even more wet by my actions and as if praising me, her pussy gives my cock a firm squeeze. How delicious.

She shakes her head, lifting herself a little and guiding herself back down. "I can handle it." She whispered eyes locking with mine. "Do not hold back."

She did not know that it took everything in me to not pound into her. If I were to lose control, then there was no chance of her walking for weeks. And her being in pain would only make me feel completely worse.

I gripped her hips, guiding her up and down my cock. Hissing as her tight walls sucked me as she went. Her eyes, so intense, were staring at me with an emotion I never knew someone like her could have.

Her eyes close as she gets lost in the feeling of riding me and when she opens it back they are not her usual violet but a glowing yellow. Either she did not know she just revealed to me that she was part wolf or that she did not care because she later got bored of the slow thrust and picks up speed.

I grunt, balls tightening as her heat traps me in ecstasy. "Rue." I gasp, tightening my hold on her hips. If I did not know any better I would say that this was not her first time. She continues her sweet torture, her wet pussy clamping around my thick girth as I thrust up to meet her.

Fuck going slow, my balls could not hold it, I needed release. And her sweet pussy was not helping either especially since Alchemy wanted to take over. My canines tingled, knowing the time was coming to mark her as mine. I bring her head down to mine, capturing her soft cries of pleasure with my lips and tongue.

I may be immortal but being inside of her made me think that I had died and gone to heaven. This was how amazing she felt wrapped around me. Eternity with her feels like the best thing that could ever happen to me.

Rûe

I never knew I could feel so connected to one being so much that I could feel him in my veins. My heart was racing and I could feel sharp tingles where we were connected. I could feel him inside of me, feel every inch of him.

At first it hurt when his cock was ripping through my maidenhead. I had sadly learned about sex on my own since I had no parent to educate me on that topic. I had stumbled on a mated couple long ago, fucking in the forest. I was disgusted by the act, especially the girl's loud moans but I was also intrigued by how their bodies were connected.

How their moans were not of pain but pleasure and how their eyes spoke how much they loved each other. Of course me being me, studied them before killing them for disturbing my peace and my eyes. Now I know what they were feeling in that moment because now I was the one experiencing it.

"Blasted fuck." Ares grunt pulling away from my lips to trail kisses down my neck. He thrust in me, his cock stretching me more and more as it drove deeper. He felt so good. Warm, hard and the way he filled me completely had me moaning in pleasure like crazy.

I shivered when his canines teased down the curve of my jaw. I pant when his hands slither up my thighs then the curve of my bottom and he cups them, squeezing them before giving a hard slap. I hissed, jerking slightly at the sting but moaning at the pleasure from it.

"You are mine, Rue." He grunts cock thrusting up. I rolled my hips, loving how his cock jerks as I slide down the length. I could feel my juices spilling out, coating him as he fucks me.

"Ares." I gasp when his canines stop at the tender spot where he is supposed to mark me. I hear him grunt, sharp teeth poking at the soft flesh. I shivered, squirming in pleasure.

My entire body blazes with a fire and my head feels like someone was pounding into it the same way Ares was pounding into me from below. The voice of my wolf comes through but this time I do not feel fear to let her loose.

Instead I wanted Ares to sink his teeth and mark me so I could be connected to him forever. I do not care if I have to learn the ways of the wolf people if I have to. I would not mind being half a dog just to be with him if I have to.

That is right Rue, give in. Unleash me.

I gasp when my canines tingle and feel my wolf breaking through the invisible barrier. Not having a second to think as I felt Ares's teeth sink into my flesh. It stings at first as it pierces through but as it goes deeper the tightening feeling in my stomach starts again.

I moan as I clamp around his member, thighs shaking as I come. My vision goes white for a second before it clears into tiny little specks of white that resemble stars. I could feel that my own teeth had lengthened and I had a strong urge to sink them into his own flesh.

Unable to stop it, I dip my head, still shaking with an orgasm as my teeth found Ares's neck. I licked the spot a little, making him shudder and then sink my teeth into his flesh. I never knew how good it would feel sinking one's teeth into their mate's flesh but this was heaven.

I could hear his thoughts, feel his own feelings and when I thought I could not possibly get more his cock jerks, throbbing as he spills hot liquid into me. I moan, eyes shutting as he fills me. I never knew a male could have so much semen, it was pouring out of me and dripping down his cock.

There was no going back now, we were connected. We were one.
