

Chapter 224

Rûe

There was just something in his voice that made me know that whatever he was up to, I would not be able to walk properly for days. And I loved the thought very much.

So instead of being fearful of the incoming torturous pleasure I decided to tease him. "Depends on if you can last that long Ares." My eyes drop to his thick cock straining through his breeches. The monstrous organ was throbbing and wanting out.

I move my hands from his shoulder and before he could stop me, I started stroking him through his breeches. He hisses, reaching out for my hand to stop me. "I am up for the challenge." He grunts, prying my much smaller hand away from his harden cock.

I could only seem to let out a shocked gasp when his hands grabbed ahold of my waist and hoisted me up on his shoulders in a quick move. With my back pressed on the door and my legs around his shoulders, Ares had easy access to my dripping core.

The green silk dress had ridden up until the ends were at my waist, baring me fully to my hungry mate. His eyes flashes a deeper red as he sucks in a sharp inhale of my scent. "You smell so good." He moans and does not waste a second to bring his head to my wet core.

I let out a hiss, bringing my fingers to tug at his hair as I peer down at his head between my thighs. I shudder when his tongue plunges into my slit, fucking me until I cry out. "Oh God, Ares." I cry, tightening my hold in his dark tresses.

He chuckles the vibration thrumming through my core. He pulls away, his desire filled eyes peering up at me with possessiveness. "I know I am immortal but never had I known that I am a God." His lips split into a smile, glistening with my juices.

I huffed, forcefully drawing his head back to my pussy. "Shut up dog." I grumble wanting him to continue giving me pleasure. He laughs, the sound sending pleasuring shock waves throbbing through my entire body that was lit with his fire.

His tongue darts out to lick my folds, twirling around my lips then taking it into his mouth to suck. I moaned, hissing as he tasted me. "So bloody good." He moans, letting my pussy lips go only to nibble them with his teeth.

I shuddered, moaning out his name. His hands that were on my thighs, gave them a firm squeeze that travels all the way to my core. They shook as he drove his tongue back into my core and mimics a cock fucking into my pussy with it.

The pleasure that course through my body was almost unbearable. "Ares." I pant as he guides my hips to fuck his face. He groans, drinking me in until he stops completely. I grunt my disapproval, trying to force him to continue by circling my hips. But a tight firm hold on my hips stops me.

My bundle of nerves is throbbing, my core is dripping and my insides are thrumming with a fire that was yet to quench. "Please, please." I pleaded in desperation only for Ares to let out a chuckle.

"You should have thought of that before going alone towards danger." He grumbles pulling away from my core entirely. "Now I am going to keep punishing you until you learn your lesson."

I squeal when he holds my waist, turns around and walks to my bed. I loved the color green as one could tell so aye my bedding were mixtures of different green colors.

Swiftly he places me down gently on my feet beside the bed. I gasp when his fingers latch onto the neckline of my dress and quickly tore the dress in half. The torn dress falls at my feet and I am now bare completely. My nipples harden into pebbles as the cool air hits them lightly.

Ares groans in approval, licking his lips that were still coated with my juices.

"Hot." Ayla meow

"Are you a dog or a cat?" I question with slight amusement.

"Depends on how he pleases us, I can be both." She panted like the horny dog she was.

I could not exactly joke about how horny she was when I was no different. In fact I was entirely sure that I was hornier than her if that was possible.

Ares does not say another word much to my confusion and walks around me to pop down on my bed. I turned around confused yet my eyes strayed to his straining huge cock. I wanted that monster out and inside me but I guess I will have to wait. Unfortunately.

"Come here." Ares pats his thigh. Like being drawn to a siren, I found myself coming towards him. I had every intention of straddling his lap only for him to pull me towards him.

He guides me until my stomach is rested on his thighs and my ass in the air. Confused, I turned my head to face him and perhaps question his next actions until I felt a firm slap on my bottom.

It is stinging and no doubt left a handprint on my creamy flesh but the sting surprisingly sent a jolt towards my core. One so pleasing that I almost asked Ares to do it again. He rubs my flesh softly and goes to slap my other ass cheek. I gasp, lurching with shock as the slaps resonate throughout the entire room.

"This is what happens when you do as you please and do not take heed for your actions. What if you had gotten injured?" He hisses and gives my bottom another firm slap and quickly rubs away the sting.

My core pools out more. Ares grunts and slaps my ass again. "You enjoy that don't you?" He grumbles slapping my ass more harshly. "Your arousal is getting stronger." He chuckles.

I gasp, crying out in pleasure and shock. My pussy clenches. "You like me spanking your cute little ass?"

"Oh yes." I moan as he continues with his sweet pleasure. I cried out when I suddenly felt the intrusion of his long thick fingers entering my pussy from behind.

"Oh bloody fuck." He groans as he pumps his fingers in and out of me while the other hand massages the skin he put his handprints on. "You like that love?" He asked as he continues to fuck me with his fingers.

I am a moaning mess, squirming and trying to squeeze my thighs fruitlessly. "Don't stop." I cry out, feeling a wave of heat settle in my core. I nearly lashed out on Ares when he pulls his fingers away from my cunt and in a swift move he had removed me off his lap. Settled me at the edge of the bed on my fours with my ass sticking out.

"Shit I need to be inside you now before I burst." He pants behind me.

I moaned into my green sheets when I heard the sound of his breeches being removed. I wiggled my ass as I felt his heat behind me. I could feel the head of his cock at the entrance of my pussy, teasing me and making me clench.

I pant gripping my sheets tightly. "I am going to enjoy fucking you until you cry out." He groans and starts to slap his cock on my pussy. I squirm, gasping and thrusting my ass back.

He chuckles and holds my waist with one hand while the other guides his cock. I was so wet that I could feel myself wet my sheets and the head of his cock as it lined up to my entrance.

Without so much as a warning, Ares slams his huge cock into me. I sucked in a sharp breath as my pussy tries to accommodate his size. He moans in pleasure as his cock buried within me to the hilt.

"Oh God." He says lowly, pulling back only to slam back in. My toes curl, my heart soars and my mind races as Ares takes me.

He relentlessly kept burying his fat cock into my tight opening, praising how he loved that I was stretching beautifully. His grunts were music to my ears and the sound of his skin smacking against mine made pleasure course through me.

"Ares." I moan. "Oh yes keep fucking me." I pant, thrusting my hips back to meet each of his brutal thrust.

He slaps my ass then holds my hips as he pounded into me with more speed. "That's right Rue. You take all of my cock. That's it little witch, take that cock, it is yours." He groans aloud, thankfully no one could hear him.

I mewled, tightening my hold on the sheets. Ares was taking over my entire body and he knew it. The way his hips buck, the way his cock demanded my little pussy to open for him and the way with every thrust cockiness oozed out of his actions, I just knew he was aware of how he could simply just take over my body entirely without having to try much.

"Now you can cum Rue. Now I want you to cum all over my cock." He hisses, slapping my ass and slams into me. I cried out, screaming as my thighs shook. By the way my core tightened around him like a deathtrap I knew I was close.

"I want you to spread those ass cheeks for me so I could get a better view of my cock getting lost in your pussy." He pants behind me. I do as he says, reaching back and spreading my ass cheeks with my hands. My cheek pressed to the bedding as I pant.

I moan when he picks up speed, hitting all the right spots as he shouts. "Fuck!"

"So tight, so tight." He clenches out as my pussy grips him. I yelled out his name, breathing heavily as I cum all over his cock.

That seems to have triggered his own, because soon hot cum squirts out into me, filling me to the brim until some even spilled out and fell on the bedding. Ares shudders behind me, his cock twitching as he continues to fill me.
