

SHOTA'S ISEKAI NTR ADVENTURE

Chapter 15 Knight Captain (4)

Madame Rose smiled again when she heard these words from Cecilia.

She didn't let her recover at all as she waved her hand at me and said, "Come over here."

I couldn't help revealing a bitter look when I heard this, but I still followed her orders for now. After all, I didn't know what Madame Rose would do if I didn't play along, so I had no choice but to play along for now.

But it was very clear that she was just...using me.

Cecilia came back to her senses too late again. When she recovered from her daze, I was already standing right in front of her and she was able to see everything clearly.

She once again looked down at my dick and couldn't help muttering, "It really is this big..."

But then she shook her head and said, "No, stop this now!"

She was about to reach for her sword again to scare me off, but before she could grab it, Madame Rose grabbed the hand going for the sword.

Cecilia was caught off guard by this sudden move by Madame Rose and wasn't able to react in time. By the time that she had reacted, Madame Rose had already taken the sword from her belt and thrown it to the side.

So even if she wanted to use the sword to threaten me, she didn't have a sword anymore.

The only thing that she had left were her hands...so she clenched them in a fist and was about to raise them to threaten me with them.

But before she could, Madame Rose made her move again.

Madame Rose grabbed Cecilia's hands and she wouldn't let Cecilia raise them.

There was no way that Madame Rose was able to overpower Cecilia, but Cecilia wasn't willing to use too much power out of fear of hurting Madame Rose. So in the end, Madame Rose was able to subdue Cecilia with one hand.

With the other hand, she started taking off Cecilia's clothes.

Cecilia panicked when she felt Madame Rose's wandering hands and she quickly said, "Wait, Ro Ro, what are you doing?"

Madame Rose didn't answer this question as her hand moved to the belt that was around her waist. In one swift movement, she unbuckled the belt and pulled it out of the pants.

Once the belt was removed, the pants suddenly started to droop and seemed like they would fall off.

These pants were actually male pants, so they were much too big for Cecilia to wear.

Unless she had this belt on, it would fall off on its own.

As for why she was wearing male pants...it was because she wanted to present herself not as a female, but a powerful male knight.

But when these pants were about to fall off, Cecilia didn't care at all as she gave a shriek and tried to grab at them to pull them up. It was just too bad that Madame Rose was still holding her hands, not letting them go.

So in the end, the pants did fall off to reveal a pair of perfect legs.

Not everything was shown though since there was a pair of underwear under those pants.

To my surprise, I found that the underwear that she wore was actually still quite feminine.

After pulling out the belt, Madame Rose's hand went to the tank top that was on Cecilia's chest.

She slowly reached her hand into the bottom of the shirt before lifting it up as if she was about to take it off.

Cecilia looked at me before saying in a panicked voice, "Ro Ro, I'm begging you, please don't do this. I'll listen to anything you want, just don't do this."

But Madame Rose said with a gentle smile, "Cece, this is for your good. I'll help you feel the pleasure that you've never experienced before and I'll help you become a true woman."

Cecilia wanted to say something, but before she could...

In one swift motion, Madame Rose pulled the shirt up over her breasts and over her head, taking it off of her.

The moment that it was pulled off, everything came into view.

This was a world without things like bras, so the moment that the shirt was taken off, her breasts were revealed to me.

They were even bigger than Madame Rose's!

Madame Rose had big breasts that fit her perfect figure, but Cecilia's was on a completely different level. It really was hard to imagine that these giant breasts had fit inside of that tight fitting armour earlier.

Once these beautiful breasts were revealed...I couldn't stop my dick from standing up.

Madame Rose saw this as well and with a smile, she said, "Come over here."

I was in a daze from this sudden scene that I had been shown, so I walked over without even thinking about it.

When I was right in front of them, Madame Rose suddenly said, "Stop."

So I stopped.

Madame Rose then turned her attention back to Cecilia and said, "Cece, kneel down."

Cecilia had been panicking and didn't register what Madame Rose said at first, but then when she understood what she said, she couldn't help saying, "Ro Ro, what do you mean?"

When Madame Rose heard this, she didn't hesitate at all to push Cecilia down with her hands. magic Cecilia could have resisted, but she didn't want to hurt Madame Rose, so she had no choice but to fall onto her knees. As she kneeled down, she came closer and closer to my dick.

She did her best to stay as far away as possible, but Madame Rose didn't let her stay away. Madame Rose used her hands to guide Cecilia towards my dick, so that she was placed right in front of it.

Cecilia was about to complain again, but Madame Rose just suddenly said, "Go on, lick it."

The chins of both Cecilia and I dropped when she heard this.

Just what was Madame Rose planning on doing?
