Chapter 31 Demon Order Meeting (6)

I immediately froze when I heard this.

Then before I could react, the voice said, "Turn around and let me see who you are."

I considered my options and even thought about running away, but in the end, I turned around to face the person who was speaking. When I saw who it was, I couldn't help being shocked.

Standing there was the Lord Baron who was holding a sword pointed at me in his hand.

When the Lord Baron saw that it was me, he was also surprised.

But then the Lord Baron suddenly revealed a smile as he asked, "What are you doing here?"

I couldn't help being taken aback when I heard this.

It didn't seem like there was any anger in his voice, rather it seemed like he was pleasantly surprised and amused to see me. It was almost as if he was expecting me...

But why would he be expecting me?

After a short pause, I said, "I was just looking for the bathroom and I got a bit lost. I hope that you can tell me where the bathroom is."

"The bathroom?" The Lord Baron asked in an amused voice.

I was very confused why he said it like this, but I still gave a nod with a straight face in the end.

The Lord Baron then suddenly took a few steps forward until he was right in front of me. As he walked over, he sheathed the sword that he had in his hand.

When he was in front of me, his hands suddenly came forward to grab my shoulder.

When his shoulders were on my shoulder, I couldn't help trembling slightly.

The Lord Baron had also felt this and he said with a gentle smile on his face, "Now, now, there's no need to be scared."

But these words just sent a chill down my spine.

No matter how you looked at it, this situation wasn't normal. It was almost as if the Lord Baron was interested in me in a different manner...

Then as if on cue, the Lord Baron's hands started moving. They went from my shoulders and started moving down my body.

They went across my chest at first before slowly making their way...further down. It was clear what his intentions were with the way that his hands moved.

It was when his hands were at my stomach that I couldn't take it anymore.

I suddenly shuddered and broke free of his grasp, quickly taking a step back.

There was a trace of displeasure that flashed in the Lord Baron's eyes when this happened, but it quickly disappeared. With the same gentle smile, he asked, "Is something wrong?"

However, this time, there was a subtle pressure that was in the back of his voice.

It was clear what he wanted and what he would do to get what he wanted.

But it was not something that I could accept.

So I gave a cough to calm my nerves before saying, "I really need to go to the bathroom first."

The Lord Baron looked at me with narrowed eyes as if he was sizing me up, but seeing that I didn't say anything else, he gave a nod and said, "The bathroom is just down there. Go on then."

As soon as he said this, I quickly turned to leave as if I had been pardoned.

But as I was leaving the Lord Baron added, "I'm looking forward to seeing you later."

I couldn't help trembling again when I heard this, but I acted like I didn't hear a thing.

I could guess what he meant by this, but I never thought that the Lord Baron swung that way. There had been no indications of this from Madame Rose or even from the game when I played it.

But it was no wonder he wasn't interested in a beautiful lady as Madame Rose...

Then when I was walking away, I also heard...

"He is such a tease, but he really is like what Richard described. I can't wait to see what he looks like underneath...I wonder if he really is the monster that Richard said he was."

A shiver ran down my spine when I heard this.

The Lord Baron said that Richard was the one that told him all of this...

Just what kind of things did that confidant of Madame Rose tell the Lord Baron?

Not to mention, if he really did tell the Lord Baron all of this...didn't that mean that he already knew about the Lord Baron's taste before this?

So why didn't he tell Madame Rose about this?

There were many bitter complaints that filled my mind as I walked away, but I shook them out of my mind quickly and focused my mind.

This was deep in the enemy territory and even if I was able to fool the Lord Baron, that didn't mean that I would be able to fool the others that found me. I had to be careful not to get caught again, or else...it wouldn't go like how it had ended with the Lord Baron.

As I continued down the hallway, there were many doors that appeared in front of me, but there was no sound that came from them telling me what was in them.

So I had no idea what I was even looking for.

But in the end, I came across a door that looked different from the rest.

This door was much bigger and much more luxurious compared to the rest, so that meant that whatever was here should be very important, right?

Seeing this, I figured that I could peek my head in to see if there was anything that would be helpful to my cause inside of there.

When I peeked in, I...couldn't see anything because it was too dark in this room.

It was a good thing that there was a window here and there was a bright moon outside tonight.

When I pulled the curtains up, I was surprised by what I saw.

Chapter 32 Demon Order Meeting (7)

There wasn't a single thing special in this room other than the thing that was on the desk.

I could see the dark energy swirls coming from the thing that was on the desk, making it clear that there was some kind of dark there.

When I looked closely, I found that it was a piece of paper surrounded by dark tendrils.

There was a bad feeling that came from this piece of paper on the desk, but I also couldn't help feeling that this thing was important.

After all, no matter how one looked at it, this should be proof that they were collaborating with the demons.

If I could bring this thing out, it should help prove the Lord Baron's guilt.

The problem was how to get it out of here...

No matter how I looked at it, it seemed like it would rot my hand the moment that I touched this thing. The tendrils even looked like they were slowly crawling towards me, even though I was standing so far away...

But I couldn't find a single thing that would help me pick this thing up.

So in the end, I had no choice but to try it with my hand.

To my surprise, I found that I was able to easily pick it up without any problems. Even though the dark tendrils around the piece of paper seemed to wrap around my hands, they didn't seem to do anything to me.

It was almost as if they were tickling me instead of hurting me.

Since I was able to pick it up, I quickly put it away under my cloak and then I was about to head out.

But before I could, I heard the sounds of voices coming from outside.

Without any hesitation, I immediately hid myself under the desk.

Luckily, the voices only passed by the room and didn't seem to come in.

Still, they were loud enough that I was able to hear what they were saying. At the same time, the moment that I heard these voices, I immediately recognized who they were.

They were the three succubi that had been at the meeting just now.

"Senior Morrigan, are we really not going to do anything?" A soft voice said.

"We can't do anything here or else we will incur the wrath of the count. Even if they were mere humans, they have been doing good work which has pleased the count. If we were to disrupt that..." The voice of Miss Morrigan from before trailed off.

A mature voice said, "Ah, but there's so many of them out there that are just filled with energy, I can feel it. They want to release themselves, but they can't find the right outlet. It would be so delicious if we could take them for ourselves."

There was a sigh that came before Miss Morrigan said, "I know how you feel, but that is just how it is..."

There was a pause that came from outside the door before...

The soft voice said, "Ah, did you see how those old men were looking at me? The way that their eyes fell onto my body, it was just absolutely disgusting." After she said this, there was a laugh that followed.

The others also laughed when they heard this.

The mature voice then said, "Right, right! There's also all those virgins who kept looking at my body. It's clear that they've never even had a chance to touch a woman before and they want me? It's clear that they don't know their place."

Then Miss Morrigan said, "You two, you're letting your bad habits show again."

The mature voice quickly quipped, "Isn't it the same with you, Senior Morrigan? I saw the look in your eyes when you saw those knights. You wanted to play with them, didn't you?"

There was a pause before a charming laugh rang out. Following this, Miss Morrigan said, "I can't help myself you know? It's been so long since we've had our last meal."

There were sounds of agreement that followed before the three succubi started discussing what they wanted to do to those men who had looked at their bodies.

There really were all kinds of things that they would do to them...things that even I who was well versed in these things couldn't help finding kinky...

I had seen many videos and games with succubi before, but hearing the things that they would do firsthand really was a new experience.

But at the same time, I couldn't help feeling anxious.

After all, they weren't moving from their spot. They were just standing outside the door to this room, discussing this the whole time.

I couldn't help wondering if they had discovered me and were just talking like this to distract me so that they could catch me...

But eventually, they ended their talk

Miss Morrigan was the one who ended it by saying, "We have to get back or else they'll start worrying. That Lord Baron, he's a sharp one...He posted all those people just to watch us, so he'll surely think we're up to something if we're gone for too long."

The other two also expressed their disappointment when they heard this, but they still agreed with her.

So the voices from the three of them started getting further and further away from the door until I couldn't hear them anymore.

However, even after the voices had disappeared, I didn't come out from my hiding spot.

I didn't know if they were truly gone or not, so I didn't dare take that risk.

It was only after the voices had faded for a while that I came out from under the desk.

I looked around the room and after seeing that there was no one else here, I went to the door to put my ear against it. As I listened for sounds outside, I wasn't able to hear a single thing.

At this, I let out a sigh of relief.

I had been scared that I had been discovered, but it seemed like it was just a coincidence that they were passing by this room.

But after calming down, I couldn't help thinking about all the things that the succubi had said. Especially about how they were quite backed up and wanted some release...

It seemed like they really wanted to drain these demon worshipers of their life energy, but there was the Lord Baron holding them back. But if there was something that made them lose control...what would happen then?

Chapter 33 Demon Order Meeting (8)

As these thoughts passed through my mind, I couldn't help thinking of a certain thing that I had received from my system.

This was an item that I had received as a reward after my threesome with Cecilia and Madame Rose, but I had never thought of a way to use it.

But now...it seemed like there was a perfect opportunity.

The more that I thought about this, the more that I felt that this was the right chance to use this item.

So with a wave of my hand, there was a round thing that appeared in my hand.

This was a thing that was made of clay, with a metal cover over it. The bottom clay part was completely covered, but the metal cover over it had holes in them, as if they were meant to release something.

Inside of this thing, under the metal cover, there were these small sticks that were lying there.

This thing was clearly an incense burner and the small sticks inside were incense sticks, but these weren't normal incenses.

I couldn't help looking carefully at the incense sticks that were inside the burner and then I couldn't help taking a whiff of it. There wasn't really a smell that came from this incense burner, but when I sniffed it, I couldn't help feeling a bit of heat filling my body.

I quickly took a deep breath to calm myself down which helped a bit in the end, but I could still feel the heat inside of my body.

Especially in my lower parts...

That was what this incense was for.

This wasn't an incense that was designed to help one calm down, but rather it was one that would heat people up. As for the heat that it would provide them with, it was a heat that came from down there...

This was an aphrodisiac incense, hence coming from the Sex Toy System.

As long as this was lit and it gave the succubi a push, it was very likely that they would lose control of themselves.

As for what they would do when they lost control, that wasn't something that I knew, but I could make a guess. Especially since this place was filled with people that they already wanted to prey on.

Not to mention, according to the introduction from the system, it said that this aphrodisiac incense was very effective on demons of lust like the succubi...

So it wasn't hard to imagine what would happen when they lost control.

If I was going to light this aphrodisiac incense, I wouldn't want to be in this place when it affected the succubi.

Before lighting this thing, I had to make sure that I had everything that I wanted from this place.

After thinking about it, I realized that I did indeed already have everything that I wanted.

My goal in coming to this place was to infiltrate and find something that could be used to reveal the Lord Baron as the demon worshiper that he was. I had already found that in the piece of paper covered in dark energy, so there was no need for me to stay here any longer.

Not to mention, the Lord Baron himself wanted me to do something that I definitely didn't want to do.

There was no better time to leave now while everyone was occupied with their own things.

Once things settled and people had more free time, it would be harder for me to leave.

So I made up my mind to light the incense and leave.

But before lighting the incense, I brought something else out of the system's storage.

This was a small red pill.

This pill was something that had been given by the system with the aphrodisiac incense. This pill was an antidote that would counteract the effects of the aphrodisiac incense.

I wasn't certain if I would be able to get out of this place in time before the aphrodisiac incense spread, so I wanted to make sure that I didn't get affected by the aphrodisiac incense.

The best way to do that was to take this pill.

As I was about to light the aphrodisiac incense, I suddenly realized another problem...

I didn't know if the smoke from the incense would be enough to cover the entire manor.

This manor was huge just from what I had seen outside and after walking around in it, I knew that it was much bigger than it seemed from the outside. With how big this place was, it was hard to guarantee that this aphrodisiac incense would spread all over it.

If it didn't spread all over the manor, then it was very likely that my plan would fail since there would be people who could escape its effects.

I really couldn't tell how far the aphrodisiac incense would spread without lighting it first, but lighting it right away without knowing how far it spread would be counterproductive...

While I was agonizing over this, the system suddenly said, "The incense's smoke will spread to every room in the manor."

I couldn't help being surprised by the fact that the system had suddenly spoken.

However, I still couldn't help asking in a doubtful voice, "Are you sure that it'll cover the entire manor?"

The system gave a snort before saying, "Are you doubting the professionalism of the system?"

"Eh?" That was all I could say in response to this.

This system of mine really was different...it kept giving responses that would make it seem like it had a soul, rather than being a mechanical system.

But since the system was so confident, I chose not to question it and trust that the system knew what it was doing. After all, this system was something that came from god, so it should be a powerful thing.

I went to light the aphrodisiac incense, but I ran into one more problem...

I didn't have anything to light it with.

As I stared at the aphrodisiac incense there, I couldn't help reaching into my cloak, touching a dagger that was in my chest pocket. But in the end, I pulled my hand out of that pocket and decided against using it.

Luckily for me, I was able to find a pack of matches in one of the drawers that I used to light it.

As soon as I lit it, I immediately swallowed the pill before standing there watching the smoke drift off.

To my surprise, the smoke almost vanished immediately from my sight as it quickly floated out of the room.

It seemed like the system really knew what it was talking about.

With this feeling of trust in the system, I began walking out of the room.

That is until I noticed something else out of the corner of my eye.

Chapter 34 Demon Order Meeting (9)

It was a small thing, so I missed it earlier, but my attention couldn't help being grabbed by it.

As soon as I saw it, I couldn't help walking over to take a closer look at this item.

This was a small locket that was lying on a small table beside a couch. However, it wasn't the small locket itself that attracted my attention.

It was the dark energy that surrounded this small locket.

It was the same dark energy that had been around the piece of paper from before.

I couldn't help being surprised by the fact that I had missed this earlier, but since it was an item that had the same dark energy as the piece of paper, I assumed that it was something related to the demons just like the piece of paper.

Since it was something that was related to the demons, it was also a piece of evidence that I could use against the Lord Baron.

Since that was the case, there was no reason for me not to take it.

But as I was picking it up, the locket suddenly opened up and revealed what was inside.

As soon as I saw what it was, I couldn't help knitting my brows.

There was this strange feeling that filled me when I saw the picture that was inside of this pendant.

It was a beautiful picture of Madame Rose smiling.

This was a smile that I had seen before, but the eyes were different.

Instead of that slightly dark look in her eyes, there was only happiness from the bottom of her heart.

This painting should have been made when she first married the Lord Baron, when she didn't know anything about his plans.

Back when she could feel truly happy about getting married.

But now...

When I saw this painting, I couldn't help feeling a strange feeling in my heart.

With how the Lord Baron treated Madame Rose, with what kind of tastes he had, for him to keep a locket like this just didn't seem right.

From an objective third party view, it would have seemed like...jealousy.

So without a thought, I took the locket as well.

However, I didn't have any plans of handing it over to Madame Rose. The only thoughts that I had for this locket was to destroy it as soon as possible.

After all, it would just cause Madame Rose pain if she were to see this.

After grabbing the locket, I turned and headed out the door.

I could see that there was more and more smoke coming from the aphrodisiac incense, so it wasn't a good idea to stay here any longer. Even if I had swallowed the pill that was supposed to negate the effects of the incense, it wasn't a good idea to test it like this.

So with that, I left the manor.

To my surprise, there wasn't a single person who stopped me. It was as if they were all occupied with something else.

...

I am a simple knight who guards the border of Baron Mordo's territory.

Through a stroke of luck, I was invited to the secret group that was headed by the Lord Baron.

Though I was shocked to find that this secret group was a group of demon worshipers, that didn't change the fact that this was a group that had close ties to the Lord Baron. As long as I was a part of this group, I would have a chance to move up in this world and no longer be stuck guarding the border.

Tonight was the night of a meeting called by the Lord Baron, so we came to the manor as usual.

Then as per usual, we split up to go drink...discuss our plans with our individual groups.

The group that I was a part of included one of the ministers who was highly valued by the Lord Baron, so as long as I was in this group, I would be able to make my way up in this world.

As we were drinking, I suddenly felt the urge to go to the bathroom, so I excused myself from the room.

When I came out, I couldn't help stopping for a second.

For some reason, it felt like something was lighting a flame deep down inside of me. I didn't know why I was suddenly turned on, but it was a good thing that there were also those maids for anyone to use.

First though, I had to take care of that urge to pee.

I walked through the corridors of this manor, not bothered by the fact that it was completely empty.

That was normal since this was a secret society, so there were only a few servants that were in this manor in the first place.

As I walked along, I couldn't help whistling a song.

Our plans were about to reach fruition and we had just been told that the demons were planning on rewarding us, so it was hard not to feel happy.

But as I walked along, I couldn't help feeling the burning sensation inside of me getting stronger and stronger.

I didn't know why I was suddenly this turned on, but it was getting harder and harder to resist.

So I started moving faster.

The sooner that I finished taking care of my business, the sooner I could go back and take care of this fire deep inside of me.

There was this one cute maid that had been in the room with me that I had wanted earlier, but I didn't have the courage to do so. Now with this flame lit inside of me, I could only think about the things that I would do to her.

With this lewd smile on my face, I moved even faster towards the bathroom.

That was until I suddenly felt a presence behind me.

As a knight, I was very sensitive to things like this.

I immediately turned around and reached towards my waist for my sword, but then I remembered that I had left it at the entrance.

So I said in a loud voice in hopes of alerting the others in the rooms around me, "Who's there?"

There was a seductive voice that replied, "Look at this handsome young man, I really love meals like this."

Chapter 35 Demon Order Meeting (10)

This voice came from right behind me and when I turned around, I couldn't help being shocked.

There was a beautiful face that was right there in front of me.

This face was very familiar...it was the face of one of the succubi that was with that Miss Morrigan earlier.

But as soon as I saw this face, I immediately raised my guard.

Since I knew that this woman was succubus, I knew that they didn't have any good intentions sneaking around like this. If I let my guard down, it would be very likely that they would drain me of my life essence right away...

Still, it was getting harder and harder to resist the flames burning deep inside of me.

The succubus also noticed this, so she licked her lips and said, "Handsome young man, how about you come and have some fun with me?"

When I saw this, I really couldn't stop myself from getting hard.

Even though I was a knight, I was a young one that hadn't been knighted for long, so I didn't even have a wife yet. I was also someone who had devoted myself to my training, which was why I had become a knight at such a young age, so I had never been with a woman before even though all my peers had.

Without that experience, I really had a weak resistance against beautiful women like this.

But with my strong will, I forced myself to stay calm as I said, "Beautiful miss, it pains me to say this, but unfortunately I cannot have any fun with you today. I have some other business to..."

Before I could finish what I was saying, the succubus suddenly said with a seductive smile, "That wasn't a question."

I couldn't help feeling a chill run down my spine when I heard this and I immediately knew that something was off.

I said with a serious look, "Miss, I'm afraid that I have to leave now. I have some other business to take care of."

As I was about to leave, the succubus suddenly reached her hand out as if to grab me.

With how slow she was going, there was no chance that she would catch me.

I quickly moved out of the way, but...I found that her hand had somehow grabbed my arm. I hadn't been able to see the speed at which she went, but when I realized what happened, she was already grabbing my arm.

Seeing this, I knitted my brows and said, "Miss, please let go."

But she just stood there with a seductive smile on her face without saying a thing.

I knew that she wouldn't let go with just words after seeing this, so I tried pulling my hand away.

When I pulled my hand away, I only used a bit of strength since I thought that with the difference in physiques, it would be easy for me to pull my hand away. But when I pulled my hand, I found that I wasn't able to break free of her grasp.

When this happened, I couldn't help knitting my brows even more.

The succubus just stood there with the same smile on her face as if she didn't feel anything at all.

I couldn't help feeling a bit angry when I saw this, so I gathered all my strength and decided to pull as hard as I could. I didn't believe that this frail looking woman would be able to take my full force.

But to my shock, I found that I wasn't able to break free of her grasp at all.

It was like pulling against an iron shackle as her hands tightly gripped around my wrist.

I tried pulling again and again after the first time, but her hand didn't even budge an inch from my pulling. It was as if she was a statue made of stone that wouldn't break no matter how much force I used.

I couldn't help feeling a chill run down my spine when I saw this.

I had known that there was a difference between humans and demons, but I never thought that the difference would be this great...

Since I wasn't able to pull my hand away, the only thing I could do was...

"Please let go of me, miss. This could be considered an act of aggression if you keep acting like this." I said in a calm voice.

Since I couldn't win with force, I used my words.

This was something simple that even a fool like me could understand.

After all, there was a reason why the Lord Baron was able to scare off the succubi earlier. It was clear that they had a reason why they didn't act aggressively towards us humans, so I wanted to use that to pressure her.

But to my surprise, the succubus said, "Cute little thing, you really are teasing me like this."

She didn't let go of my hand when she said this.

I knitted my brows and was about to say something, but before I could, the other hand of the succubus came forward to push me down. I was barely able to stop myself from falling flat on the ground as I landed on my butt.

At the same time, it was also partially because the succubus was holding my hand so that I didn't fall too hard.

After landing, I couldn't help looking up at the succubus, but I found that she was gone from where she had been.

I quickly looked down and found that she was currently leaning forward in front of me, with her head being right where my crotch was.

I couldn't help asking in a shocked voice, "What, what are you doing?"

She didn't answer that question as her hand suddenly grabbed the hem of my pants and pulled down. As soon as my pants were pulled off, my dick suddenly came flying out in front of her, but the succubus didn't mind at all.

Instead of being surprised, she just revealed a seductive smile.

Chapter 36 Demon Order Meeting (11)

Even though it was a beautiful smile, I could see that there was a hint of teasing in it.

As for what she was teasing...it was naturally the size of my dick.

Compared to others, it was a bit smaller than usual, but for her to laugh at it really hurt my feelings.

But before I could say anything, her hand let go of the hem of my pants and came up to where my dick was. She reached a single finger out and flicked the tip of my dick.

"Ah!"

This pained cry that had a hint of pleasure in it escaped my mouth before I could even stop myself.

This was not a sound that I would normally make, but I couldn't stop myself after she flicked my dick.

It was a painful feeling, but it was also one that filled me with pleasure. I didn't even know why it felt this way...

After hearing this cry from me, her smile couldn't help becoming even wider.

I was about to say something as I came back to my senses, but looking down, I couldn't help being stunned. That was because I could see right down her top and see the pink tips that were there.

The moment that I saw these pink tips, my dick couldn't help becoming even harder.

It was already hard from being teased by her, but after seeing this beautiful sight, it couldn't get any harder.

When it stood tall and proud, the succubus looked at it before a teasing tone filled her smile and she said, "Is that it?"

I was filled with rage from shame when I heard this, but I still didn't get a chance to say anything. That was because her hand came forward and...grabbed the shaft of my dick.

Well, it wasn't the full hand, but rather two fingers because that was all that would fit...

She didn't stop there as her hand started moving up and down with that teasing smile on her face.

As she rubbed me off, I couldn't help letting out moans of pleasure.

Even if this wasn't consensual, her technique was something else. One could say as expected of a succubus, a demon of lust...

At the same time, I couldn't help feeling more and more turned on.

I was already turned on before bumping into her for some unknown reason, but as she stroked me, I couldn't help getting more and more turned on. So even if I was against this, I couldn't help thinking that I wanted more...

She continued to stroke me off and the pleasure pushed me closer and closer to climaxing. However, before I was able to climax, the succubus' hand suddenly stopped stroking and all the pleasure stopped.

I had been so close, but she had suddenly stopped.

At that point, I had been completely taken by the pleasure and I couldn't stop myself from saying, "Why did you stop?"

When she heard this, the succubus suddenly revealed a teasing smile as she said, "Cute little boy, you're saying that you want more? What about earlier how you were saying that you were too busy?"

I opened my mouth to speak, but I found that I couldn't say anything as I remembered what the situation was.

That was right, I was supposed to get up and leave at this moment...But I also really didn't want to leave.

The feeling that came from having her rub me off was just too good that I couldn't resist, that I didn't want to resist. For some reason, I really wanted to go all the way with her...

So in the end, I said in a soft voice that was unbecoming of me, "I have some time now."

The succubus' teasing smile became wider as she suddenly started moving back. As she was about to stand up, she said, "Unfortunately, I don't have the time right now."

My mouth dropped when I heard this, but my hand moved faster than my brain as I grabbed her arm and said, "Wait, you can't go like this."

The succubus looked back at me and said, "Why can't I?"

But even though she said this, she didn't move any more.

If my brain was working properly, I would have realized that this was all a trap. After all, the succubus was stronger than me, so it wasn't as if I could grab and stop her.

But it was too bad that my brain wasn't moving properly since I was just too infected by my libido.

Without even thinking, I said, "Please, let me finish."

Hearing these words, the succubus' smile became a wide smile as she said, "So you're saying that you want me to keep going?"

It was as if her voice went right to my head and I couldn't help nodding in a daze.

Seeing this, the succubus came forward to pat my head as she said, "Good boy." Then she leaned down towards my dick again, but this time...she didn't use her hand!

Instead, it was her mouth that came right up to my dick.

I could even feel her breath on the tip of my dick.

Then in one smooth move, her head came down over the tip and then the shaft before taking my entire dick in her mouth.

The moment that her lips wrapped around my dick, I really couldn't take it anymore.

I was already close to climaxing because of her handjob earlier, but now that her mouth was around my dick, it was just too much for a virgin like me.

So before she could even react, I suddenly shot my load in her mouth.

The eyes of the succubus opened slightly wider in surprise as she didn't expect me to shoot my load all of a sudden, but then she had the same seductive look as before as she suddenly went even deeper. She went so deep that I was able to shoot my load right into the back of her mouth, right down into her throat.

Then when I finished, she pulled her mouth off my dick and swallowed before opening her mouth to show me.

When I saw this, I couldn't help feeling even more turned on.

It was just too bad that there was a sinking feeling that suddenly filled me.

Chapter 37 Demon Order Meeting (12)

This sinking feeling came from the very depths of my body and as it filled me, I could feel the strength leaving my body.

I wasn't able to remain sitting up and I couldn't help falling down onto the ground.

As I stared up at the ceiling, I couldn't help wondering what had happened to me.

No matter how I tried moving my body, I found that I wasn't able to muster the strength at all. It was as if my body had been completely drained of all energy, like it was completely out of fuel.

But then I remembered something...

Succubi were demons of lust that drained men of their vitality through sex...

What we did just now could be considered sex...

So the reason for my body losing all of its energy and being unable to move should be...

I looked up at the succubus who was over me with a look filled with a bit of fear, trying to look for my answer.

The smile on her face made it very clear what the answer was.

I wanted to say something, I wanted to say anything to make her stop, but I found that I wasn't able to make a single sound. All of the energy had been completely drained from my body, to the point where even my lips wouldn't move anymore.

As this sensation filled my body, fear started to creep into my heart slowly but surely.

If this continued, there was no doubt that I would...die!

I couldn't let that happen!

I still had so much to live for!

So I started doing everything that I could to struggle, but it was a shame that I wasn't able to move a single finger in the end. All I could do was lie there on the ground and shake as if I was having a seizure.

After watching me for a bit, the succubus' smile started filling with disappointment as she said, "Is that really it? Is that really all the vitality that you have?"

She just paused as if she was waiting for an answer from me, but I still didn't have the energy to move or even say anything. So the only thing that I could do was lay there.

But as I was laying there, I looked at her with a pleading look to spare me.

I knew that there was no chance of breaking free with force, so the only thing that I could do was try to appeal to her feelings and get her to let me go.

Of course, that didn't work at all.

The worst part of it all was that whatever was turning me on kept working on me and I couldn't help getting hard again. As I got hard, my dick rose up right in front of her, so it was impossible for her to miss it.

As she saw this, the succubus revealed an even wider teasing smile as she said, "Even in this situation, you're getting turned on? You really are a pathetic man."

My pride was being torn to pieces without any mercy, but all I could think about now was how to survive.

After staring at me for a bit, the succubus suddenly grabbed me by the collar and lifted me off the floor. She looked at me for a bit before saying, "Let's go, at least you'll make a good appetizer before the others."

Just like this, I was carried off by the succubus.

I was brought into one of the rooms and I was surprised to find...that they were currently in the middle of an orgy in there.

The men who were inside were shocked when they saw the succubus come in while carrying me, but then one of them said, "Do you want to join?"

The succubus revealed a sweet smile before waving her hand.

Then the men and women who had been in this room suddenly stood up. Their eyes were completely glazed over as if they had been enchanted by something.

Then with another wave of her hand, everyone started following the succubus out of the room.

Just like this, the succubus went to many other rooms and collected a bunch of followers.

As for where we were all going...I had no idea.

I just knew that there wouldn't be a good ending.

...

The Lord Baron knitted his brows when he felt the burning sensation coming from deep inside his core.

As soon as he felt these feelings, he realized that something was wrong with this manor.

Without any hesitation, he immediately excused himself from the meeting that he had been in and went to find the source of this.

However, as he walked through the halls, he couldn't help feeling more and more bothered by this burning sensation.

At the same time, he couldn't help thinking of the new member that had arrived today.

As it got stronger and stronger, he knew exactly what this burning sensation coming from deep inside of him was.

He was getting turned on.

He didn't know why this was happening, but he had a guess as to what the cause was.

Succubi were demons of lust and now that feelings of lust had filled him, he guessed that it was most likely related to those three who had been sent by the count.

But if it really was them, why would they do this?

Did they do this on the orders of the count or was it their own personal action?

No matter what it was though, the Lord Baron was committed to making them stop.

So after thinking this through, he changed directions and started heading in the direction of the room that he had left the succubi in.

But before he could take more than a few steps, there was a voice that came from behind him.

"If it isn't the Lord Baron, it really is a surprise seeing you here."

As soon as he heard this seductive voice, he immediately recognized who it belonged to.

Chapter 38 Demon Order Meeting (13)

As he turned around, he saw that it was Miss Morrigan who was walking towards him.

Seeing this, the Lord Baron narrowed his eyes for a bit as if he was glaring at her, but then he quickly changed his expression to reveal a calm look.

The Lord Baron calmly said, "Miss Morrigan, I wonder, what are you doing out here? Is there something that you are dissatisfied with in the room I've prepared for you?"

Miss Morrigan didn't answer and just looked at the Lord Baron with the same seductive smile.

Normally, the Lord Baron wouldn't feel anything seeing this since he knew how to deal with her, but for some reason, he couldn't help feeling that something was off about this smile. It was almost as if she knew something that he didn't know...

Seeing that she wouldn't say anything, he didn't plan on playing with her.

The Lord Baron said, "Miss Morrigan, if you don't need anything, then please return to the room that has been prepared for you. I still have some other matters that I need to attend to."

The Lord Baron was about to turn to leave, but before he could, Miss Morrigan's hand came forward to grab him by the shoulder.

The Lord Baron was caught off guard by this and almost fell over.

Though the main reason he almost fell over was because she was much stronger than him.

Even if he were to use his full force, he wouldn't be able to break free since she was stronger than he was in the first place. So he knew that there would be nothing to gain from trying to break free.

Instead...he decided to use his pressure to force her to let go.

The Lord Baron narrowed his eyes to look at Miss Morrigan and said in a stern voice, "Miss Morrigan, what are you doing?"

However, Miss Morrigan's expression didn't even twitch when he said this. It was as if she wasn't bothered by the tone in his voice at all.

Seeing this, the Lord Baron couldn't help knitting his brows.

Miss Morrigan then said, "Lord Baron, if the guest of honour doesn't come, we can't start the event."

"Guest of honour?" The Lord Baron repeated in a confused voice.

Miss Morrigan didn't answer as she started pulling the Lord Baron by his hand.

The Lord Baron knitted his brows even more, but since he couldn't break free in the first place, he could only let her pull him along.

The two of them walked through the corridor until they came to the same main hall as before.

Before they came in, the Lord Baron could smell something strange in the air. It was an almost fishy kind of smell that he thought that he had smelled before, but he couldn't exactly tell what it was.

When they walked in, he was shocked by what he saw.

That was because there was a large orgy that was currently happening inside of the hall.

There were many naked bodies all wrapped together and in the center of them were the two succubi that came with Miss Morrigan.

At the same time, he could see that to the side, there were people lying there with eyes that were completely glazed over.

These people...it was clear that they had been completely drained of their vitality by the succubi.

The Lord Baron didn't waste any time in turning in Miss Morrigan's direction and saying, "What is the meaning of this? Do you know what you've done here?"

Miss Morrigan just revealed the same seductive smile as she said, "Ah, that's the look that I wanted to see."

The Lord Baron's face twisted, but he wasn't able to say a thing.

Miss Morrigan then continued, "I wanted to see that look for so long. Ever since I first saw how arrogant you were."

The Lord Baron didn't say a thing, but his eyes were darting around, as if he was looking for a way out.

But at the same time, he could feel the heat inside of him getting stronger.

If it wasn't for his strong will, he might have really fallen to this from the succubi.

Miss Morrigan snapped out of her daze and came forward to place her hand on the Lord Baron's crotch. But when she did, she was surprised to find...that he wasn't hard at all.

She looked at him with a strange look before suddenly taking off her clothes, revealing her perfect body. At the same time, she looked at him with a seductive smile, doing her best to seduce him.

But even then, she was shocked to find that...he still didn't get hard.

It was as if he wasn't interested in her perfect body at all.

As this fact set in, she couldn't help feeling like her pride had been dealt a blow. This was a feeling that she had never experienced before, so it was hard for her to accept.

But the burning sensation inside of the Lord Baron was getting stronger and stronger, so it was getting harder for him to resist. In the end, he couldn't help peeking to the side and when he did, he started getting harder.

Miss Morrigan followed the Lord Baron's gaze and when she saw what he was looking at, she couldn't help revealing a smile again. But this time, there was a trace of ridicule that was in her smile.

That was because the Lord Baron was looking at a handsome young man who looked slightly feminine on the side who was being toyed with by one of the succubi.

As he looked at this feminine young man, he was getting harder...that meant that the Lord Baron...

The more she thought about this, the more Miss Morrigan thought that it was funny.

She said, "I never thought that the strict Lord Baron would be into that kind of stuff."

The Lord Baron was pulled out of his daze when he heard this and he revealed a serious look once again without saying a thing.

Miss Morrigan just had the same smile as she suddenly gave a snap.

After this snap, the Lord Baron's expression couldn't help changing.

Chapter 39 Demon Order Meeting (14)

Succubi were demons of seduction and they had many tools at their disposal for making this happen.

Charm was the one thing that people commonly associated with succubi, but it wasn't the only thing that they could use.

After all, there were people with many different tastes and succubi had to be able to accommodate those tastes.

So succubi had the ability to also use illusion and transformation .

As she snapped her fingers, Miss Morrigan used her illusion spell to change her appearance. What appeared in front of the Lord Baron now was a feminine young man who was similar to the one that he had been looking at.

When he saw this, he couldn't stop himself even though he knew that this was Miss Morrigan in front of him...

When Miss Morrigan saw that he was getting hard, she began laughing. After laughing for a bit, she turned to look down at the dick in front of her before going down on her knees.

She brought her head forward and in one smooth move, she took it all the way to the base.

This dick was quite large, so it reached all the way into her throat, but she didn't gag on it. It was as if she didn't have a gag reflex as she took it all the way in her mouth.

When the Lord Baron felt this feeling, even if he wanted to resist, he wasn't able to resist at all.

She was a succubus for a reason...she had techniques that people just couldn't resist.

As it entered her mouth, her tongue had also wrapped around his dick like a snake, curling all around it and giving him a very warm, pleasant feeling. It was a feeling like he was being rubbed by something soft.

She didn't stop after taking it all and she started moving her head back and forth as she sucked him off like a vacuum.

It didn't take long before the Lord Baron couldn't take it anymore and he released his load inside of her mouth.

But unlike the others, he didn't fall with just a single load.

This just went to show just how much vitality he had.

After swallowing this load that was shot in her mouth, Miss Morrigan couldn't help licking her lips before revealing a satisfied look. She then said, "As expected of the one that I had my eyes on. The amount of vitality that you have is something that others can't compare to."

When the other two succubi heard this, they couldn't help looking over at the Lord Baron with tempted looks.

It seemed like they also wanted a taste of the Lord Baron, but the only reason they weren't was because of Miss Morrigan.

Miss Morrigan enjoyed this taste for a bit before suddenly waving her hand in front of her crotch.

With the illusion, there was a dick that was there, but that was just an illusion.

After she waved her hand, there was an actual dick that appeared there.

This wasn't just an illusion, but an actual dick that had grown at her crotch.

This was the result of the transformation that succubi could use.

After changing her body, she suddenly stood up and grabbed the Lord Baron by the arms before saying, "It's time for you to repay me."

The Lord Baron was caught off guard, but he couldn't stop himself from being turned on again.

Seeing this, Miss Morrigan started pushing the Lord Baron down to his knees.

...

After having her way with him for a bit, Miss Morrigan waved at the other two succubi to come over.

Seeing this, the two of them happily came over.

With a snap of their fingers and a wave of their hands, the same thing happened where they both transformed into the appearance of feminine looking handsome young men.

After coming over, the three of them surrounded the Lord Baron who was on his knees.

...

After leaving the manor, I didn't head back right away.

Instead, I had the driver stop the carriage by the side of the road before heading into the forest alone.

This driver had been prepared by Madame Rose, so he listened to my every word without questioning me once.

When I was alone in the forest, I took out the locket that I had swiped from the manor.

As I held it in my hand for a bit, staring at it, that feeling from before came back and it was even stronger.

I didn't know what it was, but I felt like I didn't want this locket to exist in this world.

So I reached into my chest pocket and pulled out a dagger.

I put the locket down onto a rock and then brought the dagger over the locket.

After a moment of hesitation, I waved the dagger at the locket.

Flames appeared around the dagger as I waved it before it suddenly shot out a ball of flames at the locket.

When the ball of flames hit the locket, the dark energy around the locket seemed to block this ball of flames. However, the ball of flames slowly burned away all of the dark energy that was around the locket until there was nothing left.

Once the dark energy was gone, the flames swallowed up the locket and melted it until it turned into metal slag. At the same time, the picture that had been in the locket was turned into ashes by the flames.

After the locket had been melted, the ball of flames exploded.

After the explosion, there was only silence around me in this dark forest.

I couldn't help being surprised by how much power this dagger had.

This dagger was a special item that Madame Rose gave me to protect me at this meeting. It was a special item that she had been given by her family that contained three fireball spells that could be cast just by waving it.

Seeing being used for the first time, I couldn't help being shocked by just how much power these spells had.

I also couldn't help wondering if I would be able to use in the future...

But I threw those thoughts away and headed back to the carriage.

When I came back, the driver couldn't help asking, "Sir, what was that sound just now?"

The sound that he was referring to was the explosion that had rang out in the woods.

But of course, I wasn't going to tell him anything. So I just said, "It was nothing."

Seeing that I wasn't going to say anything, the driver just nodded and went back to his seat.

I also sat back down in the carriage and then we started driving off.

Chapter 40 Aftermath (1)

When the sun rose, the beams of light came through the glass windows of the manor.

These beams of light fell onto the three succubi who laid there naked.

As these beams of light fell onto them, the three of them couldn't help slowly opening their eyes and waking up.

After waking up, the three of them looked around themselves in a daze before suddenly knitting their brows. At the same time, the memories of last night came back to them.

The three of them just sat there for a bit before the other two succubi looked at Miss Morrigan.

The look in their eyes made it clear that they knew that they had messed up, but at the same time, they couldn't believe that they had lost control like this. It was as if something had forced them to act this way...

But they didn't have time to figure out what it was since this was a disaster for them.

The count was looking forward to all of the human sacrifices that would have been offered, but now that the Lord Baron and the rest of the demon worshipers were dead...there was no way that would happen.

As for these three succubi who were the cause of it...they would without a doubt be punished.

So the first thing that they had to do was figure out an excuse to give to the count.

They had a limited time since they were expected back by the count the next day, so they had to plant all the evidence so that it wouldn't be seen through.

In short, they had a very limited time to do a lot of things.

After a long period of silence, Miss Morrigan said, "The humans found out that they were demon worshipers and they destroyed this branch of the demon order."

The way that she said this sounded like she was just stating a fact.

The other two succubi didn't say anything and just nodded in agreement to this.

After that, all three of them stood up and started heading off in different directions.

But before leaving, they each created a fireball that they threw back at the manor, lighting it on fire.

Not a single one of them looked back as they walked away from the burning building.

...

When I arrived back at Madame Rose's manor in the morning, I found that both Cecilia and Madame Rose were waiting there for me.

The moment that I came into the room, Madame Rose suddenly came forward and took me in her arms, catching me by surprise. When I looked up at her, I couldn't help being even more surprised since there was a look in her eyes that I had never seen before.

It was a gentle look that was very different from those eyes that had a hidden darkness that she had the entire time.

I opened my mouth to say something, but before I could, she patted me on the head and said, "I'm glad that you're safe."

My mouth stopped and the words that had been coming out were stuck in my throat. I really couldn't help being surprised since she was acting completely different from before...

I was even wondering if this really was Madame Rose.

But that feeling that came from my chest told me that it was indeed her.

This was a feeling that couldn't be faked.

After she calmed down and we sat down, I took out the piece of paper that I had and placed it on the table.

When Cecilia and Madame Rose saw this piece of paper, their eyes immediately lit up.

Seeing the dark energy that was around the paper, they knew immediately that this was what they were looking for. As long as they had this piece of paper, they would be able to prove that the Lord Baron was conspiring with the demons.

After being in a daze for a bit, Madame Rose suddenly came forward to take me in her arms again. This time, Cecilia also couldn't help herself and came forward to take me in her arms as well.

As they both hugged me, I could feel their chest pressing against me.

The pressure that came from both of them at the same time really was something else.

But the two of them quickly came back to their senses and turned their attention back to the piece of paper.

After thinking for a bit, Madame Rose said, "I'll take this to my father and have him deal with this matter."

Cecilia couldn't help being surprised when she heard this.

Before this, she had suggested that Madame Rose go to her father for help, but Madame Rose had firmly rejected this proposal. But now, she was saying that she would go to her father without anyone saying anything.

She also couldn't help feeling that Madame Rose had changed, but she couldn't tell exactly how she had changed...

Still, she agreed to this plan since the count had more than enough power to take care of the Lord Baron and this was the safest way for Madame Rose to survive this.

After deciding this, Madame Rose turned to me and said, "You go and rest up, I'm sure that you're tired after that long night."

I nodded in agreement to this while swaying a bit.

Staying up all night like that in that high tension situation definitely wasn't relaxing. I was close to falling asleep right on the spot, but I forced myself to stay awake.

Madame Rose didn't leave right away and she helped me over to the bed. Only when I was lying down did she leave with a concerned look on her face. She also turned back several times as she was leaving.

This caring appearance that she had now was completely different from the commanding appearance that she had before, but it wasn't a bad feeling.

As she left, I could also see Cecilia standing there with a concerned look on her face which made me smile.

With this warm feeling inside of me, I fell asleep with a happy smile on my face.

However, when I woke up several hours later...it was complete chaos.
