

SHOTA'S ISEKAI NTR ADVENTURE

Chapter 6 System?

When I woke up, I found that I was alone in bed.

The sun coming from the window made it clear that it was already morning and that it was getting quite late.

However, I just lazily laid there, not knowing what to do.

After being used by Madame Rose last night like that, I really didn't know what my purpose was now.

After all, I was just a sex slave.

But after lying there for a bit, I felt that it was inappropriate to lie there any longer and couldn't help getting up.

Since there were no clothes for me, I could only put on the rags that I had worn back in the prison.

When I came out of Madame Rose's bed chambers, I was surprised to find that there was an old man in a suit standing there waiting for me. When he saw me, he couldn't help letting a flash of disdain appear in his eyes before he quickly calmed himself.

I was surprised by the fact that this old man was waiting for me, but it was clear based on his appearance that he was some kind of butler.

Before I could say anything, the old man said, "You're finally up. It seems like you really don't know your place."

I couldn't help feeling a bit annoyed when I heard this, but I restrained myself. After all, I knew that while I belonged to Madame Rose, I also had the lowest status in this entire manor.

This butler was certainly someone that had a high position based on his clothing and his aura.

So I lowered my head and said in a low voice, "I'm sorry, I was tired after last night."

The butler's face couldn't help twisting slightly when he heard this, but once again, he quickly hid that expression.

The butler just gave a cough to calm himself before saying, "I am the head butler assigned to Madame Rose by the Lord Baron, you may refer to me as Sir Klein."

After saying this, he paused as if he was waiting for some kind of praise or acknowledgement, but I didn't say a thing.

Seeing this, the butler Klein just looked at me with a look of disdain again before continuing, "The madame has instructed me to prepare some clothes and a bath for you. You may follow me."

Without even waiting for a response, butler Klein just turned around and walked towards an adjacent room.

I just followed him without saying anything.

When I arrived in that room, I couldn't help being surprised by how luxurious it was.

Seeing the look on my face, butler Klein said, "This is the madame's private bathroom. You should consider yourself lucky to be able to use this place."

I couldn't help nodding along in a daze.

He was right, this was definitely more than what a sex slave like me deserved.

It was clear that Madame Rose was satisfied with my performance last night, or else I wouldn't be treated this way.

So I couldn't help secretly letting out a sigh of relief.

Butler Klein once again looked at me like I was a street urchin before saying, "I and the maid are all busy, so you can just wash yourself. The clothes that have been prepared for you, so you can just put them on afterwards. As for what you'll be doing..." There was a pause as a clearly unwilling look appeared on his face, but he still said, "The madame has said that you can rest for the day."

Once again, without waiting for a response from me, he turned to leave.

As he left, I could hear a snort coming from him.

It was clear that this butler didn't like me, but I didn't mind it. magic

All I cared about now was taking a nice hot bath since I really was dirty. I was so dirty that I was surprised that Madame Rose had even been willing to do all those things with me last night.

Since this was a medieval world, there were no such things as taps for hot water.

The water had been drawn, but it was completely cold.

Luckily, this was also a world where magic existed, so I was able to use the heat magic stone attached to the tub to heat up the water. Once it was just right, I sat down in the tub and let the hot water soothe my body.

The moment that I sat down in the tub, I realized my mistake.

I had forgotten to wash myself first before sitting down in the tub.

So the moment that I sat down, the water in the tub turned completely brown from all the dirt covering me.

But it was too late, so I just sat there in that brown water.

As I was relaxing, I couldn't help seeing something appearing out of the corner of my eye.

I tried to ignore it at first, but it kept popping up and annoying me.

So I had no choice but to pay attention to it.

However, whenever I tried looking at this thing in the corner of my eye, it moved along with my vision. So no matter how I tried looking at it, I wasn't able to focus my vision on it at all.

Finally, I forced my eyes forward and then slowly moved my vision towards the corner.

It took several tries, but I was finally able to see what the thing in the corner of my eyes was. When I finally saw what it was, I couldn't help revealing a shocked look.

That was because in the corner of my eye, there was a box that had a single word inside of it.

As for what that word was...It was...

System.

I couldn't help sitting there in a daze for a few seconds before suddenly saying out loud, "System."

I hadn't been expecting anything at first, but when I said this, there was a screen that popped up in front of me.

As expected!

One really was supposed to get a system whenever they transmigrated into another world!
