Chapter 1061: Cai Qinyue Causes a Ruckus on Stream (3)

Cai Qinyue had done her homework before arriving. In the past few days, Lucy had repeatedly trained her for this occasion. They wanted to ensure that things would become problematic for Jian Yiling.

Upon hearing this response, Zhai Yunsheng replied: "Did you step into a pile of dung before you decided to visit my apartment?"

Cai Qinyue retorted: "Why are you allowed to do something and yet others aren't allowed to say anything about it? Do you think I wanted things to turn out this way? If you guys didn't force me into such a dire situation, why would I even be here? Who doesn't want to live a good life? Who doesn't like good things in life? However, did you guys give me a chance to live such a life?"

As she said this, Cai Qinyue began to cry. Her eyes were red and tears slipped down her cheeks.

There was stubbornness on her face as she cried.

She looked like a woman who had been framed. Someone who was forced to leave behind her dignity and self-esteem to make her last stand against tyrants.

Some of the viewers in Jian Yiling's stream began to sympathize with Cai Qinyue:

[No one was born to be a shrew. People are forced to become one due to external circumstances and factors.]

[She's crying so sadly. She probably had no other choice available to her.]

[If Jian Yiling really hired a woman to break up the relationship between her aunt and uncle, that's just.. Disgusting...]

However, there were others who disagreed:

[Well, if her husband cheated, then shouldn't she blame her husband instead? How is this related to God Ling?]

[I don't believe God Ling would do such a thing. In fact, she's not even bothered to speak to people if it's unnecessary. And thus, she would definitely not do such things!]

[I feel like this woman is just here to steal God Ling and God Z's popularity! How disgusting!]

The viewers in Jian Yiling's stream kept arguing with each other.

Upon hearing Cai Qinyue's words, Zhai Yunsheng asked in a playful manner: "Well, how much alimony payment do you want?"

"My lawyer will come over in a bit," Cai Qinyue replied. She had prepared for this situation in advance.

At the time of the divorce with Wen Cheng, Cai Qinyue did not want to bear a huge debt. Therefore, in the divorce agreement, she stated that she did not want Wen Cheng's property or assets. This meant that she would not have to carry any of Wen Cheng's debts either.

This meant that even if she filed a lawsuit, she wouldn't be able to get anything.

If she could have gotten anything, she would have filed the lawsuit ages ago.

She knew that she had no chance of winning.

And thus, she intentionally came over when Jian Yiling was live streaming.

Zhai Yunsheng smirked before he said: "Well alright then. I have nothing better to do today. I will just sit by and watch your act."

Then, Zhai Yunsheng sat down on a sofa.

Lucy was watching the live stream. Although everything was going to plan, upon hearing these words, she did not feel happy at all.

Zhai Yunsheng was willing to give Cai Qinyue time... And yet... He wasn't willing to listen to her speak.

So in his heart, she wasn't even comparable to Cai Qinyue?

"Zhai Yunsheng... Why don't you like me?"

The feeling of being ignored and disliked by the man she loved was even more unbearable to her than being ignored by the elders of the Goodman family.

However, Lucy kept telling herself that this was not the time to talk about her feelings. Getting her hands on the family compass and gaining the approval of the Goodman family was at the top of her priority list.

As Lucy thought about this, the door of her room was suddenly opened.

Elder George appeared in front of her.

"Elder..."

"What are you doing?" Elder George asked. The expression on his face was serious and his eyes were sharp.

"I'm doing things," Lucy replied as she quickly closed the live stream and alt-tabbed to another interface on her desktop.

Chapter 1062: Hope You Don't Follow His Footsteps

"What kind of things are you doing?" Elder George asked.

"I'm looking into a development project on the west side of Beijing. I talked to you about it last time," Lucy replied.

She looked at Elder George and wondered why he had suddenly appeared in her study room.

However, she refused to let Elder George know that she had found out the whereabouts of the family compass.

If she let Elder George know about this, she would have no chance to obtain the compass.

Elder George walked over beside Lucy and glanced at the documents on her desk before he looked at the things displayed on her computer screen. Everything was indeed about the development project on the west side of Beijing.

“Cai Qinyue has been following you around recently, hasn’t she?” Elder George asked.

“Yes she has. Is there a problem with her?” Lucy asked. Although the expression on her face did not change, she was wondering why Elder George suddenly asked her about Cai Qinyue.

“She went to visit Young Master Zhai and his fiancée today. Did you have anything to do with this?”

“Nope,” Lucy denied.

“Really?” Elder George asked again. His voice was low and his eyes were fixed on Lucy. It was as though he was trying to read her mind.

“Nope. Cai Qinyue is merely my employee. Her personal matters have nothing to do with me,” Lucy replied.

“That’s good. Your father did foolish things in Beijing. He has now been completely abandoned by our family. I hope that you won’t follow in his footsteps,” Elder George reminded Lucy.

“I understand. I won’t do anything stupid. Please rest assured.”

Lucy did not think that there was anything wrong with what she was doing.

Her father had done something illegal to end up in this situation.

Although she was doing something that was considered despicable, it was not illegal.

After Elder George finished questioning Lucy, he left Lucy’s study room.

After he left the room, Elder George said to his subordinate: “The rest of the family will learn about the compass soon. We must ensure the safety of Miss Jian Yiling for the time being.”

“Understood.”

###

As Cai Qinyue was causing a ruckus, Jian Yiling’s stream once again gathered a lot of viewers.

Everyone was waiting to see how the drama would unfold.

Although this was not yet the peak time for Internet usage, the popularity of the live stream had soared to ten million viewers.

This made the other seven groups from <Dear, We Live Together> suspicious. Was this deliberately arranged by Jian Yiling and Zhai Yunsheng?

It just so happened that Xu Rui planned to invite one of his friends over for lunch. Xu Rui had intended to prepare a meal himself.

Xu Rui's manager was ready to make posts on the Internet to gather a wave of popularity.

However, neither of them expected Jian Yiling's group to cause such a commotion.

Xu Rui's manager couldn't help but exclaim: "Jian Yiling's group is very good at marketing. They somehow manage to attract the attention of viewers every single week."

"What if it's real? Perhaps, it's a coincidence. After all, these things will have an impact on their reputation."

"Just watch. Even if it's a marketing tactic, we will just have to accept it. After all, they have money and power. We can't do anything about it."

Xu Rui's manager understood the situation quite well. They could not afford to go head to head with Jian Yiling's group.

And thus, they would just sit by and analyze the drama as it unfolded.. Maybe in the near future, such a tactic could be used on Xu Rui as well.

Chapter 1063: Calmly Handle the Ruckus (1)

Jian Yiling's parents, Wen Nuan and Jian Shuxing arrived faster than Cai Qinyue's lawyer.

Wen Nuan had been watching her daughter's stream. As soon as she saw Cai Qinyue, she instantly became angry.

And thus, she set off to Jian Yiling's place. On the way there, she continued to watch the stream. When she heard what Cai Qinyue said to Jian Yiling and Zhai Yunsheng, Wen Nuan decided that in the past she had been treating Cai Qinyue too kindly.

As soon as Wen Nuan arrived, she immediately asked Cai Qinyue: "How on earth did you become so shameless to say that Yiling and I caused all those things to happen to you?"

Cai Qinyue already expected Wen Nuan to confront her. And thus, she was not surprised to see her.

"Wen Nuan, in the past, you should have called me sister-in-law. We've peacefully gotten along for so many years. I have only a few questions to ask you. Can you swear using your daughter's name that the divorce between me and your brother had nothing to do with you? Can you swear that it was not set up by you so that I couldn't get a single penny after I got divorced with your brother? If you can swear with your daughter's name, I will leave immediately."

Cai Qinyue was confident that Wen Nuan would not dare to make this oath.

Wen Nuan's eyes were red as she said: "Cai Qinyue, you know exactly why these two things happened. Don't tell the half-truth and mislead others."

"Exactly why these things happened? Are you trying to say I'm greedy for money? Or are you trying to mention that my daughter plagiarized your work? I have to admit that my daughter did the wrong thing. However, that's not a sufficient reason to make your brother cheat on me, is it?"

Most people could not forgive cheating.

The viewers agreed with this.

Naturally, plagiarism was wrong but setting someone up to cheat was worse.

Similar to Jian Yiling, Wen Nuan was unwilling to blame Wen Yan. After all, Wen Yan saved Jian Yiling's life.

This made Jian Shuxing and Wen Nuan very angry.

Jian Shuxing angrily reprimanded Cai Qinyue: "Don't throw dirty water on my daughter! She didn't have anything to do with this! You and your daughter are to blame for everything!"

However, Cai Qinyue responded fearlessly: "Justice lies in the hearts of the people. The eyes of the masses will have their own judgments. They will be able to tell who is right and who is wrong."

As Cai Qinyue said these words, more viewers began to back her up:

[I feel like this woman is telling the truth now.]

[Yeah. Jian Yiling's mother isn't willing to swear on her name.]

[It seems as though they really did such a thing. Isn't that just disgusting?]

[To ruin your sister-in-law's marriage... How disturbing...]

[It doesn't matter whether or not this woman is greedy for money. The man can divorce the woman. But it's not right to cheat! Furthermore, Jian Yiling's family should not be interfering with someone else's marriage!]

Some of the viewers began to speak for Cai Qinyue.

Jian Shuxing and Wen Nuan did not know how to deal with Cai Qinyue.

Upon seeing this, Zhai Yunsheng calmly said: "Uncle Jian and Aunt Jian, please take a seat."

Zhai Yunsheng did not seem upset. He did not look angry or worried. In fact, the same smile danced on his lips.

Naturally, Jian Shuxing and Wen Nuan did not share his mood.

After all, their daughter was being criticized!

On the other hand, Jian Yiling was rather calm. She currently had her computer open and was dealing with other things. She didn't even spare Cai Qinyue another word.. To some extent, it seemed like Cai Qinyue and the angry criticism from the viewers did not exist.

Chapter 1064: Calmly Handle the Ruckus (2)

However, Jian Shuxing and Wen Nuan were unable to sit down. After all, Cai Qinyue was standing right in front of them. Her existence was like a grain of sand in their eyes. Actually, her existence was like a nail to their eyes.

“Yiling...” Wen Nuan softly said to her daughter. “Yiling, why don’t you go back to your room? We will handle everything else.”

Wen Nuan was worried that Cai Qinyue’s words would cause trouble for Jian Yiling.

Upon hearing this, Jian Yiling paused for a moment before she raised her head to look at Wen Nuan. Wen Nuan’s face was filled with worry and her eyes were watery.

For some reason, Jian Yiling felt sad when she saw this.

This was a mother’s gaze of concern.

It was a gaze of concern which Jian Yiling did not know how to respond to.

“I’m... I’m alright. She’s not important,” Jian Yiling replied softly as she lowered her head again.

“Mhmm, everything is alright as long as you’re not upset. Just ignore her. She’s just trying to attract attention.”

“Okay,” Jian Yiling replied as she nodded her head.

Jian Yiling somewhat awkwardly responded to Wen Nuan’s concern.

When Jian Shuxing and Wen Nuan heard their daughter’s response, they were happy and worried at the same time.

However, Cai Qinyue found this act incredibly amusing. Were they trying to give off an impression that their family was very loving?

Was this an act for the viewers? In order to redeem their image?

No matter what they did, as long as they refused to blame Wen Yan for his acts, their image would be impossible to redeem. After all, someone was hired to destroy her marriage.

After a while, Cai Qinyue’s lawyer arrived.

He was wearing a suit and carried a file bag. Many documents were presented to Jian Yiling.

Those documents probably contained a list of compensation payments.

The alimony payment was calculated based on Wen Cheng’s annual income.

Then, the lawyer said a bunch of words.

All the viewers in the stream were listening. They felt that the lawyer’s words were rather reasonable.

[If a man cheats, then it’s reasonable for the divorced woman to ask for an alimony payment.]

[The cheating party should deserve anything!]

[If Jian Yiling and her mother actually ruined this woman's marriage, they should pay for psychological damage caused to this woman as well.]

After Zhai Yunsheng finished listening to the lawyer's words, he casually asked: "Are you done with your act?"

For some reason, his lazy posture and his slightly upturned lips gave a frightening impression.

Cai Qinyue's eyes were teary as she responded: "Master Sheng, I know you're very wealthy. Although this money probably means nothing to you, this money is my living expenses for the rest of my life. I was part of the Wen family for many years. I spent many years away from society. As a result, I've lost the ability to return to society to earn money."

Cai Qinyue's words pierced the hearts of many housewives.

Many husbands used flowery language to persuade their wives to stay at home to look at their children. However, if they get a divorce, the wife would often end up with nothing belonging to them.

[You're not allowed to do whatever you want just because you have money! Trampling on someone's self-esteem and pride is absolutely disgusting!]

[How is this guy a celebrity? Is he just relying on his money or something? How dare he trample on someone's dignity?!]

[It's totally reasonable for a man who cheated to give alimony payments! Why is this man acting so righteous?]

Many netizens, especially some older female netizens who had the same experience as Cai Qinyue expressed their sympathy for her. They also expressed their disgust towards Zhai Yunsheng's arrogance.

Upon hearing this response, Zhai Yunsheng smiled contemptuously before he replied: "Although I don't know why you're asking alimony payment from Yiling since you're here, your lawyer is here, and everyone watching this is here, I have something that I want to show everyone as well."

Chapter 1065: Calmly Handle the Ruckus (3)

As Zhai Yunsheng said this, he turned on a projector.

Normal computer screens were too small for the viewers in the stream to see.

By projecting the video, the video would be large enough and clear enough for everyone to see.

The audio was connected to the two speakers inside the apartment. The speakers ensured that the sound was clear and could be heard by the viewers in the stream as well.

When the video began, the person on the screen was Cai Qinyue. The location was the Wen Residence.

Upon seeing herself in the video, Cai Qinyue's eyes widened with surprise.

Based on the background of the video, Cai Qinyue recognized that the filming location was in her daughter's study room.

Why was there a camera installed here?

And thus, Cai Qinyue began to panic. Although she hadn't finished watching the footage, a bad feeling began to rise in her heart.

In the video, Cai Qinyue was talking to her daughter.

"Ruoruo, I need to get a divorce with your father. The family situation is very bad. Your father's business is going into debt. If I don't divorce him now, when he goes into debt, I have to go into debt with him too."

"Mother, you've been married to my father for so many years. You've also been through so much together. Although my father's business has failed, I still have my grandparents and my other uncles. As long as they're willing to help, my father's business will definitely grow again."

"When do you expect me to wait until? He's so old already. If I divorce him right now, I get to take those pieces of jewelry away. However, once he goes into debt, everything valuable inside this house could be sold. Ruoruo, listen to your mother. We should leave your father together."

"Mother... I... Let's wait a little longer..."

"You can wait, but I don't want to wait anymore. I don't want to live in hardship with your father."

Cai Qinyue would never say these things in front of outsiders. She would only say this when she was alone with her daughter.

It just so happened that this video was taken at such a moment.

Cai Qinyue's eyes were widened as she questioned Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling: "When did you install surveillance cameras inside my house?!"

Zhai Yunsheng smiled before he replied: "The video was sent to me by a cousin of the Wen family. It shouldn't be a problem for someone to install surveillance cameras in their own home right? Should I contact that person and get them to confront you about this matter?"

The person who installed the surveillance cameras was Wen Yan.

Wen Yan planned everything meticulously. After all, he orchestrated the divorce between Wen Yan and Cai Qinyue.

In order for Cai Qinyue to completely leave the Wen family and not cause them any more trouble, he had planned everything out very well.

When he had the intention to drive Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo out of the house, he already installed the cameras. He would monitor and record every word and deed of Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo.

And when the divorce was finalized, he clipped everything important and stored them inside a folder.

He also sent this folder to Zhai Yunsheng just in case he ever needed them.

In the end, Cai Qinyue actually came to cause them trouble. In addition, she deliberately chose the time when Jian Yiling was streaming.

She wanted to use the pressure of public opinion to attack Jian Yiling and force her to compromise. However, she forgot that public opinion was often a double-edged sword. It would not serve a certain person.. Even though it could help Cai Qinyue, it could also help someone else.

Chapter 1066: Wen Cheng Defends Jian Yiling (1)

The video continued to play, clip after clip.

The contents were all of Cai Qinyue in the Wen family.

It was from the time Cai Qinyue considered getting a divorce to the time when the divorce was completed.

What she mentioned the most was not Wen Cheng cheating on her. Rather, it was Wen Cheng going bankrupt.

She didn't care about their relationship breaking. Rather, she cared about going into debt.

And thus, the reason was completely inconsistent with what she said here in front of Jian Yiling.

The netizens were shocked to hear about this. Furthermore, the netizens who previously spoke up for Cai Qinyue had been slapped in the face:

[What the heck? She got the divorce because her husband was going bankrupt? It had nothing to do with cheating?]

[Like birds in one grove are husband and wife, but when faced with disaster, they fly to separate places. She gave up alimony payments because she did not want to go into debt. How dare she ask for those payments now? How shameless is she?]

[But it's still wrong for the man to cheat on her. The cheating problem remains unsolved, no?]

[Ahh, they're all bad people.]

[I feel drunk. What the heck is happening?]

The netizens were quite confused. So many twists and turns were happening.

In this day and age, the netizens did not dare to support one side blindly. They had to be prepared for plot reversals at any time.

If they supported someone blindly, they would be slapped in the face like those who sympathized with Cai Qinyue.

Cai Qinyue did not expect Zhai Yunsheng to prepare such a thing.

This was different from what she had planned.

Although she knew that it was not legal for her to ask for alimony payments, before this, she at least had public opinion by her side.

However, after this video, a lot of netizens would no longer support her. What should she do now?

Cai Qinyue decided to put everything on the line and she began to cry: “Do you know how I felt when you recorded these conversations between my daughter and I? Do you want me to tell my daughter every day that her father cheated on me and abandoned her? How sad would my daughter be? I had to protect my daughter! And yet, you guys are now taking advantage of that! You’re saying that I got a divorce with my husband because I was afraid of being in debt! I wouldn’t abandon him!”

As Cai Qinyue began to cry, Wen Cheng finally arrived.

He had been discussing business on the outskirts of Beijing. As a result, it took him a while to get here after learning about the news.

Even if Jian Yiling did not intend to let him come, Wen Cheng would insist on coming. After all, this was his matter to deal with. He shouldn’t be dragging his sister and niece into the situation.

When Wen Cheng looked at Cai Qinyue, he felt heartbroken: “I am the one who got the divorce with you. If I’m the one who should be giving you alimony payments, shouldn’t you look for me? Why are you interfering with my niece’s life? Did you pick this time to use the pressure of public opinion to force her to compromise?”

Cai Qinyue was not afraid of Wen Cheng. She replied: “If I could contact you, why do I need to come here? Isn’t it because you didn’t want me to see you? After the divorce, did you give me the opportunity to meet you? Why can’t I come to see your sister and niece? Aren’t they the ones who orchestrated the divorce in the first place? They’re the culprits! I did nothing wrong! What’s wrong with fairly accusing them?”

Cai Qinyue was determined to blame Jian Yiling and Wen Nuan for everything.

“Where is the evidence? If you’re accusing them, you should have evidence in your hands. Furthermore, you’re saying that I cheated on you! Do you have any evidence of that? You can’t just say these things without any evidence! How shameless are you?!”

On the way here, Wen Cheng had opened Jian Yiling’s stream. When he saw Cai Qinyue speaking nonsense, he was initially sad.. However, the more he watched, the angrier he got.

Chapter 1067: Wen Cheng Defends Jian Yiling (2)

This was not the truth and yet she was trying to convince everyone that this was the truth.

After living together for so many years, how could he not know that she was such a person?

Cai Qinyue retorted: “Then make them swear on their lives! Make them say that everything that I said is false! Make them swear that it wasn’t them who hired a woman to entice you to cheat!”

Wen Cheng angrily rebuked: "Don't say misleading things here! I was indeed set up by someone but that someone wasn't them! I can swear on my life! They didn't do such a thing! Furthermore, things aren't what you say they are! You're slandering them!"

Wen Cheng glared at Cai Qinyue.

Then, Wen Cheng held up a USB in front of Cai Qinyue: "You've seen the contents of this USB already. Yiling told us the truth that night. And now, I'm ready to show everyone the footage. I'm not afraid of being laughed at by others. I was indeed set up by someone. I got drunk and got onto the same bed with a stranger."

"However, A Nuan and Yiling never hired a woman to destroy our relationship! Furthermore, I never betrayed our marriage! A Nuan and Yiling were never involved in such a matter!"

The contents of the USB would make Wen Cheng lose face in front of everyone. Originally, Cai Qinyue assumed that Wen Cheng would not show such footage to everyone.

However, in order to protect Jian Yiling from being misunderstood, he did not hesitate to show everyone the footage of him in that hotel that night.

"You... You're still protecting them?" Cai Qinyue yelled. "In your heart, why are they more important than your daughter and I?"

"Why would they be more important? However, you kept making mistakes. Even if I got a divorce with you, I couldn't bear to separate from our daughter. How do you expect me to protect you when you're doing such things? Who is the shameless one here?!"

Wen Cheng was ready to sacrifice everything today. Even Wen Nuan did not expect him to do such a thing.

Her eldest brother was always a bit naive and he was timid with his actions.

And yet, he was willing to do this for Yiling. It was evident that he loved his niece a lot.

Even though Yiling was slow to realize such things, she could sense that her uncle was protecting her.

She put down her laptop and stood up to take the USB from Wen Cheng's hands.

"Don't play the contents," Jian Yiling said.

In the video, her uncle had been stripped naked. He was also in the same bed as a woman from a not-so-innocent origin. If the word got out, her uncle would be ridiculed and laughed at.

And those who had business deals with her uncle would say things behind his back.

"Yiling, I'll be alright. This is the truth. It is what actually happened. I'm not afraid to face the truth."

Wen Cheng had thought it through. He was already quite old. What was there to be scared of?

Furthermore, his family had gone through so many changes. What could losing a bit more pride do? It was more important to protect the family members who loved him and treated him well.

"No," Jian Yiling repeated. Her tone was firm.

Then, Jian Yiling snatched the USB from Wen Cheng's hands. She picked up a crystal ashtray from the coffee table and smashed the USB to pieces.

"Yiling!" Wen Cheng cried out as he tried to stop her.

Yiling: "You're my uncle.. I want to protect you."

Chapter 1068: Something is Definitely Fishy

Although Jian Yiling's body was small, she somehow gave off an unexpected sense of security.

Wen Cheng froze for a moment before his eyes began to tear up.

For his dignity, his niece was willing to be misunderstood by everyone.

When Jian Yiling noticed Wen Cheng's tears, she comforted: "Don't feel sad. Don't be afraid. We're here for you."

"Mhmm, I won't be sad and I won't be afraid," Wen Cheng replied. In reality, he was not afraid. He just felt powerless and extremely guilty.

Then, Wen Cheng turned around and said to Cai Qinyue: "I don't owe you anything. A Nuan and Yiling definitely do not owe you anything either. If you want me to swear, I will make an oath right here. I can make whatever solemn oath you want. However, if you continue to make up nonsense, I will contact the police to deal with this matter."

Wen Cheng said these words with absolute determination.

Furthermore, Cai Qinyue did not have conclusive evidence in her hands. This meant that the viewers would often choose to side with Jian Yiling.

[Wait, so regardless of whether or not this man cheated on his wife, this matter has nothing to do with Jian Yiling?]

[Ahh... I guess that other than Yiling and her mother refusing to make a solemn oath in the beginning, that woman hasn't really brought out any conclusive evidence.]

[So she was just making things up?]

[I said from the very beginning that God Ling wouldn't do such a thing! God Ling is such a smart person! Why would she choose to do such a stupid thing? In comparison, that woman looks rather dumb.]

At first, many netizens sympathized with Cai Qinyue's situation. However, as Cai Qinyue did not have any evidence in her hands, it was difficult for the netizens to continue sympathizing with her.

At this moment, Zhai Yunsheng who had been sitting on the sofa smiled and snapped his fingers.

Two of his bodyguards came in with documents prepared in advance.

"It appears as though Ms. Cai Qinyue has gotten rather close to the Goodman family recently," Zhai Yunsheng commented as he held the information in his hands.

Did they assume that Zhai Yunsheng did not know about their interaction?

If that was the case, they severely underestimated Zhai Yunsheng.

Not long ago, the Goodman family attempted to frame Jian Yiling to provoke conflict between the Qin family and the Zhai family. As Zhai Yunsheng wasn't stupid, he decided to keep a close eye on their movements.

"Everyone knows that Henry Goodman was involved in the murder of Mr. Qin Hongzhi. He framed the Zhai family with the intention of stirring up a storm in Beijing. And now, Lucy Goodman, the daughter of Henry Goodman, contacts you to come and ask for alimony payments?"

As Henry Goodman caused a lot of commotion, everyone in Beijing assumed that the Qin family and the Zhai family would be going head to head.

In that incident, Jian Yiling became a suspect.

As a result, it was not the first time that the Goodman family planned to make a move against Jian Yiling.

For Cai Qinyue and Lucy to get close together... There was definitely something fishy happening.

[The Goodman family is a very rich and powerful family right? If she's doing things for the Goodman family, she would definitely have a lot of money!]

[Why do I smell a conspiracy happening?]

[Cai Qinyue chose to give up the alimony payments! From a legal perspective, she shouldn't receive any payments! She knows this and yet she still comes to bother Jian Yiling! How scary!]

[Wait what's happening? Why is the world so terrifying?]

[So this woman was just pretending? She had ulterior motives and just wanted to use us netizens?!]

Chapter 1069: The Words "Mother"

Cai Qinyue felt a chill run down her back.

It appeared as though everything she did was under the watchful eye of Zhai Yunsheng.

When Cai Qinyue looked at the man in front of her, the chill rose from the bottom of her feet.

Zhai Yunsheng's fingers habitually tapped the armrest of the sofa. This action made Cai Qinyue feel inexplicably nervous.

In fact, the fear made her legs go weak.

However, after a pause, Cai Qinyue thought of Lucy. She was doing this for Lucy. In other words, she was doing this for the Goodman family. She had no reason to be so afraid of Zhai Yunsheng.

When Wen Nuan heard Zhai Yunsheng's words, she became furious and lost all of her composure.

“Cai Qinyue! How dare you do that? What has my daughter ever done to you? From the very beginning, you’ve always been hurting our family! I’m telling you right now that if you want to do something to our family, come and look for me! Are you listening?!”

If it weren’t for Jian Shuxing holding her back, Wen Nuan would have already pounced onto Cai Qinyue.

“A Nuan, let me handle it.”

Jian Shuxing was ready to deal with Cai Qinyue.

When Cai Qinyue realized that Wen Nuan and Jian Shuxing were mad, she began to panic.

The current situation was very unfavorable for her. If she didn’t leave right now, the couple was ready to fight her.

Her task today could not be accomplished. She had to go back and discuss this matter with Lucy to make changes to their previous plans.

“Okay okay. You guys have more people. I can’t fight you. I will leave now!”

Cai Qinyue said as she turned away.

After Cai Qinyue left the apartment, everything began to settle down.

Wen Nuan said with regret: “If I knew that she was going to do this, I would have been more ruthless in the past!”

Wen Nuan felt that she had been too kind to Cai Qinyue.

Jian Shuxing snarled through his teeth: “She deserves to just die!”

The two of them were still incredibly angry.

Then, Wen Nuan looked at Jian Yiling before she softly reassured her daughter: “Yiling, don’t be scared. This won’t happen again.”

Jian Shuxing agreed with his wife’s words: “Mhmm, Yiling, don’t worry about this. Ignore that witch’s words. She’s just jealous.”

“Mhmm,” Jian Yiling replied softly. Then, she lowered her eyes and after a long moment of silence, she said the word ‘mother’ with great difficulty.’

Although it was a simple word, it took a lot of effort from Jian Yiling to say it.

Wen Nuan was stunned.

She did not expect this.

Since that incident three years ago, she hadn’t heard her daughter call her by the word ‘mother’ again.

She knew that her daughter grew apart from her. However, she didn’t know how to change it.

And so, she and her husband could only try to help their daughter as much as possible.

Jian Shuxing and Wen Nuan were both surprised and happy.

Tears began to well in their eyes.

"I want to drink the soup that you made," Jian Yiling said with great difficulty. Her words felt raw.

"Okay, okay. I will cook it for you tonight," Wen Nuan promised.

Tears began to roll down her cheeks.

Ahh, she promised her mother-in-law to not shed tears. However, today, she couldn't stop her tears from falling down.

Wen Nuan's cooking skills weren't great. Three years ago, she started to make soup. However, it was Jian Yunmo who mostly consumed this soup.

In order to not make his mother disappointed and prevent his sister from suffering, Jian Yunmo consumed the soup that was filled with the 'love' from his mother.

Chapter 1070: Can't Turn Your Back on Someone Like That

Three years ago, after the kidnapping of Jian Yiling to the time she left Beijing, Wen Nuan brewed soup for Jian Yiling and Jian Yunmo every single day.

During that time, her skills had improved a lot.

However, Jian Yunmo drank most of the soup. On rare occasions when the soup was tasty, Jian Yunmo would offer the soup to his sister.

And thus, it was a good signal for Jian Yiling to ask her mother to brew her some soup. In a sense, she was trying to reconcile with the past.

Zhai Yunsheng gently embraced Jian Yiling in his arms. He gave her the silent comfort and encouragement that she needed.

Cai Qinyue rushed back to the Goodman Residence on the outskirts of Beijing.

As soon as she entered, she saw Elder George.

He gave off a majestic and cold aura that made Cai Qinyue scared for her life.

At the same time, Lucy came down from upstairs.

"Elder, what's going on?" Lucy asked. She acted as though she had no knowledge of what just happened in Jian Yiling's stream.

"Just now, she went to go cause trouble for Young Master Zhai and his fiancée. Do you really not know about this?" Elder George questioned Lucy again.

"I don't know about this," Lucy answered. "She's relatives with Young Master Zhai's fiancée right? If that's the case, it would be normal for her to visit her, no?"

“Relatives? More like there’s a lot of conflict between them.”

Lucy: “Then... Do you want me to...?”

“If you keep this person by your side, aren’t you giving off the impression that you want to be on the bad side of the Zhai family?”

“I didn’t think of it in that way. I hired her because I didn’t know much about Beijing’s customs and culture. I wanted her to give me some advice.”

“Well if that’s the case, from today onwards, you will no longer have an employer-employee relationship. Do not have any more contact with her,” Elder George ordered.

Upon hearing this, Cai Qinyue cast a pleading look at Lucy.

“Okay,” Lucy agreed.

Cai Qinyue began to become desperate: “Miss Lucy, you can’t do this to me. I was following your orders. I didn’t do anything wrong.”

“What are you talking about? You went to deal with your private matters today. It has nothing to do with me,” Lucy calmly stated.

Cai Qinyue’s face became pale as she stammered: “No... Miss Lucy... You clearly said...”

Before she finished her sentence, Cai Qinyue realized that she had been abandoned by Lucy.

Cai Qinyue hurriedly turned around to look at Elder George: “Mr. George, I didn’t do anything wrong! I followed Miss Lucy’s instructions! Please believe me!”

However, Elder George merely looked at Cai Qinyue coldly. He did not give her a chance to explain further.

“Kick her out.”

Elder George ordered the security guards.

Cai Qinyue continued to plead for Lucy’s help. However, Lucy did not even look at her.

Originally, Cai Qinyue assumed that the Goodman family would be her safe haven. However, she didn’t expect that she would be kicked away so quickly.

At this moment, Cai Qinyue’s heart was filled with fear. If she lost the support of Lucy, what would she be facing in the future?

To make matters worse, she just pissed off Zhai Yunsheng!

“Miss Lucy, you can’t do this to me! I was merely following your instructions! If you didn’t give me those instructions, I wouldn’t have dared to go after Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling! You can’t turn your back on me like this!”

As Cai Qinyue was dragged away by the security guards, her voice became quieter and quieter.

Lucy did not dare to look at Elder George.

“Didn’t you say that what she did had nothing to do with you?” Elder George questioned again.
