Chapter 1111: Finally Back

The expression on Jian Yumin's face became sad when he heard his sister being mentioned: "Dandan, listen to baba. Your auntie disappeared. Everyone's very sad. Therefore, you should not ask where your auntie is."

"Disappeared?" the little boy asked as he cocked his head. "Is she going to come back?"

"Yep, she will come back. She will definitely come back," Jian Yumin replied with certainty.

"Then my auntie will come back tomorrow!" Little Jian Dan cheered happily.

On the other hand, Jian Yumin and Luo Xiuen turned around to look at each other. Both of them had sadness in their eyes.

Needless to say, Jian Yiling's disappearance brought them a lot of pain.

Two years ago, when Jian Yiling disappeared, Luo Xiuen had been pregnant for quite a few months already.

However, when she heard this news, she insisted on searching for Jian Yiling in the Pacific Ocean.

In the end, Jian Yumin stopped her. Instead of going to search for Jian Yiling, they cried in each other's arms.

###

Jian Yiling was awakened by pain.

There were painful sensations all over her body.

When she finally opened her eyes, she saw a woman in front of her.

The woman appeared to be in her twenties. Her pretty face was looking at Jian Yiling with concern.

"Are you alright?" the woman asked with concern.

Jian Yiling looked at the woman and asked: "Who are you?"

"I'm a villager from this village. My name is Jin Jin. Where did you come from? Do you remember that you rolled down from that mountain?" the woman said to Jian Yiling.

Rolled down from a mountain?

Jian Yiling suddenly remembered something. She hurriedly asked the woman: "Where are we? What year are we in?"

The woman was a little surprised to hear these questions. Did this girl damage her head as she rolled down the mountains?

She took out her phone and pointed at the calendar.

“Do you happen to have amnesia?” Jin Jin asked with concern.

When Jian Yiling saw the location and date on the phone, her eyes began to redden.

“What’s wrong?” Jin Jin hurriedly asked. “Don’t cry.”

“I’m alright. I’m just happy,” Jian Yiling replied.

It had been two years. She was finally back.

Two years ago, the plane she was on encountered a strange airflow whilst passing over the Pacific Ocean. This made the plane experience turbulence.

And by the time the plane flew out of the turbulence, she somehow returned to the world she used to live in.

In these two years, she had been desperately trying to return to this world.

Over there, she did not care about anything. In contrast, over here, there were people that she loved and people that loved her.

However, no matter how hard she tried, she did not manage to come back.

Even though she spent two years in that world, she refused to give up on trying.

And finally, she made it back.

Jian Yiling was ready to get up. However, the woman hurriedly stopped her: “Don’t move around. You just rolled down from the mountain. There are numerous scratches on your body from those thorns. Although the scratches and wounds aren’t that deep, it would be bad for them to get infected.”

Upon hearing these words, Jian Yiling finally realized that there were scratches and wounds all over her face and body.

Because of these scratches, she could barely see her own face.

When Jin Jin saw Jian Yiling staring at her hands, she was worried that this girl was unable to accept that she could potentially end up disfigured. She quickly comforted her: “Don’t worry, I just asked our village doctor, Dr. Zhang to treat your wounds. Dr. Zhang told me that if you don’t want scars in the future, you should try to earn a bit of money. XDL’s scar removal cream has a miraculous effect. I’m not sure if it’s true as I haven’t used the cream before. The product is rather expensive. However, as these were the words of the doctor, you should believe him.. Please don’t worry too much.”

Chapter 1112: Scared of Hearing Bad News

The scars and wounds on Jian Yiling’s face could easily disfigure her. Normally, girls would be incredibly worried about this problem. Jin Jin wanted to give Jian Yiling some hope.

“Can I... Borrow your phone... To make a call?” Jian Yiling asked softly.

“Of course,” Jin Jin said as she graciously handed her phone to Jian Yiling. “If you have family, you should inform them of your situation. They must be incredibly worried about you.”

They should have been worried about her... However... Two years had passed since then.

Jian Yiling did not know how Zhai Yunsheng was doing.

She was terrified. But even if she was terrified, she had to face reality.

As Jian Yiling had a good memory, she could remember the phone numbers of many people.

However, at this moment, she did not know who to call.

In one of her previous lives, when she was waiting for her death in the ward, she had no one to contact.

However, now, she did not know how to tell her family and loved ones that she was still alive.

This was because two years was an incredibly long time.

She didn't know how they were doing...

Especially...

She didn't even know if he was still alive.

She had dreamt of him several times. In her dreams, she watched him die.

This was why she desperately wanted to return to this world. She wanted to tell him that she was still alive.

Alas, she did not know how to come back to this world.

And now that she finally returned to this world, she was scared of making the call. She did not want to hear bad news.

At this moment, a group of people broke through the door.

As soon as they entered, they snatched the phone out of Jian Yiling's hands.

"What are you guys doing?" Jin Jin cried out as she glared angrily at them.

"Jin Jin, your brother owes us money. As he ran away, we decided to come and look for you instead."

"Well, I'm telling you right now that I have nothing to do with him! You guys should look for him instead!"

Jin Jin picked up a broom to shoo the people out.

Her brother Jin Feng was an absolute jerk. Back when he was studying, he hung around dodgy people. When he ran out of money, he would always ask for money from their family. And if her mother and father refused to give her brother money, he would hit them.

Later on, he claimed to be doing business with one of his friends in a foreign country. In reality, no one knew what he was doing.

Even when her mother and father passed away, her brother did not return.

And thus, Jin Jin refused to acknowledge him as her brother.

Half a year ago, he suddenly came back. He claimed that he needed money for his business. After he borrowed money from people, he then disappeared.

As those people could not find Jin Feng, they decided to ask Jin Jin for the money instead.

"I'm telling you Jin Jin! It's only natural to pay back your debts. This is the case even if you don't acknowledge Jin Feng as your brother! And if you don't give back the money today, we will take this phone and all the other valuable things inside your house!"

"Don't you dare!" Jin Jin yelled at them.

"Why wouldn't we dare? If you want, you can call the police. I expect the police to help us get back the money your brother owes us!"

"Give the phone back to her. I will give you the money," Jian Yiling said to the men.

"Do you have money? Why didn't you say so earlier? It's a total of a hundred and twenty-eight thousand dollars. If we consider interest, it sums up to a hundred and eighty-three thousand dollars."

The man reached out his hand and asked Jian Yiling for the money.

"I don't have it right now," Jian Yiling replied. "However, if you give me the phone, I can get the money for you."

"Why even say those words if you don't have the money right now?! I've heard those words before! Her brother said those words to us! However, he's nowhere to be seen!"

Then, the man spat at the ground and said: "Ugly brat, you should just focus on looking after yourself!"

As Jian Yiling's face and body were covered with bloody scratches, her looks were quite hideous..

Chapter 1113: Apparently, Her Fiance is Dead

"Brothers, search this place. If you find something valuable, take it away with you. If we don't find enough available items, we will come back next time."

The man commanded as he began to dig through Jin Jin's possessions.

Jin Jin's home was a small concrete-covered apartment. It was not a large place. There were only two bedrooms and usually, she lived alone.

Upon seeing this, Jin Jin rushed forward.

"Do it then. I dare you. If you want to move my possessions, do it over my dead body. Do you really think I'm afraid of you?"

Jin Jin who was typically known to be a quiet girl yelled this with a tremendous amount of energy. She fiercely confronted the men in front of her.

Although these gangsters bullied people, they did not dare to kill someone.

"Okay fine, I will take your phone to cover a bit of the interest."

The smartphone in his hands could be sold for eight to nine hundred dollars. This could be their payment for making this trip.

After they made a bit more ruckus, they turned around to leave.

After they left, Jin Jin went limp on the ground.

Although she appeared brave, her hands and feet had been shaking for a while.

After a long time, Jin Jin said to Jian Yiling who was sitting on the bed: "I'm sorry. I can't lend you my phone anymore. If you're okay to wait a bit, Dr. Zhang will come over in the evening. You can borrow her phone."

Jian Yiling looked at Jin Jin before she softly asked: "Are you alright?"

Jin Jin smiled and replied: "I'm alright. It's no big deal. I don't have the money that they want. I won't acknowledge Jin Feng's debt."

"Mhmm."

Then, Jian Yiling looked around her and asked: "Do you live by yourself?"

"Mhmm, my mother and father passed away. My mother died because of a car accident and my father died because of liver cancer."

"I will give back whatever money you spent," Jian Yiling said to Jin Jin.

"No no, there's no need. Firstly, your injuries didn't cost me a lot. Secondly, I'm not that broke. With the financial support of some generous individuals, I just finished college. After graduating, I managed to find a decent job and saved up a bit of money. I came back to the village to buy a piece of land to plant some organic vegetables. It's really been alright. Once I earn enough money, I plan to start an agritainment."

Jin Jin was an optimist. She knew what she wanted in life.

"Mhmm, you will succeed."

"Hopefully," Jin Jin said to Jian Yiling. "Oh right, I haven't asked for your name yet."

"Jian Yiling."

"Your name sounds like the doctor whose plane disappeared two years ago," Jin Jin commented. "Ahh, the Gods were jealous of talented people. I can't believe she just died like that. Because of her departure, XDL hasn't launched another product for two entire years."

As she was an ordinary citizen, Jin Jin did not have the opportunity to meet such a doctor. However, the medical cosmetics she developed had a great impact on ordinary individuals. Even though she could not afford to buy them, she had heard a lot about those products.

Back then, Jian Yiling's plane disappeared near the Pacific Ocean. The Jinshui Village that they were in right now was a small village quite a distance away from there. Furthermore, as two years had passed since then, Jin Jin could not connect the girl in front of her to the girl who mysteriously disappeared a while ago.

“Apparently, her fiance also died,” Jin Jin commented.

“What did you say?”

“The one she played games with. Everyone calls him God Z. Back then, they participated in a reality show called <Dear, We Live Together...> They showed off many displays of affection in front of everyone.”

Chapter 1114: A Very Important Person is Waiting for Me

When Jin Jin finished speaking, she noticed Jian Yiling’s eyes looked different from earlier.

“What’s wrong?” Jin Jin asked. “Are you a fan of God Z? He’s indeed quite handsome and has a lot of fans. When I saw some of his pictures on the Internet, I was stunned as well. However, don’t be too sad about this news. After all, it’s just some speculation made up by people on the Internet. It’s not confirmed yet.”

“What do you mean... By speculation?” Jian Yiling asked. It became very difficult for her to articulate any words.

“Well, a lot of people said that his health isn’t great. Apparently, when he heard the news that something happened to his fiancée, he had to be sent to the hospital. From there onwards, he never appeared in the public eye again. According to some sources, he never goes outside these days. Therefore, some people began to speculate that he’s dead.”

It was just speculation... There was no definitive evidence...

And thus, this meant that there was still hope right?

However, Jian Yiling did not know how much of that hope remained.

She wanted to confirm this matter immediately. She had to know whether he was still alive.

“When will Dr. Zhang come?” Jian Yiling asked Jin Jin.

“Around three to four o’clock. She’ll come over once the health center is empty.”

The village health center was not strictly regulated. The only person who took care of everyone was Dr. Zhang.

Upon hearing this, Jian Yiling lowered her head to look at herself. She could not wait until then.

Her face and body were bloodstained. This made her face unrecognizable. Furthermore, there were countless scrapes and bruises scattered on her body.

As a doctor, she knew that it was better for her to stay in bed at this time.

However, she did not care about those things. She had to make this call immediately.

And thus, Jian Yiling attempted to get up from the bed.

As soon as she moved, a sharp pain came from her right leg.

At that moment, Jian Yiling knew that her right thigh bone was cracked.

It wasn't as serious as a fracture. This meant that although she suffered pain, she could still move around.

Jian Yiling began to put on her shoes.

"What are you doing?" Jin Jin asked as she attempted to stop Jian Yiling. "Dr. Zhang said that you're not meant to move around. Although your wounds aren't deep, you have many wounds all over your body. This means the risk of infection is high."

"It's okay," Jian Yiling replied. "I must make a phone call right now."

Jian Yiling attempted to push Jin Jin away and insisted on leaving the room.

"No, no," Jin Jin called out as she stopped Jian Yiling. "If you're in such a hurry, I will run over to the health center to get you a phone."

Jin Jin could not bear to see this wounded girl travel so far.

Although Jin Jin could not see Jian Yiling's appearance, from her skin that was protected by clothing, she could tell that this girl grew up in a well-off family.

Jian Yiling shook her head and replied: "I will go there myself. It will be quicker."

Jian Yiling did not want to cause further trouble for Jin Jin. In addition, she did not want to waste any more time.

She had to know how Zhai Yunsheng was doing.

"But the way out from my place has difficult terrain."

Jin Jin rented a large field far away from the other villagers.

This meant it was very far away from the village health center.

Furthermore, Jin Jin did not have any mobility vehicles.

"Someone very important is waiting for me."

As she said this, Jian Yiling finished putting on her shoes and was ready to walk out.

However, it was a struggle to walk with a limp.

With wounds all over her body and a crack in her right thigh bone, it hurt whenever she moved.

However, this pain was nothing compared to the pain her family members felt as they searched for her in the past two years.

When Jin Jin saw Jian Yiling's determination, she had no choice but to say: "Ahh, alright then.. I will accompany you there."

Chapter 1115: Phone Call

As Jin Jin walked with Jian Yiling, she attempted to comfort her: "Don't be too anxious. There's no hurdle that you can't get through in life. Just now, I lost my phone and lost a bunch of my possessions. However, I feel as though it's still better than the time my parents left me. Life is alright."

Then, Jin Jin continued to say: "There are pitfalls and holes everywhere in life. After you climb out of one, there will always be another one. Life is full of these things. However, you still need to get through them. Honestly speaking, I'm kind of jealous of you. You still have someone there that means a lot to you."

"Thank you," Jian Yiling said to Jin Jin. She was grateful for her words.

"Walk slowly. It will hurt," Jin Jin said. She couldn't help but frown.

"It doesn't hurt."

Upon hearing this response, Jin Jin could only shake her head.

Jin Jin's words were right. This was a difficult road to walk. As Jian Yiling was wounded and Jin Jin's clothes did not fit her well, every step she took was painful.

However, Jian Yiling did not stop for a single moment.

Instead, she walked faster and faster.

When Jin Jin walked this journey herself, she would typically take around thirty minutes. Today, they took thirty-five minutes.

In the village health center, Dr. Zhang had no patients at this time.

Dr. Zhang was a beautiful woman in her late twenties. She just graduated from medical school. And thus, she volunteered to be a doctor at Jinshui Village.

When Dr. Zhang saw Jian Yiling, her face was filled with surprise: "Why did you bring her here? She might have a bone fracture. She shouldn't be walking around."

"You didn't tell me about this earlier on."

"That's because I couldn't confirm it. I can't take X-rays here. However, I did instruct you to make sure she lies down. I planned to take her into town to get some X-rays."

Then, Dr. Zhang turned around and asked Jian Yiling: "Do your bones not hurt?"

Jian Yiling did not reply to Dr. Zhang's question. Instead, she anxiously asked to borrow her phone: "Could I borrow your mobile phone? I want to contact my family."

Dr. Zhang sighed before she took out her phone and gave it to Jian Yiling: "I know you must be worried about your family. However, you should take care of your own body. If something happens to you, the injury may plague you for your entire life."

After receiving the phone, Jian Yiling instantly dialed Li Zhuojia's number.

This was because she had a simple relationship with Li Zhuojia. Compared to other individuals, his reaction would be smaller.

When the phone connected, Li Zhuojia was stunned to hear Jian Yiling's voice.

After a while, he began to cry.

Jian Yiling had to wait for a while before Li Zhuojia finally calmed down. Then, she began to ask about Zhai Yunsheng's condition.

When he heard Jian Yiling mention Zhai Yunsheng, Li Zhuojia went silent.

"What's... Wrong with him?" Jian Yiling asked. Her voice was trembling uncontrollably.

"Dean, don't worry. Mr. Zhai is still alive. It's just that his condition isn't that great..."

Jian Yiling's grip on the phone tightened as she asked: "Can you come over immediately?"

"Of course! Of course, I can come over immediately! Send me your current address!"

"Is Brother Yunmo on the island?"

"Yep, he's here. I will tell him about this! He will definitely be overjoyed! During these two years, he's changed quite a bit. He..."

Li Zhuojia walked over to Jian Yunmo's laboratory as he spoke to Jian Yiling about her brother.

After Jian Yiling's disappearance, Jian Yunmo never left Lahaisen Island.

After all, his sister went missing on the way here. He firmly believed that she would find her way back here.

And thus, Jian Yunmo shut himself in the laboratory.. During some days, he would forget to eat and refuse to sleep.

Chapter 1116: His Sister is Alive!

When Li Zhuojia entered the laboratory, a man with messy and unkempt hair, an unshaven face, and deep sunken eyes was hunched over a desk.

This person did not have any semblance to the gentle and sunny man of the past. If the white lab coat was stripped from him, he would look like a street beggar.

"Yunmo! I have good news! I have good news!"

"I told you not to disturb me whilst I'm doing experiments!"

In the past two years, Jian Yunmo had become quite cranky. He did not allow people to touch his possessions nor disturb him whilst he was doing experiments.

This was his sister's unfinished work.

Even if his sister was no longer here, he wanted to finish it.

“Yunmo, your sister! My Dean! She’s still alive!” Li Zhuojia cried out in an excited voice.

Upon hearing this, Jian Yunmo stared at Li Zhuojia in a daze. He was unable to react.

“What did you say? Who is still alive?”

“Our Dean! Yiling! Your sister!” Li Zhuojia repeated.

Jian Yunmo was stunned for a moment before he lunged forward and grabbed Li Zhuojia’s shoulder:

“Where is she?”

“Phone! Phone call!” Li Zhuojia pointed at his hand.

Jian Yunmo looked at the phone. For some reason, he was too scared to pick the phone up.

He was afraid that this was just a dream. He was afraid that the voice inside the call was not Yiling. He was afraid that Li Zhuojia was mistaken.

“Aiya!” Li Zhuojia cried out as he placed the phone next to Jian Yunmo’s ear.

“Brother Yunmo.”

A soft and sweet voice that Jian Yunmo was familiar with could be heard through the phone.

“Yiling...”

This was Yiling’s voice! It was his sister’s voice!

His sister was alive!

Jian Yunmo was stunned.

When he listened to the voice, Jian Yunmo felt as though he was dreaming. It was so unreal.

“Yiling... Yiling...”

Jian Yunmo failed to articulate any other words. He could only repeatedly say Jian Yiling’s name.

“I’m here... I’m here...” Jian Yiling answered.

When he received this response, tears began to flow out of Jian Yunmo’s eyes.

He began to smile as he cried.

As he held the phone, his entire body began to tremble.

For countless nights, he dreamt of his sister coming back. He dreamt of her returning to his side. However, when he woke up, he got disappointed every single time.

During these two years, he felt that hope was slowly slipping away from him. The only things that he could do were to protect the hospital they built together and to complete the experiments that they hadn’t finished.

His sister... She was alive...

“Brother Yunmo, I’m alright. I need you guys to come over right away.”

“Okay! I will be right there! Wait for me. Don’t hang up. Just stay on the phone with me.”

Jian Yunmo wanted to keep listening to Jian Yiling’s voice. By doing so, he could truly feel that she was still alive.

“I borrowed this phone.”

“It’s okay. I will charge money for this phone. Put me on speaker. I will speak to the phone owner.”

Jian Yunmo wiped the tear marks off his face. As he spoke, he pulled Li Zhuojia outside.

They had to take off immediately to get to Jian Yiling.

Jian Yiling pressed the speaker button on the phone.

Jian Yunmo: “Hello, I’m very thankful that you lent your phone to my sister. When we arrive, we will definitely give you a generous reward. Please take care of my sister. Send me your online bank account and I will send you a sum of money.. If you’re okay with it, you can treat it as though I’ve purchased this phone.”

Chapter 1117: Brother Yunmo, Where is A Sheng?

Dr. Zhang did not expect the other person to have such demands. It seemed as though the girl came from quite a wealthy family. However, she was not ready to take advantage of the situation. And thus, she replied: “There’s no need for a generous reward. You don’t need to buy the phone from me either. I can lend the phone to your sister. Just charge some money and consider it to be phone expenses.”

“No problem.”

A moment later, a successful recharge notification popped up on the phone Jian Yiling was using.

[Phone recharge notification] Dear customer, you’ve successfully recharged ninety-nine thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine dollars...

As the phone was placed in between everyone, as soon as the notification appeared, all three of them could see it.

Charging one hundred thousand dollars just like that? How much money did this person have?

Dr. Zhang and Jin Jin turned to look at Jian Yiling.

Did they rescue some young lady from a wealthy family?

A super-wealthy one from the looks of it.

Dr. Zhang said to Jian Yunmo: “Sir, you shouldn’t be prioritizing that. Your sister rolled down from a mountain. She ended up rolling through a thorn bush. As a result, she has injuries all over her body. Please tell her not to run around again. Otherwise, some big problems may arise.”

“How is she? Is she badly injured?” Jian Yunmo asked anxiously as he instructed Li Zhuojia to apply for an air route.

Generally, it would take some time for air routes to be approved. However, as Lahaisen Hospital has special connections, they could apply for air routes quickly if they had an emergency.

Li Zhuojia and Jian Yunmo had to get there as soon as possible to ensure Jian Yiling’s safety.

Jian Yunmo hated the fact that he did not have a pair of wings. If he did, he would have flown over there immediately.

Dr. Zhang replied: “Most of the injuries appear to be on the surface level. I can’t confirm whether or not she’s suffered any fractures. I would have to take X-rays for that. However, since she could walk over here, there shouldn’t be any fractures.”

If she suffered a bone fracture, she would not be able to walk. Each step would be incredibly painful.

“I’m alright,” Jian Yiling said to Jian Yunmo.

However, under such circumstances, Jian Yunmo trusted Dr. Zhang’s word more. In order to prevent him from worrying, he knew that his sister would not tell him the truth.

“Thank you so much, doctor. If it’s possible, could you bring my sister to the hospital for a checkup? A full body checkup would be best. I will transfer all the costs to your account,” Jian Yunmo pleaded.

Jin Jin and Dr. Zhang understood Jian Yiling’s brother’s intentions. It seemed as though he was worried that they would not look after his little sister.

“Sir, you don’t need to be so polite. We didn’t really help with anything. If you feel bad about it, you can just cover her medical expenses.” Dr. Zhang said.

“Thank you so much,” Jian Yunmo responded.

Jian Yiling also thanked Dr. Zhang and Jin Jin: “Thank you.”

“It’s nothing much. Your brother is paying for the call expenses. I’m just lending my phone to you. Furthermore, I have no one to call at this hour. However, I will take you to the nearest hospital in a bit.”

Then, Dr. Zhang took out a pair of earphones and handed it to Jian Yiling: “There’s probably a lot you want to say to your brother. Put it on and I will take you to the hospital.”

“Thank you.”

After Jian Yiling plugged the earphones in, she asked: “Brother Yunmo, where is A Sheng?”

Upon hearing this question, Jian Yunmo went quiet for a moment. Then he said: “Don’t worry about him. He’s still alive. Just... Don’t call him for the time being.”

“Why?”

Because of this request, Jian Yiling began to worry more. A bad feeling began to arise in her heart..

Chapter 1118: As Long as You’re Here, Everything will be Fine

Jian Yunmo did not directly answer Jian Yiling's question. Instead, he replied: "Yiling, I will inform our mother and father. They all miss you."

"What's wrong with A Sheng?" Jian Yiling asked. She insisted on knowing how Zhai Yunsheng was doing. Regardless of his condition, she had to know.

As Jian Yunmo could not avoid the question, he decided to tell Jian Yiling the truth.

After Jian Yiling disappeared, Zhai Yunsheng continuously fell ill. He essentially never left the intensive care unit.

After a while, his condition somewhat became better. However, he did not eat any food.

For these two years, he laid inside the ward that the Zhai family prepared for him. His entire body became skin and bones. It was as though he only had one breath remaining.

And thus, the doctors told all of them, even if they found Jian Yiling, it was important to not tell Zhai Yunsheng. His physical condition would not be able to handle such fluctuations in emotions.

Currently, the Zhai family cut off all of Zhai Yunsheng's connections. They were worried about him hearing bad news and reacting poorly.

After Jian Yunmo finished speaking, Jian Yiling did not say a single word.

Jian Yunmo knew that his sister was definitely very upset.

"Yiling, no matter what happened in these two years, as long as you're back, as long as you're alive, it's our greatest blessing. When we pick you up tomorrow, we will bring you to Beijing. Then, we can solve this problem together. Everything will be alright, as long as you're there."

As long as she was there, hope would exist.

Jian Yiling's expression was sad as she thought about Zhai Yunsheng.

However, worrying could not help her. She had to wait for her brother to pick her up. This was the fastest way to get back to Beijing.

As Dr. Zhang finished her duties for the day, she locked up the village medical center and took Jian Yiling to the hospital.

Dr. Zhang had a seventy thousand dollar car. She let Jian Yiling take the back seat.

Jian Yiling wore a pair of earphones and kept in touch with Jian Yunmo.

On the other hand, Jin Jin took the passenger seat. The three of them headed to town together:

On the way there, Zhang Yun and Jin Jin chatted quietly:

Zhang Yun said to Jin Jin: "Jin Jin, I will take her to get an X-ray. You should get a new phone."

Jin Jin told Zhang Yun what had happened earlier.

Zhang Yun advised Jin Jin to contact the police. However, as Jin Jin still cared about her brother, she decided to let go of this matter this time around.

“Okay, I will come back after I buy a phone,” Jin Jin said. She was just going to buy any phone in the eight to nine hundred price range.

Zhang Yun turned on the car stereo.

She played her favorite piece by a young pianist.

Although the song was beautiful and heartfelt, it somehow felt sad.

“You really like this pianist,” Jin Jin commented. Every single time she rode in Zhang Yun’s car, she would always hear music from this pianist.

“His music is very nice. All the songs that he has composed are quite sad,” Zhang Yun replied. “When I was about to graduate, his songs felt particularly emotional.”

“Particularly emotional? Do you mean super sad? Somehow, each piece is sadder than the last one. Was he suffering a breakup when he was composing these pieces?”

“I don’t know. He did mention that he lost a very important person to him. However, he never specified who that person was,” Zhang Yun said. “Honestly, that doesn’t matter. I just like his music. It’s very unique.”

“I will definitely gift you one of his CDs on your next birthday then.”

Chapter 1119: Shameless Jin Feng (1)

“Then on your next birthday, I will give you one of his CDs.”

“Don’t forget about that then.”

“Don’t worry, I won’t forget.”

After arriving at the hospital, Zhang Yun took Jian Yiling to get an X-ray.

When she knew the results, Zhang Yun did not know what to say to Jian Yiling.

“Your bones were cracked. Why were you still running around? Do you not know how painful that is?”

“Sorry.”

“Why are you saying sorry to me? You’re the one suffering from pain,” Zhang Yun replied. “Ahh, forget it. You probably didn’t want your family to worry about you. That’s why you were desperate to make a phone call. However, now that you made the phone call, don’t run around again. You need to get some rest. If you don’t get rest, your injuries will become worse. Then, your condition can become very problematic.”

Zhang Yun was impressed by this girl’s pain tolerance. She managed to walk all the way to the village health center with such an injury.

This was the first time she saw someone not express their pain with such an injury.

“Don’t tell my brother about this.”

After Jian Yunmo boarded the plane, he had to hang up the call. And thus, Jian Yunmo did not know about Jian Yiling’s health examination results.

“I can’t promise that. I’m not very good at lying. If your brother asks me about this, I don’t know if I’ll be able to lie to him.”

Jin Jin came back after she bought a new phone. When she learned about Jian Yiling’s condition, she was shocked.

“She probably came from a good family. Her brother charged a hundred thousand dollars into your phone. I expected her to be a pampered little princess. Instead, she silently tolerated such pains,” Jin Jin commented.

“Well, people who come from a good family can also survive through hardships. We shouldn’t assume otherwise,” Zhang Yun replied. “Go buy her some yummy food. We can ask her brother for the money later. However, we shouldn’t take any extra money from him. Just take what we ended up spending.”

“Understood.”

Jin Jin and Zhang Yun’s conversation was overheard by a man hiding behind a wall.

The man gave off a dodgy vibe with his hair gelled up with hairspray, pierced ears, and studded leather jacket.

When he heard Jin Jin and Zhang Yun’s conversation, a smile appeared on his lips.

Jin Feng had trailed Jin Jin to the hospital.

Originally, he wanted to see what his sister was doing at the hospital. However, he ended up listening to their conversation.

Charging a hundred thousand dollars?

That person was so rich.

Currently, Jin Feng urgently needed money.

It seemed as though the Gods were standing beside him. Just when he was short of money, the Gods sent him a mountain of wealth.

Jin Feng walked out and said: “Why not? You guys saved her life. Therefore, it’s totally reasonable to ask for money.”

Jin Jin and Zhang Yun looked at Jin Feng in disgust.

“What has this got to do with you? Don’t even think about getting money from her!” Jin Jin warned her brother.

“What do you mean by that? We saved her. Why isn’t it okay to ask her brother for money?”

“Jin Feng, she was saved by me and Dr. Zhang. What has this got to do with you?”

“Jin Jin, is there a problem with your brain or are you just stupid? Are you going to just give up money like that? Her brother charged a hundred thousand dollars! Do you think he’s short on money or something? And you know who is short of money right now? Me! Your brother! People plan to cut my hands and feet off if I don’t repay the loan!”

“Well, serve you right! Why should someone else help you?”

“Because her family is rich! A few hundred thousand dollars means nothing to them! However, that money can save my life! I don’t plan to do anything bad to her. And if you don’t want to say such a thing to her brother, hand her over to me.. When her brother comes to pick her up, I will ask her brother for the money.”

Chapter 1120: Shameless Jin Feng (2)

“Don’t even think about it!” Jin Jin refused resolutely. “I’m telling you right now to stay away from her! Dr. Zhang and I saved her lives! This has absolutely nothing to do with you.”

“Okay, okay. If you don’t listen to my words, don’t blame me for doing anything!”

Jin Feng pushed Jin Jin and Zhang Yun away from the door and rushed into the ward.

The door was violently opened.

The strength of both Jin Jin and Zhang Yun combined was no match for Jin Feng.

Although Jin Feng was an asshole, he was also very strong.

Ever since he was young, he fought people. As a result, he was much stronger than an average man.

Inside the ward, Jian Yiling already heard the commotion at the door.

When Jin Feng got through the door, he rushed up to Jian Yiling’s bed.

When she discovered her brother’s intentions, Jin Jin desperately tried to pull Jin Feng back.

“Stop it! You’re going crazy for money! Are you planning to kidnap her or something?!”

“Get lost! Women are absolutely useless! Instead of helping me with things, you’re always holding me back!”

Then, Jin Feng attempted to send Jin Jin flying.

However, Jin Jin refused to let go. It didn’t matter who was lying on the bed. This was a matter of principle.

Jin Feng raised his foot and kicked his sister: “Let go right now! You better let go or I will kill you!”

As she did not let go, Jin Jin was kicked to the ground.

Upon seeing this, Zhang Yun tried to stop Jin Feng as well.

However, Jin Feng couldn't care less about the people trying to stop him. He only cared for the ugly girl seated on the hospital bed who could bring him great profit.

As Jin Feng kicked Jin Jin and Zhang Yun, a syringe needle suddenly poked his wrist.

"Ahh!"

Jin Feng screamed miserably. He quickly realized that the ugly girl did this.

Jian Yiling took a pen from her pocket and removed the cap. After she turned the end of the pen, a long needle appeared. Then, she used the needle to stab Jin Feng's hand again.

"You b*tch! How dare you stab me! Now that you hurt me, you will have to pay for my medical expenses!"

However, Jin Feng did not touch Jian Yiling. After all, he had to wait for Jian Yiling's family to arrive.

"Ahh! Were you raised by a dog?!" Jin Feng cursed. "Do you really think I won't do anything to you?"

Jin Feng swore as he suddenly realized that the place he had been stabbed in had gone numb.

The numbness spread from his arm to his body.

Soon after, it felt as though there was no energy remaining in his body.

Jian Yiling coldly glared at Jin Feng. As her face was wounded, no one could tell what she looked like. However, her fierce eyes were completely different from her soft and delicate voice.

Then, Jian Yiling calmly put away her pen.

Jin Jin and Zhang Yun looked at Jian Yiling in shock.

"Will his... Life be in danger?" Jin Jin asked Jian Yiling.

She wasn't worried about her brother. However, she did not want to get into trouble.

"He will be alright. It's anesthesia. He will wake up after a while," Jian Yiling explained.

"That's good," Jin Jin replied.

"Why do you have something like that?" Zhang Yun asked out of curiosity.

"For self-defense."

Upon hearing this answer, Zhang Yun nodded: "That's good. It's important to protect yourself."

Jin Jin looked at the man who had fallen to the ground and asked: "What now?"

"Ignore him. For the time being, let's leave the hospital."

Setting a cast would not help Jian Yiling's injury. Hospitalization would not help her. Rather, she just needed rest.

"Okay, let's leave immediately."

Jin Jin and Zhang Yun got a wheelchair to push Jian Yiling out of the hospital.

When Jin Feng woke up, he realized that the three of them had completely disappeared.

Jin Feng cursed in the empty room: "These three b*tches!"
