Chapter 1211: Team Building Event (6)

“Yi... Yiling...” Jian Yunnao said in an embarrassed voice.

Jian Yiling was currently styling his hair.

After blow drying his hair, Jian Yiling attempted to style it as well.

As Jian Yunnao had gotten soaked from head to toe and there was no hairdresser nearby, Jian Yiling decided to help him herself.

“Does it look bad?”

“No no, it looks good,” Jian Yunnao hurriedly replied.

He could feel his sister’s soft hands on his scalp.

Even though the air from the blow drier was warm, a spot in his chest felt even warmer.

When Jian Yiling finished drying Jian Yunnao’s hair, he felt a little upset. After all, time had passed a little too quickly.

If he had known that this was going to happen, he would have grown his hair out a bit more. Then, his sister would spend longer blow drying his hair.

As it was getting later into the night, everyone laid down to look at the starry sky.

The sky in the countryside was extraordinarily clear and starry.

The breeze from the lake on a summer night was slightly cool.

Jian Yiling, Luo Xiuen, Jian Yunmo, and Jian Yunnao looked at the starry sky from inside the tent.

After a while, Jian Yunnao tilted his head to look at Jian Yiling.

When they were younger, they would also look at the starry sky when they went camping.

Brother Yunmo and Yiling were both here.

How nice.

Jian Yunnao unknowingly fell asleep.

In his dreams, he dreamt about the past. Back then, he was playing around with Yiling and accidentally broke one of his mother’s vases.

Then, Brother Yuncheng would pretend to be angry whilst Brother Yunmo would try to help them cover up.

His father would pretend to spank Yiling.

As he did this, he would say: “A Nuan, I’ve already spanked Yiling. Look at her. She’s crying in pain.”

His sister would be incredibly cooperative and pretend to cry.

Whilst everyone did this, he would hide behind Brother Yunmo and do nothing.

He hadn't had such a beautiful dream in many years.

Especially during the two years when his sister disappeared.

During those two years, he would be haunted by nightmares every single night. His sister would haunt his dreams and question why he didn't believe in her.

Sometimes, he would dream about his sister standing alone in the snow. No one else was there and there was no expression on her face. No joy, no anger, no sadness. It was an absolutely heartbreaking dream.

However, luckily, none of these dreams were real.

Their family was still together.

###

After Bai Pingping was taken away by the police, both Li Zhuojia and Jian Yunmo felt that things were not resolved yet.

After all, Bai Pingping was only a trainee nurse at Lahaisen Hospital. She did not have access to the laboratory where the chemical substance was held. Similarly, she didn't have the conditions to take the medicine away either.

Therefore, when Bai Pingping was being interrogated, Superintendent Ruan deliberately asked questions related to this.

However, Bai Pingping declared that the chemical substance was stolen by her. No one else had helped her.

And thus, matters temporarily came to an end. Bai Pingping was left in criminal detention for the time being.

After the team building event ended, on the second Tuesday was the assessment.

Everyone who was eligible to participate in the assessment put in the extra effort.

When the assessment started, people quickly realized that Jian Yiling who they initially assumed was going to take the test with them was not taking the test. Instead, she invigilated their assessments.

Although this was surprising, most people could accept this.

After all, Jian Yiling was an incredible surgeon. She was way better than them.

However, Fei Qing felt that this arrangement was a little upsetting.

If Jian Yiling didn't undergo the assessment, even if she performed well, in the eyes of everyone else, she would still be inferior to Jian Yiling.

Therefore, she had already lost this competition before she even took the assessment.

Chapter 1212: Recognize Her Abilities

However, at the same time, this was good news. Without Jian Yiling being her competitor, Fei Qing believed that she was absolutely superior to her other colleagues in terms of professional knowledge and medical expertise.

On the next day, the results of the assessment came out. However, Lahaisen Hospital did not release the marks of each individual. Instead, they merely stated whether the individual got promoted or not. To everyone's surprise, the deputy chief physician became the chief physician of the surgical department.

This meant that Fei Qing did not pass the assessment.

Furthermore, even the vacant position of deputy chief physician did not fall into her hands.

When Fei Qing heard about this, she was unwilling to accept such a decision.

Why?

This was not a question of whether she was competent or not.

Her surgical abilities and medical expertise were far better than any employee of Lahaisen Hospital's Beijing branch.

After thinking about it, Fei Qing became determined to beat Jian Yiling. She had to beat Jian Yiling to change the situation she was in.

And Fei Qing knew that in order to beat Jian Yiling, she couldn't just look at what was happening in front of her.

After all, as long as she remained in Lahaisen Hospital's Beijing branch, Jian Yiling had an absolute advantage.

Therefore, Fei Qing had to find a way to reach out to the individuals who worked at Lahaisen Hospital's headquarters. She had to contact their Dean to gain a more favorable position.

However, their Dean's identity had always been a mystery to everyone.

And only members who belonged to their headquarters knew the identity of their Dean.

Furthermore, it was impossible for the outside world to figure out who the Dean was. If it was possible, everyone else would have discovered and contacted him or her already.

Therefore, Fei Qing only had one way to contact their Dean. She had to utilize her identity as an official employee of Lahaisen Hospital to send an email to the Dean.

Every official employee of Lahaisen Hospital would get an email address on the day they were inducted. This email could only be used to send emails amongst the employees of Lahaisen Hospital.

Naturally, the Dean also had an email address allocated to him or her. However, very few people would send emails to him or her. So far, there was nothing that required them to contact him or her.

After all, if nothing major was happening, people wouldn't go and harass their boss.

However, Fei Qing decided to send him or her an email.

Of course, she wasn't going to send an ordinary greetings email. Instead, she planned to send an email that would make their Dean notice her. This meant that she was going to send through her medical research, medical papers, and all kinds of other things which would show off her abilities.

She wanted to prove that the last surgery wasn't representative of her true abilities. She had the potential to be better than Jian Yiling.

After making up her mind, Fei Qing began to work hard. She focused on writing out her reports.

She would show off her abilities to their Dean. She would show off that she could do more than just surgeries.

The next day, Jian Yiling's work email received an email carrying a large number of attachments.

After reading through the contents of these attachments, Jian Yiling sent out a reply.

She had to admit that Fei Qing was quite talented. Even though she was not comparable to those working at Lahaisen Hospital's headquarters, she was definitely one of the best in Lahaisen Hospital's Beijing branch.

The attachments and documents she sent to Jian Yiling were very telling of this.

After Fei Qing sent the email to their Dean, she anxiously waited for a reply.

She believed that the person who founded such a great hospital was definitely a capable person. That person could definitely recognize talent quickly.

Fei Qing opened her mailbox no less than twenty times in the morning.

Finally, at lunchtime, she received a reply.

The reply from their Dean was not perfunctory at all.

The Dean of Lahaisen Hospital carefully analyzed and evaluated the documents she sent.

He or she complimented her on the good work she had done.

At the same time, he or she offered suggestions on things that needed improvements.

Surprisingly, Fei Qing agreed with every single one of the comments.

Chapter 1213: Uncle, Let's Make a Deal

No wonder this person was the Dean of Lahaisen Hospital. His or her ability and attitude towards their subordinates made Fei Qing respect them a lot.

After reading the email, Fei Qing felt incredibly inspired. She hurriedly finished eating her lunch and then rushed back to her office to draft up a reply.

She had to make good use of this opportunity. She had to make their Dean recognize her abilities and talent.

###

Zhai Yunsheng's physical condition was recovering rapidly. Perhaps, this was due to his genetics. Or perhaps, it was Grandpa Sun's martial arts that was incredibly effective at strengthening one's body.

Either way, Zhai Yunsheng was now full of vim and vigor.

When the Second Master of the Zhai family saw his nephew who had fully recovered, a tear appeared in his usually cold and frightening eyes.

"Uncle, these two years must have been difficult for you."

Zhai Yunsheng knew that during the two years he was ill, his uncle had to look after everything the Zhai family-owned.

For his sake, his uncle had many restless nights.

"What are you even saying? As long as you're well, everything is worth it. There's nothing more important than having your family alive," the Second Master of the Zhai family replied. "Furthermore, in these two years, I moved most of the Zhai family business to behind the scenes."

This was why the outside world had been saying that the Zhai family had significantly weakened.

The Second Master of the Zhai family deliberately wanted to have this effect.

After all, he didn't want the Zhai family to make too many enemies. If they made enemies with other people, the members of his family would encounter unnecessary dangers.

The Second Master of the Zhai family was not scared of anything in the corporate world. He was only scared of something happening to his father and nephew.

"Mhmm, I believe in your arrangements."

"But since you're back, I will hand our family business back to you. You can decide what direction you want to lead the family in. You don't have to follow in my footsteps," the Second Master of the Zhai family said to Zhai Yunsheng. He fully trusted in his nephew's decisions.

After all, the Second Master of the Zhai family had the Tianxing Group to look after. Therefore, he was willing to hand over the Zhai family business to Zhai Yunsheng.

In fact, the Second Master of the Zhai family even had intentions of handing the Tianxing Group to Zhai Yunsheng.

In his heart, everything in the Zhai family belonged to Zhai Yunsheng.

"Uncle, we now know the true murderer who caused my father's death. You weren't involved in it. It was Mu Ruohai who schemed all of this. He deliberately schemed it in a way to divert everyone's attention. You don't need to feel guilty anymore. Perhaps, you should also start considering getting married."

“Why are you dragging me into this as well? Take care of your own matters first. Now that you’re better, you should start planning your marriage with Yiling.”

“Uncle, let’s make a deal.”

“You want to make a deal with me?” the Second Master of the Zhai family said as he looked at his nephew with great interest.

Even though Zhai Yunsheng was intelligent, in front of him, he was still essentially a child.

“Mhmm, when you find yourself a date, Yiling and I will have a baby.”

“How can you make such a request...”

“It’s a very fair request. We should both extend the bloodline of the Zhai family.”

Therefore, from some degree of thinking, this was very fair.

“But you and Yiling are genuinely in love. It’s only natural for the two of you to get married and have children. Why are you dragging me into this?”

“Well, if your nephew is getting married, isn’t it reasonable for you, as my uncle, to get married soon as well?” Zhai Yunsheng replied.

The Second Master of the Zhai family did not know how to respond to his nephew.

If it was anyone else, he would have been mad already. In fact, he would have probably kicked the person out of the room.

As the two of them were speaking, an assistant knocked at the room: “Miss Yiling is here.”

Chapter 1214: Blind Date (1)

“Quickly bring her in,” the Second Master of the Zhai family hurriedly said.

After a few moments, Jian Yiling was led into the room by his assistant.

“Yiling, why did you come over today? If there’s something you need help with, you can just call me. You didn’t need to make a trip all the way over here,” the Second Master of the Zhai family said.

When the Second Master of the Zhai family spoke to Jian Yiling, his voice was softer than usual.

This was because his niece-in-law appeared super soft and delicate. He didn’t want his tone to be too cold or hard.

“I’m here to convince you to find me an aunt-in-law,” Jian Yiling replied.

It appeared as though the two of them had discussed this before leaving the house this morning. They wanted to ensure that their uncle would listen to their words.

When it came to Zhai Yunsheng, the Second Master of the Zhai family somewhat knew how to deal with him. However, when it came to his niece-in-law, he had no idea how to say no.

“Okay okay, I promise. I will go on a blind date after work today,” the Second Master of the Zhai family compromised.

Even though he had no interest in getting married, he decided to listen to his nephew and niece-in-law’s words. After all, the two of them were very important people to him.

If they wanted him to go on a blind date, he would just go on a blind date.

It wasn’t a particularly laborious matter anyways.

“Okay, I will try to have a baby with A Sheng as soon as possible,” Jian Yiling replied.

As these words were coming from Jian Yiling’s mouth, they were as serious and earnest as always.

“Okay. I will see someone tomorrow to figure out an auspicious date and time for the two of you to get married,” the Second Master of the Zhai family replied.

Even though he was going on a blind date, he had to make sure that the wedding of these two youngsters would not be delayed.

As expected, it was difficult to bargain with the Second Master of the Zhai family.

Eventually, Jian Yiling and Zhai Yunsheng decided to leave. On the way home, as Jian Yiling was seated in the passenger seat, she kept looking down at her stomach. Every so often, she would pat it.

“What are you thinking about?” Zhai Yunsheng asked. What was going on in his little rabbit’s brain?

“I’m thinking about when we can have baby,” Jian Yiling said in a soft voice.

Upon hearing this reply, Zhai Yunsheng laughed lowly and said: “Well, I haven’t even sowed seeds yet. How can you have a baby?”

“Then when are you going to sow seeds?” Jian Yiling asked as she looked at Zhai Yunsheng expectantly.

Zhai Yunsheng did not know how to feel when he heard these words.

It was so hard to hold himself back and yet, she didn’t appreciate his efforts.

Zhai Yunsheng put his hand on Jian Yiling’s stomach and stroked it gently: “Giving birth to a baby will hurt a lot. I don’t want you to bear pain so soon.”

“Well, it’s going to happen sooner or later.”

“You’re only saying that right now. Suffering isn’t great,” Zhai Yunsheng laughed.

After Jian Yiling and Zhai Yunsheng left, the Second Master of the Zhai family had no choice but to fulfill his side of the bargain. He called his father and told him that he was willing to go on a blind date.

Upon hearing this, Master Zhai was delighted.

A lot of good things had been happening recently.

Yiling was indeed their lucky star. As long as she was here, good things would happen to the Zhai family one after another.

Master Zhai quickly brought up a list of people his son could have a blind date with. He had prepared this list ages ago. Master Zhai requested his son to have dinner with them one by one.

He also reminded his son to treat them nicely.

The next day, the Second Master of the Zhai family arrived at the designated restaurant.

After he arrived, the Second Master of the Zhai family realized that he somewhat knew his blind date.

Even though they had never met before, he had read the profile of this person. He knew that this person was friends with his niece-in-law.

Chapter 1215: Blind Date (2)

It was the current CEO of the Long Heng Group, Long Yuetian. She had a good relationship with Jian Yiling and she helped her several times in the past.

Whilst the Second Master of the Zhai family knew who was sitting across from him, Long Yuetian was unaware of anything. She didn't know this man was Jian Yiling's fiance's uncle, the legendary Cold-Blooded God of War.

This nickname was given to him by his opponents.

This was because he was very capable of fighting. His build was tall and sturdy.

However, another key reason for this nickname was that he hadn't tasted a single defeat in the corporate world yet.

As soon as Long Yuetian saw the Second Master of the Zhai family, she immediately said: "Hello, I want to tell you directly that I'm not here today because I want to be here. Instead, it's because my father insists on this. I can't say no."

Upon hearing this, the Second Master of the Zhai family looked at Long Yuetian with great interest.

As she was Jian Yiling's friend, the Second Master of the Zhai family showed extraordinary patience with her.

"And I believe that you're in the same situation as me. After all, we're still single at this age. This means that we don't want to get married. Therefore, there's no point beating around the bush. I'm here to tell you straight away that I don't want to get married. I don't want my freedom restricted. And I definitely don't want stay home and look after children. Therefore, we're not suitable for one another. Please go home and tell your family that I have a problem or two. I don't care about what you say."

Long Yuetian already assumed that this blind date would fail. Therefore, she didn't even know the name of the man in front of her.

She just knew that he was around her age. Furthermore, he hadn't gotten married to anyone either.

Long Yuetian's father was likely to be regretting raising his daughter in such a way. As she insisted on being a career-oriented woman, this was partially the reason why she refused to get married even though she was in her thirties.

The Second Master of the Zhai family did not expect this blind date to be a success either.

However, this woman in front of him gave him a very different impression from the other people he had blind dates with. This caused him to show a bit of interest.

The Second Master of the Zhai family smiled before he asked Long Yuetian a question: "How did you meet Yiling?"

Long Yuetian who was just about to get up suddenly halted her movements: "You know Yiling?"

"Mhmm, I know her. I'm somewhat her uncle."

As Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling hadn't gotten married yet, he could only somewhat be considered her uncle.

However, after they got married, he would officially become her uncle.

"Oh, you're my big cutie's uncle?!" Long Yuetian said with surprise. Then, she took a good look at the man in front of her.

From the time she entered the door, she hadn't properly looked at her blind date.

However, she quickly realized her blind date today did not look as old as his age.

Even though he was sitting there, he had a powerful aura.

There was sharpness hidden between his eyebrows and his gaze was keen and sharp.

Furthermore, there was a calm yet murderous aura surrounding him.

This was Long Yuetian's first impression of him.

"Big cutie?" the Second Master of the Zhai family said with surprise. He was a little curious about this name.

"Yeah, she's my big cutie. She also saved my life," Long Yuetian explained. "Don't you find her cute?"

"She's indeed cute," the Second Master of the Zhai family replied. "Could you tell me about that story?"

The Second Master of the Zhai family was rather interested in his niece-in-law's past.

Long Yuetian had no intentions of hiding the story. She happily told what happened to the Second Master of the Zhai family.

Unknowingly, the two of them talked for more than an hour.

They only spent roughly the first ten minutes talking about Jian Yiling. Afterward, they chatted about business matters.

Chapter 1216: Getting Ready for a Baby

Since Long Yuetian began managing the company, she was never truly awed by someone. However, after speaking to this man today, she realized that his thoughts were incredibly insightful and discerning. During their conversation, she gained a rather decent impression of him.

She could not help but feel admiration towards him.

Because of this admiration and because they both knew Jian Yiling, Long Yuetian took the initiative to ask for the other person's contact information.

"By the way, what's your name?" Long Yuetian asked. She realized she hadn't asked for the other person's name despite talking to them for a while.

"Zhongshen."

The Second Master of the Zhai family replied as he dipped his finger in water and traced out the characters on the table.

"Okay, I remember your name," Long Yuetian replied.

###

The day after the blind date, the Second Master of the Zhai family sent a photo of him being on the date to Zhai Yunsheng.

From the angle that the photo was taken, it was evident that the Second Master of the Zhai family had arranged for someone to take the photo for him.

It seemed like he was handing in homework to his nephew and niece-in-law.

In other words, he was saying that he fulfilled his end of the deal. And thus, he wanted the two of them to work on their side of the deal as well.

After meeting up with the Second Master of the Zhai family and hearing about the deal, Jian Yiling began paying special attention to Zhai Yunsheng's health.

Today, Jian Yiling brought Zhai Yunsheng into Lahaisen Hospital's Beijing branch to perform further medical examinations on him.

Normally, she would record Zhai Yunsheng's vitals every morning and every evening.

And even if she wasn't at home, she would get Zhai Yunsheng to use the instruments himself and send the recorded data to her.

However, there were things that needed further investigation. This meant Zhai Yunsheng had to go to a hospital.

Thankfully, Lahaisen Hospital's Beijing branch had the necessary equipment for these medical examinations. There was no need for Zhai Yunsheng to go all the way to Lahaisen Island.

This time, Zhai Yunsheng was very cooperative. Even though there was no way to fix the root of his heart problem, there was a way to control it perfectly.

This meant that as long as he took his medication, he was unlikely to run into a problem.

As they walked through the hospital corridor, a lot of nurses and doctors stared at Zhai Yunsheng.

This super handsome man attracted the attention of everyone.

Everyone quickly began to gossip: “Who is that man?”

“Oh? You don’t know about him? He’s Dr. Jian’s fiancée. Master Sheng from the Zhai family. The Zhai family is one of the richest and most powerful families in Beijing. In fact, in the past, the Zhai family could face the Qin family head to head. In the last two years, however, the Zhai family grew a little weaker. Despite this, they’re still incredibly powerful!”

“I know about this! I saw them participate in a reality show a while back! They were super cute together!”

“Wow, he’s super rich and handsome! A perfect match for our prodigy Dr. Jian.”

“That’s true! Dr. Jian is not only talented but she’s also pretty. Furthermore, she’s heaps nice as well.”

“Wait what? Dr. Jian treats everyone coldly. How do you know she’s super nice?”

“Well, even if she has a cold face, she definitely has a warm heart. If you ask her a question, she will patiently answer it for you!”

“I agree, I agree! Even though she doesn’t speak much, what she does on a day-to-day basis is incredible!”

Even though Jian Yiling only spent a few days at Lahaisen Hospital’s Beijing branch, the doctors and nurses all had incredibly good opinions about her.

When Fei Qing heard these comments, she snickered to herself.

Jian Yiling indeed knew how to get people on her side.

However, Jian Yiling herself did not care about these comments. She only cared about one thing. And that thing was Zhai Yunsheng’s health condition.

Chapter 1217: Fattening Up the Rabbit to Gobble Her Up (1)

Jian Yiling drew three tubes of blood from Zhai Yunsheng. Then, she performed various tests and medical examinations on him.

And finally, she scanned Zhai Yunsheng’s body and analyzed his heart condition.

Very quickly, the entire morning passed by.

By the end, there was a stack of papers in Jian Yiling’s hands.

“How is it?” Zhai Yunsheng asked. He wanted to know whether his heart condition was under control.

Jian Yiling carefully read through the papers. Then, she raised her head and a happy smile appeared on her fair face. “You’re all good!”

When Zhai Yunsheng saw the smile on Jian Yiling’s face, he was stunned for a moment.

Then, he quickly moved closer and dropped a kiss on Jian Yiling’s forehead.

“A Sheng, we’ve succeeded!”

“Mhmm, we’ve succeeded,” Zhai Yunsheng replied. “You gave me another chance to live.”

“But I was the reason why your health deteriorated so rapidly in the first place.”

“Well, we’re even right now. And so, for the entirety of this life, we both owe each other. Hence, we should use the remaining decades of our life to pay back one another. You’re not allowed to leave halfway okay?”

“Okay,” Jian Yiling responded. She wasn’t going to go back on her words. She was going to spend the remaining decades of her life with him.

Once she confirmed that Zhai Yunsheng’s condition had stabilized, some plans could finally be put into place.

In the middle of the night, when Zhai Yunsheng was asleep, the door of his room was suddenly opened.

A small figure wearing a nightgown tiptoed into his room.

The small figure was carrying her pillow.

Even though she wasn’t wearing any shoes and barely made any noise, Zhai Yunsheng still managed to detect her movements.

Zhai Yunsheng’s hearing had always been good. This was especially the case after he practiced martial arts with Grandpa Sun.

In the darkness, the corners of Zhai Yunsheng’s mouth turned into a very obvious smile.

However, Jian Yiling could not see this smile.

She carefully climbed into Zhai Yunsheng’s bed and laid down next to him.

After she found a comfortable spot, she closed her eyes.

However, as soon as she closed her eyes, someone suddenly flipped onto her.

Then, a kiss was planted on her lips.

“Waa…” Jian Yiling said in a muffled voice. Her entire brain went blank and she didn’t know how to react.

“Flick—”

The lights got turned on.

Jian Yiling looked up at Zhai Yunsheng. There was an evil smile on his face.

“Whose rabbit is this? Why is she not sleeping in the middle of the night? And why did she climb into my bed?”

“Your rabbit.”

“Ahh, so you’re my rabbit. How cute,” Zhai Yunsheng commented as he held himself up with one arm. He wanted to keep some distance between his body and Jian Yiling’s as he did not want to make her feel uncomfortable.

Then, using his other hand, he gently caressed Jian Yiling’s cheek.

Jian Yiling’s cheeks felt hotter and hotter.

“Why did you climb into my bed?”

“I missed you,” Jian Yiling replied honestly. She didn’t like hiding her thoughts.

Upon hearing this reply, Zhai Yunsheng’s smile became even brighter. His eyes twinkled in happiness.

“Little rabbit, you know I’ve recovered a lot,” Zhai Yunsheng reminded Jian Yiling.

He was no longer the man in Jinshui Village who could only sit there and do nothing.

“Mhmm, I know,” Jian Yiling replied. She knew his physical condition better than he did.

“Then do you know I’m really hungry right now?”

“Do you want a midnight snack? If you want one, I can go and make it for you now.”

“I just need the last three words. The midnight snack can be omitted.”

Chapter 1218: Fattening Up the Rabbit to Gobble Her Up (2)

Before Jian Yiling got a chance to comprehend what was happening, Zhai Yunsheng kissed her again.

Then, her mind once again went blank. Her usually clear and logical thoughts went into complete disarray.

###

The next morning, as the sun just came up, there were two people lying on a messy bed.

Zhai Yunsheng woke up early and turned sideways to look at the beauty lying in his arms.

There were a few red marks on her fair skin.

However, despite the obvious exhaustion on her face, she was sleeping extraordinarily well.

Around half an hour later, Jian Yiling finally woke up. As soon as she opened her eyes, she saw Zhai Yunsheng staring at her with a light smile on his face.

Upon seeing this, Jian Yiling quickly pulled the blanket over her face to cover herself.

Images of what happened last night poured into her mind. This made her hands grip the blanket even tighter.

Zhai Yunsheng laughed gently as he reached out for the quilt: “Don’t cover yourself like that. You’re going to suffocate.”

However, Jian Yiling refused to let go of the blanket. She didn’t dare to look at him.

“But who was the one insisting on having a baby?” Zhai Yunsheng laughed.

Even though she knew a lot of theoretical knowledge, she had no idea what to do when it came to actual practice.

“You’re a bad person!” Jian Yiling cried out from inside the blanket.

“Why am I a bad person?” Zhai Yunsheng reasoned. “You were the one who wanted a baby. I was just helping you out. And this is exactly how a baby is made.”

“But... But you wanted me to call you...”

Last night and early this morning, Zhai Yunsheng insisted on Jian Yiling calling him her husband.

“Call me what?” Zhai Yunsheng asked deliberately.

“I’m going to ignore you!” Jian Yiling huffed. She refused to cooperate with Zhai Yunsheng.

Zhai Yunsheng was a bad person last night. He said strange words and did strange things.

And in the end, Jian Yiling’s voice disappeared. She could only make kitten-like mewls.

“Rumble~” Jian Yiling’s stomach growled.

After last night and this morning, Jian Yiling used up a lot of energy.

And now, her stomach was empty.

“Lie down for a bit more. I will make you breakfast,” Zhai Yunsheng said as he got up.

When Jian Yiling sensed that Zhai Yunsheng had gotten up, she slowly lowered the blanket from her face.

However, as soon as she looked out, she saw a naked Zhai Yunsheng standing in front of her.

She immediately threw the blanket over her head again.

How embarrassing...

Even though Zhai Yunsheng’s cooking skills weren’t as amazing as Jian Yiling’s, he could still make a tasty and simple breakfast.

He fried a few eggs and a few pieces of bacon. Then, he poured a cup of milk for Jian Yiling.

By the time he returned to the room, Jian Yiling was already dressed.

“Just eat this for now. I’ve asked someone to send some food over. It will arrive soon.”

“You... You should put on your clothes...” Jian Yiling said as she quickly looked somewhere else.

“What if I don’t want to wear a t-shirt?” Zhai Yunsheng replied. Every so often, he would not wear a top at home. Jian Yiling had seen him like this so many times before.

Furthermore, at Jinshui Village, she insisted on taking his clothes off. Even though he couldn’t do anything to stop her, he clearly remembered her actions back then.

“Put on some clothes...” Jian Yiling softly muttered. She did not dare to look at the marks on Zhai Yunsheng’s chest.

She made those marks.

Naturally, he asked her to make those marks.

He was apparently ‘teaching’ her.

She never expected the process of human reproduction to be more complicated than that of animals.

When Zhai Yunsheng realized that Jian Yiling refused to look at him unless he wore some clothes, he begrudgingly went to grab a shirt.

Chapter 1219: The Jian Brothers are Sad, Angry, and Helpless (1)

Despite this, the red marks on their necks could not be covered up.

If anyone looked at the marks on their necks, they would immediately know what happened between Jian Yiling and Zhai Yunsheng last night.

Furthermore, anyone would be willing to bet that if the Jian brothers saw the marks on Jian Yiling’s neck, they would be glaring daggers at Zhai Yunsheng.

In the afternoon, Zhai Yunsheng brought Jian Yiling over to the Zhai Residence to eat with Master Zhai.

As soon as they entered the door, Master Zhai’s eyes were drawn to the red marks on Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling’s necks.

After a moment of shock, Master Zhai could not control the smile appearing on his lips.

As someone who had once been young, how could he not know what these red marks meant?

He had waited so long for this. The day finally came!

Master Zhai hurriedly invited Jian Yiling to sit down: “Yiling, come over and take a seat. You must be tired after walking so much right?”

However, Jian Yiling only walked from the front door to the living room.

But Master Zhai made it sound like she walked all the way over here from their apartment.

Then, Master Zhai glared at his grandson: “Why don’t you take better care of Yiling? Why did you bring her all the way here? You guys don’t have to accompany me. It’s not a big deal. You can come at any time. There’s plenty of opportunities.”

Upon hearing this, Zhai Yunsheng muttered: “But someone kept contacting Yiling behind my back.”

Instead of contacting his grandson, Master Zhai would often contact Jian Yiling. This was because Jian Yiling often did not know how to say no.

“Then why don’t you call me? Do you not have my phone number or something? It doesn’t take a lot of time and energy to make a phone call right? Why did you bring Yiling all the way here? Don’t you know how to look after her?”

Zhai Yunsheng did not know how to respond when he heard his grandpa's words. Why was his grandpa complaining about them visiting?

###

Later at night, Jian Yuncheng and Jian Yunnao came to visit Jian Yiling.

As this visit was not planned, they did not give notice to Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling.

When Jian Yiling opened the door for her brothers, Jian Yuncheng and Jian Yunnao's attention was immediately drawn to the red marks on Jian Yiling's neck.

At that moment, the expressions on their faces completely changed. This was especially the case for Jian Yuncheng. His face seemed to be covered with frost.

Then, when he directed his eyes to Zhai Yunsheng who was seated inside the living room if looks could kill, Zhai Yunsheng would have died a thousand times already.

Upon sensing this, Zhai Yunsheng awkwardly touched his nose. He knew he could not avoid confrontation.

"Yiling, go into your room for a bit. I have something to say to Zhai Yunsheng," Jian Yuncheng said as he walked over to Zhai Yunsheng with his long legs.

He seemed very aggressive and not friendly.

When Jian Yunnao heard this, he dragged Jian Yiling into the study room.

And thus, Jian Yuncheng and Zhai Yunsheng were left in the living room.

Even though Zhai Yunsheng felt a little embarrassed, he wasn't ashamed of what had happened. After all, such a thing would happen sooner or later. Even if the Jian brothers weren't happy with this, they couldn't really say anything either.

"Let's discuss this in the other room," Jian Yuncheng said as he headed towards the fitness room.

The room was decorated with some simple sports and fitness equipment. Zhai Yunsheng would use these items to exercise on a regular basis.

There was also fencing equipment on the wall. By the time Zhai Yunsheng entered the room, Jian Yuncheng was already putting on the fencing gear.

His intentions were very clear.

His brother-in-law wanted to fence with him.

In other words, he wanted to vent his frustration in such a way.

And in such a situation, Zhai Yunsheng couldn't be too serious. He couldn't win. He had to lose so his brother-in-law was satisfied.

Winning or losing wasn't important here. He just had to make his brother-in-law happy.

Otherwise, he would have to face many unfortunate things.

Chapter 1220: The Jian Brothers are Sad, Angry, and Helpless (2)

An hour later, when Jian Yiling got to see Zhai Yunsheng again, she noticed that Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yuncheng were both covered in sweat.

However, Jian Yuncheng appeared to be more tired.

After all, Zhai Yunsheng had been trained by Grandpa Sun. Even if Jian Yiheng fought against him right now, he wouldn't necessarily win. Therefore, it was incredible for Jian Yuncheng to fence against Zhai Yunsheng for an entire hour.

Naturally, Zhai Yunsheng did not go all out against Jian Yuncheng.

"What did you guys do?" Jian Yiling asked.

"Nothing much, just a bit of fencing," Zhai Yunsheng replied with a smile.

Fencing? Why were they suddenly fencing?

Jian Yunnao knew that if his brother was stronger than Zhai Yunsheng, they wouldn't be fencing in the past hour.

It was a shame that Zhai Yunsheng was so strong. An average person would not be able to win against him.

Before Jian Yuncheng left, he said to Jian Yiling: "Jian Yunmo and your mother miss you. You should come home tomorrow."

As they were all as sly as foxes, Zhai Yunsheng naturally understood Jian Yuncheng's intentions.

Even though Jian Yuncheng could not stop what was happening between his sister and Zhai Yunsheng, he could make sure the man couldn't make too much progress by bringing his sister home from time to time.

Not long after Jian Yuncheng and Jian Yunnao left, Jian Yiheng came knocking on the door.

This time, however, he wasn't here for a midnight snack. Instead, he was here to fight against Zhai Yunsheng.

"Cousin Yiheng, why are you suddenly interested in fighting against me?"

"Well, my brothers wanted to watch us fight," Jian Yiheng replied as he took out his phone.

He was currently in a video call with everyone else.

Therefore, Jian Yiheng was technically obeying an 'order' from everyone else.

After Jian Yuncheng and Jian Yunnao left, they told the matter to everyone inside the [Wolf Killing Association] WeChat group.

Very soon, every Jian brother was begging Jian Yiheng to fight Zhai Yunsheng.

"Well, if either of us get hurt, Jian Yiling will be upset. Are you sure about this?" Zhai Yunsheng asked.

“Well, I don’t plan to actually injure you. And I’d assume you wouldn’t plan to injure me either,” Jian Yiheng replied.

“Are they okay with that?” Zhai Yunsheng asked.

“They only asked me to fight with you for one night.”

One night?

Were they not planning to let Zhai Yunsheng sleep?

Ahh, so they didn’t intend on teaching Zhai Yunsheng a lesson. Instead, they were determined to not let Zhai Yunsheng climb into Jian Yiling’s bed to do bad things.

And even if they couldn’t stop him from doing that, fighting would tax away Zhai Yunsheng’s stamina. Therefore, when he went back into his room, he would almost immediately fall asleep.

As the video call was still going on, Zhai Yunsheng was not just facing Jian Yiheng. Instead, he was facing many of the angry Jian brothers.

“Alright then,” Zhai Yunsheng responded. He could only accept Jian Yiheng’s challenge.

Then, the two of them headed to the gym room to fight.

However, the fight did not last long. Jian Yiling soon appeared inside the room to stop them from fighting.

“Brother Yiheng, it’s very late already. You guys can exercise tomorrow.”

She also prepared a midnight snack for the two of them. After eating the snack, she requested the two of them to take a shower before going to sleep.

When Jian Yiheng heard his sister’s request, he could not bear to say no.

And thus, he lowered his fists before he headed into the dining room with Zhai Yunsheng.

And after eating, he was sent to the door by Jian Yiling.

On the other hand, Zhai Yunsheng went to shower.

When he left the shower, Jian Yiling was already asleep in her room. The lights of her room were off.

Even though she sneaked into his room yesterday, she was completely ignoring his bed today.

As Zhai Yunsheng knew that Jian Yiling was not asleep yet, he wrapped a bath towel around his body before he headed into her room.

As soon as he opened the door, the small ‘mound’ in the bed moved.

It was obvious that she was not yet asleep. However, she was deliberately pretending to be asleep to escape something.
