Chapter 1281: Auction (3)

"25 billion," Qin Chuan's assistant called out.

Upon hearing this bid, the others shook their heads repeatedly. Even if they were not willing to give up on this piece of land, they had to. They did not have the money to follow up on such a bid.

"26 billion," Zhai Yunsheng followed. He continued to raise the price without the slightest hesitation.

At this point, the representatives from other companies had already fully given up.

This price point was already far beyond their budget.

They decided to watch Qin Chuan and Zhai Yunsheng compete for the piece of land.

Qin Chuan and Zhai Yunsheng who were once rated as the two top noblemen of Beijing were fiercely competing against one another.

The calls from Zhai Yunsheng and Qin Chuan's assistant failed to wake up Jian Yiling. She continued to sleep on Zhai Yunsheng's shoulder.

It appeared to have the same effect as listening to a university tutor's lecture.

As long as her name wasn't mentioned, she would continue to doze off.

Finally, Zhai Yunsheng raised the price to 30.8 billion.

Upon hearing this price being called, Qin Chuan's assistant told Qin Chuan that the Qin Group did not hold any more liquid assets. If they continued to bid, the Qin Group would encounter problems with their existing projects and operations.

After a moment of contemplation, Qin Chuan continued to raise the price.

"31 billion."

This time, Qin Chuan personally called out the price.

"31.6 billion," Zhai Yunsheng followed without any hesitation.

This man was crazy!

Did he not know how much money that was?!

To make matters worse, this wasn't his money!

How could he spend his wife's money so recklessly!

Everyone's eyes fell on Jian Yiling. They were shocked to see her napping on Zhai Yunsheng's shoulder.

How could she fall asleep in such a situation? Was her heart made out of stone or something?

Was her mentality that strong?!

Qin Chuan's assistant and financial team redid their calculations. After performing their calculations, they felt that it was pointless for the Qin Group to continue competing and they asked Qin Chuan to give up.

After pondering, Qin Chuan stopped the bidding.

The hammer finally fell and the plot of land was sold to Zhai Yunsheng for 31.6 billion dollars.

The crowd went to Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling's seats to smilingly "congratulate" the two of them.

"Young Master Zhai is indeed very capable."

"I no longer believe the words that a woman should marry into a rich family to live a good life. Instead, the statement should be applied in reverse. We're truly envious that you managed to find such a capable and virtuous wife."

The sound of their voices woke up Jian Yiling. Her eyes felt hazy and she instinctively rubbed them.

Zhai Yunsheng softly said to Jian Yiling: "If you're tired, you should nap for a bit more."

"Is it over?" Jian Yiling asked.

She wasn't sure how she managed to fall asleep just now.

"Mhmm," Zhai Yunsheng replied as he handed Jian Yiling a glass of water. He gestured for her to take a sip of water after waking up.

"Dean Jian, your husband just spent 31.6 billion to buy this piece of land."

Someone was afraid that Jian Yiling didn't know how much Zhai Yunsheng had just spent. And thus, he couldn't wait to tell Jian Yiling about this.

"It's not my money," Jian Yiling replied. "He earned the money himself. It's considered premarital property."

Jian Yiling made this clear even though she was aware that Zhai Yunsheng would willingly hand over all his money to her.

But legally speaking, this money is still Zhai Yunsheng's premarital property.

This wasn't Jian Yiling's money?

This was pre-marital property?

Everyone felt that Jian Yiling was talking nonsense.

After all, the Zhai family had gone bankrupt. Even their family mansion had been sold. How could Zhai Yunsheng possibly have premarital property?

Chapter 1282: Auction (4)

"Master Sheng, what do you intend to do with this piece of land?" someone questioned.

After all, the Zhai family was bankrupt. Zhai Yunsheng was merely a leader who had no followers. Even if he managed to win the bid, he was limited by what he could do with it.

Zhai Yunsheng smiled and replied: "For a large project. You're not assuming that I bid on it with no plans in place right?"

This was quite a strange thing for Zhai Yunsheng to say. Everyone around him couldn't help but frown.

"Master Sheng, do you intend to re-establish your business empire?"

In the past, people called Zhai Yunsheng "Master Sheng" because they had to respect him. They had to fear his identity and fear the power and influence that the Zhai family had.

Nowadays, everyone called him "Master Sheng" to more or less mock him.

Zhai Yunsheng continued to look at the people in front of him with a light smile on his face. The expected awkwardness was not there.

Was Zhai Yunsheng that thick-skinned?

"Are you sure that you can build a project up from scratch? If such a large project fails, it would be a huge waste of money!"

"What are you talking about? Master Sheng was once the head of the Zhai family. What kind of big projects has he not seen? Absolutely nothing will go wrong, right?"

"Master Sheng, if this project ends up going badly, remember to contact us. We will be willing to take it off your hands. Naturally, it wouldn't be at today's price. At today's price, there is basically no profit margin. That's also the reason why Mr. Qin and the others gave up bidding."

For some reason, many people felt bitter from losing the bid just now. And thus, they started saying sarcastic things to Zhai Yunsheng in front of Jian Yiling.

"Right Mr. Qin?"

To get some reassurance, the crowd turned to ask Qin Chuan.

After all, everyone knew that Qin Chuan was ultimately the reason why the Zhai family went bankrupt.

Mentioning Qin Chuan at such a time was intentionally provoking trouble.

Qin Chuan looked at Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling with a complicated expression on his face.

When his gaze fell on Jian Yiling, there was a considerable amount of pain and heartache in his eyes.

"If you want to build up your business empire again, this project is not a good starting point," Qin Chuan commented.

"Thanks for your concern but this has nothing to do with you," Zhai Yunsheng replied indifferently.

Upon hearing this, Qin Chuan said: "But you still shouldn't let Yiling's efforts and hard work go to waste."

For some reason, even though he destroyed the Zhai family, he still felt bad for Jian Yiling.

It was as though he had a split personality.

“Mr. Qin, you don’t need to worry about my wife and me,” Zhai Yunsheng answered.

Upon hearing this, people said to Qin Chuan: “Mr. Qin gives good advice. It’s just a shame that not everyone can plan and lead their family business to success.”

“Yes, yes. Mr. Zhai might not necessarily understand the things you’re speaking about.”

“We should celebrate Mr. Zhai’s purchase of this piece of land. When you found your new company, please remember to invite us to the opening party.”

“Even though you may lose some money, Mr. Zhai’s vision is still very good. This piece of land has been the most valuable piece of land auctioned in Beijing for many years.”

Although some people appeared to speak up for Zhai Yunsheng, the ridicule in their words was understood by all.

At this time, the person in charge of the auction came over to invite Zhai Yunsheng to their office to go through the follow-up procedures.

“CEO Zhai of the Dingwen Group, please come with me to the office.”

Chapter 1283: Auction (5)

The staff member’s address to Zhai Yunsheng surprised the crowd.

Dingwen Group?

Wasn’t that the foreign organization that rose to fame and success a few years ago?

If they remembered correctly, wasn’t that company founded four or five years ago?

CEO Zhai?

How could the CEO of Dingwen Group be Zhai Yunsheng?

Someone immediately took out their cell phone to check the company’s registration information.

To their surprise, the CEO of Dingwen Group was indeed shown to be Zhai Yunsheng.

And the company was founded five years ago.

The Dingwen Group was a company that belonged to the Harmony League. Naturally, the CEO would be Zhai Yunsheng.

In the past, Han Mengyu and Xing Wei had been taking care of the Dingwen Group. This was until Zhai Yunsheng recovered completely and the Zhai family business was liquidated. Only then was the company transferred under Zhai Yunsheng’s name.

Almost everyone in the auction room cast a curious gaze at Zhai Yunsheng.

This included Qin Chuan.

In Qin Chuan’s memory of his past life, no such thing happened.

Back then, Zhai Yunsheng never cared about these things.

He didn't even bother to manage the Zhai family business.

This meant that it was impossible for Zhai Yunsheng to own any other organization or company which was not under the name of the Zhai family.

As for Zhai Yunsheng's uncle Zhai Zhongshen, because of encounters with him in his past life, Qin Chuan was well aware of his capabilities as well.

In fact, it could be said that Qin Chuan knew everything that happened in the Zhai family.

However, Qin Chuan overlooked one thing. He overlooked the butterfly effect Jian Yiling brought into the world.

In their previous lives, without Jian Yiling, Zhai Yunsheng did not achieve nor do anything noteworthy.

But after Zhai Yunsheng encountered Jian Yiling in Hengyuan City five years ago, some things changed subtly.

"You're the CEO of the Dingwen Group?" someone in the crowd couldn't help but ask.

"When did Master Sheng become the CEO of Dingwen Group? Why haven't we heard of this news?"

"Dingwen Group was established many years ago. Did Master Sheng acquire it?"

The person who asked this question had an obvious tone of surprise and disbelief.

Zhai Yunsheng remained calm and composed throughout these questions. He appreciated the change of expression on these people's faces.

Then, several people turned to look at Jian Yiling. They wondered if she acquired the Dingwen Group for Zhai Yunsheng in an effort to help him build his business empire

But in the past few months, none of them had heard the news of the Dingwen Group being acquired.

Furthermore, the Dingwen Group had been growing quite well. Hence, the company was unlikely to be acquired at this juncture.

Everyone seemed suspicious of this news.

Mo Shiyun sensed Qin Chuan's unhappiness. After a moment of hesitation, she decided to speak up for Qin Chuan.

"Mr. Zhai, you might indeed be the CEO of the Dingwen Group. However, you should be well aware of how you acquired the Dingwen Group. As it's a gift from Dean Jian, you should treasure the gift and proceed with caution when bidding for land."

In her mind, Mo Shiyun already concluded that the Dingwen Group was acquired by Jian Yiling to help Zhai Yunsheng build his business empire in Beijing.

Mo Shiyun knew that Qin Chuan was not happy because the woman he liked did so many things for another man. And despite her efforts, Zhai Yunsheng continued to be a disappointment and failure. He likes Jane Yiling did so many things for Zhai Yunsheng,

If Qin Chuan could not say these things, she would say these things on his behalf.

Out of everyone here, Mo Shiyun was most direct with her words.

Qin Chuan looked at Mo Shiyun with surprise.

Mo Shiyun would actually see things from Jian Yiling's perspective?

When Jian Yiling heard this, she retorted with obvious hostility in her soft voice: "Do you have delusions or something? I've already said that this is A Sheng's premarital property. Why are you so insistent to make your delusions become real?"

Chapter 1284: Auction (6)

Jian Yiling did not like listening to others slander Zhai Yunsheng.

However, Jian Yiling's words did not change Mo Shiyun's mind. Instead, she continued to persuade Jian Yiling: "Dean Jian, Qin Chuan and I are saying these things for your own good. We genuinely want Mr. Zhai to put more thought into his actions. The amount of money he used to buy this piece of land is actually insanely high. It will make any project unprofitable."

"If you have problems, you should go to the hospital," Zhai Yunsheng commented. "There's absolutely no point in acting. Instead of acting, you should just compete against us fair and square."

Mo Shiyun attempted to explain their intentions: "Dean Jian has helped Qin Chuan in the past. Qin Chuan is very grateful for her help. And even if Mr. Zhai and Dean Jian are married, you are still independent individuals. Just because you're business rivals with the Qin family, that doesn't mean Qin Chuan can't thank Dean Jian."

Qin Chuan's actions weren't contradictory. After all, his actions were always targeted at Zhai Yunsheng rather than Jian Yiling.

And now that Zhai Yunsheng was forced to use Jian Yiling's money, Qin Chuan felt that there was the urge to give advice.

"I don't need your gratitude nor your concern. A Sheng and I are doing very well so you don't need to waste time on doing such unnecessary and meaningless things."

Jian Yiling's response was cold and detached. She had nothing to say to Qin Chuan.

Upon hearing these words, there was an injured look in Qin Chuan's eyes.

However, Mo Shiyun continued to speak up for Qin Chuan: "Dean Jian, you can treat me with hostility but you must believe that Qin Chuan holds no ill intent towards you. You have known each other for many years and you should be clear about his character."

Mo Shiyun wanted Jian Yiling to have a good impression of Qin Chuan. And thus, she defended him as much as possible.

"I don't need to know nor am I interested in knowing what kind of person he is," Jian Yiling replied. "I don't care about your matters so please don't interfere in our affairs."

"Dean Jian, please don't say that. I..."

"This is not Lahaisen Hospital. Please call me Mrs. Zhai," Jian Yiling corrected Mo Shiyun's address to herself.

Then, Jian Yiling turned her head and asked Zhai Yunsheng softly: "A Sheng, I'm tired. Can we go home?"

These words made everyone jealous of Zhai Yunsheng once again.

After all, who wouldn't want such a wife? Not only did she have money and talent, but she also satisfied a man's desire to protect their loved one.

"Of course," Zhai Yunsheng answered.

If his wife wanted to leave, why would he stay here?

After saying this, Zhai Yunsheng took Jian Yiling's hand and left.

When Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling walked away, the crowd began to whisper amongst themselves.

"What's happening? Is Zhai Yunsheng actually going to build up a business empire again?"

"Are you crazy? It will be very difficult to earn a return on investment given he purchased this land at such a high price. Otherwise, why else did everyone stop bidding? Why did Mr. Qin stop bidding? They're not stupid. They knew that their profit margins would be incredibly low. That's why they didn't want to take the risk."

"But the Dingwen Group... They've been developing well in the past few years... If that company really belongs to Zhai Yunsheng..."

"That's impossible. If the Dingwen Group belonged to Zhai Yunsheng, then why would the Zhai family go bankrupt? Furthermore, if he has the ability to take care of the Dingwen Group, why would the Zhai family business fail?"

Then someone asked Qin Chuan: "Mr. Qin what do you think about this matter?"

Qin Chuan's eyebrows were shrouded by gloom.

Mo Shiyun also felt rather anxious.

"Zhai Yunsheng has his own ideas," Qin Chuan replied. After he said this, he walked away.

When she saw Qin Chuan leave, Mo Shiyun quickly chased after him.

Chapter 1285: Wife Gets Stolen Away (1)

After the Dingwen Group purchased the land west of Beijing, many people paid close attention to the progress of this project.

They were all waiting for Zhai Yunsheng to make a fool of himself.

However, half a month passed by and nothing happened.

They didn't get to see problems arise for Zhai Yunsheng.

Even though people didn't get to see problems arise for Zhai Yunsheng in Beijing's western suburbs project, people from the Jian family saw his struggles against Jian Dan.

"Auntie! Hugs!" Jian Dan cried out as he clung to Jian Yiling's body. He refused to leave her side.

If this only happened during the daytime, it was fine. However, Jian Dan stuck to Jian Yiling's side even at night time.

Thus, he posed a huge problem for the young couple. Even if Zhai Yunsheng wanted to do something at night, he couldn't.

Therefore, Jian Dan posed a much bigger headache than the Beijing western suburbs project.

Very soon, Zhai Yunsheng demanded Jian Yumin and Luo Xiuen to take their son back.

However, Jian Yumin refused sternly: "Brother-in-law, please don't say that. Your sister-in-law is pregnant again. We won't be able to take care of Jian Dan. After all, I need to work and look after your sister-in-law. It's rare for Jian Dan to like his auntie so much. You wouldn't be jealous of a child right?"

Yes, thanks to Jian Yumin's hard work, Luo Xiuen was pregnant again.

This time Jian Yumin and Luo Xiuen were confident that they were going to have a baby girl.

And thus, Jian Dan wasn't their first priority anymore.

"Nannies, childcare, early education classes, whatever you need, I'll get it for you." Zhai Yunsheng said coldly.

"Brother-in-law, anyone you hire to take care of Jian Dan isn't from our family. Haven't we learned our lesson from the nanny surnamed Mo? That was a very costly lesson."

When Jian Yumin specifically brought up the matter of Aunt Mo to establish that nannies and babysitters were unreliable, Zhai Yunsheng could not really say anything else.

"But there are so many people in the Jian family. Can't you get them to take care of Jian Dan?" Zhai Yunsheng tried again.

"Even though there are a lot of people in the Jian family, none of them can help in this situation. My grandparents are very old. Can you bear to see them be disturbed and troubled by Jian Dan? Furthermore, everyone else in our generation is a single male. To be honest, I'm not even sure they can take care of themselves. How can they possibly take care of a child? Furthermore, you know about my parent's situation..."

Jian Yumin helped Zhai Yunsheng analyze the situation. In his eyes, Jian Yiling was most suited to take care of Jian Dan.

"I'm happy to take care of Dandan. Please rest assured Brother Yumin and Sister En," Jian Yiling spoke up. There was a serious expression on her face as she said this.

She was happy to share her brother and sister-in-law's burden.

"Yiling, you're the best!" Jian Yumin cried out happily. "I'm relieved to leave Dandan in your care! You're the best sister I could ever ask for! You're pretty, smart, and patient with children! When you have your own baby in the future, they will surely be the happiest baby!"

What did Jian Yumin mean by that? Own baby? How was that possible if Jian Dan kept staying here?

"Auntie! Baby! Mamma!" Jian Dan cried out as he kissed Jian Yiling's face. Then, he began to giggle again. Throughout the entirety of this, Jian Dan did not notice his uncle's glare.

Chapter 1286: Wife Gets Stolen Away (2)

At night, Jian Dan fell asleep on Jian Yiling.

On the other hand, Zhai Yunsheng was lying on the other side of the bed.

As Jian Dan slept like a rock, he was completely unaware that someone wanted to throw him out of the room while he was asleep.

"He's not that young. He can sleep by himself. I will buy him a crib and place it next to our bed," Zhai Yunsheng conceded.

If he couldn't return Jian Dan to his parents, at the very least, he had to get him out of their bed.

"He's only one and a half years old," Jian Yiling replied. She was happy to have him sleep next to her.

The little boy had a faint smell of milk on him. He was also very soft and cuddly.

"Being one and a half years old means he's not young anymore," Zhai Yunsheng stressed.

"Nope, he's still young," Jian Yiling insisted. She did not hear the dissatisfaction in Zhai Yunsheng's voice. Instead, she firmly believed that someone needed to take care of the one-and-a-half-year-old baby.

Upon hearing this, Zhai Yunsheng did not know what to say. He couldn't really argue against Jian Yiling's words. Instead, he quietly hugged Jian Yiling who was hugging Jian Dan.

The next morning, Jian Dan was the first to wake. He did not make any noise. Instead, he stared at his beautiful auntie with a pair of glistening eyes.

Zhai Yunsheng also woke up. Their eyes met and they stared at each other.

Jian Dan was not afraid of Zhai Yunsheng. In fact, as Zhai Yunsheng stared at him, he snuggled into Jian Yiling's arm and put his head on Jian Yiling's chest.

That little bastard!

As Jian Yiling was wearing loose pajamas, a large patch of skin on her chest was visible.

And this spot was stolen away by Jian Dan's head.

Because of this little boy, at times, he couldn't even hug his wife when they were sleeping.

Zhai Yunsheng reached out to gently pinch the little boy's cheeks.

Even if he was upset, he didn't want to cause the little boy any pain.

After all, if the little boy started crying, he would be the one who got into trouble.

However, the little boy frowned at this gentle pinch.

Then, tears began to well in his eyes.

"Shhh, don't cry!" Zhai Yunsheng lowered his voice to warn Jian Dan.

Zhai Yunsheng's warning was useless. The little boy's eyes turned red and he immediately began to wail.

"Waaa—!"

Jian Yiling was woken up by the crying. She quickly tried to soothe the little boy.

"Dandan, don't cry."

Even though Jian Yiling sounded emotionless as she said this, it was surprisingly effective on Jian Dan.

The little boy immediately stopped crying.

Then, he pointed a finger at Zhai Yunsheng before huffing: "Bad! Bad! Hit me!"

Upon hearing this, Zhai Yunsheng took a deep breath.

He was being set up by a little kid!

"No no, your uncle is good. He wouldn't bully you. Don't cry," Jian Yiling comforted.

Thankfully, his wife was biased towards him. She trusted his character and knew he wouldn't do something so unqualified as bullying a child.

"Waaa..."

The little boy somewhat understood Jian Yiling's words. He burrowed himself into Jian Yiling's arms and whimpered.

If someone didn't know better, they'd assume Zhai Yunsheng spanked him ten times instead of gently pinching him.

Jian Yiling had to comfort the little boy for a while before a smile returned to his face.

Then, she went to prepare milk for the little boy.

When she returned, Zhai Yunsheng asked Jian Yiling: "Where's mine?"

Chapter 1287: Wife Gets Stolen Away (3)

"But this is Jian Dan's drink," Jian Yiling replied. She was listening to Jian Yumin and Luo Xiuen's instructions.

When Jian Dan woke from his nap, he wanted to drink milk.

“But I’m hungry as well,” Zhai Yunsheng said. As he said this, he glanced at Jian Dan who was happily drinking from his milk bottle.

At this moment, Jian Dan also glanced at Zhai Yunsheng. For some reason, his eyes seemed to be taunting Zhai Yunsheng.

That brat! He probably cried deliberately!

“Then I’ll go get you some breakfast,” Jian Yiling said as she headed towards the kitchen.

Upon hearing this reply, Zhai Yunsheng got out of bed as well.

“Go lie down. I will go get breakfast myself,” Zhai Yunsheng said. “I can’t get enough of what you make anyways.”

Before Jian Yiling got a chance to understand what he was saying, Zhai Yunsheng already left the room.

When Jian Dan noticed Zhai Yunsheng leaving, he moved next to Jian Yiling. Then, he happily said: “Auntie! Hug!”

He wanted his auntie to hold him as he drank from the milk bottle.

It was as though the milk was sweeter if a pretty girl was holding him.

When Jian Yiling heard this request, she moved herself over to hug Jian Dan.

As soon as Zhai Yunsheng walked into the room, he saw what Jian Dan was doing.

He had an impulse to throw the boy out of the window.

“Go wash up and eat some breakfast. I will hold the brat,” Zhai Yunsheng said as he plucked the little boy out of Jian Yiling’s arms.

The little boy hummed twice to express his dissatisfaction as he was now being held by his uncle. His auntie was much nicer!

Fortunately, he did not decide to cry.

However, as soon as Jian Yiling entered the bathroom, Zhai Yunsheng immediately threw the little boy onto the bed and let him hold onto the milk bottle himself.

Jian Dan who was “thrown” onto the bed glared at Zhai Yunsheng.

“If you don’t want to eat, I will take the milk bottle away,” Zhai Yunsheng said coldly. He was indifferent to Jian Dan’s glare.

Jian Dan rolled over to face away from Zhai Yunsheng. Then, he continued to drink from the milk bottle.

When Jian Yiling came out of the bathroom, Jian Dan had finished the milk bottle. He quickly crawled towards Jian Yiling for a hug.

Just as she was about to pick up Jian Dan, Zhai Yunsheng stopped her.

“Go and eat breakfast. You won’t be able to eat breakfast if you’re hugging him.”

Jian Yiling paused for a moment before she nodded. Then, she headed toward the kitchen.

As soon as Jian Yiling turned around, Zhai Yunsheng put Jian Dan back onto the bed.

Then, he found a small ball from a pile of toys next to him and threw it to Jian Dan: “Go play by yourself.”

That pile of toys was brought by Jian Dan’s heartless parents. They said he typically played with these things.

“Hmph!” Dandan exclaimed as he threw the ball back at Zhai Yunsheng.

He did not seem happy with this arrangement.

Then, Zhai Yunsheng picked a doll from the toy pile and threw it at him.

Why did they buy him a doll?

Just like before, Jian Dan chucked the doll back as well.

Then, the two of them kept chucking toys at one another.

By the time Jian Yiling returned, toys were chucked all over the bedroom.

“The kid wanted to play. I just played along with him,” Zhai Yunsheng calmly explained.

Even though he was evidently lying, his face did not flush.

“Auntie, hug!” Dandan cried out. He loved clinging to Jian Yiling.

Tch, other than asking for a hug, did this brat know anything else?

Once again, Zhai Yunsheng picked Jian Dan up.

“Let me pick him up. He’s quite heavy.”

In order to stop Jian Dan from taking advantage of Jian Yiling, Zhai Yunsheng decided to pick up the little boy.

Chapter 1288: Back Off Little Demon, She’s Mine (1)

“Wa... Auntie... Auntie...” Jian Dan cried out as he stretched his arm out. He desperately tried to reach Jian Yiling.

He wasn’t interested in his stinky uncle. He wanted his beautiful auntie!

He didn’t like his bad uncle! He wanted his auntie!

Even though the little boy struggled hard, he could not manage to get out of Zhai Yunsheng's grasp. Zhai Yunsheng was like an unmovable mountain.

Maybe in twenty years, he would stand a better chance against Zhai Yunsheng.

When he realized he couldn't get rid of his hateful uncle, Jian Dan flattened his mouth. It looked like he was going to cry at any moment.

His eyes began to water.

"Boys should not be petulant. They must learn to understand and help girls. No man should let a woman suffer," Zhai Yunsheng solemnly admonished the young boy who had barely learned how to talk.

He didn't seem to care whether or not Jian Dan could understand his words.

After all, even if Jian Dan couldn't understand his words, Zhai Yunsheng refused to let him steal Jian Yiling every day.

Zhai Yunsheng told Jian Yiling to focus on her work today. He would be responsible for taking care of Jian Dan. He would bring him to his new company building.

Naturally, Jian Yiling trusted Zhai Yunsheng. If Zhai Yunsheng said that he would be responsible for taking care of Jian Dan, she was happy to go do laboratory experiments with Brother Yunmo.

His original company building had been sold. Zhai Yunsheng purchased this new building four years ago.

After all, it never hurt to plan ahead and take necessary precautions.

When Zhai Yunsheng arrived at work with a baby boy, everyone at the company instantly became curious.

Hadn't Zhai Yunsheng just gotten married? How was this child so old already?

Or did they secretly have a baby during the two years that Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling went missing? Was this the reason they disappeared?

When Zhai Yunsheng arrived at his office, he saw Han Mengyu. Han Mengyu had been waiting for him.

When Han Mengyu saw Zhai Yunsheng carrying a baby boy, he began questioning his existence.

"Master Sheng, do you really act that fast? Your kid is so big already!"

"Who told you that he is my son?"

"If he's not your son, why are you carrying him?" Han Mengyu asked. He did not believe that Zhai Yunsheng was someone who would willingly carry someone else's child.

"He's Jian Yumin's son. Didn't you see him at my wedding?"

"Not really. At your wedding, my attention was entirely on you and your wife. Who would pay attention to a little kid in the crowd?" Han Mengyu replied. "Master Sheng, I never realized you liked children so much. Good luck with having a child with your wife!"

"Who told you that I like children?" Zhai Yunsheng said as he chucked Jian Dan into Han Mengyu's arms.

“What? What’s happening here?” Han Mengyu stuttered. He was at a complete loss for words and he didn’t even know where to place his hands.

He didn’t know how to hold a baby!

Even though he had many girlfriends, he had taken necessary precautions.

“Your task today is to take care of the child.”

After Zhai Yunsheng threw the small bundle of trouble to Han Mengyu, he sat down at his desk and started flipping through documents and papers.

“But Master Sheng, I don’t know how to look after children!” Han Mengyu cried out. Han Mengyu looked like he was about to cry.

“Don’t you have many female friends? Call one of them and ask.”

“No? Master Sheng, all my female friends are single. And even if they’re married, they haven’t had children yet! Who do I contact about this?!”

Chapter 1289: Back Off Little Demon, She’s Mine (2)

“Either way, I’m handing him to you. You’re responsible for looking after him today. If you don’t look after him well, your share of this month’s dividend will be deducted,” Zhai Yunsheng threatened Han Mengyu.

“Master Sheng, you are too cruel!” Han Mengyu cried out.

After all, the company earned a lot of money under Zhai Yunsheng’s leadership. Therefore, monthly dividends were a huge sum of money.

Han Mengyu reluctantly brought Jian Dan into the meeting room outside Zhai Yunsheng’s office.

He would just treat this as training for the future. After all, he wasn’t young anymore.

When he thought about it in this way, Han Mengyu felt a bit happier.

“Auntie!” Jian Dan cried out unhappily. He didn’t want his uncle! He wasn’t interested in this man either!

Then, he once again flattened his mouth. It looked like tears were about to fall out of his eyes.

They were all stinky! Only his auntie was awesome!

“Little ancestor, please don’t cry. I don’t know how to take care of children. If you cry, I will mentally break down!” Han Mengyu hurriedly said. He never encountered such a big problem in his life.

“Auntie!” Jian Dan repeated persistently. He kept looking for his beautiful auntie.

“Don’t cry. If you disturb your uncle’s work, we will both suffer! For the sake of my nine-digit dividend, please don’t cry! When you go home tonight, you can get your auntie to kiss you to sleep! I promise I will buy you a house full of diapers, milk powder, and toys after I get my monthly dividends!”

As Han Mengyu said this, he cautiously glanced at Zhai Yunsheng who was seated not far away.

“Want auntie!” Jian Dan cried out again.

After pondering hard, Han Mengyu found a married woman among their company employees and asked her to help him look after Jian Dan. Only then did Jian Dan stop complaining so much.

Zhai Yunsheng didn’t care how Han Mengyu looked after Jian Dan. As long as the little demon was with him, everything was all good.

Jian Yiling was his wife! This little demon needed to back off!

In fact, Zhai Yunsheng began to doubt whether he even wanted to have his own child with Jian Yiling.

After all, Jian Dan staying with them for a few days was already annoying enough. If they had their own children, he couldn’t just abandon them. Wouldn’t they be more trouble?

Hm... Necessary precautions still had to be taken.

At least for a while, he wanted to enjoy time alone with his wife.

Inside Cai Ning Xuan, someone asked Mr. Qu:

“Elder Qu, what do you think is going on with this?”

Nowadays, the people who sat around the round table were the few remaining core members of the Loyalty Alliance.

Today, Zhai Yunsheng and Qin Chuan were both not present.

There was the slightly fat old man Qu Zhen from the antique industry, the middle-aged woman Sheng Yingying from the food industry, Zhong Baiyun from the jade industry, Qiao Panshan from the financial industry, and Qi Xing from the clothing and textile industry.

All of them sat in their seats and discussed the things that happened to the Zhai family in recent times.

The Zhai family’s original business was liquidated a few months ago.

However, Zhai Yunsheng managed to purchase a large plot of land in the western suburbs of Beijing for 30 billion dollars. This was a big move that puzzled a lot of people.

“Now, a lot of people are saying that Master Sheng is the CEO of the Dingwen Group. I’ve also looked into this. In their registration information, Master Sheng is indeed their legal representative. At the same time, he’s also their CEO and largest shareholder,” Qu Zhen said with a sigh.

Chapter 1290: Worried that Zhai Yunsheng Will Make a Comeback

“Never mind what identity he has now nor what he plans to get done. We can be sure of one thing and that’s the Dingwen Group was definitely not founded by Zhai Yunsheng. He doesn’t have the ability to do that. As for why he’s now the CEO of the Dingwen Group, I believe it’s because of Dean Jian,” Qiao Panshan said.

After the other members pondered over Qiao Panshan's words, they didn't decide to express their opinion. Instead, they silently agreed with Qiao Panshan.

After all, this was the most reasonable explanation.

"But if Zhai Yunsheng really makes a comeback, he will most likely retaliate against us," Sheng Yingying commented with a frown. Sheng Yingying who was wearing beautiful makeup had a worried look on her face at the moment.

She was not overthinking this. Rather, this was how things typically went.

After all, they betrayed the Zhai family, betrayed Zhai Yunsheng, and betrayed the rules that were set at the very beginning of the Loyalty Alliance.

If they were Zhai Yunsheng, they would not let the betrayer go either.

Zhong Baiyun also added to this: "And Zhai Yunsheng's character has always been vengeful. I don't expect anything to change in the past two years. With his character, he's beyond to not let us go scotch free. In fact, maybe he already brewed a plan to retaliate against us."

Sheng Yingying: "The last time we sat with him at the round table, he had a strange smile on his face. If I think about it now, he was probably already planning his revenge back then."

As she recalled the look on Zhai Yunsheng's face before he left that day, Sheng Yingying felt more and more scared the more she thought about it.

In an attempt to comfort Sheng Yingying, Qiao Panshan said: "Don't stress about it too much. After purchasing the land for 31.6 billion dollars at the auction, there will basically be no profit margin. Zhai Yunsheng will be lucky if he doesn't make a loss on this project. How can it be so easy to make a comeback?"

Qiao Panshan's words made the group feel a little more at ease.

If Zhai Yunsheng failed without them doing anything, that would be the best-case scenario.

They wouldn't have to worry about him seeking revenge on them.

Qu Zhen sighed again: "At this point, it's useless to worry about it. Instead, we should think about how to take precautions. Even if Zhai Yunsheng really plans to make a move against us, we will still be able to defend ourselves."

"That's right, if we put a word out, Zhai Yunsheng will not be able to find partners for the project. In that case, he won't be able to do real estate development nor any other kind of project."

However, Sheng Yingying still had doubts: "But the Jian family would still help Zhai Yunsheng. Their help will hinder our plans."

Qiao Panshan did not believe the Jian family posed a problem "The Jian family's focus is on the technological industry. They're not involved in real estate. Therefore, even if they want to help, they can only provide financial support. Other than that, they can't do anything."

Sheng Yingying asked again, "What about Jian Yiling? She's gathered a lot of talent and built a lot of connections using Lahaisen Hospital. There must be individuals willing to help her. Our words may not be able to stop these individuals from helping Zhai Yunsheng."

"Indeed... Jian Yiling poses a bit of a problem..."

About two years or so ago, they all looked down on Jian Yiling. They did not believe she had the ability to be the matriarch of the Zhai family.

However, the situation was completely reversed now.

Now, they were afraid of Jian Yiling for being too capable. She posed the biggest problem for them at the moment.
