Chapter 1301: Martial Arts Contest (2)

“Dirty tricks? If they dare to do dirty tricks on my turf, they’re seeking their death and demise. I’ve been in the Jianghu for more than 50 years, and those people who dared to do dirty tricks in front of me have the grass on their grave growing more than a meter high in height.”

Since Chen Lin said this, Qu Zhen and Sheng Yingying could not make any further comments. Commenting anymore would suggest they did not believe in Chen Lin’s abilities.

Qin Chuan also came to watch the match. He was equally concerned about who was going to win today.

When Qin Chuan arrived at the door, he went to greet Chen Lin.

Chen Lin treated Qin Chuan with respect: “Mr. Qin, are you also interested in the competition today?”

“I’ve always wanted to watch one of your fights and I never had the chance to. I honestly never thought I’d get the opportunity to see this so I’m happy to be here today.”

“Then you should thank those two brats who severely overestimate their capabilities. I, Chen Lin, have not met anyone who dared to challenge me for many years.”

Chen Lin did not get the opportunity to fight anyone for all these years. The main reason for this was that no one dared to provoke him.

“I’m looking forward to seeing martial arts talent that I’ve never seen before today,” Qin Chuan complimented.

“Look quite carefully. If you blink, you might miss it.”

“Alright, I will make sure not to blink.”

Zhai Yunsheng, Jian Yiling, Jian Yiheng, and other members of the Jian family were the last to arrive.

Upon hearing movement, Qin Chuan looked around and his eyes automatically searched for Jian Yiling’s figure amongst the crowd.

When he laid his eyes on her, his gaze became burning.

Even though the figure in front of him seemed similar to the figure inside his dreams, they were also different in a way.

The different memories from his two lives overlapped and intertwined with one another.

Jian Yiling also noticed Qin Chuan’s gaze. It was hard to not notice it.

In her previous life, she once chased Qin Chuan’s figure with such a gaze.

She never expected this to happen the other way around.

Jian Yiling’s grip on Zhai Yunsheng’s hand tightened unconsciously.

When Zhai Yunsheng sensed Jian Yiling’s discomfort, he gently squeezed her hand and softly said:

“Don’t be afraid. I’m here with you.”

She trusted him.

Then, Jian Yiling looked toward Jian Yiheng and said: “Brother Yiheng.”

“Hmm?”

“Win or lose, I will cook you something delicious.”

“Mhmm,” Jian Yiheng replied without putting much thought into his response. Then, he added: “Can I ask you to cook certain dishes?”

“What do you want to eat?”

“Spicy bullfrog, spiced chicken with chili sauce, and bombay duck.”

He was definitely going to sweat today so it would be appropriate for him to eat something spicy.

“Okay,” Jian Yiling replied.

A smile appeared on Zhai Yunsheng’s lips as he looked at Jian Yiling.

Luo Xiuen also came along. Initially, everyone tried to convince her not to come. However, Luo Xiuen insisted on being here.

And thus, they could only ask Jian Yumin to accompany her. Just in case her temper flared up, there would at least be Jian Yumin to stop her.

As everyone was finally here, the competition officially began.

Chen Lin and Jian Yiheng stood at the center of the arena.

A contemptuous smile appeared on Chen Lin’s face as he said: “Young man, don’t blame me for bullying you when you lose.”

“I won’t,” Jian Yiheng calmly replied. “The winner is king. The loser shouldn’t have any complaints.”

Chapter 1302: Martial Arts Contest (3)

“Good, good!” Chen Lin commented. He still appreciated Jian Yiheng’s attitude.

Before the competition began, in order to not permanently injure someone, both sides were not permitted to use weapons. This meant they could only use kung fu.

Chen Lin immediately threw a fierce punch toward Jian Yiheng. This punch packed tremendous power and speed.

However, Jian Yiheng quickly dodged it.

Then, Chen Lin continued to attack Jian Yiheng. His moves were strange and varied.

As his punches and kicks were incredibly fierce, Jian Yiheng always had to react quickly.

Despite this, Jian Yiheng’s movements were also dexterous and powerful.

While defending and dodging, Jian Yiheng looked for opportunities to counterattack.

However, as Chen Lin's attacks were so fierce, Jian Yiheng's counterattack barely had any effect. It was akin to throwing a stone into a river.

"Bam..."

A kick landed on the floor.

This made everyone gasp.

"Look! The floor is cracked!"

.....

"I heard that the floors here are made of solid wood! I can't believe it just broke like that!"

"If that kick landed on Jian Yiheng's leg, his bones would have definitely broken into two."

"Elder Chen definitely earned his respect in the martial arts community! He's way too strong! I feel awed just looking at him."

There were also people broadcasting the competition live on the dark web.

There were quite a few people watching, and most of them had placed bets on this match.

Some of them were even more excited than those who were there in person.

[Elder Chen has not lost his touch! He's incredible! Look at those punches! With that much force, even if he punched a steel plate, he would definitely leave a dent!]

[Elder Chen truly deserves his reputation!]

[But Jian Yiheng is not too shabby either. He's been fighting Elder Chen for five minutes and he hasn't lost yet. His moves are not just for show. However, it's a shame he still won't be able to win.]

[As someone from the younger generation, Jian Yiheng is doing quite well. However, it's a pity that his opponent was Chen Lin. Chen Lin is a man who only suffered one loss in the entirety of his career.]

[I wonder what will happen to Jian Yiheng after he loses today. I hope he won't be depressed.]

Currently, Jian Yiheng was on the losing end.

This was the toughest battle that Jian Yiheng had fought so far.

Chen Lin truly earned his reputation. He was someone who had been in multiple fights over his lifetime. His kungfu had reached the point of perfection.

Even though Jian Yiheng had mentally prepared himself for this, he was still surprised by the difference in their skill level.

However, Jian Yiheng did not feel afraid. Instead, a look of excitement appeared on his face.

It had been a long time since he had met such an opponent.

It had also been a while since he encountered such a difficult battle.

When Chen Lin sensed Jian Yiheng's excitement, his gaze darkened. Jian Yiheng was much more difficult to deal with than he had expected.

Furthermore, this man was only in his twenties. If he was given a bit more time to hone his skills, maybe he would lose this competition.

And the most frightening thing was that this young man seemed to be born for fighting.

Even though Jian Yiheng got punched twice and he was always on the losing end, instead of showing tiredness, he was becoming more and more excited.

Chen Lin only encountered a few of these people during his lifetime.

He immediately knew that he could not give Jian Yiheng a chance to breathe.

And thus, Chen Lin decided to not hold back anymore. He used a hundred percent of his abilities and launched a more aggressive attack on Jian Yiheng.

Chapter 1303: Martial Arts Contest (4)

When Chen Lin did this, everyone immediately realized that he was previously holding back.

Jian Yiheng immediately became overwhelmed.

After exchanging a few blows, Jian Yiheng staggered a bit.

However, Jian Yiheng was not someone who would easily admit defeat.

Even after getting kicked, he did not retreat. Instead, he became more bloodthirsty and excited.

This guy was insane!

Usually, the more people fought, the more tired they would become. However, Jian Yiheng was the exact opposite!

Chen Lin also keenly perceived Jian Yiheng's growth during the fight.

He was learning!

This guy became stronger when he was fighting a stronger opponent!

His potential was terrifying!

Fortunately, Chen Lin met Jian Yiheng when he was young. He hadn't yet grown to a point where he could not handle him.

Otherwise, it would be difficult to determine the winner of the martial arts contest today. If he lost, it would be truly embarrassing.

.....

Chen Lin cared a lot about his reputation. After that loss, he refused to lose to anyone again.

He still remembered how everyone looked at him after he lost.

He lost to that person called the Black Demon King.

That loss was a stain on his career. Every time he thought of it, it made him feel ashamed.

Chen Lin told himself that he would never make the same mistake again.

When the Jian family looked at Jian Yiheng, they felt incredibly anxious. Even though he was spitting out blood, he refused to admit defeat.

As Luo Xiuen watched the fight, she was about to get up to drag Jian Yiheng away: "He's an absolute fool. There's nothing wrong with losing. Just admit defeat! Why are you staying there just to get beaten?!"

Before today's martial arts contest, the Jian family had discussed countermeasures.

It was within their expectations that Jian Yiheng would lose.

After all, they analyzed Chen Lin's previous fights and knew that it was unlikely for him to beat Chen Lin with his current abilities.

Jian Yumin also watched anxiously. However, he had to stop his wife from rushing over: "This is Yiheng's match. We need to respect him. He knows what he's doing."

Upon hearing this, Luo Xiuen stomped her foot angrily: "If he gets too excited, he will forget about the pain and everything! He will forget how to think!"

Jian Yiheng had a bruised nose and a swollen face. Why was he still fighting?!

As she said this, Luo Xiuen forgot that she acted the same way when her temper flared up. She was not any better than Jian Yiheng.

On the other hand, the members of the Loyalty Alliance were all secretly celebrating.

"It's true that Jian Yiheng can't win against Elder Chen," Sheng Yingying commented smugly.

"Don't be happy too soon. Wait until Zhai Yunsheng also loses," Qu Zhen replied. Compared to Sheng Yingying, Qu Zhen was calmer.

"Isn't Jian Yiheng stronger than Zhai Yunsheng?"

"It's hard to say. Previously, Jian Yiheng was definitely stronger than Zhai Yunsheng. However, from the looks of Zhai Yunsheng's last match, he appeared to have a breakthrough. This means he's much stronger," Qu Zhen commented. He didn't want to underestimate Zhai Yunsheng.

"Well, let's wait and see," Sheng Yingying replied. She had full of confidence in Chen Lin.

The outcome would be the same. It didn't matter whether Chen Lin was fighting Jian Yiheng or Zhai Yunsheng.

Jane Yiheng was still getting beaten. His body was getting covered in bruises and there was blood in the corner of his mouth.

It's heartbreaking to watch.

However, Jian Yiheng himself seemed to be addicted to fighting.

As long as he did not admit defeat or he was not knocked to the ground, the martial arts contest would continue.

His body would continue to be smacked by Chen Lin.

"That's enough! He's lost!" A soft voice interrupted the martial arts contest.

Then, Jian Yiling said to Jian Yiheng who was on the verge of madness: "If you keep fighting, you won't be able to eat with a dislocated jaw."

Chapter 1304: Admit Defeat

Jian Yiling's soft voice pulled Jian Yiheng back to reality.

He was indeed overly excited.

After all, it had been a long time since he had met a worthy opponent and this made him very excited.

However, his sister's words to stop were timely. If he continued to fight, his body would not be able to take many more hits.

And thus, Jian Yiheng withdrew his hand and said: "I admit defeat."

As soon as he conceded defeat, the Jian family immediately rushed to the center of the arena to help him stand.

"I'm fine," Jian Yiheng said to them. Even if he was covered with wounds, Jian Yiheng would not fall down in front of his own family.

"You don't have to pretend to be strong. If you pretend to be strong, you will be left without food for days! We will eat whilst you watch!" Luo Xiuen angrily scolded.

Other than Grandma Jian, the only person who dared to reprimand the Jian brothers like that was Luo Xiuen.

Then, several people carried Jian Yiheng off the arena.

As Chen Lin watched this, he let out a sigh of relief.

Even though he appeared calm, his heart was beating rapidly.

Most people around him assumed Chen Lin won this martial arts contest very easily. This was just as they had anticipated.

.....

In their eyes, Jian Yiheng was no match for Chen Lin.

Despite being anxious for moments in the fight, Chen Lin did not forget to mock Jian Yiheng: "How dare you challenge me with just that? I don't think you're suitable for martial arts. If you want to win against me, you need to crawl back into your mother's womb and be born again. Maybe then, you would have a chance."

Chen Lin wanted to break Jian Yiheng's will. He wanted him to feel defeated so he would not continue to practice martial arts in the future. This way, he would have one less opponent.

"You talk too much!" Luo Xiuen hissed at Chen Lin. "You don't get to speak like that just because you won! We gracefully admitted defeat!"

Jian Yiling said to Jian Yiheng: "Don't listen to him. You're not weak."

Jian Yiheng was not a mentally weak individual. Naturally, he would not fall into depression just because he lost a martial arts contest.

Rather, there was now a fire burning in his heart. It was a fire that hadn't burnt for a long time.

Before this, he felt incredibly bored. He didn't have anyone to fight against.

However, being defeated gave him more motivation.

"Don't forget the dinner you promised me," Jian Yiheng said to Jian Yiling.

"Mhmm."

If he was able to say that, it meant that he was truly fine.

The rest of the Jian family was relieved to hear this.

Then, Chen Lin's gaze turned towards Zhai Yunsheng's body and asked him condescendingly: "Are you still sure you want to fight with me?"

After watching that match, it was highly likely that Zhai Yunsheng was scared. Therefore, it was possible for him to go back on his words.

"I'm sure," Zhai Yunsheng replied with certainty.

"It looks like you have the same problem as your wife's brother. You both sorely overestimate your capabilities."

"Well, we come from the same family after all," Zhai Yunsheng replied.

"Then you should speak to the woman in your family first. If their hearts ache because you get hurt, they might call for you to stop fighting again," Chen Lin sneered.

"If they ask me to admit defeat, I will definitely listen," Zhai Yunsheng replied.

"I never expected the Young Master of the Zhai family to be so submissive to a woman. I wonder if this is because you love your wife or whether it's because you can't offend the person who is providing you money," Chen Lin commented sarcastically. Chen Lin implied that Zhai Yunsheng was relying on Jian Yiling for everything.

Upon hearing this comment, Zhai Yunsheng merely smiled. He did not bother to say anything.

"Do you need to take a break?" Zhai Yunsheng asked Chen Lin.

“Tch, the fight just now was nothing. It was akin to drinking a sip of water. When I exercise, I usually put in ten times the effort. That fight did not affect me in the slightest,” Chen Lin replied with disdain.

His words showed complete disregard for the fight he had with Jian Yiheng just now.

Chapter 1305: Invincible Master Sheng (1)

The Jian family retreated to the side to watch the match between Zhai Yunsheng and Chen Lin.

After they left the arena, the martial arts match officially began.

There was a sneer on Chen Lin’s face.

He knew that Zhai Yunsheng was somewhat skilled at martial arts. Sheng Yingying and Qu Zhen told him about this.

He even knew that Zhai Yunsheng defeated someone from the Hidden Blade Clan. However, this was not because Zhai Yunsheng was incredible. Rather, it was because the Hidden Blade Clan had taken steps backward.

Everyone watching the battle was incredibly nervous.

This was especially the case for the members of the Loyalty Alliance.

Naturally, they wanted Chen Lin to win. If Chen Lin won, it would be impossible for Zhai Yunsheng to make a comeback.

Not only would he lose a plot of land worth more than 30 billion dollars, but he would also lose respect amongst his peers in Beijing.

And once this news was spread in Beijing, Zhai Yunsheng would never be able to claw back his reputation.

The Jian family also watched the match anxiously.

Even though they discussed this matter previously, they couldn’t help but feel worried for Zhai Yunsheng.

After all, this person won against Jian Yiheng. Would Zhai Yunsheng really be able to win against him?

.....

What if Zhai Yunsheng lost as well?

In the eyes of the Jian family, losing 30 billion dollars was a small problem. However, Jian Yiheng being left to Chen Lin’s disposal was a big problem.

If the money was lost, they could earn it again. However, if something happened to Jian Yiheng, there would be no turning back.

Chen Lin made the first move, He wanted a quick battle. Therefore, he didn’t want to waste any time.

Furthermore, during the fight with Jian Yiheng, he had already revealed his full strength. This meant that there was no need to hide his strength when fighting against Zhai Yunsheng.

In his mind, Zhai Yunsheng would not be able to keep up with his strength and speed.

However, the reality was completely different from his expectations.

To everyone's surprise, even after a series of attacks, Zhai Yunsheng did not get hit. Even Jian Yiheng got hit by these attacks.

Zhai Yunsheng managed to completely counter Chen Lin's moves. On top of this, he went around to Chen Lin's back and landed a solid punch.

Chen Lin, everyone watching the martial art match in person, and the viewers watching through the live broadcast were all shocked. They did not expect this to happen.

How could Zhai Yunsheng do this? Wasn't he meant to be a playboy who didn't know how to do anything?

This wasn't normal!

Upon seeing the scene in front of him, Qin Chuan frowned slightly.

He had always known that Zhai Yunsheng knew some kung fu.

Furthermore, when Zhai Yunsheng returned from the southwest, people from the Loyalty Alliance had told him that Zhai Yunsheng's fighting skills became more refined than before.

And thus, even though he psychologically prepared himself, Qin Chuan realized that he had severely underestimated Zhai Yunsheng's abilities.

He did not expect Zhai Yunsheng to be so different from the person he remembered from his previous life.

Chen Lin was also confused for a moment. This feeling...

During this moment of confusion, Zhai Yunsheng continued to launch a series of attacks.

Chen Lin hurriedly defended.

However, to his horror, Chen Lin quickly discovered that Zhai Yunsheng was stronger than Jian Yiheng. He was stronger than Jian Yiheng in terms of speed, strength, and even variation of moves.

And these moves were familiar... It was not his first time encountering such moves...

The crowd went from shock at the beginning to excitement.

Some people couldn't help but exclaim:

"Zhai Yunsheng is insane!"

"Who said he was just a pretty boy? How can there be such a powerful pretty boy?!"

"Who called him a loser? Who called him a playboy?"

Chapter 1306: Invincible Master Sheng (2)

"What kind of loser would be able to do this? That's probably the biggest misconception about him!"

“If he can win against Elder Chen, Zhai Yunsheng is absolutely insane! Why has he been hiding his talent and skills?”

“The young master of the Zhai family is really deep in hiding!”

“He might look like an ordinary individual but his martial art skills are quite profound!”

Everyone watching the live broadcast also had the same thoughts. Some of them even began to spread the news to their friends. Others began to comment:

[When did Zhai Yunsheng become this strong? Wasn't it rumored that he was sick?]

[It wasn't a rumor. He was indeed sick. This was a secret that the Zhai family had been carefully guarding.]

[Apparently, during the two years Jian Yiling went missing, some people said that he was dead or near the brinks of death. What kind of nonsense is that? From the looks of it, he probably went to learn martial arts from someone!]

[He seems quite healthy right now. How did he get better?]

[Jian Yiling probably cured him. Didn't you say that Jian Yiling was a very good doctor?]

[Well, even if Jian Yiling didn't cure him, someone in Lahaisen Hospital probably did. Lahaisen Hospital truly lives up to its reputation. I heard that Zhai Yunsheng's condition was congenital. In all these years, no one has managed to cure him.]

In contrast to everyone else's excitement, members of the Loyalty Alliance began to feel nervous.

How could this happen?

.....

Would Elder Chen actually be defeated by Zhai Yunsheng?

Sheng Yingying nervously asked Qu Zhen: “Mr. Qu, what's going on? How did Zhai Yunsheng become so strong?”

Qu Zhen frowned as he replied: “I told you about this earlier. He was already very strong when he fought against the Hidden Blade Clan.”

“This can't be happening,” Sheng Yingying stammered. She still didn't want to accept the reality in front of her. “He can't possibly win against Elder Chen! Elder Chen has never lost before!”

“No, he has lost once,” Qu Zhen corrected Sheng Yingying. “And even though it was only once, it still proves that someone can defeat Elder Chen. We shouldn't have ignored that slim possibility.”

Upon hearing this, Sheng Yingying's face turned white.

Then, when she turned to look at Chen Lin, a sense of fear overwhelmed her.

In the middle of the arena, Zhai Yunsheng ruthlessly attacked Chen Lin. He was like a living nightmare.

For some reason, it seemed as though she could foresee how this man would take revenge against the Loyalty Alliance. She could foresee how this man would take revenge on her.

Chen Lin's forehead was filled with beads of sweat.

He felt both surprised and afraid.

He was surprised by Zhai Yunsheng's strength and he was afraid of losing the match.

He was even more afraid of the situation he would face after defeat.

For decades, he was known to be the best fighter in the martial arts community.

He did not want to fall off that pedestal today.

And thus, Chen Lin desperately wanted to attack back. He wanted to find an opportunity to reverse the situation.

However, Zhai Yunsheng's attacks were too fierce. There was not a single crack in his moves.

On the defense, Chen Lin took a dozen punches in a row.

His face and body were peppered with injuries.

There was blood on the corner of his mouth.

Just now, one of Zhai Yunsheng's punches knocked out one of his posterior molars.

For the first time in decades, he was getting beaten up.

In the past, this only happened when he was fighting against the Black Demon King.

Chen Lin couldn't defend against these attacks.

Even though he did not want to admit defeat, his body could no longer support him.

And thus, after receiving another kick from Zhai Yunsheng, Chen Lin fell down and landed solidly on the wooden floor of the arena.

After a countdown of ten seconds, Chen Lin could not get up.

Chen Lin was defeated.

He suffered a complete and utter loss.

As Chen Lin laid on the ground, his entire body felt dazed.

Even though his body had been beaten to the point where he couldn't move, his consciousness was still there.

When he thought about his defeat, Chen Lin felt that it would be best for him to just faint there.

Chapter 1307: Three Conditions (1)

This was the second time in Chen Lin's life where he tasted failure.

And this time around, the defeat was a heavier blow to him than the first.

Back then, he was still young. Back then, he ended up losing to a legendary figure. This made the loss much less humiliating.

However now, his identity was different. Therefore, this loss meant much more than before.

The glory and honor he accumulated through many battles were all destroyed in this one moment.

Chen Lin fell to the ground. He sensed the looks people were giving him.

There was surprise, sympathy, and mockery...

There was no more respect, worship, and admiration....

He had fallen from his pedestal...

This defeat was unacceptable to Chen Lin.

This mental blow felt far worse than his physical injuries.

The faces of everyone from the Loyalty Alliance were pale with shock.

Chen Lin had lost.

.....

Their plan to use Chen Lin to suppress Zhai Yunsheng was a complete failure.

Not only did they fail to suppress Zhai Yunsheng, but they even created momentum for him.

What were they meant to do now?

Sheng Yingying tugged on Qu Zhen's arm as she stressfully said: "Mr. Qu, think of a solution!:"

"What can I do?" Qu Zhen replied. What could he possibly do right now?

"Don't panic. Mr. Qin is still on our side," Zhong Baiyun reassured Sheng Yingying.

After all, Zhai Yunsheng's biggest opponent was Qin Chuan. As long as Qin Chuan was still around, Zhai Yunsheng could not easily make a comeback.

As they were in an alliance with Qin Chuan, if Zhai Yunsheng wanted to take revenge on them, he still had to deal with Qin Chuan.

Sheng Yingying could only comfort herself in this way.

Surely Qin Chuan could deal with Zhai Yunsheng!

Qin Chuan stared at Zhai Yunsheng.

He knew that the Zhai Yunsheng in front of him was completely different from the playboy in their previous lives.

After all, he and Jian Yiling strayed from their previous paths. And thus, why did he assume Zhai Yunsheng would remain the same?

Qin Chuan wondered what would happen to them in this life.

By now, Chen Lin's subordinates walked over to help him stand up.

Chen Lin struggled to get up.

His body trembled uncontrollably because of the pain.

Right now, Chen Lin only had one thought in his mind. He wanted to hurriedly leave this place.

He did not want to face the eyes of the people looking at him.

"Why are you rushing to leave? You promised to do three things for me," Zhai Yunsheng called out after Chen Lin.

Upon hearing this, Chen Lin could only stop in his tracks. He turned around and reluctantly asked Zhai Yunsheng: "What do you want me to do?"

Even if he was reluctant, Chen Lin did not intend on going back on his word. He would do what he promised.

Losing was already humiliating enough. If he failed to keep his word on top of this, then he would truly become the laughing stock in Beijing.

Zhai Yunsheng said to Chen Lin: "Firstly, you will no longer make Jian Yiheng do anything."

This condition was reasonable. After all, Zhai Yunsheng loved his wife dearly. This meant he would definitely care for his brother-in-law as well.

"Okay," Chen Lin hurriedly promised.

After all, he couldn't say no to this.

Furthermore, this could be easily achieved. Chen Lin was just scared to hear Zhai Yunsheng's other demands. Even if Zhai Yunsheng asked for something that was excessive and impossible, he could not refuse to do it.

What if Zhai Yunsheng wanted his entire fortune?

He was already very old. It would be impossible for him to start all over again.

"Secondly, I want you to clear your relationship with the Loyalty Alliance. From now on, you're not allowed to help them."

"And finally, in the future, you must not become enemies with the Jian family or the Zhai family. You must not do anything that will harm our interests."

Chapter 1308: Three Conditions (2)

Upon hearing Zhai Yunsheng's words, Chen Lin stared at him incredulously: "You're... Asking me not to be enemies with you...?"

He expected Zhai Yunsheng to ask him to hand over his entire fortune.

And thus, Chen Lin was surprised to hear these unexpected requests.

Even if Zhai Yunsheng asked for his entire fortune, he would not be able to say no.

Everyone else was also surprised by Zhai Yunsheng's requests.

He could easily ask for that money! Why didn't he want it? Was he not short on money or something?

For some reason, the story about Zhai Yunsheng relying on Jian Yiling for money seemed like a joke now.

"Can you promise that?" Zhai Yunsheng asked.

"Yes, of course," Chen Lin hastily agreed.

He was afraid of Zhai Yunsheng going back on his word.

After hearing this response, Zhai Yunsheng walked over to the audience and took Jian Yiling's hand.

"Come on, let's go home."

"Okay," Jian Yiling replied with a nod. Then, she followed Zhai Yunsheng out of Jingxin Court.

.....

Everyone quietly watched the leave.

Most people were still in shock that Zhai Yunsheng had won the competition.

After a while, people began to leave one after another.

However, all of them knew that after this match, Zhai Yunsheng's name meant something completely different.

As expected, less than an hour after the martial arts match, almost everyone heard about the result.

Everyone was shocked to hear this.

They never expected Zhai Yunsheng to be this talented at fighting.

This meant that even without the support of the Zhai family business, Zhai Yunsheng was a powerful being in his own right. He was not someone that should be underestimated.

Sheng Yingying and Qu Zhen's plans had the complete opposite effect of what they wanted.

And thus, the members of the Loyalty Alliance held an emergency meeting after the martial arts match.

Despite discussing how to handle this matter for an entire afternoon, they did not come to a conclusion.

In the end, they could only return to their respective homes in a worried and apprehensive mood.

###

Jian Yiheng hurriedly went to look for Zhai Yunsheng before medicine could even be applied to his injuries.

“Brother, please don’t rush away. You need to bandage this up. If you don’t disinfect your injuries, they will get infected,” Jian Yichen said to his brother. He tried to stop Jian Yiheng.

However, even if Jian Yiheng was injured, Jian Yichen could not stop him.

Jian Yiheng rushed over to Zhai Yunsheng’s apartment.

“Brother!” Jian Yichen desperately called out as he watched Jian Yiheng barge into Zhai Yunsheng’s apartment with a dangling bloodied gauze.

Jian Yiling was currently checking Zhai Yunsheng’s body to see if he had any injuries.

Although Zhai Yunsheng said he was not injured, Jian Yiling insisted on checking before she could rest assured.

Zhai Yunsheng was happy to let Jian Yiling check up on his body. He took off his shirt for her to see.

Unfortunately, Jian Yiheng barged in at this moment.

“What are you doing?” Zhai Yunsheng asked. There was a slightly unhappy expression on his face.

“I want to speak to you about something.”

Despite seeing the scene in front of him, Jian Yiheng did not feel embarrassed at all. He insisted on speaking to Zhai Yunsheng alone.

“Just say it here,” Zhai Yunsheng replied. He already somewhat guessed the reason why Jian Yiheng was looking for him.

“I want to fight you,” Jian Yiheng stated.

Ahh, as expected.

Zhai Yunsheng’s fighting skills were spectacular to watch.

However, in Jian Yiheng’s eyes, he saw a new opponent. He saw someone else that he wanted to challenge.

And from now on, his life goal was to defeat Zhai Yunsheng.

Chapter 1309: Listen to Your Sister’s Words (1)

“No!” Jian Yiling said with a frown on her face.

Upon hearing this, an amused smile appeared on Zhai Yunsheng’s face. He replied lazily: “Did you hear that? Go back and disinfect your wounds. Get some rest so Yiling won’t have to worry about you.”

Jian Yiling nodded to Zhai Yunsheng’s words.

“Get rest and recuperate. No running around,” Jian Yiling ordered with a serious expression on her face.

“Alright, let’s not fight today. Let’s fight tomorrow, the day after that, and the many days after that as well.”

Jian Yiheng was willing to wait a few days.

“No fighting for an entire month,” Jian Yiling instructed.

However, Jian Yiheng was not willing to wait an entire month. In fact, he wanted to fight against Zhai Yunsheng right away.

Jian Yiheng rarely listened to other people. However, this time, he tried to bargain with Jian Yiling:

“Yiling, Zhai Yunsheng, and I are both in good health. We don’t need to rest for that long.

“Two months,” Jian Yiling said. Instead of yielding, she extended the time to two months.

“Yiling...” Jian Yiheng pleaded. He didn’t expect his sister to be so unyielding. She was usually easily convinced.

Unlike Jian Yiheng, Zhai Yunsheng would definitely listen to Jian Yiling.

If she said a month, he would definitely rest for at least 30 days.

.....

And thus, without Jian Yiling’s permission, Jian Yiheng would not get the opportunity to fight against Zhai Yunsheng.

On top of this, Jian Yiheng did not dare to offend Jian Yiling. If he offended her, his future meals would...

“It’s not up for debates,” Jian Yiling said firmly.

“Okay, I agree with a month then,” Jian Yiheng conceded.

When Jian Yichen saw this, his anxious expression turned into a smirk.

This was hilarious to see.

What was the point in acting like this? In the end, he still had to listen to Yiling!

Jian Yiheng turned around and glared at Jian Yichen. Even though he couldn’t do anything to Yiling, he could still do something to his brother.

Despite his injuries, he could still bully him.

Jian Yichen started to complain to Jian Yiling: “Yiling, look at my brother! When I was trying to disinfect his wounds, he just ran away! Why is he such a disobedient patient? Such a patient doesn’t deserve good food right? So why don’t you give me his share of bullfrogs tonight? You can also give me that soup you were cooking for the entire afternoon!”

“Okay, it’s yours,” Jian Yiling agreed.

No food for the disobedient patient.

“Hehe,” Jian Yichen smiled gleefully.

The expression on Jian Yiheng’s face became uglier.

His icy gaze fell on his brother’s body. It seemed like he wanted to beat him to death.

However, Jian Yichen was already hiding behind Jian Yiling.

Zhai Yunsheng said in amusement: "I'm a well-behaved person. I should get more food."

"That's true," Jian Yiling replied.

"He's not injured though," Jian Yiheng said in dissatisfaction.

Why does he get to drink that soup if he's not injured?

"That's exactly why I'm well-behaved. And didn't we discuss this before the martial arts match? If you can't win against Chen Lin, you would admit your defeat. However, you stayed there and suffered many injuries because of your decision," Zhai Yunsheng lazily said.

It was agreed on beforehand that if Jian Yiheng knew he couldn't win, he would admit his defeat. Then, Zhai Yunsheng would deal with Chen Lin.

Despite agreeing to this, Jian Yiheng was swept away by his excitement. He refused to stop fighting. In the end, Jian Yiling had to call for a stop.

"Yep," Jian Yiling agreed again.

Suddenly, Jian Yiheng had nothing to say.

He lost the fight and he didn't have dinner to eat...

"Sit down. Your wounds need to be disinfected," Jian Yiling said to Jian Yiheng.

Jian Yichen quickly seconded: "Yes, yes. Your wounds should be disinfected immediately."

Chapter 1310: Listen to Your Sister's Words (2)

Jian Yichen would always rely on Jian Yiling whenever he wanted to bully his brother. After all, his brother could not beat him up if Jian Yiling was there. However, he did not think about what would happen afterward when Jian Yiling was no longer there.

There was a tense expression on Jian Yiheng's face.

If it was anyone else, they would be scared by this look on Jian Yiheng's face.

However, Jian Yiling was not scared.

Under Jian Yiling's watchful eye, Jian Yiheng sat down obediently and accepted the reality that he was now an injured patient who had to follow medical advice.

Jian Yichen was about to take off Jian Yiheng's shirt to apply medicine when Zhai Yunsheng interrupted:

"Yiling, head into the study room for now. I will supervise what's happening here."

Even though Jian Yiheng was Jian Yiling's cousin and even though only the upper half of Jian Yiheng's body was going to be naked, Zhai Yunsheng still did not want Jian Yiling to look at another man's body.

It didn't matter if it was her cousin or brother!

After Jian Yiling entered the study room, Zhai Yunsheng allowed Jian Yiheng to take off his shirt.

As Jian Yichen disinfected Jian Yiheng's wounds and applied medicine to the injuries, he couldn't help but comment: "Brother-in-law, my sister has to perform surgeries on people. She can't just perform surgeries on someone's head, hands, or feet. At times, she'll have to perform surgeries on their upper body and even their lower body.

Zhai Yunsheng replied: "Well, it doesn't count if she's cutting them open."

After all, during surgery, she would be focusing on their blood vessels, nerves, blood, and flesh.

.....

"But what if it's a surgery for infertility? There's a variety of surgeries for urology..." Jian Yichen continued to ask. He was undeterred by Zhai Yunsheng's response. He wanted to see a defeated look on Zhai Yunsheng's face.

"It's not like she's the only surgeon at Lahaisen Hospital," Zhai Yunsheng coldly replied. He didn't want her to accept such operations.

When he thought about the possibility of Jian Yiling having to do that kind of surgery for another man in the future, Zhai Yunsheng's face became gloomy.

When Jian Yichen saw the expression on Zhai Yunsheng's face, he knew that his words had an effect on him. He began to internally laugh.

He was happy whenever Zhai Yunsheng was unhappy.

When Jian Yichen finished applying medicine to Jian Yiheng's wounds and injuries, Jian Yiling walked out of the study room. Zhai Yunsheng immediately mentioned this topic to Jian Yiling.

"Oh, that doesn't matter. I've performed surgery on those parts in the past," Jian Yiling replied honestly.

"But that's in the past... Don't do it in the future! It's... Not allowed!" Zhai Yunsheng could not change the past. However, he did not want this to happen in the future!

"Why?" Jian Yiling asked.

When she was performing surgery, what lay in front of Jian Yiling was merely a lump of flesh. She would never feel anything about it.

In fact, before Zhai Yunsheng, Jian Yiling felt like every man's body was the same.

They were merely healthy or unhealthy. In her mind, she did not differentiate them as good-looking or bad-looking.

"I will be jealous."

Because of Jian Yiling's limited reading comprehension abilities, Zhai Yunsheng simply stated his thoughts.

"But my heart will only beat faster when I look at your body. This doesn't happen when I look at someone else's body," Jian Yiling explained.

Upon hearing this, Zhai Yunsheng's pursed lips suddenly had a distinct curve.

“Does your heart only beat faster?” Zhai Yunsheng asked as he walked closer to Jian Yiling.

“And... Also...”

He was too close to her. Her heart was beating incredibly fast again.

“Do you also have other thoughts...?” Zhai Yunsheng asked.

“What... thoughts...”

“What you were taught before,” Zhai Yunsheng replied. He guided Jian Yiling’s thoughts to remember what happened before.

“I... I’m going to ignore you!” Jian Yiling cried out as she turned around to run away.
