

Sidekick 1401

Chapter 1401: Wasn't Your Data Destroyed?

Half an hour after injecting the drug into the sick mice, several of the mice began to twitch and have a negative reaction.

The instruments connected to the mice also displayed drastic fluctuations in their physical indicators. The reaction was quite violent and the overall situation was not good for Jian Yiling's research team.

Initially, everyone was looking forward to Jian Yiling's demonstration.

However, when they saw this reaction, surprise and awkwardness appeared on everyone's faces.

"Yiling..." Yun Song started with a frown on his face. He seemed rather hesitant to speak.

He didn't want to see this happen.

He didn't want to see her fail.

In contrast, a smile appeared on Zhang Xin's face. He walked over to Jian Yiling and sneered: "Wow, I almost thought you were capable of achieving something. In fact, I was rather surprised in the first place to hear you achieved research results before me. I mean, aren't you the Dean of Lahaisen Hospital? Shouldn't you be more cautious and disciplined with your research? You should know if there are problems with your own research results. I can't believe you decided to make this demonstration in front of everyone else."

Upon hearing these comments, Jian Yiling looked at Zhang Xin calmly and replied: "Don't be too happy so soon."

"Happy so soon? Are you saying you have something else ridiculous to show me? Well, there's no need to show me. This joke of a demonstration was already funny enough to watch," Zhang Xin replied with a smug look on his face.

Several people from the national medical institution wanted to defend Jian Yiling against Zhang Xin's words. However, they did not know what to say.

After all, there indeed was a problem with Jian Yiling's research results.

As Zhang Xin continued to laugh loudly, the sick mice in the experiment suddenly stopped convulsing and twitching wildly.

The physical indicators of the mice began to normalize as well.

Upon seeing this, the smile on Zhang Xin's face disappeared bit by bit...

What was going on?

How could this be happening?

Zhang Xin repeatedly confirmed if the indicators of the mice began to proceed according to Jian Yiling's initial predictions.

"No way. This must be a coincidence. Their indicators were clearly abnormal just now! How could they suddenly normalize? This must be a coincidence!"

A confident smile appeared on Luo Xiuen's face as she said: "You think this is a coincidence? Then why don't you have a look at the other mice as well?"

"Don't you worry about that! I will definitely have a look!" Zhang Xin growled.

Zhang Xin was no longer laughing. All the nerves on his face began to twitch.

"Remember not to blink," Luo Xiuen suggested helpfully with a smile on her face.

The rest of the demonstration all went according to Jian Yiling's research team's expectations.

Their success made Zhang Xin's face turn three shades darker.

This was not the result he wanted to see!

After more than two hours, Jian Yiling's research team finished their demonstration.

All the results matched the report submitted by Jian Yiling's team.

This meant that it was already tentatively determined that Jian Yiling's team had won.

The next stage was to wait for the observation period to pass.

However, based on the current situation, nothing abnormal was expected to happen in the observation period.

Over time, Zhang Xin's face eventually became bloodless.

He stared at Jian Yiling in confusion.

"This is impossible. Your research data was destroyed a week ago. How did you create a complete research report in such a short span of time?"

Her report contained several complicated calculations and intricate data points. How could that be achieved in a week's time?

Chapter 1402: Get Lost

"You mean the research data that you destroyed?" Jian Yiling asked.

"What research data that I destroyed?" Zhang Xin responded. He refused to admit that he got someone to destroy Jian Yiling's research data. "Everyone knows what happened to your research lab. What proof do you have that I destroyed it?"

Upon hearing this response, Luo Xiuen sneered: “Yeah, that’s true. You’re not stupid enough to take matters into your own hands. However, at the same time, Yiling is not stupid enough to leave all the data in our research lab to be destroyed by you.”

Liu Ting elaborated on Luo Xiuen’s words with a smile: “Our Dean’s husband and brothers have long backed up all of our data. One of her brothers runs a technological company you know? They built a cloud for our research institute and all our data gets synchronized to the cloud for storage. Even if you burnt down the entire laboratory, we wouldn’t be missing a single word or a single data point.:

When Zhang Xin heard this explanation, his chest rose and fell violently.

He was furious!

He did not expect this to happen! He was meant to win!

Zhang Xin managed to calm down after a while.

“It’s a good thing that your data hasn’t been destroyed. However, that incident had nothing to do with me,” Zhang Xin replied through gritted teeth.

He knew he lost this competition. He did not expect Jian Yiling and the others to back up their data in a cloud.

However, he refused to admit that he destroyed Jian Yiling’s team’s research data. After all, why would he be that stupid?

Luo Xiuen questioned Zhang Xin: “Even though there’s no evidence to support our accusation, you need to know that if you don’t want someone to know something, you don’t do it in the first place. You’re a descendant of such a respected family. Why would you try to use such despicable tricks to win a competition? Do you not feel shame?”

Zhang Xin sneered when he heard this: “You’re arbitrarily accusing me without any evidence. Is this Lahaisen Hospital’s way of doing things?”

Liu Ting interrupted Luo Xiuen and Zhang Xin’s conversation. “Come on, let’s not talk about that. Instead, let’s talk about what happened today. There are no problems with our research. Furthermore, Mr. Qin Chuan sitting over there is the best evidence of our clinical results. You lost this competition. Therefore, you should behave yourself and get lost.

Zhang Xin clenched his teeth and said: “Good, good!”

Then, he turned his head to look at everyone else present today.

There were pitying expressions on their faces.

Zhang Xin could not stand those looks. He refused to stay there any longer so he quickly left the venue of the demonstration.

He did not want to know what was going to happen next.

However, Zhang Xin’s departure did not affect others. Everyone else only cared about Jian Yiling’s research results.

They began to ask Jian Yiling's team about the details.

In addition, suggestions were made for more follow-up research.

After some effort to escape these academics, Jian Yiling turned her head to look at Qin Chuan who was also looking at her.

"Thank you," Qin Chuan said.

Once again, she had saved him.

Jian Yiling gave a slight nod before she ran to the door.

Sure enough, Zhai Yunsheng was waiting outside the door.

When Jian Yiling saw him, she jumped into Zhai Yunsheng's arms.

Then, she buried her face in his chest.

"What's wrong?" Zhai Yunsheng asked as he looked down.

"I missed you."

"Hmm?"

"Since I saved him, I've completely changed our destinies right?"

"Yep. You've changed all our destinies."

Chapter 1403: Family Favorite (1)

Master Zhai, Grandma Jian, Grandpa Jian, Jian Yiling, and Jian Yujie were seated inside the Zhai Residence's living room. Jian Yujie was here because it was his turn to accompany his sister today.

Grandma Jian smiled as she looked at Jian Yiling's belly.

"My darling," Grandma Jian commented happily. She was overjoyed to see that Jian Yiling's belly had a slight bulge.

As she gently moved her hand over Jian Yiling's belly, Grandma Jian said: "If you give birth to an adorable darling just like you, I will be twice as happy!"

"Mhmm," Jian Yiling responded softly as she also moved her hand over her belly. She was very happy to know that there was Zhai Yunsheng's baby growing inside her womb. She looking forward to seeing him or her.

"Until the baby is born, you should stay home and accompany me," Grandma Jian solemnly "warned" Jian Yiling.

In order to find a cure for Qin Chuan, Jian Yiling went to work every day despite being pregnant. In fact, she hadn't taken a good break in months. Naturally, Grandma Jian did not want her granddaughter to be overexerted.

“Mhmm, A Sheng said the same thing.”

Last night, Zhai Yunsheng insisted that she needed to take some time off work. He made her promise that she would not go and work until roughly one month after childbirth.

“If you get bored in the next few days, I will ask your brothers to come over to amuse and entertain you in different ways. If they fail to do so, I will ask your grandfather to teach them a lesson. In addition, in the future, I won’t allow your baby to call them uncle.”

When Jian Yujie heard these words, he quietly thought to himself that his grandma was way too cruel.

Wasn’t that a bit too mean? What if Yiling had a baby girl?

“Grandma, don’t worry about that. I will perform new magic tricks for my sister every day!” Jian Yujie quickly vowed.

As a young magician who was already well-known in the industry, Jian Yujie did not take the opportunity to host a solo exhibition. Instead, he was happy to stay home and perform tricks for Yiling.

Master Zhai happily asked Jian Yiling: “Granddaughter-in-law, what would you like to eat today?”

Master Zhai recently hired ten chefs.

Each chef at least specialized in one kind of major cuisine.

Master Zhai hired these chefs so Jian Yiling could eat whatever she wanted at home.

For this reason, Master Zhai also purchased the villa beside the Zhai Residence.

Originally, Jian Yiling did not find it hard to make decisions. However, with all these options put in front of her, she did not know what to choose.

Grandpa Jian impatiently said to Master Zhai: “Old man, why are you forcing Yiling to make a decision?”

When they first interacted, Grandpa Jian treated Master Zhai with respect.

However, after some time, Grandpa Jian began to call Master Zhai “old man.”

Furthermore, from time to time, he would call Master Zhai out for being jealous and petty.

Jian Yiling was about to breathe a sigh of relief when she heard Grandpa Jian say: “You should have brought a menu over! How can she decide without a menu?”

“True!” Master Zhai cried out. “I will ask them to prepare a menu then!”

Then, Master Zhai clapped his hands and got up to head next door.

He was going to get them to list out dishes they specialized in.

If possible, he wanted photos for the menu as well.

As he thought about this, Master Zhai contacted Zhai Zhongshen and asked him to send over a professional photographer.

Chapter 1404: Family Favorite (2)

When Master Zhai called his son, Zhai Zhongshen was in a meeting with his senior management and executives.

Master Zhai did not call Zhai Zhongshen often. However today, he asked his son to send photographers his way as fast as possible.

Upon receiving this request, Zhai Zhongshen helplessly suspended his meeting and instructed his assistant to follow Master Zhai's orders.

A short while later, several photographers arrived at the Zhai Residence.

And an hour after that, a freshly made menu appeared in front of Jian Yiling.

The menu was definitely freshly made because it had been printed not long ago. Therefore, if you touched the paper, it would still be warm.

Each dish on the menu was also accompanied by an image and text.

When Jian Yiling saw the menu, she no longer knew how to make decisions.

Zhai Yunsheng came over and glanced at the menu in Jian Yiling's hands.

Jian Yiling immediately looked at him with helpless eyes.

The message in her eyes obviously stated: A Sheng, please help me. I don't know what to pick.

Originally, she assumed Zhai Yunsheng would help her. However, Jian Yiling's assumption was too naive. His comment initiated a verbal war.

"Don't eat Sichuan cuisine. It's too spicy. Your throat will feel uncomfortable."

Upon hearing this, Grandma Jian and Grandpa Jian immediately said: "What are you even saying? Baby girls like spicy foods whereas baby boys like sour foods. If she wants to eat spicy foods, it proves that she's going to have a daughter! If that's the case, how can you stop her from eating spicy foods?"

"There's no scientific basis for that," Zhai Yunsheng calmly replied.

Jian Yiling nodded when she heard this. There was indeed no scientific basis or proof for that comment.

"So what if there's no scientific basis? I gave birth to three sons! And every single time, I wanted to eat sour foods!" Grandma Jian exclaimed. She used her own personal experience as proof and evidence.

No one here had any experience in childbirth! Therefore, no one could argue against her words.

"I want to eat pickled fish," Jian Yiling interrupted.

"Ahh, why are you craving sour foods?" Grandma Jian commented sadly.

"That's incorrect! Pickled fish can be spicy as well!" Grandpa Jian hurriedly added.

It was hard to determine whether pickled fish was sour or spicy.

Grandma Jian hurriedly asked her granddaughter: “Darling, do you want the chefs to make you something sour or spicy?”

In her mind, Jian Yiling wanted to say sour.

However, she did not want her grandma to be disappointed.

When Master Zhai noticed Jian Yiling’s dilemma, he stated: ‘Well, we can just ask the chef to make two portions. One being sour and the other being spicy!’

Either way, Master Zhai was happy he was finally going to have a great-grandchild.

He didn’t care if it was a baby boy or girl.

In fact, he would be delighted if Jian Yiling gave birth to twins or triplets. In his mind, the more the merrier.

“But if she can’t finish eating everything, we’ll be wasting food,” Grandma Jian reminded.

“We won’t be wasting food. If she can’t finish eating everything, we can just ask her brothers to come over. And if they can’t finish, just call Yiheng over,” Grandpa Jian said. If Jian Yiheng came over, there wouldn’t be any leftovers.

Upon hearing this comment, the corners of Master Zhai’s lips twitched a bit. Were the Jian brothers adopted or something?

“It’s alright. You don’t have to call them over. We can just ask our servants to have some of the food as well,” Master Zhai said.

He didn’t want to trouble his granddaughter-in-law’s brothers.

“You don’t need to feel bad. They’ve eaten Yiling’s leftovers ever since they were young. By now, they’re used to it,” Grandpa Jian stated nonchalantly.

When Master Zhai heard this, he silently told himself that he wanted to say such a thing during his lifetime.

He wanted a group of great-grandchildren gathered around him. If his great-granddaughter couldn’t finish her food, he would order his great-grandsons to eat the leftovers.

Ah... Just thinking about such a scenario made him happy.

In fact, he wanted to impulse buy more toys! He was going to fill the entire house with toys!

Even though the bulge in Jian Yiling’s belly was still small, Master Zhai had already prepared two baby rooms.

Chapter 1405: Family Favorite (3)

One room was prepared for if Jian Yiling gave birth to a baby boy while the other room was prepared for if Jian Yiling gave birth to a baby girl.

However, the pile of gifts, toys, and clothes in the baby girl's room was much larger than the pile prepared for the baby boy's room.

This was because other than Master Zhai, everyone in the Jian family contributed to the baby girl's room.

This included the elders of the Jian family such as Grandma Jian and Grandpa Jian, all the Jian brothers, and even the youngest member of the Jian family, Jian Dan. They all assumed Jian Yiling's baby would be a girl and gifted accordingly.

And thus, the room prepared for a baby girl was filled to the brim.

"By the way, A Sheng, have you thought of a name for my?great-grandchild<sup>1</sup>?" Master Zhai asked as everyone sat together to drink tea after lunch.

"What do you mean by great-grandson? You should be saying great-granddaughter," Grandpa Jian corrected Master Zhai.

"The term great-grandchild is collective! It includes great-granddaughters as well," Master Zhai replied helplessly.

Grandma Jian paused for a moment before she suggested: "What about calling her Zhai?Nannan<sup>1</sup>?"

Grandpa Jian immediately replied: "Old woman, why would you suggest such a name? Aren't you from a scholarly family? Nannan is such an unsophisticated name. How could you possibly suggest that?"

When Grandma Jian heard this, she was not happy: "What are you saying? What's wrong with the name Nannan? And by sophisticated, do you want our great-granddaughter's name to have the characters?violet, rain, daybreak<sup>1</sup>, or some other complicated word?"

"Old woman, I didn't say that. You're just arguing against me for the sake of arguing!" Grandpa Jian replied with a grunt.

As Master Zhai listened to their conversation, he silently stood up and walked over to the window of the tea room. He looked out of the window and let out a long sigh.

"Ahh, dear wife, why did you leave me alone in this world? Even at this age, I have to watch other elderly couple's public displays of affection."

Upon hearing Master Zhai's words, Grandpa Jian and Grandma Jian hastily shut up. However, they kept glaring at each other.

Jian Yiling turned around and asked Zhai Yunsheng: "A Sheng, do you have a name in mind?"

Zhai Yunsheng replied: "We can call him or her Zhai?Erdan<sup>1</sup>."

As soon as Zhai Yunsheng said this, Master Zhai, Grandma Jian, and Grandpa Jian looked at him in unison.

Zhai Erdan? How could he come up with such a name?

This was his son or daughter!

“Brat! How could you come up with such an unpleasant name?” Master Zhai scolded Zhai Yunsheng.

Zhai Yunsheng calmly answered: “He or she is Yiling’s child. Erdan is a good name.”

He put quite a bit of thought into this name.

On behalf of Zhai Yunsheng, Jian Yiling explained the rationale behind the name to Master Zhai, Grandma Jian, and Grandpa Jian. “As my name is Yiling, A Sheng is suggesting my baby’s name to be Erling<sup>1</sup>.”

Zhai Yunsheng added: “In addition, the name Yiling in binary equals two. Therefore, your baby is two’s egg.”

There were two explanations for this “meaningful” name.

Master Zhai, Grandma Jian, and Grandpa Jian looked at each other in shock and confusion.

They could not keep up with the thought process of Jian Yiling and Zhai Yunsheng.

Despite this, Grandma Jian exclaimed: “I don’t like this name no matter how meaningful it is!”

Master Zhai and Grandpa Jian nodded their heads in unison.

When it came to this matter, the three of them were united on one front.

Their great-grandchild was not going to be called Erdan!

“It’s not a nice name,” Jian Yiling also said. She didn’t like the name either.

“Then, let’s call him or her Erbao<sup>1</sup>.”

If the word ‘dan’ wasn’t okay, it could be changed to ‘bao’.

As Zhai Yunsheng’s tone was very casual, it didn’t seem like he put much thought into his future child’s name.

When Master Zhai heard this, he said with disdain: “Brat, is this not your child? Give your child a proper name! Can you treat this matter a bit more seriously?!”

Chapter 1406: Family Favorite (4)

“You guys decide then. Don’t bother Yiling and I anymore,” Zhai Yunsheng replied somewhat impatiently.

Zhai Yunsheng did not want to think about this matter anymore. He didn’t want the three of them to disturb his alone time with Jian Yiling.

“You brat. Don’t mess around with Yiling! Be careful around my precious great-granddaughter!” Master Zhai yelled at Zhai Yunsheng.

This time, he learned to say great-granddaughter instead of great-grandchild. Otherwise, Grandma Jian and Grandpa Jian would once again pick a bone with him.

###

!!

The next day, Jian Yiling overslept and woke up at ten o'clock.

In the past, this was something that would not have happened to her.

However, after becoming pregnant, she became somewhat sleepy which made her sleep significantly more.

As soon as she opened her eyes, she saw Zhai Yunsheng looking at her. Jian Yiling did not know when Zhai Yunsheng had woken up.

"Why don't you get up if you're awake?" Jian Yiling asked.

"I don't want to disturb your sleep," Zhai Yunsheng replied. "You're also adorable when you're sleeping. That's why I wanted to watch you for a while."

Embarrassing...

Zhai Yunsheng was speaking nonsense again...

When Zhai Yunsheng saw Jian Yiling's flushed cheeks, he smiled gently. Even though she was about to become a mother, she still became shy so easily.

"What do you want to eat?" Zhai Yunsheng asked.

As of now, Jian Yiling would typically wake up and then eat. After eating, she would return to sleeping.

Therefore, the only thing she worried about every day was what to eat.

"I'm turning into a pig," Jian Yiling muttered quietly.

Despite living so many years, this was the first time Jian Yiling experienced such a lifestyle.

She was still not used to it.

Zhai Yunsheng smiled as he pinched Jian Yiling's cheeks: "It's okay to be a piggy. I'll fatten you up so I can devour you later."

"It's not good to be fat. It doesn't look good," Jian Yiling replied.

"Since when did you start caring about whether you look good or not?" Zhai Yunsheng asked curiously.

He didn't expect his wife to care about her appearance.

"Yufan told me that if I don't look good, you might like someone else."

Ahh, as expected, such things were taught by Qin Yufan.

That woman kept telling his wife such strange things.

"Don't listen to her. She has no experience in relationships. What can she possibly teach you?"

“But the Internet said so as well,” Jian Yiling replied. She also read posts on the Internet for love advice. “The Internet is full of nonsense. You shouldn’t take things you read on the Internet seriously.”

“So you don’t like my good looks?”

“I like it.”

“Then Yufan is not wrong.”

“But even if you don’t look good, I’ll still like you.”

“The Internet says not to trust the words of men. If you become ugly, their hearts will change. In addition, they said that one’s morals and values can change depending on how visually pleasing the other person is.”

Zhai Yunsheng took a look at the serious expression on Jian Yiling’s face before he started laughing.

What was she even thinking about in her spare time?

Morals and values change depending on how visually pleasing the other person is?

He gently knocked on Jian Yiling’s skull and said: “Don’t think about such strange things. If you really want to think about something, think about what you want to eat for breakfast. Our grandpa has already asked the chefs to prepare almost a hundred servings of breakfast.”

Nowadays, Master Zhai spent his entire time caring about his previous granddaughter-in-law. He had to ensure she ate nutritious and yummy food for every meal.

Upon hearing this, Jian Yiling got up in a hurry.

When she arrived downstairs, she saw dozens of plates on the long dining table.

When Master Zhai saw Jian Yiling, he happily said to her: “Yiling, did you get enough sleep last night? Are you still tired? If so, have some breakfast before you go and nap again.”

Master Zhai was really raising Jian Yiling like a piglet.

Then, he instructed his grandson to taste the dishes for Jian Yiling: “Go and taste the dishes. Pick something that Yiling will like to eat.”

Now that he had Yiling, his own grandson became a mere taste tester.

Chapter 1407: Family Favorite (5)

Zhai Yunsheng did as he was told and taste-tested the dishes for Jian Yiling. He did not mind doing this.

Anything too salty, spicy, sweet, or fishy could not be given to Jian Yiling to eat.

“Take a bite of this,” Zhai Yunsheng said as he picked up a small morsel and placed it on Jian Yiling’s plate.

He attempted to assure that Jian Yiling ate a bit of everything. He wanted her to have a balanced diet.

Jian Yichen was accompanying Jian Yiling today. He refused to be outdone by Zhai Yunsheng. Hence, he joined the taste testing group.

!!

“Yiling, have a bite of this. It’s very delicious.”

After a while, Jian Yiling felt like she was doing absolutely nothing independently.

Even the empresses and concubines in the past probably did not live such a life.

“I can do it myself,” Jian Yiling protested in a small voice.

Even though she was pregnant, she could manage these things by herself. They were clearly underestimating her too much!

o(∩_∩)o

“Yiling, don’t say that. Pregnancy is a very energy-consuming task. Hence, you need to reduce unnecessary energy consumption,” Jian Yichen said with a solemn expression on his face.

Upon hearing this, Jian Yiling obediently nodded her head and accepted their good intentions.

After breakfast, Master Zhai asked his grandson to take Jian Yiling to an art exhibition.

Based on his research, Master Zhai realized that pregnant women had to go out from time to time. They couldn’t stay home every day as a certain amount of social activities was good for their physical and mental health.

Hence, Master Zhai looked into art exhibitions, musical concerts, and plays.

As there was no particularly good symphony performance currently in Beijing, Master Zhai contacted a famous symphony orchestra from abroad to come and perform in Beijing. He paid for all the costs and asked them to reserve two of the best seats.

This way, Yiling could go and watch the performance whenever she wanted.

Jian Yichen also expressed his approval: “You should definitely go to an art exhibition to look at beautiful things. This way, your future baby will also look beautiful.”

Then, Jian Yichen added: “Apparently, your child will grow up to look like who you look at the most when you’re pregnant. Yiling, you should look at me more. I’m very beautiful.”

Was Jian Yichen that shameless?

Upon hearing this, Master Zhai retorted: “Nonsense, this is Yiling and A Sheng’s child. Their child will definitely be incredibly good-looking. After all, his or her parents are incredibly good-looking. Besides, Yiling can look at A Sheng. Why does she need to look at you?”

“Master Zhai, as the saying goes, nephews generally look like their uncles,” Jian Yichen explained with a smile on his face.

“But you’re technically not even Yiling’s brother by blood,” Master Zhai ruthlessly replied.

When he heard this, Jian Yichen sniffled and hid behind Jian Yiling: "Yiling, I also want to be your brother by blood. I'm going to blame my mother for this."

When Jian Yiling looked at Jian Yichen, she couldn't help but laugh.

Sister Yichen was indeed shameless.

When Zhai Yunsheng saw the smile on Jian Yiling's face, a smile also unconsciously appeared on his face.

Even though Jian Yichen was shameless, he was also quite funny.

Hence, it was good to have him staying by Jian Yiling's side.

Accompanied by her family, Jian Yiling stayed home for the next few months of her pregnancy.

This was the most leisurely and comfortable period of time she ever experienced in her multiple lifetimes.

Was this what happiness felt like?

Jian Yiling cherished the present very much.

She also thanked fate for giving her a chance to start over again.

Chapter 1408: The Jian Family's Second Great-Grandchild (1)

Luo Xiuen's second child was to be due earlier than Jian Yiling's. When her due date came, she was admitted to the delivery ward of Lahaisen Hospital's Beijing branch.

Jian Yiling came to the hospital to watch Luo Xiuen give birth.

Even though she had been exposed to several childbirths previously, this time felt different.

Luo Xiuen was not scared at all. After all, this was her second time giving birth.

"Yiling, you don't need to be scared of giving birth to a baby. If you can give birth naturally, we will do it that way. If not, we can just decide to go the c-section route. It's not a problem at all," Luo Xiuen said to Jian Yiling.

"I'm not afraid of pain," Jian Yiling replied firmly.

She wasn't scared.

Even though Jian Yiling wasn't scared, this didn't mean the others around her weren't.

The men of the Zhai family and the Jian family were even more nervous than Jian Yiling.

As Jian Yiling's frame was smaller than an average person's, giving birth to a child would be more strenuous on her body.

They were all afraid that something would happen to Jian Yiling whilst giving birth. At the same time, they were afraid of Jian Yiling experiencing a lot of pain.

As they thought about this, the Jian brothers turned to look at Zhai Yunsheng with hostile eyes.

This was all this bastard's fault! Their sister was only 20 years old and she was about to experience a lot of pain giving birth to a baby!

Despite being rich and powerful, Zhai Yunsheng still had to obediently accept the Jian brother's hatred and disdain.

"We could just go with a c-section. Yiling will suffer less," Master Zhai suggested.

Even though his future great-grandchild was important, his granddaughter-in-law was even more important. If something happened to his granddaughter-in-law, he would have no more future great-grandchildren.

Upon hearing this, Jian Yunnao hurriedly asked his brother Jian Yunmo who had medical knowledge:

"Does a c-section hurt as well?"

"It all hurts. However, a c-section hurts less."

"Then, let's go with a c-section!" Jian Yunnao decided decisively.

"But a c-section will leave scars," Luo Xiuen reminded everyone.

"But Yiling invented a scar removal cream. In addition, what's wrong with scars? It's not like my sister's stomach will be exposed to other people," Jian Yunnao quickly retorted.

Zhai Yunsheng was the only person who would see their sister's stomach.

And if Zhai Yunsheng dared to comment on the scar, their sister didn't need such a husband!

"That's right!" the other brothers of the Jian family echoed.

"I don't care," Zhai Yunsheng replied. He just wanted Jian Yiling to suffer less.

"It's alright. I will try a natural birth first. If it doesn't work, I will go with a c-section," Jian Yiling said.

At this moment, Grandma Jian walked in with Jian Dan.

As soon as Jian Dan saw Jian Yiling, he cried out: "Auntie... Auntie..."

"Brat. Don't you see your mother lying down? And you still only have eyes for your auntie?" Luo Xiuen exclaimed angrily.

Her son only cared about looks!

When he sensed his mother's anger, Jian Dan quickly pointed at his mother's stomach and cried out:

"Sister! Sister!:"

"Sister? It's your baby brother!" Luo Xiuen corrected.

"But I don't want a brother. I want a sister," Jian Dan complained.

No one knew if Jian Dan actually wanted a sister or if he was just influenced by everyone else in the Jian family.

“Well, give up on that dream. The baby in your mother’s stomach is a baby boy. You should count on the one inside your auntie’s stomach,” Jian Yumin told his son.

The gender of the child inside Jian Yiling’s belly was only known to the person responsible for her maternity checkup.

As Jian Yiling did not want to know the gender early on, she asked them not to tell her.

Chapter 1409: The Jian Family’s Second Great-Grandchild (2)

Upon hearing this, Luo Xiuen regretfully said: “Ahh, I should have not asked about my baby’s gender. That way, I would have a bit more motivation when I’m giving birth to this baby.”

As she opened up her prize in advance, she had no more hopes of this child being a girl. If she followed Jian Yiling’s example, she could at least be hopeful until the last moment.

“Sister!” Jian Dan exclaimed as he looked at Jian Yiling’s belly.

“Auntie, Dandan wants a sister! Give Dandan a sister!” Jian Dan softly begged Jian Yiling with watery doe-like eyes. He fluttered his eyes at Jian Yiling.

“You little fool. Your auntie can’t guarantee the child in her stomach is a girl. These things are up to fate,” Grandma Jian explained to her great-grandson with a smile.

!!

“But great-grandma... I want a sister. I want a beautiful sister and not a brother... Can you make the baby inside my auntie’s stomach a girl please?” Jian Dan pleaded as he gently tugged at Grandma Jian’s coat.

“I also want her child to be a girl. However, we can’t change anything. We can only wait,” Grandma Jian said smilingly.

Her great-grandson was adorable.

“Ouch,” Luo Xiuen suddenly cried out.

Upon hearing this, Jian Yumin hurriedly asked: “What’s wrong? Are you about to give birth?”

“Yep, I think so.”

“Okay, okay. You head into the delivery room first and I’ll go change to sterilized clothes.”

In order to accompany Luo Xiuen in the delivery room, Jian Yumin had to change into special sterilized clothes.

Jian Yiling also entered the delivery room with Jian Yumin.

As it was the second time his wife was giving birth, Jian Yumin was not as nervous as the first time.

On top of this, Luo Xiuen had a sturdy frame and paid attention to exercising. She would also balance her diet which meant the process of giving birth was exceptionally smooth. Her second child came out less than half an hour after entering the delivery room.

This would make the pregnant women who stayed in the delivery room for an entire day incredibly jealous.

However, this also made Zhai Yunsheng frown.

Would Jian Yiling suffer...?

After the nurse cleaned up the child, she held him up for the group to see.

The body of Luo Xiuen's second baby was somewhat red. It would take a while for his skin to become fair.

His face was also a bit wrinkled. Despite this, his facial features could be seen and he was quite handsome.

Jian Yumin held his newborn baby in front of Jian Dan. He wanted his son to meet his younger brother.

"Wa..." Jian Dan suddenly let out a loud cry.

"What's wrong? Are you upset to see your brother?"

Even though Jian Dan was probably disappointed to not have a little sister, he wasn't disappointed enough to cry right?

"Ugly!" Jian Dan cried out.

His brother was so ugly! He didn't want to accept such an ugly brother!

And thus, the little boy began to cry.

Despite Jian Dan's tears, all the adults in the room began laughing.

Grandma Jian explained to Jian Dan: "All babies are like this when they are first born. When you were a new-born baby, you also looked like this. Your younger brother is not ugly. In fact, look at his nose and eyes. In the future, he will become a handsome man."

Upon hearing this, Jian Dan blinked twice before he asked in doubt: "Really?"

Chapter 1410: The Jian Family's Second Great-Grandchild (3)

"Why would your great-grandma lie to you? Our Jian Dan is so good-looking. How could his brother possibly be ugly?"

Upon hearing this, Jian Dan looked at his brother again. For some reason, in his eyes, his brother still looked incredibly ugly.

Jian Dan turned his face away and pounced towards Jian Yiling.

"Auntie, hug!"

"Your auntie has a baby inside her belly. She can't hug you. Let your uncles hug you," Grandma Jian said as she hurriedly gestured for the Jian brothers to hug Jian Dan.

!!

As Jian Dan's direct uncle, Jian Yujie fulfilled his responsibilities and picked up Jian Dan.

But even though Jian Dan was in Jian Yujie's arms, his eyes were fixated on Jian Yiling.

Unlike everyone else, Zhai Yunsheng had a frown on his face.

When he saw an opportunity, he pulled Jian Yunmo into the corridor.

"When Yiling gives birth, let's just go the c-section route," Zhai Yunsheng said seriously. The look on his face was solemn and his brows were knitted together. Worry and anxiousness plagued his handsome face.

"Are you afraid she'll have a difficult delivery?" Jian Yunmo asked.

"Yeah," Zhai Yunsheng replied. He did not deny this. "Yiling has a small frame. Even though there's still two months before her due date, her belly is already scarily big."

A belly of that size would look normal on an average pregnant woman. However, it looked scarily big on Jian Yiling's body.

Typically, pregnant women would gain a bit of weight and fat in other areas of their bodies. However, only Jian Yiling's belly grew in size.

Thus, Zhai Yunsheng would feel nervous whenever he looked at Jian Yiling.

Jian Yunmo carefully savored the expression on Zhai Yunsheng's face before he said: "Don't worry. She'll be fine. She's been under the supervision of Lahaisen Hospital's most advanced medical technology ever since she knew she was pregnant. If something happens to her, very few women in this world would be able to deliver their children safely."

"Are you sure?" Zhai Yunsheng asked again.

"I'm very sure."

Upon receiving this answer, Zhai Yunsheng nodded and said thank you. Then, he headed back to Luo Xiuen's ward.

When Jian Yiling saw Zhai Yunsheng return, she asked him: "What were you doing with Brother Yunmo?"

"I just asked him a few things," Zhai Yunsheng replied as his right hand gently touched the top of Jian Yiling's stomach.

A smile appeared on Jian Yiling's face as she looked down at her belly: "Our baby has been so well behaved."

"I hope he or she will be well behaved until he or she is born. I don't want you to suffer."

Zhai Yunsheng didn't mind if the baby made a ruckus after he or she was born. However, he wanted the baby to behave inside Jian Yiling's belly.

###

Master Zhai came to congratulate Luo Xiuen. As he was visiting, he brought along a bunch of gifts as well.

Master Zhai looked at the newborn baby inside the crib before he turned to look at Jian Dan.

The two of them were absolutely adorable.

“Ahh... How can they be so cute.”

The genes of the Jian family were amazing. They managed to have two children in a span of three years.

Upon hearing this, Grandpa Jian happily said: “Hey, these two are from my family. Your one is inside my precious granddaughter’s belly!”

“Well, my great-grandchild isn’t born yet. Can’t I look at yours for the time being?”

Why was Grandpa Jian so stingy? After all, he couldn’t stare at his granddaughter-in-law’s belly all day, could he?

If someone didn’t know better, they’d assume he was a psychopath or something!

“Soon, soon... It’s only a matter of two months,” Grandpa Jian replied.

Upon hearing this, Master Zhai deliberately said: “Well, Yiling might give birth to a baby girl. The Jian family doesn’t have a great-granddaughter yet.”