Chapter 1431 Descendant of the Xie Family (3)

Situ Zhong and Zhang Xin were stunned to hear this.

What was... Going on?

Why did these big shots know Jian Yiling?

Was it because she was the Dean of Lahaisen Hospital?

Was Lahaisen Hospital that famous?

“Say hello to your grandma for me,” the old man said to Jian Yiling.

“Will do,” Jian Yiling replied meekly.

Then, the old man turned around and said: “We will clear out these bugs for you. Consider it as a housewarming gift for your arrival at the Xie family manor.”

“Thank you.”

Upon hearing this, Situ Zhong and Zhang Xin became completely dumbfounded.

What was happening?

Situ Zhong hurriedly asked the old man: “What is this all about? The Xie family and I are both part of the Nine Dragons Association. Even if you’re friends with the Dean of Lahaisen Hospital, that doesn’t mean you should kick us out of the manor that belongs to us right?”

In his subconsciousness, Situ Zhong had already claimed the Xie family manor as theirs.

After all, there was no one left to inherit the Xie family manor other than the members of their Nine Dragons Association.

“Your manor? Since when did the Xie family manor become yours?” the old man repeated. Although the expression on his face was still benevolent, the look in his eyes was biting and he gave off a powerful sense of oppression.

“No no... We’re the sworn brothers of the Xie family...” Situ Zhong attempted to defend himself.

“Right,” Zhang Xin echoed. “As the Xie family has no descendants, we’re merely helping the Xie family by taking care of their manor. There isn’t a problem with that right?”

“And who exactly told you that the Xie family has no descendants?” The old man asked calmly. His words had a hint of mockery and contempt.

“The Xie family has descendants?” Situ Zhong questioned. His voice was doubtful as he continued: “That’s impossible... If the Xie family has descendants, then why haven’t they shown up in so many years? So many businesses and companies of the Xie family have been...”

Swallowed by the rest of the Nine Dragons Association...

If anyone from the Xie family was still alive in this world, there was no way they would let such a thing happen.

This was why Situ Zhong and the rest of the Nine Dragons Association assumed everyone in the Xie family was dead.

“It seems like you guys are used to being thieves.”

As the Xie family manor was located in Country M and there was not a lot of profit to be made, this was probably why the manor still belonged to the Xie family.

After all, the businesses and companies which originally belonged to the Xie family were all divided amongst the remaining families.

The old man’s words made the expression on Situ Zhong and Zhang Xin’s faces become incredibly ugly. However, they didn’t know what to say.

Suddenly, Zhang Xin recalled something. He looked at Jian Yiling with a shocked gaze as he exclaimed: “Is Jian Yiling...”

Just now, the old man specifically asked Jian Yiling to say hello to her grandma...

“But even if Jian Yiling’s grandma has the surname Xie... Wasn’t that just meant to be a scholarly family? How could she be...”

The old man interrupted Zhang Xin’s words and told them bluntly: “We only came here after learning that the Xie family manor was going through a transfer of ownership procedures.”

Now, this manor legally belonged to Jian Yiling.

As Zhang Xin and Situ Zhong did not have Jian Yiling’s permission to be there, they were trespassing on private property.

Zhai Yunsheng sneered and said: “Just because the manor has been abandoned for many years, it doesn’t mean no one owns it anymore. You should be aware of the laws here before you decide to trespass on someone else’s property.”

Chapter 1432 Apologizing to the Descendant of the Xie Family

Upon hearing this, Situ Zhong and Zhang Xin’s faces immediately became pale.

How could they possibly be expected to know that Jian Yiling was related to the Xie family?

In fact, they didn’t even know that the Xie family still had descendants in this world.

And if Jian Yiling was the legal owner of this manor, they had to leave immediately. If not, Jian Yiling and Zhai Yunsheng had every right to contact the police.

On top of this, with these big shots from all walks of life in front of them, there was no other choice left for Situ Zhong and Zhang Xin.

“We... Really did not know the Xie family still had descendants in this world... If we knew this, we definitely would not be here...” Situ Zhong hurriedly explained. Then, he tried to get friendly with Jian Yiling by saying: “Doctor Jian, I know we don’t know each other well. However, since your grandma is a member of the Xie family and the Xie family is friends with everyone from the Nine Dragons Association, we’re technically close like family.”

Zhai Yunsheng interrupted: “Don’t say that. I’ve never seen family members and relatives moving things in the owner’s property without their permission. And if there were such family members and relatives, they wouldn’t be family members and relatives for long in the first place.”

The expressions on Situ Zhong and Zhang Xin’s faces became ugly again.

And when they looked toward the big shots of Country M, Situ Zhong and Zhang Xin became inexplicably nervous.

In the end, Situ Zhong could only reluctantly apologize to Jian Yiling.

“Doctor Jian. I’m sorry we trespassed on your property without your permission. But we just wanted to help clean up the Xie family manor. Please forgive us.”

Naturally, Situ Zhong refused to admit that he had come to look for something.

He refused to let Jian Yiling and the others learn about the piece of vellum.

The expression on Jian Yiling’s face was as calm as always.

Despite being a mother already, her face still looked soft and squishy like a marshmallow.

However, unlike Jian Yiling, Zhai Yunsheng did not look gullible and refused to let things go easily.

“Clean up the Xie family manor? You call this behavior of yours cleaning the manor? Do you think I’m blind or something?”

If Jian Yiling did not know how to express herself in certain situations, Zhai Yunsheng would happily help her.

No one was allowed to bully his rabbit with such fake lies.

Situ Zhong gritted his teeth and reluctantly apologized again. This time, his attitude was obviously much more sincere: “I apologize for our actions. Everyone else in the Nine Dragons Association made the incorrect assumption that the Xie family had no descendants and that’s why we took this manor as our home. We were in the wrong. I hope Miss Jian will be kind enough to forgive us given our ancestors were close friends.”

Zhai Yunsheng did not reply to this apology. Instead, his gaze fell on Zhang Xin.

As Zhang Xin was a very prideful man, asking him to apologize was no different from breaking his arm and leg.

When Situ Zhong sensed this, he elbowed Zhang Xin to signal him to hurry up and do as he was told.

Beggars couldn’t be choosers.

It was not worth putting themselves in a dangerous situation for the sake of their pride.

Zhang Xin clenched his fists and struggled inwardly for a long time. Finally, he compromised and said: "Sorry, we were wrong."

After apologizing, Situ Zhong smiled and said: "We're relieved that the ownership of this manor is returning to its rightful owner. We will take our leave and no longer be the way."

As Situ Zhong attempted to leave, he was stopped in his tracks by several Western bodyguards.

"Are you planning to leave scot-free after you loot someone's house?" the old man asked.

No one knew what things Situ Zhong and Zhang Xin had taken over the past few days or weeks.

Chapter 1433 Additional Compensation

Even though Situ Zhong did not find what he was looking for, he did not let the opportunity slip by when he saw something of value.

And thus, by saying this, the old man made it impossible for Situ Zhong to just leave.

Situ Zhong's expression was incredibly embarrassed. Originally, even if he couldn't locate the piece of vellum, the antiques and valuables scavenged inside the Xie family manor could still be sold for a lot of money.

But now, he had to return those antiques and valuables before he left.

"Are you waiting for us to help you with that?" the old man asked calmly.

"No no... I will tell my subordinates to bring those things over..." Situ Zhong stammered. He had no choice but to listen to the old man.

And thus, Situ Zhong and Zhang Xin ordered their subordinates to hand over all the things they took from inside the Xie family manor.

Box after box of antiques was placed in front of them.

They used the antique boxes and chests found inside the manor to store the other valuables they found.

Eventually, there were almost twenty boxes lined up in front of Jian Yiling.

Naturally, this wasn't everything. If Jian Yiling and Zhai Yunsheng did not interrupt Situ Zhong, many more valuables would have been taken away.

"It's all here," Situ Zhong said.

"And what about the various locks and doors that you have broken? They're all antiques. How much should they be worth?" Zhai Yunsheng questioned.

After all, the Xie family manor was built many years ago.

By asking those questions, Zhai Yunsheng wanted Situ Zhong and the others to give Jian Yiling additional compensation for the damage they caused to the manor.

Situ Zhong gritted his teeth in anger. He was very reluctant to do this. However, when he glanced at the big shots in front of him, he quickly realized that he would not be able to leave today unless he satisfied Jian Yiling's requests. In fact, even if he somehow managed to escape this place, he still wouldn't be able to leave Country M.

Situ Zhong looked at Zhai Yunsheng and said: "Young Master Zhai, the Nine Dragons Association has a deep relationship and connection with the Xie family. This incident was merely a misunderstanding and not something done with malicious intent. There's no need for you to take it that far right?"

Zhai Yunsheng smiled and replied, "Perhaps your ancestors and the Xie family's ancestors were friends in the past. However, my wife and I are not friends with you. And if you want to go by that logic, human beings came from the same ancestor tens of thousands of years ago. Must I be friends with the entire world?"

Situ Zhong and Zhang Xin were infuriated by Zhai Yunsheng's unforgiving words.

However, as there were many big shots ready to back Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling up, they could only swallow their anger.

Situ Zhong asked Zhai Yunsheng: "Young Master Zhai, how much do you expect us to pay?"

Zhai Yunsheng: "Well, you destroyed such a historical manor. In the future, even if we want to repair it, it won't be as good as before. This is especially the case because the Xie family ancestors left this manor for my wife. This means you not only destroyed a meaningful and historical building, but you also hurt my wife's soul."

Zhai Yunsheng's ability to talk nonsense made Situ Zhong and Zhang Xin feel exasperated.

"Then how much do you want?" Situ Zhong asked.

"One hundred million." Zhai Yunsheng replied.

"What?!" Situ Zhong exclaimed. He couldn't help but raise his voice.

One hundred million dollars? Was Zhai Yunsheng crazy?

"If you don't want to give us compensation, I'll have to call the police. When they're here, you can explain your acts of theft and trespassing to the police. So let's see how much these valuables are worth... Do you think you will be jailed for your offense?" Zhai Yunsheng slowly said.

Chapter 1434 Promissory Note

Jian Yiling explained helpfully: "Theft of private possessions worth three hundred to five hundred thousand dollars will sentence the individual to 10 years of imprisonment or life imprisonment with a confiscation of property."

And the valuables and antiques in front of them were clearly worth more than five hundred thousand dollars.

Furthermore, as their actions could be considered malicious, the sentence given would be more severe.

As they were cornered by legal means and the big shots in Country M, Situ Zhong and Zhang Xin had no choice but to yield.

Situ Zhong attempted to reason with Jian Yiling one last time: "Dr. Jian, in the past, the Xie family has been inseparable from the Nine Dragons Association. We've already admitted our mistakes today and apologized for our actions. I believe there's no need to be so ruthless with your actions. After all, it won't do us any good."

"I think otherwise," Jian Yiling replied.

Upon hearing this, Situ Zhong stammered: "You..."

Even though he wanted to yell at Jian Yiling, he did not know what to say.

Zhai Yunsheng sarcastically interrupted: "So when you take things from someone else's property, you don't care about being friends in the past. However, when you want the other person to forgive you, you mention the relationship you had. Your double standards are very admirable."

Situ Zhong did not know what to say. His face turned from red to ashen white in embarrassment and anger.

Then, Zhai Yunsheng added: "Well, make a decision. You can decide to settle this matter privately or publicly. My wife and I are very busy people. We don't have time to waste with you. If you hesitate for much longer, we will add in our loss of time as well."

As Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling's time was very precious, the longer Situ Zhong took to make a decision, the more likely the additional compensation required would be higher than one hundred million dollars.

Situ Zhong almost had the urge to vomit blood.

Zhang Xin was forcing himself to hold back his resentment. After all, he didn't know how to deal with Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling.

"But we don't have that much money," Situ Zhong replied.

"Then give as much as you have. You can write down the rest in a promissory note. We have a lawyer here anyway," Zhai Yunsheng replied very generously.

A lawyer was brought along because Jian Yiling was inheriting her grandma's property. He came in quite handy.

Situ Zhong felt his chest tighten and Zhang Xin clenched his fists together.

However, in the end, they had no choice but to succumb to Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling's demands.

"Okay, okay, I'll sign the promissory note!" Situ Zhong squeezed out.

Upon hearing this, Zhai Yunsheng smiled and asked his lawyer to write up a contract. Then, the lawyer brought it over for Situ Zhong and Zhang Xin to sign.

After this, Zhai Yunsheng smilingly said: "I hope you can pay back the money on time or according to the contents of this promissory note, if we go to court, the assets under your name will be frozen."

“Hmph!” Situ Zhong grunted with indignation. Then turned his head and left. He did not want to stay for a moment longer.

After the members of the Nine Dragons Association left, Zhai Yunsheng turned to thank the big shots of Country M.

“Thank you for your help.”

“You are welcome. We’ve been old friends with the Xie family and we’re very happy to see their descendants,” the old man said with a smile on his face.

The others nodded in agreement.

Back then, the Xie family was known to be righteous and trustworthy. As they were willing to help others in times of need, they forged countless friendships and good relations.

And thus, even after so many years, there were still so many people who were willing to come forward to help the descendants of the Xie family.

Chapter 1435 Refuse to Give Up on the Treasure

After Situ Zhong and Zhang Xin left the Xie family manor, the more they thought about the matter, the more upset they became. They were unable to calm down.

Situ Zhong cursed: “Damn it! Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling ruined all of our plans!”

Upon hearing this, Zhang Xin commented: “I told you about this earlier. Even though Jian Yiling looks harmless, she’s actually very sinister and treacherous.”

“Well, who knew that little b*tch was a descendant of the Xie family?!” Situ Zhong exclaimed. Situ Zhong never expected that anyone from the Xie family would still be alive. In addition to this, never in a thousand years did he expect Jian Yiling to be the descendant either!

Now, all their plans were destroyed.

As the Xie family manor was now Jian Yiling’s property, they had no way to locate the piece of vellum.

Despite this, Situ Zhong was not a person who would admit defeat easily. He was very prideful and looked down on merchant families like the Zhai family and the Jian family.

He also had been searching for this treasure for a long time. He couldn’t just give up on it now!

“Now that we can’t search the Xie family manor anymore, we will have no way to find that piece of vellum,” Zhang Xin said in disappointment.

Not only were they unable to find clues to the treasure, but they also lost a hundred million dollars.

What could they do?

After a bit of thought, Situ Zhong said: “That little b*tch’s grandma is a member of the Xie family. She probably knows the whereabouts of that piece of vellum. If we kidnap that little b*tch, we can demand for her grandma to hand over the piece of vellum. That would be much easier than locating it ourselves.”

Upon hearing this suggestion, Zhang Xin exclaimed: "Are you crazy? That's not legal! You shouldn't kidnap people! If something goes wrong, you'd be in a lot of trouble!"

"Risk and return come hand in hand. If you want to achieve things, you can't be scared of everything! You're such a coward. In fact, you're wimpier than those street gangsters," Situ Zhong mocked.

"But even if you're willing to take the risk, Jian Yiling has so many bodyguards protecting her. How can you possibly kidnap her? If you investigate the matter, you will quickly discover how many people the Zhai family and the Jian family have sent to protect her. Furthermore, Zhai Yunsheng is super good at fighting. So how on earth do you plan to kidnap her?"

Situ Zhong was dreaming if he wanted to kidnap Jian Yiling.

After all, when Zhang Xin was competing against Jian Yiling, he wanted to make moves against her research team. However, he quickly discovered he couldn't do anything to her.

Upon hearing this, Situ Zhong's face sank.

He knew Zhang Xin was telling the truth.

Even though the Jian family and the Zhai family were families that just became powerful and influential in recent years, he had to admit that it was difficult to meet them head-on.

After thinking a bit longer, Situ Zhong suggested: "Why don't we kidnap someone close to her then? Surely they don't have that many people protecting them at all times."

Zhang Xin replied: "Most of Jian Yiling's brothers are quite strong and her only sister-in-law is also capable of fighting. Taking down a few ordinary bodyguards would pose no problem to them. As for the elders of the Jian family, they rarely go out..."

After all, if they could kidnap Grandma Jian, why would they need to kidnap Jian Yiling in the first place?

"Furthermore, if we know she's a member of the Xie family, everyone else probably knows by now as well. How will we get a chance to kidnap her?"

Kidnapping people around Jian Yiling was easier said than done.

Chapter 1436 Target: Long Yuetian

"Then we can look for someone outside of the Zhai family and the Jian family!" Situ Zhong exclaimed. He remained undeterred.

He ordered his subordinates to search for individuals who interacted with Jian Yiling on a regular basis. Then, he conducted a detailed investigation on those individuals.

After some screening, Situ Zhong focused his attention on Long Yuetian.

Long Yuetian's relationship with Jian Yiling was not simple. Not only was she Jian Yiling's friend, but she was also Jian Yiling's important business partner. In the past, when Jian Yiling was still underage, Long Yuetian also helped Jian Yiling invest and deal with company matters.

Due to this reason, Situ Zhong assumed Jian Yiling would not sit around if Long Yuetian got kidnapped.

After doing some further investigation, Situ Zhong discovered Long Yuetian often traveled by herself and rarely brought bodyguards with her.

This meant she was a perfect target.

After determining the target, Situ Zhong acted quickly.

He notified the other families in the Nine Dragons Association to begin the kidnapping of Long Yuetian.

At this moment in China, Long Yuetian was video chatting with Jian Yiling.

“Darling! Let me see your son!”

Jian Yiling was no longer enough to satisfy her. She desperately wanted to see Jian Yiling’s baby.

Jian Yiling moved her camera over. Her son just finished drinking milk and was sleeping soundly.

His fair cheeks looked chubby and soft.

“Is he drinking your breast milk?” Long Yuetian asked out of curiosity.

“Nope,” Jian Yiling answered. A Sheng didn’t want her to breastfeed their son.

“Is he drinking baby milk formula then?”

“Nope.” Master Zhai insisted that breast milk was better and baby milk formula wasn’t nutritious enough.

As her son was the first addition to the Zhai family in many years, Grandpa Zhai and the Second Master of the Zhai family treasured him. All of his rations had to be the best.

“If he isn’t drinking your breast milk nor is he drinking baby milk formula, what does he drink?”

“We found a wet nurse.”

“Ahhh, such is capitalism. Even in this day and age, wet nurses still exist...”

As Long Yuetian said this, she completely forgot that she was an evil capitalist herself.

“Oh right... Where has your husband’s uncle... Been lately?” Long Yuetian asked Jian Yiling out of the blue.

She hadn’t seen him for quite some time.

As Zhai Zhongshen’s whereabouts were usually top secret, it was difficult for people outside the Zhai family to know his whereabouts.

And hence, even if Long Yuetian’s company was collaborating with the Tian Xing Group, she still did not have that information.

Long Yuetian did not know why she asked this question. Whenever she saw Zhai Zhongshen, she would feel incredibly flustered. However, when she didn’t see him, she would become inexplicably curious about his whereabouts.

“He’s preparing to propose,” Jian Yiling said.

“What did you just say?” Long Yuetian exclaimed in shock.

Her voice almost woke up Little Zeze.

Propose?!!

Zhai Zhongshen was preparing to propose?!

Who was he proposing to? When was this going to happen?

“Uncle Zhai is preparing to propose,” Jian Yiling repeated. Jian Yiling assumed Long Yuetian did not hear her words clearly the first time around.

“W-When...?”

“The last few days,” Jian Yiling answered truthfully.

Jian Yiling heard about this from Zhai Yunsheng. When Zhai Yunsheng told her about this, the corners of his lips were upturned and the look on his face was very happy.

Chapter 1437 Rescuing Long Yuetian Once Again (1)

Last few days...

Upon hearing this, Long Yuetian suddenly felt a pang of despondency.

She didn't know why she felt this way.

After all, other than the blind date, being sent home a few times, having dinner together, and collaborating with the Tian Xing Group, there was no other interaction or connection between them...

What happened in the office was no big deal...

Furthermore, many people their age had one-night stands. What they did couldn't even be considered a one-night stand.

“When is he planning to propose?” Long Yuetian asked.

As soon as she asked this question, all the lights in her room were cut out. In addition, the video call with Jian Yiling was also interrupted.

Jian Yiling waited for a while before she attempted to call Long Yuetian again. As she did not receive a response, she then called Long Yuetian's phone. However, Long Yuetian did not pick up her phone either.

Jian Yiling immediately realized something was wrong and called out to Zhai Yunsheng for help.

“A Sheng! A Sheng!”

Zhai Yunsheng was currently working in the study beside the bedroom. When he heard Jian Yiling's panicked voice, he immediately entered the bedroom.

“What's wrong?”

“I think something happened to Yuetian. My video call with her was interrupted and I can’t reach her via phone.”

“I’ll inform my uncle.”

Unlike Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling, the Second Master of the Zhai family was still in China. And hence, he was the best source of help.

Furthermore, as the matter involved Long Yuetian, it was appropriate to ask his uncle for help.

When Zhai Zhongshen received Zhai Yunsheng’s call, there was a slight change in his usually calm and collected face. His eyebrows also became furrowed.

“Thanks for informing me,” Zhai Zhongshen said to his nephew as he began to call another number.

“Call in A Bang.”

Then, Zhai Zhongshen demanded that his men must rescue Long Yuetian within two hours.

After all, the first two hours were the most critical during a kidnapping.

###

Long Yuetian did not know where she was. She could only see darkness.

Just a while ago, she thought her power had been short-circuited. However, when she walked over to the main switch, she got attacked from behind.

Then, she lost consciousness. When she regained consciousness, she had no idea where she was.

However, her hands and feet were bound. This was obviously a kidnapping.

Long Yuetian began to think about the identity of the kidnapper. She eventually crossed out everyone she had recently offended.

Following this, Long Yuetian attempted to move her body. She wanted to learn more about her surroundings.

As a person who was kidnapped for the first time, Long Yuetian behaved fairly calmly.

However, she quickly realized she couldn’t do much.

She wasn’t going to get murdered right?

She hadn’t even been in a proper relationship.

And her first kiss was not long ago!

And thus, she didn’t want to die yet!

If she had known this was going to happen, she would have done many crazy things without thinking about their consequences.

For example... She would have slept with Zhai Zhongshen.

Ahhh... Why the hell was she thinking about these things right now?!

Zhai Zhongshen had a girlfriend to who he was planning to propose to! Why was she still infatuated with him?!

The more Long Yuetian thought about this, the angrier she became.

Initially, she assumed Zhai Zhongshen was a serious man who didn't play around with women.

However, he was lustful like every other man. He only used his lower body to think and obviously didn't care who the other person was.

So why was she still interested in him?

Chapter 1438 Rescuing Long Yuetian Once Again (2)

In the darkness, Long Yuetian could hear two men talking from seemingly outside a door.

"Is she Long Yuetian? The CEO of the Long Heng Group? Compared to the photos, she's way hotter in person."

"I definitely agree. Her chest is huge. I can almost feel their weight just looking at them."

"And her legs... They're so long and shapely. I could play with them all year."

"Well, since we kidnapped her already, why don't we play around with her for a bit?"

"We shouldn't do that."

"But the higher-ups didn't say anything in that regard. Besides, when it's dark, she can't see us."

"But it's still not good..."

"Not good? What do you mean? Are you saying you don't want to touch her? Where else are you going to run into such top-quality goods?"

When Long Yuetian heard this conversation, she attempted to struggle free.

She would rather die than be taken advantage of by two bastards!

However, the rope that bound her was too strong. As an ordinary person, she couldn't break free.

"Damn it! If I knew this was going to happen, I should have kept some of Yiling's equipment on me!"

In the past, Jian Yiling attempted to gift Long Yuetian several self-defense kits. However, every single time, Long Yuetian refused Jian Yiling's gifts. She told Jian Yiling that she would never encounter a situation where she would need it.

As she regretted her past decisions, the door opened.

Even though there was no light source in the room, Long Yuetian sensed the two men approaching her. She instinctively shrunk toward the corner of the room.

When they got closer, one of them reached out to touch Long Yuetian's thigh.

As Long Yuetian was kidnapped from home, she was currently still wearing a nightgown that reached just above her knee.

Long Yuetian attempted to resist and tried to kick the person who touched her.

However, as her feet were tied together at her ankles, she could do very little.

Despite this, she continued to struggle desperately. She would rather die than let these two bastards have their way with her.

“Damn! This b*tch is feisty and savage! No wonder she’s the CEO of the Long Heng Group.”

“Grab hold of her. She can’t escape the two of us.”

As disciples from one of the reclusive families of the Nine Dragons Association, the two of them were stronger than ordinary men.

“I don’t really want to hurt her though.”

“We don’t need to care about that. After all, we weren’t given orders by the higher-ups to not hurt her.”

As he said this, he spat at Long Yuetian and threatened: “Be obedient and make me feel good. If you listen to me, I will make you suffer less. Otherwise, I will be rough with you!”

The two of them were about to touch Long Yuetian again when a strong force grabbed them from behind and threw them away.

Immediately after that, Long Yuetian fell into a somewhat gentle and warm embrace.

The person who hugged her had a familiar smell on him.

A moment later, a suit jacket with the smell of cologne was also wrapped around Long Yuetian’s body.

“It’s okay,” a low and magnetic voice sounded in Long Yuetian’s ear. His voice soothed Long Yuetian’s nerves.

It was him.

Even though she couldn’t see Zhai Zhongshen’s face, Long Yuetian could still hear the concern in his voice.

In that instant, Long Yuetian’s eyes moistened.

For the first time in more than thirty years, she had the urge to cry.

His voice and his scent were so reassuring.

“You... Why are you here?” Long Yuetian asked. Her voice was a bit choked up as she struggled to keep herself from crying. She didn’t want to embarrass herself.

Chapter 1439 Rescuing Long Yuetian Once Again (3)

“Your video call with Yiling was interrupted,” Zhai Zhongshen replied.

Ahh right. She was talking to Yiling before she got kidnapped.

Upon hearing this reply, she realized Yiling was probably super worried about her, and Zhai Zhongshen was probably here because of Yiling's pleas.

Why was she overthinking again...

Did she forget he was going to propose to someone else? So why would he just turn around and...

As Long Yuetian thought about this, the tinge of happiness in her heart disappeared. Regardless, she was thankful to Zhai Zhongshen for rescuing her.

"Wait a moment," Zhai Zhongshen said. He brought Long Yuetian's thoughts back to the present moment.

Then, he left Long Yuetian's side.

As soon as he left, Long Yuetian felt as if she had lost something. She felt inexplicably uneasy.

However, immediately afterward, Long Yuetian heard screams of pain from the two men who kidnapped her.

The sound was shrill and piercing and sounded as though a pig was getting murdered.

Even though she still could not see, Long Yuetian could guess what Zhai Zhongshen was doing.

He was taking revenge for her.

Long Yuetian's heart felt warm again. Even though she knew he was helping her because of Yiling, she was still incredibly thankful for everything he did today.

After a while, the screaming stopped and only weak and painful whimpers remained.

Then, Long Yuetian was picked up in bridal fashion.

"I..." Long Yuetian started as she instinctively grabbed onto Zhai Zhongshen's clothes in fear of falling down.

"You don't need to do this. I can walk by myself," Long Yuetian explained nervously.

However, Zhai Zhongshen did not appear to hear her words. He continued to carry her out of the room.

Once outside, there was a light source. The sudden light made Long Yuetian's eyes uncomfortable.

After a little adjustment, Long Yuetian saw the side of Zhai Zhongshen's face.

His face was cold and stern.

However, as always, his face had an indescribable mature charm.

As she was being bridal carried by him, Long Yuetian's heartbeat accelerated uncontrollably.

"Get rid of all of them," Zhai Zhongshen ordered his subordinates.

"Don't worry. No one here can escape."

Then, Zhai Zhongshen carried Long Yuetian to the car that had been waiting at the entrance.

When they got to the car, Long Yuetian was placed in the spacious back seat.

The back seat of the car could also be flattened.

Zhai Zhongshen took out a medicine box that contained Jian Yiling's special medicine for treating bruises and scratches.

When Long Yuetian noticed that Zhai Zhongshen was going to apply medicine to her cuts and bruises, she hurriedly refused and said: "No no. I'm fine. I'm not hurt."

He rescued her just in time. She only suffered a few light injuries.

She did not want Zhai Zhongshen to apply medicine to her wounds especially because she would become flustered when he got closer to her.

However, Zhai Zhongshen did not listen to Long Yuetian and began to apply medicinal cream to her injuries.

There were some red marks on Long Yuetian's fair thighs. He did not know which of the two men did this to her.

However, that no longer mattered. Both of them would not be able to walk with their legs or grab anything with their hands for the rest of their life.

Long Yuetian gave up resisting and let Zhai Zhongshen apply the medicine.

Cotton swabs gently wiped over her wounds.

As this was being done, Long Yuetian desperately tried to not care about the distance between them and where he was applying medicinal cream to.

Suddenly, Zhai Zhongshen's hand rested on a place she did not have a wound.

It was as if he wanted to wipe away the traces of those two bastards with his own hand.

When this happened, Long Yuetian's eyes widened with surprise. She did not expect Zhai Zhongshen to make such a move.

Chapter 1439 Rescuing Long Yuetian Once Again (3)

"Your video call with Yiling was interrupted," Zhai Zhongshen replied.

Ahh right. She was talking to Yiling before she got kidnapped.

Upon hearing this reply, she realized Yiling was probably super worried about her, and Zhai Zhongshen was probably here because of Yiling's pleas.

Why was she overthinking again...

Did she forget he was going to propose to someone else? So why would he just turn around and...

As Long Yuetian thought about this, the tinge of happiness in her heart disappeared. Regardless, she was thankful to Zhai Zhongshen for rescuing her.

“Wait a moment,” Zhai Zhongshen said. He brought Long Yuetian’s thoughts back to the present moment.

Then, he left Long Yuetian’s side.

As soon as he left, Long Yuetian felt as if she had lost something. She felt inexplicably uneasy.

However, immediately afterward, Long Yuetian heard screams of pain from the two men who kidnapped her.

The sound was shrill and piercing and sounded as though a pig was getting murdered.

Even though she still could not see, Long Yuetian could guess what Zhai Zhongshen was doing.

He was taking revenge for her.

Long Yuetian’s heart felt warm again. Even though she knew he was helping her because of Yiling, she was still incredibly thankful for everything he did today.

After a while, the screaming stopped and only weak and painful whimpers remained.

Then, Long Yuetian was picked up in bridal fashion.

“I...” Long Yuetian started as she instinctively grabbed onto Zhai Zhongshen’s clothes in fear of falling down.

“You don’t need to do this. I can walk by myself,” Long Yuetian explained nervously.

However, Zhai Zhongshen did not appear to hear her words. He continued to carry her out of the room.

Once outside, there was a light source. The sudden light made Long Yuetian’s eyes uncomfortable.

After a little adjustment, Long Yuetian saw the side of Zhai Zhongshen’s face.

His face was cold and stern.

However, as always, his face had an indescribable mature charm.

As she was being bridal carried by him, Long Yuetian’s heartbeat accelerated uncontrollably.

“Get rid of all of them,” Zhai Zhongshen ordered his subordinates.

“Don’t worry. No one here can escape.”

Then, Zhai Zhongshen carried Long Yuetian to the car that had been waiting at the entrance.

When they got to the car, Long Yuetian was placed in the spacious back seat.

The back seat of the car could also be flattened.

Zhai Zhongshen took out a medicine box that contained Jian Yiling’s special medicine for treating bruises and scratches.

When Long Yuetian noticed that Zhai Zhongshen was going to apply medicine to her cuts and bruises, she hurriedly refused and said: “No no. I’m fine. I’m not hurt.”

He rescued her just in time. She only suffered a few light injuries.

She did not want Zhai Zhongshen to apply medicine to her wounds especially because she would become flustered when he got closer to her.

However, Zhai Zhongshen did not listen to Long Yuetian and began to apply medicinal cream to her injuries.

There were some red marks on Long Yuetian's fair thighs. He did not know which of the two men did this to her.

However, that no longer mattered. Both of them would not be able to walk with their legs or grab anything with their hands for the rest of their life.

Long Yuetian gave up resisting and let Zhai Zhongshen apply the medicine.

Cotton swabs gently wiped over her wounds.

As this was being done, Long Yuetian desperately tried to not care about the distance between them and where he was applying medicinal cream to.

Suddenly, Zhai Zhongshen's hand rested on a place she did not have a wound.

It was as if he wanted to wipe away the traces of those two bastards with his own hand.

When this happened, Long Yuetian's eyes widened with surprise. She did not expect Zhai Zhongshen to make such a move.
