Chapter 471: I Won't Back Down

Qin Yufan continued to speak: "And now he's back in the capital, he even brought his mother with him! If I didn't argue with him, by now, his mother would be recognized as Mrs. Qin! So only their love is more solid than gold? And so what if they're reuniting after so many years? Does that mean my mother means nothing at all!? What does she even count as after all these years?!"

"It's not that I can't accept my father getting married again. However, I can't accept him marrying someone else as soon as my mother passes away! He went straight to his first love right after she died! What I can't accept is that the love I thought my parents had for all those years was fake!"

Qin Yufan typically didn't speak much. However, today, she said a lot of things to Jian Yiling.

Jian Yiling gazed at Qin Yufan. She saw Qin Yufan's red eyes and the pained expression on her face.

Jian Yiling didn't know how to comfort her. And thus, she could only tell her: "It's not Qin Chuan's fault. It's not your fault either."

Her words hit Qin Yufan in the heart.

It was a very simple fact. A fact that was known to many people.

But no one had said this to Qin Yufan before this.

Today, Qin Yufan had heard those words for the first time in her life.

Those in the Qin family who supported Qin Yufan would constantly tell her how to deal with Qin Chuan.

And those who supported Qin Chuan would tell her that girls could not inherit the family business.

Qin Yufan laughed. It was a helpless and bitter laugh.

After laughing for a while, some tears appeared in the corner of Qin Yufan's eyes.

"To be honest, I really don't like you. Especially when I first met you. You just looked like a childish and scheming girl to me. However now, I wish to apologize for those initial impressions I had of you. If it wasn't for Master Sheng, perhaps, I would have even admired you."

"He's him. You're you. And I'm me," Jian Yiling said.

Qin Yufan looked at Jian Yiling again and laughed lowly. Then she commented: "I seem to understand why Master Sheng treats you in a special way. You are capable and the way you treat people is quite different to an average person."

Qin Yufan had seen Jian Yiling's approach to certain things.

Even though Jian Yiling knew that she was a love rival, she still chose the truth. She didn't take this opportunity to worsen Qin Yufan's relationship with Zhai Yusnehng.

Perhaps, this was the reason why Qin Yufan felt more relaxed when she was talking to Jian Yiling. As a result, she spoke more than usual.

Qin Yufan smiled as she picked up the champagne bottle on the table. She poured herself a glass.

She raised her head and drank the entire glass in one go.

As she drank the glass in one go, some of the champagne flowed down from the corner of her mouth and ran down her neckline.

“I’m tired. I want a break. And I want someone to lean on,” Qin Yufan said quietly. “However, I won’t back down. No matter how tired I am, I still want to hold the power of the Qin family. You might not understand why. However, this is something that I must get. No matter what the cost.”

###

Fifteen minutes later, Zhai Yunsheng arrived.

Zhai Yunsheng rushed into the compartment of the KTV. He saw Jian Yiling. Jian Yiling was still wearing a t-shirt and jeans. She looked out of place in the compartment.

He quickly walked over to Jian Yiling and took her into his arms.

Jian Yiling was a little shocked. She didn’t know why Zhai Yunsheng was suddenly hugging her.

Jian Yiling reached out to try and push Zhai Yunsheng away. She wanted to put some distance between her and him.

Although she didn’t hate this feeling, she still didn’t feel very good about it.

Typically, young men and women shouldn’t hug each other unless they were a couple. This was something that Jian Yiling understood.

After a moment, Zhai Yunsheng let go of Jian Yiling. He turned around to look at the other person in the room —— Qin Yufan.

Chapter 472: I’ll Be Sad If You’re Angry

Qin Yufan was also looking at Zhai Yunsheng.

When their eyes met, Qin Yufan laughed at herself.

She used to be able to convince herself that Zhai Yunsheng only had a simple ‘teammate’ relationship with Jian Yiling. Back then, she assumed that he simply admired a top gamer like himself.

However, that hug just then had completely dispelled her previous thoughts.

Zhai Yunsheng would not rush in to hug a mere teammate.

At that instant, Qin Yufan felt her heart being pierced with pain.

She understood Zhai Yunsheng. She knew what that kind of hug meant to him.

Zhai Yunsheng was a man who wouldn’t give any hope to a girl he didn’t like. If he was willing to hug someone like that, then that meant that that person had already entered his heart.

The more she realized that fact, the sadder her heart became.

She softly scoffed: “Master Sheng, I really didn’t expect that you would like that type of girl.”

Qin Yufan was a proud girl. She refused to express her dejection.

Then, Qin Yufan commented on something. It was as if she was planning to get revenge on Zhai Yunsheng: “However, just now Miss Yiling told me that in the past three years, she became acquainted with a male friend. In fact, he’s very close to her. He does research with her. On top of that, he’s very optimistic and cheerful. He’s also very good at telling jokes. It seems as though you’re a step too late.”

Whilst saying this, Qin Yufan stood up. Once she finished speaking, she walked out of the compartment with powerful strides. Her high heels clicked as she left.

After Qin Yufan left, An Yang quickly scurried away as well. He slipped out of the room and left space for Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling.

Zhai Yunsheng knew that Qin Yufan had said such things on purpose. However, he had to admit that what Qin Yufan had said at the end had upset him.

It had been three years... Those three years were a weak spot for him.

He had been worried that Jian Yiling had met someone else during that time.

He didn’t know what he meant to Jian Yiling. What was he to her?

Perhaps to her, he was just a former teammate.

Zhai Yunsheng turned his head to look at Jian Yiling. The look on his face was a little unpleasant.

The expression on his face made Jian Yiling assume that he was angry.

“Don’t... Don’t be angry,” Jian Yiling stammered. It had been a long time since Jian Yiling had stammered in her speech.

After a pause, Jian Yiling said: “I’ll be sad if you’re angry.”

Upon hearing these words, Zhai Yunsheng snapped his head around to look at her again. His face was full of surprise.

“What? What did you say?” Had he misheard?

“I... I’ll be sad.”

“Because I’m angry?”

Jian Yiling did not deny his question. Instead, she stated what she felt. “I’ll be sad. When you left three years ago, I was sad. Back then, I didn’t know what to do. Now, I’m sad again. And I still don’t know what to do.”

Jian Yiling had emotions. At times, she would feel sad and lonely.

However, she had gotten used to these feelings. Over time, she had learned to digest these feelings on her own.

In her childhood, she had once hoped for someone to come and keep her company.

During Chinese New Year, she had waited alone in the laboratory. Back then, she had stared through the glass window.

She waited for her parents to take her home.

However, they hadn't come.

That day, she waited from morning until evening. From daytime till night. However, no one came to take her home for the Chinese New Year.

It was snowing that day. The entire world was a vast expanse of whiteness.

She spent Chinese New Year alone in the laboratory.

During that day, she only saw someone who was in charge of taking care of her. That person had come to deliver her food.

And thus, year after year passed by. Holiday after holiday passed as well.

From a certain day onwards, Jian Yiling stopped waiting for her parents. She stopped craving for their attention and love.

Chapter 473: Together Forever

Translator: Exodus Tales Editor: Exodus Tales

She learned to spend time on her own. She learned to spend time on other things when there was no one else around.

She learned to cook, learned to make desserts, learned to make sugar art, learned to embroider, and learned to knit.

She devoted her time to these things. These hobbies made her feel at peace.

And thus, after being calm for so long, she forgot how to have emotions as well.

Jian Yiling didn't know what else she could do when she was sad. Usually, she would quietly wait for that sadness to dissipate on its own.

"Yiling..." Zhai Yunsheng started. He looked at Jian Yiling's downcast face. His heart felt touched by something strange and his face immediately softened.

He stretched out his hand to try and brush away the sadness on her face.

She had never shown her emotions before.

It wasn't because she didn't have emotions. Rather, it was just that she had gotten used to being alone.

Then, Zhai Yunsheng asked Jian Yiling: "Then, are you happy when I'm nice to you?"

"Mhmm..."

"Then, if I'm not angry, you won't be sad?"

"Mhmm..." Jian Yiling admitted frankly.

Zhai Yunsheng's hand gently brushed through Jian Yiling's hair.

She cared about him.

She cared about him a lot.

However, she didn't know how to express herself. She didn't know how to express her feelings for someone who wasn't related to her by blood.

It seemed as though she was slow-witted when it came to such a thing.

However, she did have feelings for him.

Although it wasn't necessarily love, she cared for him. She truly cared for him.

Then, Zhai Yunsheng said to Jian Yiling: "Little fool, I'm not angry."

"I'm not a fool," Jian Yiling retorted.

"Mhmm, you're not a fool. I'm the fool," Zhai Yunsheng conceded.

Although his girl didn't know much about feelings yet, there was no rush. As long as she had slowly started to care, he could slowly teach her the rest.

Zhai Yunsheng gently took Jian Yiling's small hand into his palm.

His palm could cover Jian Yiling's small hand.

Her hand was soft and fair. There wasn't a single cut or scar on her hand.

Jian Yiling cared about her hands the most. If someone were to hit her, she would rather let them hit her face than hit her hand.

She relied on her hands to survive. She couldn't let her hands get hurt.

"Do you dislike this?" Zhai Yunsheng asked Jian Yiling.

Jian Yiling shook her head. She didn't hate his hand holding her hand.

"What about other people?"

"It's okay with Grandma Jian, Yunmo, and Yujie. I haven't tried with anyone else."

Jian Yiling counted out loud.

Zhai Yunsheng held onto Jian Yiling's hand.

He held on tightly. He didn't want to let go again.

###

The Zhai family in the capital.

Master Zhai was in a good mood at this moment.

He had just confirmed something. This was something that made him incredibly happy. In fact, at this rate, he would even be laughing and smiling in his dreams.

It was just at this time that Zhai Yunsheng had returned home.

When he saw Zhai Yunsheng, Master Zhai said happily, "You brat, you've come back after all, huh? I thought that you wouldn't be willing to come home anymore."

After he finished speaking, Master Zhai noticed that Zhai Yunsheng was silent. There was a deep look in his eyes as well.

Although Zhai Yunsheng was drinking water, it was as though he was drinking spirits. There was a sense of melancholy and sadness as he drank.

All of a sudden, Master Zhai was no longer smiling: "What's wrong? Is there something wrong?"

"How long can I live?" Zhai Yunsheng asked. His eyes weren't looking at his Grandpa. Rather, he looked off into the distance.

"What are you asking?! You're going to live for at least a hundred years!"

"I'm being serious," Zhai Yunsheng replied.

He hadn't paid close attention to his health for all these years.

Chapter 474: Live to Care for Someone

Whenever his doctor gave him a regular check-up, Zhai Yunsheng would never ask for the results.

He was just living another day.

He had gotten used to it already. He had been born that way.

Only now, he had a reason to continue to live.

He had someone that he wanted to look after. He had someone that he wanted to protect.

He had to teach his girl what to do when she was sad. He also had to teach her what to do when she was angry.

Zhai Yunsheng didn't want to imagine how upset she would be if he taught her how to manage her emotions and then he left her world...

He didn't want to get close to her to just ultimately leave her behind.

He wanted to live.

Master Zhai's expression darkened as well. This was the first time that his grandson had talked to him like this about his own health.

And thus, Master Zhai sat down on the wooden sofa that was next to him.

He said sombrely: "I don't know. No one can say. As long as there are no accidents, you can live for a long time."

However, if accidents were to happen, he would soon be dead.

However, Master Zhai added: "To be honest, I don't think you need to think about it. There are many accidents in life. Even those who are healthy can experience accidents. They can lose their lives at any time as well."

Upon hearing this, Zhai Yunsheng was silent.

As he looked at his grandson, Master Zhai became more and more worried: "What happened today? You can tell me..."

"These years... It's been difficult for you right?" Zhai Yunsheng asked. He knew he wasn't the only one that was suffering. His family was suffering and in pain as well.

"W-what? What are you talking about? Difficult time? No way!"

"You're lying."

"Ahh..." Master Zhai trailed off. He knew he couldn't lie to his grandson. And thus, he said: "Yeah, I have been worried. In fact, I've been incredibly worried every single day of my life. I'm afraid that something would happen to you. If there is any way to help you, I would be willing to trade the entire Zhai family business."

However, unfortunately, there wasn't.

"Then, I shouldn't put this pain and suffering on someone else, right?" Zhai Yunsheng didn't want her to go through any pain. He didn't want to imagine the pain that she would bear if he really made her fall in love with him.

Upon hearing this, Master Zhai understood what Zhai Yunsheng meant.

"You're worried about that girl, right?" Master Zhai asked in a low voice: "Although I haven't spent a lot of time with that girl, I know that she isn't an ordinary girl. That day, when I saw her calmly examining the skeleton, I knew that she wasn't a fragile person."

"No. She's fragile."

Zhai Yunsheng said as he got up.

In fact, from the moment Jian Yiling appeared in front of him again, the answer to the question that he had no longer mattered.

He wasn't willing to let go again. And thus, she was going to suffer with him.

He was selfish. And he planned to be selfish for the remainder of his life.

Before he left, Zhai Yunsheng said to Master Zhai: "I'm willing to accept those arrangements that you wanted to make for me before. You can build a medical room in my house as well."

As Master Zhai watched his grandson leave, his heart ached. He was worried about him. However, he was also very helpless.

###

Not long after the news was leaked out that someone from Lahaisen Hospital had arrived in the capital, another news article came out.

This person from Lahaisen Hospital had come to recruit people.

And thus, the entire medical circle in the capital was abuzz.

Amongst them, there were those who were interested in fame. Others were interested in money. Finally, there were those who were interested in the pursuit of higher academic achievements.

The name Lahaisen Hospital was now synonymous with the world's top medical standards.

Becoming a staff member at this hospital was not just a matter of salary and benefits. It was more about fame and accomplishment!

Chapter 475: News of Recruitment at Lahaisen Hospital (1)

Translator: Exodus Tales Editor: Exodus Tales

Even the mere news of recruitment had set off such a big commotion. Everyone was curious to learn more about this mysterious hospital that had suddenly risen to prominence. It was in the minds of everyone in the medical community.

Upon hearing this news, a group of professors from the medical department in Beijing University began to become busy.

Although they did not know what the other party was going to examine during the interview, there was nothing wrong with preparing in advance. They had to polish up their skills!

This was also the case with Professor Huang who was Jian Yiling's supervisor during the time that she was on exchange.

He summoned all of his students and asked them to speed up on their projects.

Originally, there were still three to five months until the projects were to be completed. However, Professor Huang wanted them to finish it in a shorter period of time.

This was because he felt that this project had the potential to earn him reputation and fame in the medical circle. This project could become a stepping stone for him to come into contact with Lahaisen Hospital.

Jian Yiling was amongst the other students. This was her first time meeting the other postgraduate students.

The other students were full of curiosity when they saw Jian Yiling.

They had been told that the exchange student was a prodigy in their industry. At eighteen years old, she had already become the proud student of Professor Hyde. Professor Hyde was well-known in international circles.

However, when they met Jian Yiling in person, they were rather surprised. Jian Yiling looked even younger than they had imagined!

In front of the postgraduate students that were in their twenties, Jian Yiling looked extraordinarily young.

“Oh my goodness! She doesn’t look like a researcher! Her hair is still so lush!”

“Ahhh, I feel so old now!”

“Same... I almost feel attacked... If she’s the morning sun, then I’d be the sun that’s setting in the west...”

“You could be relying on your face, yet you’re relying on your talent! It’s so impressive!”

The group of students gathered around Jian Yiling and discussed for a long time.

After that, they introduced the contents of the research project to Jian Yiling.

Jian Yiling had already revised the content before she returned to China.

Furthermore, Professor Huang had also talked about it on the first day that she arrived at university.

One of the female students majored in the same area as Jian Yiling.

The female student’s name was Lu Yuan. She wore a white lab coat and thick glasses. From her appearance, it was easy to guess that she was engaged in academic research.

Lu Yuan took the initiative to speak to Jian Yiling;

“By the way, do you know about Lahaisen Hospital?”

“Mhmm.”

“Professor Huang wants to get in touch with them. Do you know about this?”

Jian Yiling shook her head. She didn’t know much about Professor Huang.

“Ahhh, I also want to learn about Lahaisen Hospital! I want to see the amazing work that they do! It’s basically a magical place! I heard that the hospital is built on a mysterious island and isolated from the rest of the world. It’s like a paradise! It has the most advanced medical equipment and the best medical staff in the world! Apparently, they can cure the diseases that can’t be cured elsewhere in the world!”

There had been a lot of speculation towards Lahaisen Hospital.

People that were engaged in medical research were especially interested in Lahaisen Hospital.

Before Jian Yiling had the chance to reply, Lu Yuan added: “It’s just a pity that there are only two kinds of people that go to Lahaisen Hospital. The staff of the hospital and the patients of the hospital... Ahh...”

You had to be a talented doctor, nurse, or other personnel that was required in their hospital to have the opportunity to work there.

Or else, you had to be sick and lucky enough to be selected.

Of course, no one wanted to get sick with a basically incurable disease.

However, it was very difficult to achieve the former as well.

This meant that for most people, it was impossible to get into contact with Lahaisen Hospital.

Chapter 476: News of Recruitment at Lahaisen Hospital (2)

Then, Lu Yuan asked Jian Yiling out of curiosity: “By the way, aren’t you curious about Lahaisen Hospital as well? When you were studying abroad, did any of your fellow classmates talk about the hospital? Is it just as famous over there?”

“Hmm, perhaps. I’m not really sure,” Jian Yiling replied. Her voice was rather quiet.

Nowadays, she was a little better at small talk with strangers. She would no longer stumble over her own words. However, when she had to speak with them, she still felt a little uncomfortable.

When Jian Yiling was overseas, she hadn’t spent much time at university.

And even during the time she stayed at university, she didn’t work on projects with the other students. Professor Hyde typically gave her independent tasks.

This was because Professor Hyde did not think that Jian Yiling was suited to conduct research with other university students.

And thus, Jian Yiling rarely had the chance to listen to gossip. This meant that she had little chance to hear what other students had to say about Lahaisen Hospital.

However, Lu Yuan continued asking her: “Well, aren’t you curious about the hospital? Are you not interested in working at Lahaisen?”

Lu Yuan assumed that everyone in the medical industry was more or less curious about Lahaisen Hospital.

If they were somewhat capable, they would also try to have further contact with individuals from Lahaisen Hospital.

Professor Huang was an example of this.

“I’m not really curious,” Jian Yiling replied.

However, Lu Yuan wasn’t very convinced.

She had already discussed this with most of the students in their class. There was not a single one of them who wasn’t curious about this mysterious hospital.

Hmmm... Maybe Jian Yiling was a genius. A genius that didn’t really know the ways of the world. Maybe that was the reason why she wasn’t curious about Lahaisen Hospital.

###

Professor Huang greeted a very important guest in his office.

It was Qin Yufan from the Qin family.

Qin Yufan was aware of the news that someone related to Lahaisen Hospital had arrived in Beijing.

However, she didn't manage to attain any more information. The security at Lahaisen Hospital was very well maintained.

And thus, Qin Yufan approached Professor Huang. Professor Huang was a renowned professor at Beijing University. She hoped to get more accurate insider information from him.

After hearing Qin Yufan's request, Professor Huang also expressed his frustration:

"Miss Qin, I want to help you with this matter. However, I might not have the ability to do so. I know very little about Lahaisen Hospital as well. As of now, I only know that a member of their hospital may appear at an academic exchange conference that's going to be held in Beijing. However, I have no idea what kind of person is attending the conference. I don't even know whether they're male or female and whether they're tall or short."

Professor Huang also wanted to get more information. However, he had no means to do so.

All of the information about Lahaisen Hospital was highly confidential.

Their employee database was stored on the mysterious island.

In fact, the communication between the members was through a special channel. The members used separate communication equipment and communication software. In fact, they also used a different server. This meant that there was no way for outsiders to access any of their information.

"Hmm, then could you bring me to the academic exchange conference?"

Qin Yufan made a new request.

Only those from the medical circle were typically invited to such an academic exchange conference.

"I may not be able to do that either," Professor Huang replied frankly. "However, if you really want to attend, you can find a way to contact the organizer. I believe the organizer can allow some people from the business circles to attend the conference."

"Understood. Thank you, Professor Huang. If there is any more news related to Lahaisen Hospital, please let me know about it."

"Okay, I'll keep an eye on it."

Chapter 477: Get in Touch With Lahaisen Hospital (1)

Another person in the Qin family was also trying to contact Lahaisen Hospital. This person was Qin Yufan's father, Qin Hongzhi. He was the current head of the Qin family. At the same time, he was also the CEO and chairman of the Qin Group.

Qin Hongzhi and Qin Chuan were father and son. The two of them shared 60-70% resemblance.

Qin Hongzhi looked like an aged version of Qin Chuan.

Even now, he was still very dignified. Back in the days, he was a rather popular man.

One of his cousins who was an influential director in the Qin family was ill. As a result, his cousin was in urgent need of medical attention.

His cousin had announced that he was willing to hand over all his shares in the Qin family to anyone who could cure him.

Of course, Qin Hongzhi wanted to get his hands on these shares. If these shares fell in the hands of anyone else, it would undoubtedly be a huge hidden threat for Qin Hongzhi and the entire Qin Group.

And thus, he hoped to get into contact with Lahaisen Hospital. He wanted to reach an agreement with Lahaisen Hospital as he wanted to seize those shares.

He was willing to pay a sum of money that was equivalent to the shares that were going to be given away. In exchange, he wanted ownership of the shares.

Qin Hongzhi called over Qin Chuan. He told him about his idea and asked him to be in charge of this matter.

Qin Hongzhi called Qin Chuan over to discuss this matter with him as he was more inclined to hand the Qin family over to Qin Chuan. However, this wasn't because he doubted his daughter's abilities.

On the contrary, he recognized his daughter's abilities.

However, the Qin family had passed their legacy down to their sons for generations. It would be against ancestral tradition to pass it on to his daughter.

This was the reason why a number of elders in the Qin family supported Qin Chuan.

Qin Hongzhi told Qin Chuan: "We can't let outsiders get their hands on these shares. Your uncle is currently ill and thus, he's not thinking about this clearly. However, we can't just let him hand over those shares to someone else. Therefore, we only have two options in front of us. The first option is to reach an agreement with Lahaisen Hospital. The second is to simply not treat him."

This was not something that Qin Hongzhi would have said in front of other people. However, he was rather blunt with his words in front of his son.

Then, he continued at length: "The shares of the Qin family cannot fall into the hands of outsiders. Especially, if it's such a large amount. Once an outsider holds too many shares, they will have the ability to interfere with the decisions of the Board. That's an incredibly dangerous situation for us. And thus, there are only two options. The first option is for your uncle to die. If that happens, the shares under his name will be inherited by his children. Of course, the second option is to reach an agreement with Lahaisen Hospital."

Qin Chuan frowned when he heard this. He understood what his father meant.

This was about the interests of the Qin Group.

However, his uncle held those assets in the first place. As a result, his uncle had the right to decide how he wanted to use them.

"I don't think this is right. We have no right to interfere with his decision."

“Qin Chuan, you have to be ruthless in the corporate world. Have you thought about the consequences if your uncle’s shares fell into the hands of people who harbored evil intentions towards the Qin Group?”

“Lahaisen Hospital only accepts a limited number of patients each year. We don’t even know if he’s going to be treated by them. I don’t think it matters if we don’t intervene.”

“Qin Chuan, you still have so much to learn! You shouldn’t have such wishful thinking in the corporate world!”

Qin Chuan frowned. He didn’t want to argue with Qin Hongzhi.

Upon seeing this, Qin Hongzhi said: “Ahh, go back and think about it first. Come back to me when you understand the situation properly.”

And thus, the conversation between Qin Hongzhi and Qin Chuan ended unhappily.

Mo Shiyun was very busy lately.

She was busy shooting short video clips.

This was because short video clips were becoming popular on the Internet. As a result, many celebrities resorted to relying on them as a means to gain new traffic.

Mo Shiyun was also attempting to do this.

As she no longer had a team behind her to help her put forward plans and ideas, she now had to rely on herself for everything.

The process had been incredibly tough. The first few short videos that she made were not very well received even though she had bought promotion on the video platform.

People said that she was Dong Shi imitating Xi Shi’s frown. They said she was merely imitating someone else’s idiosyncrasies and making a fool out of herself. They said that she was too arrogant and thought too highly of herself to imitate someone else’s funny videos.

When Mo Shiyun read these comments, she felt quite hurt. However, she knew that she wasn’t cut out to make funny videos.

And thus, this time, she planned to follow the new trend of trying to act cool. As of now, she was trying to think of what ideas to use.

Mo Huiqin was very distressed to see how hard her daughter had been working lately.

She had prepared a bowl of bird’s nest stew for her daughter.

Right now, they rented an apartment in Beijing.

At the peak of career, Mo Shiyun had bought two apartments in Hengyuan City.

She lived in one of the apartments. The other apartment was for investment.

At the same time, the amount in her savings account had approached close to eight figures.

However, Mo Shiyun's career had gone downhill. Despite that, her daily expenses were still incredibly high.

In the end, both apartments were sold. Mo Shiyun and her mother went to Beijing in search of more development opportunities.

However, things hadn't been going well. Once every few months, her daughter would be asked to do a celebrity endorsement. To make matters worse, her daughter received limited remuneration for her advertisement.

This income was sufficient to sustain an ordinary family.

However, Mo Shiyun did not want to admit her defeat. She wanted to return to the heights that she had once reached.

And thus, it cost Mo Shiyun a lot of money to maintain her appearance to the public.

As a result, Mo Shiyun and her mother had to suffer a lot of hardships.

Mo Huiqin sighed and said: "Ahhh, if only He Yan hadn't treated her son badly back then. If she didn't make things difficult for herself, then all of those things wouldn't have had to happen."

Back then, Mo Shiyun had two financial backers. One was He Yan and the other was Ms. Qian.

However, He Yan had been completely ruined by her son. Ever since then, she hadn't managed to get herself back up. Once she fell, her partnership with Mo Shiyun had been terminated. As a result, Mo Shiyun had lost a large part of her contacts and a part of her behind-the-scenes funding.

Ms. Qian had also drawn a line with Mo Shiyun for reasons that were unknown to her and her mother till this day.

However, if He Yan was a little smarter, then she wouldn't have been ruined by her son. In this regard, Mo Huiqin felt that He Yan was incredibly stupid.

If she hadn't been ruined by her son, then their partnership would have been incredibly successful. They would have been able to mutually benefit from one another.

With her daughter's potential, Mo Shiyun would have definitely been able to bring He Yan a handsome return on her investment.

"Mother, I'm fine. Don't worry about me. I'm just brainstorming ideas for a short video. It's not as hard as you think."

Mo Shiyun was okay with her investment of time and effort. This was because she didn't have much to do right now. As a result, she had plenty of time to spare.

What she cared about was the fee that she had paid the platform to promote her short videos.

If the promotion didn't work, then she would have basically wasted her money.

"Oh right. Did you ask around about that matter?"

Mo Shiyun was also inquiring about Lahaisen Hospital.

She had heard from her friends that the Qin family was trying to learn more about this mysterious hospital.

One of the big shots in the entertainment industry that she was in contact with had offered a reward to anyone that had relevant information.

Being sick was a common occurrence.

Anyone that's sick would want to get better.

Chapter 479: Master Zhai Dupes Jian Yiling

When ordinary hospitals were unable to cure a patient, then patients could only resort to this mysterious hospital.

This hospital had suddenly emerged in the past year. Even if that was the case, even Mo Shiyun, who was not part of the medical circle, had heard of this hospital's name more than once.

"Shiyun, I'm useless... I didn't manage to find out anything..."

However, this was only normal.

Many large financial groups had also attempted to look for relevant information regarding Lahaisen Hospital. In contrast, Mo Huiqin could only source information from individuals that she had met when her daughter was popular. As a result, what information could she even find?

Mo Shiyun also knew that the chances of finding anything were next to nothing. However, she had to try. Maybe she would be lucky.

Mo Shiyun studied at an art school. She could only continue her career as an actress.

She had only two paths ahead of her. She could attempt to use her short videos to attract an audience. Using this attention, she could attempt to return to the public eye. Or she could attempt to find new connections. Through these connections, she needed to find another agency to sign with.

However, both these two paths were difficult to walk.

Master Zhai approached Jian Yiling directly.

The more he looked at the pretty little girl in front of him, the happier he was.

He was especially happy when he saw the jade pendant that hung from Jian Yiling's fair neck.

Her neck was so beautiful! It was as though she was naturally suited to wear their family's jade pendant!

The thin black string accentuated the fairness of her neck and the jade complemented her skin perfectly!

A jade pendant needed to be worn. It was a waste to leave it unattended in a box.

Master Zhai looked at Jian Yiling with a smile on his face. He looked like a strange grandpa.

After looking at her for a while, Master Zhai remembered the purpose of his visit today.

“Little girl, you know Zhai Yunsheng right? I know that you know that his health isn’t very good. Due to this reason, I want to hire a doctor to take care of him. However, this grandson of mine has a rather strange temper. An average person can’t take care of him. Previously, I’ve tried finding him a few doctors. However, he drove all of them away!”

Master Zhai had a distressed look on his face. He was deliberately showing this expression to Jian Yiling.

However, those words were true. His words were from the bottom of his heart.

Many times in the past, Master Zhai and the Second Master of the Zhai family had tried to arrange a doctor to take care of Zhai Yunsheng’s health.

However, none of them had been accepted by him.

And now, Master Zhai knew that Jian Yiling was a medical student. He also knew that she was an excellent forensic scientist.

Although the profession wasn’t quite the right one, it was still in the same general direction.

And thus, he planned to use this reason to invite her to his grandson’s side. It was perfectly justifiable and reasonable.

If the person who came today was someone else, Jian Yiling would have undoubtedly refused.

However, Master Zhai had approached her. On top of that, it was for Zhai Yunsheng.

For some reason, when it came to matters related to Zhai Yunsheng, Jian Yiling would always treat it differently.

Was it because she owed him a lot?

She would have felt bad if she declined right away.

And thus, Jian Yiling pondered about Master Zhai’s suggestion.

It wasn’t that she didn’t want to say yes. However, she didn’t plan to stay in Beijing for a long period of time.

And this job was undoubtedly long-term.

When Master Zhai saw Jian Yiling’s pensive expression, his brain cogs turned and started to cry out in misery:

“Ahh, I must be born under an ill star. I’m so old and I only have this one grandson. I don’t want to see him die before me. That would be more painful than making me die!”

“Miss Yiling, I can’t help it! I’m just an ordinary old man who wants his grandson to live in good health! I know that you’re good friends with him. I also know that you were teammates who played games together. If it’s you, I think he wouldn’t be against the idea! You’re my only hope now!”

Master Zhai said such words in a mournful and miserable manner. If someone didn’t know better, they would have actually assumed that he was only an ordinary old man.

“I won’t be staying in Beijing for long,” Jian Yiling replied. She decided to tell Master Zhai about her situation.

“How long will you be staying?”

“Around a month.”

“It’s fine. Even if it’s only a month, maybe when he gets used to you, he wouldn’t be so resistant against other physicians in the future.”

The older you get, the more experienced you are.

Master Zhai knew that you couldn’t become fat on one mouthful.

Everything must have a beginning.

After that, he could make steady progress.

He had to kidnap her into his family first! The rest would be fine.

As for the matter of a month later... He would just convince her a month later!

When faced with Master Zhai, Jian Yiling was basically a newborn chick facing against a falcon that had been soaring the plains for many years. She was being eaten alive.

“Then... Okay.” Jian Yiling replied.

“That’s good! Let’s move over there right now!” Master Zhai quickly said. He didn’t leave the slightest chance for Jian Yiling to regret her decision.

He hurriedly assigned manpower to Jian Yiling.

“I’ll leave these female bodyguards with you. They can help you move your stuff! You don’t need to move your luggage yourself. Don’t strain yourself.”

Master Zhai had brought female bodyguards with him today.

He didn’t want another man to touch Jian Yiling’s possessions.

Especially if the girl was going to be his future granddaughter-in-law! He was not going to let another man move her possessions!

His grandson would definitely get jealous!

However, Jian Yiling did not have much luggage.

She only had a few suitcases with her.

Around an hour later, Jian Yiling moved into Zhai Yunsheng's accommodation.

As of now, Zhai Yunsheng didn't live in the Zhai family mansion. Instead, he lived by himself.

He lived on the twenty-second floor of a high-end residential building. His apartment had 200 square meters of space.

He also had a housekeeper and a caretaker.

The entire apartment was decorated in black and white.

There were a lot of vacant rooms in the apartment. And thus, Master Zhai asked the housekeeper to vacate the room opposite Zhai Yunsheng's for Jian Yiling. Master Zhai hadn't even asked his grandson for his opinion.

In fact, Master Zhai hadn't even informed Zhai Yunsheng in advance about this.

As a result, Zhai Yunsheng, who was currently at his company, was completely unaware of this.

###

In the evening, Zhai Yunsheng returned home as usual. He discovered the lights in his apartment were on as he entered.

Then, he saw a small figure in the kitchen.

Zhai Yunsheng froze in his tracks.

He had the surreal feeling that he was dreaming.

As Jian Yiling heard movement, she turned around to look at Zhai Yunsheng.

The two of them stared at each other for a while. Finally, Zhai Yunsheng realized that he wasn't dreaming.

"Why are you here?"

When Zhai Yunsheng walked forward, he saw that there was already a lot of food on the dining table.

Jian Yiling pointed at the document that was on the table and said: "Sign it."

Zhai Yunsheng froze for a moment. Sign it?

What did she want him to sign?

Zhai Yunsheng walked towards the table in a daze. He picked up the document on the table and began to read it.
