Chapter 511: Encounter at Qin Hongrui's Residence (2)

As they walked upstairs, Qin Yufan deliberately walked next to Jian Yiling. She asked Jian Yiling in a low voice:

“What are you doing here?”

“I’m here for work matters.”

Jian Yiling’s voice was calm and soft as usual.

However, as soon as Qin Yufan heard Jian Yiling’s voice, she began to feel annoyed. Jian Yiling’s expressionless little face didn’t help the situation either.

Work matters? How was that related to her uncle?

“You’re not allowed to do experiments on my uncle!” Qin Yufan said as she warned Jian Yiling.

Qin Yufan knew that Jian Yiling was a medical student.

However, no matter how talented Jian Yiling was, she was still a student. A student didn’t have much hands-on experience! As a result, it was way too risky for her to handle the operation.

“Mhmm,” Jian Yiling replied softly.

Ahhh, forget it. It was a waste of time to speak to Jian Yiling.

As they walked in, they saw Qin Hongrui lying on the bed. There was a stack of medical equipment on either side of the bed. The medical equipment was there as a contingency plan.

There was also another doctor in the room. The doctor was responsible for taking care of Qin Hongrui.

As soon as Elder Yun walked into the room, Qin Hongrui opened his eyes.

His complexion was rather bad. Anyone could tell that he was very sick.

However, when Qin Hongrui saw Elder Yun, there was a joyful expression that appeared on his face:

“Elder Yun! You’re here!”

“Please don’t move. I’m here to take another look at your health conditions,” Elder Yun hurriedly said.

The two of them were acquaintances. As a result, it was inevitable that Qin Hongrui was happy when he saw Elder Yun.

Initially, the first person that Qin Hongrui approached was Elder Yun.

However, Elder Yun was rather old. He was okay with doing research. However, it was dangerous for him to touch the scalpel again.

Elder Yun could not perform another surgery.

He was more than willing to do the surgery if he had the energy and stamina to do so.

However, he was quite old now. As a result, his physical stamina, hand strength, and stability were inferior to past days.

And thus, he had to stop performing surgeries.

Elder Yun came forward and took the reports from Qin Hongrui's doctor.

There was a thick stack of diagnostic reports.

After taking a glance through the papers, Elder Yun handed the reports over to Jian Yiling.

Jian Yiling had already seen these papers. Previously, she had read the electronic copy of these papers.

When Qin Hongrui applied to Lahaisen Hospital, he had submitted all the information related to his condition to their website.

Furthermore, Li Zhuojia had confirmed the details when he visited Qin Hongrui.

This time around, Jian Yiling came to visit the patient. Of course, double-checking to confirm the details of the reports was also necessary.

Everyone in the room was rather puzzled when they saw Elder Yun hand over the reports to Jian Yiling. However, they didn't comment on the situation.

It seemed as though the little girl was quite serious as she read through the reports. Was she already able to understand the contents of such a complex sickness?

Then, Elder Yun began to discuss the operation with the Qin family members.

He told them about the entire process from his perspective. He wanted to reassure the family members.

The atmosphere in the room was very harmonious.

However, Qin Hongzhi walked into the room as well.

As soon as Qin Hongzhi appeared, the whole atmosphere of the room changed.

Qin Hongzhi ignored everyone else in the room. He exchanged brief pleasantries with Qin Hongrui and asked him about his recent health conditions.

Then, he immediately jumped to what he wanted to talk about:

"Cousin, I think you should reconsider your decision regarding your shareholdings. One of the main reasons why the Qin Group is so strong is because a large part of the shares is held by the Qin family. You also hold a large percentage of the shares. If your shares fall into the hands of outsiders, the situation would be incredibly unfavorable for our family."

Chapter 512: Encounter at Qin Hongrui's Residence (3)

Qin Hongrui had little strength to speak: "Then, what do you plan to do?"

Qin Hongzhi cut straight to the point. He bluntly told Qin Hongrui, "Cousin, since you're planning to hand over your shares anyways, why don't you give your shares to me? I will give you an equivalent amount of money. This way, you can still hand over sixty percent of your assets to Lahaisen Hospital. This exchange will have no effect on you.”

“Father, what are you saying? Lahaisen Hospital told us that if there is an improper transfer of assets from the time they accepted the application, they will refuse to treat the patient! It was so hard to get this opportunity in the first place! If you do this, my uncle could lose his chance to get treated!”

Lahaisen Hospital set such a rule to prevent people from transferring assets to someone else. If they did such a thing, they would pay less for the treatment.

“Well, I’m not asking him to transfer his assets away! He will still have the same amount of assets. This is an equivalent exchange!”

“However, you’re transferring the assets around! Lahaisen Hospital could see this as a breach of trust!”

Qin Yufan looked at her father in the eye. Once upon a time, his words meant everything to her.

In the past, he had taught her that the Qin family business was their first priority.

“Well, it’s not necessarily a breach of trust. We could try to contact and discuss this matter with them. Maybe they will agree.”

“Father, you can’t do this! You shouldn’t gamble with your cousin’s life! Any mistake will cost him everything!” Qin Yufan argued back.

“I’m not gambling with his life! I’m just proposing another feasible solution!”

In response to his daughter’s lack of understanding, Qin Hongzhi’s anger was gradually stirred up.

As they argued, the two of them didn’t seem to be father and daughter. They seemed to be more like enemies.

Qin Yufan’s words angered Qin Hongzhi. However, due to the presence of outsiders, he held back his anger.

Jian Yiling suddenly spoke out. She reminded Qin Hongzhi and Qin Yufan in a calm voice.

Jian Yiling’s interruption caused everyone to look at her.

“You don’t have the right to speak here!”

What did this little girl know? Why was she meddling in their family affairs?

“I’m a medical personnel. There is a patient here. As a result, I am obligated to protect the physical and mental health of the patient.”

When faced with Qin Hongzhi, Jian Yiling did not flinch. Instead, she spoke in a calm and clear voice.

“Medical personnel? Psh. Do you have the right to speak here?”

There was Qin Hongrui’s doctor in the room. Elder Yun was also in the room.

Both of them hadn't spoken up. So why did this little girl speak up? Was she even considered a doctor? How dare she say something like that to him?

Elder Yun frowned before he said: "Chief Qin, I don't think Miss Jian said anything wrong."

Elder Yun knew that Qin Hongzhi had been trying to get into contact with Lahaisen Hospital.

The girl that had no right to speak here was a member of Lahaisen Hospital. However, Qin Hongzhi didn't seem to know this.

After a moment, Qin Hongrui's wife also added: "Chief Qin, your cousin is still sick. Isn't it a little inappropriate for you to argue in front of his bed like this?"

Elder Yun and his cousin's wife's words made Qin Hongzhi calm down a bit.

He could ignore the words of that little girl. However, he still had to care about Elder Yun.

Then, Qin Hongrui's wife added: "If you want to talk about this matter, you can discuss it with me. Your cousin is sick. Please let him rest well."

Chapter 513: I'm Embarrassing, Aren't I?

After saying this, Qin Hongrui's wife walked out of the room.

Qin Hongzhi also followed her out.

The two of them went downstairs to discuss the matter.

Qin Yufan glanced at Jian Yiling. Although she didn't want to admit it, she still had to admit that the way Jian Yiling talked to her father was... Was rather handsome.

It seemed as though Jian Yiling still had quite a few merits.

However, it would be best for her to not interfere with the matter.

If Jian Yiling pissed off her father, then the Jian family wouldn't be in for a good time.

"Jian Yiling, don't say such things in the future," Qin Yufan said to Jian Yiling in a cautionary tone.

"Why?" Jian Yiling asked. Her tone was flat as she asked the question.

"Why are you asking me why? Use your own brain!" Qin Yufan replied. She wasn't in a good mood.

She didn't know how Jian Yiling managed to survive in Hengyuan City. However, this was Beijing. If she still did the same things, she would pay bitterly for it.

If she pissed off Qin Hongzhi, she would definitely pay for it.

Did she think that her family would be able to protect her at that time?

Or did she assume that Master Sheng would be willing to protect her? Was that why she had no fear?

A woman shouldn't rely on a man to protect her.

Instead, she should learn how to protect herself!

Ahhh... Why did Master Sheng like such a person? Did he like protecting her or something?

Jian Yiling didn't reply to Qin Yufan. As a result, Qin Yufan assumed Jian Yiling understood her words.

Qin Hongzhi spoke with Qin Hongrui's wife for a while. However, not after long, the two of them started to argue.

Upon hearing the commotion downstairs, Qin Yufan hurriedly headed down to check up on the situation.

However, this caused an even bigger commotion.

Qin Yufan and Qin Hongzhi started to argue again.

From the noise, it seemed as though there was an incredibly fierce argument.

After a while, Jian Yiling headed downstairs. At that time, Qin Hongzhi had already left the house. On the other hand, Qin Yufan ran into a small room to cry.

As the door of that room wasn't closed, Jian Yiling walked over to it.

Qin Yufan was curled up in the corner of the room. She had her face buried in her arms and was crying softly.

Jian Yiling closed the door behind her and quietly sat down beside Qin Yufan. She listened to her cry without saying words of comfort. She didn't even try to persuade Qin Yufan not to cry.

"Why did things turn out this way... He's my father! He's the person that I respected and loved the most! When I was young, he was so great. In my eyes, he was so worthy of respect. And now, I actually find out that he's not worthy of respect at all! He's not at all what I thought he was..."

"I miss my mother... Do spirits exist in our world? Is my mother watching me from Heaven? If she's watching me in Heaven, can she tell me what I have to do? What do I have to do to get better?"

"My home is gone... My mother is gone as well... And now, it seems as though I'm losing my father too... I feel like giving up..."

Qin Yufan broke down.

The argument with Qin Hongzhi just now had completely shattered the strength that she displayed.

And thus, she started to cry. She let out all the emotions and feelings that she kept to herself for so many years.

Some of her emotions had been bottled up for a long time. The argument today had opened that door. All the pain, dissatisfaction, and anger inside came pouring out.

After a while, Qin Yufan lifted her head up. Her eyes were red and her face was covered with tear marks.

Qin Yufan. The young lady of the Qin family. Had never been in such a sorry state before.

However, this time, she was in such a mess in front of an outsider.

Qin Yufan looked at Jian Yiling. She asked uncomfortably: "I'm embarrassing, aren't I?"

Chapter 514: Your Nose Will Grow Long if You Lie

"No," Jian Yiling replied as she handed over a tissue.

Qin Yufan took the tissue and wiped away the tear marks on her face. Then, she fiercely warned Jian Yiling:

"Don't say anything you saw today to anyone! Don't you dare tell anyone! Don't tell Zhai Yunsheng either. I will dislike you immensely if you try to ruin my position in Master Sheng's heart by such means! Do you understand?"

As Qin Yufan had been crying, her voice was rather quiet as she said this. She sounded like an infant that was trying to learn how to speak. As a result, her words were not intimidating at all.

"Mhmm," Jian Yiling replied.

"And where's your phone? Take it out. I want to make sure that you're video recording or something!"

"I'm not recording anything."

Jian Yiling hadn't taken out her phone.

"Okay. I'll believe you for now. However, if you lie, your nose will grow long! If I find out that you're lying, I won't forgive you!" Qin Yufan warned Jian Yiling.

Jian Yiling felt that Qin Yufan's words were rather childish.

She wouldn't believe such words.

After gathering her emotions, Qin Yufan returned to her usual self. She was back to being haughty and strong.

However, in reality, she wasn't much older than Jian Yiling. This year, she was only twenty-one years old.

Her mother had passed away when she just turned eighteen.

Ever since then, she hid a lot of bitterness in her heart. However, she had her pride. And thus, she didn't like to show her emotions to others.

However, the person that should have understood and trusted her had given her the biggest blow.

"Your makeup is smudged," Jian Yiling said.

"Where?"

"Left?"

"Your left or my left?"

Qin Yufan raised her hand to wipe her own face.

However, after a moment, she simply let Jian Yiling do the wiping for her.

She still had to speak to people when she left the room.

The little girl in front of her had already seen her in such a sorry state. However, she couldn't let even more people see her in a state! She wasn't a joke!

###

Originally, Mo Shiyun didn't have much hope in coming into contact with Lahaisen Hospital.

She merely wanted to test her luck. As a result, she asked her mother to inquire about the matter.

However, she was surprised to hear that she had someone close to her who was related to the hospital.

There was a foreigner called Ryan who was a fan of Mo Shiyun. Mo Shiyun had helped him when he was in need.

A few ago, Ryan had leukemia. He had a bone marrow transplant two and a half years ago.

The person who donated the bone marrow was Mo Shiyun.

At that time, Mo Shiyun was contracted with a company. As her popularity and reputation were falling, her company's agent asked her to take advantage of the matter to regain popularity.

Mo Shiyun thought that this was a good idea. And thus, she donated her bone marrow and managed to help Ryan.

When Ryan heard that Mo Shiyun was looking for Lahaisen Hospital, he expressed his willingness to help.

And thus, Mo Shiyun met with the other party. However, she had a rather skeptical attitude.

Ryan was a Caucasian-looking man. He had brown hair, a high nose bridge, and deep eyes. He was rather tall in height as well.

As he lived in China for quite some time, he spoke Chinese fluently.

Ryan told Mo Shiyun that he had a VIP card for Lahaisen Hospital. If he used the VIP card to apply on the Lahaisen Hospital website, his application would be prioritized.

Mo Shiyun looked at Ryan before she said: "How did you get this card?"

Ryan smiled before he explained: "Lahaisen Hospital was built a few years ago. Other than money, they also needed support in terms of resources. Building a hospital on an island that's far away from any mainland is an incredibly labor-intensive matter."

Chapter 515: VIP Card (1)

Translator: Exodus Tales Editor: Exodus Tales

"However, the Dean of Lahaisen Hospital is an incredibly capable individual. The Dean was able to call on the help of the elites from all walks of life. And thus, the Dean could successfully build the hospital. After the completion of the hospital, the Dean of Lahaisen Hospital gave a VIP card to those elites. The Dean told them that in times of need, they could contact the core members of the hospital. They would get priority assistance from Lahaisen Hospital when their lives are in danger."

“My grandfather’s younger brother gave me this VIP card. My grandfather’s younger brother is already in his seventies to eighties. As he doesn’t have any children, he decided to give the card to me. As he’s quite old, he thought that it didn’t matter if he got sick in the first place. Furthermore, he was worried that I would get sick again. And thus, he gave me the VIP card just in case.”

The VIP card had been issued a year ago. As Ryan was sick before then, the card had not been used. As a result, the VIP card had been kept until now. He didn’t know whether or not he would use the card in the future.

“Now, I’ll give you the card,” Ryan said as he handed the card to Mo Shiyun.

“You... Are you really giving me the card?” Mo Shiyun asked. She was rather shocked. She didn’t expect the other party to give her the card.

“Mhmm. I’m giving the VIP card to you,” Ryan replied firmly. “Two years ago, you gave me a second chance in life. Otherwise, I would have been dead at that time already. My grandfather’s younger brother wouldn’t even have had the opportunity to give me this card. As you need the card right now, I’m willing to give the card to you.”

Ryan’s actions made Mo Shiyun incredibly touched: “Thank you... I don’t know what to say. I really appreciate this! If there’s anything you need from me in the future, just tell me. I...”

“No no,” Ryan responded with a smile. Mo Shiyun was his goddess and savior. He didn’t want to be stingy. “Just take the card with ease. This is what I owe you. Please continue to work hard. I will always be a fan of yours. I believe that you will become popular again one day.”

“Thank you! I will try my best!”

With the support of such a fan, Mo Shiyun’s morale was boosted.

Then, she tightly gripped the VIP card in her hand.

The value of this card exceeded all the assets under her name right now. It could change everything in her life.

This was the happiest thing that Mo Shiyun had encountered in the past few years.

###

Once Mo Shiyun got her hands on the VIP card, she immediately approached Qin Chuan.

As she couldn’t call him or message him through any apps, she decided to leave a private message for him on Weibo.

She told him that she had a way to get in touch with Lahaisen Hospital.

Mo Shiyun knew that the Qin Group was inquiring about Lahaisen Hospital. She didn’t know who needed treatment. Nor did she know about the complicated situation in the Qin family.

Qin Chuan saw Mo Shiyun’s message.

Mo Shiyun had messaged him through the Weibo account that he had in his high school days. Very few people knew of this account. The people around him right now did not know of this account. As a result, on that account, he would only receive a few messages a day.

Mo Shiyun's message caught his attention.

And thus, Qin Chuan replied to Mo Shiyun. He asked her for more details.

However, Mo Shiyun said that she wanted to talk about it when they met in person.

Then, she added that she was also from Hengyuan City. She said that they had met before.

Upon reading those messages, Qin Chuan agreed to meet her in person.

Chapter 516: VIP Card (2)

Qin Chuan and Mo Shiyun agreed to meet at a coffee shop in the central business district.

When Qin Chuan met Mo Shiyun again, he still didn't have an impression of her. However, he felt that her appearance was somewhat familiar.

It seemed as though they had indeed met before.

This was the first time that Mo Shiyun sat opposite Qin Chuan like this.

It was a one-on-one conversation.

There were only two of them there. No one was there to interfere with their conversation.

Mo Shiyun dressed up for today. Her makeup and clothing were both incredibly exquisite.

She paid more attention to her appearance than usual.

Mo Shiyun was incredibly nervous and apprehensive. However, at the same time, she was incredibly excited.

On the other hand, Qin Chuan was dressed in a suit. He hadn't put extra effort into his appearance. He was dressed this way when he was working.

However, a masculine charm emanated from his body. Mo Shiyun couldn't take her eyes off him.

She had been secretly in love with him for three years. Over the years, her love for him hadn't diminished.

"Miss Shiyun," Qin Chuan greeted. "Could you tell me what you know about Lahaisen Hospital?"

"You remember me?" Mo Shiyun asked. The words 'Miss Shiyun' lit up Mo Shiyun's world.

It was a morning light that broke through the darkness.

"You contacted me through your main account," Qin Chuan replied.

Mo Shiyun was an actress. And thus, her account was authenticated by the officials of Weibo. Qin Chuan could see the name of the person who messaged him.

Mo Shiyun had been popular for a period of time. However, Qin Chuan hadn't watched the dramas she starred in. Furthermore, Qin Chuan wasn't interested in chasing after celebrities in the first place. As a result, it was normal for Qin Chuan to not know of Mo Shiyun.

The spark of joy was completely extinguished by Qin Chuan.

Mo Shiyun's heart felt bitter. Her expression darkened a bit before she said: "Actually, we met when we were in Hengyuan City. You even invited me to dance."

Qin Chun vaguely remembered that day. On that day, it was the first time that he appeared in public as the Young Master of the Qin family. He remembered that he indeed invited a lady to dance.

"My apologies. I didn't mean anything that day," Qin Chuan said.

However, Mo Shiyun wished that he didn't apologize.

Mo Shiyun took a moment to gather her emotions. Then, she explained the purpose of the meeting today:

"I know that you're trying to contact people from Lahaisen Hospital. I should be able to help you. Do you happen to know about Lahaisen Hospital's VIP cards?"

"Yeah, I've heard about the VIP cards. However, it's hard to find people who have it."

The people who were helpful to Lahaisen Hospital were wealthy and respectable individuals. Most of them were professionals in a certain field.

Furthermore, most of these people weren't in China.

And even if they were in China, it would be incredibly difficult to entice those people with money.

"I have a friend that holds a VIP card. He gifted the card to me."

Mo Shiyun's words surprised Qin Chuan.

He looked at Mo Shiyun again before he said: "Then, what exactly is your purpose today?"

Qin Chuan knew that there was no such thing as a free lunch. If she was willing to help him, what price did he need to pay?

"I know that you're competing with Qin Yufan."

This wasn't a secret. Everyone knew that conflict and competition existed between Qin Chuan and Qin Yufan.

Everyone wondered about the future of the Qin Group. Would the Qin Group be owned by Qin Chuan or Qin Yufan?

Mo Shiyun continued to speak: "Well, I want to help you win more support in the family. You're incredibly talented and you deserve the best things. I just want you to be well..."

Chapter 517: Not that Kind of Relationship

Because of him?

Qin Chuan paused when he heard this. He was rather surprised to hear such a response.

Then, he took a serious look at the woman in front of him.

If he was honest with himself, Qin Chuan would admit that he wasn't very touched by her actions. However, he still recognized the effort that she had put in. He knew that it wasn't easy for her to do this.

When Mo Shiyun felt Qin Chuan's gaze on her, she started to feel nervous. Small beads of sweat came out from her palms.

However, she was still worried about Qin Chuan refusing. And thus, Mo Shiyun quickly added: "I don't mean much. I just paid attention to you for quite some time... I see you as my idol..."

Qin Chuan smiled politely before he shook his head: "I'm not as good as you think."

"No. You are. You're an amazing person. Even without the support of the Qin family, you're still an amazing person. You managed to achieve success using your own efforts."

Then, Mo Shiyun told Qin Chuan about her past. She told him about her experiences and the hardships that she experienced in the past three years.

Qin Chuan quietly listened to Mo Shiyun. Mo Shiyun's words were incredibly sincere and heartfelt. As a result, Qin Chuan felt rather touched by her words. He started to develop a new understanding of the girl in front of him.

"Mhmm. Let's make a deal then. You can use your VIP card to help me. In return, I'll assist you in your career."

Qin Chuan was very clear with his words.

Mo Shiyun nodded. Although Qin Chuan still had a business-like attitude, at least this time, he would remember her.

She was no longer an insignificant stranger to him.

"Also... I have one more question..."

"Hmm? What is it? Just ask me."

Mo Shiyun bit down on her lips. Finally, she asked a question that had been buried in her heart for a long time:

"Do you like Jian Yiling?"

"Why do you ask that?"

Jian Yiling was indeed special to him.

However, Qin Chuan didn't necessarily like her romantically. He wasn't too sure about his feelings towards her.

However, he would definitely try his best to protect her.

Jian Yiling saved his mother's life. In addition, he enjoyed occasionally spending time with her.

“I feel like... You treat her quite differently... And I guess, I’m just a little curious.”

“Really? Well, she’s very important to me. However, it’s not what you’re thinking. It’s not that kind of relationship,” Qin Chuan explained.

This answer gave Mo Shiyun’s heart some solace.

###

After walking out of the café, Mo Shiyun contacted a reporter that she had messaged in advance.

This was another preparation that she made.

The reporter had taken pictures of her and Qin Chuan together. There were photos of them seated together and photos of them walking out of the café together.

Once upon a time, she hated using these ambiguous photos to gain fame.

However now, she took the initiative to do such a thing.

She knew the distance between herself and Qin Chuan. As of present, she knew that it was impossible for her to cross over that distance even if she used all her strength.

And thus, she wanted to use Qin Chuan to become popular again. She wanted to become a topic of conversation again.

If she couldn’t get love, she would at least try to make her career progress out of this.

Three years ago, she would not have done such a thing.

However, three years had passed. She was no longer the same girl. Mo Shiyun had experienced the ups and downs of the entertainment industry.

In those three years, she saw the cruel side of humanity. She encountered so many walls and so many disgusted looks.

She knew that she had to make herself popular again. By becoming popular, she could gain the respect of others.

By becoming popular, she could rightfully gain the attention of Qin Chuan.

Furthermore, Mo Shiyun believed that such a post would not harm Qin Chuan.

She knew that the post would be deleted rather quickly.

Chapter 518: Becoming Popular Again

Later on, she would take the initiative to clarify the misunderstanding.

However, at least for a brief period of time, Mo Shiyun wanted to become popular again. She wanted to return to the public eye. Either way, she wasn’t planning to do something that would genuinely harm Qin Chuan’s reputation.

Such a move from Mo Shiyun proved to be very successful.

A young master from a rich and powerful family with a young actress was always a topic that gained attention.

Furthermore, this young master was Qin Chuan! This allowed the topic to gain even more attention.

It was a catalyst for popularity and attention.

And thus, three years later, Mo Shiyun's name became a hotly discussed topic again.

In fact, some people on the Internet even dug out photos from three years ago. Back then, Mo Shiyun had danced with Qin Chuan.

This evidence seemed to further suggest that the two of them were dating.

[Who is Mo Shiyun? Why haven't I heard about her before?]

[You must be quite young. I think she was quite popular a few years ago. She aired in some web drama. Hmm... What was the name of the web drama again? I forgot the name. However, she was quite popular for a period of time.]

[Mo Shiyun is so pretty. And Young Master Qin is so handsome. They look quite good together.]

[Ahhh, I'm so jealous. Young Master Qin is so handsome! He's rich and attractive! He's literally Prince Charming!]

[Oh? Do you guys not know that Qin Chuan is an illegitimate child? There's a lot of things going on under the surface level.]

[Woah, seriously? I want to hear about the drama! [Waiting for Drama]]

Some of the people went ahead and searched up Mo Shiyun's name on the Internet. They discovered the short videos that Mo Shiyun uploaded.

They watched the silly videos that she had posted on her account.

[Hahahaha, why do I find these videos quite funny?]

[Yeah! She seems to have an interesting soul! I think I found a hidden treasure!]

The short videos that Mo Shiyun had filmed ended up working wonders.

All of a sudden, Mo Shiyun became popular again.

There were more and more people talking about her.

In the past few years, Mo Shiyun had learned something. In the entertainment industry, you didn't necessarily have to produce good work. If there were enough people talking about you, you would become popular. And off that popularity, you would be given more opportunities to shine.

And thus, Mo Shiyun seized this opportunity to gain a wave of popularity.

However, the news was deleted by the Qin family in less than two hours.

Soon after the post was deleted, Mo Shiyun came out to clarify the situation as well.

She said that the photos had been taken by the paparazzi. She stated that she was merely friends with Qin Chuan and clarified that they weren't in a romantic relationship.

However, Mo Shiyun was already overjoyed. She had managed to gain enough popularity in these hours.

###

Mo Shiyun appeared at the official recruitment venue of the Lahaisen Hospital. Lahaisen Hospital's VIP card was in her possession.

In the last academic conference exchange, Li Zhuojia had merely introduced himself to everyone. He briefly displayed his talent to the industry. However, on that day, he hadn't mentioned anything about recruitment.

This time around, it was Lahaisen Hospital's official recruitment day.

The recruitment day was even more lively than expected.

Many people registered for Lahaisen Hospital's recruitment.

Other than those who registered for Lahaisen Hospital's recruitment, there were also many other people who turned up at the venue. Those people were merely curious about Lahaisen Hospital.

Furthermore, there were plenty of individuals who sought help from Lahaisen Hospital as well. There were many families that were in similar situations to the Qin family.

The venue of the recruitment day was chosen to be in an office building of a medical equipment manufacturing company.

Previously, this medical equipment manufacturing company was on the verge of bankruptcy. The company suffered huge losses due to insufficient innovation and a poor business model.

However, in the past two years, the company managed to release new products. They got through their crisis and turned their losses into profits. Last year, the company even managed to make hundreds of millions in revenue.

Chapter 519: Requesting to Meet Core Members

As Lahaisen Hospital borrowed the office building of that company, it meant that Lahaisen Hospital definitely had some connection with that company.

Lahaisen Hospital's examinations were incredibly difficult. Apparently, the examination was sectioned into several different rounds.

Only the individuals that passed through the examinations would get a final interview opportunity.

Mo Shiyun waited at the entrance for quite some time. She waited for Qin Chuan to arrive.

Then, the two of them entered the recruitment venue.

There was a security check at the entrance of the recruitment venue. Lahaisen Hospital's staff members stood by the gates.

They strictly controlled the number of people who entered and left the venue.

They only allowed individuals who were taking the examinations to enter the venue. Everyone else was not let in.

As Mo Shiyun had the VIP card in her hands, she managed to enter the venue quite easily. She told the staff that she had something important to discuss with the core members of Lahaisen Hospital.

Everyone else was stopped at the gates. They could only look at Mo Shiyun with astonishment and envy.

That woman actually had Lahaisen Hospital's VIP card!

Who was she?

"Wait a minute. Does she have Lahaisen Hospital's VIP card?"

"Yeah, she does! That card is incredibly expensive! Apparently, someone offered a hundred million dollars to buy it!"

"Wait, I thought they weren't allowed to buy or sell the card."

"Well, it's fine if Lahaisen Hospital doesn't hear about the transfer of money no? Just say that it's a gift."

"Who is that woman? That card is a symbol of status! She's either incredibly rich or talented!"

"I don't know. She's wearing a hat and sunglasses. I can't see her face. However, she must be incredible!"

Mo Shiyun and Qin Chuan ignored the envious looks from the crowd. They kept chatting as they walked by.

Qin Chuan discovered that he had a lot of things in common with Mo Shiyun.

The two of them had similar life experiences and heartaches. As a result, they could sympathize with the other person's experiences.

As the two of them entered the elevator, Mo Shiyun saw a figure that she wasn't unfamiliar with. That person was queuing up to enter the venue as well.

It was Jian Yiling!

She was also at Lahaisen Hospital's recruitment day.

Why was she here?

Mo Shiyun knew that Jian Yiling was a medical student. And thus, she assumed that Jian Yiling was here to take Lahaisen Hospital's examination.

Before coming, Mo Shiyun had asked around. She discovered that many professors, experts, and medical students would be attending the recruitment day.

Many people were just giving it a try. They didn't have much hope of being admitted. After all, Lahaisen Hospital only accepted the cream of the crop.

Even though Mo Shiyun knew that Jian Yiling was here to take the examination, she still felt slightly upset when she saw Jian Yiling.

Every time she met Jian Yiling, something bad happened.

Mo Shiyun glanced at Qin Chuan. It appeared as though Qin Chuan hadn't noticed Jian Yiling yet. And thus, Mo Shiyun pretended to not see her either.

She didn't want Qin Chuan's attention to be drawn away by Jian Yiling.

At the same time, Mo Shiyun attempted to mentally convince herself not to pay attention to Jian Yiling. She wasn't related to that girl.

Today, she was here to help Qin Chuan. As she was here already, Mo Shiyun also wanted to take this opportunity to see how Lahaisen Hospital operated.

The recruitment venue was held on the seventh floor of this office building. As the first two rounds of assessment were written examinations, currently, Li Zhuojia had the time to meet the two of them.

Upon hearing that there were people with VIP cards, Li Zhuojia went to greet them.

It seemed as though the VIP card meant much more to Lahaisen Hospital than the Qin family.

Qin Chuan greeted Li Zhuojia. Then, he courteously explained the purpose of his visit.

He said that he hoped to meet the core members of Lahaisen Hospital.

Li Zhuojia smiled when he heard this. Then, he told the two of them that they may need to wait for a while.

Chapter 520: VIP Card is Lost

And thus, Qin Chuan and Mo Shiyun had to wait.

As they waited, the two of them took a walk around the office building. Then, they ran into Jian Yiling. Jian Yiling's figure was among the individuals who were applying to Lahaisen Hospital.

Right now, the individuals were moving from one conference room to another. The conference rooms were where the exams were being held.

When Qin Chuan spotted Jian Yiling in the crowd, his eyes lit up. A delighted expression appeared on his face as he walked straight over to Jian Yiling.

"Jian Yiling, why are you here?" Qin Chuan asked. His words and the expression on his face showed his excitement and happiness to see Jian Yiling.

"Something came up," Jian Yiling explained.

She wasn't here to take the exam with the other applicants. Instead, she was here to invigilate the exams.

“Oh, then when are you leaving? Do you need me to take you back home?” Qin Chuan asked.

“No need,” Jian Yiling replied. She refused him decisively and firmly.

Right now, Qin Chuan was with Mo Shiyun. She didn’t want to get involved with the two of them.

“Oh, that’s fine. I can keep you company for a while. There’s some time before the next exam starts.”

Qin Chuan said as he glanced at his watch. There was still half an hour before the second exam started. As he was waiting for someone, he decided to accompany Jian Yiling for the time being.

“No need to do that,” Jian Yiling replied again.

She didn’t want to hang out with Mo Shiyun and Qin Chuan.

However, Qin Chuan was unusually insistent.

Mo Shiyun stood on the side as she watched them talk. She felt a needle prick her heart as her heart quietly bled.

Qin Chuan told her that he didn’t have romantic feelings for Jian Yiling. However, his current actions seemed to say something else.

Was he really not interested in Jian Yiling?

This caused Mo Shiyun to doubt Qin Chuan’s words.

Just now, Mo Shiyun thought that she had a chance with Qin Chuan.

Their conversations went along fine.

However, why did Jian Yiling have to appear? Why did that girl have to destroy her beautiful moment?

As Qin Chuan insisted on accompanying Jian Yiling, he stayed with Jian Yiling outside of the conference room for almost half an hour.

Mo Shiyun could only stand beside Qin Chuan silently.

Mo Shiyun didn’t have anything to say to Jian Yiling.

Soon, it was time for the job applicants to enter the examination room.

Suddenly, Mo Shiyun cried out: “Wait, why is my VIP card missing?”

“What’s going on?” Qin Chuan asked.

Mo Shiyun had an alarmed expression on her face as she replied: “As we’re going to meet that person, I went to look for my VIP card.”

Originally, the job applicants merely glanced at Mo Shiyun. They didn’t pay much attention to her.

However, Mo Shiyun then mentioned to the staff that she lost the VIP card of Lahaisen Hospital.

Everyone was stunned when they heard this.

Lahaisen Hospital's VIP card was said to be incredibly rare.

The staff paused for a moment before they decided to help Mo Shiyun search for the card.

They turned around and asked Mo Shiyun: "Do you remember when you last saw the card?"

After thinking for a while, Mo Shiyun replied softly: "I showed them the card at the entrance. Then, I placed the card into my bag. However, when I looked for the card again, it was gone."

As the card was held by Mo Shiyun, this meant that she was a VIP of Lahaisen Hospital. As a result, the staff members were obligated to investigate the situation.

And thus, the staff asked the people at the scene if they could check their bags.

The job applicants had no objection to this.

As they didn't steal the card, they had nothing to worry about.

They were here to do the exam today. There was nothing shameful in their bags.

And thus, everyone's bags were checked. However, the VIP card wasn't in the bag of the job applicants.

After the search, the staff members were about to go search for the VIP card in the corridors of the building.

"Wait, you haven't checked her bag yet."

Someone suddenly commented. They pointed their finger in the direction of Jian Yiling.
