Chapter 521: Irrefutable Evidence

Just now, the staff of Lahaisen Hospital checked everyone else's bags. However, they hadn't checked Jian Yiling's bag.

"Yeah, that's true. That girl is closest to them. Shouldn't she be the most suspicious person?"

The crowd made a reasonable deduction.

During the break, the three of them had been seen staying together.

Even if someone wanted to steal something, they had to get close to them first.

The rest of them didn't even have the opportunity to approach Mo Shiyun.

"Umm..." the staff members started. There was some hesitation in their voices.

Then, they turned around to look at each other. However, no one walked up to Jian Yiling to check her bag.

"Well, she should open her bag! You've already searched our bags. It doesn't make sense to not check her bag!"

"Yeah, that's true. We can't assume that she won't steal the card just because she knows the owner of the card. Some thieves target people they know!"

The crowd expressed their discontent with this. It seemed as though Jian Yiling was receiving special treatment.

Everyone else's bags were checked. Why should Jian Yiling be an exception?

And thus, under the unanimous request of the crowd, a staff member walked forward and asked Jian Yiling in a gentle voice: "Could we check your bag?"

Jian Yiling nodded her head.

Then, she passed her bag to the staff member.

The staff member opened Jian Yiling's bag. Inside the bag, there was a lunch box, a stack of papers, an umbrella...

Suddenly, a VIP card slipped out of the stack of papers and fell onto the ground.

The abrupt appearance of the VIP card surprised everyone.

Without a doubt, it was the card that Mo Shiyun had lost.

This was irrefutable evidence.

Then, the crowd looked at Jian Yiling with strange eyes.

She had really stolen the card!

Such a cute and quiet girl was a thief!

The staff members were also stunned.

Why was the VIP card in Jian Yiling's bag?

"Wow, she actually stole the card!"

"I would have never imagined this!"

"It's shameful to steal!"

"..."

Upon seeing the situation in front of them, the staff members didn't know how to react. They repeatedly checked the VIP card. Was it another VIP card?

However, after they checked the code, they confirmed that it was the one that Mo Shiyun had lost.

And thus, Jian Yiling couldn't argue her way out of this situation.

The crowd looked at Jian Yiling with disappointment and disgust.

What was the use of being pretty? Her character and behavior were disgusting!

Qin Chuan also looked at Jian Yiling with surprise. He refused to believe that Jian Yiling stole the card.

"I think this might be a misunderstanding. She wouldn't steal something," Qin Chuan said with certainty.

Qin Chuan firmly believed in Jian Yiling's character.

However, some people in the crowd commented against this.

"There's irrefutable evidence already. Stop speaking up for her. Look at the woman beside you. Her face is pale."

"Yeah, there's overwhelming evidence already. What's the point in trying to explain the situation?"

Qin Chuan glanced at Mo Shiyun. He wanted to hear her opinion on the situation.

"Perhaps... Perhaps, this is a misunderstanding..." Mo Shiyun said as she bit down on her lips.

The way she said this made people in the crowd feel bad for her.

And thus, those people spoke up.

"Stop protecting that girl. I don't know what relationship you guys have, however, it's really unfair for the victim."

In fact, some people even urged the staff to contact the police.

"I think the police should deal with this. Lahaisen Hospital's VIP card is incredibly valuable. This can be considered as a crime."

"Yeah, I agree. You should contact the police."

However, the staff members did not move. There were awkward expressions on their face.

At this moment, Li Zhuojia walked over.

As Li Zhuojia presented at the academic exchange conference, everyone immediately recognized him.

Chapter 522: No Need for Her to Steal this VIP Card

As soon as they saw Li Zhuojia, the crowd went silent.

Li Zhuojia walked up to the staff members and asked them what had happened.

And thus, the staff members recapped what had just happened to Li Zhuojia.

After listening to the recap, Li Zhuojia looked over in Jian Yiling's direction.

"Mr. Li, this person stole the VIP card that was issued by Lahaisen Hospital. In fact, they stole the card at Lahaisen Hospital's recruitment day venue! Such audacity!"

"Yeah, this is disgusting."

A few people in the crowd expressed their opinions on the matter.

However, most people were silent. They waited for the next thing to happen. They didn't want to express their opinions on the matter.

However, Qin Chuan was still firm with his opinion. He continued to defend Jian Yiling: "I don't think she would steal anything. There must be some misunderstanding here."

Jian Yiling, on the other hand, did not open her mouth to defend herself.

Words didn't matter. What mattered was how the issue was going to be handled.

In addition to this, as a victim, Mo Shiyun's thoughts and opinions were also something to be considered.

After a long time, Li Zhuojia finally spoke:

"She wouldn't steal this card."

This wasn't an answer that the crowd expected.

Mo Shiyun raised her head and looked at Li Zhuojia in surprise. She couldn't believe what he was saying.

However, she quickly withdrew her eyes and hung her head down. She did not express her opinion on the matter.

The crowd asked Li Zhuojia:

"Why? Why are you so sure that she wouldn't steal the card?"

"Yeah, I'm confused about this as well. The lost VIP card appeared from her bag. We all saw that!"

“There is no need for her to steal this VIP card,” Li Zhuojia explained. “She’s a friend of our hospital. As a result, she can take as many VIP cards as she wants. There is no need for her to steal one. The staff members knew about this. And thus, that’s why they didn’t check her bag.”

Huh?

This girl was a friend of Lahaisen Hospital?

Then she was basically a walking VIP card!

So why would she steal a VIP card?!

Was this really just a misunderstanding?

But how did the card get into her bag?

The eyes of the crowd soon fell on Mo Shiyun.

Even Qin Chuan turned around to look at Mo Shiyun.

Qin Chuan enjoyed his conversation with Mo Shiyun today. However, he still couldn’t trust her character. His relationship with Mo Shiyun was different from his relationship with Jian Yiling.

Mo Shiyun’s hands began to sweat.

After a few seconds, she slowly raised her head: “I also want to know what happened. I hope that this is just a misunderstanding. I don’t want to think too badly of anyone.”

Mo Shiyun’s words sounded incredibly reasonable.

Li Zhuojia turned his head to look at the surroundings. He discovered that the current location was a dead-end for surveillance cameras.

Obviously, the person who did such a thing observed this beforehand.

Without evidence, it was impossible to determine what exactly happened.

The crowd also followed Li Zhuojia’s line of sight.

When they saw that he was looking at the security camera, the crowd could guess what he wanted.

However, the security cameras around them couldn’t reach the location that they were in.

Typically, companies only installed security cameras in important locations. As a result, most corners and insignificant locations did not have security cameras.

If security cameras covered everywhere in the building, a single surveillance monitor would not be enough.

Chapter 523: Face Really Hurts

Then, Li Zhuojia suddenly said: “Well, the cameras over there are placed by the company. We merely borrowed their premise to conduct the recruitment. And thus, to better record the performance of each job applicant, we've also installed several hidden cameras throughout the venue. This is not even known to the staff."

Upon hearing this, a chill went through Mo Shiyun's entire body.

Then, Li Zhuojia pointed to his surroundings again: "Do you see that lamp? And the socket over there? And the furnishings? They all have hidden cameras installed on them. They've recorded everything. And thus, if we check the surveillance footage, we will know what happened here."

Then, Li Zhuojia turned around to speak to his assistant: "Go to my office and bring my laptop back. I can view the surveillance footage from the cloud."

Upon hearing this, Mo Shiyun was in a complete panic.

"Don't report this to the police!" Mo Shiyun cried out, "Just consider this as a gift to her! Just please don't report this to the police!"

If this matter was reported to the police, her career would be utterly over.

And thus, the police must not be called.

The crowd was incredibly confused when they heard this.

What was this woman saying?

What did she mean by that? Did she just admit to framing the other girl?

Qin Chuan turned around and looked at Mo Shiyun incredulously.

His favorable impression of her turned into ashes in an instant.

Initially, when he chose to believe in Jian Yiling, he hadn't suspected Mo Shiyun at all.

He assumed that everything was merely a misunderstanding.

He assumed that Mo Shiyun was an optimistic and hardworking woman. It was the type of person that he appreciated.

"Why did you do this?" Qin Chuan asked with a perplexed expression on his face. "Do you know Jian Yiling?"

Qin Chuan didn't even know that there was a relationship between Mo Shiyun and Jian Yiling.

As things had already reached this point, Mo Shiyun couldn't hide anything anymore. Even if she didn't say anything, Jian Yiling would tell him about it.

"Well, remember when I told you my mother and I were framed? After we were framed, we got kicked out of where we were living. Well, that was the Jian family."

"You..." Qin Chuan started. He did not expect Jian Yiling and Mo Shiyun to be connected in such a way.

Qin Chuan had heard about this from Mo Shiyun.

However, he did not believe that the Jian family would do such a thing.

And thus, Qin Chuan began to doubt Mo Shiyun's words.

Based on what he had seen with his own eyes, he couldn't help but doubt her words.

"Well, take a step back and look at the situation. Even if their family wronged you in the first place, you still shouldn't have done such a thing today."

"I know that I did the wrong thing," Mo Shiyun admitted. She knew that she had to admit her mistake right now. Then, she had to say that she wanted to give the card to Jian Yiling as a surprise gift.

As Mo Shiyun admitted her mistake, she basically slapped herself in the face. In fact, in a sense, she also slapped the people who stood up for her in the crowd.

The few people who had just spoken out against Jian Yiling felt that their cheeks were burning hot. It felt as though they had just been slapped a dozen times.

Then, Li Zhuojia asked Mo Shiyun: "Do you admit your mistake then? Do you admit that you put the card into Jian Yiling's bag?"

"Yes, I admit to those things. I know I did the wrong thing. Please don't report this matter to the police," Mo Shiyun begged. She was afraid that Li Zhuojia would make a big deal out of this matter.

Her popularity had just come back. If negative news appeared at this moment, all her efforts would go down the drain.

She and her mother had worked so hard for this. She didn't want that hope to be extinguished again.

At this moment, Mo Shiyun regretted her impulsive behavior.

She shouldn't have done such an irrational thing because of her momentary anger.

Chapter 524: Guilty Conscience

Upon hearing this, Li Zhuojia laughed: "You've admitted your mistake quite quickly. Unfortunately, there are no hidden cameras installed. I was just bluffing you earlier. However, I did not expect you to admit such a thing so quickly."

"What!?"

Upon hearing this, Mo Shiyun realized that she had been tricked.

The other people were also surprised to hear this.

If there was no surveillance, there was no evidence!

However, Mo Shiyun had confessed her mistakes because of her guilty conscience!

Then, Li Zhuojia continued to speak: "I'm going to take back this VIP card of yours. This card is not meant to fall into the hands of scheming and calculating individuals. In fact, your name will be on the blacklist for Lahaisen Hospital. Please leave right now. You're not welcome here anymore."

The value of the VIP card was given by Lahaisen Hospital. If it was no longer recognized by the hospital, it was essentially just garbage.

After Li Zhuojia finished speaking, two staff members approached Mo Shiyun and ‘asked’ her to leave. Mo Shiyun’s face turned pale as she turned her head to look at Qin Chuan.

However, she was met with disgust and disdain.

After such an incident, did she really expect Qin Chuan to give her pity, sympathy, and care?

After dealing with this matter, Li Zhuojia arranged for the job applicants to continue their second examination.

Then, Qin Chuan and Jian Yiling accompanied Li Zhuojia to a temporary office room.

“Mr. Qin, please state what you want.” Because of Qin Chuan’s attitude just now, Li Zhuojia had a pretty good impression of him.

“But I’m still waiting for...”

“They won’t be here today. I’ve opened the webcam. They will hear everything you say,” Li Zhuojia said as he pointed to the equipment beside him.

“Okay, I’ll tell you then. I hope that Lahaisen Hospital will not agree to Qin Hongzhi’s request. Please don’t give him those shares.”

Qin Chuan explained the purpose of his visit.

His words were the complete opposite of what Li Zhuojia expected.

“Why? His shares could become yours in the future.”

“In the past, he abandoned my mother. Right now, he’s disregarding his cousin’s life. In essence, he’s only a selfish person. What he cares about the most is himself.”

Li Zhuojia did not reply to Qin Chuan immediately. Instead, he waited for a while.

Then, a notification appeared on his phone. Li Zhuojia glanced at the message he received.

After that, he said to Qin Chuan: “Okay, we agree.”

“Thank you.”

“There is no need to thank us. You made a fair request.”

###

Jian Yiling received a package that was sent by Jian Yujie.

When she opened the package, there was a pile of trinkets and other small gifts.

However, all of the things were pink and cute.

Despite that, each thing was quite different. It appeared as though the gifts were from various places over the world.

In the past three years, Jian Yujie had followed his master. He went to many places around the world.

And thus, these things were most likely bought by him when he was traveling to those places.

Jian Yiling could imagine Jian Yujie carefully selected these gifts for her.

No matter where he went, he would never forget to buy small gifts for his favorite sister.

At the bottom of the package were two tickets for a magic show.

Jian Yujie was finally going to perform on stage. The performance venue was going to be in Beijing.

After his college entrance exams, Jian Yujie had followed Madam Su Xu everywhere. He spent his days focusing on magic.

Three years later, Jian Yujie had improved a lot.

This was because he was talented and hardworking.

And thus, Jian Yujie finally got the opportunity to perform on stage.

As Jian Yiling held the tickets, she felt truly happy for Jian Yujie.

Chapter 525: Jian Yujie's Magic Show

His fate had changed. He hadn't died at the age of nineteen.

Furthermore, he also managed to follow his dreams! He became a real magician!

In the evening, Zhai Yunsheng just came home from work. Jian Yiling immediately rushed over to him and shoved a ticket into his hands.

"Let's go together!"

Zhai Yunsheng's heart skipped a beat. Was he dreaming?

Did this little girl actually take the initiative to ask him out?

Zhai Yunsheng never thought that such a scene would happen.

Zhai Yunsheng's gaze fell on Jian Yiling. A smiling expression was on Jian Yiling's face. Although the smile was not that obvious, Zhai Yunsheng still caught onto the subtle difference.

It seemed as though she was looking forward to this.

"Are you asking me out on a date?" Zhai Yunsheng asked.

"Huh?" Jian Yiling said as some confusion appeared in her eyes.

"You gave me the tickets because you want to watch the show with me right?"

"Mhmm."

The smile on Zhai Yunsheng's face intensified and his gaze burned: "Do you know that if two people go to watch something together, it's considered as a date?"

Jian Yiling looked at Zhai Yunsheng for a moment. Then, she said: "But, Yu Xi is also going... It's not the two of us."

Yu Xi?

He was going as well?

"Did you ask him to go?"

Jian Yiling shook her head: "Brother Yujie invited him."

Upon hearing this, Zhai Yunsheng finally noticed that something was wrong. He looked down at the ticket in his hand.

Then, he realized that it was a ticket for a magic show.

Ahh, so Jian Yujie had given them the tickets...

It seemed as though Jian Yujie had also given tickets to Yu Xi.

Upon this realization, Zhai Yunsheng's brain snapped back to reality. He had thought too much into it... She hadn't taken the initiative to ask him out.

Although Zhai Yunsheng knew that he was overthinking, he still couldn't help but feel a little disappointed.

###

On the day of the magic show, Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling headed to the venue together.

When they arrived, they immediately saw Yu Xi. Yu Xi had arrived before them.

He also bought drinks for Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling.

Zhai Yunsheng glanced at the seat number on his ticket.

Then, he glanced at Yu Xi's seat number.

Yu Xi's seat was Row 1, Seat 7.

However, Zhai Yunsheng's seat was Row 1, Seat 6. On the other hand, Jian Yiling's seat was Row 1, Seat 8.

"Get up," Zhai Yunsheng said to Yu Xi.

Yu Xi paused before he looked at Zhai Yunsheng with a confused expression on his face. "Huh? Why?"

"I told you to get up."

And thus, Yu Xi stood up in a daze.

Then, Zhai Yunsheng sat down on Yu Xi's seat.

Following this, Zhai Yunsheng gave Yu Xi his ticket.

Yu Xi took Zhai Yunsheng's ticket and sat down in Seat 6.

Yu Xi muttered to himself that Zhai Yunsheng was stealing his spot. His previous spot was closer to the middle of the stage!

Not after long, the performance began. Jian Yujie appeared on the stage.

He was confident and dazzling.

Three years had passed. Jian Yujie had lost the immature look that he had at the age of 17.

He began to look more masculine. In fact, he grew a little taller as well.

Jian Yujie's performance today involved cutting up a human body, making a human appear out of thin air, and also a few other tricks that he had designed by himself.

And thus, there was one performance after another.

From time to time, thunderous applause came from the audience.

At the end of the entire performance, Jian Yujie gave his speech of thanks.

Other than thanking the audience for being there and thanking his master, Jian Yujie also gave a special thanks to Jian Yiling:

"I want to thank one person in particular. That person is my sister. If it wasn't for her, I would not have had the opportunity to become a magician. In addition, I might have even lost hope for the future. She was the one who gave me light and warmth. She was the one who gave me the courage to walk forward. Finally, she was the one who gave me so much support on this path."

As he spoke, Jian Yujie's gaze fell on Jian Yiling who was seated in the first row.

His gaze was soft and warm.

Chapter 526: Nothing Has Changed in Three Years

After the performance, Jian Yujie invited Jian Yiling, Zhai Yunsheng, and Yu Xi backstage.

Yu Xi immediately ran up to Jian Yujie and placed his arm around Jian Yujie's shoulders. Then, he started to praise him: "Wow, I can't believe this! You're actually quite talented! You're already a famous magician at the age of 20! You have so many options open for you in the future!"

Jian Yujie smiled as he said: "This is all because of my sister."

"Hey, can you stop praising your sister so much? You've already said this once on the stage! You don't need to mention it again in front of us," Yu Xi commented. He couldn't help but diss Jian Yujie.

"Well, I don't think it matters how many times I say this. It's actually because of my sister."

Jian Yujie walked away from Yu Xi and walked towards Jian Yiling.

He put his hand in front of Jian Yiling. Currently, his hand was empty.

However, after his hand turned a little, a small doll keychain appeared out of thin air.

In the past, back in the Old Jian Residence, he had also performed magic tricks for her.

Three years had passed. Both of them had grown up.

However, their relationship hadn't changed.

He was still the person who performed magic tricks for Jian Yiling. He wanted her to be happy.

Yu Xi couldn't help but comment: "Ahh if I knew this was going to happen, I wouldn't have come! Honestly, I should just let the two of you catch up on your own."

Jian Yujie smiled when he heard this: "Well, you're not at a loss anyways. You might not have this opportunity in the future!"

Jian Yujie performed in Beijing because he had accomplished quite a bit in the past few years. However, another reason was that he wanted to spend time with Jian Yiling before her eighteenth birthday. In addition, he wanted to accompany her on her birthday as well.

###

Lahaisen Hospital confirmed that they were going to operate on Qin Hongrui. Then, the follow-up arrangements were quickly put into place.

And thus, Lahaisen Hospital's exclusive helicopter landed on a vacant lawn near Qin Hongrui's villa.

Qin Hongrui was lying on a patient transfer bed. He was surrounded by his family and medical staff as he got pushed to the location where the helicopter landed.

Qin Yufan was also present. She was overjoyed when she saw the helicopter of Lahaisen Hospital.

"Yufan, please don't worry. I will come back safely."

Qin Yufan nodded. If it wasn't for the fact that Lahaisen Hospital only allowed two accompanying family members, she would have definitely tagged along.

Qin Hongrui's wife also told Qin Yufan: "Yeah, please don't worry about your uncle. Your cousin and I will look after your uncle. Nothing bad will happen. We have a satellite phone with us. I will call you when we get there."

Qin Yufan nodded. She sincerely hoped that her uncle would return safely. She wanted him to be healthy.

However, Qin Yufan was still a little worried at this moment.

She felt that her father might appear to interfere with this matter again...

Qin Yufan hoped that she was thinking too much into the matter.

Li Zhuojia brought out a contract for Qin Hongrui to sign.

The contract stated that after successful surgery, sixty percent of the assets under Qin Hongrui's name would go to Lahaisen Hospital.

Qin Hongrui did not hesitate for a single moment. He picked up the pen to sign his name.

However, at this moment, Qin Hongzhi arrived with a large number of people.

Out of the group of people, there were many security guards and also quite a few company directors.

They surrounded Qin Hongrui.

All of them spoke up to stop Qin Hongrui from signing this contract.

The reason for this was the same as what Qin Hongzhi had said earlier. He didn't want a large number of the Qin Group's shares to fall into the hands of outsiders. This would cause damage to their company.

Then, Qin Hongzhi placed another contract in front of Li Zhuojia.

Chapter 527: Stalemate

Translator: Exodus Tales Editor: Exodus Tales

"Mr. Li, if you agree to this exchange, I can also give you an additional twenty million dollars in cash as a reward."

Qin Hongzhi wanted to take advantage of this moment. He wanted to discuss this when all three parties were present to talk.

Qin Hongrui's family looked at Qin Hongzhi in disbelief.

Why would he come at this moment? Why would he do all of this just for his cousin's shares?

"Father?" Qin Yufan spoke out. She knew what her father had in mind. However, she didn't realize that her father would arrive at the scene at this moment.

Her uncle was going to have an operation soon!

Why was he here to discuss this at such a time?

"Yufan, I'm just trying to think of a way to solve this problem! I don't want to harm your uncle either!"

Then, Qin Hongzhi turned around to speak to Qin Hongrui: "Cousin, you're going to hand over your shares in the first place. Wouldn't it be better to hand them over to me? You're also a member of the Qin family. You should understand my concerns!"

Qin Hongrui had nothing to say. He understood what Qin Hongzhi was saying. However, Lahaisen Hospital had stated their rules as well.

Qin Hongrui was incredibly sick. He needed this operation to have a chance to live. However, even at this moment, Qin Hongzhi was still determined to find a loophole for his own benefit.

Such words more or less broke the hearts of Qin Hongrui's family.

Qin Yufan also felt the same thing.

Li Zhuojia's expression remained unchanged: "Mr. Qin Hongzhi if I don't sign the agreement that you've prepared for us today, are you not going to let us leave?"

Qin Hongzhi frowned when he heard this: “Mr. Li, I don’t want to be on bad terms with you. I just want you to agree to this. I don’t think your hospital will suffer any loss from this.”

However, Li Zhuojia replied: “Well, if you think that there’s no loss to us, then why do you insist on this in the first place? If you’re doing this in the first place, doesn’t that mean that you’re profiting from this? So how exactly are we not making a loss from this?”

As soon as Li Zhuojia finished speaking, five black commercial vehicles pulled up around them. Security personnel got out of those vehicles.

Lahaisen Hospital had very few members. In fact, as of now, there were fewer than 10 core members.

However, when they were traveling about, in order to ensure the safety of their members, Li Zhuojia had still hired a large number of security personnel.

This was especially the case as their Dean was also in Beijing.

Obviously, Qin Hongzhi hadn’t expected so many people.

Although Lahaisen Hospital was a mysterious place, it was still a hospital. And thus, Qin Hongzhi never expected them to have so many security guards.

Faced with this, Qin Hongzhi felt a bit of pressure.

However, there was no turning back now. Things had already reached such a point. He either had to succeed or he had to die trying.

Qin Hongrui’s wife started to cry: “Please let us go, Hongzhi... When Hongrui gets better, you can blame us for letting go of the shares... We won’t have any complaints. However, please don’t stop us right now! We’ve never wronged you! Hongrui is seriously ill right now! You’re doing him a disservice by blocking our way like this!”

The sooner Qin Hongrui was operated on, the higher the success rate would be.

Qin Yufan’s heart was also in pain. Why did her father not care about her feelings at all?

Her uncle meant a lot to her! If her father cared about her, then he shouldn’t stop his cousin from getting treatment!

Chapter 528: Why is Jian Yiling Here?

Was Qin Hongzhi’s obsession with the shares merely because he was afraid of outsiders having a say in the Qin Group?

No, that wasn’t the reason. Instead, he wanted to own the shares to ensure his absolute say in the Qin Group.

Qin Yufan knew about this.

In the end, her uncle’s life and pain meant nothing. Her pain meant nothing as well. Those things did not outweigh the personal benefit in her father’s eyes.

And thus, the two sides were in a stalemate.

The people that were in the most pain were Qin Hongrui and the people who cared about him.

This was a matter of life and death. However, Qin Hongzhi had stopped them in their tracks.

How could this not make them anxious?

However, Qin Hongzhi wasn't someone who was willing to give up easily.

At this moment, a person that everyone did not expect appeared in front of them.

It was Jian Yiling.

Why was she here?

What was she doing here?

Jian Yiling walked straight to Li Zhuojia.

The people that Li Zhuojia brought along moved away to form a path for Jian Yiling.

This wasn't something that everyone expected to see.

They could vaguely sense that Li Zhuojia's men were incredibly respectful towards Jian Yiling.

However, wasn't that quite strange?

Li Zhuojia's men were people from Lahaisen Hospital. Why should people from Lahaisen Hospital treat Jian Yiling with respect?

Qin Yufan looked at Jian Yiling with a shocked expression on her face.

She had seen Jian Yiling and Li Zhuojia chatting together. However, she merely assumed that they were acquaintances. She didn't realize that it had something to do with Lahaisen Hospital.

Jian Yiling roughly knew what was happening. She knew what Qin Hongzhi wanted.

She could do what Qin Hongzhi wanted. However, she didn't want to do so.

And thus, Jian Yiling looked at Li Zhuojia. Li Zhuojia lowered his head to listen to Jian Yiling's instructions.

After listening, Li Zhuojia nodded his head and said: "Okay."

Jian Yiling wasn't very good at dealing with such a situation. And thus, she told Li Zhuojia what she wanted and what she hoped to achieve. The details were up to Li Zhuojia to manage.

After this, Li Zhuojia turned around to speak to Qin Hongzhi: "Lahaisen Hospital can make this deal with you. However, the contract has to be modified in some way."

"Please speak."

Qin Hongzhi did not want this matter to go too far. And thus, it was good that Lahaisen Hospital was willing to relent.

He had no intention of delaying his cousin's treatment either.

“We are willing to accept the proposal of exchanging cash for shares. However, this must be a deal that’s made with Miss Qin Yufan. This means that we’re getting the equity from Mr. Qin Hongrui and then selling them to Miss Qin Yufan at market price.”

“What?” Qin Hongzhi started. He was surprised to hear those words.

Even Qin Yufan was shocked.

How could this be?

Why did Lahaisen Hospital add this condition?

What good would this do for them?

Then, Qin Yufan’s gaze fell onto Jian Yiling.

Jian Yiling was standing quietly beside Li Zhuojia. It seemed as though she was just an insignificant person.

However, after she appeared and said something to Li Zhuojia, Li Zhuojia had changed his attitude on the matter.

And thus, Qin Hongzhu asked: “Why... Why are you doing this?”

“You don’t need to know why. You just need to let us know whether or not you agree to these terms. If you can not accept such an arrangement, then we will have to give up on Mr. Qin Hongrui’s treatment.”

If Qin Hongzhi was still going to be stubborn, then he was going to have a complete standoff with Qin Hongrui.

Chapter 529: What Relationship Do You Have With Li Zhuojia?

If he didn’t say yes to such an agreement, he would definitely suffer from this.

He didn’t want to live on with the weight of Qin Hongrui’s life on his shoulders. He didn’t want to be hated by Qin Hongrui and his family either.

And thus, Qin Hongrui turned his head to look at his daughter. In the end, he nodded his head in agreement.

Then, whilst Qin Yufan was in a daze, she signed the agreement with Lahaisen Hospital. After that, she watched the helicopter take her uncle away.

After the helicopter left, she rushed over to Jian Yiling and asked her:

“What relationship do you have with Li Zhuojia?”

Qin Yufan was quite curious. She wondered why Jian Yiling’s words could change Li Zhuojia’s attitude.

“We’re friends.”

Jian Yiling replied. It was a rather simple answer.

“Only friends? Then what did you say to him? Why did he suddenly change his mind?”

Jian Yiling was silent for a while. She did not answer Qin Yufan's question immediately.

After a moment, Qin Yufan realized that she needed to thank Jian Yiling.

And thus, she said: "Regardless of the reason, thank you."

She thanked her for coming over to solve the situation.

She also thanked her for allowing her to hold onto this part of the shares.

"Well, you have to pay for it. If you don't have the money, it's not yours."

Jian Yiling wasn't giving Qin Yufan the shares for free.

Qin Yufan had to use her money to buy the shares. Furthermore, it was quite costly to buy the shares.

If Qin Yufan couldn't gather enough money, she wouldn't be able to gain ownership of the shares.

Qin Yufan froze for a moment. It was only then that she realized the serious problem.

She didn't have that many liquid assets!

Even if it was her father, it would be quite difficult for him to get that much money at once!

Then, Jian Yiling added: "You will only be able to buy the shares that you have money for."

"You..." Qin Yufan started as she stared at Jian Yiling. Then, after a long time, she squeezed a sentence out of her teeth: "You're not cute at all!"

Qin Yufan did not have that much money.

And thus, things were up to Qin Hongzhi.

If Qin Hongzhi wanted to keep the shares in the hands of the Qin family, then he would have to help Qin Yufan buy the shares.

This meant that he was basically giving his assets over to Qin Yufan.

This also meant that even if Qin Hongzhi gave everything else to Qin Chuan, Qin Yufan would not be left with nothing. She would always have a place in the Qin Group.

Qin Hongzhi also came up to them. He sized up Jian Yiling with a sharp look before he asked: "What did you do just now? Did you make Li Zhuojia change his mind?"

If she did make him change his mind, then how did she manage to do so? She was just a little girl!

Li Zhuojia was an incredibly stubborn person. Why would he listen to this little girl?

Qin Hongzhi was incredibly puzzled about this. Li Zhuojia treated this little girl very differently. It was in front of so many people as well!

When did he become inferior to a little girl? He was the Chairman of the Qin Group!

A bodyguard who was left behind by Li Zhuojia answered the question for Jian Yiling: "Mr. Qin Hongzhi, Miss Yiling is a friend of Mr. Li. This has already been answered by Miss Yiling."

However, even such an answer was hard to believe.

The Qin family had worked so hard to try and achieve this outcome. How did Jian Yiling manage to settle everything in just a few words?

However, as he wasn't getting an answer anytime soon, Qin Hongzhi decided to give up for now.

Chapter 530: Grandma Jian has a Cerebral Stroke

Grandpa Jian, Grandma Jian, Jian Shuxing, Wen Nuan, and Jian Yuncheng got off the plane. They headed straight to the hotel that they had booked beforehand.

This time, the entire family was out together. However, it wasn't because of business in Beijing.

Rather, it was because Jian Yiling's birthday was coming up soon.

This year, they wanted to spend time with Jian Yiling on her birthday.

Their little girl was finally turning eighteen years old.

As she thought about this, Grandma Jian wanted to shed tears of joy.

She remembered how her little girl looked when she was first born.

Then, she remembered her wobbly appearance when she first started to walk.

She also remembered the first time Jian Yiling called her grandma. Her voice was incredibly soft and babyish.

In fact, back then, Jian Yiling crossed her arms and ordered her brothers to piggyback her!

Time really flies... In an instant, her little girl was already eighteen years old.

After they arrived in Beijing, Grandma Jian also contacted Jian Yunnao and Jian Yujie who were also in the capital.

They agreed to go to Jian Yiling's place to give her a surprise.

However, that didn't end up happening. As soon as Grandma Jian got off the plane, she felt unwell.

As everyone else was so happy, she didn't say anything.

Yet, when they arrived at the hotel, Grandma Jian lost consciousness.

"Mother!"

"Grandma!"

Grandma Jian heard the voices of people around her as she drifted out of consciousness.

This was meant to be a surprise for Jian Yiling. However, it ended up as a shock.

No one expected Grandma Jian to faint.

The Jian family quickly sent Grandma Jian to the nearest hospital. The hospital was a subsidiary of Beijing University.

The doctor there told the Jian family that Grandma Jian was suffering from a cerebral stroke. Cerebral strokes were also known as cerebral hemorrhage.

“There’s extravasated blood in the brain. It needs to be removed as soon as possible in order to reduce the intracranial pressure. In addition, you should be mentally prepared. The success rate of this surgery is not 100 percent. And even if the surgery is successful, she may still suffer from after-effects.”

A cerebral stroke must be operated on as soon as possible. The sooner the better.

“What are the potential after-effects?” Jian Shuxing asked the doctor nervously.

“Hmm, I’m not sure either. The brain is incredibly complex. Difficulties in speech and action are all possible.”

The doctor’s words made the Jian family’s faces go pale.

“Then, what’s the success rate?”

“We will try our best as it’s our duty. However, we can not guarantee the outcome. Every surgery has its risks.”

Whilst Jian Shuxing and the others discussed this with the doctor, Grandpa Jian was contacting one of his friends. His friend Mr. Qiu was an esteemed figure in the medical circle. He hoped that Mr. Qiu would be able to find them a reliable surgeon.

Grandma Jian must be fine!

As they couldn’t help with anything else, the only thing that they could do was to find her a skilled surgeon. This would improve the success rate of the operation.

However, where could they find such a person in this short period of time?

Grandma Jian could not afford to wait for her surgery!

###

Jian Yiling froze when she received the call.

Her family hadn’t called her. Instead, someone from the hospital called her.

Grandma Jian had a stroke... She was currently unconscious and in urgent need of an operation...

As the events leading up to such a situation didn’t happen, Jian Yiling assumed that Grandma Jian wouldn’t have a stroke.

However, it seemed as though she couldn’t escape fate.

Even if certain things didn’t happen, Grandma Jian still had a stroke.

When Jian Yiling arrived at the hospital, the doctor was preparing to operate on Grandma Jian. They asked the Jian family to sign the documents.

Surgery had to be begun immediately. Every minute was crucial.
