Chapter 531: Dr. F.S as the Main Surgeon

Before Jian Yiling arrived at the hospital, she thought about asking Li Zhuojia to contact the hospital. She wanted to ask the hospital to let her be the surgeon for this operation.

However, after she arrived, she realized that there was a possibility that she wasn't able to perform the surgery.

For the first time in her life, she was going to operate on someone who she had feelings for. And thus, that affected her mood for the surgery.

This was something that Jian Yiling hadn't experienced before.

Jian Yiling looked down at her hands.

She had to make a choice now.

Was she going to trust herself? Or was she going to put Grandma Jian's life in someone else's hands...

At the last moment, Jian Yiling decided that she would perform the surgery herself.

She could do this.

She had to do this.

She had to do the operation. She needed to trust her own hands and she needed to trust herself.

And thus, Jian Yiling told Li Zhuojia that she was ready to take on this surgery. Upon hearing this, Li Zhuojia immediately made arrangements for Jian Yiling.

The Jian family was about to sign the documents when someone from Lahaisen Hospital reached out to them.

"Dr. F.S. is willing to take on Ms. Jian's case. Will you let Dr. F.S. perform this surgery? If you agree, the surgery can be performed immediately. Dr. F.S. is over at the hospital right now."

Upon hearing the words Dr. F.S., a ray of light shone into their hearts.

Jian Shuxing's hand shook when he heard this.

Then, he immediately told the news to the others.

Dr. F.S. was known as one of the best surgeons in the world! He had successfully performed the operation on Jian Yunnao's hand! And thus, they completely trust him.

They were willing to entrust this operation to him.

"Yes, yes!" Grandpa Jian quickly said. "I'm sorry for the trouble! Thank you."

Dr. F.S. was saving their family for the second time.

The minds of the Jian family were filled with a myriad of thoughts and ideas.

In the operating room, Jian Yiling was changing her clothes. Li Zhuojia was also changing his clothes. He was going to be Jian Yiling's assistant.

At present, there were only two members of Lahaisen Hospital in Beijing. As a result, he was the only one who could provide assistance to Jian Yiling.

"Have you thought over it?" Li Zhuojia asked again. He wanted to confirm the situation with Jian Yiling one last time.

It wasn't that he didn't believe in Jian Yiling's abilities. This operation did not pose a problem for Jian Yiling.

However, the patient was Jian Yiling's grandma.

With feelings involved in the mix, it was possible for Jian Yiling to falter in the operation. She wouldn't be as calm as usual.

"I will be fine. I want to save her. I must save her."

Jian Yiling replied firmly.

As it was someone who was close to her, she had to succeed.

Temporarily removing the bone from the skull, reducing the pressure in the brain, and removing the extravasated blood.

A slight mistake in such a process would result in Grandma Jian becoming disabled.

She could lose a certain function or sense. For example, it was possible for her to lose the ability to speak or hear.

In fact, she could even become paralyzed.

###

When Jian Yiling came out of the operating room, she went to change her clothes. Her forehead was covered in sweat.

This was also something that had never happened to her before.

In the past, given the right operating conditions, no matter how long the surgery took, Jian Yiling wouldn't sweat.

She would remain calm for the entire operation. She would perform every step in a calm and methodical manner.

"Take a rest. I will ask someone to bring you some food," Li Zhuojia said to Jian Yiling.

Then, Li Zhuojia turned around. He realized that Jian Yunnao was standing by the door.

Chapter 532: She's Dr. F.S...

Today's incident was incredibly sudden. And thus, they were unable to arrange for many people to accompany them.

At this moment, Jian Yiling and Li Zhuojia were both very tired. They did not notice someone approaching them.

Jian Yunnao was dumbfounded to see the scene in front of him.

Once he learned that his grandma had a successful operation, he had immediately run over.

He wanted to thank Dr. F.S. personally.

However, instead, he saw Jian Yiling coming out of the operating room.

His sister... How could she...

When Jian Yunnao's eyes met Jian Yiling, everything around them seemed to have ceased to exist. It was as though there were only two of them left in the world.

"Dr... Dr. F.S..." Jian Yunnao muttered out. This was a name that was incredibly important to him.

In the past years, his mind had made up the appearance of Dr. F.S countless times.

However, he had never imagined Dr. F.S to look like this.

Dr. F.S was his sister?

How could this be?

How could this happen?

The person who had saved his life and given him hope was actually his sister?

This...

Jian Yunnao was unable to digest this news for a moment.

He stood in place. It was as though he was petrified. He stared at Jian Yiling in a mute manner.

###

The surgery had been successful. The extravasated blood had been removed.

As of now, Grandma Jian was in a good state.

After a few hours, Grandma Jian regained consciousness.

Grandma Jian's first reaction after waking up was to look for Jian Yiling.

"Where's Yiling? Did Yiling come?" Grandma Jian asked. "Ahh, it's my fault. I wanted to surprise her for her birthday. However, things ended up like this... The surprise turned into a shock... Is she okay?"

"Mother, don't worry. Yiling is fine. We didn't tell her about this."

“Ahhh, that’s good.”

As they were talking, Jian Yiling walked through the door.

Jian Yunnao was following Jian Yiling.

The two of them entered one after the other. They were separated by half a meter. That gave the impression that they weren’t close.

“Yiling? Why are you here?”

Jian Yiling walked over to the hospital bed and gently leaned her upper body against a spot that was next to Grandma Jian’s arm.

However, she didn’t touch Grandma Jian’s body. Despite that, it looked as though she was snuggling up to her.

Upon seeing this, Grandma Jian quickly said: “Yiling, don’t be sad. I’m fine.”

“Does it hurt?” Jian Yiling asked as she raised her head.

Her scalpel had cut through the bodies of many people. However, it didn’t feel the same when it was Grandma Jian.

“Silly girl. It doesn’t hurt at all! I’m fine! However, I may have to lie on the hospital bed for quite some time. As a result, I won’t be able to celebrate your birthday with you.”

Jian Yiling paused for a moment. Then, she said slowly: “You can owe me for today’s birthday. You can pay it back by celebrating my birthday with me next year, the year after that, and for the next ten years.”

When Grandma Jian heard this, she didn’t know what to say.

Silly girl. She was nearly eighty years old. How could she guarantee to stay with her for another ten years?

She was lucky to survive this time.

Upon hearing this, everyone in the room felt saddened.

In an attempt to ease the atmosphere in the ward, Jian Yuncheng turned around to ask Jian Yunnao where he had gone.

However, Jian Yunnao did not reply. Instead, he lowered his head and stayed silent.

What just happened was still inside of his mind.

It felt like a dream...

His sister...

Chapter 533: Once Again, Dr. F.S Saves the Jian Family

His sister was Dr. F.S... She had saved him... Back when he thought that everything was lost, she had given him hope.

And this time around, she had saved their grandma.

She was silently protecting their family.

She...

“Yunnao, what’s wrong?” Wen Nuan asked when saw her son acting strangely.

“Nothing,” Jian Yunnao replied as he shook his head.

He had promised the middle-aged man named Li Zhuojia to keep this matter a secret.

The man told him that Jian Yiling’s identity had to be kept a secret. It would be dangerous for people to know her identity.

Grandma Jian continued to speak to Jian Yiling: “Darling, I promise you that I will spend time with you on your birthdays.”

Even if she couldn’t be there physically, she would always think of Jian Yiling in her heart.

She didn’t want her granddaughter to be sad and upset.

###

After the incident, the Jian family began to think about a problem.

Who was Dr. F.S? And why was he helping them again?

Dr. F.S had disappeared for a long time. There had been no news regarding him for at least a year and a half.

However, he had reappeared. He reappeared to perform the surgery for Grandma Jian.

Did Dr. F.S. have some kind of connection with their family?

“Hmm, no matter what, we owe Dr. F.S. again,” Jian Shuxing commented.

This was no longer a favor that could be repaid with money.

“If we get the chance, later on, we must repay him properly,” Wen Nuan said firmly.

“Yeah, that’s true. It’s a pity that we still can’t meet Dr. F.S. in person today.”

Just like last time, Dr. F.S. did not show up in front of the Jian family.

He came and left mysteriously.

However, he saved the Jian family again.

Jian Yunnao turned around and asked Jian Yuncheng, “Brother, why do you think Dr. F.S. agreed to operate on my hand?”

Jian Yunnao hung his head down. He asked this question with a heavy heart.

"I'm not sure," Jian Yuncheng replied. He did not know the answer to this question.

Perhaps, it was for fame. Perhaps, it was for profit. Perhaps, he was just planning to challenge himself.

Or maybe, it was just because Jian Yunnao was lucky.

In the past, Jian Yunnao had assumed the same things. He used to think that it might have been for the sake of fame and profit. He even thought that he was lucky.

But now... He could no longer think that way.

###

Grandma Jian's situation sent a signal to Jian Yiling.

Perhaps, many of the things that she changed were only on the surface level. She hadn't changed the essence of the matter.

She hadn't rebelled like the Jian Yiling in the original novel. However, Grandma Jian had still experienced a stroke.

Then, were things still going to follow the plot of the original novel?

Jian Yiling was still lost in thought when Zhai Yunsheng came to pick her up.

After returning to their apartment, Jian Yiling suddenly ran up and hugged Zhai Yunsheng from behind.

Once again, this made Zhai Yunsheng freeze.

However, Zhai Yunsheng quickly understood the reason behind this hug. Jian Yiling was sad again.

He promised her that she could hug him when she was sad. He told her that his arms were always open for her.

Currently, Jian Yiling was sad.

Zhai Yunsheng didn't move. However, his heart also began to feel sad.

He wanted to comfort her.

After a while, Jian Yiling loosened her arms. Zhai Yunsheng slowly turned around and gently stroke Jian Yiling's head.

"It's okay. Don't be scared," Zhai Yunsheng said. His voice was much softer than usual.

Chapter 534: Third Aunt Nie Yun

Although he did not know what Jian Yiling had encountered, he was still willing to stay beside her. No matter what the situation was, he would face it with her.

A while ago, Jian Yiling planned to leave the Jian family once she turned eighteen years old.

However, her plans had changed. In these three years, she had dreamed of too many things. Some of those were her own dreams, whilst others were the dreams of the original Jian Yiling.

However, now that she thought about the situation again, she felt rather confused.

In the past, she had always seen matters as either right or wrong. She never let her emotions interfere with her judgments.

However... When it came to Grandma Jian... She was no longer an outsider.

And perhaps, there were many other people in the Jian family that she could no longer treat with an indifferent bystander's perspective.

Jian Yiling buried her head in Zhai Yunsheng's chest.

She had tried this method twice. It really seemed to work.

When she embraced him, the uncomfortable and sad feeling in her heart faded away. She felt much better.

And thus, she wanted to hug him for a while longer.

This time, Zhai Yunsheng's arms hugged Jian Yiling.

However, he didn't say nor ask anything.

Instead, he merely quietly accompanied her.

###

Grandma Jian's hospitalization alarmed the Third Household of the Jian family.

Jian Shupeng and Nie Yun rushed over to Beijing. They came to visit Grandma Jian.

For the first time, Jian Yiling met her third uncle and her third aunt.

She hadn't met them in the past few years.

Either Jian Shupeng and Nie Yun were busy or Jian Yiling was abroad.

Nie Yun had a rather small frame. However, she was energetic and decisive.

Furthermore, she was known to have a hot temper. Nie Yun would immediately say whatever came to her mind.

Nie Yun talked to Grandma Jian for quite some time.

She told her to take care of her health. Although she sounded like a broken record, it was obvious that she really cared about Grandma Jian.

As she harped on about the matter, Nie Yun's eyes began to turn red.

Her mother-in-law almost lost her life! This would be a difficult thing for anyone to accept.

“Hey, don’t be like your sister-in-law. She’s cried so much already,” Grandma Jian commented. “I’m not dead yet. You can save your tears for my funeral hall.”

However, when Jian Yiling heard such a comment, she glared at her grandma.

Ahhh, okay. She wouldn’t mention such a thing again. She couldn’t cause her darling to be upset.

After a while, Nie Yun got rid of her sadness. Then, she turned around and gave Jian Yiling a fierce bear hug.

Jian Yiling instinctively wanted to get away from her. However, she held back.

The main reason for this was because she couldn’t physically push her third aunt away.

Nie Yun was much stronger than she had imagined.

“My goodness! Yiling~ I miss you so much! Let me give you a few kisses!”

After saying this, Nie Yun immediately kissed Jian Yiling’s fair cheeks.

Jian Yiling was stunned. Then, her cheeks began to redden.

She was kissed...

“Hahahahaha, look! Yiling’s little face is turning red!” Nie Yun laughed.

“Mother, please watch yourself,” Jian Yichen reminded.

Ahhh, his mother was still the same. She would be so excited to see Yiling. In fact, she kissed and hugged Yiling every time she saw her.

Nie Yun had two sons and zero daughters. And thus, she envied other families that had a daughter. She especially envied her sister-in-law.

Jian Yiling was super cute and adorable.

“You still have the nerve to open your mouth!”

Everything was alright when Jian Yichen didn’t open his mouth. However, as soon as he opened his mouth, Nie Yun became angry.

Chapter 535: Not as Cute as My Niece

Nie Yun began to scold Jian Yichen: “You didn’t even tell me that you were going to the capital! In fact, you didn’t say a single word to us! Is your skin itching? I’ll smack you into place when we get home!”

Upon hearing this, Jian Yichen retorted: “Well, my older brother also left without saying a word last time! Why aren’t you smacking him into place!”

“Why are you even asking that? Isn’t that obvious? If I smack you, you will be the one who is in pain. On the other hand, if I smack him... My hand will be in pain!”

Jian Yichen helplessly touched his nose.

Ahhh. All right then... He was easier to bully.

His mother was bullying him because he wasn't as buff as his brother.

After arguing with her son, Nie Yun turned around to speak to Jian Yiling.

"Yiling~ You've been very mean in the past two years. You're not even home during Chinese New Year! Ahhh. I didn't have the chance to see you... I didn't have the chance to touch your cute little face~"

"However, you're amazing! You skipped a grade and you're studying medicine! In fact, you have such a good mentor as well! You're the pride of our Jian family! You're much better than my disappointing sons."

However, Nie Yun's 'disappointing' sons had achieved a lot as well. The older one had won numerous taekwondo championships. He had enough trophies and certificates to fill an entire wall.

On the other hand, the young one appeared to be wasting his days. However, he had established a company and an organization on his own.

However, that didn't matter. Both of them weren't as cute as her niece.

When Nie Yun was in the room, the atmosphere of the ward felt lively.

Grandma Jian began to smile more as well.

Then, Nie Yun noticed that Jian Yunnao was standing in a corner. He hadn't said a single word. In fact, Jian Yunnao looked dead inside.

"Yunnao? What's wrong? Why do you look so tired? Do you feel okay?"

"I'm... I'm fine," Jian Yunnao replied.

However, he did not look up.

He did not dare to look at Nie Yun and Jian Yiling.

He didn't know how he was going to face the two of them.

"Are you sure? We're at the hospital anyway. We can let the doctor take a look at you."

"I'm fine," Jian Yunnao repeated. Then, he got up in a hurry, "I need to go back to school. I just remembered that I need to take care of something."

After Jian Yunnao left the room, Nie Yun asked: "What's wrong with him? Is that child in love or something? Is he troubled by puberty? Why is he acting so strange?"

###

Later at night, Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling were both working in the study room. Suddenly, Jian Yichen called Jian Yiling. He asked Jian Yiling to visit him.

Jian Yichen's words were vague and ambiguous in the phone call. It sounded as though he was drunk.

And thus, Jian Yiling went over to check up on him.

Jian Yiling used her fingerprint on the fingerprint padlock. Then, she opened the door and entered Jian Yichen's apartment.

After she entered, she saw a drunken Jian Yichen.

Jian Yichen was rolling around on the floor. His phone was next to his hand.

There was an empty bottle of wine and half a glass of wine on the coffee table.

Although his eyes were open, the look in Jian Yichen's eyes was hazy.

He was indeed drunk.

And thus, Jian Yiling decided to help Jian Yichen clean up the mess.

"Yiing, I'm really glad that Grandma Jian is okay," Jian Yichen said.

Then, he started pouting: "Yiling, please be a good girl. Please stay with me. As long as you stay with me, I will be your sister. I will be your beautiful sister. I just want you to live..."

When he was drunk, Jian Yichen's actions were quite cute.

However, upon hearing the last sentence, Jian Yiling froze.

Chapter 536: Previous Incarnation of the Jian Family

Then, Jian Yichen began to feel sad again. It appeared as though a drunk person's mood could change incredibly fast.

"Ahhh, I was really worried that Grandma Jian would die... Last time, Grandma Jian left us like this... Dr. F.S. is our savior! I love him to death! He changed the fate of our family twice!"

During the day, Jian Yichen did not show these emotions.

In the daytime, he had been smiling all day long. He appeared to be a sly and cunning fox.

However, his heart was very soft and fragile.

In fact, his family was his biggest weakness and vulnerability.

Grandma Jian's stroke had really scared him.

Jian Yichen was really drunk. Whilst he talked, he began to shed tears.

Back then, the Jian family had been destroyed. Some of them died, whilst others became crazy.

In fact, most of the members of the Jian family had a bad ending.

Long before the death of his sister, Grandma Jian had gotten into several arguments with the rest of the Jian family. Eventually, she suffered from a stroke and passed away.

Then, when Jian Yujie was nineteen years old, he killed himself by jumping off a building. Back then, no one knew why he decided to end his life. In their eyes, he had always been an optimistic and happy child.

On the other hand, Jian Yunmo died from an experimental accident. Although the final investigation deemed the incident as an accident, no one in the Jian family could accept such a result.

After Jian Yiling died, He Yan sent the video that she hid to Jian Yunnao.

Upon seeing the video, Jian Yunnao went crazy. He couldn't accept that the beginning of his dark and miserable life was just a misunderstanding. He couldn't accept the fact that he wronged his sister. And most importantly, he couldn't accept the fact that he made his sister bear the blame for so many years.

Jian Shuxing and Wen Nuan broke down as well. They couldn't fight anymore and they lost their will to live. They lived their days as walking corpses.

After those incidents, Jian Yubo stabbed He Yan with a knife. However, in the end, He Yan did not die. Instead, Jian Yubo was sent to jail for intentionally injuring his mother.

Jian Yumin fell into depression and Jian Shuhong completely collapsed.

Jian Yichen's family did not manage to escape the misfortune either.

In the end, there was nothing left of the Jian family.

After Jian Yichen saw the tombstone of Jian Yiling, he went to ask Zhai Yunsheng. He asked him for his sister's dying words.

Zhai Yunsheng did not hide the truth. Instead, he repeated Jian Yiling's words to him.

He told him that she wanted to have her own ashes scattered into the sea. She didn't want a grave.

However, Zhai Yunsheng hadn't kept his promise. He bought a piece of land for Jian Yiling and set up a tombstone for her.

Although he left a tomb for her, the people who would have come to pay their respects were gone.

The Jian family was gone.

And thus, when Jian Yichen saw everyone in the ward, he was incredibly happy. Everyone was alive. Jian Yichen was so happy that he decided to drink.

However, his endless nightmares returned after he got drunk.

Jian Yichen tugged at Jian Yiling's sleeves before he asked: "Yiling, be a good girl. Please don't leave me. Look. Your sister is pretty, isn't she?"

Jian Yiling paused again.

She stared at Jian Yichen for a while.

In her trance, she suddenly realized something.

On the other hand, Jian Yichen felt that his head was incredibly heavy. Drowsiness was beginning to hit him.

However, as he dozed off, he felt that someone was beside him.

When he woke up, he saw Jian Yiling's fair face.

"Yiling..."

"Drink the soup."

Jian Yiling handed him a bowl of soup. The soup was meant to dissipate the effects of alcohol.

After drinking the soup, Jian Yichen slowly regained his senses.

Chapter 537: Aunt and Cousin from the Wen Family

Jian Yichen's messy room had been cleaned up by Jian Yiling.

Other than the soup, there was also a delicious hot meal on the coffee table.

The meal had been recently prepared.

As Jian Yiling was unable to move her cousin, Jian Yichen was still lying on the floor.

However, there was a thin blanket covering his body.

A smile appeared on Jian Yichen's face as he looked at Jian Yiling. His gaze was incredibly soft and gentle.

"Did I say anything strange last night?" Jian Yichen asked Jian Yiling.

"Yes."

"Ugh..." Jian Yichen started. He was a little embarrassed before he quickly said: "Don't take it to heart. I'm like that when I drink a bit too much."

"Mhmm."

"..."

He didn't mention anything too strange last night right?

His brotherly image... Was still there right?

###

As Grandma Jian was sick, the Wen family came over to visit her. The Wen family lived in Beijing.

The Wen family had a long history related to literature and art.

Wen Nuan had three older brothers. One of them opened a museum whilst another involved himself with antique businesses. Finally, the last one was a calligrapher.

On the surface level, the businesses of the two brothers did not appear to be doing incredibly well. However, in reality, their businesses were incredibly popular.

The ancestors of the Wen family had passed down a lot of exotic treasures. These treasures were worth a lot of money.

In addition to this, most people who were in this line of business were not ordinary individuals.

Thus, the Wen family was more highly regarded than the Jian family in Beijing.

In fact, the Jian family meant nothing in Beijing.

Grandma Jian was visited by the wife of Wen Nuan's eldest brother. His wife was called Cai Qinyue. In addition, Cai Qinyue's daughter, Wen Ruo also accompanied her.

Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo's appearance wasn't considered outstanding. This was especially true when compared to the genetics of the Jian family.

However, their temperament and manners were on another level.

As individuals from a family of literary reputation, their actions were elegant and refined.

They didn't do anything flashy and their actions could stand careful appreciation.

Wen Ruo was twenty years old. She was two years older than Jian Yiling.

Currently, she was studying at Beijing Normal University. Wen Ruo was in her third year of university.

After exchanging pleasantries with Grandma Jian, Wen Nuan guided her sister-in-law and her niece to the exit.

Wen Ruo opened her mouth and asked about Jian Yiling:

"Auntie, Grandma Jian mentioned that Jian Yiling is also studying in Beijing. Which university is she studying at?"

In the past, Jian Yiling's grades were terrible. This was something that everyone knew about.

Furthermore, Wen Nuan never mentioned her daughter's studies whenever she returned to the Wen family. And thus, the Wen family concluded that Wen Nuan was ashamed to talk about her daughter as Jian Yiling was not doing well in her studies.

And thus, the Wen family did not ask such questions to Wen Nuan.

However, the Wen family did not know the truth. If possible, Wen Nuan would rather her daughter be the same as before. It was okay if she didn't like to study and work. It was fine to pamper and spoil her. However, she just didn't want her daughter to be so well-behaved and serious.

Due to these reasons, Wen Nuan did not mention her daughter's studies to the Wen family.

"She's studying at Beijing University," Wen Nuan replied. As she was questioned regarding this matter, she told them the truth.

Beijing University was the best university in the capital.

Although Beijing Normal University was already regarded as one of the better universities, the university still faltered when compared to Beijing University.

“Beijing University?” Wen Ruo repeated in disbelief.

Her arrogant and conceited cousin got into Beijing University?

“Auntie, why haven’t you mentioned this before?”

“It’s nothing much,” Wen Nuan replied. She didn’t like to mention this matter.

If her daughter’s liveliness and happiness were to be exchanged for her love of learning, that was a trade that Wen Nuan did not want to take.

She didn’t want her daughter to be an “excellent child.” Instead, she wanted her cute Yiling back.

Chapter 538: Isn’t that the Young Master of the Qin Family?

And thus, Wen Nuan wasn’t interested in mentioning anything regarding Jian Yiling’s studies.

However, Wen Nuan’s attitude made it hard for her sister-in-law and her niece to believe that Jian Yiling was actually studying at Beijing University.

Despite the disbelief, Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo decided not to comment on Wen Nuan’s lie.

It wasn’t nice to expose someone that was intentionally lying to them. Doing such a thing would definitely embarrass Wen Nuan.

Then, Cai Qinyue said to Wen Nuan: “Well, since your family will be staying in Beijing for a while, you must pay attention to many small things. There are many influential families in Beijing. Please try not to provoke them. Recently, your eldest brother and your second brother have been doing business deals. Right now, it’s a critical point in their business dealings. We don’t want any setbacks.”

Although they didn’t expect the Jian family to provoke anyone, it was better to be safe than sorry. A reminder would not do any harm.

As the two families were related, if trouble were to arise, the Wen family would be required to step in as well.

“Sister-in-law, you’re overthinking the situation. Who would we even run into in the capital?”

Wen Nuan assumed that there was no need to worry about such a thing.

Who would they provoke in Beijing?

They were merely here to celebrate Yiling’s birthday.

However, Grandma Jian had unexpectedly fallen ill. That was the reason why they were staying in Beijing for the next few days.

As Cai Qinyue chatted with Wen Nuan, she suddenly saw a familiar figure pass by.

Cai Qinyue immediately turned her head around.

The person was 1.85 meters in height and wore a well-ironed suit. He had a distinguished temperament as well.

In addition to his height and temperament, the man was incredibly good-looking. He had a high nose bridge and a sharp face.

It was impossible to ignore him. His looks left a deep impression.

Cai Qinyue was surprised to see Qin Chuan: "Isn't that... Isn't that the Young Master of the Qin family?"

Cai Qinyue recognized Qin Chuan.

The Qin family and the Zhai family were the most rich and powerful families in Beijing.

In addition to this fact, the Qin family often released news about themselves. Thus, their family was known to everyone in Beijing.

The return of Qin Chuan to the Qin family was made known to everyone.

On the other hand, the Zhai family was more low-key. Even photos of the family members were not made available online.

As Cai Qinyue thought about this, she saw Qin Chuan walk into Grandma Jian's room.

This made her even more shocked.

What was happening?

Why was the Young Master of the Qin family entering Grandma Jian's room? This...

"Do you guys know the Young Master of the Qin family?" Cai Qinyue asked. A surprised expression was on her face.

Wen Ruo had the same surprised expression on her face. Her eyes kept following Qin Chuan.

"He used to be Yiling's tutor," Wen Nuan replied.

Qin Chuan was Jian Yiling's tutor?

What kind of luck was that?

"Was he only Yiling's tutor?"

Qin Chuan was visiting Grandma Jian when she was sick.

A normal tutor wouldn't need to visit in such a situation, would they?

"Yeah, there's nothing more than that. He probably just cherishes the old times. After all, both of us are from Hengyuan City," Wen Nuan said.

The elevator arrived as they spoke. Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo were about to take the elevator to the ground level.

"Mother, my bracelet is missing," Wen Ruo said.

"Oh? Did you leave your bracelet in Grandma Jian's ward? Let's go back and look for it."

And thus, Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo returned to Grandma Jian's ward.

When they entered, Qin Chuan was comforting Grandma Jian.

Not only did he have an outstanding appearance, but he also treated Grandma Jian with respect.

It was as though he was still Jian Yiling's tutor. He did not act with the arrogance expected from the Young Master of the Qin family.

This made the members of the Jian family feel incredibly flattered. In addition, this left them a favorable impression of Qin Chuan as well.

Chapter 539: I'm the Lucky One

That was incredibly remarkable and rare!

Even Grandma Jian couldn't help but praise Qin Chuan:

"Thank you Young Master Qin. My granddaughter is incredibly fortunate to have you as her tutor."

"No, that's not true. I'm the lucky one," Qin Chuan replied seriously.

This sounded like a polite statement to the onlookers.

In fact, it seemed as though Young Master Qin was way too polite.

After all, Qin Chuan's social status today was much higher than Jian Yiling's.

Wen Ruo and her mother stood by silently. They did not dare to interrupt the conversation.

Wen Ruo did not stare at Qin Chuan directly. Rather, she attempted to treat him as a normal person.

After Qin Chuan left, Wen Ruo looked up again.

However, Wen Nuan did not think much of the situation. Instead, she asked Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo whether or not they found their bracelet.

Upon being asked this, Wen Ruo quickly said that she was mistaken. It was likely that she left her bracelet somewhere else.

As Wen Nuan had been worrying about Grandma Jian and her daughter, she didn't think much about the actions and intentions of Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo.

And thus, Wen Nuan did not question their actions. Instead, she guided them to the elevator again.

On the way out, Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo asked a few more questions regarding Qin Chuan.

As Wen Nuan did not know much about Qin Chuan, she did not have the answers to many of their questions.

Then, Wen Nuan said goodbye to her sister-in-law and niece.

After exiting the hospital, Cai Qinyue couldn't help but comment on the situation: "Ahh, your cousin's luck is incredibly good. Initially, I assumed that she was just the daughter of a wealthy family from a small city. And thus, I really did not expect her to be involved with the Qin family."

Being connected with the Qin family was something that many people hoped to achieve.

The Qin family was one of the most powerful families in Beijing. Having connections with the Qin family meant that many things were much easier to accomplish in Beijing.

And remaining things could be accomplished by being associated with the Zhai family.

“Hmm, I don’t think it matters that much,” Wen Ruo said indifferently. “Qin Chuan isn’t the son of the first wife. He’s an illegitimate son. Furthermore, he grew up in a complicated environment as well. Therefore, his manners and education would not be up to par.”

“Yeah, you’re right. I guess only Master Sheng would be considered as the best. However, it’s a pity that not many people have seen him in person. Apparently, he’s equally matched with Qin Chuan. However, I don’t know how true that is.”

Then, Cai Qinyue remembered something else. She urged her daughter: “Now that Jian Yiling is in Beijing, out of courtesy, you should hang out with her occasionally. However, please do not follow her example.”

Jian Yiling was known to be ignorant and incompetent.

Apparently, two years ago, she played a video game incredibly well.

Although this was seen to be something remarkable by those in the gaming circle, in Cai Qinyue’s opinion, it was merely a waste of time.

“I won’t,” Wen Ruo replied. She didn’t like playing video games in the first place.

###

As tomorrow was Jian Yiling’s birthday, Zhai Yunsheng rushed to finish his tasks in advance. He intended to return to his apartment a bit earlier.

However, before he left his company, he received a report from his men.

“Master Sheng, the international organization that kidnaped Miss Yiling three years ago appeared in Beijing again.”

Upon hearing this, Zhai Yunsheng’s face darkened.

They still dared to come?

“Where are her bodyguards?” Zhai Yunsheng asked. Zhai Yunsheng had arranged for some people to follow Jian Yiling. However, he asked them to protect her subtly.

Zhai Yunsheng assumed that Jian Yiling would not like the feeling of having someone following her around at all times.

He didn’t like that feeling. And thus, why would he make Jian Yiling go through something that he didn’t like?

Chapter 540: Jian Yiling was Taken Away?

It was her life. Therefore, he shouldn’t interfere with what she did.

However, he still arranged for a few bodyguards to protect her.

This was because she could potentially become a target for others. Staying by his side could bring her unwanted trouble.

“I’ll try contacting them now.”

Then, Zhai Yunsheng’s subordinate attempted to contact those bodyguards.

However, Zhai Yunsheng’s subordinate quickly discovered that those bodyguards had lost track of Jian Yiling.

However, he didn’t immediately report the matter to Zhai Yunsheng. He didn’t want Zhai Yunsheng to become anxious.

Due to the matter three years ago, the Second Master of the Zhai family asked them to deal with the matter first. If the matter could not be solved, he asked them to tell him the problem first. The Second Master of the Zhai family wanted Zhai Yunsheng to be the last to know.

However, Zhai Yunsheng questioned his subordinate to get to the heart of the matter. And thus, the subordinate had to tell the truth.

“Sorry Master Sheng. The opponent got rid of our men.”

Was she taken away?

Zhai Yunsheng’s bodyguards were the best in the world.

It was not easy to break away from them.

“One of our men ran into them... They briefly exchanged blows... However... Our men ended up losing...”

This was a very dangerous sign. This meant that the other party was not an average person.

Did that organization from three years ago really come back?

“Where is she right now?” Zhai Yunsheng asked. His face darkened and his eyes began to turn cold.

Could it be that what happened three years ago was going to happen again?

How dare they?!

Was the lesson from last time, not enough?

As the bodyguard recovered consciousness, he only saw Jian Yiling enter an unfamiliar vehicle. He did not know whether or not she was blackmailed. Furthermore, he was unable to obtain information regarding that vehicle either.

The matter was done so cleanly. They improved from three years ago!

###

Jian Yiling got onto the vehicle herself.

The vehicle was professionally modified.

It was currently being driven by a man in his early thirties. The man had a sturdy body and had a short mustache on his face.

Currently, the man was speaking to someone through an intercom.

After a while, the man spoke to Jian Yiling. Jian Yiling was currently seated in the back seat:

“Just now, we discovered that there were people following you around. Those individuals were professionally trained and incredibly careful. However, we got rid of them. It took some time and effort but we managed in the end. In a bit, I’ll look into who is following you and what they’re attempting to achieve.”

“Mhmm.”

Then, the man said to Jian Yiling: “As we’re unable to transport the body this time, we must trouble you to come with us.”

“It’s fine.”

“By the way, why are you living over there? Didn’t you tell me that you’re living in an apartment near Beijing University?”

“I need to take care of a patient.”

“Oh? You’re taking on a full-time role for that patient?” the man asked with a surprised voice.

“Mhmm.”

“Hahaha, that’s interesting. I’m curious about who is so lucky to have you take care of them exclusively.”

It was incredibly expensive to get Dr. F.S. to do an operation. There were countless people who wanted to have her as their doctor.

And thus, it was surprising for her to be a primary care physician.

This was an exclusive treatment.

“He takes care of me more,” Jian Yiling replied.

“Oh? That’s even more surprising. You’re making me more and more curious about this patient of yours.”

The man said as he smiled.

The man who came to pick up Jian Yiling was the head of the Special Criminal Investigation Division. The man was known as Superintendent Ruan by his team.

He came to pick Jian Yiling up for a case where he needed help from her area of expertise.

Jian Yiling had a long-term relationship with their division.

She was mainly responsible for the autopsy of the corpse in a difficult case. In addition, she also did the toxicology and pathology testing as well.
