Chapter 631: Don't Want to Part Ways With You

Master Zhai was not happy with his grandson's performance.

Originally, this was a great opportunity for his grandson to show off in front of his future wife.

However, that brat gave the opportunity to those guys from the Jian family!

And thus, Master Zhai was so angry that he scolded Zhai Yunsheng.

After listening to his grandpa for a while, Zhai Yunsheng hung up the phone.

He didn't want Jian Yiling to thank him.

In contrast, he wanted the Jian family to treat her well. That would probably make her happier.

And thus, he left the opportunity for her older brothers.

It was all okay as long as the matter was resolved.

He wasn't very concerned about anything else.

Zhai Yunsheng was resting in the lounge room. There was relaxing music playing.

Suddenly, the door to the room opened.

Zhai Yunsheng slowly opened his eyes.

When he saw Jian Yiling come through the door, Zhai Yunsheng frowned:

"Why are you here?" Zhai Yunsheng asked with a soft voice.

Why did she appear in his office at this time?

Jian Yiling did not reply to his question. Instead, she walked up to him.

Then, she pulled out a lunch box for Zhai Yunsheng.

"Are you here to bring me food?" Zhai Yunsheng said. As he said this, he wanted to laugh. However, somehow, he didn't feel like laughing either.

She didn't like him. In fact, she was even afraid of him. Her instinctive reaction to his confession was to avoid him.

And thus, the only feelings she had for him were gratitude and indebtedness.

However, even though he knew this, he still wanted to take advantage of those feelings. He wanted to use those feelings to tie her to his side for a few more years.

"Mhmm," Jian Yiling replied as she nodded.

Then, she opened the lunch box. The aroma of food wafted out from the lunch box.

Zhai Yunsheng hadn't eaten lunch yet. During his break, he went to rest in the lounge room.

Zhai Yunsheng was not going to refuse food. This was especially the case when he thought about Jian Yiling being busy in the kitchen for quite some time.

“Are you going to be responsible for me?”

Zhai Yunsheng was currently eating. He was shocked by Jian Yiling’s question.

Her voice was soft and too damn sweet.

Furthermore, it appeared as though she was incredibly serious when she asked this question.

“Cough cough cough... Cough cough...”

Zhai Yunsheng choked on his food.

“Cough cough cough...”

Jian Yiling hurriedly patted Zhai Yunsheng’s back.

After coughing for quite some time, Zhai Yunsheng finally recovered from his shock.

“Why did you suddenly ask that question?” Zhai Yunsheng asked.

The question was too surprising for him.

“You confessed to me,” Jian Yiling replied.

“Yeah, I did.” However, she was scared off by him.

“You kissed me as well.”

“Mhmm.” He did that on her birthday.

“Pepper said that after someone confesses their love, they either stay together or part ways. I don’t want to part ways with you,” Jian Yiling said with a serious expression on her face.

Jian Yiling wasn’t too sure about anything else. However, she knew that she did not want to be separated from Zhai Yunsheng.

Upon hearing the words “I don’t want to part ways with you,” Zhai Yunsheng’s heart completely lost its calmness.

Zhai Yunsheng stared at Jian Yiling’s face. He was in a complete daze.

As she said, once someone confessed, they either got together or parted ways.

If they did not get together, it was very likely for them to part ways. It would be hard for them to be friends like before.

However, as these words came out of Jian Yiling’s mouth, Zhai Yunsheng was incredibly surprised...

And thus, Zhai Yunsheng decided to clarify some questions before he jumped to a conclusion: “Then... Why were you avoiding me for the past two days?”

“I was thinking,” Jian Yiling replied. “I can only think when you’re not in front of me.”

For some reason, she could not think clearly when Zhai Yunsheng was too close to her. She lost her ability to rationalize.

And thus, in order to think about the matter more objectively, she chose to keep her distance from him for a few days.

“You mean, you can’t think properly when I’m in front of you?” Zhai Yunsheng asked.

Chapter 632: Let’s Get Engaged

Jian Yiling nodded.

Suddenly, Zhai Yunsheng closed the distance between Jian Yiling. The distance between their faces was less than ten centimeters.

“What about now?” Zhai Yunsheng asked.

Jian Yiling quickly stepped back as she attempted to maintain her distance from Zhai Yunsheng.

Then, she said: “It will beat fast.”

“What will beat fast?” Zhai Yunsheng asked. As he asked this question, Zhai Yunsheng’s heart was also beating rapidly.

Fortunately, he was not wearing a device on his hand at this moment. If he did, the device would have gone off by now.

“Here.”

Jian Yiling said as she placed her hand on her heart.

Her heart would beat rapidly.

Upon seeing this, Zhai Yunsheng began to laugh.

He was extraordinarily happy.

“Why are you laughing?” She was curious about why Zhai Yunsheng was laughing.

“Because I’m happy,” Zhai Yunsheng replied. The smile on his face could not have been more obvious.

“Why are you happy?”

“Hmm, no reason in particular.”

Then, after pausing for a moment, Zhai Yunsheng called out Jian Yiling’s name. “Yiling.”

“Hmm?”

Zhai Yunsheng lowered his head and dropped a kiss on Jian Yiling’s forehead.

“It’s warm,” Jian Yiling said as she placed her hand on her forehead. She lightly touched the place that she was kissed.

When Zhai Yunsheng saw Jian Yiling’s actions, he began to smile again.

In his eyes, even doing such a small thing was incredibly adorable.

“Yiling,” Zhai Yunsheng called out again. He himself did not know why he was calling out her name.

“Hmm?”

“Say my name as well.”

“Zhai Yunsheng.”

“Don’t say my surname.”

Did he want to be called Yunsheng?

Jian Yiling attempted to say Yunsheng. However, she failed to do so.

“Hmm, you can call me A Sheng[1] as well. From time to time, my grandpa and uncle call me that.”

A Sheng...

It was even more difficult for her to say those words.

“Just once,” Zhai Yunsheng coaxed.

Jian Yiling was a little embarrassed but she still attempted to say those words.

“A... A Sheng...”

After a long time, she managed to say “A Sheng.” However, her voice was softer than a mosquito buzz.

As she said this, Jian Yiling did not dare to look directly at Zhai Yunsheng.

Then, Zhai Yunsheng called out Jian Yiling’s name for the third time.

“Hmm?”

“Let’s get engaged.”

They were both strange individuals. As a result, the speed of their relationship did not have to comply with the rest of the world.

They could develop their feelings after they got engaged.

“Huh?” Jian Yiling said as she gazed into Zhai Yunsheng’s eyes.

“Don’t you want me to be responsible for you? Then, I’ll make sure that I’m responsible. We’re already living together. Therefore, it would be better if we were engaged. It would seem more justifiable.”

Jian Yiling paused for a moment before she nodded.

“Okay.”

Upon hearing this response, Zhai Yunsheng looked at Jian Yiling again. Did she understand what she was agreeing to?

Hmm, but at the very least, she still cared about him.

And that was already enough for him.

He no longer had a reason to let go of her hand.

Even if he used some despicable tactics, she was still under his care and protection.

###

“Wait. Say that again?!”

Master Zhai suspected that he was getting old. Was there a problem with his ears?

Did his grandson actually tell him that he was getting engaged?

“I said that I’m planning to get engaged with Yiling. Therefore, I need a guardian to be there. Will you be free?”

“Yes, yes. I’m definitely free. I’m free every single day! In fact, I’m free now. I couldn’t be freer! When do you need me to be there? Do you need me to bring some gifts? Would a few companies be enough?”

“Just bring yourself.”

“Okay, okay. When is it though?”

“Tomorrow.”

“Tomorrow? Okay! I will go and prepare now.”

Master Zhai was incredibly excited.

Their family was finally going to have a matriarch!

He was finally going to have a granddaughter-in-law!

He was so happy!

He had to do something to celebrate.

He definitely had to bring gifts. Master Zhai hurriedly asked his men to go and prepare gifts.

In fact, he had to prepare a lot of gifts!

Chapter 633: Master Zhai Visits His Future-in-Laws (1)

Master Zhai was ready to meet Jian Yiling’s parents and grandparents.

As Grandpa Jian and Grandma Jian were currently living in Wen Cheng’s house, Master Zhai decided to visit the Wen family.

However, Wen Cheng and Cai Qinyue did not recognize Master Zhai.

Before today, they did not even have the opportunity to see Master Zhai.

On the other hand, before coming, Master Zhai had already inquired into the situation. He knew that Jian Yiling was related to the Wen family. Wen Cheng was Jian Yiling’s uncle.

And thus, when he visited, Master Zhai was very polite.

In fact, he was so polite that no one would have ever guessed who he was.

Furthermore, he did not dare to bring a lot of people with him. As a result, he only brought one subordinate.

He did not want to put too much pressure on the Jian family.

“Hello, what can I do for you?”

In front of the black iron gate at the entrance of the Wen family villa, someone stopped Master Zhai and asked him why he was visiting.

“Tell your master that I’m here to pay my respects to Grandpa Jian and Grandma Jian.”

Even though he was talking to the subordinates of the Wen family, Master Zhai still replied. He did not ask his men to communicate for him.

He was here to pay his respects.

These words had not appeared in Master Zhai’s vocabulary for many years.

Everyone paid their respects to Master Zhai. It was never the other way around.

Upon hearing the reason, the people at the gates relaxed.

In Beijing, the Jian family was not considered to be prestigious and powerful. They were only slightly richer than an average family in Hengyuan City.

And thus, the Jian family’s status in Beijing was far worse than the Wen family’s.

As this old gentleman appeared to be visiting the Jian family, they assumed that he was not someone of any distinguished status.

“Wait for a moment. I will go and inform them.”

Although the subordinates of the Wen family did not know who the person in front of them was, they still did things by the book.

In the living room of the Wen family villa, Grandpa Jian, Grandma Jian, Wen Cheng, and Cai Qinyue were currently chatting.

A servant came in to inform them that someone was visiting.

Upon hearing this, Grandpa Jian and Grandma Jian were rather puzzled. Who would visit them?

The Wen family members in the living room assumed that someone was visiting Grandma Jian. This was due to the fact that Grandma Jian was still recovering from her stroke.

And thus, the Wen family invited Master Zhai to come in.

As Master Zhai walked in, there was a smile on his face. He appeared to look very kind and friendly.

The smile on his face came out from the bottom of his heart. His smile could not be hidden.

However, as soon as Grandpa Jian and Grandma Jian saw Master Zhai, their expressions immediately changed.

Master Zhai had already visited Grandma Jian at the hospital. Therefore, they knew who he was.

Why was he here today?

Grandma Jian and Grandpa Jian immediately stood up.

In fact, Grandpa Jian got up to greet him. He expressed his respect for Master Zhai.

“No no. Please sit. Just sit down,” Master Zhai said with a smile.

“What brings you here today?” Grandpa Jian asked.

“I have something that I want to discuss,” Master Zhai replied. His tone was very polite.

There were very few people in Beijing that could make him speak in such a polite tone.

In fact, he could probably count them on one hand.

“Umm...” Grandpa Jian started as he glanced at the other people seated in the living room. He was considering whether he should find a separate place to talk to Master Zhai.

As Master Zhai read Grandpa Jian’s thoughts, he said directly: “There’s no need to go somewhere else. Uncle Wen can stay here.”

Uncle Wen?

What? Wasn’t it a bit strange to call him that?

Only people from the Jian family would call Wen Cheng in such a way.

And thus, wasn’t it a bit strange for this old gentleman to call him Uncle Wen?

Chapter 634: Master Zhai Visits His Future-in-Laws (2)

This made it seem as though he was very close with the Jian family.

Wasn’t his intentions a bit too obvious?

Upon hearing this, Cai Qinyue frowned.

It was reasonable for the Jian family to live with the Wen family.

And thus, she was willing to accept them living in her house. However, if the Jian family associated with shady individuals, she would not be willing to tolerate that.

Grandpa Jian invited Master Zhai to sit down on the sofa in the living room.

Master Zhai was full of smiles. It was as though he was attempting to win over their favor: “Actually, I came here to talk about the engagement of our grandchildren.”

What?

Engagement?

Upon hearing this, everyone else in the room was shocked.

Then, Grandpa Jian said with great difficulty: "Didn't we talk about this matter last time? This... This isn't the best way to handle things."

Was Master Zhai serious about this?

"No no. This time, the youngsters were the ones who mentioned this to me! It's true!" Master Zhai emphasized.

He was afraid of being misunderstood by Grandpa Jian and Grandma Jian.

"What?" Grandma Jian exclaimed in shock. She forgot her manners as she said: "Wait, you mean my darling girl agreed to this?"

Master Zhai's tone was resolute as he said: "Yeah, that brat of mine told me so. Although he's usually quite unreliable, he would not lie about something like this."

In this regard, Master Zhai knew his grandson quite well.

This person was here to settle an engagement with the Jian family?

And Jian Yiling herself agreed to it?

Upon hearing this, Cai Qinyue wanted to laugh.

What was that girl even thinking?

She hadn't yet graduated from university. Instead of focusing on her studies, she's getting engaged?

Furthermore, someone else had to tell the Jian family about this matter.

She wasn't virtuous and proper at all!

Wen Cheng hurriedly said: "This won't do. Yiling is still young. There is no hurry to get engaged."

Master Zhai continued to smile: "No no. She's not young anymore. She's already eighteen. According to the traditional way of accounting for age, she's twenty already! It's a good age to get engaged. Then, when she turns twenty, they can officially marry."

Huh? Was he thinking about obtaining a marriage certificate already?

Wasn't Master Zhai being a bit too hasty about this?

Grandpa Jian and Grandma Jian turned to look at each other.

"I'm going to call my darling girl."

Then, Grandma Jian walked away. She found a quiet place to call Jian Yiling.

She had to figure out what was happening!

As soon as the call went through, Grandma Jian asked Jian Yiling.

“Yiling, are you dating someone right now?”

Grandma Jian asked Jian Yiling tentatively.

“Err, it seems so,” Jian Yiling replied.

“It seems so?”

How could there be an “it seems so?”

“Well, I promised to get engaged to Zhai Yunsheng.”

Wait?! Was Master Zhai telling the truth?

Did Yiling actually agree to this?!

Grandma Jian felt as though someone had plucked a piece of flesh away from her heart.

“Darling, why did you say yes to him?”

“I don’t want to part with him. He treats me very well. I owe him a lot.”

Jian Yiling gave out three simple reasons.

This was the conclusion that Jian Yiling came to after her two days of careful consideration and analysis.

After listening to Jian Yiling’s words, Grandma Jian was silent for a long time. Then she said:

“Are you sure about this? Did you really think this through? Getting married is a lifetime thing. You can return someone else’s favors in other ways. That reason won’t support your marriage. You will need actual feelings to support a marriage.”

“Mhmm, I thought about it for two days,” Jian Yiling replied.

“Well, if you decided on it already, I will support your decision,” Grandma Jian said quietly. “However, you must promise me to not make things difficult for yourself.”

Chapter 635: Master Zhai Visits His Future-in-Laws (3)

“Mhmm,” Jian Yiling replied.

She was not making things difficult for herself.

She knew what she was doing.

“Well, that’s good then. It’s okay then. I know what to do now.”

Grandma Jian decided to compromise.

She did not want to let Jian Yiling go.

However, she knew that there was no point in stopping certain things from happening.

If her granddaughter genuinely liked Zhai Yunsheng, there was no point in forcing them to separate. Other than making both parties unhappy, it would achieve nothing else.

Furthermore, it was only an engagement. Even if they got married, they could still get a divorce. Her darling still had the opportunity to back out of the engagement.

After Grandma Jian ended the call, she whispered the matter to Grandpa Jian.

“Really?” Grandpa Jian exclaimed with surprise. He was still unable to accept this.

He knew that his granddaughter had a good relationship with Zhai Yunsheng. However, their relationship did not seem to be that good.

When did that brat steal their precious girl away from them?

As he thought about this, Grandpa Jian held back his frustration. The expression on his face became unhappy as well.

As Master Zhai looked at Grandma Jian and Grandpa Jian, he could guess that they were not happy with the news.

And thus, Master Zhai began to have a guilty conscience.

After all, he was the one who abducted their granddaughter... He basically guilt-tripped their granddaughter into becoming his grandson’s private doctor. Furthermore, he made them live under the same roof as well.

Master Zhai never really did such things in his life. In this case, he had to admit that the way he handled these matters was quite... Dishonest.

“Then... Grandpa Jian...”

“Let us take a moment to think about this matter. There’s no hurry.”

Grandpa Jian deliberately stopped Master Zhai from continuing.

According to Grandma Jian, since their grandchildren both agreed to the matter, they should also agree.

Furthermore, the Jian family never interfered with their children’s freedom of marriage.

On top of this, there was still room to back out of an engagement. Being engaged was merely a way of symbolizing their darling’s value and importance. Their grandchildren’s relationship would also be more justifiable. Therefore, there was nothing wrong with it.

However, he was not going to agree immediately. First of all, he wanted to test the sincerity of the Zhai family. He also wanted to examine the moral quality and character of the individuals in the Zhai family.

Secondly, he did not want to make it seem like he was overly eager to send their granddaughter into the Zhai family.

It did not matter that the Zhai family was well known and powerful. When it came to marriage, they had to be on equal terms. Their darling was not getting engaged to the Zhai family because she wanted connections.

Master Zhai laughed again before he said: “Do you happen to have any concerns? Please tell me if you do. If my brat has done something wrong, I will get him to change it.”

“There’s nothing wrong with your grandson. However, we should not rush these matters. It should be arranged carefully. Furthermore, we should also talk to our grandchildren again,” Grandpa Jian replied. He held his stance and put up a front.

Just now, he got up to greet him as Master Zhai was the head of the Zhai family.

However, he was now putting up a front because he was Jian Yiling’s grandpa.

“Okay okay. You can talk about it then,” Master Zhai replied. He did not have any objection to that. As long as the Jian family agreed, everything else did not matter.

As Wen Cheng and Cai Qinyue watched from the side, they each had their own thoughts on the situation.

Wen Cheng felt that this old gentleman was obviously trying to win over the favor of the Jian family.

For some reason, he did not want his niece to marry into such a family.

He was worried that the old gentleman was merely interested in the Jian family’s businesses. If that was the case, the old gentleman’s grandson would not be interested in his niece.

On the other hand, Cai Qinyue was snickering in her heart.

This old man craved this marriage way too much. It was as though his grandson was attempting to gain connections with the Jian family through this marriage.

In fact, this old man was sort of similar to a pug.

Was the Jian family actually considering becoming an in-law with this family?

Chapter 636: Wen Cheng is Shocked

As Wen Cheng and Cai Qinyue were also present in the living room, Master Zhai did not talk about the matter in detail.

Instead, he decided to invite Grandpa Jian to meet at a teahouse some other day.

After Master Zhai left, Wen Cheng attempted to persuade Grandpa Jian and Grandma Jian: “Uncle Jian and Aunt Jian, please think carefully about this matter. Yiling is still very young. It’s not a good time for her to get into a relationship or engagement. Furthermore, as far as I know, Yiling has quite a good relationship with some other guy. Should we reconsider this matter?”

The person that Wen Cheng was referring to was Zhai Yunsheng.

In Wen Cheng’s opinion, Zhai Yunsheng was unsuitable for his niece. He was too dangerous. However, this person seemed even more unsuitable and unreliable. This person’s grandpa was trying way too hard to gain the Jian family’s favor.

Wen Cheng and Cai Qinyue were thinking of somewhat similar things. They did not mentally link the old gentleman just now to Master Zhai. Master Zhai was known to be terrifying.

Grandma Jian shook her head and sighed: “Ahh since Yiling made her decision already, let’s respect her decision.”

"I have to talk to Yiling," Wen Cheng replied. He refused to agree to this.

His niece could only marry the best person. How could she marry some random guy?

Cai Qinyue attempted to persuade her husband: "Yiling is an opinionated person. Since she had already made her decision, you should let her be. As her aunt and uncle, we should not interfere with her decision on such things."

Cai Qinyue was quite amused.

She was surprised that Jian Yiling had already given up on Master Sheng.

However, she knew that it was very unlikely for Master Sheng to get engaged with Jian Yiling. There was a huge difference in their social status.

Despite this, Cai Qinyue was still surprised at how quickly Jian Yiling gave up on Master Sheng.

Wen Cheng ignored his wife's words. He was still determined to have a talk with Jian Yiling.

###

Wen Cheng and Jian Yiling agreed to meet up at a dessert store.

Wen Cheng did not speak in a roundabout way. Instead, he directly asked Jian Yiling:

"Yiling, what's the deal with the old gentleman yesterday? Are you actually getting engaged? You shouldn't be so hasty with your marriage."

"I'm not being hasty," Jian Yiling replied.

"Yiling, I'm not against you dating. However, I hope that you can reevaluate your decision. The world is big. There are a lot of good guys. You deserve the best," Wen Cheng said softly. As he said this, there was a worried expression on his face.

"Don't worry. I've already thought over it."

Jian Yiling attempted to reassure Wen Cheng.

She knew that Wen Cheng was caring for her.

"Hmm, you should still look around more. There are many good men in this world. You still have many opportunities to meet good people. I can introduce a few to you as well," Wen Cheng said.

Jian Yiling shook her head. Then, she said with a firm expression on her face: "There's no need. He's a good person."

"Ahh," Wen Cheng sighed. "Then how about this? Could you let me meet that person?"

Wen Cheng did not have a good impression of the old gentleman.

That old gentleman appeared to be incredibly desperate.

"You've met him before."

"Huh? When did I meet him?" Wen Cheng replied in confusion.

“You went to his office last time.”

His office?

Suddenly, an image flashed into Wen Cheng’s brain.

Then, he was stunned.

“Wait... It’s... It’s not... It’s not Master Sheng right?”

Jian Yiling nodded her head.

“No way! If it’s Master Sheng... Then... Then his grandpa...”

Wasn’t Master Sheng’s grandpa Master Zhai?!

Was the smiling and amiable old gentleman Master Zhai?!

Wen Cheng swallowed his saliva before he asked: “Then... The old gentleman... That came to my house yesterday... Is he Master Zhai?”

Jian Yiling nodded her head again.

Upon hearing this, Wen Cheng’s head began to buzz.

Master Zhai visited his house!

Master Zhai actually visited his house!

Chapter 637: Wen Family’s Argument

“Then... Did I actually talk with Master Zhai yesterday?” Wen Cheng said. He was incredibly confused.

Jian Yiling nodded her head again.

Upon seeing this, Wen Cheng was shocked.

Never in his wildest dreams would he have ever imagined Master Zhai to come to his house. In fact, they even had a conversation on equal footing! He even called him “Uncle Wen”!

Wen Cheng took quite a while to digest this matter.

After a long time, Wen Cheng confirmed the situation with his niece again: “So... Are you sure that you want to be with Master Sheng?”

Jian Yiling nodded her head again.

When Wen Cheng saw the firm and resolute expression on his niece’s face, he knew that he was out of options.

“Yiling, if you ever feel wronged, please remember to tell me. I’m not incredibly capable. However, if someone bullies you, I will fight them to my death!”

“Okay.”

###

After Wen Cheng left the dessert shop, he went home to talk to Cai Qinyue. He wanted to pick out a gift for Jian Yiling's engagement party.

Wen Cheng mentioned that he wanted to give [Ten Thousands Miles of Mountains and River] to Jian Yiling as her engagement gift. This gift was a very precious jade artifact.

Upon hearing this, Cai Qinyue widened her eyes in disbelief.

This jade artifact was worth a fortune!

It was one of the most precious pieces among their many collections!

And Wen Cheng wanted to give this artifact to Jian Yiling as an engagement gift?!

"Wen Cheng! What the hell do you want! [Ten Thousand Miles of Mountains and Rivers] is what I intend to leave for Wen Ruo! And now, you're planning to give that to Jian Yiling? Who exactly is your daughter? Jian Yiling or Wen Ruo?"

"What are you even talking about? Wen Ruo is definitely my daughter. I love her the most."

"Am I really talking nonsense? The gift you gave Yiling for her birthday was even more expensive than the gift you gave Wen Ruo for her 18th! Furthermore, you took the initiative to invite Yiling to go to Cai Ningxuan. However, you never planned to invite Wen Ruo and me to go! You only took us there because I asked you to!"

"What do you mean? Do you not know the reason for the gift? If it weren't for Wen Nuan, the Wen family wouldn't even be here! Wen Nuan saved all of us. And thus, there's nothing wrong with me giving her a bit more than usual!"

Back then, Wen Nuan was not yet married. The Wen family faced an event that jeopardized their entire family.

Because of some business conflicts, Wen Cheng managed to offend a big shot in the industry.

And thus, the Wen family was in danger of the big shot's retaliation.

At that time, Wen Nuan came forward to negotiate a deal with the big shot. In the end, she successfully negotiated a very important deal for the big shot.

Wen Nuan had always been weak and soft. Ever since young, she liked to cry.

However, this time, she acted in a way that the whole family did not expect.

No one expected her to stand up for their family in the midst of this crisis.

However, she managed to save them.

Wen Nuan saved the reputation and business of the Wen family. In fact, she saved their entire family.

And thus, Wen Cheng remembered his sister's kindness. He wanted to repay this favor in any way possible.

In his eyes, without his sister's help at that time, the Wen family business would not exist. All these so-called antiques would not be his in the first place.

And thus, it was reasonable for him to give these antiques to Jian Yiling.

Cai Qinyue knew about this matter. Wen Cheng had mentioned it more than once to her.

"Wen Nuan is from the Wen family! Isn't it natural for her to help her own family? Furthermore, our mother gave her a huge dowry when she got married! So why are you treating it in some other way? She didn't do that favor just for you!"

Cai Qinyue had already been dissatisfied with this matter for a long time.

Chapter 638: Master Sheng's Public Display of Affection (1)

In the past, Cai Qinyue was willing to turn a blind eye to this.

However, today's matter was involved [Ten Thousand Miles of Mountains and Rivers.] And thus, she could not ignore this anymore!

This artifact was her daughter's! It was definitely not going to be gifted to an outsider!

"You! What nonsense! She's my sister!"

"She's already married! Therefore, she's a member of the Jian family! What kind of person are you? Why are you intentionally giving valuable things and money to someone else's family?"

"It doesn't matter if she's married or not! That does not change the fact that she's my sister! It also does not change the fact that she protected the Wen family!"

"Yes! She's your sister. Then what about us? Are we not your family anymore? Do you not care about Wen Ruo and I? Do you even care if we live or die?"

"Stop saying that! I care about Wen Ruo! All of my future assets will be Wen Ruo's. However, I'm determined to give [Ten Thousand Miles of Mountains and Rivers] to Yiling! It doesn't matter if you agree to this or not!"

After saying that, Wen Cheng stormed out of the room.

After Wen Cheng left the room, Cai Qinyue broke an object in anger.

###

When Zhai Yunsheng suddenly announced that he was getting engaged, Han Menyu and Xing Wei were shocked.

In the past, they thought that Zhai Yunsheng was going to be the last to marry out of the three of them.

However, Zhai Yunsheng was the first to announce his engagement!

"Who are you getting engaged to? Is it the same girl as last time?" Xing Wei asked.

“What’s the point of that question? We’ve only seen one girl appear next to Master Sheng. And we’ve known him for so long already! It’s a miracle in itself! Do you expect him to switch to another girl in such a short period of time?”

Han Mengyu did not believe that the sago palm could bloom twice.

“Hmmm, that girl is quite good. She knows how to play. Furthermore, she’s just as messed up as Zhai Yunsheng,” Xing Wei commented. Xing Wei had quite a good impression of Jian Yiling.

She was incredibly calm when it came to street racing.

Furthermore, she managed to crush them in her first time playing billiards.

Hmmm... No wonder the sago palm bloomed. That girl really suited Master Sheng.

“I think it’s pretty good as well. Master Sheng won’t have to be alone for the rest of his life.”

Han Mengyu and Xing Wei knew about Master Sheng’s physical condition. As a result, they were worried that he had no plans to marry.

“Hmm, should we host a singles party then? After all, Master Sheng is not going to be single for long,” Xing Wei said.

“Ahh, yes. We should definitely do that! Ask him to come out!” Han Mengyu exclaimed.

And thus, the two of them sent a message to Zhai Yunsheng. To their surprise, Zhai Yunsheng agreed to come out.

Then, Han Mengyu organized a venue.

Zhai Yunsheng arrived at the venue on time. However, he was followed by Jian Yiling.

Han Mengyu: “...”

Wasn’t this meant to be a singles party?

Wasn’t this seriously going against the theme of a singles party?

Zhai Yunsheng was holding Jian Yiling’s hand.

His large hand was wrapped around her smaller one.

When Han Mengyu and Xing Wei saw Zhai Yunsheng, they immediately wanted to complain about his behavior. However, neither of them dared to say anything.

“What are we doing today?” Zhai Yunsheng asked.

“Bowling, darts, escape room. Ten thousand dollars for each match,” Han Mengyu replied.

Zhai Yunsheng turned his head to look at Jian Yiling. He was asking for her opinion.

“Mhmm,” Jian Yiling nodded. She had no opinion on this. “You can get money.”

“I will win it over for you.”

“Mhmmm.”

Then, Zhai Yunsheng turned his head to speak to Han Mengyu and the others: “Let’s start.”

When they saw the look on Zhai Yunsheng’s face, Xing Wei and Han Mengyu knew that he was going to be serious today.

Han Mengyu and Xing Wei had nothing to say.

Even though you could win ten thousand dollars from each match, did Zhai Yunsheng really need the money?

Chapter 639: Master Sheng’s Public Display of Affection (2)

There was a woman who stared at Jian Yiling for most of the time.

The woman was in her early twenties. She had outstanding facial features.

“Is that her?” the woman asked Han Mengyu.

“Sister Ping, can’t you tell? Don’t think about it anymore,” Han Mengyu replied as he shook his head helplessly.

Yao Moping was in their friendship circle. Everyone respectfully called her “Sister Ping.”

This was a recognition for her status in society and of her character.

As they often hung out together, everyone knew that Sister Ping liked Master Sheng.

As soon as Sister Ping heard that Master Sheng was getting engaged, she immediately took a flight from New York back to Beijing.

Before seeing it with her own eyes, Yao Moping refused to believe this news.

She did not believe that Zhai Yunsheng would have his heart set on a girl.

“Which Beijing family is she from?” Yao Moping asked.

“She’s not from Beijing. She’s from the Jian family in Hengyuan City,” Han Mengyu replied.

“Hengyuan City? A second tier city?”

Hengyuan City was not a major city in China. In fact, it could not be even considered a provincial city. At most, it was merely a second-tier city.

A family from Hengyuan City was nothing compared to the powerful families in Beijing.

It was not even worth comparing them to the Zhai family.

In fact, everyone present today had a stronger social standing than her.

Hang Mengyu quickly understood the meaning behind Yao Moping’s words. He advised: “Sister Ping, Master Sheng does not care about social status. You know this. Miss Yiling’s family background does not matter to him. What matters is that he likes her.”

However, it was as though Yao Moping completely ignored Han Mengyu's words. Instead, her eyes focused on Zhai Yunsheng. Currently, Zhai Yunsheng was throwing the bowling ball.

After a while, Yao Moping's eyes moved over to Jian Yiling. Jian Yiling was currently seated in a nearby resting place.

Jian Yiling's appearance was petite. She had a fair face and delicate-looking features.

The first two words that came into Yao Moping's mind as she looked at Jian Yiling were soft and boneless.

Currently, Jian Yiling was sitting down. She held a phone in her hand and was tapping away at the screen. She did not look at Zhai Yunsheng.

However, if it were Yao Moping, she would have never moved her line of sight off Zhai Yunsheng.

Did that girl not have him in her heart?

The current game that was being played was bowling.

It was a single-person match. The result of each round was added together. The person who had the most points after six rounds would become the overall winner.

Jian Yiling did not participate in this match. Therefore, Zhai Yunsheng participated by himself.

Every game cost ten thousand dollars to enter. As a total of twenty people participated, the overall prize pool was two hundred thousand dollars.

The top three participants would split the entire prize pool.

First place would split one hundred and twenty thousand dollars, second place would split sixty thousand dollars and third place would split twenty thousand dollars.

Previously, Zhai Yunsheng didn't really care about bowling. Therefore, his score would typically rest in the middle of their friendship group.

However, he was obviously much more serious today.

He managed to get a strike in all six rounds.

Upon seeing this, the other participants became incredibly depressed.

Master Sheng was aiming for first place!

After the match was over, Master Sheng was undoubtedly ranked first. He took away most of the prize money.

And thus, the money got transferred to Zhai Yunsheng's bank account.

After the money reached Zhai Yunsheng's account, he immediately transferred it to Jian Yiling.

He had won a total of one hundred and twenty thousand dollars. After subtracting the registration fee of ten thousand dollars, there was still a net profit of one hundred and ten thousand dollars.

"I'm submitting all my income," Zhai Yunsheng said to Jian Yiling with a big smile.

It was as though he was very satisfied with the money he won.

After Jian Yiling received the money, she transferred ten thousand dollars back to Zhai Yunsheng: "Pocket money."

Chapter 640: Master Sheng's Public Display of Affection (3)

"Okay," Zhai Yunsheng smiled as he received the pocket money from his future wife.

Then, Jian Yiling deposited the remaining money into a new account that she had opened.

Han Mengyu was next to them. Upon hearing this conversation, he did not know what to say.

Was this still the Master Sheng that they knew? He was way too different!

They were already shocked from last time.

However, the reality seemed to shock them even more. Reality slapped them in the face and told them loud and clear: the surprises and shocks were far from being over.

Their Master Sheng had completely changed into another person!

Love was terrifying!

The second game of the night was darts.

Zhai Yunsheng decided to let Jian Yiling play this game.

As the bowling ball was quite heavy, he was worried about her hurting her wrist.

Jian Yiling couldn't risk her hand becoming injured. As a result, he did not invite her to play.

However, Jian Yiling could play darts. Darts was a game that required controlling hand strength alongside precision. This game was very suitable for Jian Yiling.

And thus, Zhai Yunsheng began to teach Jian Yiling how to play darts.

His right hand held onto Jian Yiling's right hand. Then, he helped Jian Yiling throw the dart in her hand at the target.

"The highest score you can get is sixty. You can triple the twenty on the board," Zhai Yunsheng leaned down and whispered the rules in Jian Yiling's ear.

Their actions were rather intimate. Everyone else in the recreation room felt a sour taste in their mouth.

After a few attempts, Jian Yiling was able to throw in a decent manner.

After a bit more practice, she was able to accurately hit the bullseye and the section which tripled twenty points.

Han Mengyu and Xing Wei were dumbfounded.

Was this actually her first time playing?

No way! She's so talented!

At this moment, Yao Moping walked over.

"Master Sheng, long time no see."

Zhai Yunsheng glanced at Yao Moping before he ignored her.

Zhai Yunsheng was aware of the fact that Yao Moping liked him. Everyone in their circle knew this. As a result, how could he possibly not know?

As Yao Moping did not clarify the rumors, it was very likely that she actually liked him. As a result, he did not want to give this woman groundless hope.

Furthermore, Zhai Yunsheng would always ignore women when they attempted to strike up a conversation with him.

Yao Moping was accustomed to Zhai Yunsheng's response.

Master Sheng had always acted this way to females that were interested in him.

He also responded this way to Qin Yufan. Qin Yufan was the young lady of the Qin family. Even if it was her, Zhai Yunsheng would not act friendly.

He seemed to be telling the entire world that he did not want to fall in love.

Yao Moping assumed this in the past as well. However, things ended up changing. Today, there was a young girl who appeared by his side.

"Master Sheng, if you don't mind, let me compete with her."

Yao Moping took the initiative to ask Jian Yiling for a match.

In a dart match, they were tasked with reaching a specific score with the least number of darts.

Zhai Yunsheng did not reply. Instead, he looked at Jian Yiling.

His message was clear: he had no right to decide. And thus, it was up to Jian Yiling.

Xing Wei sensed that something was off. He frantically tried to get Han Mengyu's attention.

However, there was nothing that Han Mengyu could do. What could he say at this time?

Just now, he had already attempted to talk to Sister Ping. However, Sister Ping was unwilling to listen to his words.

Jian Yiling nodded her head: "Okay."

She could compete against anyone.

It would be great if she won. However, even if she lost, Zhai Yunsheng would still win. Either way, they would still get the prize money.

"You first or me first?" Yao Moping asked Jian Yiling.

“I don’t mind,” Jian Yiling responded. She did not care about this.

“Ahh, let’s draw lots then.”
