Chapter 681: Questioning the Future Matriarch (2)

Everyone else in the room was silent for a moment. However, they did not greet Jian Yiling as the Zhai family's matriarch.

"Master Sheng, it's not that we don't want to follow the rules. It's just that the Zhai family should consider our opinions as well when deciding on a future matriarch."

Just in case the head of the Zhai family was muddleheaded, this rule had been set in place. After all, if the head of the Zhai family was only interested in a woman, they could do things that were detrimental to their entire alliance.

Zhai Yunsheng narrowed his eyes before he said: "Are you telling me that you're not satisfied with Yiling?"

The six of them had similar expressions on their faces. The answer to this question was yes. However, none of them dared to directly say so.

Finally, the young man in his thirties opened his mouth: "Yes, we have doubts about Miss Yiling's abilities. We don't think she can fulfill the responsibilities of the Zhai family's matriarch."

Zhai Yunsheng looked at the man.

The man's name was Wei Qirui. The problematic company Quan Xin was under his name.

In the past two years, the man had been quite ambitious. Zhai Yunsheng knew about this.

However, the man didn't do anything too excessive yet. As a result, the Zhai family couldn't really punish him.

Then, the only other woman present in the room besides Jian Yiling spoke up: "Master Sheng, what Mr. Wei said isn't wrong. Miss Yiling's temper looks way too soft. She seems easy to bully. As a result, she's not suited to be the matriarch of the Zhai family."

"Too soft?" Zhai Yunsheng wickedly smiled.

Jian Yiling's temper was too soft?

She was sometimes soft in front of the people she cared about.

However, it was a completely different story if she was with people she did not care about.

It seemed as though these people wanted to see the side of Jian Yiling that was not soft.

The old man with a round body attempted to mediate the situation: "Master Sheng, please don't be angry. We're not against Miss Yiling becoming the matriarch of the Zhai family. However, we want to spend some time evaluating whether or not she can fulfill her role. The ancestral rules allow us to do so."

"Okay," Zhai Yunsheng responded. He did not plan to force them, "Since there's such a statement in the ancestral rules, you guys are allowed to consider. However, for now, you should still greet her as the matriarch of the Zhai family. Of course, it's a completely different situation if you have a valid reason not to."

"This..."

The old man looked at the others in the room.

Everyone had a difficult expression on their face.

As of right now, they didn't have a proper reason.

Once again, Wei Qirui spoke up: "My reason is that I don't believe Miss Yiling is capable enough to become the matriarch of the Zhai family. I believe that this is a good enough reason. What do you think, Master Sheng?"

At this moment, Jian Yiling spoke up. Her voice was soft and did not sound intimidating:

"The accounts of Quan Xin from March to May last year were falsified. I have already pointed out the falsified data on the platform."

This was the same platform that Zhai Yunsheng gave her the password for this morning.

The matriarch of the Zhai family had the right to send messages directly to others.

Upon hearing this, everyone hurriedly took out their phones and computers. They went to check the message on the platform.

Then, the crowd looked at Wei Qirui with astonished expressions.

Wei Qirui also received the same message.

The contents of the message made his expression incredibly unpleasant.

Under the stares of the crowd, Wei Qirui attempted to justify his actions: "Well, it seems as though there is a little bit of a problem with the data. However, what about it? Isn't it a normal thing for a company's accounts to have some problems once in a while?"

"I'm proving that I'm capable of being the matriarch of the Zhai family," Jian Yiling replied.

"With just this?" Wei Qirui replied. He was not impressed. "There are professional accountants nowadays. Being able to read the accounts is no longer an essential skill for the matriarch of the Zhai family."

Chapter 682: Questioning the Future Matriarch (3)

Wei Qirui's attitude did not change. He continued to treat Jian Yiling with disdain and disrespect.

In the presence of Zhai Yunsheng, he already dared to speak to Jian Yiling in such a way.

If Zhai Yunsheng wasn't here, god knows what his attitude would become.

With the help of the Zhai family, the Wei family's business developed rapidly in the past few years. As their family became more powerful, this allowed Wei Qirui's words to have more confidence.

“Wait a minute, Miss Yiling, are you Dr. F.S?”

The old man with a slightly fat body asked Jian Yiling in a surprised voice.

Upon hearing these words, everyone looked at the old man with puzzled eyes. Even Jian Yiling and Zhai Yunsheng were confused.

“You mean, she’s Dr. F.S?” the middle-aged woman asked with a surprised voice.

Although none of them specialized in the medical field, they had all heard of this well known surgeon.

After all, no one could live without a doctor.

The man replied: “Yeah, that’s her. A news article just came out. The article said that Jian Yiling is Dr. F.S. Furthermore, her picture is in the article as well.”

Upon hearing this, everyone hurriedly went online to find the corresponding news report.

Sure enough, the article clearly stated the relationship between Jian Yiling and Dr. F.S.

Furthermore, the article gave a lot of supporting evidence as well.

When Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling read this, they knew that the incident that day was still leaked out.

The only people who could have done this was Wen Ruo or her boyfriend, Zhu Zimo.

As the Wen family was Jian Yiling’s relatives, Zhai Yunsheng couldn’t use extreme measures to make them shut up. After all, he had to consider Jian Yiling’s feelings.

The relationship between Jian Yiling and the Wen family restricted Zhai Yunsheng’s actions.

However, it seemed as though the relationship did not mean much to the Wen family. Either Wen Ruo or her boyfriend still betrayed Jian Yiling.

The way they looked at Jian Yiling changed.

“Miss Yiling, are you actually Dr. F.S?” the old man asked Jian Yiling.

Jian Yiling admitted: “Yes, I am.”

However, Wei Qirui questioned this: “Did you make this news up?”

However, before Jian Yiling and Zhai Yunsheng responded, someone else already denied Wei Qirui’s speculation.

“That’s impossible. If you make up this news, it will be really easily countered by evidence. Therefore, there is no reason for her to make up this news.”

If she really wanted to become the matriarch of the Zhai family, she could pick any other identity. It would be much more effective and not as easily countered. She would definitely not pick Dr. F.S’s identity.

However, Wei Qirui was still unconvinced: “Even if Miss Yiling is Dr. F.S, that only proves that she’s a good doctor. It isn’t necessarily related to whether or not she’s qualified to become the matriarch of the Zhai family.”

“That’s not true. The two things are definitely related,” the old man replied. “She uses a scalpel to save hundreds of lives. That means that she’s not a cowardly and incompetent person.”

However, being a doctor was not much help in becoming the matriarch of the Zhai family directly.

But it was still related in some aspects.

A person who dared to hold a scalpel essentially saved people from the grim reaper. Therefore, how could she possibly be a timid and weak person?

A timid and weak person would not be able to carry the lives of others on their shoulders.

However, the old man still said to Zhai Yunsheng: “But the matter regarding the matriarch still has to be evaluated. Please allow us sometime to think this through.”

As of now, they still knew too little information.

Therefore, they needed more information to convince them to call Jian Yiling their matriarch.

Chapter 683: Wen Nuan Becomes Angry

“Okay,” Zhai Yunsheng replied. He was not going to force them to call Jian Yiling their matriarch.

After all, he didn’t really care whether or not they called her their matriarch.

She was his woman. In the first place, she didn’t need the approval of these people.

In fact, he was only here to abide by the rules of the Zhai family.

The outcome did not really matter to him.

And thus, the meeting ended in a not so harmonious atmosphere.

Out of the six people, the last person who left the room was the chubby old man.

He was the boss of Cai Ningxuan.

“Master Sheng, you’re rather fortunate,” the old man said as he smiled.

“Oh? Didn’t you say just now that you needed to evaluate her?”

“That’s a completely different matter. Back then, I was evaluating her as the future matriarch of the Zhai family. However now, I’m looking at her as your future fiancée. The two matters are very different.”

“Do you have anything good here lately?” Zhai Yunsheng asked.

“Master Sheng, are you planning to give something to your fiancée?”

“Do you even need to ask that? Do you think I’m giving it to you or something?”

“Hahahaha, as a matter of fact, I do have something that’s quite suited for Miss Yiling. It’s a jade carving piece.”

After he said this, the old man ordered someone to bring him the jade carving piece.

It was a pair of Hotan jade rabbits.

Zhai Yunsheng laughed when he saw the pair of rabbits.

“I’ll take them.” Then he handed them into Jian Yiling’s arms.

As a result, Jian Yiling ended up with a pair of jade rabbits in her arms.

###

In the hospital, Wen Ruo was currently accompanying her father Wen Cheng.

Wen Cheng had just been transferred from the intensive care unit to a general ward. His situation was improving quite quickly.

Wen Ruo was seated next to the hospital bed. She flicked through the news.

When she saw the news, Wen Ruo began to feel nervous.

“Wen Ruo, are you okay? Do you feel unwell? It must have been hard on you recently. It’s my bad. I should have dealt with the situation better.”

As Wen Cheng looked at his daughter’s pale face, he felt incredibly guilty.

The accident must have been a shock to her.

“It’s okay. Furthermore, my mother was more at fault. However, my mother did this because she loves you. She wants you to love her more as well. Please don’t blame her. I don’t want our family to fall apart,” Wen Ruo said. Her voice was choked with sobs.

“Wen Ruo, please don’t feel bad. I understand the situation. I won’t let our family fall apart. Please don’t worry about it,” Wen Cheng promised his daughter.

“Mhmm!” Wen Ruo said happily as she leaned next to her father.

Wen Cheng let out a long sigh. He loved his daughter.

He only had one child. And thus, how could he not love her?

He had to admit that he did like his niece quite a bit. However, he loved his daughter much more.

He wanted to give [Ten Thousand Miles of Mountains and Rivers] to his niece as an engagement gift.

However, there were many other valuable antiques that he wanted to leave for his daughter.

Despite this, he had to admit that he dealt with the situation rather poorly. This caused his wife to harbor resentment.

Initially, he thought it was just an ordinary argument. However, the situation ended up like this.

At this moment, the door of the ward opened. Wen Nuan walked in with Jian Yiling.

"A Nuan, Yiling, you're here as well," Wen Cheng smiled. He was happy to see his sister and niece.

Upon hearing these words, Wen Ruo did not dare to turn her head to look at Wen Nuan and Jian Yiling.

However, Wen Nuan's expression was quite different from usual. There was no smile on her face. In fact, she looked incredibly serious.

Wen Nuan questioned: "Who leaked the information that my daughter is Dr. F.S?"

Chapter 684: Yiling Saved Me?

"A Nuan, what's wrong? What are you saying?" Wen Cheng asked with a confused voice.

As Wen Cheng was unconscious during his surgery, he had no idea that the person who saved him was his precious niece.

"What am I saying?! I am saying that someone leaked the news that my daughter is Dr. F.S!" Wen Nuan yelled. She completely lost her temper.

Wen Nuan's personality had always been soft and gentle. As a result, Wen Cheng rarely saw his sister lose her temper.

"Yiling is Dr. F.S? She saved me?!" Wen Cheng stammered with astonishment. "That's... That's... Incredible..."

Then, Wen Cheng looked at Jian Yiling in a daze. He was unable to digest Wen Nuan's words.

This news was too surprising for him.

"Yiling, did you actually save me? Did you actually save my life?" Wen Cheng asked. His face was filled with different kinds of emotions.

"Mhmm."

Her identity was made known to the public already. There was no need for her to hide her identity anymore.

As a matter of fact, Jian Yiling was no longer worried about her identity being known by the public.

Three years ago, she did not have the ability to protect herself. As a result, she could not protect the identity of 'Dr. F.S.'

However, things changed in these three years.

Despite this, Jian Yiling did not want to be a high-profile individual. As a result, she did not reveal her identity. In fact, she tried to hide it as much as possible.

Oh my goodness! Wen Cheng's chest was filled with different emotions.

There was shock, excitement, and warmth. After all, his niece had saved his life.

However, Wen Nuan was still incredibly angry: “Brother, in order to save you, Yiling revealed her identity that day. On that day, Master Sheng explained to everyone that this news could not be released to the public. However, the news still leaked today. Did you know that Yiling was kidnapped three years ago because of her identity?!”

“Kidnapped? But why?” Wen Cheng asked. His brain couldn’t completely comprehend this.

“Because Yiling understands certain things much better than others in the industry. As a result, her skills and capabilities are very attractive to some overseas lawbreakers.”

“I...” Wen Cheng stammered before he trailed off. He hadn’t yet fully digested the news that his niece was Dr. F.S.

His niece was much more incredible than he had imagined!

Wen Ruo hung her face down. She did not dare to look at Wen Nuan and Jian Yiling.

However, Wen Nuan already directed her attention to Wen Ruo: “Did you do this?”

“Aunt, what are you talking about? How could it be me?” Wen Ruo denied.

“Master Sheng already looked into everyone else present that day. Therefore, the only possibility is you or Zhu Zimo!”

“Aunt, you can’t accuse me like this. I didn’t do it. Furthermore, just because Master Sheng looked into the matter, why do you need to trust his word? There were so many doctors, nurses, and security guards present that day. Why doesn’t Master Sheng suspect them? Why does he suspect me? I’m Yiling’s cousin! If Yiling has made such accomplishments, I should be happy for her! Why would I want to harm her?”

“I don’t know why you want to harm her. However, you’re quite suspicious.”

Wen Nuan was still furious. This shocked Wen Cheng and Wen Ruo.

Upon hearing this, Wen Ruo’s eyes began to turn red. Her tears welled in her eyes: “If you have evidence, then I have nothing to say. However, you don’t have evidence. There were so many people there on that day... Why are your eyes locked on me? My father treats Yiling so well... However, when something happens, your first reaction is to suspect me! My father isn’t even out of the hospital yet! You’re basically just stabbing a knife into his heart!”

Chapter 685: Must Not Happen Again

Upon hearing this, Wen Nuan’s heart skipped a beat. She turned her head to look at her brother.

Then, she saw her brother’s pained expression.

When Wen Nuan accused Wen Ruo of deliberately spreading the news, his heart was stabbed.

“A Nuan, let’s investigate this matter. Wen Ruo isn’t that kind of child,” Wen Cheng said quietly.

At this moment, he was pleading for Wen Nuan to put things aside for the time being.

Wen Nuan's eyes began to fill with tears as well. She said with a sad voice: "Brother, I don't want to suspect Wen Ruo either. However, right now, she and Zhu Zimo are the biggest suspects! Please don't blame me for suspecting her! I don't want to lose Yiling!"

After she said this, Wen Nuan turned her head to look at her daughter.

Today, she was the one who asked Yiling to come with her. She wanted to get this matter sorted out.

She would not allow someone to do anything against her daughter!

Even if it was her brother's daughter! That didn't matter to her!

Wen Cheng did not know what to do. He helplessly looked at Wen Nuan and Wen Ruo. Both of them were incredibly important to him.

"We can stop pursuing this matter," Jian Yiling said suddenly.

"Yiling?"

"Uncle," Jian Yiling called out.

"Yes!" Wen Cheng immediately replied.

"If she does anything wrong in the future again, please don't blame me for retaliating," Jian Yiling said. "As long as you promise this, I will stop pursuing this matter for now."

Jian Yiling spoke the same way as before. Her voice was paced and soft.

However, she clearly expressed herself.

Jian Yiling's words made Wen Ruo incredibly angry: "Jian Yiling, are you convinced that I did it?"

Jian Yiling did not reply to Wen Ruo's question. Instead, she looked at Wen Cheng. She waited for her uncle's response.

Wen Cheng looked at Jian Yiling as well. All of a sudden, he did not know what to reply.

However, after thinking about it for a moment, if his daughter didn't do anything wrong, what harm was there for him to say yes? After all, she wouldn't do anything to harm Yiling anyway.

Yes, that's right. His daughter would not do anything to harm Yiling.

"Okay. In the future, if there is evidence that Wen Ruo did this, then I will not intervene."

After a long pause, Wen Cheng finally responded.

Upon hearing Wen Cheng's reply, Jian Yiling pulled at Wen Nuan's hand before saying: "Let's go."

"Okay," Wen Nuan replied.

After exiting the ward, Wen Nuan anxiously asked her daughter: "Yiling, what should we do now? Everyone knows about your identity now. Will someone cause you trouble again?"

At a time like this, Wen Nuan wanted her daughter to become an ordinary girl. She didn't have to be smart or talented.

“It’s okay. Don’t worry about it,” Jian Yiling replied.

Although her daughter’s answer was incredibly certain, Wen Nuan still could not help but worry.

Ahh, she had to have a good talk with Jian Yuncheng and Huo Yu. Perhaps, they could think of a solution.

She couldn’t let her daughter be exposed to danger!

###

Superintendent Ruan sent a message to Jian Yiling:

[It seems as though someone released this information intentionally. Do you need any help from my side?]

[No need. I already know about this.]

[Then do you need me to deal with the person that did this?]

[No need. I dealt with it already.]

[My Dr. F.S... Can you give us an opportunity to do something? If you do everything, my group of fierce agents will have no use at all. They will be sad.]

As Superintendent Ruan sent these messages to Jian Yiling, a group of men were gathered beside him.

They were all agents of the group.

Chapter 686: I’m Just Trash

As soon as they heard that Jian Yiling encountered trouble, they all wanted to help her.

Jian Yiling replied: [They’re strong individuals. They won’t be sad.]

[They’re only physically strong. However, their hearts are incredibly fragile. In fact, their hearts are fragile like glass! When they heard that you got engaged, they didn’t even want to work anymore. The combat power of my group has completely plummeted!]

As Jian Yiling knew that Superintendent Ruan was exaggerating and joking around, she replied: [Good luck.]

Upon receiving this reply, Superintendent Ruan sent another message: [Then, if you need any help from us, please let me know! There’s no need to be polite.]

[Okay.]

[By the way, we looked into what happened in the Qin family. I sent the related materials to your computer.] Superintendent Ruan would not forget the matters that were related to Jian Yiling’s brother. He knew that she cared about her brothers quite a lot.

[Okay.]

Then, Jian Yiling put down her phone. She read through the documents that Superintendent Ruan sent to her.

###

Hu Jiaojiao and An Yang came over to Jian Yiling's place.

"Yiling, you're amazing!"

Hu Jiaojiao's face was filled with admiration. They only just discovered that Jian Yiling was Dr. F.S.

Then, Hu Jiaojiao lowered her head before she said: "Ahhh, you can't compare a person to another person. If you do... I'm just trash..."

An Yang laughed when he heard this: "Well, that's not super surprising. After all, other than sleeping and eating, what else do you do? You're sleepy in the morning, at lunch, and even at night!"

Upon hearing this, Hu Jiaojiao retorted: "Well, sleepiness is a human instinct! I just follow the instinctual calls of my body!"

"I thought your motto before the college exams was: Why do you need sleep when you're alive? You can sleep when you're dead. Did you change your motto after your college exams?"

Back then, these lines were written by Hu Jiaojiao whenever she felt sleepy. This was because although she tried to study, she felt sleepy whenever she read something.

Hu Jiaojiao attempted to explain: "It hasn't changed. I just plan to sleep. When I wake up, I will be revived! It's a new life for me!"

An Yang conceded: "Ahh, I can't win against you."

Although An Yang and Hu Jiaojiao seemed like they were bickering all the time, their relationship was going quite well.

As Jian Yiling watched them, a rare smile appeared on her face.

Then, An Yang said: "By the way Boss, I heard from my uncle that you became the matriarch of the Zhai family. However, people are still looking down upon you. Furthermore, some of them are speaking behind your back!"

This made An Yang incredibly angry. However, he could do nothing about it. He couldn't fight someone from a powerful family.

However, he was still incredibly angry. Those people talked about it as though they were worthy to become engaged to Master Sheng.

Sometimes, your birth and social standing didn't mean much. After all, they still liked to talk behind people's backs.

This made An Yang and Hu Jiaojiao incredibly angry.

What was wrong with Jian Yiling?

They didn't even know Jian Yiling!

"Mhmm," Jian Yiling replied.

“Boss, do you want us to do something for you?”

“Yes, yes!”

An Yang and Hu Jiaojiao looked at Jian Yiling with anticipation.

Chapter 687: Pepper Said This Will Make You Happy

“No, no. It’s okay,” Jian Yiling replied. She didn’t not really care about the words of the Internet.

“What do you mean by it’s okay? I’m your lackey! You should let me deal with these things! This is my duty!”

An Yang firmly announced his role as a “lackey.”

However, despite saying that he was a lackey, his words were strong and confident. This made it sound like he was the boss.

“Yes, yes,” Hu Jiaojiao echoed as she nodded her head in a hurry.

“What... What do you guys plan to do?” Jian Yiling asked.

Her eyes were filled with doubt.

An Yang said: “We’ve brainstormed about this already! We will secretly gather information about those who talked about you behind your back! Then, we will ask a hacker to publicize the information!”

An Yang had already thought this through. He was just short of putting the plan into action.

Hu Jiaojiao added: “Furthermore, we’re going to get a well known figure on the Internet to post something! We will make them understand that Master Sheng is not worthy of you! Not the opposite way around!”

Hu Jiaojiao and An Yang failed to think of a particularly good idea. However, they wanted to return the favor to the individuals that hid behind their screens.

An Yang continued to speak: “What’s good about Master Sheng anyway? He was just born into a good family! He’s not worthy of my boss! How dare they say that my boss is unworthy to be his fiancée?!”

When An Yang finished speaking, the two people in front of him didn’t say anything.

“What’s wrong? Why are you guys looking at me like that? Did I say something wrong?”

“They’re probably looking at me.”

Zhai Yunsheng’s voice came from behind An Yang.

An Yang was instantly petrified.

Ahhh, it appeared as though Zhai Yunsheng was also at home.

However, as he hadn’t come out, An Yang mistakenly assumed that he wasn’t here.

“Master... Master Sheng...” An Yang stammered as he slowly turned around. When he saw Zhai Yunsheng’s light smile, An Yang swallowed a mouthful of saliva.

Zhai Yunsheng continued to smile at An Yang. He did not say a single word.

This made An Yang incredibly nervous.

Even though he was incredibly confident just now, he was still speaking about Master Sheng! Everyone in Beijing knew not to offend Master Sheng!

“Master Sheng... I was... I was speaking nonsense just now... I...” An Yang stammered. He was terrified.

Zhai Yunsheng’s smile was too damn frightening!

Ahhh, he knew he did the wrong thing.

At this moment, An Yang quietly lit up three incense sticks in his mind.

Perhaps, next year’s today would be his death anniversary.

Just when An Yang felt like he was going to have a heart attack, Zhai Yunsheng’s gaze moved away from his body.

All of a sudden, An Yang felt alive again.

An Yang and Hu Jiaojiao stayed with Jian Yiling for a while longer before they left.

After they left, Jian Yiling and Zhai Yunsheng went back to the study room and continued to work.

Usually, the two of them didn’t speak to each other much. However, somehow, their relationship was still incredibly harmonious.

For Zhai Yunsheng, this silent companionship was a hard-won luxury.

After some time, Zhai Yunsheng got up to pour himself some water. When he came back, he passed by Jian Yiling’s side.

“Wait for a moment,” Jian Yiling suddenly called out to Zhai Yunsheng.

Then, she got up and opened her arms before she wrapped her arms around Zhai Yunsheng.

Her arms circled his waist.

“What... What are you doing?” Zhai Yunsheng asked. He was shocked by Jian Yiling’s sudden movement.

One of his hands still held the glass of water. He did not know where to place his other hand.

“Pepper told me to hug you ever so often. She said that this will make you happy. After all, you’re my fiance.”

“Pepper said that?”

Chapter 688: Sister En and Brother Yumin (1)

Translator: Exodus Tales Editor: Exodus Tales

“Mhmm. Pepper said that she was taught by her roommate. Therefore, she’s teaching it to me now,” Jian Yiling confessed.

Zhai Yunsheng looked at the little rabbit that crashed into his arms before he laughed softly.

“You should hang out with Pepper and her roommates more often in the future,” Zhai Yunsheng said to Jian Yiling.

“Why?”

“They’re quite nice. They’re looking out for you.”

Zhai Yunsheng said as he lowered his head to look at the sweet red lips that were close to his face. His Adam’s apple twitched, however, in the end, he did not put his thoughts to action.

###

Jian Yumin and Luo Xiuen met up at the boxing gym again.

This time, Luo Xiuen was quite merciful. She made sure that Jian Yumin could still get up.

After boxing, the two of them went for a drink.

Once Luo Xiuen got drunk, she was determined to become sworn brothers with Jian Yumin again.

Then, the two of them cursed at Zhai Yunsheng together:

“Zhai Yunsheng is evil! He has evil intentions! He abducted my sister, just like that! My sister is still so young! However, he didn’t care about that at all! Ahhhhh!!!”

“Yeah! She’s the treasure of our institution. He stole her away, just like that! Does he not care about my feelings? I knew he was up to no good three years ago!”

“Really? What a coincidence! Three years ago, I knew that he was up to no good as well! He’s a bastard! I want to beat him up! In fact, I would beat him up. However, I don’t want my sister to cry.”

As they were both cursing at Zhai Yunsheng, the two of them had the same ideas and emotions. It was as though they found a long lost friend.

Luo Xiuen slapped her thigh before she started to laugh: “Hahahaha, if you can’t win a fight against him, I can fight against him with you! I will make sure to beat his ass up!”

However, Jian Yumin was not scared of Zhai Yunsheng: “I’m not scared of him! At worst, I will ask Yiheng to come back home! Zhai Yunsheng will definitely be on the floor!”

Even if he couldn’t win a fight, he had brothers and cousins to win the fight for him!

“Oh! When I get the chance, I want to meet this cousin of yours! I want to fight with him.”

“Yeah, for sure. If there’s a chance, I’d like to see you guys fight as well.”

“Yes, yes! Come on! Cheers! Cheers to our friendship!”

Then, the two of them raised their glasses to celebrate.

As Luo Xiuen became more and more drunk, she looked at Jian Yumin as she gradually became a love-struck fool.

“Brother... Brother Yumin... Do you know how I feel? Just seeing you makes me feel surreal! Back then, I was always working. I felt so damn alone. My personality isn’t that great. As a result, females didn’t like hanging out with me. Furthermore, males didn’t want to hang out with me either because I’m a female...”

Ever since young, Luo Xiuen was different from everyone else.

Her personality resembled a boy. She was reckless and violent. Furthermore, she was also an incredibly smart student.

As a result, before she joined the Huiling Medical Research Institution, she basically had no friends.

Other than her parents, she had no one else to talk to.

However, when she arrived at the Huiling Medical Research Institution, she found her own kind of people.

She finally felt a sense of belonging.

Then, Luo Xiuen said whilst she was only half conscious: “However, after I met you, after I listened to your songs, I felt much better. I felt healed. In fact, I didn’t feel as alone anymore.”

Perhaps to Jian Yumin, she was just one of his many fans.

However, for her, Jupiter was an integral part of her life.

Whenever she felt lonely, she would listen to their songs, look at their posters, and watch their videos and shows.

Back then, Luo Xiuen didn’t think that she would chase after a celebrity or boy band.

However, she fell in love with Jupiter. She fell in love with the group for many many years.

Chapter 689: Sister En and Brother Yumin (2)

From their first album, to their last album, to their announcement of going solo and finally, to the announcement of Jian Yumin quitting the entertainment industry.

As Jian Yumin listened to Luo Xiuen’s words, a ripple surfaced and spread in his heart.

He did not know what he was feeling.

It seemed as though the person in front of him was no longer just a friend of Jian Yiling. Instead, she seemed to have a special identity. She seemed special to him.

###

Early the next morning, Luo Xiuen woke up in a daze.

She was lying on a large white bed in a hotel room.

Luo Xiuen’s elbow shifted underneath the fluffy white blanket.

Her elbow brushed against someone’s abs. Their abs were firmer than an average woman’s.

Where was she?

As she drank a bit too much last night, her head still felt heavy in the morning.

As Luo Xiuen opened her eyes, fragments of what happened last night flashed into her mind.

There was an image of a handsome man who she adored approaching her face.

Last night, she then instinctively closed her eyes.

Then... Things got a little out of control.

The two of them did what grown men and women should only do after they were certain of their feelings.

“Crap!”

After recalling what happened last night, Luo Xiuen cursed out loud.

She actually did... She actually did such a thing...

Ahhh, she shouldn't have drank!

Last time, she almost did something with Jian Yumin.

This time, she removed the 'almost' from the equation!

Something actually happened!

Luo Xiuen's voice woke Jian Yumin up.

When he opened his eyes and saw Luo Xiuen, his expression was a bit embarrassed.

Of course, he did not lose his memory. As a result, he knew what happened between them last night.

He was conscious of his actions back then.

If he was actually completely drunk, he wouldn't have been able to do anything.

The two of them drank quite a lot last night. As a result, their minds were quite muddled. However, they were still conscious of their actions.

Luo Xiuen looked at her idol before she mentally howled in grief.

Although Jian Yumin started the kiss, she clearly initiated everything else!

It was completely led by her!

How could she possibly do such a thing?

How could she lay her hands on her favorite idol?

No, she used more than her hands last night! She even used her mouth!

Ahhhhhh!

Luo Xiuen felt like she was going crazy.

Jian Yumin watched Luo Xiuen as her expression changed back and forth. He wondered how she managed to have such rich expressions.

It seemed as though she was very conflicted.

At that moment, Jian Yumin thought to himself: This doesn't count as sleeping with a fan right?

"Brother Yumin!" Luo Xiuen cried out after contemplating for a while: "Let's forget about last night! I'm so sorry for what I did! Just... Just think of it as a mosquito bite!"

A mosquito bite?

Did she really just say that about herself?

Jian Yumin did not expect Luo Xiuen to ask him to forget about what happened last night.

He clearly wanted to be in a relationship with her.

He wasn't the casual type of person. Before something intimate happened, he would basically confirm that they liked each other.

Jian Yumin didn't reply to Luo Xiuen. Currently, he was a little upset that Luo Xiuen's first reaction was to clear her relationship with him.

Was having a relationship with him embarrassing to her?

Or was she dissatisfied with him?

His performance last night wasn't that bad!

Chapter 690: Sister En and Brother Yumin (3)

Luo Xiuen continued to speak to Jian Yumin while she got dressed: "Also, we must never tell Yiling what happened!"

"Why can't we let Yiling know?" Jian Yumin asked.

"Of course we can't let her know! We can't let her know that I did this to her brother! She won't accept me as a sister after this!"

"What did you do to her brother?" Jian Yumin asked as he frowned.

However, Luo Xiuen did not notice the frown on Jian Yumin's face.

"I... I bullied her brother!" Luo Xiuen cried out. In her heart, she decided that her actions last night were due to the influence of alcohol. She laid her hands on her idol whom she had liked for several years.

Therefore, Jian Yumin had been forced into the situation.

Ahhh, this was a sin! As a fan, how could she do such a blasphemous thing to her idol?!

Ahhh, she would quit drinking from now on! She would definitely not drink again! After all, she dared to do anything once she became drunk.

After Luo Xiuen got dressed, she ran out of the hotel as fast as she could.

She left the former member of a certain idol group on the hotel bed. That idol had an incredibly upset expression on his face.

###

All-day long, Luo Xiuen was incredibly distracted.

Whenever her phone beeped with a message, she would be incredibly nervous.

When she saw a message from Jian Yiling, her heart skipped a beat.

After all, she had a guilty conscience. Typically, Luo Xiuen was straightforward with her actions. However, this time around, she encountered a situation that she didn't know how to deal with.

Jian Yiling sent Luo Xiuen a message related to the heart surgery she planned to do.

"Ahh! Yiling, why are you here?" Luo Xiuen asked. Luo Xiuen's expression when she saw Jian Yiling was as though she saw a ghost. She was incredibly startled.

The other members of the research institution with them were also surprised.

Was this still the Sister En they knew?

Was this the same Sister En who wasn't afraid of anything?

For some reason, they felt that Sister En was possessed by an evil spirit today.

"The operation," Jian Yiling reminded Luo Xiuen.

"Ohhh! Yes, yes! The operation! Is it today? Oh, wait, yes, it's today."

Upon realizing this, Luo Xiuen blamed herself even more. Jian Yiling was going to perform a surgery today. Why did she drink so much alcohol yesterday?

Ahhhh!

However, Jian Yiling's surgical operation today did not have much to do with Luo Xiuen. Luo Xiuen was not going to participate in the operation. Therefore, whether or not she drank last night wouldn't have a large impact.

Furthermore, as Jian Yiling's identity had been made public, there was no need for her to make special arrangements whenever Jian Yiling needed to perform a surgery.

It was okay for the family members of the patient to see Jian Yiling.

On the way to the operating room, Luo Xiuen asked Jian Yiling whilst stammering: "Yiling, if someone wanted to be your sister-in-law, how would you respond?"

Typically, Luo Xiuen would never speak in such a fashion.

Upon hearing this, Jian Yiling replied: "Two different types of responses."

"Which two?" Luo Xiuen hurriedly replied.

“There’s the case where the other person is good and there’s the case where the other person is bad.”

Luo Xiuen paused for a moment to think. She could be considered a good person right?

It wasn’t that she was narcissistic. However, other than what happened last night, she treated the Jian siblings quite well.

However, in order to not let Jian Yiling figure out the reason behind such a question, Luo Xiuen intended to enquire into both situations:

“Well, if they’re a bad person, what would you do?”

“I will deal with them. I won’t give them a chance.”

Jian Yiling wanted to protect the Jian family.

If it was a person with bad intentions, Jian Yiling would not let them stay by her brother’s side.
