Chapter 761: Request For Help Is Denied

“Nope,” Zhai Yunsheng replied. His answer was crisp and sharp whilst his attitude remained arrogant and haughty.

Upon hearing Zhai Yunsheng’s words, Wei Qirui’s face was distorted with anger.

“Master Sheng, is this how you treat members of the Loyalty Alliance?”

“Are you playing dumb? Have you lost your memory or do you think I’m stupid or something?” Zhai Yunsheng replied as he raised his eyebrows.

At that moment, Wei Qirui’s words lacked confidence: “I don’t understand what you’re saying.”

“Well, take a good think about it then. As long as your brain exists within your skull, you should remember what happened.”

Wei Qirui was so angry that he suddenly stood up.

“Okay, okay. Since you’re all heartless, I don’t expect anything from you guys!”

Then, Wei Qirui slammed the door and left.

###

As his pleas for help were fruitless, Wei Qirui attempted to do other things in order to save his company.

“Investigate the boss of Broken Waves!”

“Boss, we’ve already looked into it. The company’s representative’s identity is incredibly ordinary. There’s nothing special about him. We couldn’t find any useful information.”

“Is there nothing at all?”

“The man is from another country. Other than basic information such as name and age, there’s no other useful information. Furthermore, the man’s probably just a figurehead. We know nothing about the core members of Broken Waves.”

“What?! So you mean you couldn’t find any useful information at all?! Useless!”

Wei Qirui was incredibly angry after interacting with Zhai Yunsheng.

And thus, his assistant could only hang his head and be obediently reprimanded.

If they couldn’t think of a good solution, then their stocks would continue to fall tomorrow.

As Wei Qirui was becoming desperate, he went to ask Zhang Xuming for help. He mentioned that they previously planned to cooperate.

Perhaps, this was the only way to save his company.

However, Zhang Xuming told Wei Qirui that he was no longer responsible for the matters of Xuming Medical Manufacturers.

Therefore, it was useless to speak to him. If Wei Qirui wanted to talk to someone, he had to speak to Zhang Xuming's successor.

And thus, Wei Qirui could only beg Zhang Xuming to give him the contact information of his successor.

After a fair bit of convincing, Wei Qirui finally obtained the contact information from Zhang Xuming.

Even so, Zhang Xuming only gave him a way to contact his successor through a private software application.

And thus, Wei Qirui registered for an account and went to contact someone called: "Second Master."

[I've been looking forward to meeting you for a long time. It's an honor to finally speak to you. My name is Wei Qirui. I'm from the Wei Group.]

After a while, Wei Qirui sent another message.

[Has Mr. Zhang mentioned our latest project to you?]

After waiting for a long time, Wei Qirui still did not receive a response from the other person.

And thus, he sent another message through.

[Are you free anytime soon? Could we meet up to talk about this?]

However, the other person still did not respond.

If it weren't for the situation right now, Wei Qirui would definitely not do this.

After waiting for a long time, Wei Qirui finally received a response from "Second Master."

[12 pm tomorrow. The twelfth floor of Xuming Medical. CEO's office.]

When he saw this message, Wei Qirui let out a sigh of relief.

This was the first step. As long as he could meet up with the other person, everything else would be much simpler to accomplish.

Chapter 762: Friend or Foe?

"Master Sheng, we've looked into the company named Broken Waves. However, we could only find very little information on the company. As of now, we still can't figure out why they went after the Wei Group. It could still potentially be a coincidence."

Han Mengyu was still baffled after he asked his men to track down and investigate Broken Waves.

"Hmm, perhaps they just somehow managed to get information that could be used against the Wei Group?" Xing Wei guessed.

After all, Wei Qirui had been quite reckless in the past two years.

Of course, Zhai Yunsheng intentionally indulged his actions. This inflated his ego and made him think that he could make a stand against the Zhai family.

On the other hand, Wei Qirui was also really unclean with his operations. He left behind a lot of evidence that he assumed would not be discovered by others.

Therefore, it was possible for someone to catch onto this. That person could make a large profit off this matter.

And thus, Han Mengyu asked Zhai Yunsheng: "Master Sheng, if Broken Waves eventually gets into a dispute with the Wei Group, should we just sit back and watch what happens?"

Currently, Zhai Yunsheng was seated in a chair. There was a whiskey glass filled with milk in front of him.

One of his fingers tapped away on the armrest of his chair.

His eyes looked out the window and to the city landscape.

Although he seemed absent-minded, somehow, his features still had the sharpness of a hawk.

"Let's just see for now," Zhai Yunsheng replied.

It didn't matter what the company's intentions were. For the time being, what Broken Waves did was incredibly beneficial to Zhai Yunsheng and them.

Han Mengyu: "I'm really curious about the person behind this company. He or she should be a fairly capable person. They managed to obtain so much insider information. Their power and influence must not be underestimated."

Xing Wei: "Ahh, I hope they're a friend and not a foe. If they're a foe, it would be difficult to deal with them."

Zhai Yunsheng slightly closed his eyes. He did not say anything. However, he was equally as curious about Broken Waves. After all, this company was about to bring down the Wei Group.

"Oh right, when this matter is resolved, are you planning to take Yiling out for a honeymoon?" Han Mengyu asked.

Zhai Yunsheng opened his eyes.

Why were they all mentioning this to him?

"Nowadays, do people go on honeymoons when they're engaged?"

"No no. You just told me that Yiling usually works very hard. Therefore, this would be a good excuse to take her out to relax for a bit."

"Where do girls usually like to go?" Zhai Yunsheng asked.

"Umm, perhaps to the sea? Maybe to see flowers?" Xing Wei casually guessed.

Han Mengyu: "Master Sheng, you're probably asking the wrong person. After all, we just usually play around with girls. However, Yiling is different to you."

Han Mengyu was known for being flirtatious in the Beijing circles. He changed girlfriends like changing clothes.

However, this was because he knew that those girls did not love him. Each of them just took what they needed in the relationship. Therefore, he just merely spent money on them.

“Oh right, we’ve prepared a gift for you.”

Han Mengyu prepared a gift for Zhai Yunsheng when he came over today.

“What is it?”

“A new type of liquid condom.”

Han Mengyu began to introduce this product to Master Sheng.

As he introduced the product, he felt a cold chill run up his spine. Then, he raised his head to look at Zhai Yunsheng.

All of a sudden, he realized that something was definitely off.

“Ah... Um... Master Sheng, I just remembered that I still have something to do... I will get going now...”

Han Mengyu placed his gift on the table and hurriedly left the room.

Xing Wei followed him out as well.

After the two of them exited the room, they both let out a sigh of relief.

“Why was Master Sheng unhappy just now?” Xing Wei asked Han Mengyu.

“Hmmm, it’s probably because I broke the heart of a pure and innocent virgin,” Han Mengyu guessed.

In most aspects, the two of them were no match for Zhai Yunsheng. However, they absolutely had more experience when it came to this one aspect.

Chapter 763: Sorry For Being Ignorant (1)

The next day, the Wei Group’s company’s stocks continued to fall in price. After ten minutes of trading, the stocks reached their lower limit of the day. Then, a trading halt was once again implemented for those stocks.

After Wei Qirui threw a tantrum at his company, he headed towards Xuming Medical Manufacturers. He was waiting on the twelfth floor well before 12 pm.

When Zhang Xuming saw Wei Qirui arriving so early, he understood the man’s intentions. However, he didn’t say anything. In addition, he reminded Wei Qirui: “Mr. Wei, my successor has quite a strange personality. Please try to get along with them. Furthermore, try not to be upset if they offend you in any way.”

As Wei Qirui was requesting help from the successor of Xuming Medical Manufacturers, he naturally had to agree: “Don’t worry Elder Zhang. I promise to be respectful and polite to him. Furthermore, I’m willing to take the lesser portion of the profit. I just want this project to go through. I’m not really focused on how much money I can earn.”

Wei Qirui put all his cards on the table.

Previously, he hoped to rely on this project for profit. Therefore, back then, he was unwilling to take the lesser portion of the profit.

However, the situation right now was completely different. He just wanted this project to succeed.

Xuming Medical Manufacturers was a well-established organization with a good reputation. If the Wei Group successfully negotiated this deal, this would definitely be a boost of confidence for their shareholders.

As long as the deal was settled, he could announce it to the public. This meant that there would be a high probability for them to recover a lot of their losses.

However, Zhang Xuming knew exactly why Wei Qirui was willing to make compromises.

After all, right now the Wei Group was the fish meat on the chopping block. If he did not change his attitude, the entirety of the Wei Group would collapse.

However, this deal would depend on the wishes of the successor of Xuming Medical Manufacturers.

If the successor said no, there was nothing that he could do about it either.

And thus, Wei Qirui anxiously waited in Zhang Xuming's office.

It was almost twelve o'clock. Why hasn't "Second Master" appeared yet?

Wei Qirui could not sit still.

Every few minutes, he got up to walk back and forth. After walking for a bit, he went back to sit down.

Zhang Xuming joked: "Mr. Wei, are thorns growing on my office's sofa?"

"Sorry Elder Zhang, I just feel a bit anxious."

"Don't be anxious about it. You go through these things a few times in life. You will learn from these things and grow as a person."

When Wei Qirui heard this, he wondered whether this old man was cursing him. After all, who wanted their company to face this sort of disaster?

If it was any other time, he would have argued with Elder Zhang.

However, right now, he couldn't afford to offend Elder Zhang.

Just when Wei Qirui was about to get up again, the door of the office opened.

Wei Qirui looked in the direction of the door with anticipation.

A man in a suit with a handsome appearance walked in.

This person was... Qin Chuan?

He was the illegitimate son of Qin Hongzhi!

At that moment, Wei Qirui froze.

Was Qin Chuan the successor of Xuming Medical Manufacturers then?

“Young Master Qin Chuan, it’s nice to see you,” Zhang Xuming greeted.

Qin Chuan made an appointment with Zhang Xuming in the morning. They were going to discuss some things today.

Previously, they planned to meet at a cafe. However, as Elder Zhang was quite old, Qin Chuan thought that it’d be better for him to come to Elder Zhang’s office.

Zhang Xuming told the receptionist that if Qin Chuan came, there was no need to inform him. He just asked someone to bring Qin Chuan to his office.

Today, Qin Chuan also had business matters to discuss with Xuming Medical Manufacturers.

Xuming Medical Manufacturers planned to collaborate with Qin Chuan’s technology company to make a medical-related app.

The person who coordinated this collaboration was Jian Yiling.

This was because Jian Yiling held a large number of shares in Qin Chuan’s technology company. She was a key stakeholder.

Chapter 764: Sorry For Being Ignorant (2)

The two million dollars that she had invested in Qin Chuan’s company a few years ago had turned into a huge sum of money.

Furthermore, she held quite a lot of shares in Xuming Medical Manufacturers as well.

She didn’t want the fertile waters to flow into someone else’s fields. Therefore, she coordinated the collaboration between Elder Zhang and Qin Chuan.

Elder Zhang knew that Jian Yiling was a key stakeholder of his company. In contrast, Qin Chuan still did not know that the angel investor back then was Jian Yiling.

“Elder Zhang,” Qin Chuan greeted respectfully.

The collaboration this time was led by an important stakeholder in his company.

At the same time, it was also something that he himself was very optimistic about.

Furthermore, he trusted the investment vision of this stakeholder a lot.

Their views were surprisingly consistent.

However, at this moment, Wei Qirui assumed that Qin Chuan was the person that he was meeting today. He assumed that he was Zhang Xuming’s designated successor.

At the same time, this meant that he was the mysterious “Second Master.”

Wei Qirui stepped forward and greeted Qin Chuan with great eagerness.

“Hello, Mr. Qin Chuan. I’ve heard about your talent and ability from everyone in Beijing.”

Then, Wei Qirui extended his hand to shake hands with Qin Chuan.

Qin Chuan politely shook hands with Wei Qirui as he greeted: "Mr. Wei."

"Mr. Qin Chuan, I'm deeply honored to meet you today."

"You're too kind," Qin Chuan replied. Although his words and replies were formulaic, he was still incredibly polite.

Unlike Zhai Yunsheng, Qin Chuan was a very sociable person.

As long as someone didn't step past the line that he set in his heart, Qin Chuan would never intentionally attempt to embarrass someone else in the corporate world.

"Mr. Qin Chuan, you're a role model for our generation. You come from a good family yet you're also willing to create your own business. You're much better than those individuals who merely maintain the businesses left by their ancestors," Wei Qirui praised.

In addition to being a part of the Qin family, Qin Chuan also founded a company by himself. Therefore, Wei Qirui's words were technically correct.

Qin Chuan was somewhat vigilant in the face of Wei Qirui's praise.

After all, he was aware of what happened to the Wei Group in the past two days. Therefore, it was highly likely that Wei Qirui wanted to ask him for something.

However, Qin Chuan did not comment on this. Instead, he politely and detachedly replied to Wei Qirui.

However, it was as though Wei Qirui could not sense this. He continued to enthusiastically speak to Qin Chuan.

Zhang Xuming couldn't even interrupt this one-way conversation.

"Mr. Qin Chuan, I hope we get to collaborate together. That would definitely be amazing. Although the Wei Group has encountered some troubles recently, their foundation is still there."

Qin Chuan smiled before he nodded: "Mhmm, perhaps in the future."

"I feel like this occasion would be perfect. Mr. Qin Chuan, please consider it properly."

"Really? But I would have to consider many aspects of the project."

"Yes, you're right. What would you like to consider and examine? I will be very cooperative."

The smile on Qin Chuan's face became somewhat awkward.

At this moment, there was a soft knock on the door.

After two light knocks, the door of the office slowly opened.

Jian Yiling walked in from outside.

Jian Yiling wore the same clothes as usual. She wore a white sweater with black pants. Her attire was loose and simple.

Her long hair was tied into a ponytail.

As soon as he saw Jian Yiling, Wei Qirui's expression darkened.

Why was she here?

Was she an evil spirit that haunted him?

Due to the events yesterday, Wei Qirui got upset as soon as he looked at Jian Yiling. He associated Jian Yiling with Zhai Yunsheng.

However, as Zhai Yunsheng was present, he couldn't express his displeasure.

"Oh? You came?" Zhang Xuming said with a happy expression on his face. "Did you come by yourself? You should have me in advance. I would have sent someone over to pick you up."

"The chauffeur drove me here."

She was brought over by the Zhai family's car and chauffeur. In addition, the Zhai family's bodyguards accompanied her as well.

Chapter 765: Sorry For Being Ignorant (3)

Nowadays, Jian Yiling was followed by the Zhai family whenever she went anywhere.

Qin Chuan was also unexpectedly surprised to see Jian Yiling: "You're here too?"

Qin Chuan's gaze was soft as he looked at Jian Yiling. The smile on his face was particularly gentle.

"Mhmm," Jian Yiling nodded her head slightly.

Upon seeing this, Wei Qirui asked: "Oh? How do you know Miss Yiling?"

"We're good friends. We've known each other for quite some time," Qin Chuan replied.

When he said this, his eyes were tinged with a bit of despondency.

He got to know Jian Yiling before she got to know Zhai Yunsheng.

However, he missed out on his opportunity.

"Oh?" Wei Qirui replied as he reexamined Jian Yiling. The smile on his face became thicker.

Jian Yiling was indeed a rather lovely girl. If he was seven or eight years younger, it was possible for him to be interested in this girl as well.

However, Wei Qirui didn't believe in platonic male-female friendships.

This was especially the case when he saw the way Qin Chuan looked at Jian Yiling.

Once upon a time, he was also young. He knew what this kind of gaze meant.

And thus, even though Qin Chuan stated that they were merely friends, there was a high probability that this wasn't true.

And thus, a scheme began to form in Wei Qirui's mind. However, as of now, his top priority was to resolve the matter of his company.

Therefore, Wei Qirui continued to enthusiastically talk to Qin Chuan.

On the other hand, Zhang Xuming asked Jian Yiling to sit down. He then personally went to get her a cup of hot milk.

"I want coffee," Jian Yiling said.

"No," Zhang Xuming replied. "You can't sleep well at night if you drink too much of that."

Jian Yiling: "..."

As her protest was in vain, she could only accept the cup of hot milk.

And thus, Jian Yiling sat down on the sofa. She held the cup of hot milk in her hands as she watched the discussion between Qin Chuan and Wei Qirui.

"Mr. Qin Chuan, so in regards to the project I sent earlier, what do you think about it? Do you need me to provide you any other information?"

Wei Qirui assumed that he had done enough padding already. Therefore, he couldn't help but directly ask Qin Chuan about the matter.

"What project?"

Qin Chuan came over to discuss a project with members of Xuming Medical Manufacturers. However, Wei Qirui was not a member of that company.

"Mr. Qin Chuan, are you unhappy with the project?" Wei Qirui asked.

"I don't know what you're talking about."

"Wait, didn't we agree to talk about this project today?"

"I made an appointment with Elder Zhang today. I didn't make an appointment with you. Did you perhaps misunderstand something?" Qin Chuan replied. He also came back to his senses. It seemed as though Wei Qirui had mistaken him for someone else.

Wei Qirui froze for a moment before he turned his head to look at Zhang Xuming.

Zhang Xuming, on the other hand, had a smile on his face: "Mr. Qin Chuan is my guest."

The expression on Wei Qirui's face made it seem like he swallowed a fly: "Is he not your chosen successor?"

Zhang Xuming shook his head.

Qin Chuan wasn't "Second Master"?

Then why did he ramble on and on with Qin Chuan for so long? He wasted so much time!

Who was "Second Master" anyway?

Wei Qirui glanced at the clock in the office. It was quarter past twelve.

“Then... Where is the Second Master? Where is he? Why isn't he here?”

Zhang Xuming continued to smile. He did not directly answer Wei Qirui's question.

“I said that I would not interfere with this matter. You're better off discussing this matter with them directly,” Zhang Xuming replied.

The “Second Master” was present right now. She was in front of Wei Qirui but he failed to recognize her.

Wei Qirui impatiently took out his phone and opened the private chat software. He sent a message to the “Second Master” and asked him whether he had arrived.

Chapter 766: Sorry For Being Ignorant (4)

Wei Qirui anxiously waited for a reply from the other party.

Qin Chuan glanced at the chat app from the corner of his eye.

The software was not widely used by individuals. Such an application was used internally by some specific companies.

Coincidentally, he and his investor usually used this software to communicate with each other.

Does everyone like to use this software to discuss business matters nowadays?

After waiting for a while, Wei Qirui still did not receive a response from the “Second Master.”

And thus, Wei Qirui began to become angry and anxious at the same time: “Elder Zhang... About this...”

Zhang Xuming merely smiled before he said: “Young man, do not be impatient.”

“Elder Zhang, I'm in a desperate situation right now! If there was a fire, it'd be literally burning my eyebrows right now! How can I not be anxious?” Wei Qirui exclaimed.

In fact, Wei Qirui wanted to curse at someone right now.

He wanted to curse at the “Second Master” for not keeping his word.

However, he did not dare to say anything in front of Zhang Xuming. After all, if he did so, he would have no chance to collaborate with Xuming Medical Manufacturers.

“Well, there's no use in being anxious. Why not sit down and have a cup of tea? Please calm down,” Zhang Xuming persuaded.

“Elder Zhang, do you think I'm in the mood to sit down and drink tea?”

After all, the Wei Group's matters did not really concern Zhang Xuming. However, if this incident happened to Xuming Medical Manufacturers, could Zhang Xuming still act so leisurely?

After Qin Chuan realized that Wei Qirui had mistaken him for someone else, he couldn't help but laugh.

Then, he sat down next to Jian Yiling. He also quietly watched Wei Qirui walk around anxiously like a cat on a hot tin roof.

After all, he was in no rush to discuss the business matter with Elder Zhang.

Furthermore, Jian Yiling was in the room right now as well. And thus, he did not mind spending a bit more time in Elder Zhang's office.

Wei Qirui complained to Elder Zhang for a long time.

However, Elder Zhang was rather good-tempered. He spoke to Wei Qirui for a while. As for Wei Qirui's complaints, they went in his left ear before they went out his right ear. He did not take Wei Qirui's words seriously.

And thus, Wei Qirui was basically the only one speaking in the office.

In the end, he could only leave the office in anger.

After Wei Qirui left, Zhang Xuming invited Jian Yiling and Qin Chuan to have a meal together.

Both of them said yes,

During the meal, Zhang Xuming and Qin Chuan discussed the collaboration between the two companies.

At the table, Zhang Xuming and Qin Chuan talked eloquently about their business matters whilst Jian Yiling silently ate her meal. She rarely intervened in their conversation. It was as though this matter had nothing to do with her in general.

Although she didn't intervene in their conversation, Jian Yiling was still listening carefully.

After all, the development of this medical app was something that Jian Yiling cared about.

After the discussion over their meal, Zhang Xuming and Qin Chuan's views were mostly agreed upon.

Qin Chuan offered to send Jian Yiling back home. However, Jian Yiling refused his offer.

Upon reaching the ground level of the company, Qin Chuan realized his offer was unnecessary. After all, the Zhai family's chauffeur and bodyguards were all there.

After Qin Chuan left, Zhang Xuming smiled before he asked Jian Yiling: "If you don't want to meet up with Wei Qirui, why did you make an appointment with him?"

"For amusement" Jian Yiling replied. The expression on her small face was incredibly serious.

Zhang Xuming paused for a moment. He never knew Jian Yiling would do something like this.

Then, he laughed before he said: "It seems as though you hate him quite a bit. Did he do something bad to annoy you?"

"He's not nice to A Sheng," Jian Yiling replied.

Upon hearing this, Zhang Xuming became a little jealous of Zhai Yunsheng. However, it was different from the romantic type of jealousy.

"Ahh, what did Master Sheng do to you to make you care about him so much? If you were half as dedicated to my company, I could die contentedly."

Chapter 767: Master Sheng Bullies Wei Qirui (1)

Zhang Xuming thought about his large company. It was so difficult for his company to get a tiny bit of attention from Jian Yiling.

Ahh, Jian Yiling was basically the king in ancient times. She had a “harem” of beauties; however, she only spoiled her “A Sheng.”

“A Sheng is different from your company,” Jian Yiling explained.

“Yes, yes. He’s completely different. After all, he’s handsome, treats you well, and coaxes you from time to time,” Zhang Xuming grumbled.

Ahhh, what did he do in his past life to deserve this? He was already one foot in the coffin but he was still being force-fed dog food [1]by this young couple.

###

Wei Qirui stormed out of the office building of Xuming Medical Manufacturers.

His negotiations with Xuming Medical Manufacturers had failed. What could he do next?

He couldn’t watch his company’s market value continuously decrease by the day.

As he was seated in his car, Wei Qirui suddenly thought of Qin Chuan.

He was indeed not the person he planned to meet today.

However, he was someone who could help the Wei Group.

He was the heir of the Qin family. In addition to that, he was the CEO of a listed Internet company. His strong background and social standing could allow him to compete against Zhai Yunsheng.

Furthermore, Wei Qirui thought about the gaze in which Qin Chuan looked at Jian Yiling.

Suddenly, a plan appeared in Wei Qirui’s mind. He could get the best out of both worlds.

It was a method that allowed him to gain Qin Chuan’s trust. In addition to this, it would also deal a blow to Zhai Yunsheng.

Wei Qirui quickly contacted his men. He asked his men to go to Xuming Medical Manufacturer’s office building.

At this moment, Jian Yiling left the office building.

When she got into the car, she started going through her emails.

At this moment, her alarm system once again reminded her that she was being followed.

[Danger index 3]

With a danger index of 3, this meant that the person following her was somewhat powerful.

At this moment, the bodyguards escorting Jian Yiling also sensed that something was off.

They were currently exchanging information with someone through the intercom.

Superintendent Ruan called Jian Yiling: "Do you need me to send someone from my side?"

"It shouldn't be necessary," Jian Yiling replied. She assumed that the Zhai family's bodyguards should be able to handle it.

After all, they weren't ordinary individuals.

Although all her bodyguards were female, their combat power was not inferior to that of the males in the slightest.

After all, they worked under the Second Master of the Zhai family. They were only sent to her side after they passed his examinations and assessments.

"Okay. If you need help, you can call me anytime," Superintendent Ruan said. He trusted the bodyguards that were escorting Jian Yiling.

After all, if the Zhai family's bodyguards were ranked second in Beijing, no bodyguards from any family dared to say that they were ranked first.

Of course, it would be a completely different story if they were talking about Jian Yiheng. That man was a nutcase!

"Miss Yiling, our car may need to accelerate. Please fasten your seatbelt," the female bodyguard seated next to Jian Yiling gently reminded.

Jian Yiling obediently fastened her seatbelt.

Then, the car began to accelerate before abruptly changing lanes.

As the car accelerated, this caused the followers to realize that they had been discovered.

"Miss Yiling, our reinforcements will be here soon. Please do not worry," the female bodyguard reassured Jian Yiling. Then, she continued to communicate with the others.

"Mhmm."

After that, Jian Yiling put her laptop away. She checked her emails using a tablet instead.

As the car was going rather fast, it was no longer convenient to use a laptop.

Zhai Yunsheng's call came right after.

"Don't be scared. Nothing will happen," Zhai Yunsheng comforted Jian Yiling.

"I'm fine," Jian Yiling replied calmly. She was not flustered at all.

"Your chauffeur is quite good at driving. You don't have to worry."

Chapter 768: Master Sheng Bullies Wei Qirui (2)

"I'm not worried."

The chauffeur was indeed incredibly good at driving. The car went into an alleyway.

As the alleyway was rather narrow, only one car could drive through at a time.

However, the car kept going at eighty an hour. If someone wasn't skilled at driving, they wouldn't dare to drive through here at this kind of speed.

However, as they drove through such an alleyway, the individuals that were following them got completely exposed.

It was basically sealing off the opponent's avenue of retreat.

"I will take care of those who are following you," Zhai Yunsheng assured Jian Yiling.

"There's no hurry," Jian Yiling replied.

Then, the car that Jian Yiling was seated in drew to a halt.

When Jian Yiling looked outside the window, numerous vehicles that belonged to the Zhai family were already parked outside. The bodyguards of the Zhai family had been waiting for quite some time.

At this moment, the vehicles that were following Jian Yiling realized that something was up.

However, they had no way to retreat.

In this narrow alleyway, their cars could not even turn around.

Several people hastily got out and abandoned their cars in order to escape.

However, within a few steps, they were stopped by many people.

And thus, they had nowhere to run. They could only meekly raise their hands to surrender.

It seemed as though the system rating had overestimated them. Was this really considered a danger index of 3?

On the other hand, Wei Qirui was still waiting for news from his subordinates.

This time, he sent three entire vehicles after Jian Yiling.

In contrast, Jian Yiling only had two female bodyguards accompanying her.

Therefore, this shouldn't be a problem for his subordinates to handle.

After he got his hands on Jian Yiling, he planned to use some club drugs on her. Then, he planned to send her to Qin Chuan's bed.

After all, she was a woman. At first, she might not listen to them; however, if Qin Chuan spent some time on her, nothing was impossible. He could easily tame her and make her obedient.

And thus, Wei Qirui waited in his car. Suddenly, someone knocked on his car window.

Wei Qirui rolled down the window and saw a tall man.

The moment Wei Qirui rolled down his window, the man reached in and opened the door of the car. Then, he dragged Wei Qirui out of the car.

Wei Qirui stumbled out of the car. Then, he saw Zhai Yunsheng standing behind the man.

He could not tell whether or not Zhai Yunsheng was smiling at him.

However, his eyes were contemptuous and filled with mockery.

“Zhai...” Wei Qirui started before he decided to say something else. “Master... Master Sheng, what do you want from me?”

“Honestly, nothing much. I just wanted to go boxing with you.”

“You must be joking. You should take care of your health. I don’t dare to box with you.”

“Well, you dare to do a lot of things. You dared to put your hands on someone I cared about. And thus, I’m just giving you the opportunity to do something.”

After saying that, Zhai Yunsheng ordered his men to drag Wei Qirui into their car.

The car drove all the way to a boxing gym.

Then, Wei Qirui was dragged out of the car and into the boxing gym. He got changed into boxing equipment and then pushed into the ring.

Zhai Yunsheng stood opposite Wei Qirui. Although there was a smile on his face, his eyes were incredibly chilly.

“Master Sheng, I can’t take a swing at you. Aren’t you making things difficult for me?”

“Stop pretending. Honestly, with your acting skills, the Oscar owes you a golden statuette.”

“I don’t know what you’re talking about. Furthermore, I don’t have time for boxing right now. My company is facing a lot of things. You should know about it.”

“Well, you dared to touch the person that’s in my heart. Therefore, you should expect the same.”

Zhai Yunsheng was skilled and agile when it came to boxing. He came forward and punched Wei Qirui in the face.

Wei Qirui got hit and fell to the ground.

The pain caused him to instinctively put both his hands on his head.

How could Zhai Yunsheng’s fists be so powerful?

Wasn’t he meant to be sickly?

Chapter 769: Master Sheng Bullies Wei Qirui (3)

Wei Qirui lied on the ground for a while before he finally got up.

Just as he staggered to his feet, another punch came.

This time, the punch hit him in the stomach.

Wei Qirui let out a silent scream.

However, before he could recover, another punch hit the other side of his face.

As a result, he fell to the ground once again.

Pain.

He felt pain in his head, face, and stomach.

“Master Sheng... No... No more...” Wei Qirui vocalized with great difficulty. He begged Zhai Yunsheng to stop.

“Oh? That was only a few punches? Is it too much for you to handle already? However, just now, you planned to stab knives into my heart.”

“Master... Master Sheng, what are you even saying? There must be some kind of misunderstanding,” Wei Qirui desperately attempted to explain.

Zhai Yunsheng stepped onto Wei Qirui’s stomach before he said: “I will give you a chance to reconstruct your words.”

Wei Qirui was mentioning a misunderstanding at this time? Was he insulting Zhai Yunsheng’s intelligence?

Han Mengyu reminded from outside the ring: “Master Sheng, don’t go too hard on him. Mr. Wei’s bones may not be able to handle it.”

The force of Zhai Yunsheng’s stomp could easily break a person’s ribs.

“Don’t worry. I’m saving up my strength.”

Zhai Yunsheng didn’t plan to kill Wei Qirui.

Wei Qirui’s face distorted with pain. That wasn’t all his strength? Then what was going to happen when he actually used all of his strength?!

“Master Sheng, don’t hit me anymore... I... I... I can’t handle it,” Wei Qirui begged for mercy.

“Oh? Now you know that you can’t handle something? But I see you doing a lot of things you shouldn’t be,” Zhai Yunsheng laughed before he placed his foot on Wei Qirui’s face.

At that moment, Wei Qirui felt pain and humiliation: “Zhai Yunsheng... You shouldn’t be doing this. This is too much.”

“Wei Qirui, I didn’t plan to deal with you right now. However, you moved your hands to Yiling. Therefore, you forced me to deal with you.”

Did Wei Qirui not think this through before he decided to move his hands onto Jian Yiling?

Previously, he did many things behind the scenes in the corporate world. He always wanted to make a stand against the Zhai family. However, Zhai Yunsheng merely planned things out. He never actually took action against Wei Qirui.

Zhai Yunsheng was indeed a ruthless man. However, he still had his principles. If someone pushed him by an inch, he would return the favor by a foot.

At this moment, Jian Yiling was brought over to the boxing gym.

“Hello, future sister-in-law!” Han Mengyu greeted Jian Yiling with a smile.

Upon hearing Han Mengyu’s voice, Zhai Yunsheng stopped.

Then, he took off his boxing gloves and leaped down from the ring.

He walked over to Jian Yiling and asked: “Do you need a hug?”

Often, people wanted a hug when they were distressed and frightened.

“Sweaty,” Jian Yiling replied in a quiet voice.

“Ahh, are you treating me with disdain?”

“No.”

“Well, do you want to hug me after I shower?”

Upon hearing this, Jian Yiling hung her head very low. She did not dare to answer Zhai Yunsheng’s question.

After all, there was someone right next to her. It was incredibly embarrassing to say anything.

At this moment, Han Mengyu pretended that he wasn’t there. He didn’t see anything. Nor did he hear anything.

When Zhai Yunsheng saw Jian Yiling’s blushed cheeks, he reached out to caress her face.

“Ahem,” Han Mengyu coughed lightly.

He didn’t want to disturb the display of affection between Master Sheng and Jian Yiling. However, there was still someone lying in the boxing ring.

They could continue all of this after that person was dealt with.

Jian Yiling looked over to Wei Qirui. Wei Qirui was still lying on the ground.

Han Mengyu asked Jian Yiling: “Sister-in-law, do you want to try boxing?”

After hanging out a few times, Han Mengyu quickly figured out that Jian Yiling learned things incredibly quickly. And thus, he wanted to let Jian Yiling try boxing.

Chapter 770: Sister-in-Law is Ruthless

And thus, he was looking forward to seeing her box.

However, Jian Yiling shook her head.

She refused to do anything that could injure her hands.

“Wait for me over there. After I deal with this, I will go and shower. I’ll be sweet-smelling and fragrant after the shower.”

“Okay,” Jian Yiling replied. Her head hung even lower.

Why did he keep mentioning that? It was embarrassing...

Then, Zhai Yunsheng got into the ring again.

Upon seeing Zhai Yunsheng putting on his boxing gloves, Wei Qirui staggered as he got up. Then, he glared at Zhai Yunsheng and said: “Zhai Yunsheng, you’re really something! If you don’t kill me today, I will definitely get my revenge!”

Wei Qirui no longer pretended to be obedient. He knew that Zhai Yunsheng did not dare to kill him. After all, you had to pay with your own life if you killed someone.

And thus, as long as he survived, he would have a chance to return the humiliation that he suffered today.

Zhai Yunsheng’s expression became amused as he said: “I don’t want filth on my hands.”

Then, Jian Yiling said to Wei Qirui: “Watch your behavior. If not, you will be beaten to death.”

However, Wei Qirui was not at all intimidated by Jian Yiling’s words: “Beaten to death? Do it then! Do it now! You better stay under Zhai Yunsheng’s protection! If not, you will definitely suffer in the future!”

After that, Wei Qirui turned his face to yell at Zhai Yunsheng: “You better keep an eye on your fiancée. Perhaps someday in the future, you will no longer see her. Instead, you’d see a cold corpse!”

Just as Wei Qirui finished speaking, he immediately received a punch from Zhai Yunsheng. The force of the punch swung him to the side of the ring. Wei Qirui held onto the fencing and gasped for air.

He could continue to talk tough. However, his words were still no match for Zhai Yunsheng’s fists.

“Stop fighting,” Jian Yiling called out. “Treat his wounds.”

When Han Mengyu heard these words, he thought that his sister-in-law was rather soft-hearted.

However, this was no surprise. After all, she was still a young girl. She never faced such things before.

“I have medicine in my bag. Use the medicine in the red bottle,” Jian Yiling said to the female bodyguard that was following her.

The female bodyguard went over and took the red bottle of medicine from Jian Yiling’s bag.

There was no label on the bottle. Furthermore, there was no date of manufacture and any sales information.

It was merely a red plastic bottle. However, there was a piece of paper attached to the bottle. On the piece of paper, a data and chemical symbol were written onto it.

Zhai Yunsheng listened to Jian Yiling’s words. As she told him to stop fighting, he immediately stopped.

Then, the bodyguard went to apply medicine to Wei Qirui's wounds.

"Ahhh— Ahhh— Ahhh—"

Suddenly, a heart-rending scream could be heard.

As soon as the medicine was applied to Wei Qirui's wounds, he let out a screech.

Han Mengyu was stunned. This medicine seemed more painful than the beating just now.

"Sister-in-law, he's not going to die right?"

"Nope, that medicine is used for treating wounds. It will help his wounds heal," Jian Yiling explained.

"Really?" Han Mengyu questioned. For some reason, he felt that the medicine was more vicious than poison...

It was probably similar to sprinkling salt on wounds right?

Zhai Yunsheng did not expect this as well. He quietly asked Jian Yiling: "Why did you make this medicine?"

Zhai Yunsheng knew that it was highly likely that Jian Yiling made this bottle of medicine.

Furthermore, it was probably medicine used to treat wounds.

However, the effect of the medicine seemed rather... Extreme... It seemed even more painful than sprinkling salt or pouring alcohol on the wounds.

"It's useful for dealing with bad guys," Jian Yiling replied.

"Was it specially prepared for this kind of situation?"

"Yeah."
