Chapter 871: Vouched for by Big Shots (1)

The twenty-third conference of the International Federation of Medicine was held in Beijing's General Assembly Hall.

Those who could attend this conference were all experts and specialists who made outstanding contributions to various aspects of the medical industry.

Any one of them who attended had a lot of influence.

And thus, many journalists and reporters gathered in front of Beijing's General Assembly Hall.

The media was incredibly interested in the list of participants.

And thus, the entrance of the General Assembly Hall was filled with people.

Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo were shopping in the adjacent shopping mall.

They assumed that Jian Yiling would also be here today. And thus, they came to take a look.

As expected, they saw Jian Yiling at the entrance of the General Assembly Hall.

As she was merely standing at the entrance, Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo guessed that she couldn't enter the venue.

She probably wanted to get in touch with some big shots in the industry and through that, she wanted them to help her.

After all, her reputation had plummeted after she got fired. If she wanted a chance to start all over again, getting help from big shots in the industry was a very good choice.

Upon seeing Jian Yiling, Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo headed over.

Wen Ruo smiled lightly before she said: "Oh, isn't this Yiling? Are you here to attend the conference of the International Federation of Medicine?"

Cai Qinyue quickly added: "Wen Ruo, you're mistaken. This conference is only for individuals in the medical community who are renowned for their achievements. It's not about popularity and attention."

Recently, attention towards Jian Yiling had reached a high. However, this was not a good source of attention. Instead, everyone was looking down on her.

Jian Yiling looked at Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo with a calm expression on her face. She did not want to speak with these two people.

And thus, she attempted to walk around them.

In the eyes of Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo, it seemed like Jian Yiling was escaping because she had nothing to say.

However, Cai Qinyue did not want to miss this good opportunity to humiliate Jian Yiling.

After all, Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo begged them so much in Jian Yuncheng's office. However, they did not show them any mercy. Rather, they acted so heartlessly.

Hence, they could not be blamed for mocking Jian Yiling in return.

Cai Qinyue once again blocked Jian Yiling's way. She said: "Oh? You want to leave? Do you not remember how unreasonable you were? You just have the Zhai family to support you. What else do you have? How dare you make my daughter skip five thousand times?"

Wen Ruo: "And now, you're in the same situation as me. Do you feel my pain? This is all retribution."

Jian Yiling calmly replied: "That's not how the word retribution is used."

It seemed like she was not angry or sad.

Wen Ruo laughed before she said: "Then how is this word used? Do you really think that I need you to teach me what that word means?"

Cai Qinyue: "You know, some people have no words to say. And thus, she can only say something like that. She just wants to make it seem like she's not in such a sorry situation."

Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo continued to make Jian Yiling.

At this moment, Yun Song walked over.

There were a few other people following him. Those people were all wearing white lab coats.

Although Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo did not recognize them, all the journalists and reporters did.

The journalists and reports who squatted at the entrance of the General Assembly Hall immediately jumped up and rushed towards Yun Song.

These were all renowned figures in the medical industry. Each one of them had outstanding achievements.

Why were they all gathered today?

In the past, only two to three of them would attend the conference hosted by the International Federation of Medicine.

However, there was an entire nest of them today!

What was this situation? Was it New Year's Eve for the medical community?

Although he was faced with journalists and reports, Yun Song calmly took a piece of paper from his pocket.

It seemed like the paper did not have much weight.

"These are our statements to vouch for you."

Chapter 872: Vouched for by Big Shots (2)

The bottom part of the paper was filled with signatures. Besides those signatures, there were also fingerprints.

In addition to Yun Song's own signature and fingerprint, the other big shots in the industry had also signed this piece of paper.

Oh my goodness!

Somehow, Jian Yiling gathered the signatures of all these big shots in the industry!

The journalists and reporters immediately directed their attention to this statement.

Everyone was curious about the contents of this statement.

What caused all these big shots in the medical industry to gather here today?

Everyone knew that these big shots were not moved by money!

Therefore, even if the Jian family was rich, it was impossible to entice them with money!

After their attention was directed to the statement, the journalists and reporters all froze.

The statement was vouching for Jian Yiling's professional conduct and character!

Recently, Jian Yiling's matters became a big deal in the medical circles. However, no one would have ever imagined this to happen. After all, previously, no one had the power to move all these big shots at once.

Even though the words of the Huiling Medical Research Institution carried weight, the words and vouches from these big shots also carried weight!

Jian Yiling!

Immediately, the journalists and reporters directed their attention to Jian Yiling.

The cameras quickly took pictures of her.

Previously, the journalists and reporters had noticed the presence of Jian Yiling. However, as their leaders and directors explained to them that the incident of Jian Yiling being fired could not be reported, they decided to ignore her.

However, the situation was completely different now. After all, all these big shots decided to vouch for her. This was definitely news that they were allowed to report.

Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo were still unaware of the situation.

From where they were standing, they couldn't read the paper in Elder Yun's hands.

And thus, they could only rely on the media's reaction to guess what happened.

"What's going on?" Cai Qinyue asked Wen Ruo in a whisper.

"Did they finally notice Jian Yiling?" Wen Ruo guessed.

After all, recently, Jian Yiling was a topic of conversation.

Cai Qinyue frowned before she said: "Hm... I don't think so. It seems as though their reaction is related to the piece of paper in Elder Yun's hands. Is Elder Yun planning to help Jian Yiling?"

After all, Cai Qinyue knew about the relationship between Jian Yiling and Elder Yun. Therefore, she couldn't help but worry about this.

Wen Ruo: "I think that's unlikely. Even if Elder Yun tries to stand up for Jian Yiling, the effect should not be that great."

The journalists and reporters that were not focused on Jian Yiling were trying to get close-up shots of the vouch statement.

Yun Song held up the vouch statement and let the media get enough pictures and footage of it.

One of the journalists finally reacted. He hurriedly asked Yun Song: "Elder Yun, may I ask why you guys signed this statement?"

"Why? Well, it's because we believe in Jian Yiling's professional conduct and character. We're very disgusted by the behavior of a certain organization that used a public research institution to exact revenge for private matters!"

Yun Song's words were very harsh.

It was already clear that he was accusing the Huiling Medical Research Institution of acting unethically. He declared that the decision of firing Jian Yiling was mixed with personal matters.

Then, the other big shots standing behind Elder Yun also expressed their views:

"As we signed this statement, this means that we're willing to believe in Dr. F.S. We trust her!"

"There is nothing wrong with Dr.F.S's professional conduct and character!"

"That's correct. We're here today because we want to clear Dr. F.S's name. We hope that the organization that slandered her provides evidence for her so-called misconduct."

Upon hearing these words, Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo finally realized the contents of the paper. It was a vouch statement.

A vouch statement to clear Jian Yiling's name!

And so many renowned individuals had signed it!

After all, Yun Song by himself wouldn't have much say in this.. However, if these individuals stood together, the effect would be completely different.

Chapter 873: Vouched for by Big Shots (3)

Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo could accept Yun Song speaking up for Jian Yiling. After all, he previously appeared at Jian Yiling's birthday party. Therefore, if he defended her, they wouldn't necessarily be surprised.

But why were the other big shots defending her as well?

How did she manage to do this? What capabilities did she have?

If the Huiling Medical Research Institution had evidence of misconduct in their hands, these old professors would be criticized as well!

The smiles on Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo's faces disappeared at once.

Was Jian Yiling going to make a comeback?

Because of these old professors?!

The journalist continued to ask questions: "Elder Yun, are you saying that the accusations made by the Huiling Medical Research Institution against Jian Yiling are not based on factual evidence?"

Yun Song did not avoid the question. Instead, he replied: "Of course not! If they have the evidence, then show me the evidence! Throw that evidence in my face! Naturally, if that's the case, we will all lower our heads and admit our mistake!"

Elder Yun's words were powerful and resonating.

He was so loud with his words that even the deaf would be able to hear.

The cameras clicked and footage was taken.

The journalists and reports made sure that every single word and expression was captured.

This news story had to be written!

These big shots were not only attempting to clear Jian Yiling's name but they were also publicly criticizing the Huiling Medical Research Institution!

This was drama!

If their news story came out, the entire medical circle would be in an uproar again!

After displaying the vouch statement to the journalists and reporters, Yun Song walked towards Jian Yiling.

"Let's go. It's about to start."

Jian Yiling nodded her head and began to walk with Yun Song towards the General Assembly Hall.

Once again, this shocked Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo. Even the journalists and reporters were surprised.

Jian Yiling was going to enter the General Assembly Hall?

But today, only designated individuals were allowed to enter!

And thus, even the journalists and reporters could merely wait outside.

What identity did Jian Yiling have? Why was she allowed to attend the conference?

After all, the conference only sent out invitations to various authoritative medical institutions.

Furthermore, the number of spots given to each medical institution was set. The institution had to decide who was going to attend in advance.

Before she was fired from the Huiling Medical Research Institution, it was possible for her to attend as a representative of that research institution.

But now, she had been fired. And thus, how would she be eligible to attend the conference?

Cai Qinyue asked: "Jian Yiling, are you planning to participate in the conference?"

However, Jian Yiling ignored Cai Qinyue

Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo resentfully watched Jian Yiling leave with the big shots in the medical industry. However, there was nothing that they could do.

The media was equally as curious.

And thus, the journalists and reporters followed Jian Yiling and asked her: "Miss Yiling, what identity do you plan to use to enter the conference?"

A microphone was placed in front of Jian Yiling. In addition, all the cameras were focused on her.

After all, the media was incredibly interested in this.

If she didn't have a reasonable and valid identity, then she wouldn't be able to enter the conference. This would be very embarrassing.

When Elder Yun noticed the situation, he decided to help Jian Yiling: "Of course she has a reasonable identity. Invitations were only given out to renowned and authoritative medical institutions. In addition, these invitations have a strict quota. You can rest assured that no one would be freeloading at this conference."

Yun Song was used to dealing with journalists and reporters. He understood what they were trying to ask.

Celebrities could take advantage of the red carpet if they had enough connections. However, this was not applicable in this situation.

After all, this was an important international conference.. Everyone who entered had the right to be there.

Chapter 874: The Identity Jian Yiling Used to Attend the Conference

Upon hearing that there was no possibility that Jian Yiling was freeloading at the conference, the media still wanted to dig further into the identity she was using to attend the conference.

After all, they were all incredibly curious.

And thus, a reporter asked: "Then may I ask if Miss Yiling is part of another research institution now?"

After all, she had just been fired from the Huiling Medical Research Institution. What other identity could she even use?

Any research institution attending today was not simple.

And previously, everyone assumed that research institutions would avoid Jian Yiling like the plague. This meant that it was highly unlikely for her to join another institution.

Not long had passed since then. Therefore, how did she manage to become a representative at another renowned research institution?

Yun Song continued to help Jian Yiling answer the questions: "In regard to this question..."

Just as he was about to answer, the representatives sent by the Huiling Medical Research Institution arrived at the entrance.

The representatives this year were Professor Xu and Cheng Yi.

Jian Yiling was meeting her previous colleagues.

This was the drama that the media was interested in.

And thus, the media hurriedly focused their cameras on them. They were keen to see some disputes.

Professor Xu's heart was heavy when he saw Jian Yiling.

He did not want to see such a thing happen.

After all, he still hoped that Jian Yiling would be their colleague.

Cheng Yi walked up and greeted Jian Yiling: "Yiling."

Cheng Yi walked in a very deliberate manner to block off several cameras.

He knew that Jian Yiling did not like to be photographed by journalists and news reporters.

"Mhmm," Jian Yiling nodded her greeting.

The anticipated disputes did not happen. In fact, the relationship between Jian Yiling and her ex-colleagues at the Huiling Medical Research Institution appeared very harmonious.

Then, Cheng Yi took a look at their surroundings before he said: "Let's go in."

"Okay."

And thus, Cheng Yi called out to the conference security guards.

The security guards came forward to clear the way for them: "Please step aside. Please do not interfere with the normal proceedings of our conference."

The media had no choice but to let go of Jian Yiling for now. They watched her as she entered the General Assembly Hall.

Inside the General Assembly Hall, the seats of each organization were arranged in advance.

Signs with the name of various medical institutions were placed in front of each seat.

Professor Xu and Cheng Yi were also unaware of what identity Jian Yiling was using to attend the conference today.

However, they were not surprised that Jian Yiling managed to get into another institution after leaving theirs.

After all, Jian Yiling was an amazing researcher. It was definitely their institution's loss. Why did their Head do this?

Professor Xu and Cheng Yi sat down in their seats. Their seats had the sign of [Huiling Medical Research Institution] before them.

After sitting down, Professor Xu and Cheng Yi's attention fell on Jian Yiling.

They waited for Jian Yiling to take her seat.

Where she sat down would tell everyone which institution she now belonged to.

To their surprise, Jian Yiling sat down in a seat closest to the Chairman.

And that spot...

The expression on Professor Xu's face changed.

Not only did Professor Xu's expression change, but the faces of many uninformed individuals changed as well.

That spot was very special!

This year, a new institution joined their conference!

This institution had been assigned two spots to the right of the Chairman!

This institution was Lahaisen Hospital!!!

Those spots were reserved for the representatives from Lahaisen Hospital!!!

At this moment, a person that everyone was familiar with appeared at the conference.

It was Li Zhuojia. He was the only external liaison person of Lahaisen Hospital that everyone knew.

To their surprise, Li Zhuojia walked over to Jian Yiling and sat down in the seat next to her.

Chapter 875: She's Lahaisen Hospital's Representative!

He just so happened to have some documents that he planned to discuss with Jian Yiling. And thus, Li Zhuojia brought them along today.

Jian Yiling took the documents from Li Zhuojia's hands before she began to have a quiet discussion with him.

It appeared as though the two people were very familiar with each other.

In fact, it even seemed as though Li Zhuojia's attitude towards Jian Yiling was quite respectful.

As the contents of the conversation could not be heard, everyone watched as Li Zhuojia nodded his head in agreement after Jian Yiling said something.

The seemingly normal conversation between these two individuals was shocking to everyone else.

Was Jian Yiling really a member of Lahaisen Hospital?

This was way too unexpected!

Jian Yiling, who was fired from the Huiling Medical Research Institution for professional misconduct, turned around and became a member of Lahaisen Hospital?

Lahaisen Hospital became world-renowned in the past two years. This institution was recognized to have the most advanced medical technology in the world.

And thus, Lahaisen Hospital was considered to be at a much higher level than that of the Huiling Medical Research Institution.

Originally, everyone assumed that Jian Yiling's future prospects were dashed. Instead, somehow, she turned the tides around and ended up at an even better institution.

Who said that Jian Yiling was incapable?

Who said that her future was going to be in shambles?

Professor Xu was so surprised that he couldn't speak for quite some time. After a long while, he finally came back to his sense. He asked Cheng Yi who was beside him:

"Cheng Yi, am I hallucinating? Does that spot belong to Lahaisen Hospital?"

Cheng Yi gave an affirmative answer: "Yep, that spot belongs to Lahaisen Hospital. Yiling is representing Lahaisen Hospital for this conference."

Professor Xu: "Then... Yiling and Lahaisen Hospital... I..."

Cheng Yi also took some time to digest this information: "I mean, she's incredibly talented in the first place. Therefore, it's totally reasonable for Lahaisen Hospital to hire her. I guess, our institution just doesn't deserve this kind of talent."

Cheng Yi did not have the ability to simply leave his job like Luo Xiuen.

However, in his heart, he was on Jian Yiling's side.

Upon hearing this, Professor Xu let out a long sigh: "Ahhh, you're right."

After all, Professor Xu knew how talented and capable Jian Yiling was.

However, he couldn't do anything about it! He wasn't the Head of their research institution!

The regret in Professor Xu's heart grew deeper as he watched Jian Yiling being seated as a representative from Lahaisen Hospital.

Everyone else in the conference couldn't help but whisper as well:

"Oh my goodness. Jian Yiling actually turned around and became a member of Lahaisen Hospital. Apparently, the recruitment at Lahaisen Hospital is very difficult! In their last recruitment, they recruited no one! No one met their requirements!"

"What's going on with the Huiling Medical Research Institution? Didn't they say that she violated professional conduct? Why is she at Lahaisen Hospital now? Aren't they just getting slapped in the face?"

"I can see this news negatively impacting the Huiling Medical Research Institution in the foreseeable future. I'm ready to be amused."

"Isn't there representatives from the Huiling Medical Research Institution here today? Let's just watch their expressions during this conference."

"Ahhh, I don't know what's in the mind of the leader of Huiling Medical Research Institution. Why would they let go of such a genius?"

"..."

###

After a while, the conference came to an end.

Jian Yiling and Li Zhuojia walked out of the conference together.

At the exit, there were still many journalists and reporters waiting there.

When they saw people exit the conference, everyone immediately gathered around them.

Among the crowd, the attention of the journalists and reporters was locked onto Li Zhuojia.

Chapter 876: Supporters of the Medical Super Group

So far, he was one of the only individuals from Lahaisen Hospital who had shown himself to the public.

Furthermore, in the past two years, Lahaisen Hospital had been a powerful and mysterious existence. As a result, the hospital had always been a source of curiosity for everyone.

Therefore, any news related to Lahaisen Hospital was a big deal. This news could easily make multiple headlines.

Furthermore, news related to Lahaisen Hospital was not only of concern to individuals in the medical industry, but ordinary citizens also paid attention to them.

"Mr. Li, when is Lahaisen Hospital's Beijing branch expected to be completed?"

"Mr. Li, how is Lahaisen Hospital's recruitment plan going?"

"Mr. Li, will the participation in this conference affect your hospital's future plans?"

"..."

Numerous microphones were placed in front of Li Zhuojia's face.

Unlike Jian Yiling, Li Zhuojia was good at dealing with such situations.

"Sorry everyone, it's not convenient for me to answer your questions today. Please take it easy. Lahaisen Hospital plans to hold a press conference in the near future. We will answer your questions and queries then."

Upon hearing this, the journalists and reporters hurriedly asked: "When will the press conference be held?"

"Will more members of Lahaisen Hospital be present at that time?"

"Does Lahaisen Hospital have plans to recruit more talented individuals?"

"Are you planning to open other branches in China?"

However, after Li Zhuojia said his sentence, Lahaisen Hospital's security guards rushed over to protect him and Jian Yiling.

As there were many people leaving the General Assembly Hall, the situation was very chaotic. As a result, the journalists and reporters failed to notice that Jian Yiling exited the conference with Li Zhuoji.

###

After the conference was over, related reports were posted all over the Internet.

Independent social media accounts shared several reports.

Out of all the reports, the one which gained the most attention was undoubtedly the news where big shots of the industry came together to vouch for Jian Yiling. News articles related to this gained much more attention when compared to other articles.

How did Jian Yiling manage to get so many big shots to unanimously vouch for her? What talents and abilities did she even have?

Furthermore, who should they believe? These big shots or the Huiling Medical Research Institution?

Although their previous comments had been removed, as this was a different matter, a new topic of conversation could be created.

[What kind of god is Jian Yiling? How did she manage to get so many big shots to vouch for her?]

[Oh my god! My idol is in that group too! My idol created a vaccination for the epidemic twenty years ago!]

[Elder Yun is in that group too! He's a warrior who constantly went to the front lines to save lives!]

[Who the hell cares about some stupid research institution? I believe in this Medical Super Group! I believe in the individuals who have made outstanding contributions to our world! They're the reason why we're alive!]

[Although the researchers from Huiling Medical Research Institution are also talented, their leader was in charge of Jian Yiling's dismissal. Does their leader even know anything about medicine?]

[We're supporters of this Medical Super Group! We will give unconditional support!]

The comments on the Internet were rather one-sided. Most of them unconditionally supported Jian Yiling as she had the backing of the [Medical Super Group.]

Although this group was considered to be old, they still had a lot of charisma and charm! After all, the individuals who made contributions to their country were seen to be the most handsome and beautiful people.

In contrast, no one even knew the Head of Huiling Medical Research Institution! Who the heck was he?!

At this time, the news about Jian Yiling representing Lahaisen Hospital to attend the conference had not yet come out. However, the overwhelming majority of comments were already on Jian Yiling's side.

If the news about Lahaisen Hospital came out, the entire Internet would definitely explode.

Chapter 877: Filled with Reassurance

As soon as he read the news on the Internet, Jian Yichen snorted: "So this is the Huiling Medical Research Institution? Does their reputation just plummet like this? Well, this is not considered to be over yet!"

A thick stack of documents was placed in front of Jian Yichen. So far, this was the information he managed to obtain on the members of the Huiling Medical Research Institution.

There was also a laptop placed in front of him. It appeared as though he was commanding something remotely.

Jian Yiheng was standing beside Jian Yichen.

Jian Yiheng's posture was casual as he half leaned against the desk. His eyes fell on the laptop in front of Jian Yichen.

"What are you going to do? Jian Yiheng asked his brother.

He could provide physical strength and support for his brother. However, his brother had to come up with the ideas.

"Well... I have quite a good idea," Jian Yichen started. A fox-like smile appeared on his face. "My sister and future sister-in-law alongside Cheng Yi recently accepted Qin Hongzhi's case. However, my sister and future sister-in-law left their job. So, what do you think will happen to Qin Hongzhi?"

"You want someone else to do the dirty work?"

And this person was Qin Hongzhi?

"Bingo~ After all, Qin Hongzhi still hopes to save his own life. With key members on this case either getting fired or resigning, aren't they essentially just killing him? After all, time is the essence of these situations. And thus, we just need to send his relevant information. He will do the rest for us."

“And then what?”

Qin Hongzhi was indeed able to help them a lot. It could save them from a lot of trouble.

“Well, I’m also waiting for my men to crack through the Institute’s security and encryption. After that, I will be able to access the information of internal members which means I can figure out the identity and location of the Head of the Institute. Then, I will leave the matter of beating that person up to you. Don’t worry. I will cut off all the monitoring equipment and electronic devices before you execute this.”

They would attack this problem from two angles at the same time.

Jian Yichen had already formulated a whole set of counterattack plans.

It was as though his brain was wired for this.

After saying this, Jian Yichen quickly got up from his seat: “Oops, it’s getting late. I need to go and pick up Yiling. After all, with that vouch statement, Yiling will be on completely opposite sides to that stupid institute! I don’t want them to get up to any dirty tricks! Therefore, in order to keep her safe, we must pick her up and drop her off during these two days!”

“I’ll go,” Jian Yiheng volunteered.

“Oh? But didn’t you use to not like Yiling?” Jian Yichen asked.

His brother was now volunteering for this task! What a surprise!

“She’s a member of the Jian family. I have the obligation to ensure her safety,” Jian Yiheng replied.

“Oh?” Why did he not believe in this?

“Trust me.”

By this time, Jian Yiheng had already grabbed his coat and left the room.

How fast.

###

When Grandma Wen, Grandpa Wen, and Wen Cheng saw the news report, they were incredibly happy.

“Thank goodness! Yiling is fine!”

This was the first piece of good news that Wen Cheng had heard in a while.

After all, his recent situation was quite grim.

His daughter and niece both got involved in incidents that affected their future.

Blows came one after another.

Thankfully, his niece’s matter had been resolved to some extent. This was relieving for him.

Grandma Wen and Grandpa Wen also felt quite relieved.

Grandma Wen: “This is good. Yiling is a blessed child. She was able to avoid disaster.”

Grandpa Wen: "By the way Wen Cheng, you should invite your sister's family over to eat a meal with us. Let's celebrate Yiling turning this situation around. In addition, it's an opportunity to reconcile the relationship between Wen Nuan, Jian Yiling, and Wen Ruo."

Chapter 878: Wen Yan Discovers that Wen Ruo is Lying

"Understood. I will head over to Wen Nuan's place to speak to her."

Wen Cheng was in a good mood. As a result, he was enthusiastic when he received this task from his parents.

At this moment, Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo were upstairs. However, their moods were completely different from Wen Cheng.

Initially, Wen Ruo assumed that Jian Yiling would be in an even more miserable situation than her.

However, Jian Yiling somehow managed to turn the entire situation around!

Wen Ruo and Cai Qinyue could not display their dissatisfaction in front of everyone else. After all, they couldn't let Grandma Wen, Grandpa Wen, and Wen Cheng discover how they felt towards Wen Nuan and Jian Yiling.

Cai Qinyue gritted her teeth as she hissed out: "What kind of luck does she have?! She got fired from the Huiling Medical Research Institution but somehow, she managed to find so many people to back her up already!"

Wen Ruo was lying down on a table and sobbing quietly.

She did not dare to cry loudly because she couldn't let her family know about this.

After all, her grandparents and father all wanted her to make up with Jian Yiling. They wanted her to congratulate Jian Yiling for turning her situation around.

However, she could not do this. It was impossible for her.

"Mother, why is God so unfair to me? Why can Jian Yiling turn around the situation immediately? And why can't I do anything about my situation?" Wen Ruo cried to her mother.

It was heartbreaking for Cai Qinyue to watch her daughter cry. However, other than comforting her daughter right now, what else could she do?

"Wen Ruo, please don't cry. Jian Yiling is Zhai Yunsheng's fiancée. The Zhai family is incredibly powerful. They can achieve many things that we can't."

Upon hearing these words, Wen Ruo did not feel comforted. Instead, she felt even worse.

Master Sheng... A man who held a lot of power and wealth in his hands. He could have whatever he wanted, yet his heart only belonged to Jian Yiling!

As she thought about this, it felt like a million ants were gnawing away at Wen Ruo's heart.

“Why does Jian Yiling have so many people to protect her? Back when we were younger, she already had so much more than me! All the brothers liked her more than me! Even as we grew up and her personality became vile, they still chose to like her! Only that handicapped person gives me a bit of attention! However, he’s just a cripple! He’s of no use to me! He can’t help me at all!”

Wen Yan who was currently seated in a wheelchair in front of Wen Ruo’s door froze. He was just about to knock on Wen Ruo’s door.

Wen Yan rarely took the initiative to speak to others in the family.

Typically, he would just keep to himself.

Ever since his car accident, not once had he taken the initiative to knock on Wen Ruo’s door.

Today was an exception.

This was because Wen Yan remembered that when he was sad, Wen Ruo would often come over to knock on his door. She would talk to him and accompany him.

And thus, even though he did not want to leave his room, he decided to step out of his comfort zone.

When he arrived at Wen Ruo’s door, he discovered that she was in her room.

However, he never expected to hear those words. He never expected to hear Wen Ruo express her dislike towards him.

She called him useless. She said that he was of no use to her...

If he hadn’t heard this with his own ears, Wen Yan would have refused to believe this. After all, this was the cousin who spoke encouraging and comforting words to his face. However, behind his back, it appeared as though she merely saw him as useless.

At this moment, Wen Yan felt like he was a joke.

He lowered his head to look at the piece of paper in his right hand.

This piece of paper was a clothing design company that he bought for Wen Ruo.

He wanted to help Wen Ruo make a comeback.

However, Wen Yan’s hand tightened as he crumpled the piece of paper into a ball.

In the past, he thought that at least he had a cousin who did not mind his crippled body.

At least...

However, in the end, he was lied to.

The words that she said to him were all lies.

It was nothing more than that....

Chapter 879: The Members of Lahaisen Hospital are Made Public (1)

It turned out that she and Jian Yiling were no different. They all saw him as crippled and useless.

Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo never would have imagined Wen Yan to appear in front of Wen Ruo's room. As a result, they didn't realize that he was eavesdropping on their conversation.

At this moment, Wen Ruo was still crying.

Cai Qinyue continued to comfort her daughter. From time to time, she would curse at Jian Yiling and Wen Nuan.

However, Wen Yan was no longer interested in eavesdropping.

Instead, he pressed a button on his wheelchair. This turned his wheelchair around and directed him back to his room.

Once he entered his room, the crumpled piece of paper was thrown into the trash.

At the same time, Wen Yan opened his computer.

After entering a few lines of code, Wen Yan opened up a special computer system.

In here, he revoked his previous commands.

Previously, he intended to help Wen Ruo.

However, he no longer planned to help her.

###

On the day of the conference for the International Federation of Medicine, although the journalists and reporters did not photograph Jian Yiling being seated in a spot reserved for the representatives of Lahaisen Hospital, everyone else at the conference knew that she was a representative.

And thus, the news began to spread after the attendees dispersed.

Soon, this news was brought to the attention of many journalists and reporters.

This was definitely something that they should write about!

After all, it would gain so much attention!

As soon as this news came out, not only were uninformed outsiders shocked, even people close to Jian Yiling were baffled.

"An Yang, An Yang, come over here!"

Hu Jiaojiao who was seated in her university basketball stadium was reading the news on her laptop. As soon as she read this news, she shouted at An Yang who was currently playing basketball.

"What are you doing? I called you over to watch me play basketball. Why are you using your computer? Am I unattractive to you or something?"

As An Yang complained, he obediently walked over to her side.

As soon as he saw the contents on the screen, his expression instantly changed.

"Oh my goodness!" An Yang shouted.

An Yang's reaction was rather alarming.

Because of this shout, everyone in the basketball stadium turned around to look at him.

"Nothing nothing. Don't mind me. Please continue," An Yang hurriedly said to his friends.

Then, An Yang sat down next to Hu Jiaojiao and stared at the screen to confirm once again.

"Oh my goodness. My Boss is amazing! This is way too awesome! My admiration for her is like a torrential river... It's like the Great Wall of China that stretches on and on... It's like... Ahhh, I can't think of any other words..."

In short, his Boss was way too awesome!!!

Hu Jiaojiao was also incredibly happy: "Waaa... I'm so glad. I was so worried for the past few days. Now that I confirmed that Yiling is alright, I can finally have a good night of sleep!"

These few days, Hu Jiaojiao's eyes were glued to her computer. On one hand, she was concerned about negative news related to Jian Yiling. On the other hand, she was also searching few ways to help Jian Yiling.

Sadly, her brain was stupid and she hadn't come up with any solutions even after a few days of pondering.

"I told you to relax. Didn't I tell you that our Boss would be able to turn this around?" An Yang said.

"Come on. You say those things but you were incredibly worried as well. A certain someone wanted to go out and eat crawfish yesterday night. However, as we ate, this person didn't even manage to eat much."

Although An Yang said this, he himself did not have an appetite because of Jian Yiling's situation.

"Cough cough. I'm your boyfriend. Please consider my feelings."

"Alright."

"Well, in order to celebrate this occasion, let's go and eat crayfish again tonight! I want to eat a kilogram of crayfish! In addition, I want to drink beer!"

"You're not allowed to drink beer!"

Chapter 880: The Members of Lahaisen Hospital are Made Public (2)

"But we're adults now..."

"Drinking is bad for you even if you're an adult!"

"But... I have so many lackeys! They will laugh at me if I don't drink!"

"Which one of your lackeys plan to laugh at you? Bring him over to me!"

Hu Jiaojiao declared as she crossed her arms.

"Sister-in-law, we wouldn't dare to!"

On the basketball court, An Yang's lackeys called out in unison.

An Yang: "..."

Zhai Yunsheng took a deep breath.

Very good. His fiancée took off another vest.

She was a member of Lahaisen Hospital.

Very good.

After all, she constantly surprised him.

Xing Wei and Han Mengyu were a bit overwhelmed by this news.

"Master Sheng, am I reading correctly? Is this our sister-in-law?" Xing Wei asked as he swallowed his saliva.

This was Lahaisen Hospital! The renowned and famous Lahaisen Hospital!

So many people in Beijing wanted to get in touch with Lahaisen Hospital and yet, their sister-in-law was a member of the organization?!

This was incredible!

"You're silly. Other than your sister-in-law, who can combine beauty, cuteness, and intelligence in one photo? Just take a look at this photo! Who else could it be?" Han Mengyu said as he knocked his knuckles on Xing Wei's head.

"Wow! My sister-in-law is amazing! From today onwards, she will be the number one idol in my heart!" Xing Wei cried out happily.

After saying that, Xing Wei realized that this was not okay. He awkwardly glanced at Zhai Yunsheng before he weakly added: "Well, tied number one with Master Sheng."

Han Mengyu stroked his chin as he said: "Well... I guess I now understand why we were given the construction project for Lahaisen Hospital's new branch..."

It appeared as though strings were pulled behind the scenes.

Zhai Yunsheng: "I sacrificed my good looks. Is there a problem with this?"

Upon hearing this, Han Mengyu was rather amused. Why was Master Sheng saying this without the slightest bit of shame? Instead, why did he seem quite proud about it?

"But Master Sheng, it's good news that your fiancée is part of Lahaisen Hospital. Why don't you take this opportunity to enjoy your couple's world?" Han Mengyu suggested to Zhai Yunsheng.

After all, Han Mengyu wanted to give good ideas to his friend. After all, Master Sheng still had a long way to go in these aspects.

Zhai Yunsheng paused for a moment. This wasn't a bad idea... He would consider it...

Upon reading this, Master Zhai was shocked for an entire minute. After that, he slapped his thigh and shouted.

"My granddaughter-in-law is amazing!"

He was so happy!

"She would be even more amazing if she gave birth to a great-grandson!"

Master Zhai could already imagine the image of holding his great-grandson in his arms.

Furthermore, he also started to imagine his great-grandson walking around in a white lab coat at the age of three. He would be toddling around and pretending to be a doctor.

Waaa, that would be super cute!

"A great-granddaughter would also be fine! She would be as cute and lovely as my granddaughter-in-law~"

He would buy many dresses for his great-granddaughter~

"One great-grandchild isn't enough! There definitely needs to be a few more... A litter would be nice..."

Master Zhai mumbled to himself for a good part of the day.

Grandpa Jian was also gloating with pride.

This was his granddaughter!

Grandpa Jian proudly announced to his wife: "Look! Look at our little girl! She's a member of Lahaisen Hospital! It's the most renowned hospital in the medical field! How can the Huiling Medical Research Institution even be comparable to Lahaisen Hospital?"
