Chapter 901: Visit to Lahaisen Hospital (3)

Then, Jian Yunmo said to Li Zhuojia: "Sorry for giving you so much work."

"Nah, it's alright," Li Zhuojia replied with a smile. "It's not a lot of work."

"Brother Yunmo, this car of yours is way too cool!"

Jian Yichen walked up to observe the miniature car. He was amazed by it.

"This vehicle is used by everyone on this island," Jian Yunmo explained.

"Does it have wheels?" Jian Yichen asked as he bent down to look under the chassis of the car.

"Yep. It has a lot of wheels. However, its wheels are smaller than normal wheels. They can also rotate around three hundred and sixty degrees."

"Can I drive it?" Jian Yichen asked. He wanted to attempt to drive this new vehicle.

"Of course."

As soon as he heard this, Jian Yichen climbed into the vehicle.

The car was very simple to drive.

In addition, it was incredibly agile. After a while, Jian Yichen began to race around with the car.

As they watched Jian Yichen, everyone was eager to try driving the vehicle.

Li Zhuojia noticed the expressions on everyone's faces. He took out something that appeared to look like a remote control and pressed down on a few buttons. Then, several identical vehicles automatically drove over to them.

"Oh my goodness! This thing can drive itself?!"

An Yang was full of excitement. He instantly got into a car.

Hu Jiaojiao sat down in An Yang's passenger seat.

After that, Jian Yumin and Luo Xiuen also got seated in another vehicle.

Luo Xiuen wanted to race around with the vehicle. However, as she was pregnant, Jian Yumin did not allow her to do so.

Jian Yiheng got into a vehicle by himself.

Finally, Jian Yiling got into the driver's seat of the last car.

Everyone turned around to look at her.

Jian Yichen: "Yiling, do you know how to drive a car?"

Jian Yumin: "Yeah... If I remember correctly, you don't have a driver's license right?"

Jian Yiheng: "Maybe let Zhai Yunsheng drive the car."

The Jian brothers were concerned about Jian Yiling's driving abilities.

When Jian Yunmo heard this, he laughed before he said: "This is the only car that Yiling can drive. Please don't deprive her of the fun."

Zhai Yunsheng: "It's alright. After we get off this island, let's go and get your driver's license. You will be allowed to drive after that."

Then, Zhai Yunsheng sat down in the passenger seat of Jian Yiling's car.

After Zhai Yunsheng sat down, Jian Yiling stepped on the accelerator. The small car raced away at an incredible speed.

When the Jian brothers saw this, their hearts were about to fly to their throats.

"Brother Yunmo, are you sure she will be fine?" Jian Yichen asked Jian Yunmo.

"Don't worry. She's good at driving," Jian Yunmo replied with a smile.

Jian Yichen paused for a moment. He was still skeptical about this. Then, he said: "I'll follow them to make sure."

Then, Jian Yichen also slammed down on the accelerator pedal.

Instead of driving a miniature car, it was as though they were driving an F1 vehicle.

Jian Yiheng was talented with these things. Naturally, he did not want to lag behind so he quickly set out after his brother.

This left Jian Yumin behind. He drove slowly as he muttered: "Let's take our time. We're in no rush."

Although he said this, he was still incredibly anxious.

However, he couldn't race! After all, a pregnant woman was seated next to him. Even if he wanted to race after them, he had to hold back his urges!

Why could this miniature vehicle reach such speeds? This was way too dangerous!

He had to have a talk with Yiling later on! She shouldn't drive this fast! It was dangerous!!!

Jian Yiling drove Zhai Yunsheng around the island.

There was a small road that surrounded the island. The road was suitable for this kind of car to drive on.

As they drove around on the island, the beautiful scenery could be seen.

"Did you spend your three years here?" Zhai Yunsheng asked Jian Yiling.

Zhai Yunsheng gazed at everything on the island. He was imagining the time Jian Yiling spent on this island.

Chapter 902: Visit to Lahaisen Hospital (4)

“About half the time.”

In these three years, Jian Yiling also visited many other places. Therefore, in total, she spent roughly half the time on this island.

“Where is your room?” Zhai Yunsheng asked out of curiosity.

“Over there,” Jian Yiling said as she pointed to the topmost floor of a building in the distance.

“Can I go and check it out later?”

“Mhmm,” Jian Yiling replied. However, there wasn’t much to see in her room.

“What do you usually do on the island?”

“Experiments.”

Ahh, of course.

As Jian Yiling drove to the back of the hospital, Zhai Yunsheng noticed a tree that had been half cut.

All the other trees around the area appeared to be fine. However, just that one tree was chopped down. It was very strange to see.

Furthermore, the person who chopped this tree evidently wasn’t a skilled tree lopper. Instead, the chops appeared to be at random.

“What happened to that tree?” Zhai Yunsheng asked out of curiosity.

“Brother Yunmo cut it down,” Jian Yiling answered.

“Your brother likes to chop trees?” This didn’t seem like something that Jian Yunmo would do.

“When Brother Yunmo is angry, he goes and chops down trees.”

“Angry? What made him angry?”

“My engagement made him angry.”

Zhai Yunsheng: “ ...”

Zhai Yunsheng took another look at the tree that had suffered a great deal.

I’m sorry Brother Tree.

Then, Jian Yiling and Zhai Yunsheng arrived at the main entrance of Lahaisen Hospital.

The main entrance of Lahaisen Hospital was deserted. No one else was there but them.

Typically, other than the members of Lahaisen Hospital, only patients and their family members would visit this place. As a result, at most, only three outsiders would be present.

Hence, this place was rather deserted and quiet.

Today was one of the more crowded days on the island.

Jian Yiling entered the hospital with Zhai Yunsheng.

There was a very large waiting space in the hospital. Lahaisen Hospital was no different from other hospitals in this aspect.

In addition, the interior of the hospital was almost completely white.

The entire place was very clean and immaculate.

Jian Yiling guided Zhai Yunsheng into one of the rooms.

In order to enter the room, fingerprint and iris recognition were required.

Only the fingerprints and irises of the members of Lahaisen Hospital could successfully open this door.

Inside the door was filled with all sorts of medical diagnostic equipment. This equipment was not generally seen in normal hospitals.

Jian Yiling entered a dressing room to change her clothes. She put on a white lab coat.

It was obvious that this white lab coat was custom-sized. It fit Jian Yiling perfectly.

In addition, there was a special type of electronic equipment in her hands.

“Take off your clothes and lie on the bed,” Jian Yiling said with a serious expression on her face.

As of now, the door of the room was closed. Only Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling were in the room.

“Do you know how dangerous this is?”

Zhai Yunsheng approached Jian Yiling and glanced down at her. There was a wicked smile on his face.

“It’s not dangerous. The equipment here is very safe,” Jian Yiling explained. “You just need to lie on the bed. You don’t need to do anything else. I will handle the rest.”

“I’m not talking about the equipment.”

“I’m not dangerous either. I’m very skilled at these things,” Jian Yiling assured Zhai Yunsheng.

It seemed as though she assessed everything in the room other than him.

As Zhai Yunsheng refused to take off his clothes, Jian Yiling decided to help him.

Her hands approached his chest to unbutton his clothes.

“Don’t move around,” Zhai Yunsheng said softly.

Upon hearing this, Jian Yiling ordered: “Listen to me.”

He wasn’t an obedient patient.

He was in the hospital. Therefore, he should listen to the doctor.

Instead, Zhai Yunsheng stepped closer and hugged the person in front of him. Then, he lowered his head to kiss Jian Yiling...

Chapter 903: Let Us Know in Advance

Then, Zhai Yunsheng pulled on Jian Yiling's arms. Her arms ended up around his neck.

He used a hand to bring her closer to him.

Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling were so close that they could feel each other's heartbeat and the heat of the other person's body.

"Ding—"

The electronic door of the room suddenly opened.

A man in a white lab coat entered the room. When he saw the scene in front of him, a stunned expression appeared on his face.

"I'm... I'm sorry.... I..."

Zhai Yunsheng and Jian Yiling quickly separated.

Jian Yiling's face was flushed red.

When she talked about medical knowledge, her face was never red. However, whenever she did the actual thing, her face would quickly become flushed.

As she ran into a member of Lahaisen Hospital, Jian Yiling did not dare to even raise her head. Instead, she bolted out of the room.

This left the man in the white lab coat with Zhai Yunsheng. The man's face was still filled with surprise and embarrassment.

"Err... I didn't mean to..." The man started to explain. "I didn't know that you guys were..."

Zhai Yunsheng glared at the man.

The man took a small step back. After all, he did not expect to walk in on something like this. How could they blame him?

The man paused for a moment before he said: "Well, I won't tell Brother Yunmo about this."

If Jian Yunmo learned about this, all the trees around their hospital would get axed.

"Who are you?" Zhai Yunsheng asked. He began to size up the man who suddenly barged into the room.

The man did not look very old. In fact, he only appeared to be a few years older than Jian Yiling.

As he called Jian Yunmo "Brother Yunmo," this meant that he was roughly the same age as Jian Yunmo. Zhai Yunsheng's estimate of the man's age would be around 22 to 28 years old.

"Me? I'm a member of Lahaisen Hospital. My name is Liu Ting. Yiling calls me Brother Ting. You can call me that as well," the man replied with a smile.

"What are you doing here?"

Zhai Yunsheng refused to call him Brother Ting. He wasn't going to let the man take advantage of him like that.

"Well, I came to see if there was anything that I could help with," Liu Ting said with a smile. "I know who you are and I know what you came here for today. Therefore, you should hurry and call her to come back here. You have a lot of checkups to go through today. If you don't hurry, you won't be able to finish those checkups today."

After he finished speaking, Liu Ting paused for a moment before he added another sentence: "Naturally, if you guys want to do something else in this room, that's okay as well. However, please let us know in advance. We don't want to accidentally barge into something like that."

###

On the other hand, Li Zhuojia took everyone else for a tour around the island and the hospital.

Everyone was intrigued by this place. Naturally, Luo Xiuen was most intrigued. This was way too exciting!

It was as though she was exploring a whole new world!

"Woah, does this equipment only require half a day to produce results? That's way too convenient!"

"Oh my goodness! Can this scan human organs directly?! Wow!"

"What is this used for? I want to try it!"

Luo Xiuen kept jumping up and down. This made Jian Yumin incredibly anxious. He wanted to hold her down.

However, he couldn't do so. After all, she was much stronger than him.

Luo Xiuen was obsessed with this place.

Li Zhuojia smiled before he offered: "Miss Luo if you like this place, you can choose to join us after you give birth to your child."

"Really? Can I join you guys?" Luo Xiuen asked. There was a stunned expression on her face.

Everyone else around them was equally as surprised.

"Yep," Li Zhuojia replied.

Jian Yiling had already mentioned this matter to Li Zhuojia.

"But... Aren't your recruitment procedures very strict? Can I really join you guys?" Luo Xiuen asked. She was nervous and excited at the same time.

Chapter 904: Who is Most Capable in Lahaisen Hospital?

"Miss Luo, you fulfill our requirements. However, for the time being, it's best for you to take care of your baby. Otherwise, I feel like Mr. Yumin won't forgive me," Li Zhuojia said with a smile.

If Li Zhuojia invited Luo Xiuen to join Lahaisen Hospital right now, Jian Yumin would definitely become anxious.

“Oh my god! Oh my god! Did you hear that? I can become a member of Lahaisen Hospital!!!”

Luo Xiuen excitedly squeezed Jian Yumin’s arm.

“Yes, yes...” Jian Yumin replied with great difficulty. His face began to turn red.

After Luo Xiuen let go, Jian Yumin let out a sigh of relief.

Then, he looked at the place where Luo Xiuen squeezed him...

He prayed that in the future, his daughter would not learn from her mother...

When Jian Yichen watched this, he could not help but laugh to himself. Ahh, Brother Yumin was going through a lot. In order to save his ego just now, he swallowed his screams of pain.

Jian Yiheng asked Li Zhuojia another question: “Hmm, it seems as though every member of Lahaisen Hospital is quite talented and capable. Out of everyone, who is most capable and talented?”

Li Zhuojia: “Naturally, that would be our Dean. Our Dean brought together many capable individuals from different departments and areas. Our Dean’s level of mastery in the medical field exceeds everyone else’s. Our Dean is our role model.”

Luo Xiuen was itching to become a member of Lahaisen Hospital: “Ahh, I want to give birth to my child right now! I want to join Lahaisen Hospital and get to meet your Dean!”

“Don’t even think about it right now.”

As soon as Jian Yumin said this, Luo Xiuen piped down. She quietly said: “Well... It’s just words... I can’t give birth to my child right now even if I wanted to...”

It appeared as though only Brother Yumin could keep Sister En in check.

Jian Yichen: “Wait, once Sister En joins, then three members of our family will be part of Lahaisen Hospital!”

This felt kind of cool!

###

It took Jian Yiling a while to return to the room where she planned to give Zhai Yunsheng the checkup.

When she returned, her face was still a bit flushed.

Zhai Yunsheng couldn’t help but chuckle.

To think that she mentioned reproducing offspring.

That was merely discussing military tactics on paper. How could she possibly put those things into practice?

Then, Zhai Yunsheng began to take off his clothes.

“What... What are you doing...” Jian Yiling said nervously. She did not dare to look at Zhai Yunsheng.

When she thought about what just happened, her heart began to beat rapidly. Although this was typically a normal thing, it now felt strange for her.

“Didn’t you tell me to listen? Did you forget what you said?”

“Oh...” That’s true... He was here for a checkup.

Zhai Yunsheng took off his shirt. Then, he unbuckled his belt.

After he unbuckled his belt, he threw the belt to the side.

Then, he started to unbutton his pants.

“Ah! There’s no need to take off your pants! I’m only scanning the upper body! You only need to unbuckle your belt because metal shouldn’t be scanned,” Jian Yiling quickly explained.

“Then?” Zhai Yunsheng asked. He raised his eyebrows as his burning eyes looked at Jian Yiling. He waited for her instructions.

“Just lie there,” Jian Yiling instructed. She did not dare to look at Zhai Yunsheng.

After that, she quickly scampered off to the control room.

Jian Yiling scampered off so fast that it seemed like there was a wolf chasing after her.

As there was only a glass window that separated them, Jian Yiling and Zhai Yunsheng could see each other.

Zhai Yunsheng laughed before he listened to Jian Yiling’s instructions.

Inside the control room, Jian Yiling could control the equipment in the other room. The results of the examination would also be displayed on the screen.

Jian Yiling launched the machine and sent Zhai Yunsheng into the scanning apparatus.

The scanning process began to appear on the screen.

After a while, the shape of Zhai Yunsheng’s internal organs began to appear on the computer display.

Jian Yiling selected the heart and enlarged the heart diagram.

Chapter 905: Allocation of Rooms

Right now, Zhai Yunsheng’s heart was beating. The frequency of the beating and the speed of the blood flow was similar to the metrics of a normal and healthy human being.

At this moment, Liu Ting who had previously been joking around with Zhai Yunsheng walked into the control room.

“How is it?”

As he asked this, Liu Ting looked at the display. When he saw the heart diagram, he frowned:

“This is the first time I’ve encountered such a congenital heart defect.”

Jian Yiling: “Congenital heart defects are generally caused by the unhealthy development of the fetus when the child is in the mother’s womb. However, this is not the case here. Instead, it’s a type of genetic mutation. His genetic code determined that he will have such a heart.”

Liu Ting glanced at another electronic screen: “Has the data been analyzed yet?”

“Not yet.”

“Ahh, I hope the data is good,” Liu Ting said. “His heart is beating strongly, therefore, I’d assume that the data would not be bad.”

“Further structural analysis needs to be done.”

“Yiling, you need to be mentally prepared. In his case, a heart transplant may not be possible.”

“Help me do the structural analysis of the heart. In addition, create an anatomy diagram as well. For now, I will take him to do the rest of the checkups.”

“No worries. Just leave it to me.”

Once she finished speaking to Liu Ting, Jian Yiling returned to the other room. After Zhai Yunsheng got dressed, the two of them headed to another checkup room.

“Are you very familiar with that man?” Zhai Yunsheng asked casually.

“We’re friends.”

“What does he specialize in?”

“Anatomy and plastic surgery.”

“...” Anatomy and plastic surgery techniques were related to each other?

“He’s really good at using knives. He cuts both dead and living things,” Jian Yiling said seriously.

“He cuts living things?”

“All the vegetables on the island are cut by him.”

Ahh, so she was talking about vegetables...

By the time all the checkups were complete, it was already evening.

Li Zhuojia distributed an electronic bracelet to each person.

“This bracelet is used for identification. You can enter the dining hall and your room using this electronic bracelet.”

“Why don’t you guys have one then?” Jian Yichen asked.

“This bracelet is used as a means for temporary identification. The iris, fingerprints, palm prints, voice, and facial structure of all our members are entered into our hospital’s database. The system will prioritize these details. If the system fails to recognize any of these details, it will check for the electronic bracelet.”

“Then... Are the two of us allocated to the same room?” Luo Xiuen asked in a small voice.

“Aren’t you guys married?” Li Zhuojia replied.

“Yes we are married but...” Luo Xiuen started before she quickly trailed off.

She had only slept with Brother Yumin once...

They never shared a room again after that...

And now... There was only a single room allocated to them... That meant that...

Jian Yumin’s expression was calm as he said: “Yep, we’re married. We even have a baby. It’s fine to be allocated in the same room.”

Upon hearing this, Li Zhuojia smiled and said: “But please remember to pay attention. Strenuous exercise is not recommended in the early stages of pregnancy.”

When Luo Xiuen heard this, she wanted to find a hole to crawl into.

Zhai Yunsheng glanced at his bracelet before he asked Jian Yiling: “Are we sharing the same room?”

“Nope,” Jian Yiling replied. “My room is on the top floor. Your room is on the first floor. My room is on the east side whilst yours is on the west side.”

This meant that in the entire building, these two rooms were the furthest apart.

Upon hearing this, Zhai Yunsheng’s eyes darkened.

Li Zhuojia smiled before he explained to Zhai Yunsheng: “Mr. Yunsheng, your room was specifically arranged by Mr. Yunmo in order to facilitate your checkups and examinations.”

Yes... It was definitely in order to facilitate his checkups and examinations

Chapter 906: Everyone is Bullying Master Sheng

What checkups and examinations were going to happen during the night?

Although Zhai Yunsheng knew that Jian Yunmo’s actions were intentional, he still accepted this room allocation.

If it was Jian Yuncheng or Jian Yunnao, Zhai Yunsheng would have immediately called them out.

But this was Jian Yunmo... He had no choice but to accept this room allocation.

After all, he could not afford to offend Jian Yunmo.

“Then where are our rooms?” Jian Yichen asked.

“All your rooms are on the top floor. Your rooms are right next to Miss Yiling’s” Li Zhuojia replied.

Jian Yichen laughed before he said: “Wait, so Master Sheng’s room is the only one on the first floor?”

Li Zhuojia’s expression did not change as he said: “Well, Mr. Yunsheng is the only one who is a patient. He needs to do checkups and examinations.”

Everyone immediately understood why this was the case. All of them tried their best to hold back their laughter.

Jian Yichen smiled and said: “Well, let’s go and see our rooms!”

And thus, everyone other than Zhai Yunsheng went to take the elevator together. Zhai Yunsheng was left alone on the first floor...

###

The group of them stayed on the island for a couple of days. Zhai Yunsheng went through many checkups whilst Jian Yiling mainly studied Zhai Yunsheng’s physical condition.

Everyone else was basically on a vacation trip.

However, Zhai Yunsheng’s initially planned for this to also be a vacation.

Master Zhai told his grandson that he could stay on the island for as long as he wanted. Even staying there for an entire year was fine.

It appeared as though Master Zhai wanted his grandson and granddaughter-in-law to create a little baby on the island.

However, reality dashed Zhai Yunsheng’s hopes and dreams.

How could they possibly create a little baby? He rarely even got the chance to even spend time with Jian Yiling!

Other than the times where Jian Yiling took him to do checkups, Zhai Yunsheng rarely had the opportunity to spend time alone with Jian Yiling.

At other times, Zhai Yunsheng only got to see Jian Yiling whilst everyone else was around.

More often than not, Jian Yiling was busy discussing and studying Zhai Yunsheng’s condition.

For Jian Yiling, she asked Zhai Yunsheng to come to Lahaisen Hospital because she wanted to look into Zhai Yunsheng’s heart condition.

And thus, when he wasn’t doing checkups, Zhai Yunsheng spent time by himself on the side of the pool. Often, he would sit under a beach umbrella and sip away at a beverage.

Often, Jian Yichen would come over to tease Zhai Yunsheng: “Master Sheng, so many people came as a couple! However, it appears as though you’re quite miserable! Take a look at Brother Yumin and Sister En! And look at An Yang and Hu Jiaojiao. Aren’t they cute together? They’re enjoying their time together on the beach and under the sun. It must be sad being by yourself.”

Jian Yichen was speaking the truth. Jian Yumin, Luo Xiuen, An Yang, and Hu Jiaojiao were indeed enjoying their days.

This vacation was awesome!

Then, Jian Yichen said: "Apparently, the man called Liu Ting is single. He's not much older than Jian Yiling and he's quite good-looking as well. Furthermore, if they were to be together, they would have common topics of conversation. These two days, they've been almost inseparable..."

"Pa—"

The glass cup in Zhai Yunsheng's hand was placed back on the table.

When Jian Yichen saw this, he started laughing internally.

After laughing for a while, the expression on Jian Yichen's face turned serious.

"Yiling is really worried about your health. She's doing everything she can to help you," Jian Yichen said quietly. For once in his life, Jian Yichen was serious. Then he said: "So you must stay alive. Don't make her sad. If something happens to you, she will definitely cry a lot."

Zhai Yunsheng turned his head to look at Jian Yichen. He saw despondency and anxiousness on Jian Yichen's face.

"I will," Zhai Yunsheng replied.

Chapter 907: Wen Cheng's Divorce

After staying on the island for a week, the group departed to return to Beijing.

Other than An Yang and Hu Jiaojiao, everyone else returned to the Jian family's Beijing Residence. They wanted to tell Grandma Jian and Grandpa Jian that everything was okay.

"Ahh Yiling, you guys are finally back home," Grandma Jian said. The expression on her face was a little complicated.

Jian Yiling looked at Grandma Jian in confusion.

"Your aunt and uncle got a divorce," Grandma Jian said to Jian Yiling. She told everything that happened to the Wen family in the past two days to her granddaughter. "Your aunt took the initiative to ask for a divorce."

"Why?" Jian Yiling asked with a puzzled expression on her face.

Grandma Jian sighed before she said: "Your uncle cheated on your aunt. He slept with another woman. In addition, he ran into business problems. He was on the verge of bankruptcy and was almost about to go into debt. And thus, your aunt asked for a divorce."

"My uncle said yes?"

“Yeah, he said yes. Your uncle felt that he was in the wrong. Furthermore, as he was soon to be in debt, he did not want to drag his wife and daughter into the situation. He didn’t even compete for custody of his daughter. The two of them divorced at a lightning speed. There was no delay.”

“What happened to my uncle’s business?”

Wen Cheng’s business was always doing well. Why was there suddenly a problem?

“I’m not sure about this either. It seems as though your uncle ran into a lot of bad luck in the past week. All his businesses faced problems. This directly led him to the verge of bankruptcy. He was even ready to sell his house. Your mother and father made several trips to the Wen family for this.”

“However, after your uncle and aunt got a divorce, in the past two days, his business miraculously began to recover. Those who planned to cancel contracts with Wen Cheng’s business suddenly decided not to. In fact, he appears to be already making a profit.”

The whole situation was indeed rather bizarre. However, it appeared as though no one was intentionally orchestrating this.

After all, if someone was intentionally orchestrating this, what did they want to achieve?

Furthermore, everything happened way too quickly. In the week Jian Yiling spent at Lahaisen Hospital, the Wen family had undergone such a huge change.

Later in the evening, Jian Shuxing and Wen Nuan brought Jian Yiling over to the Wen Residence.

Because of the divorce, Grandma Wen and Grandpa Wen suffered a great blow. Grandpa Wen’s health was already poor. After this incident, he appeared to look even more haggard than usual.

And thus, Wen Nuan visited her parents as often as possible. Today, she brought Jian Yiling over as well to provide her parents some comfort.

When they arrived at the Wen family, the place was much quieter than usual.

Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo were no longer there.

Grandma Wen and Grandpa Wen were upset that their granddaughter was no longer staying with them.

When Grandma Wen saw Jian Yiling, she immediately hugged her: “Yiling... We only have you now...”

Jian Yiling did not feel comfortable in Grandma Wen’s embrace. However, she did not push her away.

After hugging her for a while, Grandma Wen pulled Jian Yiling to sit down beside her.

Wen Nuan: “Mother, what’s going on with my brother’s business? Is the crisis over for now?”

Grandma Wen was confused as well: “I also wonder about this. After the divorce, all the things that weren’t going well immediately resolved themselves.”

Grandpa Wen sighed before he said: “Maybe this is fate! Maybe Cai Qinyue is destined to not be our daughter-in-law!”

Grandma Wen: "Old man! Don't say that.. She's been our daughter-in-law for so many years. Furthermore, Wen Ruo is still our granddaughter... If it weren't for the recent events..."

Chapter 908: Wen Yan's Goal is Achieved

When Grandma Wen thought about the recent series of events, her head began to hurt.

She did not know whether this divorce was a good or bad thing to the Wen family.

After all, Wen Cheng was at fault for cheating on his wife... However, Cai Qinyue asked for a divorce as soon as Wen Cheng's business was about to go bankrupt...

"Mother, please don't worry about who is right and who is wrong. That's not important. What is most important is your health. Please take care of yourself," Wen Nuan comforted.

"Yeah, I suppose so. I shouldn't dwell on such things. Fortunately, I still have you and Yiling. Please come and visit us more often in the future."

"Where is my brother right now?"

"He's upstairs in his study. He's working non-stop. I think he's attempting to numb himself with work."

"Does Cai Qinyue know that my brother's business is performing well again?"

Wen Nuan no longer called this person her "sister-in-law."

"I'm not sure. If they don't know yet, I feel like they will learn about it soon. After all, Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo are still in Beijing. Therefore, they would eventually learn about what's happening to the Wen family."

When Grandma Wen mentioned Wen Ruo, her expression was filled with reluctance. She still loved her granddaughter dearly.

Wen Ruo was the only granddaughter¹ in the Wen family. If she no longer lived in the Wen Residence, Grandma Wen would not get to see her often.

At this moment, Wen Yan came down the stairs in his wheelchair.

His wheelchair could smoothly go up and down the stairs.

His eyes swept over the group of people in the living room. Finally, his eyes landed on Jian Yiling...

Jian Yiling looked at Wen Yan for a moment before she quickly withdrew her eyes.

She knew that Wen Yan did not like her.

However, Wen Yan's gaze lingered on Jian Yiling for a long time.

It seemed as though he was recalling something.

He had achieved his goal.

Wen Ruo had left the Wen family.

This was his ultimate goal when he initially set up the trap for Wen Cheng.

The person he wanted to take revenge on was always Wen Ruo and not Cai Qinyue.

If he set up a trap for Cai Qinyue, when Cai Qinyue and Wen Cheng divorced, Wen Cheng would definitely fight for the custody of his daughter. He would not let Wen Ruo leave with Cai Qinyue.

However, if Wen Cheng felt that he was in the wrong, he would willingly give up custody of his daughter.

And in order for Cai Qinyue to ask for a divorce, two conditions had to be met.

The first being Wen Cheng's betrayal.

The second being Wen Cheng having no money.

If only the first condition was met, Cai Qinyue would become angry. She would argue with Wen Cheng. However, she wouldn't necessarily ask for a divorce.

But if Cai Qinyue knew that Wen Cheng might go into debt, she would definitely want to pull out early.

And thus, the second order Wen Yan gave was to create problems for Wen Cheng's businesses. He wanted to create the illusion that Wen Cheng was about to go bankrupt and into debt.

In this situation, Cai Qinyue would take the initiative to ask for a divorce. In addition, she would not be able to get a share of Wen Cheng's money.

Now that Cai Qinyue left the Wen family, she would no longer have access to the Wen family's money and assets.

As Wen Ruo left with Cai Qinyue, she would also lose everything she previously had.

And thus, Wen Yan's goal had been achieved.

At this moment, the phone in the living room rang.

Grandma Wen picked up the phone. Wen Ruo was on the other side of the phone: "Grandma, I heard that my father's business took a turn for the better. He's no longer facing bankruptcy right?"

As expected, Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo had indeed heard of the news.

"Yep. Several of your father's businesses have taken a turn for the better. If they turn out well, he will be able to reverse the losses made," Grandma Wen replied. When speaking to her granddaughter, Grandma Wen was unable to lie.

"Grandma, could I visit my father tomorrow? I miss you guys," Wen Ruo said.

Chapter 909: You're Not the Wen Yan I Know

"Of course," Grandma Wen quickly said.

After all, she would certainly be happy to have her precious granddaughter back home.

If it weren't for the fact that her son was in the wrong, she would have definitely insisted for her granddaughter to stay in the Wen family.

“Grandma, could I come over with my mother tomorrow night?” Wen Ruo asked again.

“This...” Grandma Wen said with some hesitation. After a moment, she still agreed: “Of course. I will tell the kitchen to prepare a delicious dinner for tomorrow night.”

Grandma Wen knew that if Cai Qinyue came along tomorrow, the situation would become awkward.

However, she didn’t want Wen Ruo to be stuck in the middle of such a situation. After all, they would still meet from time to time in the future.

“Mhmm, thank you, Grandma.”

Inside the living room, Wen Nuan and Jian Shuxing accompanied Grandma Wen and Grandpa Wen. They were discussing private matters.

As Jian Yiling did not have to be present, she went to stand in the courtyard.

Wen Yan approached Jian Yiling in his wheelchair.

His attitude towards Jian Yiling had obviously changed. Previously, he was disgusted by Jian Yiling when she took the initiative to approach him. Now, he chose to take the initiative to approach her.

When Jian Yiling sensed his presence, she instinctively took a step back.

Her eyes were filled with doubt as she looked at Wen Yan.

It was obvious that Jian Yiling did not expect Wen Yan to take the initiative to approach her.

When Wen Yan saw Jian Yiling’s reaction, he realized that she looked like a bird that was startled by the mere twang of a bow.[1]

Pain flashed through his eyes.

“Do you like looking at flowers? It’s the second time you’ve stood in this courtyard to look at flowers,” Wen Yan said. He took the initiative to speak to Jian Yiling.

However, Jian Yiling did not reply.

She did not know whether to nod or shake her head.

She didn’t particularly like flowers. However, she didn’t want to stay with everyone else in the living room. She wasn’t interested in exchanging pleasantries. Therefore, she decided to wait in the courtyard.

She was more comfortable with being by herself.

As Jian Yiling did not respond to him, instead of becoming angry, Wen Yan waited patiently.

His eyes gazed towards the far side of the courtyard. After a while, Wen Yan spoke again: “I was wrong about some things.”

“What things?” Jian Yiling asked slowly.

"I know Wen Ruo encouraged you to do those things in the past. Therefore, I kicked her out of the Wen family," Wen Yan said.

Jian Yiling paused for a moment. Then, she turned to look at Wen Yan's fair and handsome face. All of a sudden, Jian Yiling realized what had happened in the past week.

"Did you arrange for this series of events?"

"Yeah, I did."

"But... Uncle Wen never hurt you..."

"Sacrifices must be made."

In the eyes of Wen Yan, it appeared as though he took this for granted.

"He didn't do anything wrong," Jian Yiling stressed again.

"But Wen Ruo did something wrong."

"You're not the Wen Yan I know."

Then, Jian Yiling turned around to leave.

"Yiling..." Wen Yan said softly as he watched her walk away. His brows were furrowed.

"What are you looking at?"

Zhai Yunsheng noticed that Jian Yiling looked troubled ever since she returned from the Wen Residence. It was as though she encountered something difficult.

Zhai Yunsheng glanced at the materials placed in front of Jian Yiling. All the information was related to Wen Cheng.

Jian Yiling only appeared troubled when matters were related to relatives and friends.

"My uncle is upset," Jian Yiling said as she raised her head to look at Zhai Yunsheng. Her eyes were glistening and her eyebrows were slightly knotted.

During dinner, Jian Yiling saw Wen Cheng. However, Wen Cheng did not talk to her much throughout dinner.

It was obvious that he was still shocked at what had happened. He wasn't about to recover anytime soon.

"You want your uncle to become happy?"

"Mhmm."

However, Jian Yiling did not know what she had to do to make her uncle happy. She was not skilled at these kinds of things.

Chapter 910: Let Me Help You

For Jian Yiling, these problems were more challenging than research problems.

"I can help you."

"You can?" Jian Yiling said as she looked at Zhai Yunsheng with surprise.

"Hm? Are you underestimating me?"

"No," Jian Yiling replied as she shook her head.

"Occasionally, you need to learn to tell me about your problems. Your future husband can help you with them."

Future husband...

Wa...

"Oh? Are you shy now?"

She acted so seriously when she mentioned reproducing offspring!

Jian Yiling refused to answer this question.

She lowered her head and did not dare to look at Zhai Yunsheng.

"Oh? You've learned to avoid questions now?"

"No..." Jian Yiling said softly in protest.

After a while, Jian Yiling whispered to Zhai Yunsheng: "Then... What are you going to do? How are you going to make my uncle happy?"

"Just leave it to me. I will help solve this problem for you," Zhai Yunsheng assured Jian Yiling.

Early the next morning, Grandma Wen instructed her servants to begin preparing for dinner tonight.

The soup had to simmer for a few hours. In addition, the meat had to be marinated.

Grandma Wen paid special attention to her granddaughter's favorite dishes.

Although her granddaughter only left the Wen Residence for a few days, Grandma Wen already missed her.

To her surprise, she also received a call from her future grandson-in-law. He said that he would be bringing Yiling over for dinner later.

Upon hearing this, Grandma Wen hurriedly asked the kitchen to prepare a few more dishes.

Cai Qinyue and Wen Ruo arrived early in the afternoon.

"Grandpa, Grandma."

As soon as she saw her grandparents, Wen Ruo rushed into their arms.

Tears were about to flow out of her eyes as Grandma Wen hugged her granddaughter.

“Wen Ruo... My precious darling!”

“Grandma, I missed you so much! You missed you and Grandpa. I also miss my father!”

After hugging for a while, Grandpa Wen ushered them into the house.

Cai Qinyue continued to call Grandpa Wen and Grandma Wen “Father” and “Mother” respectively.

“Father, Mother, in the past few days, Wen Ruo constantly thought about you guys. She couldn’t even sleep well at night. She ended up losing quite a bit of weight.”

Upon hearing Cai Qinyue’s words, Grandma Wen felt even more sorry for her granddaughter.

“Ahhh, let me take a good look at you. You’re indeed so thin. I asked the kitchen to make your favorite soup!”

As she entered the living room of the Wen Residence, Cai Qinyue took a look around her. Everything was still the same as when she had left. Nothing had changed.

She and Wen Cheng had lived in this house for more than twenty years.

Then, Cai Qinyue recalled the small apartment where she and her daughter had lived in the past few days.

Previously, all her money had been swept away by the company that she had opened for her daughter. As the company had been sued, all her assets were frozen. As a result, she couldn’t take any of her money out.

As she was in a rush to get divorced with Wen Cheng, she did not care about the little money he had under his name back then. After all, he was about to be in debt.

She could only take away the gifts Wen Cheng had given her during all these years.

However, this was far from the lifestyle she was used to.

“Grandma, where is my father?” Wen Ruo asked.

“Your father left for work early in the morning. He’s expected to return late today,” Grandma Wen replied with a sigh.

“Grandma, can I wait until my father comes back?” Wen Ruo asked again.

Her voice was soft and cautious.
