

Silly Teen 22

Chapter 22

“Yeah, underhanded.” Xu Ying was repeatedly giving me confirmation, “Jin Chao, do you think your Uncle Chen, is really some very decent person? In his body, there is really no flaw at all? Although you are living with him, you simply don’t understand his full picture!”

Xu Ying’s words were more than enough to make me suddenly wary in my heart.

She went on and on, and I didn’t interrupt her for anything.

She told me that Uncle Chen, that is, Chen Daoming, was not actually the person I thought he was. As far as she said, Uncle Chen was actually a person who would do anything to achieve his goal. Such a person would make a good policeman. But also a very dangerous person all the same!

“Manager Xu, do you really think I would believe your side of the story just by saying that?” I asked her with a sneer.

But she was indifferent and said to me, “Since I am saying it, I don’t need you to believe me either. I’m just reminding you to be careful that one day, your Uncle Chen will even take advantage of you for some case.”

I listened to her words and my emotions flared up, “You’re just being conspiratorial! My Uncle Chen is not that kind of person at all!”

“If you have this attitude, there is nothing I can do for you.” Xu Ying lit her cigarette and said to me.

In my heart, Uncle Chen had always maintained a very tall, magnificent image.

Uncle Chen was a good policeman! This was also agreed by very many people. And as I listened to Shirt Xu Ying’s words that overturned my perception, I was instinctively very unconvinced. But Xu Ying didn’t care. She said that since I didn’t believe it, I should take a good look at the information, and there were still a few pages of content in the back, and she told me to finish reading it.

“You’ve read it all, right?” She asked me.

“Yeah.” I nodded.

She took the information away from my hands and put it back in her bag’s and explained to me that this man called Wah would be released from prison soon. With Wah’s hatred for Uncle Chan, as soon as he comes out, Uncle Chan will definitely be in great danger. Although Wah had been imprisoned for five or six years, his power had not diminished much.

I listened to her words, and although I didn’t quite believe her, I still had some worries.

“Manager Xu, why are you talking to me about this? It is reasonable to say that Uncle Chen has put an end to 1908, shouldn’t you want something to happen to him sooner!” I cautiously asked at Xu Ying.

But she smiled lightly and said.

“1908 has been in Xuancheng for so many years, if it was so easy to get into trouble, it would have been terminated by the police long ago. What do you think the sudden investigation of 1908 is because of? If I hadn't been in the middle as the obvious one, how could 1908 have been terminated so easily?”

“It was you?” I looked at her with great surprise, her words were something that I hadn't expected in any way.

She nodded gently.

“Yes, it was me. But behind this whole thing, there is Sister Aja at the controls. And the reason for this is also this man called 'Wah'. It can be said that we and your Uncle Chan are already grasshoppers on a rope. That's also why I took the initiative to find you and want to work with you.”

“Then how do you want to cooperate?”

I still didn't fully believe her words. But if what she said was true, then at least, we would all have the same stakes for a short time to come. And that, in turn, would determine whether they would stab me in the back.

“Cooperation is actually quite simple. You help me take care of Wah's wife, while I help you protect Uncle Chan.” She said, was looking at me with a very serious look, “Of course, if you want, I can help you take care of your offended people too! It's not even a problem after all.”

I listened to her words and fell silent for a moment.

To be honest, the fact that she was making an offer did appeal to me. She was simply grasping at what I was now worried about to 'satisfy' me. She knew, I'm afraid, that I would have said yes!

But feeling the look in her eyes, there was sadness in my heart.

In the end, me, Uncle Chen, and even Chen Tingting in prison too, had all become their pawns!

“I promise.”

I said through clenched teeth.

“Then, since it's a promise, don't look so bitter and hateful, too. We're allies now!” She said but smiled at me flirtatiously. Even though I had seen her from time to time at 1908, this one look from her made me suddenly feel something.

I was being stared at by her.

Even though I had been exposed to many women, I bowed my head in shyness. I asked her, changing the subject, what her plan was.

And Ao Tian was gently stirring the coffee in her cup and said to me indifferently, “Jin Chao, as for my plan, you should not know it for now. Before the plan starts, I will prepare the information and everything you want. Even, I will teach you something myself.”

“Let's say teach me what?”

I got curious instead.

“That you will know in time.” She didn’t say it explicitly.

But as I listened to her words, I felt even more in my heart that what she was going to teach me was in all probability related to women. What else could a woman like her, who could charm men into submission without even thinking about it, teach me? Even some of the tricks I used to seduce noblewomen in 1908 were taught to me by her!

“Well, it’s getting late, so you should go back and wait for my news.” With that, she stood up right in front of me. And with her getting up, she drew the eyes of many men.

“Oh yeah, before I leave, let me give you a little bonus.” She said to me abruptly as she looked at the text message she had received on her phone.

“What reward?”

I asked in a rush. Even more, I was straight up aroused deep in my body by her words.

“You and me come.”

She hooked a finger at me.

I followed her out of the shop and got into her BMW once again. She led me towards the corner of the city. As far as directions went, close to where I’d been beaten by Cog and the others earlier.

“Here it is.”

She motioned for me to get out of the car.

I looked around in confusion, I didn’t see any so-called ‘surprises’ other than the green trees lining the highway. And she was pulling over to the side of the road and just led me down a small alleyway.

“Manager Xu, what exactly is this surprise you speak of?” I was getting more and more curious in my heart.

“You’ll find out soon enough.”

She said without any hurry.

She led me to a three-storey house, a small warehouse-like place with red brick walls and red-painted iron doors. She reached out with her long fingers and knocked on the door. A voice came from inside, confirming her identity, and that opened the door.

And I looked at the scene in front of me and was literally frozen for a moment.

“Jinchao, this is the surprise I’m going to give you. How about it, do you like it?”
