

Silly Teen 38

Chapter 38

I looked at Xu Ying's number and picked it up straight away.

And Xu Ying called me out again, again to the Imperial Hotel, room 1908. The door was unlocked, so I pushed it open and saw Xu Ying on the big white bed, wearing a bathrobe, smoking a cigarette and crossing her legs.

Because of the alcohol, I looked at her white thighs exposed to the air, and even more blood rushed through me!

"What, can't hold it in again?" Xu Ying asked at me as she exhaled a smoke ring.

"I've just been drinking a bit." I said with a dry laugh. I didn't admit it, nor did I refute it. I was a bit confused. If Xu Ying wasn't going to give me a 'reward' at this stage, then why did she dress up in such a thought-provoking way both times I came over?

Doesn't she know that although I'm a student, I'm also a bloody teenage boy?

"So, should I call someone and help you out first. When you're done, we'll start again?" Xu Ying then asked at me.

I, on the other hand, shook my head, "I'd rather not. We'll start early and finish early."

But Xu Ying stood up afterwards and smiled faintly at me, "I advise you to give up this idea. Tonight, I definitely won't let you leave the hotel half a step!"

Her words were what made my heart suddenly jerk. Her offhanded words always got people thinking!

And for the rest of the night, still in a drunken stupor, I went at her pace. She continued to teach me things in order to make me better at seducing that so-called Wah's wife.

This may sound a bit ridiculous, but Xu Ying was taking it quite seriously. Even with twelve percent of her energy, she gave in to me.

As it was nearing dawn, she finally did let me lie in bed and rest for a while. My nerves, which had been tense all night, were finally relaxed somewhat.

But I didn't expect that I wouldn't be asleep for long before Xu Ying called me up again.

I opened my eyes in a daze and looked at her sitting beside me who was already dressed, "Manager Xu, still calling me up so early, what's the matter?"

"Okay, don't ask so many questions, just come with me!" Xu Ying said straight away.

"Alright then, wait for me to brush my teeth."

I said breathlessly.

After I followed Xu Ying out of the hotel, I sat in her BMW, watching her drive in the direction of my school, and thinking back to what she had said before, I got a little bit more mental: “Manager Xu, are you going to help me solve the matter of my dismissal?”

Xu Ying glanced at me, “I told you not to ask so many questions, but why can’t you control your mouth?”

As I listened to her, I felt even more like that was the case! I said excitedly, “Haha, if I can go back to school, you can make me do anything!”

“And what if I told you to die?”

“Eh, that’s even.”

“I happen to be joking as well.”

Xu Ying’s smile had a faint charm in it. I watched as she drove past the entrance to my school, only to ‘pass right by’ again! As I watched this scene, my original excitement calmed down.

I had gotten excited too soon!

Xu Ying didn’t say that she was going to take me to solve the matter of being expelled from the school, and as a result, I got ahead of myself!

“By the way Manager Xu, what did you bring me to the hospital for?” After I got out of the car, I asked at Xu Ying in confusion.

“Of course I brought you here to solve your most pressing problem!” Xu Ying gave me a blank look and said.

“How can I solve it in the hospital?”

I asked her curiously.

“Just follow me upstairs and you’ll know.” Xu Ying said, and walked ahead. I followed closely behind her, my mood that had calmed down only to have a fire flare up again because of her words.

She led me up to the fifth floor of the inpatient unit, and my mood became even more tense.

“This is it.”

Xu Ying said to me.

Puzzled, I followed her into the ward, only to see Guan Dongxuan’s father on a separate bed in the senior ward.

I literally froze for a moment!

“Little bastard, you still have the nerve to show up for me?” Guan Dongxuan’s father looked at me and his emotions flared up. He looked as if he wanted to undo the cast on his body and eat me alive.

“Chief Guan, calm down first, don’t get so excited.” With a word from Xu Ying, she drew Guan Dongxuan’s father’s attention.

“Who are you again?” Guan Dongxuan’s father asked, somewhat wary instead.

“It doesn’t matter what I am. What is important is Chief Guan, this little brother of mine wants to go back to school and would like Chief Guan to be a little more accommodating.” Xu Ying said with a flirtatious smile. I looked at her and even thought that she was planning to use her body in exchange for the chance to get me back to school.

But when I thought about it differently, it seemed unlikely! After all, Xu Ying was from 1908, so how could she sacrifice herself for such a ‘trivial’ matter!

“Want this bastard to go back to school? Not even a chance!” Guan Dongxuan’s father said with a cold snort.

“Chief Guan, don’t speak too soon, think about it again.” The corners of Xu Ying’s mouth still had that same smile on it. Guan Dongxuan’s father was obviously also seduced, but he just didn’t show it on the surface.

“There’s nothing to consider, you all get out of here!” Guan Dongxuan’s father still maintained his strong attitude.

But it was at this time that Xu Ying sat down right beside him. Her long, slender fingers gently slid along the plaster on Guan Dongxuan’s father’s body. And Guan Dongxuan’s father’s eyes were obviously moving with Xu Ying’s fingers!

It was when Guan Dongxuan’s father let his guard down that Xu Ying’s fingers suddenly flashed with a sharp edge! A sharp blade appeared right in front of Guan Dongxuan’s dad’s neck.

“You, what do you want?” Guan Dongxuan’s dad panicked all of a sudden.

“Chief Guan, you’re really forgetful. My purpose, didn’t I just say that?” Xu Ying clamped the blade, completely as if nothing was wrong: “But Chief Guan I advise you, if you don’t agree, then Chief Guan your official career, will soon wither like this flower, after a short bloom.”

And Xu Ying said, is clip the blade, gently cut off a flower in the flower basket, just put it between the nose and smell. The movement was very elegant!

“You’re threatening me?”

“Well, you can take that as a threat. After all, we, 1908, are not so easy to mess with!” Xu Ying declared her identity.

What she then did was to gently slap her hand towards Guan Dongxuan’s dad’s thigh. All of a sudden, Guan Dongxuan’s dad screamed out in pain.

I turned my head to see a large amount of blood flowing from Guan Dongxuan’s dad’s thigh.

“How’s that for consideration, Chief Guan?”
