

Silly Teen 46

Chapter 46

I saw the police appear at the door and was frozen raw. Subconsciously, I wanted to get up and run. After all, I was still wearing my school uniform and was still a minor. If I was caught online, I would be taken away directly to the police station and have my parents come and collect me!

The consequences of this are naturally clear to me.

“Chao, why are you so nervous all of a sudden?” Xu Dazhi, who was beside me, then asked at me.

“The police are here! Didn’t you all see it?” I said even more anxiously. I hurriedly tried to get out of my position, catty-cornered, and left the place through the back door.

But Xu Dazhi was looking at me with some amusement, “It’s okay Chao. If there was really a temporary inspection, the webmaster would have told us for sure. After all, which owner of an internet cafe in Xuancheng’s territory doesn’t have a background in the bureau!”

“Is it really all right?”

I said, still very worried.

“Really!” Xu Dazhi and I assured.

As I listened to him, even Cao Ge, who was beside me, stood up to me and told me that it was fine and that I should sit down and continue playing. I wasn’t sure about this set of rules for internet cafes, but I could see that the whole cafe was full of students who were surfing the internet and basically didn’t move, so it didn’t seem to make much sense for me to run alone.

And the police got to the front desk and talked to the internet manager, was staying there for quite some time, and seemed to be investigating something.

I saw that the police did not care about these students who were surfing the Internet in the Internet cafe, and also after the end of a plate, I dared to go to the front desk to see what was going on.

The police officers, who were not from my uncle’s office, I had never seen before. It was after I walked in, but I saw a set of photos in their hands. The person on it, however, made me freeze for a moment.

How could this be Guan Dongxuan?

What were these cops looking for Guan Dongxuan for?

“Wait, that’s him!”

The webmaster suddenly pointed at mine and said.

I was taken aback by his action and I subconsciously tried to hurry away. But the policeman, who was on the side, was also the first to stop me.

“Did you see this man in the photo yesterday?” One of the policemen showed the photo to me.

I nodded in the affirmative: “I’ve seen him. What happened to him?”

“Disappeared. A witness said he was abducted.” The policeman then gave me an explanation.

“Huh? Kidnapped?”

I froze raw.

As I listened to his words, I suddenly remembered the look in Mr. Lin’s eyes in the morning and suddenly understood somewhat what Mr. Lin’s look meant even more. What I was wondering was, if Guan Dongxuan had been kidnapped, why didn’t the police go to our school to look for clues, instead of coming to a place like an internet cafe.

The police looked at my reaction and hurriedly asked me what happened last night. And I told them what happened last night without any reservation.

Because there was surveillance as evidence, it also proved that me, Cao Ge, Zhao Yangbo and the others, had a full alibi for the time when Guan Dongxuan was kidnapped.

“What’s wrong Brother Chao?” Xu Dazhi asked as he saw me being stopped by the police and came up afterwards.

“Guan Dongxuan has been kidnapped.”

I then gave an explanation to Xu Dazhi. Xu Dazhi also froze in his tracks after hearing my words. I’m afraid he too hadn’t expected anything like this to happen in any way. And at this stage, the police didn’t have many clues yet either; they still had to learn more through our accounts.

“And Guan Dongxuan was kidnapped?” Cao Ge, who had heard the news, also came over and asked, puzzled.

“Yeah, and it was last night, too. It was shortly after he and his cousin left here. The police said that his cousin was even hospitalised straight away by those robbers from last night.” I then gave an explanation to Cog. And in my mind, I was puzzled. I thought to myself, “Could this be the work of Guan Dongxuan’s enemies?”

The matter between me and Guan Dongxuan was already considered to be basically settled. There was absolutely no need for Xu Ying to do this!

“That’s all we know. Sorry ah, can’t give you any favourable clues.” I said, looking apologetically at the policeman on the side.

“It’s okay, and we’d like to thank you for your cooperation.” That’s what the cop said.

“You guys are still high school students, so you have nothing to do with coming to places like internet cafes, okay?” The policeman on the side reminded in a very serious way.

“Got it.” I listened to his words and was nodded down in affirmation.

I watched the policeman’s departure and sat down on the stool in the internet cafe, no longer in the mood to play games. I spoke to Cao Ge and the others, and went to the toilet to call Xu Ying. With what had happened to Guan Dongxuan now, I was also afraid that what had happened in the hospital yesterday would be exposed as a result.

However, after Xu Ying heard my worries, she told me not to worry so much.

As for who had kidnapped Guan Dongxuan and what the purpose of this was, she did not know at the moment. But after all, it was none of my business, so she told me not to worry so much about it.

After we came out of the Internet cafe, I looked at the person who passed in front of me and was really frozen. Looking at her, it was obvious that she had bought something in the area and was ready to go to school. She noticed mine too, and between turns of her head, it was to see me coming out of the internet cafe.

She had two cupcakes in her hand and was looking at me with a stony look in her eyes.

“Ya, isn’t this sister-in-law? Hello sister-in-law!” Xu Dazhi walked out behind me and greeted Guo Xuefu without taking it seriously.

But when Guo Xuefu heard this, she had a very angry look on her face and turned around and walked away straight away. She walked away very quickly. It was clear that when she had lunch with me at noon, she had just said something like that to me, warning me. But here we were, an hour or so later.

I was so embarrassed.

I wanted to go after her, but that was when Cao Ge, who was beside me, gave me a sudden tug to stop me from going after her.

“Chao, come here with me for a moment.”

Cao Ge said to me in a very serious manner.

“What’s wrong Cao?”

I asked, looking at him in confusion.

The two of us were standing aside, and with a cigarette in his mouth, he looked at Guo Xue-fu’s back and just said to me, “Ah Chao, do you still remember when we first met, because of what?”

“Remember.” I nodded the affirmative down.

“Then do you remember what my men, who were under me, said at the time?” Cog then continued to ask me.

“What did they say and what does it have to do with it?” I froze for a moment, I could hear a few bad tones in his tone of voice.

“Of course it has something to do with it!”

Cao Ge nodded very seriously and solemnly and said, “Chao. If you are interested in this woman, I suggest that you, better give up on her and stay away from her. I’m very worried that if you continue to be close to this woman, you will be screwed by her one day!”
