

Silly Teen 73

Chapter 73

It's the first time I've ever gotten five kills!

In the end, it was too many minions and I didn't get killed by the spring, instead I ran out. We sued the opposite side of the base and ended the game. And I turned my head to look at Cao Ge, and I was so excited.

I, a person who had only been exposed to this game for a mere ten days or so, had driven the pace of the game!

"Ah Chao, I told you that you can Carry the whole game!" Cao Ge laughed once and lit up a Furong Wang.

"Chao, the wave of five kills you just did was just ++++ ——— too handsome!" Cao Ge's little brother was complimenting me from the sidelines.

"What's wrong what's wrong?"

Guo Xiaoming, who was on the side, then asked at me.

"Chao just took us to play the platinum game, not only did he Carry the whole game, he also overpowered and killed five people!" Brother Cao's little brother gave a very excited explanation.

"Holy sh*t Chao, you are now able to Carry even platinum games?" Guo Xiaoming looked at me with a blank stare.

"Just lucky."

I said with a dry laugh.

"You don't call that luck, do you? It's simply an operation explosion!" Cao Ge looked at me with amusement and said.

"Chao, do you have time to take me, a gold one, to platinum?" Guo Xiaoming looked at me very attentively.

"Go go go, go play aside. I'm still planning to rush for a bit of platinum 2 today, I can't give up Chao to you." Cao Ge just smiled and refused for me. When Guo Xiao Ming heard this, he gave a sarcastic laugh. He also put the game in his hand and stood right beside us.

He said he was coming over to observe me in action, but he was also the one who disrupted my rhythm in the process.

Guo chattered away and kept making all sorts of noises to disrupt my concentration too. Even Cao's friend, on the other end of the voice, was a little too much for me. I had no choice but to push Guo Xiaoming to the side and let him find a corner to sit in first.

After the new start of the second game, I continued to pick the fielding position and carried the pace of the whole game.

As the afternoon thought on, we were close to being on a winning streak, also carrying Cao Ge's account towards the Platinum 2 ranking.

"Platinum 2 now!" Cao Ge also said with a long sigh of relief.

"My hands are going limp." I couldn't stop rubbing the back of my hand. The muscles on the back of my hand had been in a state of high tension due to the rapid operation, and only now were they relaxed.

"It's about time, let's go out for dinner." Cao Ge suggested.

"Sure, it's my treat today. We've made so much money today anyway!" I said with a chuckle. Since there was Guo Xiaoming's participation in it, I discussed with him and simply took the money out and treated Cao Ge and the others to a meal, and saved any extra for the next cigarette purchase.

"Good, good, today Boss Chao is treating us, we're going to rip him off hard. Right? Brothers!" Cao Ge then smiled, asking the crowd for their opinion.

"Yeah!" The crowd laughed and agreed.

I said indifferently, "It's okay. There's only nearly ten of us anyway, how much can we eat?"

"Maybe until you go bankrupt!"

Cao said with a laugh.

We were talking and laughing and we just left the internet cafe. Since Cao Ge knew of a good stall nearby, we didn't ride our bikes. As a group of us walked in the evening dusk, it touched my heart quite a bit. Looking back, I used to walk by myself.

But at this time, beside me, there were Cao Ge and Guo Xiaoming and the others. It also at least gave me a sense of clock filling.

As a group of us sat in the stall, the owner of the shop came out with the menu. She walked around, but swayed a pair of plump buttocks, attracting the eyes. As Guo Xiaoming watched, he couldn't help but be a little dumbfounded, his eyes completely following the boss lady's body and moving.

Liu Bingbing on the side noticed the scene and pinched Guo Xiaoming.

Guo Xiaoming screamed out in pain.

And every move between them was watched by us, moreover, it made us laugh.

"A few people, order what you want to eat oh yourself. Today's meat, all just bought in the morning, very fresh." The boss lady speaks between, but with a mature female flavor, but also has been a human – wife kind of charm.

"Let's say what kind of meat are there?"

Cao Ge asked with a harsh laugh.

"Pork, beef, mutton and rabbit too, depending on how you want to eat it." The boss lady gave a serious explanation.

“And is there any human meat?”

Cao Ge blinked at the boss’s wife.

The boss lady’s face instantly turned red: “What are you talking about! We are a regular shop here, how can we have human meat!” With that, she threw the menu on the table and told us to order it ourselves. And what Cao Ge said about ‘human flesh’ was just flirting with the boss’s wife.

What Cao Ge was implicitly saying was actually asking the boss’s wife: Are we going out? And when he asked such a question, could the boss lady not blush and run away!

“Brother Cao, you’re really something. You dare to talk to the boss’s wife like that, you’re not afraid that the boss will come out and beat you up.” Guo Xiaoming said with a hahaha laugh.

“What are you afraid of? This boss’s wife is just a little widow, I’ve even asked her out before!” Cao Ge said smugly instead.

“That’s fine Brother Cao! How does the boss’s wife feel?” Guo Xiaoming smiled, his eyes narrowed into a line.

“That ass is simply great.”

Cao Ge said, with an even more reminiscent anon.

“Ahem. There are girls at the table.” I said with a dry laugh. And it was between Guo Xiaoming and Cao Ge talking, Liu Bingbing on the side was lowering her head. The big-hearted Liu Bingbing had a somewhat shy look on her face, which made me laugh a little.

After I reminded them, they all noticed Liu Bingbing’s state and laughed.

After we ordered the food, the boss’s wife had the waiter bring it up.

The meal, because of the drinking, went from nearly half past six to nine o’clock. Guo Xiaoming did send Liu Bingbing off first. But whether they went home or not, only they knew. Since Cao Ge and the others were already drunk, I just took a taxi back by myself.

When I was in the car, I suddenly felt some pain in my stomach, so I got out and bought a bottle of yogurt.

As I was still some distance away from the entrance of the district, I carried the yoghurt in my hand and walked back. But as I was walking, I had a vague feeling that someone was following me. I turned around and saw that there were really five or six people behind me. I felt even worse as I watched their aggressive approach.

And one of them was someone I had seen only this afternoon!

It was that so-called Fatty Zhu!

“Jin Chao, come here for a moment, I’m looking for you for something.” Fatty Zhu then waved at me.

And for him to appear here, surely, was no coincidence!

He must have deliberately come here to squat on me!
