

Silly Teen 88

Chapter 88

When I looked at Xu Ying, I really wanted to beat her up. Although she was pretty, she was simply a woman with a snake's heart. Although she just looked soft on the surface, what she was showing was simply heartless!

I clenched my fists.

I had already done what Xu Ying had said, but Xu Ying wanted me to do it again. How could I accept this! Besides, this was my teacher! The same teacher who had helped me and treated me so well!

"Jinchao, what are you still doing? Hurry up and do it again, let's finish!" Xu Ying urged me.

"You"

"What's wrong with me?"

"Nothing!"

I said so, and in front of me, Ms. Lin, once again, pounced on my body. The drug Xu Ying had given her was extremely potent. Just once, it wouldn't solve it at all. Having done it once, I could only repeat it a second time, just as she had said.

But the process was unbearably torturous inside me.

I could only do what I didn't like mechanically, just as I did then at 1908!

Xu Ying was directing me from the side, making me cooperate with some humiliating actions. Even though I didn't want to, I had to do it. After it was over, I was relieved and finally stopped, but Miss Lin beside me did not relent.

She continued to wriggle her body, all as if she hadn't been satisfied yet.

"Manager Xu, how on earth is the drug you've administered going to completely relieve it!" I looked at her with a frown.

"I don't know."

She shrugged at me instead.

"You use something that you don't know about?" I was even more anxious.

"It works just fine, why do I need to know so much?" She smiled flirtatiously, not taking it seriously at all, "What's wrong Jin Chao, are you worried about your Teacher Lin?" As I listened to her words, I didn't want to respond to her even more. After all, what she said was even more nonsense!

She looked at me without responding, but just laughed.

"Jinchao, you stay here for now, I'm leaving." She put away the camera and was ready to leave.

“By the way, your Miss Lin obviously still has needs, take good care of her.” She dropped these words and then turned to leave. But at this point, I was at a loss for words as I looked at Miss Lin in front of me. I wanted to call an ambulance, but I didn’t dare!

If I called a doctor, they would definitely get the police involved. I was afraid that I would be in a lot of trouble then!

But if I didn’t call a doctor, I would have to continue in this ‘way’, helping Ms. Lin to ease the effects of the medicine. Again, I find myself unable to do it!

“Well I want more.” Ms. Lin grabbed me, her body soft and boneless, but it made me feel even more guilty.

“Ms. Lin, wake up, don’t go on like this!” I patted her face gently.

But instead of doing something, she took the initiative and met me.

Feeling her move, I even hurriedly pushed her away and also rushed out of the bathroom afterwards. Although I had had that kind of thing with Ms. Lin earlier, her reaction at that moment still made me scare and also run away!

I sat on the sofa and smoked.

Everything in the room was very flashy and tasteful. It was so clean all around that I didn’t even dare to flick the ashes around at random. I had never really thought before that Mr. Lin, who rode his electric bike to work every day, would live in a place like this.

If word of this got out, Wah would kill me, I’m afraid!

My mind was completely engrossed in this.

She quietly appeared behind me and wrapped herself around me just as I noticed her. I hurriedly dodged out of the way, but she looked at me with sultry eyes as well.

“Jinchao, what are you hiding from na?” Teacher Lin still hadn’t regained full consciousness.

“I’m not hiding.” I responded, taken aback.

“And you said no!”

Ms. Lin’s voice came in a hushed voice.

“I really didn’t!” That was all I could say, and I hesitated, “Teacher Lin, I’d better take you to the hospital first. You’re in such a state”

But Ms. Lin interrupted me, “I’m fine!”

But the more she said she was fine at this point, the more worried she made me. I just had to pull her up from the couch, and even though I was worried about the consequences, I had to take her to the hospital. I didn’t want anything to happen because of Xu Ying’s medication.

In the process, the delirious Teacher Lin even put her hand down my trousers.

“Teacher Lin!” I shouted in a hurry.

“It’s okay.” Ms. Lin said.

But if she had been sane, she would have slapped me across the face. I had done something like that, and now I was pretending to be a good person and taking her to the hospital. This made me laugh at myself.

I had done what I had done, but why pretend to be a good person?

I hurriedly hailed a taxi and dropped Ms. Lin off. Because of her obstruction, it even made me waste a lot of effort.

“Where to?” The driver asked at me.

“The First City Hospital.” I replied.

“Young man, is this your friend? Why does it seem a bit wrong should not be drugged?” The driver’s brother asked right at me through the rear view mirror.

“Yeah.” I nodded down in the affirmative. After all, things like being drugged were on display in plain sight!

“Well, in that case, I’ll have to speed things up a bit. Young man, sit tight!” The driver, who was also a warm-hearted man, drove us as fast as he could to the hospital entrance. I didn’t hesitate to pay the money. He said he would help me take Mr. Lin in.

And for that, I declined.

In her current state, how could Teacher Lin let another man get close?

“Doctor, doctor!” I rushed into the emergency room with Ms. Lin in tow.

“What’s going on here?” The doctor hurriedly asked as soon as he took Miss Lin from me.

I explained.

“Let me see.” The doctor said, and examined Teacher Lin: “The extent of this is a bit serious!”

“What should I do then?”

I put my hopes on him.

“We’ll take care of it, you go downstairs and pay for it first.” The doctor then came up with the usual line. He didn’t mean to detach me either. There were other female nurses present in the ward. I didn’t want to have any other accidents at this juncture.

It took less than five minutes to rush down from the fifth floor and come up after paying.

By the time I returned, the doctor had already sedated Ms. Lin and put her to sleep first.

“Let’s take the patient to have her stomach pumped first, to wash out the medicine in her stomach.”
The doctor then said.

“Stomach lavage? Is it going to be that serious?”

I was rather taken aback.
