

Chapter 91

I looked at the bald man standing on the podium and my whole body froze for a moment. He also noticed me and gave me a smile. And I turned my head towards Guo Xuefu, who nodded at me, obviously, she already knew the news before me.

And our new 'Teacher Zheng' was simply Wah!

It wasn't hard to guess the purpose of his appearance here. In all, there were three sides. They were Mr. Lin, Guo Xue-fu and also more so me.

Just at this point, does he already know what happened last night? Did he show up here to get back at me?

I don't know! I really don't know!

"Hello, students. I'm your new PE teacher, my name is Zheng Hua." He then greeted us, but the focus of his eyes was even more on me, which made me even more vain.

"Teacher Zheng, is this bald head of yours a congenital thing, or did you make it that way on purpose?"

"Teacher Zheng, this hot day, why are you still wearing long sleeves?" The people in our class, led by Xu Dazhi, actually flirted with Hua. If they knew what Hua Chai used to do, even if they lent them a hundred guts, they would definitely not dare to do so.

The arrival of Wah Chai also surprised Xu Da Zhi and the others.

After all, the time they helped Wah, Xu Dazhi and the others were present.

"Haha, you guys know the reason why I'm wearing long sleeves." Wah obviously also had an impression of Xu Da Zhi and said in a joking tone as well.

"It's some kind of ulterior motive, right!" Xu Dazhi went even further up the pole.

"Okay, okay, you guys don't tease the new teacher either. Catch up on your morning reading and I'll take Mr. Zheng to get familiar with the office first." The English teacher said, and led Hua out. And at this point, it was clearly no longer appropriate to call him Wah.

But I also felt that it was always a bit strange to call him 'Mr. Zheng'.

After thinking about it, I decided to call him by Zheng Hua, by his full name, for the time being.

It was after Zheng Hua and the English teacher had left that Xu Dazhi came up beside me. He smiled thievishly and looked at me, "Brother Chao, it's OK! We're helping out, and we're actually helping out the new teacher! It'll be better to talk if you want to miss class in the future."

"It's not as easy as you think!" I said, giving him a blank look.

"But no matter what, this new teacher, Mr. Zheng, has to show us a few favours anyhow. Brother Chao, don't you think so!" Xu Dazhi said in disbelief.

“Who knows.”

I responded absentmindedly.

I told Xu Dazhi to hurry back to his position so that he wouldn't be seen scurrying about when the section chief came over to do his rounds later. I wrote a note and, instead of pretending I didn't know, I asked Guo Xuefu, “Xuefu, how did Hua come to be a teacher at the school?”

It took Guo Xuefu a while to pass me back, “It seems to be because of his girlfriend before he went in.”

I followed up by rushing her and asking if she knew who Zheng Hua's girlfriend was.

And she then was turning her head and shrugging with me. She responded in this way, telling me that she didn't know.

Between my thoughts, I was sitting in my seat.

If Guo Xuefu knew that Zheng Hua's ex-girlfriend, was our teacher Lin. Then her expression would have been the same as mine yesterday, absolutely astonished.

I couldn't concentrate on my lessons for the whole morning.

But it was also a night that went by and surprisingly nothing happened. Teacher Lin didn't come, the police didn't arrive at the school, and Uncle Chen didn't call to question me about ..... everything.

“Jinchao, do you have something to do later?” It was almost time for school to end when Guo Xuefu texted me instead.

“No, what's wrong?”

I asked her suspiciously.

“Brother A-hwa is inviting us to dinner, are we going together?” Guo Xuefu then asked me.

“Go, of course I'm going!”

I said yes with great enthusiasm, but in my heart I felt that the lunch was just a banquet!

After school, Zheng Hua picked us up at the door of our class.

He was wearing a black long-sleeved shirt and jeans to hide the tattoos on his body.

“Just tell me what you guys want to eat, and don't ever be polite to me. I'm not familiar with any of the restaurants in this part of the school, so I definitely can't introduce you guys to anything good.” On the corner of Zheng Hua's mouth was a smile, and he asked right at Guo Xuefu and me.

It was just his reaction that made me a little strange.

I didn't seem to sense anything wrong from him either! On the contrary, it was perfectly normal!

“I know a good one by the side, I even went there with Jin Chao last time.” Guo Xuefu then said as he stepped forward.

“Then lead the way!”

Zheng Hua said with great interest.

The three of us sat down at the stir-fry restaurant and ordered some random dishes. Zheng Hua told us not to help him save money, but to order the more expensive ones. His words drew a silvery laugh from Guo Xuefu. After all, in this small shop, the most expensive dish was only twenty to thirty dollars.

For the three of us down alone, even if we ordered all the meat, it would still be an expense of nearly sixty.

“Wow, enough to eat and drink and get ready for class this afternoon!” Zheng Hua stretched as soon as he walked out of the stir-fry shop.

“Right oh, you’re going to be in our class gym class this afternoon.” Guo Xuefu gave a cheeky smile.

“Yeah, I have to show my drive to teach you guys, otherwise I’m sorry!” Zheng Hua laughed harshly.

“Forget it brother A-hwa, you’d better not show your drive.” Guo Xuefu then said.

Zheng Hua looked at her with some confusion, “Why?”

Guo Xuefu rolled her eyes, “Brother Hua, I’m not good at sports, it’s not like you don’t know that!”

“Haha!”

“Brother A-hwa, you’re even laughing at me ..... nasty!” Guo Xuefu looked more like she was pouting in front of him.

The three of us walked in the direction of the school.

Since it was still early, we sat at the milk tea shop for a while.

But even though it was close to class, Zheng Hua surprisingly still didn’t show anything.

Instead, he asked at me, “Jin Chao, why do I feel that you are a bit weird today?”

“It’s just that I didn’t rest well last night.”

I explained even more perfunctorily.

“But didn’t you say that something happened last night?” Guo Xuefu then added to my words.

“What happened? Do you want my help!” Zheng Hua even looked at me.

“No, no need.”

I responded very sheepishly.

“It’s okay Jinchao. If you run into any problems, I will definitely help you as long as I can.” Zheng Hua then assured in front of me and Guo Xuefu.

In response, I did nod and agreed.

I said I wanted to go for a walk, and Guo Xuefu reminded me very seriously that I should stop going to internet cafes.
