

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 102

It was not long before Chen Hao reached his college.

He immediately ran toward his faculty's classroom.

However, the moment he arrived at the West entrance, many people had already gathered there.

There were so many students from different faculties that they nearly blocked the entire passageway.

Chen Hao saw Yang Hui and the rest of his gang standing amongst the crowd. Hence, he made his way toward them.

Only then he saw the source of all this commotion.

He saw a girl holding up a sign at the West entrance, looking small and insignificant.

She had her head buried low.

However, Chen Hao recognized her with a glance. Who could it be other than Hao Lanlan?

Meng Cairu, Jiang Weiwei—who was the President of the department's student council—and Wang Yang were standing beside her.

At this moment, they were taking photos of Hao Lanlan as if she was just a background!

"Chen Hao, you're here! Doesn't this make you angry?!"

Yang Hui patted Chen Hao on his shoulder and said angrily, "Hao Lanlan is facing some difficulties but our tutor is crossing the line. If she truly wanted to organize a fundraising, she could just do so in another way. Why did she have to ask Hao Lanlan to hold up a sign and stand in front of everyone?!"

Li Rui said, "If it weren't for all the hype around it, how could our faculty become famous? Take a look, our tutor, Wang Yang and Jiang Weiwei have been busy helping out Hao Lanlan the entire afternoon! They wanted Hao Lanlan to stand there so that they could show off their efforts!"

"This incident has caught the attention of the college. They said something about paying extra attention to this matter and helping their students through these difficult times!"

Actually, those who knew the inside story were furious about this matter.

To outsiders, they would have thought that this girl looked pitiful. She was willing to stand in front of the crowd in order to raise some money for her younger sister's medical expenses as her family was too poor.

It was just too pitiful!

Hence, a lot of people were willing to donate.

However, the insiders knew that it was all Meng Cairu's idea. When Hao Lanlan returned to school, she had asked Meng Cairu for help in the morning.

In the end, Meng Cairu came out with this idea. If Hao Lanlan did not do what she wanted, she would not help her.

"Director Zhang, you're here!" Meng Cairu shook hands with a bald middle-aged guy. He then put 200 into the donation box.

"Director Zhang, let's take a photo together!"

"Ok, ok, ok!"

Snap!

Both of them had their pictures taken together.

"Hey, Zhang Tao, Wang Ming, you guys came!"

At this moment, Wang Yang's friends came over. They appeared smug. They were from the faculty next door and friends with student council members.

"Of course!"

After uttering those words, several of them donated a few hundred.

Afterward, they took a picture together.

Below the stage, Chen Hao saw the same thing happen a few times and noticed that this process was carried out all throughout the donation.

How was this considered a donation? They treated this like a show to bring honor to their class!

Chen Hao was so angry that his face turned red.

Chen Hao felt a mixture of pity and guilt for Hao Lanlan, who looked ashen.

He was the first to know about Hao Lanlan's situation. She believed in him, which was why she told him about her difficulties.

He had even advised her and gave her some hope.

However over the next few days, he did not make it in time to help her out of her situation, and that had led her to this point.

It wasn't because Chen Hao was a saint or anything, but every time Chen Hao saw this kind of situation, he would think of himself. It was as if he was experiencing it personally.

He had to do something. If this continued to go on, Hao Lanlan might not have the desire to live anymore!

Thinking about this, Chen Hao broke away from the crowd and shoved Wang Yang aside, who was having his picture taken. Then he grabbed the paper plaque that Hao Lanlan was holding and threw it onto the ground.

“Chen Hao, you!” Hao Lanlan cried out hoarsely. Obviously, she had cried many times before this.

“Hao Lanlan, you don’t have to be their background for the photos. If they wanted to help you sincerely, they wouldn’t treat you that way. I will help you out with your financial issues. Let’s go back to class!” Chen Hao said with anger.

There were still a lot of good people in this world. They would definitely lend a helping hand if they saw someone in a difficult position.

However, Meng Cairu took advantage of this situation to boost her ego, which was unbelievable!

“Chen Hao, are you mad?” Jiang Weiwei glared angrily at Chen Hao. When had he become so bold?

“Chen Hao, do you know what you just said? I am warning you. Leave immediately, if not an expulsion letter will be sent to you!”

Meng Cairu was a prideful person.

When she heard Chen Hao ridiculing them, she immediately retaliated.

Wang Yang was even more furious.

“You poor loser! Do you think that you are so high and mighty after winning the lottery ticket? How dare you f*cking shove me?!”

After uttering those words, Wang Yang grabbed Chen Hao by his hair and slapped him on the face.

He was definitely someone with a huge temper. Since his family was so rich, nobody had dared treat him like this before!

On the other hand, how could Chen Hao compare to him in terms of strength?

His face was burning with pain!

“Ah! Don’t fight anymore! Wang Yang, I beg you, please don’t hit Chen Hao! I don’t want this donation anymore, please don’t hit him!”

Hao Lanlan was scared out of her wits. She quickly tried to stop Wang Yang. After all, she was the reason why they started the fight.

“Get lost! How dare you touch me, you poor losers!” Wang Yang roared.

He was about to launch himself at Chen Hao again.

Slam!

Suddenly, Wang Yang felt like he was blacking out. A red object came flying straight at his face and it came down upon him again and again!

Chen Hao had picked up a brick and was smashing his head with it!

He had used a huge amount of force.

The brick had shattered.

“Ugh!”

Wang Yang covered his head and lay on the ground moaning in pain.

“Ah! They’re fighting!”

The crowd started to panic.

Jiang Weiwei and Meng Cairu were scared out of their wits.

Chen Hao was just too vicious!

“Damn! Did this poor loser hit Wang Yang?”

“Does he not want to live anymore? Does he know who Wang Yang’s father is? He is one of the most influential figures in this area!”

“That’s it, he can never stay in this college anymore!”

“What do you mean stay?! If the school expelled him, I believe that he would not even make it out alive to Jin Ling Railway Station!”

The crowd was shocked. After all, in their eyes, you just could not offend some people. The moment you did, you were doomed for your entire life.

“Wang Yang, are you ok?”

“You b*stard, how dare you hit me! Give my uncle a phone call quickly. I want his entire family dead!”

“Of course Wang Yang, we won’t let this b*stard get away with it!”

“Wang Yang, you are bleeding, there’s so much blood!” Some girls sobbed.

The girls instantly surrounded him and helped him up, distressed.

All of them were glaring at Chen Hao.

In their eyes, Wang Yang was a precious person. He was rich and handsome. The person in front of them was a total loser. He should die ten thousand times for beating up Wang Yang!

“Damn it! I will never let him get away with this. Bring me to the hospital first. I will give my father a call!” Wang Yang’s injuries were quite serious. At the very least, he had suffered a concussion. He spat viciously as he was carted away into an ambulance.

“Chen Hao, just you wait!”

Chen Hao, on the other hand...

Haha! Wait? Wait for my ass!

To be honest, Chen Hao had long wanted to beat up Wang Yang!

In the past, he was ordered around by the student council to run errands. If he were to do it too slowly, he would be kicked and slapped by Wang Yang multiple times.

For example, the first time he met Su Tongxin in the lecture hall, Wang Yang wanted to beat him up for dirtying her shoes. If she hadn’t stopped him, wouldn’t Wang Yang have beaten him up?

Even though he didn’t talk about it, it was still deeply etched in Chen Hao’s memories.

When he heard Wang Yang screaming that Hao Lanlan and him were two poor losers, Chen Hao’s fury was ignited. You were running back and forth for Hao Lanlan’s sake just now, however, I don’t think you ever treated her as a human being!

Hence, Chen Hao just felt around, picked up a brick and smashed it into his head. It was indeed an exhilarating feeling!

“Hmph, Chen Hao, you are really something! Let’s see how you continue your studies in the future! Weiwei, come to the dean’s office with me now. Before Wang Yang’s father gets here, we need to get this issue sorted. If not, knowing Wang Yang’s father, he would definitely blow it up!”

“Ok, Miss Meng!”

Jiang Weiwei shook her head wordlessly as she looked at Chen Hao.

As if saying, You are doomed...????????????????
