

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 109

“Sir, we really can’t accommodate you. The dishes have been served to the customers inside.”

“Damn, you’re still rejecting us? Do you know who is treating us today? I’ll give you three minutes! If you can’t settle this within three minutes, believe it or not, I will call your manager!” the guy said haughtily.

“Ok, I’ll try!”

The female waitress quickly entered the room and told them the entire situation.

Chen Lin and the rest of them were reluctant to do so.

Who did these people think they are? We’re here first! Furthermore, we’ve already taken our seats and we’re in the middle of eating. How could they ask us to move just because they wanted this room?

Just who did they think they were?

“No way! Tell them that we won’t be moving!”

Chen Lin’s expression was cold and her temper started to flare.

“Hmph! I want to see who has the guts to defy Young Master Zhou!”

The door to the private room flew open and a group of people barged in.

Based on their imposing manner, it seemed that they wanted to start a fight.

Now everybody’s attention was focused on Ma Fei.

To be honest, an ordinary rich second generation heir would not be afraid of Ma Fei at all.

At this moment, everybody was looking at Ma Fei with hopes in their eyes. After all, Ma Fei was part of the Jin Ling Commercial Street community.

Ma Fei cleared his throat and stood up.

“My dear friends, I reserved this place first. Of course, we definitely won’t move as there is no reason for us to do so. Why don’t I treat all of you to a meal in Homecook Kitchen Restaurant the next time you come to Jin Ling Commercial Street?”

Ma Fei was calm and steady. He only smiled indifferently.

His speech was quite eloquent. Not only did he convey his standpoint, he even indirectly expressed that he had connections in Jin Ling Commercial Street.

“Damn! How dare everyone use Jin Ling Commercial Street as their guise? Do you think I do not have powerful, good friends in the Commercial Street just because I am not from Jin Ling?”

At this moment, somebody walked in with his hands in his pockets and scoffed.

“Young Master Zhou? It’s you!”

When Ma Fei saw this guy, his rigidity immediately turned into adulation.

Even Li Shihan gave him a slight glance.

The person standing in front of him was Young Master Zhou, also known as Zhou Ze. He studied in Jiang Nan College and was a very rich person. Lately, he had been hanging out with Young Master Bai a lot.

Some time ago, Young Master Zhou had attended a cruise ship gathering. Rumor had it that he had gotten acquainted with one of the big shots there.

How could it not surprise them? Young Master Zhou was definitely not an ordinary rich second generation heir.

“Huh? You actually recognized me?” Zhou Ze smiled casually.

“How could I not? I hung out with Kun before this and he knows you.”

Ma Fei looked cautious. Where did all his loftiness go?

“Damn, you are one of Kun’s friends. I came here for a meal. Do you have a problem with giving up this room for me?” Zhou Ze sneered.

“No way, I would never dare do that. However, Young Master Zhou, as you can see, we have already started our meals. Could you spare me some dignity here?”

“F*ck, how dare you talk about dignity in front of me. Are you going to move or not?” Zhou Ze was getting impatient.

Ma Fei gulped.

The rest of the people gulped as well.

They could never cross Young Master Zhou.

Ma Fei’s connections in Jin Ling Commercial Street was useless. He could not use it to bargain with Young Master Zhou. Young Master Zhou only needed to breathe a word to Young Master Bai and Ma Fei would immediately be kicked out of Commercial Street.

Although Ma Fei felt as if his dignity was shredded into pieces, he still gritted his teeth and said, “Ok, we will move, we will definitely move!”

“Oh my God, there is so much food here. How do we move?” At this moment, Chen Lin pouted.

She acted like a tigress just now.

She spoke the same words as before, but this time she sounded like a little lamb.

“We should let Chen Hao bring the dishes to the other room to make some space for Young Master Zhou!” said one of the girls.

“Ok, so be it!” Ma Fei and the rest of them nodded their heads.

On the other hand, Zhou Ze was a little dumbstruck.

Chen Hao?

At this moment, he looked toward the young man who was sitting with his back toward him. He was quietly eating the dishes.

To be honest, when Zhou Ze entered just now, he did glance at Chen Hao for a moment, and he felt that Chen Hao looked familiar.

However, he snapped out of his stupor after somebody called out Chen Hao’s name.

He walked toward Chen Hao to take a closer look at him.

He nearly gave out a high-pitched scream.

Wasn’t this Chen Hao, also known as Young Master Chen?!

“Ch-Chen Hao, you are here!”

When he recalled Bai Xiaofei’s reminder a few days ago, Zhou Ze started to tremble as he said those words.

Several of his good-for-nothing friends who were standing behind him had seen Chen Hao before. They were so surprised that they were rendered speechless.

Who knew that Young Master Chen would be here? He was even hanging out with this bunch of people!

“Huh? Young Master Zhou, do you know this poor loser?” At this moment, Ma Fei said in surprise.

Unbeknownst to him, when Zhou Ze said Chen Hao’s name, Ma Fei and a lot of the guys present there were green with envy. Why had Young Master Zhou recognized Chen Hao but not them?

Why?!

“It’s none of your business. Damn it, get lost!”

When Zhou Ze heard Ma Fei addressing Chen Hao as a poor loser, he was instantly furious.

He scolded Ma Fei until his face was flushed.

“Oh, Zhou Ze, it’s you. We met each other once when I went to your college. By the way, have you found your ticket yet?” Chen Hao set his chopsticks down and asked casually.

He intentionally changed the story a little.

“Oh yes, I found it! Thank you Chen Hao, I am really grateful for your help!”

Zhou Ze bent 90 degrees forward. This was a joke! After all, he was so respectful in front of Young Master Bai, how could he show any less respect for Young Master Chen?

“Thanks, Chen Hao!”

The rest of his good-for-nothing friends also bowed down and showed him their gratitude.

It was a greeting to Chen Hao.

“You’re welcome. Then, Young Master Zhou, could you give me some face and use other rooms?”

“Of course, of course!”

Zhou Ze did not know what Chen Hao was doing here. However, he would obey whatever orders that Chen Hao gave him. After a few more exchanges, he immediately left with everyone else.

The room returned to its previous quietness because at this moment, everybody was staring dumbfoundedly at Chen Hao. How could a poor loser like him have this kind of connection? How was it even possible?

“Chen Hao, how do you know... this Young Master Zhou? And why did he thank you?”

Chen Lin was the most frustrated of them all. Hence, she quickly asked the question.

“Oh, that was because I found the bus tickets that he lost the last time !”

What?

The crowd’s eyes grew wide.

Did Chen Hao think that they were stupid? Why would Young Master Zhou thank someone like that just for picking up his bus tickets?

Chen Hao was stunned. Although he had plucked the lie out of thin air, who knew it would be that illogical?

“Oh, I must have forgotten. It might have been a plane ticket.”

“Huh?”

Chen Lin and Li Shihan were surprised. Even if it was a plane ticket, there was no way Young Master Zhou would act like that.

Chen Hao scratched his head. He did not know how to continue his lie anymore. “I really have forgotten what kind of ticket it was already. Anyway, he was really grateful to me. Haha!”

Chen Hao managed to muddle his way through the questions with one sentence. At this point, he had eaten his fill already.

He felt that there was no reason for him to be there anymore.

He excused himself for personal reasons. Then, he left the room and snuck away.

After Chen Hao's departure, everybody in the room started looking at one another.

Chen Hao was definitely lying to them.

However, how did Young Master Zhou know him?

Why did he not recognize them? If he did, then they would have...

Some of them were envious, while Li Shihan and Chen Lin felt somewhat agitated.

They were even afraid that Chen Hao's luck would turn around after he got to know Young Master Zhou. He could find a good job. It could be possible.

If that was the case, Li Shihan and Chen Lin would definitely regret it.

They were especially afraid that such thing would happen.

Sigh! It's making me so anxious!

"Haha, I think Young Master Zhou won't think too much of him. After all, he would only express his gratitude once or twice. Did this poor loser really think that Young Master Zhou would repay him? No way!" As if seeing through their worries, Ma Fei said with a grin.

Only then did everyone feel much better.

Chen Hao could actually get back at them for their ridicules just now. However, he chose to leave.

That was because he recalled his past relationship with Li Shihan. Hence, he decided to preserve some of her dignity. No matter what Li Shihan was like now, she did help him out back then.

They were even now.

He patted his belly. Chen Hao had his fill already, and now, he wondered if Su Ziyue and the kids had their meals already. Hence, he brought along some food with him.

Chen Hao went to visit Su Ziyue.

For the next seven days, Chen Hao would go over to Su Ziyue's place to chat with her and see the children. Chen Hao felt relaxed and comfortable because their life was simple.

It was way better than staying in college.

Chen Hao and Su Ziyue were getting closer by the day.

He added Su Ziyue on WeChat and they were constantly messaging each other.

Was Chen Hao falling in love with her? Chen Hao could not answer that question yet but he really did like her.

Since he was chatting with Su Ziyue all the time, he was occasionally late in replying Su Tongxin's messages.

Until one night, Su Tongxin suddenly asked, "Chen Hao, are you chatting with some other girls besides me?"
