

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 172

“Huh? Aren’t these the clothes that I bought for Chen Hao?” Han Siyu asked in surprise.

Wasn’t this the suit that she bought for Chen Hao at the shopping mall this afternoon?

“Siyu, are you sure?”

Meng Cairu was shocked.

When she took a closer look at it, she noticed that it was indeed Chen Hao’s suit.

How could it be?

How could Chen Hao’s clothes appear in a Maybach?

The girls started to have doubts at the same time. Then, they stared wide-eyed at White Wolf who was currently driving the car.

On the other hand, White Wolf was completely perplexed.

By right, if he followed Young Master Chen’s instructions, then his identity shouldn’t be exposed.

However, the situation turned awkward now.

“This is my suit. I usually have it in the car!” White Wolf lied.

Han Siyu and Meng Cairu looked at each other. They certainly did not believe his words as this suit cost approximately 500 to 600. Chen Hao’s entire outfit was only around 2,000. Furthermore, it was apparent that the suit that White Wolf was wearing was at least 20,000 to 30,000.

What the f*ck?!

Could Chen Hao have gotten into this car?

They were completely shocked.

“This suit really belongs to me. I usually prefer a more casual style!” White Wolf quickly added when he saw their disbelief.

His guilty expression made it more obvious that he was telling a lie. So, how could a quick-witted person like Meng Cairu and the rest of the girls miss that?

Just then, Han Siyu, who did not believe a word he said, reached into the suit’s pockets and brought out the phone that had been poking her bottom. When she saw it, she was even more surprised.

“Isn’t this Chen Hao’s phone?”

Han Siyu’s hands started to tremble.

“Let me see it!”

Du Yue grabbed the phone and took a look at it. Indeed it is !

White Wolf thought to himself, Maybe Young Master Chen was in a rush just now, hence he left behind his suit and phone in the car.

However, White Wolf was also a smart guy. After that, he decided to shut his mouth tight no matter what questions these girls threw at him.

After he completed his task of sending them back to the campus, he floored the accelerator and left.

“What is happening here, Miss Meng? Chen Hao’s suit and phone were in the car. This means that Chen Hao actually sat in that car before this. Furthermore, he was the first one to know that we were in trouble. Could it be that Chen Hao was our rescuer?” Du Yue was so anxious that she nearly cried.

When you found out that the person you have been stepping on all the time had become way more powerful than you, wouldn’t you feel distressed?

Han Siyu had turned slightly pale too.

If this was true, then, who could Chen Hao be? Could he be Young Master Chen? Or even Ordinary Guy?

“Alright, alright! Let us stop the guessing game right now, and everybody please remain calm. The suit and phone might or might not belong to Chen Hao. Another possibility is that Chen Hao might have sat in the police car when he came to rescue us. We cannot not say for sure. However, the police would surely want to keep the identity of the whistleblower a secret, hence they refused to reveal his identity to us, and they even sent Chen Hao away in advance. Don’t you think that this is a plausible explanation?” Although Meng Cairu was more mature, she still struggled to explain because this was exactly the same situation that happened the last time when she was in trouble.

If anyone had to be more anxious, it should be Meng Cairu.

Because last time, Chen Hao borrowed her powerbank and left it inside a Rolls-Royce, whereas now, his suit and phone were left inside a Maybach. Could it be just a coincidence?

Moreover, Chen Hao was the first person to know about these two incidents.

However, Meng Cairu dared not connect the dots between the events.

“Ok. How about this, we’ll go to Chen Hao’s dormitory personally to clarify this situation,” said Meng Cairu.

“Yes, if we have a phone, we could give him a call as well!” Du Yue suddenly reacted.

Han Siyu swayed her hands helplessly and said, “It’s no use. I’ve tried to use the phone just now. However, it seems that the battery is dead. But, as long as we take this suit and phone to find Chen Hao, then we will know the truth.”

At the male dormitory. Just when Chen Hao took off his clothes and lay on his bed in his boxers, the doors of the dormitory flew open with a loud slam.

“Ah!”

Yang Hui’s screams could be heard, followed by him picking up a basin to cover up his private parts.

“Miss Meng, Han Siyu, what are you guys doing here?” Yang Hui asked anxiously.

“Hmph! Get up, Chen Hao!”

Du Yue lifted up Chen Hao’s blankets and dragged him out casually without giving a hoot whether he had clothes on.

“What do you guys want?”

Chen Hao covered his private parts, and at the same time, was rendered speechless.

These girls were truly frightening.

Without saying another word, Du Yue ran to Chen Hao’s bed straightaway and started rummaging around.

Meanwhile, Meng Cairu and Han Siyu looked on with their arms crossed.

“Ah! Miss Meng, Siyu, come take a look quickly. Chen Hao’s suit and phone are still here!”

Du Yue quickly walked over with Chen Hao’s suit and mobile phone.

All of them were stunned.

It seemed that they had been thinking too much. The suit and phone that they were holding did not belong to Chen Hao!

Everybody breathed a sigh of relief after confirming their doubts. They felt as if they were released from prison.

Especially Meng Cairu, who was feeling delighted now. As long as that person wasn’t Chen Hao, it was enough for her.

However, once she calmed down, she saw that all of the guys in Chen Hao’s dormitory were staring at her in surprise.

Meng Cairu cleared her throat and asked, “Let me ask you this, Chen Hao, after you received Xiaonan’s call for help, where did you go? And what did you do?”

“I was in a hurry to make a police report, then Xiaoyun sent me a WeChat message asking me about Xiaonan’s location. So, I told her the entire story, and she immediately called for backup. I am glad that you guys are alright!” said Chen Hao with a smile.

“What the h*ll! You were right, Miss Meng. We probably weren’t calm enough earlier and had thought too much about it. It seems that it was indeed Xiaonan’s cousin who came to our rescue!” yelled Du Yue excitedly.

“Oh my God, Chen Hao, don’t you sleep in your pajamas? Get lost quickly, you are such an eyesore!”

After ridiculing Chen Hao once again, only then did the girls finally leave.

Ma Xiaonan was the only one who bothered to greet Chen Hao and told him that she was alright other than being slightly frightened, whereas the other three girls walked out immediately.

Chen Hao couldn’t help but smile bitterly as he thought to himself, What was going on here?

Luckily he was quick to react earlier.

As a matter of fact, throughout the entire process of rescuing Ma Xiaonan, Chen Hao was very anxious. While he was in the car, he had taken off his suit. Then, when he saw from the surveillance footage that Ma Xiaonan and the other girls were rushing down, he quickly grabbed his laptop and went straight into the caravan.

However, he had forgotten about his phone and suit.

What should he do now?

Chen Hao thought to himself that his identity would surely be exposed now.

Luckily, he had an idea. He quickly bought a new phone and suit. And then, Chen Hao could only bet that his old phone would run out of battery soon and powered down by itself. Or else, he would be doomed if they called his number.

However, judging from the situation, his phone had definitely run out of battery and went dead.

Besides, Chen Hao had already cancelled the phone number just now, hence they would not have been able get a call through.

There was no other explanation for it.

After all, other than Ma Xiaonan, Chen Hao did not want to associate himself with them any further.

So why should he reveal his identity to them?

The night passed by uneventfully.

It was a Saturday morning the next day.

Chen Hao was going through his assignments in his dormitory at about 10 o’clock when Ma Xiaonan gave him a call.

As for his phone’s SIM card, Chen Hao had first cancelled it before asking Li Zhenguo to help him get a new one by using his original identification number. It wasn’t a difficult process.

And so, Chen Hao went to the business office early in the morning to retrieve his SIM card.

“Chen Hao, my cousin is coming today. After she heard about the events that happened yesterday night, she had reserved a table at a restaurant near our campus. You are my savior, so you better come here quick. Hehe! At the same time, let's see whether my cousin can arrange a job for you. Bring Yang Hui and the rest of your roommates along as well..."

"I don't think I'll go. Besides, I did not really help you much." Chen Hao laughed bitterly.

"You better come, or else I will go to your dormitory personally to invite you. Moreover, my cousin said that she wanted to thank you no matter what."

"Ok then, we will head over there now!"

Chen Hao did not want to be unreasonable since he did actually help out with the rescue operation. So, he did not mind being treated to a meal. However, the main reason he was reluctant to go was because he did not want to meet Ma Xiaonan's cousin.
