

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 189

“Young Master Chen, I am here at the Emergency Center. Do you have any instructions for me?”

Tian Long and Di Hu were Chen Hao’s personal bodyguards. Since it was unnecessary to keep them with him for the whole day, Chen Hao had left them in charge of the Emergency Center.

“Is the medical team at the center capable of dealing with rare and complex diseases?” asked Chen Hao.

“Of course. The medical team is made up of the most prominent figures in both traditional Chinese and conventional medicine. Most of the patients they were assigned to were mostly healed! Young Master Chen, do you need anything?”

“There’s a patient at the People’s Hospital whose daughter’s name is Qin Ya, and she goes to Jin Ling College. Help me check whether it is possible to send our medical team over!”

“Understood, Young Master Chen!”

After hanging up his phone, Chen Hao thought to himself, I could only do this much.

He did not expect Qin Ya to thank him. Besides, Chen Hao couldn’t reveal his true identity.

And so, he returned to his dorm and studied.

Meanwhile, in the VIP ward at the People’s Hospital.

“Director, please think of a way to save my wife. No matter the cost, we will pay for it!”

A middle-aged man was pleading hard to the director and the other staff of the People’s Hospital. He was so anxious that his face turned pale.

Beside the middle-aged man stood a beautiful young girl.

Tears were welling up in her eyes.

That girl was Qin Ya. Obviously, the middle-aged man was her father, Qin Xiangnan.

“Mr. Qin, we have contacted the most reputable doctors from the whole nation to do a diagnosis. To be frank, Madam Qin’s disease was never encountered before in medical history. Also, we haven’t come to a conclusion yet so please don’t worry, we will certainly do our best!”

The director said apologetically.

Qin Xiangnan stumbled a few steps backward weakly. With Qin Ya’s support, he sat on a bench and rested.

“Daddy, should we contact those at Yan Jing? I am sure they will be able to come up with something!”

Qin Ya felt distressed to see the state her father was in.

And so, she couldn’t help but probe.

Qin Xiangnan shook his head helplessly and said, "No way. Since we have broken our ties with your grandparents, we have nothing to do with the Qin family anymore. We have no grounds to seek for their help. Could this be the end to your mother's life? Life had been so exhausting for her after marrying me!"

Qin Xiangnan loved his wife a lot, and at this time, he broke into tears.

Qin Ya's heart went out for him and she started crying too.

"Mr. Qin, Qin Ya, we are here to visit Mrs. Qin!"

At this moment, a bunch of people approached them.

They were Qin Ya's housemates and Li Yue.

And they had brought a lot of stuff with them.

After returning to the dorm to take her purse, Zhao Tongtong and the housemates took a cab here.

"So you guys are Qin Ya's schoolmates. Thank you all for coming!"

Qin Xiangnan forced a smile and said.

"Thank you all for coming to visit my mother!"

Qin Ya was slightly touched by their gesture.

"Qin Ya, we can skip the pleasantries. Is the diagnosis ready for your mother's illness?" Zhao Tongtong asked worryingly.

"Not yet. This morning, the director had organized a meeting with experts from all over the country. However, it was fruitless."

Qin Ya shook her head in tears.

"How about this, my father is abroad right now, and he knows quite a few reputable doctors. Why don't I ask my father to invite the doctors over to have a look?"

Li Yue spoke up at this moment.

Both Qin Xiangnan and Qin Ya lifted their brows at once.

Qin Xiangnan spoke with gratitude, "Li Yue, if that is possible, we would be very grateful to you!"

"No worries, Mr. Qin. Qin Ya is a good friend of mine!"

Li Yue's face revealed a smile.

He then immediately gave a call to his father.

In fact, Li Yue was at a loss when he heard that experts from all over the country were already invited by the director.

His father's connection was no better than that of Qin Xiangnan.

It was unlikely that his father could ask for any doctor's help.

No matter what, he had to offer his help, since he had nothing to lose.

As for Li Yue's father, he agreed to take on the task right away.

After all, he had only one son whom he had doted on since he was little.

Immediately, he started to call some of his friends who were working as doctors overseas as well as some Chinese medicine doctors in the country.

Li Yue returned to them happily.

"Mr. Qin, my father has made the arrangements. The doctors are expected to be here by tomorrow!"

Li Yue stated.

"That's great, Li Yue! No matter how much the treatment will cost, we will foot the bill. We owe you big time. Qin Ya, say thanks to Li Yue!"

Qin Xiangnan said immediately.

"Li Yue, thank you!"

Qin Ya spoke in a casual tone.

Li Yue nodded his head and replied, "No worries, hehe!"

Outside the country.

"Hi, it's me Mr. Li. Haha, may I know is Mr. Du Lang of the Shengmu Hospital there? Will he be... oh, busy. It's okay. Thanks!"

Li Annan was annoyed to face rejection.

Anyhow, his son had already agreed to help his friend. He would be embarrassed if he was unable to accomplish what was expected of him.

After that, he gave several calls to other experts from abroad.

Although they were available, they all rejected upon knowing that they were required to fly over within the next two days.

No one was willing to make such a rushed trip to Huaxia.

They needed at least a week's time to get prepared.

It appeared to be unlikely to get the experts from abroad here. So, he decided to go for those in the country.

Though he was able to contact a few experienced Chinese medicine doctors, they declined as they were unwilling to leave so hastily.

The fastest they could reach there was three days after.

After giving it some consideration, Li Annan decided to go ahead with the three day wait.

He wanted to give his son a call, but the line was engaged.

Li Annan then went to sleep as the matter was considered settled.

In the blink of an eye, it was already morning the next day.

The experts had met for the second time. Everyone, including the director and the experts, was looking troubled.

Qin Xiangnan was so worried that his forehead was covered in sweat.

At this moment, two doctors ran excitedly toward them.

“Director, I have good news! Good news!”

The doctors exclaimed agitatedly.

The director’s brows knitted together. He shot a fierce glare toward the two doctors, signalling the presence of Qin Xiangnan.

Qin Xiangnan furrowed his brows too.

“Director, it’s good news for Mr. Qin. A team of experts has arrived saying that they are here to run a diagnosis for Mrs. Qin. There are around ten of them, consisting of experts from abroad and the country!”

“Moreover, some of them are leading authorities in the medical field. One of them is Mr. Yi Di from M Country, who had received a medical award before. Also, Mr. Zhao Qing, the famous Chinese Medicine doctor is here too!”

“What did you say?”

The director and the rest of the experts exchanged glances with each other.

Qin Xiangnan and Qin Ya were pleasantly surprised.

Zhao Tongtong, Li Yue and the gang were as well overjoyed.

At the moment, Zhao Tongtong and the gang turned to look at Li Yue, who was in a daze, with shock and admiration.

At first, they were unconvinced that Li Yue was able to summon any expert here. After all, Zhao Tongtong was very clear about the capability of his family.

His family was just average.

To be truthful, his family was no better than Qin Ya's family.

Even Qin Xiangnan was at a loss. What could Li Yue's family do?

Unexpectedly, he had managed to gather a team of experts here.

As for Li Yue, he was dumbstruck.

What's happening?
