

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 196

Right then, Ding Hao arrived in his car, having just fetched Chen Lin and the others over.

Seeing a lot of people crowding around Wang Liang and his people, he knew that there was something wrong and quickly squeezed in.

With one look, Ding Hao felt as if someone had set off firecrackers in his head, the explosions leaving his mind blank.

F*ck!

“Who did this?” Ding Hao asked, his face pale.

“Young Master Ding, it was him! It was his car!”

Wang Liang hurriedly pointed at Yang Hui.

Li Mei and the rest immediately stood by Wang Liang’s side after they came to their senses again.

Obviously, no one wanted to be dragged into this.

The cost was almost one million!

Yang Hui was definitely in trouble because he acted out of anger. What was more, he was tricked by Wang Liang to do so. He could only suffer in silence now, knowing that he got what was coming to him.

It was him who crashed into the cars after all.

“Ugh! You—you! I really can’t deal with you anymore. How can my daughter have a boyfriend like you?!”

Xu Xia’s mother had been keeping in her emotions for the whole day, and now they presented themselves as streams of hot tears flowing down her face.

“Don’t bother about that for now. You there. Do you have any good connections? Quickly contact someone, or ask someone from home to come over now!” Chen Lin said mildly.

“What kind of connections would he have? If it were Wang Liang who did it, then the situation could have been settled since he has a wide circle of connections. Also, it happened on his good friend Young Master Ding’s territory. But him? He definitely can’t settle something like this. Young Master Ding isn’t familiar with him, either, so he can’t possibly confront these expensive cars’ owners for Yang Hui!” Without waiting for Yang Hui to reply, Li Mei’s mother had already started talking.

Besides, they were all adults, their mindsets were the same.

This sentence managed to push Ding Hao and Wang Liang and the others to the side, telling them not to meddle in this in order to not anger anyone.

“Hey, don’t you have any friends in Jin Ling?” a girl asked.

Yang Hui's face was red as he said, "Of course! Chen Hao and Li Rui are my friends!"

"Ah, we aren't talking about those sorts of friends! We mean friends that are higher up, don't you have any like those?" one of Li Mei's roommates and close friends asked.

"Enough, enough! Whatever friends he has are useless now! This guy has made a huge mess this time!" Ding Hao said, his brows furrowed.

"Huh? What else did he do?" the crowd asked in shock.

"Do you all know whose cars these are?" Ding Hao said after a deep breath.

"Whose?"

"These cars belong to some of the seven big Young Masters: Young Master Bai, Young Master Huang, and Young Master Zhou!" Ding Hao was a little taken aback.

"Ding Hao, you mean Young Master Bai Xiao Fei, Young Master Huang Yong Hao, and Young Master Zhou Ze from Yu Gang City? That's too much of a coincidence, right?"

Li Shihan had learned more these past few days that she had been spending with Ding Hao, and she asked this in surprise.

Ding Hao closed his eyes and nodded heavily. "It's exactly them!"

"Then what do we do now?" When Li Rui heard this, he panicked as well.

These few young masters were even more powerful than Young Master Shen.

"To me, I think it's best if you quickly kneel in front of these few cars, Yang Hui. Maybe when the young masters come, they might let you go. Causing trouble with them is not as easy to settle as Li Yue's problems from before!" Li Mei's mother told Yang Hui with wide eyes after Li Mei gave her a rundown of who these people were.

"Also, Yang Hui, since you crashed into these cars, you have to come forward and admit it yourself. Don't say that we were in your car too. Save us the embarrassment of being associated with you!" Li Mei's mother said again.

However, right at that moment:

"Look! Young Master Huang and Young Master Bai are coming over!"

No one knew who yelled this, but once everyone heard that, the crowd parted like the Red Sea.

Young Master Huang walked over with a bunch of rich looking youths.

"F*ck, who did this?" Huang Yonghao said as he threw his sunglasses to a side and said coldly.

Bai Xiaofei and the others also came forward with a bunch of other people.

"I'm sorry, it was me!"

Yang Hui was scared and immediately bowed as he spoke.

"Then, you tell me, what will you do now? You! Give the car dealership a call, tell them to come over and assess the damage!"

"Also, who else was with you? Not one of you are allowed to leave!" Huang Yonghao said.

A black-clothed bodyguard obeyed and went to make the call. At the same time, a group of people had come and surrounded Li Mei and the others.

"Ah, we're doomed! Yang Hui didn't just crash into someone's car, he also offended Young Master Huang. Now he isn't even letting us go!"

"Exactly, he's blind. He might as well have just crashed straightaway, then he wouldn't have to pay so much, right? But now things are bad! He didn't just crash into their cars, he also dragged us into it!"

"Exactly, and the most important thing is he's wasting the young masters' time to have fun!"

Li Mei's two roommates talked amongst themselves nervously.

When Li Mei and Wang Liang heard Young Master Huang's intentions, they realized that they weren't allowed to leave either. Even sitting in Yang Hui's car got them into trouble.

They felt anxious too, and looked directly at Ding Hao for help.

Ding Hao also immediately understood and walked in front of Young Master Huang and Young Master Bai, saying respectfully:

"Respectable young masters, I am Ding Hao from Yunmeng Mountain. Young Master Bai and I met once before, hehe!"

Huang Yonghao looked at Bai Xiaofei.

Bai Xiaofei then told Huang Yonghao something.

Hong Yonghao nodded and smiled. "Okay, Ding Hao, what do you have to say?"

"It's like this, Young Master Huang. A few of my friends were in this car. Could you spare them? This didn't have anything to do with them!"

"F*ck! You want me to f*cking spare them? Screw off! If you were in this car, then I would let you go, only because you are from Yunmeng Mountain. But if this has nothing to do with you, then stop acting all pretentious in front of me!"

Huang Yonghao bowed down to no one.

He scolded Ding Hao until the latter's face was red.

Ding Hao didn't even dare to exhale, only bringing Chen Lin and the others to the side to wait for the time being.

When Wang Liang saw that Young Master Ding was of no use in this situation, his heart chilled.

Especially Li Mei's mother, who couldn't help but want to slap Yang Hui.

"I think we should stop wasting everyone's time, this should just stop here!"

At this time, a sudden voice caused the crowded situation to go silent in a second.

Everyone looked toward the source of the voice. The voice came from a boy.

F*ck, things should just stop here?

Did he have a death wish?

Was he so bored out of his mind that he thought it would be good to do that? Who did he think he was?

The crowd was shocked.

This boy, naturally, was Chen Hao.

After this was said, even Chen Lin and Li Shihan, the ones who looked down upon him, shook their heads as they looked at Chen Hao.

"Chen Hao, what are you saying?!" Li Mei's mother immediately scolded.

Chen Hao had originally wanted to wait until the car owners showed up and fork out his own money to settle everything.

But when he heard the cars belonged to Huang Yonghao and the others, Chen Hao felt conflicted.

Later on, when they arrived, he saw that if he didn't help out, Yang Hui would be seriously f*cked over by them.

If he did help them out, his identity would be revealed.

But in this situation, trying to stay low-key and not help out was impossible.

Sigh. If he were to be exposed, then so be it! There was no other way!

So Chen Hao came forward.☹☹
