

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 267

“What?”

The people at the front desk, including Li Yue, were shocked when they heard that.

But what followed right after was a burst of thunderous laughter.

Li Yue, Mister Li and Miss Li were howling exceptionally loudly.

“Hahaha! Damn, brother, don’t humiliate yourself!” Mister Li said, holding his stomach.

“This person is crazy, right?”

“Yeah, he said he wanted to buy two buildings! I really thought I heard wrongly, hahaha!”

“Then... do we need to call security?”

The people at the front desk were laughing as if they had just been told the world’s best joke.

At this time, the manager came forward with a serious face. “What’s happening? Look at all of you! What kind of reputation are you creating for us?”

Li Yue laughed so hard that the corners of her mouth almost split open. “I-I’m sorry, manager! This man named Chen Hao said he wanted to buy two of our buildings, haha!”

Li Yue was laughing so hard that her eyes were tearing up.

This manager clearly had the ability to keep his composure compared to these salespeople.

The manager held his breath and looked at Chen Hao seriously. He stood up straight before walking toward Chen Hao with a strict face.

“Mister Chen—pfft!”

He had only managed to say his name before laughing uncontrollably.

In his eyes, this was way too funny.

Their rule was not to laugh, no matter how ridiculous their client was. That was, unless they couldn’t resist!

“You’re laughing?”

Chen Hao touched his nose lightly.

These people were just too aggravating. Of course, it was way too easy to get them to stop laughing.

“How much is the price of one building? Have you calculated it?” Chen Hao asked Zhang Meng, his expression icy.

“Yes, one building has around a hundred units. After rebates, it is sixty five million. Two buildings would then be a hundred and thirty million,” Zhang Meng said seriously.

Chen Hao was thinking of renovating one building into his worker’s living quarters, and the other building into regular apartments to rent out.

This was perfect.

“Alright, I’ll get someone to send the money over immediately. Let’s sign the contract!”

After that, Chen Hao immediately made a call. “Send a hundred and thirty million over to the sales office right now. In cash!”

Then, Chen Hao leaned against the counter with a frosty expression, watching the crowd in front of him clutching their stomachs and laughing. He wondered if they would still be able to laugh in just another minute.

“Mister, please calm down. You can’t just sign the contract like that!” The manager gathered himself and smiled as he spoke.

Chen Hao stayed silent.

Twenty minutes later.

A lorry reverse parked into the entrance of the sales office without warning.

The security guards could not stop them even if they tried.

“Huh? What’s happening?”

Everyone in the sales office was stunned, and they all came over to take a look.

The manager also walked to the entrance to take a look, wondering what was going on.

At this moment, Chen Hao’s phone rang.

It was a call from an underling of his.

The underling asked, “Young Master Chen, the money is at the door. It is all in cash like you asked for. Do we get someone to bring it in, or do you want them to collect it themselves?”

When Chen Hao asked for cash through the phone just now with a rather annoyed tone, this underling seemed to have guessed what was going on.

So he purposely stoked the fire.

“Collect?” Chen Hao exclaimed, answering the phone as he signed the contract for both buildings and threw down the pen. “Just leave it at the doorstep!”

“Yes, Young Master Chen!” The underling answered.

After that, the back of the lorry opened up and the inside was filled to the brim with money.

The rear load of the lorry slowly raised and all the money in the lorry was spilled in front of the sales office entrance.

“Oh my god!”

The manager was so shocked he fell on his behind.

Li Yue couldn't even hold onto the file in her hands.

Whereas the few others at the front desk and the ones who were buying houses all quietened down, widening their eyes to take in the scene.

Who was he? He was way too powerful!

At this time, a besuited man got out of the car and stepped over the pile of money in front of the door.

He walked toward Chen Hao and whispered in his ear, “Young Master Chen, everything is settled!”

“Okay, not bad. Everything else will be left to you. I have already chosen the locations of the property, just follow up with this young lady named Zhang Meng!” Chen Hao patted Zhang Meng's shoulder.

Zhang Meng was so shocked that she gulped.

Both buildings were really bought by Chen Hao. How much commission was she going to get from this purchase?

Gosh, she had just counterattacked Li Yue!

Zhang Meng felt as if she was in heaven.

As for Li Yue, apart from feeling scared, she was also full of regret.

He really bought them.

If she hadn't used that kind of attitude just now, then this would all be going to her instead.

She was his agent, after all!

But she had just signed the transfer contract twenty minutes ago.

Her face was green with envy.

Not to mention the group of workers who hadn't even bothered with Chen Hao before.

As for Mister Li and Miss Li, they were so shocked that they were rooted to the ground.

Sigh!

Chen Hao had wanted to stay lowkey today. Even if Li Yue had treated him rudely, Chen Hao would still have not gone to such lengths.

But this group of people went way overboard.

Did you really think that I would let you push me around?

Seeing so many people staring at him in shock caused Chen Hao to feel even more uneasy.

He felt like leaving.

If he got recognized by people he knew, it would be awkward.

But once he turned around, Chen Hao was shocked.

Because in the VIP corner by the side stood a few people.

And he knew all of them.

Li Shihan, Chen Lin, Li Mingxue, Li Gang and a few female classmates from his high school were all there.

They were all stunned, their faces white from shock.

“Chen Hao, y-you!”

Chen Lin had started to stutter.

They had seen every move he made and heard every word he said.

Especially when Chen Hao said he wanted to buy two buildings, and when he had called for his money to be delivered.

Some of them had laughed at him, too.

However...

When everything in front of them happened, they were utterly dumbfounded.

Because they had known Chen Hao for so many years, but they had never seen such an overbearing Chen Hao before.

It felt as though Chen Hao was a stranger now.

Smack!

Li Gang’s phone fell from his grip and onto the floor.

Li Shihan couldn’t even catch her breath, and her heart felt like it was being seized painfully.

She had imagined it countless times, but the scariest thing had still happened.

Li Shihan. You treat Chen Hao this way, but what if he becomes very powerful in the future? Will you regret it?

How could that be? Chen Hao had probably just won the lottery and gotten to know a few people. What was so good about that? He still couldn't compare to Ding Hao!

That was how Li Shihan comforted herself before.

But now, all of her thoughts seemed like a sheet of glass, having been shattered by the rock of reality falling from high above.

"Damn, when did you all arrive?"

Chen Hao had tucked one of his hands into his pocket, but now he took it out embarrassedly.

That was right. He had become pretentious under the influence of his rage just now.

But now, he had no need to keep this pretense up in front of Chen Lin and the others.

Besides, Chen Hao really hated the feeling of being pretentious.

"Chen Hao, we were here the whole time!" Li Gang swallowed and immediately changed his tone.
