

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 269

“Who is she?” Chen Hao asked.

“Assistant Team Leader Wang is the godsister of our Marketing Department’s Deputy Minister. You should know what I mean!” Fang Fei said softly.

“Ah!”

No wonder, Chen Hao thought. From yesterday, he had only seen her either looking at herself in the mirror or fooling around. In general, he just hadn’t seen her actually working. It looked like she had support.

Next, he had to deal with the movies Wang Meina wanted him to download.

After all, Chen Hao would be working here as an undercover for awhile, so he couldn’t afford to get off on the wrong foot with Wang Meina. Therefore, he just downloaded them.

“Hey you, logistics guy. What are you doing?”

Chen Hao’s desk was in the hall, and many people walked past the corridor next to the hall.

At this time, a man around thirty years old with his hands behind his back asked him coldly.

Obviously, he had seen Chen Hao’s computer screen.

Behind this man, another worker stood.

It was none other than Liu Yanan’s assistant team leader, Wang Kang. Currently, he was looking at Chen Hao with a cold smile on his face.

“Chief Zhang, this worker is downloading movies during working hours. How dare he? This is only his first day, and he’s already behaving like this. How do you think he will be in the future?” Wang Kang said, pointing at Chen Hao.

Chief Zhang had already walked next to Chen Hao’s desk. Chen Hao had, of course, minimized the window he was using to download the movies.

Who knew that Chief Zhang’s eyes were so sharp that he could see Chen Hao downloading movies from so far away?

Chen Hao felt helpless.

Chief Zhang had already opened the window. “How dare you download movies during work hours? What kind of company do you take us for? What is your name?!” Chief Zhang yelled angrily.

Currently, all of the workers in the hall and everyone in the Marketing Department came out and surrounded them, watching the drama unfold.

Yang Minxue was also watching by the side. Watching Chen Hao get yelled at made her feel rather awkward.

"It wasn't me who wanted to download these movies!" Chen Hao said.

"If it wasn't you, then who asked you to download them?" Chief Zhang asked coldly.

"It was Assistant Team Leader Wang!" Chen Hao said as he pointed at Wang Meina.

Firstly, he wasn't working here because he wanted an actual job, so he didn't need to help a worker like Wang Meina take the blame.

Secondly, this suited Chen Hao very well, because he wanted to see how she would be dealt with if he reported her doings to the chief.

Wang Meina, however, was instantly full of rage.

She picked up a small bookshelf and threw it at Chen Hao. "What did you say? Who told you to download it?!" Wang Meina was furious.

Obviously, someone like Wang Meina was in the wrong, but an arrogant girl like her would never have admitted her own wrongdoings. To do that was like a slap in the face for her.

Besides, Chen Hao was a nobody.

Of course she couldn't handle it.

Wang Meina started to go crazy and ran toward Chen Hao.

The situation was escalating.

As for Chief Zhang, he just frowned at them. "Enough, Wang Meina! What are you going on about? Take your USB drive. I'm telling you, if this happens again, don't blame me for being harsh!"

After that, he glared once at Chen Hao before walking away.

Chen Hao thought, That's it?

Wang Meina was so obviously going against the company's rules. Did that not warrant a harsher warning?

As for Wang Kang, he looked at Chen Hao and smiled coldly before leaving smugly.

This wasn't really a big thing, but Wang Meina had started to hate Chen Hao. After the chief left, she stayed behind to continue scolding and cursing Chen Hao. Her words were incredibly harsh and mean.

No one in the Marketing Department spoke up, since they were all rather afraid of her.

Chen Hao was rather bored staying there.

After awhile, he felt like he needed to go to the restroom, so he stood up to take a bathroom break.

Once he stepped into the restroom, he immediately smelled a strong smell of cigarettes.

Clearly, there were a few people smoking in there.

“Wang Kang, this guy is probably done for, isn't he? That transfer to become official in three months is something the chief definitely won't sign for him!”

“How dare he piss our Wang Kang off? He won't be able to stay here for much longer!” Someone said.

“Enough. By then you guys will know how I plan to deal with him!”

He continued, “Right, Yang Minxue is mine! The two of you, don't go near her and start complimenting her or showing off!”

“Alright, Wang Kang!”

After they spoke for a while longer, they left.

Chen Hao was in the other cubicle and heard everything extremely clearly.

Obviously, the leader was Wang Kang.

Chen Hao had already guessed that it was Wang Kang early on.

It also looked like Chief Zhang was summoned by Wang Kang on purpose.

As the assistant manager of the department, Wang Kang definitely knew quite a bit about Wang Meina's behaviour.

Once he saw the USB drive plugged into Chen Hao's computer, he already knew.

That was why he purposely told on Chen Hao and got him to offend the easily angered Wang Meina.

F*ck, this little guy was pretty sinister!

Chen Hao had heard about workplace politics and that there was bound to be someone who would throw others under the bus, but he didn't know that he would face one so soon.

It seemed like he treated Chen Hao as his love rival, and wanted to make Chen Hao leave the company.

Alright then, it's on!

I'll take it slow. There's no rush!

Chen Hao spent the day sitting through Wang Meina's scornful jabs.

Finally, they finished work in the afternoon.

Chen Hao came back to see the colleagues of the investment department all downstairs, and they all had not left yet. Some were scrolling their phones, some were making phone calls, and they all seemed as though they were waiting for a ride.

Chen Hao had gone to deliver some files, so he didn't know what was going on.

He happened to see Fang Fei and the bespectacled fatso colleague.

"What are you all waiting for?" Chen Hao asked, smiling.

"Huh? For real? Chen Hao, did you not receive the message?" Fang Fei asked in surprise.

"What message?"

"The one about tonight! Our department is having a welcoming party to welcome you and the other new colleague. When I joined last month, the marketing department also held one for me! It's pretty lively and rather fun!" Fang Fei said with a smile.

"Huh? No one told me though!" Chen Hao checked his phone. He definitely hadn't received any messages.

"Let me see!"

Fang Fei took Chen Hao's phone and searched, but couldn't find anything.

Fang Fei proceeded to let Chen Hao look at her message.

"Marketing Department: Welcoming party today. Fang Fei, book room 202!"

Chen Hao thought, Isn't this bullying? The whole marketing department is going, but you left me out?

It wasn't something to be angry about, but Chen Hao still felt his face heat up.

"Chen Hao, which room are you in? Are we sitting together?" Right then, Yang Minxue came over and asked Chen Hao.

"I wasn't invited," Chen Hao said mildly.

"Huh? How could that be? Did Assistant Team Leader Wang Meina and Wang Kang forget about you? I'll go ask them!" Yang Minxue said.

After all, they had joined the company at the same time.

They were both newbies, so it was easy for them to become friends.

"It's okay, you go. I'll pass!"

When Chen Hao heard that Wang Kang and Wang Meina had organized this, he knew what was going on.

Under the disdainful gaze of a group of female coworkers, Chen Hao left on his own.

After he returned to his hotel, he prepared to take a shower.

Right then, someone knocked on his door.

“Young Master Chen, are you there? Director Li asked me to look for you!”
