

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 273

“Junsheng, what happened?” Liu Yanan asked anxiously.

“Something bad!” Wang Junsheng answered with a pale face, then rushed down hastily.

Immediately, Liu Yanan ran after him.

When she reached downstairs, she waited for Wang Junsheng to finish his call before approaching him and asked, “Junsheng, what happened? You’re frightening me!”

Not only was Wang Junsheng handsome, he also had a house in Jin Ling City. On top of that, his parents worked in public institutions. All in all, his family was of high social status.

Compared to the others in the company, Wang Junsheng was undeniably better.

This was also one of the reasons why Liu Yanan liked Wang Junsheng.

In the future, if they got married, she could move to Jin Ling City. Her company might even transfer her to Jin Ling City.

Ever since she was young, Liu Yanan had prioritized and sought fame and fortune because her father was a headmaster in a junior high school.

The most obvious proof was, all the boys she had ever liked were from wealthy and powerful families.

“It’s bad, Yanan! Do you remember the company that Deputy Minister Yang and I manage? Something went wrong this time!”

Liu Yanan knew that company.

Wang Junsheng and Deputy Minister Yang were instructed by another higher-up from the Group to manage that company. After all, Dreamer Investment Group was now envied by everyone as it was handling a large investment.

Since it involved money, some people with the same scheme conspired to make something out of it.

They made some underhand operations and reported it to the headquarter, and the headquarter granted them money.

By now, this company had received more than 50 million in funding.

Only the confidants of Wang Junshen, such as Liu Yanan and Wang Kang, knew this matter.

And to be frank, the headquarter had reviewed and approved the funds. Moreover, the Group had so many companies under their portfolio that it was improbable that this company would be exposed.

Most importantly, this company had heavy security measures—it was attached to another local enterprise.

There was no way it would go wrong.

"I don't know what has gotten into the executives of the headquarter! They are conducting a spot check and it's just plain bad luck that this company was chosen to be checked. The people from the company even told me that headquarters seems to know that something fishy is going on because they went straight for an audit. Now, we're in trouble because the accounts do not tally, and the executives strongly suspect that there might be some underhand operations!"

Wang Junsheng was even more anxious now.

This was a serious offence that could land him in jail.

"That's strange. This company is small and does not invest heavily. You even attached it with another company. How did they find out?"

"I'm not sure either, but the executives are investigating Deputy Minister Yang and that higher-up right now. I can foresee that I will be next. What should I do? What should I do? If the Group reports me to the police, I will certainly be jailed!"

Liu Yanan was also extremely panicked when she saw Wang Junsheng panic.

She then patted her head and suggested, "I have an idea. Junsheng, why don't you use a scapegoat? Won't you be fine in this case?"

"Damn. But who should it be? This matter is serious!"

"I have an idea!" Liu Yanan gave a complacent snort and snapped her fingers.

Meanwhile, Chen Hao was organising data and information in the office.

Fang Fei stared at Chen Hao, then laughed and teased, "Chen Hao, you are so hardworking. You haven't even finished going through this company's data, but you are already checking another company's data!"

Chen Hao laughed and replied, "This way, I can have a detailed understanding. Besides, I have gained a lot of insights!"

Indeed, that company was exposed because Liu Yanan had overpraised Wang Junsheng.

Moreover, he heard that Wang Kang was a close friend of Wang Junsheng.

Therefore, Chen Hao specifically investigated the projects that they had submitted, and found out that it was indeed fishy.

It aroused his suspicion because the company Wang Junsheng submitted was one of Li Wenyang's father's subsidiary companies.

Of course, this alone wasn't a big deal.

After all, most big companies would have subsidiary companies.

However, Chen Hao understood Li Wenyang's family background, so he found it odd that they had opened a company that ran a completely different business with their own company.

This caused Chen Hao to investigate it in detail.

As expected, he found something unusual.

He then sent a message to Li Zhenguo to seek his help in checking this matter.

"Quick, tell me what insights you have gained!" Fang Fei smiled. She felt that Chen Hao was overemphasizing this matter. After all, wasn't he just organizing data?

"You won't understand. I can only say that it's really eye-opening!" Chen Hao gave a hearty laugh while answering.

While they were speaking, Liu Yanan called suddenly.

Chen Hao was surprised to receive her call.

"Chen Hao, are you free after work tonight?"

"Why? Do you need something?" Chen Hao asked indifferently.

Although Chen Hao was cordial and friendly to Liu Yanan initially, her constant cold shoulder drained his warmth toward her after that.

"Yes, I would like to treat you to a meal. You've joined the company for two days now and I haven't got the chance to treat you to a nice meal. So, are you free to have dinner tonight?" Liu Yanan asked with a smile.

"Who will be going?" Chen Hao inquired. He sensed that Liu Yanan must have some objectives.

Although he was not sure what was happening, Chen Hao knew that Liu Yanan was close to Wang Junsheng. So, he thought that he could find out more through her.

"Only me, of course. Who else are you expecting?" Liu Yanan replied begrudgingly. She then fixed the time and venue for dinner with Chen Hao before hanging up the phone.

After that, Liu Yanan did not return to the office for work. When Chen Hao got off work, he went straight to the venue.

The place was not far. It was a pub beside the office.

When he reached a small room in the pub, he saw Liu Yanan, and she was indeed alone.

"You're here, Chen Hao. Quick, have a seat! What do you think? Isn't this pub nice?" Liu Yanan greeted Chen Hao cordially while opening a bottle of red wine. She poured some for Chen Hao.

"Not bad. Why are you making it so formal? I'm fine with a simple meal," Chen Hao replied with a faint smile.

“There’s no way I would treat you to a simple meal. Do you know, Chen Hao? I wanted to talk to you in the office these two days and have a nice chat, but the office is not a convenient place. So, this is a great opportunity for us to have a good time and rekindle our past relationship, don’t you think so?” Liu Yanan said as she leaned nearer toward Chen Hao.

Her arms slightly touched Chen Hao’s arm.

She even grazed her chest softly against Chen Hao when she served him the dishes, causing Chen Hao to feel perplexed.

He was trying to make out what she was planning, but he remained calm on the outside and continued with the conversation.

However, Chen Hao noticed that Liu Yanan was unusually flirty. She even tried to get an answer from Chen Hao about how he bought those entrance tickets.

Even so, he knew that this was not her main objective.

As time went by, both of them drank several glasses of wine while they chatted.

Chen Hao’s face was flushed and he felt slightly tipsy.

“Yanan, I think we should stop drinking. Otherwise, we’ll be drunk!” Chen Hao shook his head as he said.

“We shall stop drinking then. Let’s go home. Can you fetch me back?”

“Sure!”

After that, Liu Yanan paid the bill and Chen Hao accompanied her to her house.

According to Chen Hao’s plan, he was supposed to sound her out first. However, she had been dodging his questions, so he failed to get anything out of her.

After they reached Liu Yanan’s house, Chen Hao was about to leave.

“Chen Hao, don’t leave!”

Suddenly, Liu Yanan grabbed Chen Hao’s arm...??????
