

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 310

“Huh? That can’t be right, why’s Mr. Da Tou following that kid? Sh*t, wasn’t that the kid who went out?”

“Yeah, that’s the guy! It looks like he called Mr. Da Tou when he said he was looking for backup? But that can’t be right.” Some of the bar’s patrons started speculating amongst themselves, but they were quickly silenced by the unbelievable, eye-widening sight before them.

With the sound of footsteps numerous enough to create a thunderous roar, a huge squad of bodyguards in black and some young men dressed like wealthy people entered the bar. Li Hongfeng himself felt intimidated by the extravagant display of power, because the young men alone seemed like they shouldn’t be messed with, let alone the squad of bodyguards.

“Young Master Chen, Mr. Da Tou here is Li Hongfeng’s benefactor. I’ve brought him!” Bai Xiaofei walked over and sat next to Chen Hao.

“Y-Young Master Chen! I was blind to have collaborated with the wrong person. Please, have some generosity and forgive me!” The forty-year-old man bowed again and again, his whole back drenched in cold sweat; it was clear he knew what was going on.

“Mr. Da Tou, why are you being so nice to this kid?” Li Hongfeng asked, confused.

Big Head Brother gave him a loud slap. “F*cking hell, look what you did! You must have a death wish to mess with Young Master Chen like that! You’re done for when this is all over, you hear?”

“What’s going on? Did you guys see that? I think I saw Mr. Da Tou bowing to Chen Hao?” the boy beside Tian Fei asked.

“Yeah, what’s happening right now? Did any of you hear what Mr. Da Tou said to Chen Hao? I didn’t catch a single word over all this noise!” a girl exclaimed.

“I can’t hear anything, and I don’t know what’s going on!” After that commotion, Tian Fei found it even harder to catch anything on Chen Hao’s side.

All she could see was that Chen Hao patted the back of the head of that clueless, terrified Li Hongfeng, while he was sprawled on the ground, then left with his posse and a single hand in his pocket. Meanwhile, Mr. Da Tou followed closely behind to send him off. At this point, many of the customers also followed Chen Hao to see what the commotion was all about. This was understandable, since everybody was caught off guard by the turn of events and wanted to know who this powerful man was. As a result, both men and women emptied the bar within moments.

“Hey Tian Fei, why don’t we take a look too? Listen, the crowd’s already going wild. What do you think is going on out there?” the girls said, unable to resist their curiosity.

After some hesitation, Tian Fei nodded because she was curious as well. To be fair, a boy who gave people the first impression as a broke man, would surprise any girl if he suddenly became this powerful. Not to mention when Tian Fei considered the previous incidents, her curiosity only deepened.

So, the group went out and suddenly realized why everyone was screaming. Even Tian Fei herself put a hand to her mouth after letting out a surprised scream; she was overwhelmed by the sight of countless Ferraris and luxury Maybachs outside, blocking the entrance of the bar.

Luxury cars! How many people could possibly resist this temptation, let alone a situation in which so many of them showed up with a grand entrance. Tian Fei was so overwhelmed that she could feel her cheeks heating up.

After scanning the area, her suspicions were confirmed—Chen Hao was standing next to a cool-looking Lamborghini, the most luxurious car among them all. Not only that, a bodyguard opened the door for him just before he stepped in and drove away.

Some of the girls gulped in surprise. “Huh?! What’s all this? Tian Fei, you lied to us! D-Didn’t you say that he was just a loser? Then what’s all this?” they shrieked.

“Why would I be lying?! It’s true! He’s... really just a...” Tian Fei trailed off out of nervousness, because she herself could not explain what happened. In hindsight, when she’d first met Chen Hao, she did find him charismatic and attractive. In fact, she’d even asked if he was single because she herself was single, and there was nothing wrong with getting to know a handsome guy, right? So since when did her perception of him start to change?

Oh, right. It was after Hu Huimin introduced Chen Hao to them, and she developed feelings of disgust toward him. She felt that a poor boy like him had no business being in a bar. It was only now that Tian Fei noticed a minor detail—Chen Hao barely spoke throughout the entire meeting; on the contrary, he only spoke when he had to warn them of danger and even then, they had been laughing at him out of disbelief and sarcasm.

Ah, that confirmed her theory of what happened! Chen Hao was the complete opposite of who Hu Huimin said he was. He was actually very powerful, so much so that even the masters that the captain said had saved them could be working for Chen Hao in the first place!

“Who exactly are you, Chen Hao?” Tian Fei said, frustrated. At that moment, she was tempted to tell Hu Huimin about her big discovery, but stopped and put down her phone at the last minute. It was better to keep her in the dark, because the ability to keep secrets was a sign of maturity, and she had no need to go telling Hu Huimin about everything.

Meanwhile, Chen Hao had found Yang Xia and tossed a ring of keys to her. “Here, the keys to the Cloud Mansion. You can live there for a month, and I’ve taken care of Li Hongfeng. I hope you know that even if we did clash, you have no power over me. Also, we stop owing each other anything after you take those keys.” After that, Chen Hao turned to leave.

“Hmph, what do you mean by this? Wow, do you really hate me this much? Enough that you have no interest in continuing this conversation at all?” Yang Xia said hastily.

“Nope!” Chen Hao replied succinctly.

Yang Xia took the keys, then said, “Look, I know you have a new girlfriend. I’ve heard that you and Qin Ya are quite close, but since we used to date, here’s a word of advice—stay out of her business! I’m serious, you have no idea what the Long family is like, and you would certainly have no knowledge of what Long Shaoyun is like. Your Jin Ling Group may be powerful, but if that family wants you dead, it would be as easy as squishing a large ant, you hear me?”

“I never planned to continue interfering in Qin Ya’s matter in the first place. Of course, even if I did, I’m not afraid of the Long family, so you can stop with the horror stories!” Chen Hao said simply.

“Hmph, all that kindness for nothing. Fine, I’ve already warned you to stay away from Qin Ya, so you’d better not regret what you’re doing!” Yang Xia glanced at Chen Hao before leaving.

Chen Hao wasn’t lying about him staying out of Qin Ya’s business. If he wasn’t going to get together with her, then what was the point of helping her this much? Besides, she was more suited to someone from the Long family, and there was no way he’d measure up to that. Suddenly, Chen Hao’s phone rang...????????
