

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 320

“Hehe! I guess it’s okay to tell you this then so that you can understand what kind of person your fiancé, Long Shaoyun, is. Young Master Chen is such a careless person as well since he never brings along any attendants with him. So that day, Long Shaoyun found me and wanted to discuss some things with me...”

After Hou San was done, Qin Ya’s breathing became rapid.

“So it turns out that it was all your doing! Chen Hao did nothing at all. Why would you frame him like that?!”

Qin Ya’s eyes turned red while an inexplicable feeling welled up inside her heart.

How could she be that dumb?!

She had known Chen Hao for quite some time already. How could he be that kind of person?

Moreover, Chen Hao tried to explain to her that he was innocent.

He told her this as he considered her to be his best friend.

However, she did not believe a single word he said. Apart from that, she also called him a disgusting jerk.

He must have felt very upset back then.

A lot of people didn’t trust him. She was the only friend he had at that time, but she did not believe him at all.

Just now, Chen Hao even came to visit her in order to explain everything to her.

However, why did she not hear him out? Why did she have to chase him away?!

“Chen Hao, I have wrongfully accused you. I am really sorry!”

Qin Ya’s tears streamed down her face.

“Get over it already. I don’t care what misunderstanding you have with him. As soon as I get my money, I will disappear without a trace so that nobody can find me anymore. You guys can go ahead and fight amongst yourselves. Haha!” said Hou San.

“Give me his phone number quickly.”

“I don’t have it. Furthermore, I will never let you harm him!”

“What do you mean, harm him? I just want to help him clear up the misunderstanding. I won’t harm him. Give it to me quickly. If you refuse to cooperate, I will rape your friend first. Don’t think that I am a saint. Believe me!” said Hou San as he loosened his belt.

“Ah! Don’t do that!”

Zhao Tongtong was so frightened that she screamed out loud.

“Qin Ya, I don’t think he means any harm. Please just let Chen Hao come to rescue us, ok?” Zhao Tongtong cried.

“You are wrong, Tongtong. If we really ask Chen Hao to rescue us, I bet he won’t come at all as I have hurt him deeply. I don’t even think that we can be friends anymore.”

Qin Ya’s eyes were red as she said, “If he did come here, then it must be for his own benefit.”

“Fine! Give it to me quickly so that I can take my money and escape,” said Hou San helplessly.

Zhao Tongtong said, “I have his number. Here, I will give it to you.”

Following that, Hou San gave Chen Hao a call.

“What’s wrong, Zhao Tongtong?”

Chen Hao answered the call quickly.

“Hehe! Young Master Chen, my name is Hou San. Nice to meet you.”

“Hou San?”

“You may have forgotten this, but we met at the hotel this afternoon.”

“It’s you !”

Chen Hao sat bolt upright on his bed.

“That’s right. I have taken the liberty to invite Miss Qin and Miss Zhao over to my place. Furthermore, I am well aware that you turned the entire Jin Ling upside down to look for me. Well, here I am now, and I want to make a deal with you,” said Hou San.

“How dare you kidnap Qin Ya? What do you plan to do?” asked Chen Hao coldly.

“It’s like this. I know that you have been wronged. I did it because Miss Chen took ‘really good care’ of me in the past, and I felt resentful. Why don’t we make a deal? I have recorded the ins and outs of the entire incident. As long as you give me a small sum, I will vanish from your sight and your name will be cleared.”

“I am asking you a question. Why did you kidnap Qin Ya?” said Chen Hao.

“Oh, don’t worry about that. I guarantee you that no harm will befall Miss Qin. However, you must personally deliver the money to me as I do not accept any bank transfers. You cannot bring along your subordinates as well. I know that your subordinates, Tian Long and Di Hu are really powerful. Hence... Hehe!”

On the other hand, Qin Ya bit her lip and listened intently to the voice from the other side of the phone.

“Fine, I will head over there. Release them immediately,” Chen Hao replied without a second thought.

If Qin Ya was dragged into this matter because of him, Chen Hao would feel really bad about it.

He was utterly disappointed with Qin Ya, as he felt that she should have believed him since he helped her out, but he did not hate her. Furthermore, he did not want to involve her in this matter as well.

They had already severed all connections with each other anyway. Hence, there was no reason for her to suffer because of him.

“Young Master Chen, you are indeed frank. You have already made me regret my actions to frame you. Fine, I am at...”

After Hou San spoke a few more sentences, Chen Hao hung up the phone.

On the other hand, tears started to stream down Qin Ya’s face.

“He does not hate me. Moreover, he’s willingly risking his own life to come here alone for me.” Qin Ya’s heart completely melted.

After briefing Tian Long and Di Hu, Chen Hao drove to the location by himself.

Chen Hao reached the destination with a bag of cash in his hand and stood in the middle of the wilderness.

“Young Master Chen, I see you. Sure enough, you did not bring your men along.”

Hou San was looking at him through a telescope from another location.

After making sure that he indeed did not bring any reinforcements, he revealed the second location to Chen Hao and asked Chen Hao to head there quickly.

Damn it! This guy is really cunning, Chen Hao thought to himself helplessly.

He could only listen to his orders. After going around in circles, he finally came face-to-face with the wretched-looking crook, Hou San.

“Nice to meet you, Young Master Chen.”

Hou San gave him a bow.

“Stop your nonsense. Let them go, and where is the recording I want?”

Chen Hao threw the money in front of Hou San.

“It’s here. Everything is here. You can prove your innocence with this recording. No doubt about it,” said Hou San with a smile.

On the other hand, Chen Hao walked toward Qin Ya and Zhao Tongtong. Then, he released their bonds.

Hou San had gagged them just now as he was afraid that they would make a sound.

“Chen Hao!”

After Qin Ya was released from her bonds, she immediately launched herself into Chen Hao’s arms and cried.

“I am sorry. I have wronged you! I should have believed you! I am sorry that I blurted out that I was in a relationship with Long Shaoyun to piss you off,” cried Qin Ya.

On the other hand, Chen Hao’s hands hung in midair as he did not know what to do.

“As long as you guys are safe. Let’s go then.”

Chen Hao did not return the hug, instead he gently pushed her away and smiled.

“Wait a minute, Young Master Chen. I still have one more condition,” said Hou San.

“What do you want?” Chen Hao frowned.

“When I leave this place for good from now on, I want you to keep the things that I have done a secret if Miss Chen ever asks about it. Don’t ever tell her that I did all those things. Young Master Chen, I know that you are a kind-hearted and forgiving person, but Miss Chen is not. I will be hacked into pieces. Hence, I beg of you, Young Master Chen, to spare me on the account that I did not mean much harm. Let Miss Chen deal with the Long family because they were the ones who instructed me to do that in the first place.” said Hou San as he gulped.

Chen Hao nodded his head.

Then, he led Zhao Tongtong and Qin Ya out of here.

On the other hand, Hou San peered through the telescope from the window of the house.

Obviously, Hou San was an experienced man. He was afraid that Chen Hao would order his men to kill him.

On the other hand, Chen Hao merely smiled faintly when he walked out.

“Hou San, you don’t have to look around in all directions with that telescope of yours. If not, you won’t see the big picture!” yelled Chen Hao.

“What the f*ck! Young Master Chen, what do you mean?”

Hou San who was on high alert suddenly felt that something wasn’t right.

At this moment, he heard a whirring sound above his head.

He lifted his head and was instantly dumbfounded.
