

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 342

Thus, Ma Nan then told them the story of how she plotted against Su Tongxin.

In short, Ma Nan thought that this was a valuable opportunity for her to work in the TV station. Yang Huali had even tempted her with this post and better future prospects as a sort of bribe.

If Ma Nan didn't cooperate, Yang Huali would not even give her an internship opportunity.

Therefore, Ma Nan had no choice but to agree.

Though Su Tongxin was angry at Ma Nan, she wasn't furious at her now.

After all, she couldn't blame it all on Ma Nan. If Su Tongxin had lost this position, she could return to Jin Ling as she would still have her family and Chen Hao.

On the other hand, if Ma Nan had lost this position, she would have nothing left.

If I were in Ma Nan's shoes, would I have done the same?

Hence, the culprit was Yang Huali.

So if she wanted to resent someone, it certainly should be Yang Huali.

"Tongxin, I should stand up against Yang Huali rather than let her do this to you!" Ma Nan said sulkily.

"I'm not blaming you as I know you have your difficulties. This is between Yang Huali and me. I don't blame anyone else!" Su Tongxin quickly said.

"Hmph, why are you two still talking? Stand up straight!"

At this moment, Yang Huali came over and ordered smugly.

"Su Mengmeng and Wu Wenwen, you two stand over there. We need to have more staff to welcome visitors so I requested to have two extra!"

Yang Huali stood at the doorway as she glanced at Su Mengmeng and Wu Wenwen. Leaders had started coming out to prepare for the welcoming ceremony.

"President Xu, Young Master Xu of Yan Jing has arrived!"

At this moment, a shout announced the arrival of a young master who was immediately surrounded by his admirers.

He was then presented with a silk banner.

Every guest naturally wanted to display some proof of their identity or firm.

This was a marvelous spectacle indeed. Rich people from around the world gathered at this event, so it was the perfect opportunity to promote their enterprise or themselves.

“President Wang from Shanghai has arrived!”

“.....”

Gradually, the number of guests increased.

As for Yang Huali, she had the privilege to be the last in the group of staff to welcome the guests and shook hands with all of them.

On the long red carpet, many rich and famous young masters walked along within a short period of time.

Meanwhile, Su Tongxin was also very excited for some reason.

It was because many important people from Jiang Nan province had arrived.

So what was she excited about?

Will he be here too?

The perimeter of the red carpet was surrounded by a crowd of journalists.

Apart from making an appearance, all the rich came in luxury cars to flaunt their wealth.

It was a no-brainer that Yang Huali was trying to get even with them by using her position.

“Tongxin, Tongxin!”

Just then, Su Mengmeng who was standing beside Su Tongxin suddenly called out.

“Do you think Chen Hao would come? If Chen Hao does, it would be a painful slap in Yang Huali’s face! After all, her personal connections are only the tip of the iceberg compared to that of Chen Hao!” Su Mengmeng said excitedly.

“I-I don’t know!”

Su Tongxin shook her head.

“Ah, you’re too stubborn. If I had such a rich boyfriend, I would follow him around and spend his money. Only you would insist on proving yourself. What’s the big deal being labeled as an eye candy when your husband is filthy rich?”

Su Mengmeng had always been supportive of Su Tongxin being independent.

However, after being messed around by Yang Huali, she felt very resentful.

She thought, If only Chen Hao was my boyfriend.

Then, Chen Hao would teach Yang Huali a lesson if she bullied me. She wouldn’t even dare to speak after he’s done with her!

As for Wu Wenwen, she was apparently looking forward to seeing Chen Hao as well.

Only then could she hold her head high up.

“Hmph, what are you two talking about?”

Just then, Yang Huali strutted over and asked Su Tongxin and Su Mengmeng coldly.

“Yang Huali, what are you so smug about? I’m telling you, you should show mercy to others so that you would have an easier time in the future. I have already warned you that Su Tongxin’s boyfriend is very powerful. He’s none other than Young Master Chen from Jin Ling! He might come today and if he does, you are so dead!” Su Mengmeng threatened.

“Hahaha, I’m so scared! I know a lot of rich young masters but I have never heard of Young Master Chen from Jin Ling!”

Yang Huali rebutted mockingly.

“Just you wait and see!” replied Su Mengmeng.

Suddenly, gasps were heard everywhere.

One after another, luxury cars drove into the lane.

Obviously everyone was awed by this array of cars.

Even Yang Huali became speechless due to shock.

As a matter of fact, Yang Huali had seen many luxury cars in her life but she had never seen a spectacle like this—a fleet of luxury cars.

“Young Master Chen from the Dreamer Investment Group of Jin Ling has arrived!”

Before the cars stopped, several staff dressed in suits hollered and ran toward the leaders in charge of welcoming guests.

They were extremely tense.

“Quickly! Get ready! Young Master Chen from Jin Ling is here!”

“What? So soon?”

Once the leaders recovered from their shock, they ran down the stairs and prepared to welcome him as soon as he stepped out of the car.

After all, Young Master Chen was the most important figure after those who had arrived.

Many rich people also surged out to welcome him after they heard the call.

“What? There really is a Young Master Chen from Jin Ling?”

Yang Huali was startled and paled instantly.

When she saw this spectacle, she knew Young Master Chen was no doubt one of the key guests today.

At that moment, she looked at Su Tongxin with envy.

“Is Young Master Chen of Jin Ling really your boyfriend? How is that possible?”

Yang Huali said unbelievably. Was Su Tongxin really better than me?

Why does she have such good fortune?

How can she have found such a powerful boyfriend?

“Haha, are you shocked? Of course it’s true. Su Tongxin is Young Master Chen’s girlfriend!”

Su Mengmeng grew excited.

Let’s see what else can you show off with now, Yang Huali!

Meanwhile, Su Tongxin’s attention was completely on the fleet of cars.

Though she didn’t want to accept any help from Chen Hao, she had left Jin Ling before she could have a proper conversation with him.

She would be lying if she said she didn’t regret being capricious.

Damn, this has to be the fanciest fleet today!

Everyone gasped in shock.

“Yes, each car cost at least 20 million. There are ten cars so that would add up to be a few billion! Holy sh*t!”

The crowd was once again shocked.

Finally, the cars came to a stop.

At this moment, someone yelled, “Young Master Chen is here!”

Following that, fireworks were blasted from the rooftop of the building and exploded into colorful particles of light in the sky.

Then, the two giant water fountains by the sides spouted water into the air.

The scene was truly magnificent.

A silk banner was carefully brought forward by the staff.

As for Su Tongxin, she raised her head and looked over in that direction nervously...????????
