

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 358

The whole class was in a state of jubilation.

Obviously, the tutor had heard about what happened. Not only did Lin Shengnan bring glory to her class, Liang Fei had also done his part in bringing fame to the whole class and even to her.

Therefore, the tutor brought them good news. Everyone from the class was invited to attend the fundraising ceremony held at one in the afternoon.

Indeed, other than large-scale sports activities, these kinds of events would provide the opportunity for one to stand out in the university.

Moreover, students from the class were going to be put in the limelight at the event later. It was only reasonable for all of them to be there to show their spirit!

Soon, all students from the department headed toward the auditorium after lunch break.

Meanwhile, Chen Hao was heading toward the classrooms instead.

“Chen Hao, why aren’t you going to the auditorium?” asked Wang Xiaohua.

“I’m just going to skip the event.”

Chen Hao used to attend these kinds of events regularly and quite frankly, he didn’t think much of it. In his opinion, fundraising should remain as an activity held purely out of compassion. He would think that he had done his part as long as he contributed.

Therefore, he didn’t want to join the fun.

“Hey, Chen Hao, take a look there! The two pretty girls are going to the auditorium as well!”

Suddenly, Wang Xiaohua pointed toward the entrance of the auditorium.

As expected, Chen Hao saw Fang Jiannan.

“Let’s go and join the fun! After all, the whole Class Three is going to attend. It would look bad on us if we were the only ones absent, wouldn’t it?” said Wang Xiaohua.

“Well, okay then!”

Chen Hao shook his head in resignation.

Indeed, it would not bring him any good to be too eccentric. After all, he still needed to get along with his classmates for a period of time.

Hence, Chen Hao and Wang Xiaohua entered the auditorium.

Both Fang Jiannan and the other pretty girl kept a low profile by taking the seats in the last row.

Obviously, no one was daring enough to get anywhere near to that row in which they occupied.

Some of the students would rather stand than to take the seats beside them.

“There are no seats left for us!”

Wang Xiaohua scratched his head.

Looking at the seats beside Fang Jianan, Chen Hao made his way there.

“Pretty ladies, are the seats beside you taken?”

Chen Hao asked with a smile.

Neither Fang Jiannan nor Fang Yi spoke. Putting on an icy look, they acted as though they did not hear Chen Hao and just stared straight ahead.

Nervously, Wang Xiaohua tugged at Chen Hao’s arm.

He was signaling Chen Hao to give up his intention to sit there. If the two pretty girls were offended, he would suffer a terrible end.

However, Chen Hao smirked nonchalantly and hauled Wang Xiaohua over to sit beside the girls.

Fang Jiannan’s brows furrowed slightly.

The ceremony began right after everyone had arrived.

The event started off with speeches by the principal and school representatives.

As for the announcement of the list of outstanding donors, it was arranged as the last part of the event.

Only those who had donated above 100 would have their names announced.

The sequence was random instead of following the amount of the donation.

Names were then announced one after another according to the list.

From time to time, a slight commotion could be heard from the audience whenever the amount of donation was over 1,000.

When the amount of donation went above 3,000, gasps of shock echoed throughout the auditorium.

Chen Hao, who was sitting among the audience, heard Hu Huimin and Shen Junwen’s names.

Both of them had donated 6,000 each.

That caused quite a commotion from the audience.

“According to our analysis, there are twelve students in total who have made donations above 6,000! Next, we would like to invite the twelve students onstage to receive a certificate from the school!”

The host stated, “Shen Junwen, Hu Huimin, please come onstage!”

A round of applause followed as Shen Junwen and Hu Huimin walked toward the stage.

“Wow, Junwen is really dashing ! Haha!”

Xu Yangyang who was sitting among the audience couldn’t help but clapped along too.

At the sight of Xu Yangyang’s actions, Chen Hao who was sitting beside him rolled his eyes.

“Yangyang, how did you get to know Shen Junwen? From what I remember, he just transferred here not too long ago, didn’t he?” asked one of the girls.

“Haha, my bestie, Zhang Tao is the cousin of Wang Jian, who used to be a popular student here. Moreover, Wang Jian happens to be Shen Junwen’s good friend, so of course I know him!”

“Oh, I see!”

“The name of that beautiful girl sitting beside Shen Junwen is Hu Huimin. From what I’ve heard, she is into Shen Junwen. Both of them were transferred to this university together,” said Xu Yangyang.

Deep down inside, Xu Yangyang was thinking to himself, Shen Junwen might be the star of the day for now. However, the most anticipated thing of the day would be Liang Fei seizing the moment.

At that moment, he started to pay more attention to the announcement.

The host then summoned a few more students onstage.

“Lin Shengnan from Class Three of the Business and Administration School with a donation of 30,000, please come onstage!”

“Ah!”

As expected, the whole auditorium was filled with clamorous and excited cries.

Even the teachers who were sitting at the front rows started to whisper among themselves.

The commotion inside the auditorium lasted for quite a while.

Xu Yangyang leaped in excitement because Liang Fei’s name was about to be announced.

Lin Shengnan walked toward the stage with a graceful demeanor.

Then, she took the position at the center of the stage.

“Next, Liang Fei from Class Three of the Business and Administration School with a donation of 100,000!!! Liang Fei, please get onstage!”

This time around, even the voice of the host was full of excitement.

As for the audience...

100,000??

Bang!

There was an outright explosion among the audience.

The thundering applause and screams from the audience brought about a vibration so great that the glasses in the auditorium were almost shattered.

One's eardrums could feel the stress from the vibration.

It was 100,000. It went without saying that it was too great of an impact for everyone in the auditorium.

“Who is it? So generous!”

“Of course, it's none other than Liang Fei from Class Three!”

“No wonder, since Liang Fei is so rich. But still, it's 100,000! He's too generous!”

Everyone exclaimed in shock.

As for Xu Yangyang, he was swaying Liang Fei's arms excitedly and shouting at the same time, “Brother Fei, it's your name! It's your name!”

Liang Fei shook his head with a bitter smile.

It was just 100,000. Was it really worth everyone's attention and surprise?

Hehe!

At that moment, Liang Fei tucked both of his hands inside the pockets of his trousers and made his way toward the stage. Everywhere he passed by would trigger screams from the girls.

He then went onstage.

Next, the host mentioned two other figures.

It was a donation of 150,000 made by two girls from Class Four respectively.

The atmosphere inside the auditorium reached another climax.

The host did not mention the girls' names and did not invite them onstage either.

However, everyone still averted their gazes toward the two girls sitting in the last row.

Surely, the donors were Fang Jiannan and Fang Yi.

However, the impact of their donations was not as extensive as Liang Fei's.

Everyone at Chengdu University knew both of them were rich. In fact, they had regularly made contributions to the university.

Nonetheless, a warm round of applause was still heard from the audience.

As the host came to the last student of the twelve, he was in a dilemma.

He spoke, "Next, this student we're having here has made the largest contribution. However, this student left out his name and merely wrote his department and class. Let's give a warm round of applause to the class this student is from!"

"Ah? Which class is that? How much did he donate?"

Everyone was busy discussing among themselves.

On the stage, Liang Fei, Lin Shengnan, Hu Huimin and Shen Junwen were exchanging glances with each other.

All of them were looking forward to what the host was going to announce...?
