

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 360

“This student comes from Third Year, Class Three of the Business and Administration School with a donation of five hundred thousand!”

The host exclaimed excitedly.

“Ah!!!”

The entire auditorium exploded with screams.

Someone had donated 500,000!

Liang Fei’s donation of 100,000 was already deemed a hefty sum. Coupled with the donation from the two pretty girls, everyone had assumed that their donations were already the highest among all.

However, someone had actually donated 500,000.

This time around, even the members of the university management committee sitting at the front row gave a standing ovation in response to the announcement.

As for Shen Junwen, Hu Huimin and the rest who were standing onstage, all of them looked toward Liang Fei and Lin Shengnan from Class Three.

Even Lin Shengnan and Liang Fei were caught by surprise. Someone from their class had actually donated 500,000!

“Yangyang, did you hear that? The host mentioned our class. Someone from our class donated five hundred thousand!”

Some girls from Class Three shouted at Xu Yangyang at the moment.

“I heard that. The important question is, who made the donation?”

Xu Yangyang started to get excited.

Five hundred thousand was definitely not a petty sum even to rich families!

Everyone in the auditorium was in a state of ecstasy.

Even Fang Jiannan and Fang Yi exchanged a glance with each other.

Both girls pretty much kept to themselves and didn’t say much in the classroom or joint classes.

However, they knew all of the students in the two classes inside out.

For example, although both girls had never interacted with Fatty Wang, they did see him as their classmate. They had offered him a lot of help behind his back. Fatty Wang’s father was a dirty guide and he had been causing trouble to his family. However, Fatty Wang’s family had not been disturbed by enemies for quite some time already.

It was because Fang Jianan had been helping him all this while.

Hence, she had a very thorough understanding about her classmates. Therefore, she could not believe that someone from Class Three could fork out five hundred thousand as a donation.

“Liang Fei, Lin Shengnan, both of you are from Class Three. I suppose this rich student is one of your classmates?”

The host turned to look at Liang Fei and Lin Shengnan.

“But I don’t think anyone from our class is rich enough to be able to afford such a hefty sum,” Lin Shengnan said to Liang Fei.

“Could the donation be made by my father? Early this morning when we were on the way here, my father was the one who told me about this event.” Liang Fei suddenly thought about this possibility.

“Ah?”

The entire auditorium was thrown into silence. The audience stared at Liang Fei without any movement.

Hu Huimin, too, had fixated her gaze on him.

After all, she had done some research on the popular figures in the university before she was transferred here.

Wang Jian was the most popular guy for the previous batch. For the current batch, Liang Fei was the most popular guy, followed by Li Wentao.

All of them came from wealthy families.

“Why don’t you give him a call and ask for confirmation?” Hu Huimin suggested.

“Yes, you should call your family to confirm it!”

Some of the members of the university management committee sitting offstage chimed in.

Hence, Liang Fei started to dial the numbers.

At the same time, the teaching assistant dashed toward her class, looking excited.

“Where are all the bottles of mineral water? Did you carry them here?”

The teaching assistant asked Xu Yangyang anxiously.

“Oh no, I have forgotten all about it because of the buzz!”

Xu Yangyang patted her head and exclaimed.

“We need six students to carry the bottles here. Hmph, where are Fatty Wang and Chen Hao?”

Xu Yangyang was scanning her surroundings with her eyes.

Someone pointed at Chen Hao, who was sitting in the last row.

“They are hidden over there!”

One of the girls spoke.

“Hmph, Chen Hao and Wang Xiaohua, you guys refused to carry the bottles of mineral water here after I have told you two to do so. Now, I have found four other students to help you. There shouldn’t be any problem now right? Damn, you two are really great at slacking off and being good-for-nothings!”

After shooting a disdainful look at Chen Hao and Wang Xiaohua, Xu Yangyang summoned four other classmates to help them.

Back then, Chen Hao had encountered someone like Xu Yangyang before in his class.

To her, no other guys could compare to the one she fancied. All she could see was her crush and she would pay no regards to any other guys.

However, it didn’t matter anymore.

At that crucial juncture, he guessed he would be ill-treated if he still refused to carry the bottles.

Then, Chen Hao, Wang Xiaohua and the four students headed outside the auditorium.

Fortunately, he did not write down his name when he donated. He felt relieved deep down inside.

Some emotions finally appeared on Fang Yi’s face after watching both Wang Xiaohua and Chen Hao leave.

“Jiannan, I seem to have felt something just now. What exactly is that kind of feeling? When Chen Hao walked past me, my heart was pounding wildly. The weird thing was, I wanted him to stay beside me!”

Fang Yi continued, “Why do I feel this way? Why do I feel like we have been close friends for a long time despite never seeing him before in all my life?”

Fang Jiannan nodded her head and said, “But we have no idea about his background yet. He doesn’t look like any other ordinary guy. Yet, his attire makes him look mediocre.”

The two girls were whispering among themselves.

As for Chen Hao and the rest, they were on their way to carry the bottles of mineral water.

They had to distribute the water to every member of the university management committee who was sitting in the front row, as well as the staff.

They carried the water into the auditorium.

Currently, the entire university management committee and the staff were not interested in quenching their thirst.

Their attention was fully focused onstage, where Liang Fei was on the phone, looking anxious.

Xu Yangyang followed Liang Fei onstage, as though she was somehow related to the whole matter.

However, the outcome was disappointing.

In the end, it was not Liang Fei's father who had donated the money.

Ah? Who else could it be?

Everyone was caught in a daze.

Liang Fei looked at Lin Shengnan and asked, "Shengnan, could it be your father? Your father has always been very passionate about charity as well!"

Lin Shengnan nodded her head in agreement before saying, "Okay, let me give my father a call."

In the midst of this suspenseful moment, someone let out a cry from the audience.

It was Wang Xiaohua.

He was carrying the water for Chen Hao to distribute among the audience.

Then, a girl who was holding a report in her hand walked into the auditorium from outside and accidentally bumped into Wang Xiaohua.

Because of that, Wang Xiaohua's grip on the water bottles loosened and all the bottles dropped to the floor.

"Oh no, so sorry about that! It was an accident!"

The girl said apologetically.

"It's okay, please carry on with your task," said Chen Hao.

Chen Hao squatted down and helped Wang Xiaohua pick up the bottles.

The girl, who was also helping them pick up the bottles, suddenly lifted her head and took a look at Chen Hao.

Both of her eyes twitched slightly.

"Ah? It's you!"

The girl exclaimed in shock while covering her mouth.

"Ah! It's you!"

Chen Hao was taken aback too.

The girl was none other than the one who had persuaded Chen Hao to make the donation before.

In fact, Chen Hao only decided to take on the task of carrying the water after he was sure that the fundraiser girls whom he had encountered before were not in the auditorium.

Out of his expectation, he bumped into one of them.

This was very awkward for Chen Hao.

“Finally, I’ve found you. You didn’t give me your name just now!”

The girl said excitedly.

“What’s going on, Li?”

At this moment, some directors from the charity organization started to get upset at the sight of the mess.

“Director, h-he is the one...”

“Ah!”

At that moment, the other fundraiser girls had also walked into the auditorium.

At the sight of Chen Hao, they couldn’t help but let out a scream in surprise.

Because of the screams, the whole auditorium was thrown into silence.

Hu Huimin, Liang Fei and Lin Shengnan who were onstage averted their gazes toward Chen Hao...????
