

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 371

“Did you hear everything?”

Grandfather Fang asked when they entered the study room.

Fang Jiannan nodded solemnly.

Although Fang Jiannan remained unaffected despite being the youngest generation of the Fang family to get grounded, her parents’ story would forever be a thorn in her heart.

Being grounded meant that she could at least throw a tantrum. But as for her parents, no one had told her about them since she was young. If she asked, she had gotten a beating instead.

“Do you hate me? Since I hid this from you for so long?” Grandfather Fang asked.

“No, I don’t. I know that Grandpa only hid it from me for my own sake!” Fang Jiannan said.

“Jiannan, I have seen every ounce of hard work you have put in these past few years. To be honest, I am very proud to have a granddaughter like you, and I’m sure your parents up in heaven are very proud of you as well.” Grandfather Fang patted Fang Jiannan on the shoulder.

“Then who is the Fang family rival, and were my parents killed by them?” Fang Jiannan asked.

Grandfather Fang took a deep breath and looked toward a corner before nodding.

“I know that I can’t keep these secrets from you any longer. Now that you are skilled in many aspects and have grown stronger, I can finally let you in on some things.”

After a pause, Grandfather Fang continued, “Yes, all this while, the Fang family has had a major rival, and that rival is the Chen family.”

“The Chen family? Why have I not heard of this family before?” Fang Jiannan said, stunned.

“Well, their family doesn’t need to be hidden away like ours. But to be on a level such as the Chen family’s is a feat not easily achieved. Besides, I grounded you for over twenty years. How much of this world could you have seen?” Grandfather Fang said.

“But why? Why does the Chen family treat us this way?” Fang Jiannan’s eyes glinted with the flames of hatred.

“This is a long story. To sum it up, ever since my generation, including your parents’ generation, our feud with them has never ended. You must always remember to be careful of anyone from the Chen family! Understood?” Grandfather Fang said tenderly.

“Understood, Grandpa!”

“Also, Jiannan. Since you already know about some things about the family, then I don’t think I can keep any more from you. Besides, you’ve already seen how the Fang family’s system operates, and I have already decided that you are the only heir of your father’s business! You are also the only female heir to inherit the business, apart from her,” Grandfather Fang said.

Fang Jiannan was feeling extremely emotional. Moreover, she knew who the other female in question was.

Just then, Grandfather Fang's expression became even darker.

"Back then, I was too reckless. Till now, your aunt is still in hiding and doesn't want to see me. Fang Mengxin, this silly child. How could she be so stubborn? Although I have a stubborn mouth myself, I've always missed your aunt!" Grandfather Fang started weeping.

"Fang Jiannan, promise me something."

"Say no more, Grandpa. I will find Aunt Meng Xin for you!" Fang Jiannan said.

This had happened when she was very young.

The old caretaker of the family had told her before.

There used to be a very powerful woman in the family, and that was her aunt, Fang Mengxin.

However, she disobeyed a family rule and was then chased away by Grandfather Fang.

For the last few years, Grandfather Fang had been looking for her, but he couldn't find a trace of where she could be hiding.

And so, it was a thorn in Grandfather Fang's heart.

Now that Fang Jiannan inherited her father's business, it became obligatory for her to find her aunt.

At the same time, Fang Jiannan also wanted to meet this strongly respected aunt of hers, who she had been compared to many times. Everyone constantly pointed out how similar the two of them were, from their abilities to their looks.

What kind of woman could she be?

Who did she fall in love with for Grandpa to disown her so ruthlessly?

Grandfather Fang finally took out a photograph and passed it to Fang Jiannan. The woman in the photograph was extremely beautiful and breathtakingly so.

She was Fang Jiannan's aunt, Fang Mengxin!

As for her inheriting the business by force, that would be settled personally by her grandfather.

Fang Jiannan didn't have to worry about the Situ family. They might have some power as of now, but they still wouldn't dare to overstep their boundaries.

After that, Fang Jiannan left Grandfather Fang's study room and kept the photograph properly as she returned to her room.

"Jiannan, I've been waiting for you for awhile!"

Under the night sky, a young man was standing in the middle of the courtyard.

“Situ Yang, what are you waiting for me for?” Fang Jiannan asked coldly.

“I heard that you got injured after a fight with someone today. I got worried and came to check on you. Don’t worry, Fang Jiannan. I will make him pay with his own blood!” Situ Yang said.

“It’s none of your business! I’m warning you, if you dare to hurt my classmate, I will not let you get away with it!” Fang Jiannan was instantly angered.

“Okay, okay. I’ll let that little punk go. Jiannan, don’t be angry!” Situ Yang said hurriedly.

“That’s it, right? If you’re finished, then I’ll be going back now!” After that, Fang Jiannan glared at Situ Yang hatefully before turning to leave.

“Jiannan! Hey!” Situ Yang called out.

However, Fang Jiannan was already far away.

Situ Yang clenched his fists in anger.

“Young Master, I’ve already told you. All the good things you do for her will still be ignored!” Right then, an old person emerged from behind a tree, his hands clasped together.

Under the moonlight, this old man had a terrifying visage.

His face was half stark white and the other half was black, as if he was wearing a mask.

His eyes were deep and dark, looking like they were sinking into his skull. A frightening sight indeed.

Plus, his entire being looked as if he was reduced to just skin and bones, as though a slight breeze could cause him to fall apart.

“What do you mean?” Situ Yang asked.

The old man smiled. “Opportunities are always made by one’s self. They won’t come flying out of nowhere for you. The reason she doesn’t bother about you is because all the help you give her comes way too easily! The real way to make her notice you is to make her feel like she’s nothing without you. Make her feel like she has to rely on you for everything!”

The old man’s voice sounded more like an old goose squawking than a human’s voice.

Situ Yang nodded. “Understood!”

The corners of his mouth lifted into a devious smirk.

Back to Chen Hao.

The next day, Chen Hao had come to class early.

That was because today's first two classes were joint lessons.

So, Chen Hao called Wang Xiaohua along and the two of them arrived at class extremely early.

Currently, there weren't many students in the classroom.

However, Fang Jiannan and Fang Yi had already arrived.

When they saw Chen Hao, Fang Jiannan and Fang Yi lifted their heads up to look at him.

Especially Fang Yi, whose gaze carried a hint of hatred.

Chen Hao came to Fang Jiannan's side, looking apologetic. "I'm sorry about what happened yesterday. I seriously didn't mean to!"

Besides, Fang Jiannan was still a girl. He had only thrown her off like that when she wasn't paying attention because he had gotten anxious.

Chen Hao was feeling rather uncomfortable having beaten her, because he really was just opportunistic. If they really were to fight, how could he possibly beat Fang Jiannan?

However, when Fang Jiannan heard this from Chen Hao, she felt as if he was mocking her.

Right then, Fang Jiannan spoke coldly, "I'm relieved to still be able to see you today morning."

Chen Hao was confused. "Huh?"
