

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 375

“Who is this guy? He’s so rude, how could he just ignore the rules?”

“Exactly! Does he think he can just enter President Zhu’s door whenever he wants to? Did he not see all of us waiting for our names to be called?”

Right away, a bunch of people started to whisper among themselves.

Hu Huimin and Xu Yangyang were just waiting for him to embarrass himself.

Zhu Ming had zero competitors in Chengdu, and the power he had was way too overwhelming. He was also very adamant to follow traditions, and if anyone overstepped their boundaries, then they could only wait and see what would happen.

Right after Chen Hao knocked, the door was opened by a butler.

“Punk, just wait and see!”

“You think you can show up for just anything? Haha!”

“He’s so young yet he’s already setting himself up for embarrassment. He definitely isn’t accomplished!”

The crowd laughed.

“Y-Young Master Chen, it’s you!” the butler greeted Chen Hao, slightly taken aback.

Immediately, the butler bowed slightly.

“Yeah, I noticed that you all looked rather busy, so I just waited outside here for a little while.” Chen Hao smiled bitterly.

“Ah, yes, of course! Young Master Chen, please come in!” The butler quickly ushered Chen Hao in.

If Chen Hao wasn’t counted as a VIP, then there would be no one else who fit that title.

“What?”

This scene gave everyone outside a shock.

“Which Young Master is he? Young Master Chen? I’ve never heard of him, but I have also never seen Butler Mo act like this before!”

“Yes, who exactly is he?”

The crowd was greatly astonished.

Even Hu Huimin’s jaw had dropped in disbelief, her heart started beating faster by the second.

She felt a sense of dread from being faced with exactly what she was always afraid of.

It was because Hu Huimin had never respected Chen Hao, since high school until this exact moment.

Although Chen Hao had worked extremely hard in high school, Hu Huimin knew that he still couldn't build a good future for himself.

Everyone knew that Hu Huimin was extremely straightforward, and sometimes she was so blunt that it would hurt someone's feelings.

To sum it up, it was because Hu Huimin had always felt a sense of superiority in most of her circle of friends.

Just compare how reserved she was in front of Shen Junwen and Wang Jian. It was obvious she only looked down upon Chen Hao.

But right now, she was being faced with the fact that this person she had always looked down upon was rich, and was different now as he was richer than she was.

Right at that moment, Hu Huimin felt extremely upset.

She tried to find different excuses to placate herself. Chen Hao could have just won the lottery, and that's why he's rich. This money wouldn't last for a long time anyway.

Besides, no matter how rich he was, he had no connections. Hehe, in today's society, connections were of the utmost importance.

That was why Hu Huimin's mentality managed to stay balanced the last two days.

But now, she was the one waiting for President Zhu to help settle her problems. As for Chen Hao, he could walk in and out of President Zhu's house as and when he wanted.

It was obvious that Chen Hao and President Zhu had a rather complicated relationship.

"Who knew that Chen Hao actually knows President Zhu!"

Xu Yangyang was anxious beyond words.

But no matter how anxious she was, there was no other way.

No one could help her except for President Zhu now, and he might not even agree in the end.

"Huimin, why don't you give Chen Hao a call? If he agrees to help us out, then we're basically saved!" Shen Junwen was the one who said this.

"Me?" Hu Huimin felt as if she had just been punched in the face.

"Yes, Hu Huimin, you! That guy used to have a crush on you, besides, you guys used to be classmates. Your words will be the most useful! Otherwise, even if we wait until evening, we still might not be able to meet President Zhu! Then this problem will get even worse!" Shen Junwen said anxiously.

"Yeah, Huimin. Please beg Chen Hao for help, I'm sure he'll agree!" Xu Yangyang also agreed.

Hu Huimin thought it over for quite a while.

Finally, she said, "I'm not close to him, actually. Even if I ask him for help, he might not say yes. Still, I'll try!"

She took out her phone hesitantly and dialed Chen Hao's number.

Of course she was reluctant. Who would want to plead someone they had looked down upon, and apart from that, had been hurt by your blunt words? No one would have the guts.

Unfortunately, they really needed Chen Hao's help.

Chen Hao had never expected that an arrogant peacock like Hu Huimin would give him a call.

He laughed bitterly.

"What is it?" Chen Hao asked.

"Chen Hao, do... Do you know President Zhu well?" Hu Huimin asked in a small voice.

"Yes. So out with it already!" Chen Hao said bluntly.

"If you do, then well, you know that we have some problems on hand. I hope you can give us a hand and help us bring it up to President Zhu!" Hu Huimin said as her face started to heat up.

"I don't mind bringing it up to him, but what's in it for me? Why should I help you all?" Chen Hao laughed.

"Do it for me!"

"Alright then, you come in with Xu Yangyang. Just the two of you!" Chen Hao said.

"Alright!"

Then, Chen Hao hung up the phone.

Obviously, Xu Yangyang and the others had heard everything.

"Huh? Huimin, Chen Hao called the two of us to go in alone? Why? You know how I've fought with him before, let alone how many times I've argued with him. I'm really worried, what if..." Xu Yangyang seemed to imagine some possible scenarios and turned her bright red face to the side.

"If he dares... I don't think he would actually do anything! I know him well. Later, once we go in, I'll talk to him. You just follow behind me!"

Hu Huimin thought inwardly, Chen Hao, you may be capable now, but I don't believe you can actually do anything!

After that, they walked in under the guidance of one of President Zhu's servants.

President Zhu's mansion was unbelievably huge.

There were more than ten servants just downstairs alone.

The servant led the two of them to the second floor.

They reached a large meeting hall.

“Young Master Chen is inside!” the servant said respectfully.

“Alright, thank you!” Hu Huimin said, feeling slightly nervous.

She opened the door and saw the sheer number of people in the meeting hall.

They were mostly middle-aged people and their secretaries.

There were at least thirty to forty people in there.

All of these middle-aged people were famous in Chengdu’s business world.

Hu Huimin even recognized a couple of them from the newspaper.

To Xu Yangyang, these people all looked like gangsters.

The atmosphere tensed up in a second.

What made Hu Huimin and Xu Yangyang even more nervous was how Chen Hao was seated at the head of the meeting table.

As for President Zhu Ming, he sat right beside Chen Hao.

“You all may leave first. I need to talk to them alone. President Zhu, you can come over here after finishing what you need to do!” Chen Hao said.

“Yes, Young Master Chen!” the whole room stood up and said in unison.

This scene gave Hu Huimin and Xu Yangyang quite a fright.

The two of them only came to their senses after the crowd had left.

Chen Hao looked at them with a smile. “Sit down, you two! Why are you still standing up?”

“Chen Hao, w-why did they call you Young Master Chen?”

Hu Huimin asked, gulping in disbelief.
