

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 393

Following that, several guys jumped down from the van.

Immediately, they forcefully grabbed onto Su Ziyue and tried to drag her into the van.

“Ziyue! Ziyue!”

Aunt Fang was standing on the other side. Earlier, she was already on high alert when she caught sight of the van surging toward Su Ziyue.

She frantically made a dash toward Su Ziyue.

At the same time, Su Ziyue was struggling to escape.

In a moment of desperation, she gave someone’s arm a nasty bite.

“Ah!”

The guy with his face covered by a mask screamed in pain.

Violently, he pushed Su Ziyue away.

Under the harsh force of his shove, Su Ziyue fell hard to the ground.

The back of her head hit a curb by the roadside.

She was rendered unconscious right away from the impact.

Fang Mengxin rushed over to the spot. At the sight of the men who were trying to carry an unconscious Su Ziyue away, Fang Mengxin decided to fight them with her life.

But at the end of the day, Fang Mengxin was merely a woman.

Clearly, she was no match for them.

Just when Fang Mengxin was feeling hopeless, a figure suddenly emerged.

Thereafter, she saw the leader of the men tremble all over while rooted to the ground.

A young man with a stoic expression ran toward them at the speed of lightning.

Some of the masked men looked like they were prepared to fight the young guy.

However, they quickly realize that they were no match to him.

“Leave! Leave now!” one of the men started shouting.

Fang Mengxin was getting anxious. Mustering all of the strength in her, she lunged toward the guy who was sitting shotgun in the van and forcefully tore away his mask.

The guy was caught off guard and immediately covered his face with his hands.

Cursing furiously at the same time, he drove the van away.

The young guy had wanted to go after them, but he decided to let them go when he noticed that Su Ziyue's injuries were severe.

"Thank you! Thank you so much!"

Holding Su Ziyue in her arms, Fang Mengxin expressed her gratitude toward the young guy.

"Aunt Fang, you don't have to thank me. What I did was within my responsibility. I am the bodyguard assigned by Young Master Chen to secretly offer protection to Miss Su Ziyue. However, I didn't expect someone would launch an attack in broad daylight!" the young guy said with his face looking somewhat remorseful.

Su Ziyue was already unconscious and her face was pale. The siren of the ambulance could be heard from afar.

The young guy was none other than Di Hu.

The two brothers, Tian Long and Di Hu were specifically assigned to take care of Chen Hao's safety.

Before coming to Chengdu, Chen Hao thought that having Tian Long by his side was more than enough and that it was unnecessary to keep both of them with him.

Therefore, he had instructed Di Hu to offer secret protection to Si Ziyue a long time ago.

After all, abductions had happened to people close to Chen Hao before, thus he couldn't help being vigilant.

However, what could possibly happen to Su Ziyue?

Therefore, Di Hu was usually quite free.

Out of his expectations, he noticed that Su Ziyue was being targeted by a group of men through the monitoring device earlier today.

Although he had tried his best to rush over to the spot, he was a second too late.

Chen Hao had gotten to know about the incident at the earliest possible time.

Immediately, he rushed to the hospital.

"Has anyone found out who did it?"

Seeing how Su Ziyue was still in a deep coma, the entire body of Chen Hao trembled with fury.

As for Fang Mengxin, her eyes were on the verge of running out of tears from her relentless sobbing.

"I've contacted President Zhu to have him handle the investigation of the matter. That group of men were not local. So, nothing much could be dug up on them. However, Young Master Chen, I bet you'd be interested in one of them," said Tian Long, who had also made his way to the hospital.

After that, he showed Chen Hao the photo capturing the moment when Fang Mengxin was tearing away the mask of the guy sitting shotgun in the van.

Chen Hao's eyes twitched slightly at the sight of the guy.

"Long Shaoyun? Why was he there?" Chen Hao asked in a shocked voice.

Although the photo was somewhat blurry, Chen Hao was completely sure that the guy was Long Shaoyun.

After all, he nearly died because of him.

"You're right, it's him! After doing some investigation, we got to know that he arrived in Chengdu several days ago. Young Master Chen, I understand that two of you had a feud with each other back then. However, I still don't understand the reason as to why he would come all the way to Chengdu to seek revenge against you."

Bang!

Chen Hao landed a heavy blow to the wall with his fists.

"I don't care who he is and what he is trying to do. But what has Ziyue done to deserve this? She nearly lost her life because of me! Tian Long, Di Hu, I reckon Long Shaoyun is still here in Chengdu. Both of you, together with Zhu Ming, you guys must capture him! I don't care about the means you're going to use, I would not allow him to leave Chengdu without suffering any consequences!"

Chen Hao yelled in rage as he was standing by the door, staring at Su Ziyue who was still lying unconscious in the ward.

"Yes! Young Master Chen!"

Tian Long and Di Hu immediately left to execute his instructions.

At the same time, there was a villa in a rather secluded area.

"Quick! Pack up all the things! We will depart in two groups!"

"Ah? Young Master Long, why are we leaving so urgently? Don't we need to inform Situ Yang that we're leaving?" asked Long Shaoyun's personal driver.

"What nonsense are you talking about? If we delay any more time, we would not be able to leave at all! Now, arrange for that group to depart first!" Long Shaoyun said in an anxious tone.

He had concocted the kidnapping plan today with Situ Yang three days ago.

Su Ziyue was the only one constantly around Chen Hao.

Moreover, they had a close relationship.

Therefore, Long Shaoyun intended to kidnap Su Ziyue and use her as bait to trick Chen Hao into his trap. Then, he would kill him.

He was even prepared to let his staff perish together with Chen Hao.

After all, he was only the mastermind behind the entire plan. So, he was not afraid of anything.

However, it was a completely different case now. If Chen Hao were to investigate around, he would soon find out that he was the culprit.

Surely by then, Chen Hao would send his men out to kill him.

In the beginning, he had planned to assassinate Chen Hao indirectly through Situ Yang. His plan had seemed airtight at first. However, he had clearly underestimated the current extent of Chen Hao's security force.

Feeling on edge, Long Shaoyun hurriedly packed up his belongings.

"Young Master Long, I've made all the arrangements. According to your instructions, I've rented a jeep. After giving a rough estimation, it would be around nightfall by the time we left Chengdu!"

"Very well, we shall set off as soon as possible! Also, arrange some men to stand by in Qing City for our arrival!"

With that, Long Shaoyun lifted his suitcase, put on his shades and left in a haste.

Something peculiar happened during the day in the city center of Chengdu.

Various models of luxurious cars were speeding away on the roads.

There were at least five hundred luxury cars forming the convoy.

The cars could be seen taking different routes and heading in different directions.

"Damn, what's happening?"

"What a sensational sight!"

"Did anything bad happen?"

"Nothing was reported on the news. What kind of person could own such a convoy?"

Many were shocked to see the spectacle.

There were a lot of people at the outskirts of the city of Chengdu.

Buzz! Buzz! Buzz!

At that moment, a thundering roar could be heard coming from the sky.

All the passersby lifted up their heads to take a look at the source of the noise.

“Damn, why are there so many helicopters?”

”Oh my God, what’s going on?”

The passersby were all snapping photos of the scene before them.

Their mouths were agape in shock.

It was because there were over a hundred helicopters taking off and flying in various directions.

Over a hundred helicopters took off at the same time. It was not hard to picture how spectacular the sight was at that moment.

A search was done both in the skies and on land that lasted for a whole day.

Finally, the target was detected.

Currently, the target had fled to the linkway between Chengdu and Qing City.

It was late at night. The evening breeze blew through the window of Long Shaoyun’s car, the noise it made sounded like the howl of the dead...
