

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 442

Seven days had passed, and Yang Xiaobei's disappearance had caused a lot of commotion in Yan Jing.

Many of the big shots in Yan Jing and Jinmen were alarmed.

They sent their underlings to search for her.

This was especially because Young Master Chen was not around.

Although they had their suspicions, they could not find even the slightest lead after investigating.

It was as if she had disappeared into thin air.

Guo Caifeng had thought of contacting the Chen family in the southern region.

However, Xiaobei was the one with all the contacts, and nobody else knew how to contact them.

Seven days had passed, and it was still uncertain whether Xiaobei was dead or alive. In an instant, Guo Caifeng had become a lot more haggard.

Today, the Yang family gathered to discuss their strategy in finding Xiaobei.

It could be said that this was a more serious meeting.

Other than Guo Caifeng who was crying, everybody else lowered their heads and didn't utter a single word.

As for Yang Ye, he and Guo Ru secretly looked at each other and smiled.

This plan was carried out seamlessly. With the Long family's help, even if somebody suspected them, nothing could possibly happen to them.

They could investigate, but they wouldn't be able to dig up dirt on them.

Suddenly, a servant ran over in a hurry.

"Madam, the chairman and Young Master Chen are back!" the servant said excitedly.

"What? Chen Hao is back?"

Guo Caifeng stood up immediately and rushed out of there.

The remaining people all went out to welcome them.

"Mom and Chen Hao are back!"

Yang Ye swallowed his saliva, and his whole body began to shiver.

"Don't be afraid. What are you scared of? So what if he's back?" Guo Ru reminded him gently.

This helped Yang Ye solidify his conviction.

Chen Hao supported Grandma out of the car.

Grandma was old, and she had spent eight days with him. She was very tired.

At that moment, they saw a group of people come out to welcome them, and Chen Hao was just about to greet them.

“Chen Hao, you’re back. That’s great! Xiaobei will be saved!”

Guo Caifeng ran over recklessly, and she grabbed Chen Hao’s arm.

“Aunt Caifeng, what do you mean by ‘Xiaobei will be saved’? What happened?” Chen Hao asked.

“Yes. Caifeng, speak slowly. What happened?” Madame Yang asked too.

“Xiaobei, s-she has been missing for seven days. We looked everywhere, but we couldn’t find her!”

“Missing?” Chen Hao was stunned.

He never thought that over the eight days that he was away with Grandma, something would actually happen to Xiaobei.

“What happened actually?” Chen Hao asked nervously.

His relationship with Xiaobei and her family was different from the rest.

Chen Hao was very worried.

So, Guo Caifeng told him everything that had happened.

“Does somebody want to hurt Xiaobei? Xiaobei is such a good girl, and she has never offended anybody. Who would anyone want to hurt our Xiaobei?” Guo Caifeng asked.

“Aunt Caifeng, don’t be pessimistic. I’ll send people to investigate now, so don’t worry. No matter who it is, as long as they touch even a single strand of Xiaobei’s hair, I will make sure the whole family wish they were never born!”

As soon as Chen Hao finished speaking, he helped Grandma into the Yang family home.

“Mom, what do we do?”

Yang Ye glanced at Chen Hao and felt so anxious that his eyes turned red. His reaction wasn’t what they had expected, and he felt terrified.

Initially, Guo Ru and Yang Ye felt that Chen Hao might be rich, but he was soft-hearted. If Xiaobei was in trouble, they thought he would just be dejected and anxious, sending people to search for her.

But Guo Ru and Yang Ye had never ever thought that Chen Hao was actually this fierce.

At that moment, Guo Ru was also quite scared.

Based on what he had said, if Chen Hao really caught them, would he really destroy their whole family?

However, Guo Ru remained unwavering.

“Don’t worry. We will cross that bridge when we come to it. Although the Long family is not as powerful as Chen Hao, they are a big family that has been around for a few hundred years. Investigating them won’t be that simple.”

As for Chen Hao, the first thing he did was to lock Yang’s residence down.

Without his approval, nobody was allowed to go in and out as they pleased.

“Young Master Chen, there is something that I don’t know whether I should say or not,” Hou Ping told Chen Hao in the room.

“Just tell me.” Chen Hao nodded faintly.

“I have suspects. I suspect Yang Ye and the rest. This is because Yang Ye and the rest have a motive,” Hou Ping said.

Chen Hao nodded. “I suspect them too, and I got someone to investigate them. During the meeting today, their family was way too quiet. It was so quiet that it felt abnormal.”

“However, I really hope that it’s not them,” Chen Hao said.

At this moment, the housekeeper Ashen pushed the door open and entered.

“Young Master Chen, you’ve not rested since you came back today. You must be tired, so I instructed the staff to make a bowl of ginseng soup.”

“Sorry for troubling you, Uncle Ashen. How is my grandma?” Chen Hao asked.

“She’s quite sad. She was crying non-stop just now. However, she should be resting now,” Uncle Ashen replied.

He put the ginseng soup in front of Chen Hao, and Chen Hao raised the ginseng soup to his mouth.

Uncle Ashen opened his mouth but said nothing.

“Uncle Ashen, before I left, I remember Xiaobei telling me that she could help the Yang family settle the issue with the foreign loans. How did the Long family settle their loans? Did Xiaobei get into trouble before she had a chance to settle the issue?” Chen Hao put down the ginseng soup and suddenly asked.

“Huh?”

“N-No, Young Master Chen. She didn’t manage to settle the issue before getting into trouble,” Uncle Ashen said.

“I see. You should go back and take a rest.” Chen Hao smiled.

“All right, Young Master Chen. Drink the ginseng soup while it’s still hot.”

“I will.”

Chen Hao remained smiling as he watched Uncle Ashen leave.

Hou Ping said coldly, “I’ll investigate this old man now.”

Chen Hao looked at the ginseng soup and shook his head, saying, “Ashen has always been loyal, honest, and hardworking. He’s the least likely to lie. I think he must have unspeakable reasons for doing this.”

Chen Hao threw the ginseng soup into the rubbish bin.

After experiencing so much, Chen Hao was no longer the naïve person that he was before.

He had seen the ugliness of men and had experienced the most dangerous situations.

However, he didn’t want to believe that anybody from the Yang family would have ill intentions.

Although he didn’t have a good relationship with Guo Ru’s family, they were still his relatives and elders.

So, unless he had solid evidence, Chen Hao didn’t want to simply point a finger at them.

Besides, Chen Hao made a big deal about this without the intention of doing much because he wanted to give certain people the chance to right the wrong themselves.

But now, some people were obviously frantic enough that they were willing to harm him.

They were forcing him to use strong-arm tactics to solve the issue.

“You don’t have to investigate anymore. I’ll force them to come clean and tell the truth.”

Chen Hao understood that they were willing to harm him as well. Therefore, chances were that Xiaobei was in a lot of danger.

Initially, Chen Hao thought that they only wanted some benefits and would not do anything to Xiaobei.

No matter what, they were a family, so it would be impossible that they would be irreconcilable adversaries.

However, Chen Hao was clearly wrong. It was truly a life-and-death struggle.

“Yes.”

Hou Ping stared at the dark area of the room for a moment.

There were a few cold-faced underlings there.

“Come with me!”

Then, the whole lot of them walked out of the door right away.
