

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 463

After Chen Hao heard Fang Jiannan's words, he was stunned.

He had only had brief contact with Fang Jiannan. Moreover, to be honest, he had exploited her in certain ways.

Never in his wildest dreams did he imagine that she would feel this way about him...

"However, when we, the Fang family, went to meet the Chen family later, only then did we know that Chen Hao had disappeared. I have sent out a lot of men to find him. It has been 6 months already, and there is still no news of him. Maybe, he is dead already," said Fang Jiannan with a sad expression.

"Is it done?"

Fang Jiannan turned to look at San.

San nodded his head.

He gestured for her to take a rest.

Then, he carried his medical kit and prepared to leave.

As he was about to leave, Chen Hao saw an incense stick and an incense basket inside Fang Jiannan's house.

He frowned and pointed toward the incense basket and said, "A-A-Ah?"

What he meant to ask was whether she had something to do tomorrow?

Fang Jiannan smiled and nodded her head. "Tomorrow is the temple fair. Fang Yi, my aunts, and I are going to the temple to pray. Every year around this time, Fang Yi and I will sneak there secretly. Haha! San, I bet you didn't know that Fang Yi and I could not go beyond these walls as we pleased back then. Now, it is so nice that we get to walk around the lively temple fair!"

"O-Oh!"

However, Chen Hao did not look pleased at all.

"Do you want to go there, San? It looks like you haven't been to a temple fair before, right?" Fang Jiannan asked suddenly.

"A-A-Ah!"

Chen Hao made a hand gesture.

"Ok, it is decided then. If you are free tomorrow, you can accompany us there."

Fang Jiannan smiled.

She did not know why, but the first time she laid her eyes on San, she felt a close bond with him.

Mainly because San's gaze gave her a comfortable feeling.

In addition to that, he did not know how to speak. So, naturally he became a good listener.

Hence, Fang Jiannan wanted to be San's friend. Of course, to be only friends and nothing more.

Meanwhile, in the secret room of the Situ family's mansion...

Tonight, the atmosphere in the Situ family's mansion was obviously livelier than before.

Everybody at the table was drinking and chatting away merrily.

"Father, I am afraid that the situation has changed. That sneaky old fox, Fang Butong, has hired Zuo Zhongtao to treat his illness. Our men reported that, after a round of treatment, he looked a lot better," said Situ Yang worriedly at the banquet.

"Young Master Yang, I am afraid that you worry too much. The Long family and the Situ family aren't the same as before. Now that the Situ family and the Long family has forged an alliance, coupled with the help of the Mo family's skilled fighters, there is no reason why we should be afraid of Fang Butong anymore," said a middle-aged man with a smirk at this moment.

His name was Long Biao. He was the youngest son of Master Long.

Master Long had a few sons, and every single one of them was unique in their own way, especially Long Biao. He looked as tough as his name suggested.

Furthermore, he commanded the underground forces of the Long family.

Previously, he participated in the plan to surround the Young Master of the Chen family. He even returned with a lot of spoils from Qing City, and he nearly captured Chen Hao alive. Hence, in terms of capabilities, he had won the trust of the Mo family.

"You are right, Mr. Biao," said Situ Yang.

"Haha, Yang, from now on, you have to learn from your elders. Your knowledge just isn't enough. By the way, tomorrow, the first step of the plan is about to start, so how's the preparation going?" asked Situ Hong.

"Don't worry. Everything is in order. In addition to that, with the help of the brothers of the Mo family, Mo Qing and Mo Tian, nothing can go wrong," said Situ Yang.

At the same time, he looked at the two brothers who looked like two peas in a pod.

"Ok, then I am completely relieved. Mo Qing and Mo Tian are the cousins of Young Master Mo Jian. In terms of capabilities, they are almost as strong as him," Situ Hong complimented.

"Please don't pull our legs. Our capabilities are still a far cry from our cousin."

The two brothers shook their heads and smiled bitterly.

“Ok, then let us toast to the success of the first part of our plan tomorrow. Cheers!”

“Cheers!”

The next day, at the county temple fair in the Southwest region...

The temple fair was a grand event and it attracted a vast number of people.

“It’s really lively here!” Fang Yi stood amongst the crowd. When she saw that there were many people around, she couldn’t help but say excitedly.

“Fang Yi, mind your manners.”

Fang Jiannan was speechless.

“Why? I am really excited today. Don’t tell me that you aren’t excited? There are so many people here! How cool is that!” said Fang Yi.

Fang Jiannan shook her head wordlessly.

“Fine, let us take a look around first. Then, we can go and pray in the temple,” said Fang Yi’s aunt at the moment.

With that, she looked at the youth who followed behind them silently.

Then, she smiled and said, “Mr. San, I am sorry that you have to see this.”

Chen Hao shook his head.

To be honest, if they did not allow Chen Hao to come, he would still follow them anyway.

After all, the Situ family had always been eyeing the two sisters.

“Huh? Jiannan, take a look quickly. Aren’t those our classmates?” said Fang Yi as she suddenly pointed toward a corner.

There were 5 or 6 students in the group and it consisted of a mixture of guys and girls.

They were all walking around, shopping. Obviously, they noticed Fang Yi and Fang Jiannan too.

Originally, Fang Yi and Fang Jiannan were a mysterious and aloof existence in the eyes of these students.

Nobody dared to greet them on their own accord.

However, Fang Yi was currently waving her hands and smiling at them.

Of course, they made their way toward her.

After all, they were classmates for several years already.

“It’s you guys!” said the girl who led the group with a smile as she walked over.

“Yes, this is such a coincidence! Jiannan and I happened to come out to have some fun. Just now, I was thinking whether we would meet some of our classmates here. Unexpectedly, it really came true. How long have you guys been here already?” asked Fang Yi with a smile.

“We just arrived,” said several girls.

“That’s fine then. Let us join you all. We have been classmates for several years already, other than Shengnan, it has been a long time since we had a good long chat with you all, right, Jiannan?” asked Fang Yi.

Fang Jiannan smiled and nodded her head.

Both of them had had only brief contact with Lin Shengnan as Lin Shengnan and Chen Hao did lend them a hand 6 months ago.

“However, although we barely spoke to each other, I can still remember all of you.”

Fang Yi said again, “This is the class monitor from the class beside ours. Her name is Xu Yangyang. As for this pretty girl, her name is Hu Huimin. This handsome gentleman here is Shen Junwen. Huimin, you and Shen Junwen just transferred to our school, right?”

Hu Huimin looked at Fang Yi and smiled. “Yes. It has been 6 months since we transferred here. Just now, we happened to meet Yangyang and the rest of the group. Hence, we decided to tag along.”

“Ok then. Jiannan, Fang Yi, since you all are still young, why don’t you guys join them then? I have somewhere else to go with your other aunt,” said Fang Yi’s aunt.

With that, both of them left to do their shopping.

As for Chen Hao, he sighed to himself.

Originally, he thought that he wouldn’t meet them anymore. Unexpectedly after 6 months, he still bumped into them.

However, after they haven’t seen each other for 6 months, Xu Yangyang was less impulsive compared to before.

On the other hand, Lin Shengnan had cut her hair and changed her look. However, she still looked pretty and sexy.

As for Hu Huimin, there was a hint of mature charm around her. She looked even prettier compared to before.

“San, these are my classmates. Let’s hang out together, since we are all around the same age anyway.”

Chen Hao nodded his head. He did not reject her proposal.

On the other hand, Lin Shengnan, Hu Huimin, and Xu Yangyang felt a bit awkward if they were to walk together with this kind of person. That was because they saw that he was wearing a mask, and they also noticed that he did not know how to speak. Moreover, they could see that there was a scar on his face through the mask.

However, they weren't in the position to say anything further since Fang Yi and Fang Jiannan brought him along. Hence, they nodded their heads.

However, Hu Huimin intentionally kept her distance from Chen Hao.
