

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 494

Yin Chao couldn't help but shake his head with a bitter smile.

It seemed like Chen Hao was all talk.

This classmate of his, who was also his good friend, actually did have a winery that was run by his family. A specialty of this friend and his father was that they could both withstand high amounts of alcohol.

He had seen how his friend downed seven bottles of strong liquor before he reached his peak with his own eyes. That was seven cattles worth of alcohol!

That was why he was absolutely sure that this good friend of his could make Chen Hao drink until his stomach bled.

A few of them took turns to persuade Chen Hao to down a glass of alcohol at one go.

In the blink of an eye, Chen Hao and this good friend of Yin Chao had drunk three bottles each.

The face of Yin Chao's good friend was so pale that it was scary, but he was still extremely sober. From the looks of it, he could down another three bottles with no issues.

However, what was happening right now scared the few girls at the table, including Yu Jinfei.

They were drinking way too much.

Yu Jinfei took a glance at Chen Hao. He didn't even look like he had drunk a drop of liquor, and his expression remained unchanged.

"Chen Hao, you really have a high tolerance for alcohol. Since you're that good, how about we drink three more bottles? Do you think you can take it?" Yin Chao was feeling rather surprised, but he was also unsatisfied.

"No problem. But you guys have to start drinking too. I've had three bottles and so has this good friend next to me. It's about time you guys joined us!" Chen Hao said with a smile.

"Alright, since Chen Hao is willing to continue, then we shall do our parts too!"

Yin Chao whispered to his good friend, "You doing alright, Tao Zi?"

"I-I'm fine!" The winery owner's son, Tao Zi, waved his hand.

After that, the few of them started a new round of drinking.

Yu Jinfei was watching them with her eyes widened.

Amongst them, Tao Zi and Chen Hao were drinking at an equal rate.

Yin Chao and the other two were drinking half a glass at one go.

In the blink of an eye, Chen Hao and Tao Zi had each drunk three more bottles.

Yin Chao and the others each had one and a half bottles of alcohol.

Out of all the boys at the gathering, apart from Tao Zi and Yin Chao who still had some form of sobriety, the other three had long since collapsed.

“Tao Zi, you can really drink! What about we each have three more bottles? Are you up for it?” Chen Hao took a look at Tao Zi, whose face was waxy and ashen, and Yin Chao, whose face was a shade of pale green.

“You still want to drink? You both had six bottles each!” Yu Jinfei stood up and said.

“Yes! Drink! We must drink! Tao Zi, keep drinking with him—bleurgh!” Yin Chao didn’t finish speaking because he had run out to vomit.

Yin Chao did not expect Chen Hao to have such a high tolerance for alcohol.

Just running to the bathroom caused the world to spin around him.

His stomach was feeling terrible.

At the end, all that he could vomit was fresh blood.

But once the need to drink came up, how could he still care about that?

After vomiting for a long time, Yin Chao walked back to the room.

“Ah!”

Just then, a scream sounded from inside the room.

Yin Chao dashed forward and pushed open the door of the room.

He saw Tao Zi lying on the floor, his mouth foaming with blood, and his eyes rolled to the back of his head.

“Quick! Call the ambulance!” Yin Chao widened his eyes and yelled.

The sound of the alarm of the ambulance neared them.

After settling everything, Yu Jinfei and Chen Hao returned to their car.

“You’re... completely fine?” Yu Jinfei said with shock as she looked at the unscathed Chen Hao.

“Yeah! I’ll let you in on a secret. I’m naturally immune to alcohol, so the only effect on me is that I really need to go to the toilet after that!” Chen Hao smiled lightly.

“Hmph! I couldn’t even tell. You’re so dishonest!” Yu Jinfei couldn’t help but glance at Chen Hao.

Right then, Yu Jinfei got a phone call.

She just listened and grunted lightly before hanging up.

At that moment, her face was filled with anxiety.

“My mom has returned from abroad. She knows that I got married behind her back!” Yu Jinfei said with a frown.

“Oh well, she can do whatever she wants!”

Immediately, Yu Jinfei drove home.

“That’s Chen Hao? What right does he have to marry into our family?”

After reaching home, a cold beautiful woman who had been sitting on the sofa stood up and pointed at Chen Hao, scolding him.

Su Hong had just returned from abroad, which is where she had been when this incredibly important news reached her ears.

When she heard that her daughter had made a decision without consulting her and married a foolish man, Su Hong had fainted in anger.

Of course, she then rushed home immediately.

“You don’t need to care about my life! How I act and what I do is none of your business!” Yu Jinfei retaliated without hesitation.

“I don’t need to care? Yu Jinfei, what were you thinking?! Do you know how many young masters came to our doorstep to ask for your hand in marriage, only for me to turn them down? If you don’t get married, that’s not even as bad. You can also not care about me, your mother’s opinion, but you can’t just marry someone like this and embarrass the entire Yu family!”

Slam!

When she finished talking, Su Hong immediately threw and shattered a teacup.

It shattered right at Chen Hao’s feet.

Since the beginning, Chen Hao hadn’t uttered a word.

“You too, Yu Jinxiang! I heard that you were the one who orchestrated everything. Just wait, I’ll take care of you later on! You two really messed everything up while I was at M Country looking for buyers!”

After that, Su Hong walked toward Chen Hao.

Slap!

She slapped him across the face. “Don’t you know what kind of person you are? You think someone like you is fit to marry into my family? Let me tell you, if you have any tact, the two of you will divorce immediately! And you! Never let me see you again!”

After that, Su Hong stormed up the stairs in a fit of rage.

She pushed down all of the flower pots on the stairs.

Chen Hao's face was adorned with a slap mark.

He could have dodged it, but something that Su Hong had said diverted his attention.

So, Su Hong had been looking for buyers in Country M.

The Yu family was not involved in trading.

Besides, why would a rich lady like her need to go look for buyers?

There was only one explanation: the King Ginseng.

Just as Wei Qingshu had said, the Yu family was now looking for buyers, but they didn't know who to sell it to.

Only exporting it would be a good option.

That also meant... could the King Ginseng be with Su Hong right now?

Chen Hao was thinking of this, and that had caused him to lose his focus.

"I'll pay you one hundred thousand extra after we end our contract as compensation for my mom slapping you," Yu Jinfei said when they went back into their room. She glanced at Chen Hao, who was still rather out of it.

"Do you think that money solves everything?" Chen Hao said suddenly, lifting his head.

"Am I wrong? Hehe, didn't you agree to this just because of money?" Yu Jinfei couldn't help but say contemptuously.

Chen Hao didn't reply and turned to go to the bathroom outside to wash his face.

"Hm?"

As he was washing his face, a black shadow suddenly flitted past outside the window of the bathroom.

It was extremely fast.

But right now, Chen Hao was on high alert.

Someone was there!

Chen Hao wiped his face and didn't even use the door. Instead, he jumped out of the bathroom window.

He started following the black shadow.

The shadow was extremely fast, and was in no way worse off than Chen Hao.

He could even say that that shadow was faster than himself.

Because Chen Hao realized that no matter how fast he ran, that black shadow always maintained a safe distance between Chen Hao and itself.

The 'safe distance' between them meant that the shadow was just out of range for his concealed weapons to shoot.

Only when they reached the shore of a moat did the black shadow stop running.

Chen Hao caught up, and under the moonlight, he could finally see the shadow clearly.

It was someone dressed in black robes, their clothes strange, leaving only their eyes visible.

"W-Who are you?" Chen Hao frowned as he asked.
