

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon Chapter 499

Under the moonlight, the figure in black ran even faster to escape.

The figure's pace was extremely fast, and the surrounding leaves and grass rustled with every step the figure made.

The figure's whole body was floating in the air.

Chen Hao was in hot pursuit.

Although this figure in black was highly skilled in Agility Skill, this figure was obviously still far behind Chen Hao's level.

"Are you still going to run?" Chen Hao stopped and sneered.

He tipped his feet and a branch floated in the air. Chen Hao then flicked his finger.

Whoosh!

With that, the branch shot out like an arrow that was released from the bow, making a noise as it cut through the air.

Smack!

The branch hit the figure in black. Upon receiving the hit, the figure in black rolled a few times and tumbled down the mountain slope.

To Chen Hao's astonishment, that injured figure in black had disappeared when Chen Hao walked to the place where the person had landed.

There was not a single trace in the surrounding area.

"That's strange. Did that person vanish into thin air?" Chen Hao frowned in bewilderment.

He was too careless!

Chen Hao continued to search around for a while to no avail. He then left the place swiftly.

Squeak!

The door of a hotel opened.

A figure staggered into the room and collapsed on the floor in the bathroom.

The entire arm was covered with streams of blood.

As the figure took off the balaclava carefully, a stunning face was exposed. She looked pale, and her silky black hair made her even paler in contrast.

Such an expert! The girl panted for breath as she exclaimed inwardly.

After that, she took out a gauze and bandaged her arm.

Three days passed in a flash.

In the blink of an eye, the day of the auction had arrived.

In these three days, although it appeared peaceful on the surface, there were happenings under the veil.

Several forces had engaged in gunfights and contests in the dark successively.

There were also encirclement, pursuit, as well as abduction.

In short, all the forces who felt they had a competitor would definitely engage in battles to some extent.

All the groups and forces went all in for the battle.

Due to the special treatment Shen Lan and the others received, they were naturally being targeted by many. However, the few attempts of abduction were stopped by Chen Hao as he was watching and protecting them in the dark.

When the day of the auction came, everything seemed normal as if nothing had happened. All the forces looked joyful when they brought their people to attend the auction ceremony.

Other than Shen Lan, who seemed mysterious to them, the Takena Family and Lei Long Company from North M received the highest cheers.

The ceremony was held in the villa's open-air forecourt.

A large stage was fixed up, and below it were rows of seats.

Although the Yu Family was the host, the members of the family were not qualified to sit on the stage. They could only sit at the seats below the stage.

The eighteen forces sat in the front rows, while the other forces sat behind.

Around them, thousands of onlookers stood there to watch. The crowds were bustling and the atmosphere was lively.

Su Hong wore a formal gown and was delivering the speech for the auction on the stage.

"Glasses, Ningning. Quick, I've reserved some seats for you guys!"

At this moment, Yu Jinxiang shouted to her classmates.

Glasses, Ningning and the others walked to her and greeted Chen Hao.

Naturally, Chen Hao came too as he was a member of the Yu Family, but he sat at the seat in the corner.

Meanwhile, all the friends of Yu Jinfei had also arrived.

“Jinfei, are you really going to be together with this guy forever?” A few girls sat beside Yu Jinfei and glanced at Chen Hao in the corner while they spoke.

“Exactly, Jinfei. It’s better if you part with him. You don’t have to put yourself in such a pitiful situation. Look at all the notable people who came today. I’ve noticed some young and handsome young masters expressing their interest in you!”

“Why don’t you take this opportunity to dump him and seek your true happiness?” The girls tried to convince her.

Yu Jinfei was listening to them. If it was before, Yu Jinfei would not feel any ripple of emotions in her heart. After all, her marriage with Chen Hao was fake.

However, she had seen many wealthy young masters from all around the world today, and their temperament was extraordinary. Even her exes were incomparable to them.

One’s circle determined one’s horizon.

Before this, Yu Jinfei thought her circle was wide enough, but she realized she was just a person of a narrow view today.

That very moment, she grasped her skirt with both her hands.

She regretted it. She regretted her willful acts, and she regretted being with Chen Hao. Even if it was fake, she still regretted it.

“I think Young Master Li is a good choice. Look at his way of talking and his manners. On top of that, he peeped at you several times. It seems like he really likes you. Jinfei, you must grab this opportunity. Divorce Chen Hao as soon as possible and seek your own happiness!” Her friends would not stop convincing her.

“Jinfei, if you feel awkward telling him, I’ll talk to him for you. Why don’t you divorce him tomorrow?” A friend volunteered to help.

Yu Jinfei did not utter a word, which meant that she tacitly approved her suggestion.

“Alright, I’ll tell him!” Her friends figured out her thoughts and were happy for her.

The friend then walked to Chen Hao in the corner. “Hey you, Chen Hao. I have something to tell you!” her friend said.

“What?” Chen Hao asked.

“Do you think you are a match with Jinfei? Why don’t you take a good look at yourself? You are nothing compared to Young Master Li. Let me tell you something. Jinfei extremely regrets her choice! She told me to tell you that both of you will be divorced tomorrow! What do you think? Are you still going to harass her?” The friend spoke bluntly.

“Divorce?”

Chen Hao frowned, then smiled as he replied, “Alright, I agree!”

Chen Hao married Yu Jinfei for the sake of the King Ginseng. If he could get the King Ginseng successfully today, this marriage would be totally useless.

“You agreed so easily? Great, it seems like you still have self-awareness!”

The friend gave a contemptuous smile before returning to Yu Jinfei’s side and said something to her.

Listening to the friend, Yu Jinfei just tidied her hair gently.

She could not help but glance at the back of Young Master Li who was sitting in the front row.

She knew a little about Young Master Li.

He was the son of a wealthy businessman from Myanmar, and he had extraordinary temperament.

On top of that, he had formed an alliance with Tian Long Group of Tian City.

If both parties could be united, it would be the best choice for her and the Yu Family in Tian City in the future.

“Why did they come again? They’re so disgusting!” At this moment, Yu Jinxiang who was beside her was infuriated again for some reasons.

Everyone turned to look in that direction.

It was a young man leading a few girls into the scene.

This young man was none other than Yu Jiang from Tagou Town, and the girls were Shen Meng and the two female lecturers of the biology team.

They were the reason for Yu Jinxiang’s anger.

“Keep your voice down, Jinxiang. It seems like Yu Jiang came with his father. His father is a member of Tian Long Group. What if they heard you?” Li Ningning reminded her.

Despite her frustration, Yu Jinxiang did not say a word.

“Is Ms. Shen Meng together with Mr. Yu Jiang now?” A girl asked.

“Yes. Someone saw them holding hands while they strolled around campus. I’ve also heard something interesting. It’s about Mr. Chen Hao and Ms. Shen Meng!” Li Ningning suddenly said in a low voice.

“What? What did you hear?”

Yu Jinxiang and the rest were intrigued.
