

I Am Born With A Silver Spoon novel Chapter 6

At that moment, inside the most luxurious room of the entire complex, a middle-aged man with arched eyebrows and superior presence was having a social gathering with a group of well-to-do people.

He was none other than Li Zhenguo, the General Manager of Jin Ling Street, who was also a rich tycoon in Jin Ling.

During the conversation, a strange thing occurred that caught everyone's attention.

Mr. Li went out for a phone call and then suddenly he dashed out of the room.

"What is going on with Mr. Li?"

Everyone was clueless. In the meantime, Li Shangtian saw Chen Hao entering the front lobby. He could not help but step forward to assist Zheng Yue in resolving the matter.

"Miss Zheng Yue, just call the security. There is no other way to settle issues with a barbarian!"

Li Shangtian gave a cold smile.

Zheng Yue nodded and a few guards came rushing over to surround Chen Hao.

"Stop right there!!!"

At this moment, Li Zhenguo had rushed to the reception lobby as quickly as he could.

His voice stopped everyone in the vicinity.

"General Manager Li?"

Zheng Yue and the others were quick to stand respectfully in front of him.

Li Shangtian also respectfully said, "Hi Mr. Li, I am Li Shangtian and my dad is Li Jian. We met previously at the business banquet."

Li Shangtian approached him hurriedly to greet him.

To his surprise, Li Zhenguo did not even cast him a glance.

General Manager Li walked toward Chen Hao and stopped in front of him.

He even pushed Zheng Yue and the others out of the way rudely.

“Are you Chen Hao?” Li Zhenguo asked respectfully.

Chen Hao nodded. “Yes, I am.”

“How is CEO Chen Xiao related to you?”

“She is my sister!” Chen Hao replied.

Li Zhenguo immediately stooped over and bowed to Chen Hao.

“Hello, Young Master Chen! I am Li Zhenguo!”

WHAT THE HELL! Everyone was beyond bewildered.

Li Shangtian’s eyelid even twitched.

Why did General Manager Li bow to this bumpkin?

Who was he?

Chen Hao was also dazed. He knew that his sister was the CEO of this area. However, he did not expect that his sister had such reputation to the extent that the General Manager would treat him this way.

To be honest, Chen Hao was still not used to being a wealthy person or even used to being treated like a human being!

Chen Hao lightly coughed. He then politely said, “General Manager Li, my sister asked me to come over and sign the contract!”

“Young Master Chen, it is a renewal contract. The entire Ji Ling Commercial Street including this villa is owned by you and the CEO. Half of businesses are under the CEO’s name and the other half is under yours! I have always wanted to pay you a visit, but the CEO did not allow me to!”

Li Zhenguo wiped off the sweat on his forehead.

He was thrilled and greatly relaxed by Chen Hao’s polite response.

Zheng Yue, Li Shangtian and the others were completely dumbfounded.

What!

This entire stretch of the street was owned by this guy’s family?

This shabby dude was actually the CEO of over half of the businesses in this area?

Li Zhenguo snorted, “Who was the one that stopped young Master Chen from entering?”

Li Zhenguo turned his head around and glanced coldly at the group of people in the reception lobby.

CEO Chen Xiao was extremely special to him. The reason Li Zhenguo got to where he was today was because of Chen Xiao promoting him to this position.

The second CEO, her own brother, had arrived and he couldn't believe that he was nearly chased out and disrespected like that!

If CEO Chen Xiao ever found out about this, he would be fired and thrown back to the bun store where he started.

Zheng Yue's face turned red and she quickly kept her head low, not daring to speak.

Li Shangtian, who was standing next to her, questioned, “Mr. Li, are you sure about this? This poor dude is the owner of the Ji Ling Street?”

BAM!! Upon hearing those words, Li Zhenguo slapped Li Shangtian across the face. “You bastard, what did you just say?”

“Mr. Li, I didn't mean anything by it.” After getting slapped, Li Shangtian covered his mouth and felt he had committed some great crime.

However rich he thought he was, it was nothing compared to Li Zhenguo. And Li Zhenguo was bowing to the boy he had just insulted!

“Throw this guy out of here!” Li Zhenguo ordered the group of security guards.

“Yes, sir!”

The group of security guards came up and surrounded Li Shangtian and the female celebrity accompanying him. They then shoved and chased the both of them out.

Li Shangtian felt so ashamed! What happened today was humiliating beyond belief! But what could he do? He was just an ordinary multi-millionaire.

Chen Hao looked on and did not stop the guards from doing what they were doing.

He did not expect that Li Zhenguo, who looked honest and considerate, had such a strong character.

If only I could be this domineering someday in the future Chen Hao thought to himself.

He followed Li Zhenguo into the villa.

Li Zhenguo introduced himself.

Chen Hao learned that a few years ago, Li Zhenguo and his wife sold steamed buns in a small shop.

His sister Chen Xiao was growing up in a poor household in their neighborhood.

His sister was so poor that she had to resort to begging for food and it was Li Zhenguo and his wife who gave his sister her first job.

After her sister starting making some money, she managed to collect some assets and cultivate them. After she had enough to form her own company, Li Zhenguo was promoted and got to where he was today.

No wonder Li Zhenguo was so respectful toward his family!

After finishing talking, Chen Hao proceeded to sign the documents. As mentioned by his sister, most of the shops in Jin Ling Commercial Street were registered under his name.

Chen Hao would never have dreamt that he could be this powerful!

After that, Li Zhenguo prepared a banquet specifically for Chen Hao.

Chen Hao was famished. It suddenly dawned on him that he hadn't eaten anything since this morning.

As he was finishing up his meal, Li Zhenguo smiled. "Young Master Chen, when you are done with your meal, you can visit all your different businesses around here. That was what CEO Chen Xiao said. This is to enable you to familiarize yourself with the businesses within your family. You can also learn how to conduct yourself as a rich businessman and not a poor beggar. "

As he said that, a quick idea flashed through his mind.

"Young Master Chen, excuse me for a minute!"

He then walked out and made a phone call. He merely said, "All of you, come up here!"

Then he left and walked downstairs.

Chen Xiao had no idea what General Manager Li was up to. Being famished, he gobbled down the big Australian steak on his plate.

Just as he was enjoying his meal, the door of his private room suddenly opened.

Then, Chen Hao saw six girls walk in.

They turned out to be Zheng Yue and the other beautiful receptionists.

This time around, they looked at Chen Hao differently.

Zheng Yue smiled seductively, "Young Master Chen, I apologize for my actions before"

"Young Master Chen, I am sorry!" The other receptionists also apologized in perfect unison.

"What are you all doing?"

Chen Hao wiped his mouth clean.

To be honest, even though they had been pretty cruel at the reception lobby earlier, Chen Hao had no intentions of taking revenge.

He just wanted to help his sister as soon as possible and so then he could leave.

But, by the look of their faces, Li Zhenguo must have reprimanded them just now. They must have been told to make it up to Chen Hao.

"We are here specifically to accompany you Master Chen. As long as you accept our apology, we would do anything to please you," Zheng Yue said charmingly.

Being the receptionists at Hot Spring Villa, they all had one ultimate motive; date a rich young man like him. That way, they could get married into a wealthy family.

General Manager Li had intentionally arranged for them to come up and apologize but it hadn't taken much to convince Zheng Yue and the others to do this.

It didn't suck being rich.

This young man in front of their eyes was a trust fund baby! An extremely wealthy trust fund baby! After understanding their intentions and their sudden change in attitude, Chen Hao was shocked.

Damn, six of them?

That was a lot of women in front of him.

Chen Hao was in a daze. At this moment, Zheng Yue took out a remote and pressed the button towards the wall.

Immediately, the wall began to move down and an indoor pool and a big water bed showed up.

Then the receptionists, following Zheng Yue's lead, unfastened their dresses.

Zheng Yue took off her upper outer garment, sat next to Chen Hao, and started softly rubbing him. Chen Hao felt lost.

Just as Chen Hao was not able to control himself, his phone rang. It was from his sister.

Chen Hao calmed down and said, "Ladies, I need to take care of this."

Chen Hao rushed out of the room and the potential orgy.

It turned out that his sister wanted to check with him about the status of the contract. She also told Chen Hao stop acting like the humble poor kid. He was a member of the rich elite and he needed to act like it. She talked about a bunch of things for a long time, most of which went over Chen Hao's head. After he hung up, Chen Hao smiled bitterly as he thought about what was happening in the room next to him and what to do next.

Chen Hao was already twenty-two and was still a virgin. Seeing those beautiful women definitely tempted him. I mean, what a way to become a man, Chen Hao thought to himself.

Although he used to date Yang Xia and he really loved her back then, he was also respectful toward her and never pushed her for sex. As he thought of Yang Xia, he winced as his heart was in pain. If Yang Xia knew that he was rich, would she come back to him?

Chen Hao sighed.

He recalled the various memories he had while he was with Yang Xia. They held hands in the canteen, the library, the park and many other places. They hung out, joked around and even made out at all these places.

Chen Hao's rising temptation cooled down. He couldn't lose his virginity like this.

Chen Hao decided to leave the villa. He called Li Zhengu and told him that he was going to take a walk.

After he left the villa, he walked to Jin Ling Commercial Street.

The people walking up and down the street were all young rich people or bosses who were dressed up well.

Chen Hao, you are not that poor boy anymore! You own this street! You are the big mack daddy pimp! You never have to be afraid or intimidate by this people again!

At this moment, he heard a voice that called out his name. "Chen Hao!"

Chen Hao turned around and saw a karaoke bar named "Imperial". In front of the entrance were Ma Xiaonan, Zhao Yifan and the rest of the group.

Xu Nan and his dormitory mates were also there.

"Chen Hao, it really is you! Didn't you say that you were returning to the dormitory? Why are you here? You lied to me!"

Ma Xiaonan pretended to be angry and ran to Chen Hao upon seeing him.
