

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 601

Chapter 601

She looked somewhat familiar.

However, she had no relatives in this small county, so how could she know anyone?

“Okay, I see. Thank you,” Fiona said.

Fiona was a little confused.

‘Ms. Molly’ had arrived at the restaurant. Why was there no one there?

Could it be that they just missed each other?

She went upstairs and entered the room from the other side?

Fiona returned to the room.

She looked at Shawn, and Shawn looked back at her.

Fiona’s forehead burst into cold sweat. “Mr.... Mr. Wood, has Ms. Molly been here?”

“Didn’t I ask you to meet her?”

“Mr. Hughes’s driver said Ms. Molly had already entered the restaurant.”

Shawn frowned and looked at Mr. Hughes.

Mr. Hughes shivered for a moment and quickly showed his phone. “I’m calling her now!”

Mr. Hughes dialed the number in front of Shawn.

After a long dial tone, no one answered!

Mr. Hughes smiled awkwardly and said, “Hehehe, I’ll call again!”

However, no one answered.

When the third call was made, the phone was directly turned off.

Shawn’s face darkened slightly.

Mr. Hughes was at a loss of words. “Mr. Wood, this... I don’t know what Molly is doing, I...”

Shawn said lightly, “She doesn’t want to see me.”

He could see through this at a glance.

How can someone go to the restaurant but not see him?

There was only one possibility. Molly arrived at the door of the box, but for some unknown reason, she regretted it again, and she did not want to see him, so she left directly.

“But she clearly promised me. Molly is very reliable in her work. As long as she promises, she will try her best to do it, and she will never go back on her word!” Mr. Hughes said.

Today was out of character.

Shawn leaned lazily on the back of the chair. “What kind of person is she?”

“Very low-key, very modest. A woman who doesn’t fight or grab, and has no sense of utilitarianism, and is easy to get along with. She is definitely a beauty in the crowd,” Mr. Hughes said.

“Have you mentioned all the conditions I offered?”

Mr. Hughes nodded hastily. “Yes! I also persuaded her to develop her talent on a better platform and let her work in your group. But she just doesn’t want to, saying that she has to take care of the children and doesn’t want to leave this place.”

Shawn pursed her lips slightly.

Children, right?

Simple.

“Tell her that I can provide her two children with the best education, from kindergarten to high school. If she wants to send her children abroad, that’s fine too. As long as she comes to Wood Group as a designer,” Shawn said.

Mr. Hughes’s eyes widened.

Even the future of the children was covered. Mr. Wood really appreciates Molly from the bottom of his heart!

“Alright, alright, Mr. Wood, I will definitely tell Molly, and I will double my efforts to persuade her to agree...”

Before Mr. Hughes could finish speaking, the door of the box was suddenly pushed open.

Shawn frowned, displeased.

He disliked sudden interruptions!

Anyone who entered or exited must knock on the door before entering!

But this time, the person who pushed the door... was a little boy!

Joshua looked inside and exclaimed, “Ah! Not here?”

Where was Mommy?

It was so hard to keep tabs on his mom.

Fortunately, he kept an extra eye on her and followed her stealthily. Otherwise, such a good opportunity would have been missed!

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 602

Chapter 602

He must find the best, most handsome, richest, and gentlest husband in the world for his mother!

He was also looking for a father for himself!

Joshua stared straight at Shawn with watery eyes.

‘Yo! This man is really handsome!’

Wearing a suit and leather shoes with an indifferent expression but full of demeanor, he could attract everyone’s attention just by sitting there casually.

So sharp!

Not bad, Joshua fell in love at a glance!

“Who are you? Where did you come from, little brat? Get out quickly,” Mr. Hughes asked.

Afraid of disturbing Mr. Wood, he hurriedly rushed forward to drive Joshua away, preparing to close the door.

However, Joshua bent down and got in from under Mr. Hughes.
He quickly ran up to Shawn. "Hey, handsome guy. Are you single?"
"Pft!"

Fiona could not hold back and spat out the water she had just drunk.
It was the first time he heard someone talking to Mr. Wood like this!
Shawn and Joshua turned their heads sideways at the same time, dodging Fiona's water spray attack.

"I'm sorry, I'm sorry." Fiona took out a tissue and covered her mouth.
Shawn sat back on the chair calmly.
Joshua patted his clothes in disgust. "Aunty, don't do that next time."
Fiona asked, after hearing what he said, "Do you have OCD?"
"Yes."
"Coincidentally, Mr. Wood also has it."
Joshua did not pay attention to her at all and quickly looked at Shawn again. "Your surname is Wood?"

Shawn nodded. "Yeah."
"Oh, Mr. Wood, hello, my name is Joshua Warm," he introduced himself,
"What is your full name?"
Looking at this immature face and hearing this very familiar surname, Shawn has been silent for a long time.
His heart had felt neutral all this while, and the surname caused his heart to beat like never before.
"Warm?" His body unconsciously leaned forward, approaching Joshua, and his tone was a little eager. "Your surname is Warm?"
"Yes."
"Why is your surname Warm?"
Joshua blinked and answered, "Why can't it be? Mr. Wood, you haven't told me what your name is."
"Shawn."

Shawn did not know what was wrong with him. He had an indescribable patience and gentleness when it came to this boy.
He even stretched out his hand, picked up Joshua, and sat on his lap.
Fiona gasped.
Mr. Wood was actually gentle!
He even looked like a dad!
Shawn looked down at Joshua. "I'm also confused. Your surname is Warm. Of course, it's because your father's surname is Warm."

Ninety-nine percent of people would follow their father's surname, especially the boys.
Shawn was also too sensitive to the surname 'Warm'. That was why he subconsciously thought of Gale when he heard this little boy's name.

It was because he thought too much.
Joshua replied, "I don't have a father."
"What?"

"I. Don't. Have. A. Father," Joshua answered slowly.
Shawn was a little surprised.
He immediately apologized, "I'm sorry, I... don't know your family situation."
"It's okay!" Joshua waved his hand readily. "You can be my Fiona was shocked.
father!"

Joshua looked at Shawn expectantly, clutching his suit with his little hands, and began to talk nonstop.

"My mommy is very beautiful! Fair-skinned, beautiful, and tall, she cooks well, and she is awesome. She can even work and earn money outside, and she can also do housework

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 603

Chapter 603

"You are just right for her, definitely a match made in heaven!"
"Besides, when you are with my mommy, you can have such a handsome son!"
"Isn't it a good deal to marry one and get two for free!"

It was weird.
Even Shawn could not help but raise the corners of his lips.
He was amused by Joshua.

In the past four years, he did not know what it was like to feel happy. He did not expect that it would be a little boy who made him feel it.

"You just sold your mommy to me. Does she know about this?" Shawn asked.
Joshua was full of confidence. "As long as you agree, I will persuade her to agree!"
Shawn squeezed the tip of his nose and smiled lightly, but did not answer.

"By the way, you haven't answered the question I just asked! Are you single? My mommy is my baby. She must be married to someone who is rich and beautiful!" Joshua said.
Shawn slowly opened his lips and said, "Widowed."
Joshua was stunned for a moment.

The word 'widowed' was indeed beyond the scope of his age.
What did it mean?
Seeing his puzzled expression, Fiona explained next to him, "My little friend, our Mr. Wood's wife passed away unexpectedly four years ago. So our Mr. Wood is now widowed.” Joshua also apologized. “Oh...I see. I’m sorry, I don’t know your family situation either.”

The two apologized to each other.

As he said that, Joshua scratched his head. “Then, in your current situation, you are considered single... you can still get married again?”

“I won’t get married again, kid.”

“Huh?”

Shawn replied in a low voice, “I love my wife very much, and I will only marry her as my wife. After she passed away, I will not marry again, let alone let anyone take her place.”

He also did not know what came over him that he could have the patience to explain his life story in such simple words to a little kid.

He did not know if the kid would understand.

Joshua was surprised at first, then disappointed. “Oh, it’s a pity, then you won’t be with my mommy.”

Shawn was about to say something, but Joshua struggled twice, falling from his lap. He jumped down.

With his hands behind his back, he stood up straight like a little adult, looking at Shawn.

“You are the first man I fancy in my ‘finding a father’ plan. Every aspect must meet my requirements, handsome, tall, rich, and good attitude...” Joshua said.

The more he talked, the more regretful he became, and he sighed again and again.

“Forget it. Men are everywhere. My mommy will find a man who is more suitable and better.”

Joshua waved his hand and said, “I will go, excuse me!”

He swaggered out of the room.

The three people had not returned to their senses.

Three people, one was the president of the group who could control the wind and rain, the other was the assistant with superior ability, and the other was the shop owner who managed well...

However, they are helpless when they face the three-year-old Joshua.

He teased Shawn a lot and then ran away like this, slipping away!

“Mr. Wood...” Fiona came back to her senses first and asked, “Do you want to check on this little boy?”

Shawn tapped the table with his fingertips.

After a long while, he said, “No need.”

It was just a child who he met by chance.

In the future... He would never meet him again.

Chapur

What was he doing looking into the background of a mere kid?

Just treat it as a funny story.

Wê ago That to put Jack- —

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 604

Chapter 604

“Aren’t you curious who his mother is?” Fiona asked.
Shawn glanced over.

“Why? Should I follow Joshua to find the mother he was talking about and then get married?”
Did they think Shawn really wanted to be his father?
Fiona covered her mouth. “Mr. Wood, I didn’t say anything!”
Shawn stood up and looked up at Mr. Hughes.
“Mr. Wood!”

“I will stay here for one night. Tomorrow, I hope to see Molly,” Shawn said.
His aura was so strong that Mr. Hughes subconsciously wanted to nod in agreement. However after thinking about it, Mr. Hughes asked tentatively, “Mr. Wood, if Molly.... doesn’t want to see you... Shall I tie her up?”
Shawn was speechless.
Mr. Hughes laughed dryly.

“I must see her. If not this time, then I will come back next weekend.” The more Molly hid, the more curious he became.
It had been a long time since Shawn had met someone who had interested him so much!
He left the restaurant, got in the car, and went back to the hotel.
Looking at the street scene outside the car window, it was far less prosperous and lively than Sea City.

Shawn pressed his eyebrows deeply. If Gale were still alive, he would be willing to live with her in this small town and lead an ordinary married life.
However, he would never be able to do so.
Joshua stood at the door of the house.
He skillfully entered the password, carefully opened the door, and looked inside.

As soon as he pushed open a c*ack in the door, he heard Gale’s voice. “You are back.
Joshua raised his head and saw Gale standing at the door with his arms folded, looking at him with a half-smile.
“Baby!” Without saying a word, Joshua rushed forward and hugged her thigh. “I haven’t seen you for a few hours, and it felt like a year had passed!”
Gale pulled him away. “Joshua, stop being so silly.”
“I was expressing my thoughts and love for you, but you ignored me.” Joshua made a gesture of holding his heart. “I’m so hurt, Baby.”

“How dare you call your mother a baby? No manners!” Gale said.
Seeing that Gale seemed to be really angry, Joshua immediately returned to a serious look.

“Mommy, what are your orders?”
Gale twisted his ears. “Where did you go?”
“I went to play with my
“Are you sure?”
friends.”

Joshua said with an innocent face, “Yes, yes!”
“Didn’t you say you wanted to help Mrs. Zoe? Did you take care of Nicole? Why did you run away?”
Joshua immediately apologized, “I’m sorry Mommy, I was wrong, and I will never do it again.”
He looked so earnest that it made it impossible to be angry with him.
Gale did not blame him for going to play. After all, Joshua was just a child, and it was understandable that he was serious about playing.
He did not get into trouble.

It was just that Gale felt very uneasy after seeing Fiona.
She was worried that Joshua would run around and that if he met Fiona, it would cause unnecessary trouble.

Joshua’s eyebrows and eyes were somewhat similar to Shawn’s.
Although no one would think of that, but... just in case!
Gale could not lose the two children!

“Okay, Mommy doesn’t blame you. Nicole is sick, Mrs. Zoe has to take care of her, and Mommy has to work. You have to be good, okay?” Gale patted his head.

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 605

Chapter 605

“Is Nicole still sick?”
“The fever has gone down, but she is still coughing.”
Joshua said, “It would be great if I could give half of my health to Nicole.”
His words made Gale’s heart suddenly soften.
“S*upid child. My Joshua also has to be healthy!” she said.

“Well! I’m the man of the family!”
“Yes!” The mother and son high-fived happily.
After lecturing Joshua, Gale went to Nicole’s bedroom.
Joshua hurriedly followed behind.
“Mrs. Zoe, is Nicole feeling better?”

“She has already taken medicine, but she still coughs from time to time.” Zoe looked worried.
“Nicole’s body has always been weak.”

Gale also was so nervous. "If she still hasn't improved after tonight, I'll take her to the hospital for a check-up."

"Okay. It's just that you work too hard."

Gale shook her head. "As long as Nicole's illness can get better, I won't suffer. Zoe, I'm sorry to trouble you these days."

Zoe sighed and said, "I'm also very worried seeing her like this."

For Nicole, colds and fevers were common, but as she got older, she got sicker and sicker.

Those minor ailments that used to be cured in two or three days took a week of rest to see the improvement.

"You have to take care of your body. Gale, you can't fall sick as well," Zoe said.

"I'm fine."

Joshua stood aside quietly.

Late at night, Zoe went to bed with Nicole. Although Gale was exhausted, she did not forget to take a look at Joshua.

Chapter GON

She loves her two children equally and never favors one over the other.

She walked into the children's room and asked, "Joshua, why aren't you asleep yet? It's getting late. I'll read you a story and then turn off the lights and go to sleep, okay?"

"Okay."

Gale pulled out the storybook. She sat on the edge of the bed and read slowly.

From the beginning to the end, Joshua had been staring at her.

"Since then, the prince and princess have lived a happy life..." Gale closed the storybook and said, "Okay, Joshua, it's time to go to bed."

"Mommy."

"Huh? What's wrong?"

Joshua asked, "Where is your prince? You are a beautiful and generous princess, and a prince should be standing by your side."

Gale was amused and said, "I am at this age, and I have two children."

"In my heart, you will always be a princess!"

"Okay, thank you." Gale tucked up the quilt and said, "Go to sleep."

Joshua still stared at her, saying nothing else.

After hesitating for a few seconds, he still said, "Mommy, I want a father."

Gale's smile gradually became stiff.

She reluctantly raised her smile again. "What's wrong, Joshua? Is there something I didn't do well enough?"

She had always understood that Joshua and Nicole were children who lacked the love of a father.

However, there was no way to do it. Gale could only love them twice as much. She hoped to make up for that part of fatherly love. However, it was still different.

Father's love was like a mountain, and mother's love was like water. Gale has worked hard to let the children have a normal life. She did not want them to feel inferior because they did not have a father. She educated them to be confident and positive. As a result, Joshua now said that he wanted a father.

Gale felt a little sad.

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 606

Chapter 606

"Mommy, it's not that you're not doing well enough. On the contrary, you're doing too well," Joshua said.

"Huh?" Gale did not quite understand.

"Yes. You are too tired, doing this alone. Mommy, I hope that someone can help share your burden so that you can relax a bit. He will be responsible for making money and supporting the family, and you will be responsible for being beautiful!"

Gale did not expect Joshua wanted a father because he thought she was too tired!

For a moment, she did not know whether to be happy or sad.

Yes, she was tired.

She had to work and take care of her family at the same time. Although it was tiring, it was worth it to her.

Every time she saw Joshua and Nicole, she would be full of energy and motivation again!

Gale replied softly, "I can make money to support my family and be as beautiful as a flower!"

"No, no, making money is a man's job. Mommy, when I have money, I won't let you work. Just dress up beautifully!"

She smiled and said, "Okay, I'm waiting for that day. Go to sleep. Good night."

"Good night, Mommy."

Gale turned off the lights, walked out of the children's room, and returned to her bedroom.

Only when she was alone she dared to show her exhaustion and helplessness.

Joshua and Nicole had never seen their father, and they also understood that their father would not come to see them either.

The siblings never mentioned in front of her that they wanted a father.

They never asked who their father was, what he looked like, what his name was, where he lived.

It was because they were very sensible.

Zoe must have warned the two children.
Tonight, Joshua brought it up.

Gale thought, maybe no matter how much love she gave them, it was never enough
The piece of fatherly love was always missing
No matter what, Gale would never return to Sea City, nor would she see Shawn again.
She was even less likely to remarry another man.
For four years, Gale had never looked at Shawn's photo, nor had she searched for any news about him.
Even if he was the father of the child.
Gale lay in bed with her thoughts jumbled up as she fell asleep unknowingly.
She had a dream.
She dreamt that when she went to the restaurant in the afternoon, she just walked into the box.
Then, Fiona saw her at a glance!
"Madam!"
"No, I'm not..."
Fiona pointed at her and yelled, "Yes, you are, Mrs. Wood! You're not dead!"
Gale kept shaking her head. "No, you've got the wrong person!"
She turned around and wanted to run, but Fiona chased after her and called Mr. Hughes to come over and help. "Stop her!"
Mr. Hughes was confused and could not figure out what was going on. "Fiona, what's going on?" What's the matter?"
"Let go of me, let me go, Mr. Hughes, please!"
Fiona's voice was very sharp. "Mr. Hughes, you are so brave to let our honorable Mrs. Wood work for you! I will tell Mr. Wood!"
Gale was just a woman. How could she escape Fiona and Mr. Hughes?
She struggled hard and shouted in despair, "No, I'm not Mrs. Wood, I'm just me. Let go...I don't want to go back to Sea City! I won't even see Shawn!" However, Fiona insisted, grabbing her desperately, and red marks appeared on her arms.
Immediately afterward, the scene changed.
Shawn was wearing a suit, with the collar of his shirt half open, walking toward her step by step.
"Gale, you lied to me!"
"You're not dead at all! Where is the child!"

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 607

Chapter 607

Shawn leaned closer, his handsome facial features magnified infinitely in front of her eyes...
"Ah!"

Gale screamed and sat up suddenly from the bed.
She was panting heavily, and her whole body seemed to be fished out of the water, covered in sweat.

Her hair stuck to her face, and her back was soaked.
It took Gale a while to recover.
This was the house she had lived in for four years.
It was the same cozy little town.
She did not go back to Sea City, did not see Shawn, and no one found out that she was still alive!
Just a dream!
It was a dream!

Gale closed her eyes, swallowed, and raised her hand to wipe the sweat off her face.
“Fortunately, it’s a dream. It’s just a dream... It was a false alarm,” she muttered to herself.
Zoe knocked on the door. “Gale, what’s the matter? I heard a scream. Are you right?”
all

“Oh, it’s okay!” Gale replied loudly and asked as she got out of bed, “How is Nicole?”
“She is still coughing, and taking medicine didn’t help. Besides, she seems to have worsened, and her gums are bleeding.”
When Gale heard this, she felt anxious and distressed and hurried to Nicole’s room.
Nicole sat on the bed, her face flushed red.
She pressed her teeth with a tissue, and the tissue was soon stained red.
“Mum, it’s bleeding. My mouth is swollen... cough, cough, it’s swollen,” she said.
“Nicole, let me see.”

Gale worriedly observed her gums. There was redness, swelling, and bleeding.
What happened? She seemed fine yesterday.
In the past few days, Nicole also ate very little, very bland food. Logically, it was impossible to have a bad throat which would cause a b*ooddy cough.
Gale put on Nicole’s clothes. “We are going to the hospital. It looks too serious for the small clinic downstairs.”

Zoe nodded and said, “Okay, I’ll go with you too.”
“No, you can take Joshua to the kindergarten first.”
Joshua stood at the door and said, “Mommy, Mrs. Zoe, I can go by myself. Anyway, it’s very close. It is only a ten-minute walk, and I remember the way!”
“Joshua...”
“I won’t talk to strangers, Mommy, trust me!”
Gale also could not help but nod. “Okay, don’t run around and go straight to school.”
“Yeah!”

Gale carried Nicole and went out.
On the way to the hospital, Nicole leaned against Gale’s arms, and her face turned pale.
“Mommy...”

“Mommy is here. What’s the matter?”

“It hurts. My tooth hurts,” Nicole said.

“We’re going to see a doctor, and the pain will be gone soon. Nicole, bear with it, don’t touch it with your hands.”

Nicole asked, “Will the doctor give me an injection? I don’t want to get an injection. I’m so scared.”

“Don’t be afraid, Nicole. You need to get better soon.”

Gale kept comforting her, wishing that she could bear the pain for Nicole.

It was all because she was in poor health when she was pregnant, and she did not raise the baby well, and now her daughter’s immunity was so weak.

Nicole sniffed. “Mommy, I’m causing you trouble again, you and Mrs. Zoe takes care of me every day, and you don’t have a good rest.”

“You are our Nicole, and we all hope you get well soon.”

Gale lowered her head and kissed her daughter’s forehead.

When they arrived at the hospital, Gale went straight to the pediatrics department.

A black limousine stopped at the door after she entered the hospital.

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 608

Chapter 608

The car door opened, and a silver-haired man appeared, wearing a mask, with deep and dark eyes.

His sharp eyebrows slightly frowned, and he wore a shirt and trousers, giving him an air of extravagance.

“Mr. Wood, this is the best hospital in the area,” Fiona said.

Shawn clenched a fist with one hand, put it on his lips, and coughed twice. “Uh... cough cough, let’s go in.”

“You take some medicine first and see if it improves. If not, we will leave tonight and return to Sea City to ask the family doctor to take a look at you.”

Shawn coughed and felt tight in his chest.

He did not know if it was because the climate was not suited to him or if the air quality here was too bad.

Everything in the five-star hotel was up to his standard.

He did not sleep all night, and he was not used to it, so he sat in the living room of the suite with his computer on and worked all night.

Then, at dawn, he started coughing.

The hospital was filled with the pungent smell of disinfectant, people came and went, and the air was dull.

Shawn was also the most eye-catching presence in the crowd. Countless eyes were focused on him.

He went to the Respiratory Department.

The Respiratory Department was on the third floor.

The elevator in the hospital was crowded with people, and there was a long queue. Shawn was used to taking the exclusive elevator, and it was impossible for him to be in a crowd of people, so he simply walked up the stairs.

The pediatric consulting room was facing the stairs on the second floor!

Shawn stepped up the steps, lowering his eyes slightly, indifferent to everything around him.

After seeing the doctor, he was going to visit Mr. Hughes.

If Molly had not shown up then, he would leave.

He would come back next time.

At this moment, Gale has completely transformed into a superwoman.

She took a number and cued up at the registration counter, holding the medical record and checklist in her hand, ready to pay the fee.

Because she left in a hurry, Gale did not even have time to wash her face. She wore a plain T-shirt, trousers, and sneakers, and her hair was draped softly behind. She was petite and thin, looking like a college student.

She used to love to dress like this.

Comfortable and natural.

She was too anxious, and people were coming and going at the door of the Pediatrics Department. Gale was only focused on walking forward and accidentally bumped into a child. The child just learned to walk, wobbled twice, and fell to the ground with a buttock.

“Waaaa...” The child pursed his mouth and began to cry.

“Ah... I’m sorry.” Gale quickly apologized, bent down, and helped the child up. “I’m sorry. I didn’t mean to, don’t cry.”

She had taken care of two children, so she was experienced.

It just so happened that there was a lollipop left by Joshua in the bag.

Gale took it out and stuffed it into the child’s hand. “Eat the candy, it won’t hurt after.” The child stopped crying immediately when he saw the candy.

Gale breathed a sigh of relief, got up, and continued to walk to the payment window.

Her figure flashed past the open door at the top of the stairs.

Like a gust of wind.

Just two seconds.

Shawn just happened to walk up to the last step on the second floor.

He only saw a delicate figure with fluttering long hair walking in front.

Among the crowd, she was so conspicuous and outstanding, with a superior figure.

Even with simple clothes, one could imagine her beauty and gentleness.

“Mr. Wood? Mr. Wood?” Fiona was a little surprised when he saw him stop. “The Respiratory Department is on the third floor, and we have to go up one more floor.”
Shawn asked lightly. “Did you see that?”
“Ah? What did you see?”
Fiona looked around in confusion

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 609

Chapter 609

The people who came to the hospital were all in a hurry with a bunch of papers in their hands
Was there anything strange about it?
“A woman,” Shawn said

“Eh Fiona thought, Aren’t there women everywhere?
However, she dared not ask more
Shawn stood quietly at the stairs, staring at where the woman had walked by just now
He longed to see her again.

That figure always gave him a sense of familiarity.
Shawn felt that he was absurd. How could he think that someone’s silhouette looked like Gale?
However, recently, he met Winnie and then Molly.
Shawn did not leave, and Fiona dared not to urge him, so she quietly stayed by his side.
After paying the fee, Gale glanced at the numbers silently.
Just the consultant fee cost several thousand.

She was willing to spend any amount for her children, but she was very disturbed.
If the consultant cost so much money, did it mean that Nicole was really sick?
Biting her lip, Gale took a deep breath, calmed down, and returned to the pediatrics department.
The pediatric department was very noisy, with sick children crying from time to time.
Gale was afraid that Zoe would be unable to take care of her alone, so she quickened her pace.
She went back the same way.

Naturally, she also passed the door at the top of the stairs.
Shawn stood there the whole time without blinking his eyes, and just when he was about to give up, that figure appeared.
Another flash
Moreover, the woman passed by someone else and turned her body slightly, facing his side
Although only for that second.
However, Shawn’s pupils shrank sharply!
Gale!

Her figure was about the same height, and although she was also wearing a mask, her eyes, her expression when she lowered her eyes.

Shawn immediately yelled, "Gale!"

He rushed over like crazy.

Fiona was stunned for two seconds and immediately caught up with him. "Mr. Wood!

Shawn ran into the long corridor full of people, and the sound of children crying filled his ears.

However, the woman was missing.

Where had she gone?

Was it his hallucination?

No, it was impossible... hallucinations do not appear twice!

Shawn concentrated his attention and carefully looked at each one, hoping to find the face that haunted his dreams.

"Mr. Wood, who did you see? What are you looking for? Can I help?" Fiona said.

"It's her. I saw her!" Shawn said.

"Her?"

Could it be... Mrs. Wood?

Fiona felt that Mr. Wood was in a daze again. How could he see his wife in this small town?

Besides, his wife had been dead for four years.

Although she thought so in her heart, Fiona still said, "Mr. Wood, I will help you find her."

There was no such figure in the corridor, so Shawn began to search from room to room.

He stood at the door and glanced inside. If there was no one, then he immediately left for another one.

He feared that she would disappear if he took a step too late.

Race against time.

As a result, the doctors and nurses in the pediatrics department, as well as the patients and their families, all saw a young man with silver hair walking through each room.

His face was full of eagerness as if he had lost something very important.

Judging from his attire, he was obviously a rich or noble person.

From the first room to the last room, Shawn could not find that figure.

How strange.

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 610

Chapter 610

Where is she?

She just disappeared into thin air?
Or was it really just because he missed her so much that he was hallucinating?
“Fiona”

She quickly responded, “Mr Wood, what’s the matter?”
Shawn asked, “Did you see a person passing through the door in the stairwell just now ?”
“Er
Fiona saw a lot of people!

“She was wearing a T-shirt and trousers. She didn’t tie her hair up, she wore a mask, and she was holding a bunch of papers in her hand. She was a young woman... very similar to Gale. Did you see it?”

“There might be someone who looked like that...”

To be honest, Fiona did not really pay attention.

“You saw it too!” Shawn’s emotions were instantly agitated. “So, it’s not that I’m delusional, nor is it an illusion, but there is such a woman!”

“Is...?”

“Why did she disappear? Is it because she found me and hid?” Shawn asked.

He stood at the end of the corridor with the window behind him.

Light shrouded him.

Fiona did not know how to answer, so she could only silently accompany him.

Time would calm Mr. Wood down.

People came and went in the pediatrics department, but the person Shawn wanted to see never appeared again.

Five minutes later, Shawn slowly lowered his eyes and said, “Let’s go.”

There are billions of people in the world, and there is a woman who is similar to his Gale in figure and height, which is nothing more than normal matter.

Perhaps, he would be completely disappointed when he saw the face.

It was because he missed her so much.

Before leaving the pediatrics department, Shawn still looked back unwillingly.

He could only leave.

The footsteps went away.

Gale slowly stood up from under the desk in the chief physician’s consulting room.

The people next to her looked at her strangely.

She smiled awkwardly. “I’m tying my shoelaces, and the straps came loose.”

After speaking, she stepped aside.

Gale’s complexion was very bad, and when she stepped aside, she tripped over herself.

All because she saw Shawn.

It was him.

Even though she had not seen him for many years, she could still recognize him. clearly at a glance!

He had not changed since four years ago, and the only thing was his hair... was all white!
Not a single black hair!
Moreover, Gale could clearly hear Fiona's voice, and Mr. Wood kept shouting.
She met Fiona yesterday.

So... the one who really came to Mr. Hughes and asked to meet 'Molly' was Shawn!
Shawn actually came in person, bringing Fiona along!
Gale recalled yesterday and suddenly felt scared... Fortunately, she did not enter the room!
Otherwise, she would run into not only Fiona but also Shawn!
Head on!
Gale swallowed her saliva, her hands trembling a little...

At that time, Gale did not even notice the side of the stairs, and it was the sound of Gale' that made her vigilant.

In the whole world, only Shawn would call her name in that tone!

Therefore, Gale decided to walk into the nearest doctor's office and hide under the table.

In this way, when Shawn glanced at the door, he would not be able to find her, unless he came in to search!

