

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 611

Chapter 611

Gale just escaped a catastrophe.

She never thought that Mr. Hughes would give the jewelry design blueprints she drew to her cousin, create the Florei brand, and then attract the attention of the Wood Group, and then cause Shawn to come to her personally!

Fortunately, she used the nickname ‘Molly’!

The phone rang suddenly. Gale was startled and quickly answered without looking at it.

“Hello?”

“Molly, it’s me. Where are you? Are you busy?” Mr. Hughes asked kindly.

“I’m sorry, Mr. Hughes, I’m in the hospital, and my daughter is sick.”

When Mr. Hughes heard that, he was about to say something, but Gale interrupted him. “I don’t have time these days, so you don’t have to ask anymore. I’m now very busy, the hospital is very noisy, and the signal is not good. Goodbye.”

She hung up the phone and mustered up the courage to go out.

She poked her head out and looked around, making sure that Shawn was not there, before rushing back to Nicole’s side.

“Zoe, I’ve paid the fee. Let’s take Nicole for a checkup.”

“Okay.”

Among the checkup items, there was a blood test.

Moreover, the blood drawing needle was thicker and longer than usual.

Even Gale could not bear to watch.

Nicole comforted her instead, “Mommy, don’t cry. It doesn’t hurt. I will get better soon, Mommy. I will definitely get less sick in the future, so I won’t make you tired.”

Gale patted her head. “It’s okay. Mommy is not suffering. I just hope you get better soon.” The long needle pierced into the blood vessel.

Nicole could not help but wince.

Gale hugged her tightly.

It was already noon after the examination, the doctor was off work, and the results. would not come out until the afternoon.

After taking the medicine, Gale carried Nicole and went home.

The medicine was very bitter, but Nicole finished it with a frown and never complained.

The more sensible and obedient she was, the more Gale’s heart ached.

“It will get better. Nicole is very strong and great,” she said.

“Yeah!”

Nicole wanted to smile to reassure mommy, but suddenly her stomach churned.

She wanted to puke the medicine she had just drunk!
Gale quickly patted her on the back. "It's okay. It's okay if you vomit. We'll just take medicine again later..."

She did not know if she was comforting Nicole or herself.
She always felt that Nicole's illness this time was different from usual!
However, Gale could not do anything now but wait for the test results from the hospital!
Zoe went to the kitchen to cook some porridge, and Gale stayed with Nicole all the time.

When she remembered that she had to pick up Joshua, it was past school time.
Gale hurriedly called the kindergarten teacher. "Hello, teacher. I'm Joshua's mother. Is he still in school?"
"Joshua has already gone back, and he said he can go home alone, and he will be there in ten minutes on foot."
"Okay, thank you."
"You're welcome. Tell me when he gets home."

Gale replied, "I will, teacher." There shouldn't be any problems. Joshua has always been sharp. The kid was smart and savvy, and sometimes even adults were no match for him at all.
Nicole was holding her hand tightly, refusing to let go.
Nicole, you must be fine.

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 612

Chapter 612

Joshua was carrying a schoolbag on his back, holding a stick that he tore off from a random tree in his hand, scratching the ground as he walked.
In his mission to find him a new father, the first man he found and was satisfied with happened to be a widower.

Now that his sister was sick, he could only continue this operation by himself.
Joshua thought that he must help Mommy find a Daddy!
As a woman, you need a man!

Before he knew it, Joshua had reached the intersection of the apartment.
Just turn a corner, and he would enter the lobby to get home.
Coincidentally, three or five elementary school boys came out in a group. When they saw Joshua, the leading boy shouted in a very airy voice, "Hey, little devil!"
Joshua was immersed in his own thoughts and did not hear him.
"Little devil Joshua!" the boy shouted again.

Only then did Joshua look up at him. "I'm not a little devil."

"You are so small and thin, and this is the nickname I gave you. When I call you that in the future, you have to answer!" the boy said.

Joshua gave them a blank look and continued to walk forward.

He wanted to go home to see if Nicole was getting better and then help Zoe cook and accompany Mommy.

He did not have time to deal with these people.

As a result, the leading boy felt that Joshua looked down on him and was very angry. "Joshua, stop!"

"Hey, Joshua, are you deaf?"

"He can't even hear him!"

Joshua stopped suddenly. "What did you say?"

"I said you don't have a father!" The boy put his hands on his hips and said arrogantly, "I'm not wrong. Everyone in the community knows. Your mother had two children by herself and didn't go out to work. Nobody knows which wild man she was with..."

The boy relied on his age, being older and taller than Joshua, and the fact that he was around several friends, to bully Joshua.

However, Joshua was not an easy target.

He was smart since he was a child, and Gale sent him to learn the piano. He could get a certificate by playing casually, and he was good at practicing the music by practicing it once. He could get first place in all the piano competitions!

When she sent him to learn taekwondo, he won a fight. The coach was so surprised that he wanted to accept him as an apprentice, waiving all fees!

However, Gale told him to keep a low profile, not to cause trouble, to be kind when you get along with classmates and friends, and help each other.

Joshua was very obedient, he did not want to cause trouble for Mommy. Mommy was already busy and tired enough.

However, someone laughed at him for not having a father!

He really did not have a father, and he did not care about having his biological father.

It was because Joshua felt that his father had never visited them, regardless of whether he cared about them or ignored them, leaving Mommy to work hard alone. He was not worth any attention and thought!

However, only he could dislike him. It was not in their place to laugh at him!

What made Joshua even angrier was that he even said that Mommy followed a wild man!

This was what he could not bear the most!

Joshua roared, "You're talking nonsense! Apologize immediately! Say sorry!" The boy grimaced, "I won't say anything. You're just a little boy. What can you do to me?"

Joshua squeezed the stick in his hand.

Joshua looked at him and threatened, "Let me say this one last time. Apologize!"
"If I said I won't apologize, I won't apologize." The other boys also echoed, "That's right, who are you?"

"A little b*stard without a father."

"A kid who doesn't grow tall."

"Didn't you just learn how to play the piano? Who bought your piano for you? Your wild father!"

"Hahahahaha! Shame!"

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 613

Chapter 613

Laughter, mixed with some unpleasant words, completely angered Joshua.

He rushed forward and gave the leading boy a hard push.

The boy fell to the ground. "You... you actually pushed me?"

"What's wrong with pushing you? Who made your mouth so dirty!"

"What I said is true! That's what my mother told others, and everyone agrees!" the boy replied.

The community was also really gossipy.

Gale was a young and beautiful single woman with two cute and smart children, so it was inevitable that people would gossip about her.

Furthermore, the two children crushed other children in academic performance and various special classes.

This made some parents even more unhappy.

In addition, Gale was drawing design drafts at home and did not go out to work, so they thought she was idle at home. Where did she get the money to support the babies?

Her apartment was the most expensive area in the small town. How could she afford it?

She must be the sugar baby of someone or more than one man!

"You are all talking nonsense! You all have to apologize to my mommy! Ask her to forgive you!" Joshua roared.

"Hehe, it's impossible. You are dreaming!" The boy got up and immediately started to fight back. He also reached out to push Joshua.

Joshua took two steps back, grasped the wood strip in his hand with quick eyes, and slammed it hard. "C*ack!"

There was a dark red mark on the boy's arm.

Seeing this, several other boys immediately surrounded Joshua, trying to outnumber him!

Joshua snorted. "Just you? I can knock down with one hand!"

Several boys rushed up to deal with Joshua together.

Joshua was surrounded in the middle, fighting hard to resist.

For a while, they fought inseparably, and it was very fierce. There was a busy intersection again, and they suddenly attracted the attention of passers-by.

“Oh, who’s the kid? Why did they start fighting?”

“The boy in the middle is pretty good.”

“Yes, but he looks the smallest.”

Inside the black limousine, Shawn closed his eyes, resting while he drove to the airport.

He was going back to Sea City.

It was within his expectation that he would not see Molly this time.

However, it did not matter, he would come again.

Not just for Molly, but also for... that figure.

Shawn was not sure if it was Gale or just a woman with a similar figure.

However, he must see her again, must see her face under the mask!

He had never been to this small town, but it gave him too many surprises.

Suddenly, Fiona exclaimed, “Mr. Wood!”

He quickly opened his eyes. “What is it?”

Fiona pointed to the outside of the car. “Look. Is that...”

Who was it?

Was that woman?

Shawn immediately looked outside.

“It’s Joshua. I didn’t expect to see him again, but...” Fiona said.

Joshua was in a tricky situation.

He was beaten up by several boys. He was not badly beaten, but he was bruised.

Moreover, some parents rushed over aggressively after hearing the news.

Joshua was alone.

“Joshua is very courageous, but I didn’t expect him to be so daring. He dared single-handedly fight all of them. That’s pretty impressive,” Fiona said.

Thinking that Joshua dared to tease Mr. Wood, asking Mr. Wood to marry his mother as part of a buy one get two free deal, she could tell he was not an ordinary child!

Shawn pursed his lips deeply and said, “Stop.”

“Huh?” The driver had already stepped on the brakes.

Shawn stepped out of the car.

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 614

Chapter 614

“Mr. Wood, the airport...”

“Change the flight time!”

Shawn crossed the sidewalk and walked straight to Joshua.

Fiona scratched his head. Mr. Wood was trying to meddle in this little boy’s business?

Since when has Mr. Wood been so kind?

She quickly unfastened his seat belt and got out of the car.

The parents rushed over and separated the children.

Joshua stood alone, clenching his fists. The stick in his hand had been broken in two.

There were a few scratches on his face, and his clothes were messed up, but...

Oshua’s momentum was not lost!

He just stood there, his eyes unruly!
He did not pay attention to these people at all!
The parents cursed and said, "Oh, hell, you got hurt in the fight! What's going on!"
Of course, the group of boys wanted to push all their faults and responsibilities on Joshua.
"He did it first!"
"Yes, Joshua pushed me!"
"He beat us with a stick!"
"It's all Joshua's fault!"
Joshua did not bother explaining and just looked at them coldly.
"Joshua, why are you fighting? Where's your mother? Call her here!" the parent asked.
He said, "Why do you want to call my mommy?"
The parents immediately chattered...
"You injured our kid. Don't you need to pay compensation for hurting someone? Look at their injuries."
"That's right. We need to go to the hospital for an examination!"
"We need to see a psychiatrist!"
"Our children are timid and never cause trouble. We need compensation for m*ntal damage!"
Usually, they are unhappy to see Gale, but they have been unable to find fault in her, and today they finally caught it.
Joshua fought.
After finally grabbing this opportunity, they had to make a big killing out of it!
Anyway, Gale was alone in this city. She had no relatives, no support, and they were locals.
One of the parents reached out to grab Joshua. "Did you hear that!"
"Don't touch me!" Joshua raised his hand and waved the stick.
C*ack! The parent yelled in pain after being hit.
"You still dare to hit me?"
"I told you not to touch me. Don't you understand basic speech!" Joshua said.
"I will call your mother and ask her to educate her precious son!"
Joshua hurried to grab his mobile phone. "No, you can't tell my mommy!"
Nicole was sick, and Mommy was busy. He did not want to worry her.
Joshua did not want to cause trouble at first. It was all because these boys talked too much!
However, these parents were naturally partial to their children and did not care about Joshua's life or death.
"You are afraid now. I have to ask her to come over to settle this!"
Joshua desperately tried to stop them.
However, he was too short to reach it.
Joshua jumped up vigorously and stretched out his hand, but there was still a gap.
He was sweating profusely.
At this moment, a pair of well-knit hands reached out, fk the phone away, and pressed it to hang up.
The man's deep voice came. "What's the matter? You may speak to me. I'm in charge.
Everyone looked at him in unison.

The man had silver hair, but his facial features were extremely handsome, and his eyes were so deep and vast that no one dared to look directly at them!

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 615

Chapter 615

This man looked rich!

Big shot!

Standing beside Joshua, Shawn was imposing. His eyes swept over everyone.

In an instant, everyone was silent.

Parents who were shouting loudly just now looked at each other.

Joshua looked up at him. “Handsome Uncle? It’s you.”

“What did you call me?”

“Handsome Uncle.”

Shawn raised his eyebrows deeply. It was the first time someone called him that, but it sounded pleasing to the ear.

“Since you call me uncle, I’ll take care of your affairs.”

Joshua blinked and suddenly became full of confidence.

He took the initiative to hold Shawn’s hand, stood beside him, and said in a loud voice, “Now my uncle is here. If you have anything to say, just talk to him! My mommy is not free, so there is no need to disturb her for this small matter.”

Shawn curled his lips slightly.

What a cheeky kid, who immediately pushed him out as a shield.

Clever.

It was easy for Shawn to solve this matter.

It just depended on whether he wanted to help or not.

Since he had a predestined relationship with Joshua, he decided to help him out.

After all... he would come to this town again. If there was fate, maybe they would meet again.

“Who are you? Joshua’s uncle? Why haven’t we met you before?” the parents asked.

Shawn asked, “You deserve to see me?” The parents were at a loss for words.

Shawn was tall and slender, with a noble appearance, and at this time, Fiona also followed. The driver parked the car on the side of the road with double flashing lights on.

This car cost several million dollars!

This man had an assistant!

Someone discerning in the crowd suddenly said, “The watch on his wrist... is a global custom model, there is only one piece in existence, and VIP customers who spend more than ten million a year are eligible to customize it!”

What?

So rich?

Tens of millions... so his net worth must be hundreds of millions?

Such a rich man with extremely wide connections, who could afford to offend him?

They were all common people.

However, thinking about it, it was Joshua who hit someone first, and the parents felt that they had a reason.

Since Joshua's uncle was so rich, they could blackmail him severely!

The parents discussed with each other and made up their minds, and soon they united!

"You... you are Joshua's uncle, fine, then we will settle it with you."

"Yeah. I am fully responsible," Shawn replied.

He also understood that this little brat Joshua caused trouble. He must be afraid that his family would find out, and he would either be scolded or punished to stand when he returned.

"Joshua hit people first, and even took out sticks. Everyone was injured, look." The parents rolled up their children's sleeves, revealing the scars on their arms.

"There are also scars on the back."

"And on the legs."

"It's all made by Joshua."

Shawn glanced casually.

"Is there anything else? Show me," he asked lightly.

His words made the parents mistakenly think he would start paying compensation.

After all, Joshua's uncle had plenty of money!

All of a sudden, the parents almost stripped off their children's clothes and pants to find a few more red marks.

Anyway, it was all children fighting, and there was no blood. At most, it was just a flesh wound, and it did not look serious.

Just rub some medication on it at home!

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 616

Chapter 616

Get the money first!

There were also a few c*nnng people who quietly pinched their children, leaving scars.

It was all for money!

Shawn did not bother to talk to them at all, he did not care what they did.

He lowered his head and looked at Joshua.

"What are you going to do without me today?"

"I don't know. But you are still here. You are like a g*d descending, so heroic, mighty, tall, handsome, handsome, and domineering..." Joshua replied.

He had a smart mouth, highlighting Shawn's qualities one after another.

Fiona listened beside him, thinking this kid was c*nnng and smart!

"Uncle, you are so handsome. I declare that you are my idol. You must help me solve today's matter. If my mommy finds out, I will definitely be punished!"

Joshua hugged Shawn's thigh tightly, refusing to let go.

Now, this was his savior!

If he let go and it would be gone!

Shawn bent his fingers deeply and tapped his forehead lightly.

The parents counted the number of scars. "A total of eighteen!"

"Joshua, are you injured?" Shawn replied.

"Yes."

Joshua rolled up his sleeves, and there was a scar on his knee. He also had obvious bruises.

Although he did not lose, he still suffered several blows to his body.

"I am injured everywhere. Uncle, are you going to pay them? My mommy said I couldn't spend other people's money," Joshua said.

He looked confused.

His mother taught him that spending other people's money was bad, and it made him feel uneasy.

However, this matter could not be resolved without money.

"You'll find out later." Shawn tilted his head and ordered, "Fiona."

"Yes."

"Go to contact the lawyer."

"Yes, Mr. Wood."

Upon hearing the mention of a lawyer, the parents were stunned.

He called a lawyer for something this minor?

No one knew what Shawn was thinking!

"Sir, we don't have any other intentions. We just need to get some compensation for their injuries. After all, it's just children fighting each other, so there's no need to make a big fuss," the parent said.

Shawn pursed his lips slightly before saying, "I compensate you?"

His tone was relaxed and casual but gave off an invisible sense of oppression.

"Yes... yes. It was Joshua who did it first. Of course, it was his fault."

Shawn shouted, "Joshua."

"Here!"

"Why did you do it first?"

Joshua gritted his teeth. He wanted to say something but finally stopped.

"Speak. With me here, nothing will happen to you. Even if the sky falls, I will support you."

It was not because Joshua did not dare to say it, but he did not want to.

He would get angry everything he remembered those insults.

He did not want to repeat it at all!

However, looking at the group of people in front of him, he still said it because he believed he was not in the wrong for striking first.

"I came back from school and was walking by myself. They suddenly stopped me, laughed at me for going home alone, and laughed at me for being a child without a father."

Shawn frowned suddenly.

He accidentally mentioned this matter yesterday, and he even apologized to Joshua.

This was a great psychological injury for a child.

This group of people actually mocked Joshua with the fact that he did not have a father?

Shawn deeply thought of the two children he had lost.

If Gale were still alive and gave birth to a child, his child would not have a father in the eyes of others.

Shawn's heart twitched in pain.

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 617

Chapter 617

His face gradually turned grim.

"I didn't intend to argue with them. I really don't have a father, and I don't know who my father is. But, they started attacking my mommy!" Joshua said.

"My mommy is the world's most gentle mommy!"

Shawn asked, "What did they say about your mommy?"

"They said... she has a wild man." Joshua gritted his teeth. "Actually, there is no such thing! Mommy has to take care of me every day. She works for my sister and I have never seen her with a man!"

"They are talking nonsense, and I am very angry, and ask them to apologize. They won't! So, I fought them!"

After Joshua finished speaking, the expressions of the parents changed.

Joshua's family was indeed a very unique and odd existence in the community.

Everyone talked about her in private, with disdain in their expressions.

The children must have heard what the adults said, and they followed suit, ran to Joshua and said it.

Shawn's voice was chilling. "Did you hear that? Educating children to talk nonsense like this... you all should be beaten!"

He squinted his eyes!

Joshua agreed, "Yes, it's time to hit! Slap them hard!" The parents were dumbfounded.

They thought that Joshua's uncle was here to give money and make peace.

Unexpectedly... he came to support Joshua and avenge him!

Shawn said, "Your children made the first move. Not only should they be beaten, but they should also bear full responsibility! Joshua was also injured. What do you say about these scars? Hmm?"

"You expect us to compensate?"

"If I want you to pay compensation, none of you can escape."

The parents heard this, refusing to agree. "You are covering up! No one educates children like this. It was obvious that Joshua made a mistake by beating someone first. You should be willing to take responsibility... You are also the problem!"

Shawn said lightly, "I am covering up?"

"Yes! You are biased toward your child!"

"I just want to cover it up. What can you do about that?" The parents were speechless.

Shawn could do whatever he wanted!

It depended on his mood!

"Originally, I didn't intend to cover up, but with your attitude, you leave me no choice." Shawn's eyes swept over every parent and child present. "You, none of you can escape!"

"How could you do this!"

"Yeah, you're so arrogant!"

"No matter how rich you are, you can't bully us like this."

“Our children were all injured by Joshua alone!”

Shawn asked sharply, “Why did he do it? You heard it just now!”

The parent replied, “They are all children, making jokes casually. Children’s words are innocent. Why should they be so serious?”

Joshua retorted, “Then can I say that your son is not well-educated, born with parents but not taught by parents?”

“You...”

Joshua said innocently, “I’m just joking, Auntie. Why are you still angry?” The parents did not expect that Joshua was so eloquent that they could not compete with a child in a battle of words!

After thinking about it, the parent snorted, “We’re right. You don’t have a father. If you do, call him out now and show us!”

“Whether I have a father or not is none of your business. Do you have to gossip behind other people’s backs!”

“Why are you still so rude!”

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 618

Chapter 618

Joshua grimaced, “Auntie, I didn’t say you were a gossip. Why did you jump out and call yourself out!”

The parent was defeated.

Seeing this, another parent immediately stepped forward and said, “It’s a fact that you don’t have a father! Besides, your mother doesn’t work. Where did you get the money to buy a house in this apartment for you to go to school? You also enroll in various interest classes and special classes?”

“My mom works! She just works at home!”

“Hehe, I think she works on the bed! I don’t know how many wild men she has been with. Cheating men for their money! After all, she looks pretty!” The parent sneered.

Joshua stomped his feet angrily. “You can’t slander my mommy! She really has a job! She makes money by painting!”

“Painting? Who does she sell it to? She’s not an artist, so how much can a painting cost?”

Then, the parents looked at Shawn. “It’s the kind of rich man who would be willing to buy her paintings at a high price!”

“Yes, he might be buying a painting, but it’s actually her body.”

“It sounds so nice.”

“Joshua, your mommy is really capable. She can even seduce such a rich and handsome man.”

“A single mother with two children can still defeat the charm of a young girl, which shows how powerful she is!”

Everyone rushed to attack Gale.

The topic also involved Shawn.

A parent asked Shawn, "You... you help Joshua so much. Who are you? What kind of uncle are you, and from which family? I haven't seen you in the many years I lived here!"

"What uncle, I think... He's a lover!"

"Are you having an affair with Joshua's mother?"

Although Shawn did not know who Joshua's mother was, his face instantly became ugly when he heard them.

"Shut up!" he snapped.

These people were really short-sighted, and they did not know what they were thinking.

All sounds stopped instantly.

"Don't tarnish a woman's reputation. I have nothing to do with her," Shawn said coldly.

He also did not want to get involved in the gossip.

If Gale in the heavens found out, she would be unhappy.

For Shawn, there would only be one woman, Gale, in his life.

From the past to the future!

"Uncle, my mommy really makes money by painting. She's not that kind of woman," Joshua said.

He believed Joshua.

He believed the single mother was innocent and made money by working with her hands.

"Well, I know."

Joshua sighed and said, "If she is, why would I still find a father for myself? She only knows about work and taking care of us. She doesn't want to fall in love at all, and it worries me to death."

At this time, Fiona brought the lawyer over.

"Mr. Wood, the lawyer you wanted."

Shawn nodded deeply.

He told the lawyer in front of these people, "You remember them all and sue them all. No one can escape."

"Alright, Mr. Wood. What happened? What causes can we bring against them?" the lawyer replied.

"Slander, fighting, and..." Shawn parted his thin lips slightly before saying, "Extortion."

"Okay."

The faces of the parents changed instantly.

How could there be so many charges?

Even extortion!

"Who... who blackmailed you?"

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 619

Chapter 619

Fiona said, "I have recorded everything just now, and I will submit it to the court as evidence."

"Everyone, if you have any opinions, I will see you in the court and wait for the judgment."

Going to court was so troublesome.

Some parents had jobs. If they were sued, they might lose their jobs.
It was a trivial thing to say, but once it became a big deal, it would be of no benefit to anyone!
Shawn's attitude was very tough. "Just do it like this!"
He took Joshua by the hand, turned around, and was about to leave.
The matter here should be left to Fiona and the lawyer.
He took Joshua to the hospital to treat the wound.
When the parents saw this situation, their attitudes changed drastically.
They hurriedly stopped in front of Shawn, smiling.
"Come on. It's a trivial matter. Why do you want to go to court?"
"Yes, yes, forget it, let's forget it. We don't care about it."
"It's just that the children are ignorant and naughty."
Shawn raised his eyebrows. "Forget it?"
"Yes, it's no big deal."
In Shawn's dictionary, the word 'forget it' has never existed.
Whoever he wanted to hurt would definitely not be able to escape!
Joshua took his hand and whispered, "Uncle, give them a small punishment and warning."
"Are you scared? It's okay. I'm here."
Joshua shook his head. "No, I'm worried about Mommy."
"Her?" Shawn was a little puzzled.
"My mommy and I will still live in the apartment. If the relationship with our neighbors becomes tense, it won't be good for her."
Joshua was really smart.
There was awareness of advance and retreat.
When someone vilified Mommy, he stood up and defended it vigorously.
However, when he had the upper hand and could bully others at will, he could take care of the overall situation.
A hint of appreciation flashed in Shawn's eyes. "Okay, it's up to you. Tell me... how should I deal with them?"
"Just apologize, and I will pretend this never happened. Go to my mommy, and I don't want her to worry," Joshua said.
"Okay."
Shawn raised his head and looked at the parents again. "Joshua pleaded for you, and I have reconsidered."
"Okay, let's do it. Anything is fine."
"Everyone apologizes to Joshua and is not allowed to slander their family again."
Shawn's voice was clear and stern. "Otherwise..."
They understood everything.
His aura was unparalleled!
Therefore, Joshua was a proud and victorious rooster, standing there with his head held high, accepting everyone's apologies.
The parents led their children and walked up to Joshua, and everyone said sincerely, "I'm sorry. This will never happen again. Please forgive me."
They could only leave after Joshua nodded.
He felt super cool!
"Thank you, Uncle!" After everyone left, Joshua happily held his hand and said, "You have helped me so much. I want to repay you!"

Fiona and the driver both laughed when they heard this.
What could he do to repay Shawn?
What could a little kid do to give it to him?
Shawn asked him seriously, "How do you repay me?"
"Please come to our house for dinner! My mommy cooks delicious food! Let's go!" Joshua said.
He led Shawn to the apartment.
Shawn squatted down and looked at Joshua. "No, Uncle is going home."
"Huh?"

Skeletons Of The Marital Closet by Wen Tang Tang

Chapter 620

Chapter 620

"Let's talk about it when we have a chance to meet again. How are your injuries?"

Shawn said.

Joshua was very bold and answered, "It's okay. It doesn't hurt!"

Shawn really liked Joshua.

However, he could not steal him and bring him home.

"Okay, Uncle is leaving first. Goodbye."

Joshua held his hand reluctantly.

This uncle was really kind. He supported him and cared about him, alas... it would be great if he was his father!

"Uncle, do you really not think about getting married again? Sleeping alone is so lonely and scary. After marrying, there will be two people. You can have a wife to warm the bed in winter and use your wife as a pillow in summer!" Joshua asked.

Fiona spat out, laughing.

"What are you laughing at? I want to grow up and marry a wife soon. I don't want to sleep alone," Joshua said seriously.

Shawn replied, "We'll talk about it when you grow up."

Fiona glanced at the time and said, "Mr. Wood. It's time to go to the airport."

Otherwise... we won't be able to leave today. This is the last flight back to Sea City today."

"Okay."

Joshua waved his hand. "Goodbye, Uncle!"

"See you again."

How many chances would there be to meet again?

Some people can say goodbye but never have the chance to meet again.

Shawn let go. "Go home. I'll watch you enter the apartment."

Joshua lifted the shoulder strap on his schoolbag and walked away with a spring in his step.

It was not until his small figure disappeared from sight that Shawn turned around.

and got into the car.

"Mr. Wood... you acted differently in front of Joshua." Fiona looked at him through the rearview mirror. "You didn't have this kind of patience with other children before."

"Fate."

Shawn also cannot understand.

It was an amazing feeling.

He would come to this town again.

Joshua returned home and looked around. "Mommy?"

Zoe came out of the kitchen and whispered, "Hush, she just fell asleep with Nicole, don't wake her up."

Nicole, who had taken medicine, was coaxed to sleep.

Zoe did not even dare to turn on the stove.

When a child is sick, the parents suffer the most.

Joshua nodded and gently put down his school bag. "Mrs. Zoe, is my sister still coughing?"

“Well, she vomited up all the medicine she drank today.”

“So serious?”

“Yeah, it feels like this time is strangely serious, and it’s really bad. Gd bless you all. I will go to the church to pray,” Zoe said.

Joshua asked, “Does being sick cost a lot of money?”

Mrs. Zoe replied while washing the vegetables, “Today, the consultant fee alone is more than a hundred dollars, and there are also medicine fees. Tomorrow, I have to go to the hospital to get the results and see why she is sick.”

Then, Zoe glanced at the time and added, “By the way, why did you come back so late?”

“Oh... I played outside for a while. Mrs. Zoe, I’m going to do my homework!”

Joshua hurriedly slipped away.

When Gale woke up late, it was already dark.

She reached out and touched Nicole’s forehead. Fortunately, it was not hot.

She breathed a sigh of relief, got up gently, and walked out of the room.

“Has Joshua come back? Where is he?” she asked Zoe.

“Doing his homework in the room. Gale, the food will be ready soon. You can get him ready for dinner.”

“Okay.”

Gale was still a little tired and dazed. Just as he was about to open the door of the children’s room, Joshua opened it first.

